22nd May 2020

Commissioner Ian McGrail OTM MSc
Royal Gibraltar Police
New Mole House

Dear Commissioner McGrail,

Our meeting earlier this morning refers.

In view of the grave concerns expressed by both the Governor and the Chief Minister, in respect of certain aspects of policing that have led to a serious and regrettable loss of confidence in you as Commissioner, the Authority feels that it is left with no option but to exercise the powers afforded to the Authority under Section 34 (1) of the Police Act.

Given the above, the Authority invites you to retire, in the interests of policing in Gibraltar.

Please note that Section 34 (2) states that you shall have an opportunity to make representations before the Authority and that these shall, of course, be fully taken into consideration to allow the Governor, the Chief Minister and the Authority to express a firm and final view.

Should you wish to avail yourself of this provision please make your submission within seven working days from the date of this letter. If you require more time, please indicate this in writing.

Yours,

GIBRALTAR POLICE AUTHORITY
(The Community in Policing)

22nd May 2020

Commissioner Ian McGrail OTM MSc
Royal Gibraltar Police
New Mole House

Dear Commissioner McGrail,

Invitation to Retire : Section 34 of the Police Act ('the Act')

Our meeting earlier this morning refers.

Today I expressed to you that the Gibraltar Police Authority was calling upon you to retire under the provisions of Section 34 of the Act.

I told you that the reason that the Authority was taking this step arose from the communication by the Governor and the Chief Minister to the Authority that BOTH had lost confidence in your ability to run policing in Gibraltar. The reasons which the Governor and the Chief Minister have provided the Authority for their loss of confidence are summarised in the paragraphs numbers 1 to 5 below and address the relevant factors set out in Section 34(1) of the Act.

Additionally, the Authority itself has agreed with the matters raised by the Governor and the Chief Minister and have taken the view that your position is untenable as Commissioner given that you have lost the confidence of BOTH the Governor and the Chief Minister.

Please find below the main issues contributing to the loss of confidence, as expressed to the Authority by the Governor and the Chief Minister.

1. Efficiency:

The Governor and the Chief Minister are very concerned about the findings of the HMICFRS Report ('the Report'). It is clear damning in respect of the efficiency of the RGP. A large number of the findings of the Report address 'inefficiency' directly and indirectly. Indeed, the "Overview" of the Report specifically provides a criticism (para 2, page 7) that the Force is not 'as effective or efficient as it could be'.

Unit 25B Casemates Square, Gibraltar
Tel: (+350) 20040918, E-mail: secretary@gpa.gi

In this respect, the position is clear as to responsibility. Under Section 33 of the Act, it is the Commissioner who is responsible for the efficient administration of the Force. That means that responsibility in respect of this failing rests legally, directly with you.

It was also pointed out to the Authority that in your application for the role of Commissioner you would, if successful, immediately set up a working group to ensure that the recommendations of the 2015/6 HMIC Report had been met by the 1st March 2019. This action point was considered by you to be necessary for the RGP to be a 'continuously progressing and professional police force.' Not only have the recommendations and action points set out in the 2015/6 reports not been complied with but now, in addition, new and more serious recommendations have had to be made by the HMICFRS in 2020.

Additionally, and equally importantly, the incident at sea in March, resulting in the death of two individuals, was pointed out as further evidence of the RGP acting inefficiently by seeking to act beyond its remit and jurisdiction. The Authority notes that the Chief Minister has written to you directly, under Section 15 of the Act (copied to me as Chairman of the Authority), seeking further information on this matter given that neither he or the Governor seem to have a full picture of what actually transpired. The incident has resulted not just in a diplomatic complaint filed against the United Kingdom and Gibraltar, but also to a vessel being out of action, questions as to standard operating procedures in place and all the other concerns contained in the letter sent to you by the Chief Minister. I do not need to repeat that here, but I would refer you to the paragraphs of that letter which specifically set out that the Chief Minister has no confidence in his having been provided with the information expeditiously about this very serious incident. Additionally, the Governor expressed the view that he feels he has been misled by you about this most serious incident which has resulted in loss of life.

2. Effectiveness:

The issues relating to effectiveness were linked by the Governor and the Chief Minister. Additionally, as a result of the above, the RGP found itself without the use of a vessel for some time and the RGP's effectiveness as sea was therefore severely impacted for some time. The effectiveness of the RGP will also now be seriously compromised given the increased legal workload which will arise as a direct result of the claims made and all the corollary effects that they will give rise to.

3. & 4. Probity & Integrity:

It was communicated to me that both the Governor and the Chief Minister felt that their dealings with you have left them with the sense that you are lacking in both probity and integrity – the maritime incident is one case in point. This is very serious indeed. I think you need to reflect carefully on this. The situation we are in is one where BOTH the Governor and the Chief Minister respectively have expressed this view. It is not one of them that has expressed this view, which would be bad enough, but BOTH of them.

Additionally, the Authority is informed that the Attorney General has also expressed the same feelings.

The seriousness of this cannot be underestimated. The Governor and the Chief Minister expressed to the Authority that they consider that the Rule of Law in Gibraltar is compromised by the fact that they lack confidence in your probity and integrity.

5. Independence:

This area of concern was also brought to the attention of the Authority by reference to the parts of the report that deal with the potential for corruption and, consequently, influence, which, given what is identified in the Report, seems not to be completely understood in the RGP. The Governor and the Chief Minister expressed the view that it is not possible for the RGP to claim that it is acts independently in any investigation or matter unless it has properly addressed this recommendation that has remained outstanding for the period of your service.

It is for those reasons that we are calling upon you to retire on the interests of efficiency, effectiveness, probity, integrity and the independence of policing in Gibraltar, but before doing so are giving you an opportunity, as provided for in Section 34(2) of the Act to make representations which we shall consider.

I trust that this serves to clarify matters further.

I look forward to receiving any representations you may wish to make under Section 34(2) of the Act.

Yours,

Dear Members of the Gibraltar Police Authority,

RE: Invitation to Retire: Section 34 of the Police Act

We write on behalf of our client, Ian McGrail, Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police, in response to the communications to him from the Chair of the Gibraltar Police Authority ('GPA') on 22nd May 2020 which set out the Chair's decision to exercise powers under section 34(1) of the Police Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act'), calling on him to retire and seeking any representations from him under section 34(2). The three communications in question were (1) at a meeting that morning, (2) in a letter ('the first letter') handed to him at the 22 May meeting, and (3) in a further letter, sent to him late that evening ('the second letter').

We thank the Gibraltar Police Authority ('GPA') for giving us the opportunity to make representations. We will explain below why the exercise of the s.34 power vested in the GPA would be wholly unjustified and grossly procedurally unfair. Moreover, there is an extremely troubling aspect to this, of which the Chair is fully aware, and which concerns the rule of law in Gibraltar, and which touches on the fundamental principle of the freedom of the Royal Gibraltar Police ('RGP') to carry out criminal enquiries without interference from politicians or the Attorney General.

At the outset, we wish to impress on the members of the GPA your solemn duties under the Constitution and the 2006 Act. The GPA is one of the few bodies created under the Constitution. The Constitution requires the GPA to "be independent in the exercise of its functions". These functions include, under the 2006 Act, that you must "ensure high standards of integrity, probity and independence of policing in Gibraltar". You must also, because you are a constitutional body, act in conformity with the Charter of the United Nations and any other applicable international treaties including the European Convention on Human Rights. It should therefore be self-evident that the GPA plays an essential role in protecting the separation of powers between the executive and police, the rule of law and the rights of the citizens of Gibraltar.

It is in this light that you must make the decision whether to call on Mr. McGrail to retire – a decision which (because of section 34(3)) means he "shall" retire. You will therefore not just be making a request but giving him an instruction to prematurely end his distinguished 36-year policing career, and you will be removing from office the principal law enforcement officer of the Crown in Gibraltar. In order to fulfil your constitutional duties, you must make the decision independently from the Governor and Chief Minister. You must not be directed by them. That would be quite wrong, and in violation of your obligations under the 2006 Act and the Constitution.

As set out below, we are deeply concerned by the approach of the Chair in the meeting he had with Mr. McGrail on 22 May. The Chair told Mr. McGrail that if he refused to comply with the invitation to retire then the Governor would use his powers under s.13(f) of the 2006 Act to call for his resignation. The decision was presented to Mr. McGrail as a fait accompli. The Chair said in effect that it did not matter how he responded – the result would be the end of his career either because he would be forced to retire in accordance with your request or would be called to resign by the Governor using his power under s.13(f). This is not how your power under s.34 works. It only applies if the GPA considers it is "in the interests of efficiency, effectiveness, probity, integrity, or independence of policing" to request that the Commissioner retire, following consideration of any representations made by him. If you do not properly consider these representations and do not make an independent decision you will be acting unlawfully and your decision will be vulnerable to a judicial review challenge.

The damage to Gibraltar as a jurisdiction which claims to adhere to the Rule of Law would be incalculable. As people of standing in our community it will be immediately obvious to you already that the removal of the Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police in the way in which the GPA is being pushed to do is a travesty which will bring shame to Gibraltar and international derision when we are always trying to prove our democratic, non-colonial attributes in every international forum up to the United Nations Special Committee on Decolonization.

The background and motivations which we will proceed to explain (subject to the sensitivities of what is ultimately an ongoing very serious criminal investigation) uncover an abuse of power which is possibly unprecedented in Gibraltar.

The approach the Chair has taken thus far has been for the reasons explained below clearly unlawful. This could potentially be remedied by taking a fully independent decision now and concluding that Mr. McGrail should not be removed from office. This must be a decision of the full GPA, not the Chair alone, as the section 34 power vests in "the Authority". The GPA must also carefully consider whether any of its members has a conflict of interest which would exclude them from taking part in the decision-making process.

In light of the errors made to date, we respectfully suggest that you seek independent legal advice in order to assist you in making a lawful decision. We emphasise that it would be inappropriate to take advice from the Attorney General because he has already expressed a view on the substantive issues, as is clear from the second letter of 22nd May, and, moreover, he has played a key role in the issues we refer to in Section (d) below, as the Chair is already aware. We respectfully suggest that it may be prudent for you to take advice from lawyers in the United Kingdom given the multiplicity of local interests arising from this unfortunate case (as, indeed, Mr McGrail has done; he is represented by an expert counsel team from Gibraltar and London).

This letter is divided in to five sections:

(a) Preliminary Point – Recusal Issue;

(b) The legal framework;

(c) The invitation to retire;

(d) Fundamental Unfairness, Abuse of Process and Procedural Failings; and

(e) Response to the substantive issues raised by the GPA.

(a) Preliminary point – Recusal Issue

1. There are two preliminary matters concerning recusal.

2. First, Mr. Nick Pyle is currently named as the member of the GPA appointed by the Governor.[1] He has been the interim Governor since February 2020 and he has had personal involvement in the background to this matter, as we summarise in these submissions. He should play no part in decision-making of the Authority under section 34 in any event, given the distinct role of the Governor under that section. We ask for an assurance that the GPA Chair will ensure that Mr. Pyle is not involved in the GPA's decision-making under section 34.

3. Second, and related, we wish at the outset to raise an issue of very significant sensitivity and concern. It relates to a current police investigation. It would therefore be inappropriate to provide specific details of that investigation save as to the limited extent set out below (we address this further in section (d), as it is relevant to this invitation to retire). We know that the Chair is already aware of the background as it was discussed at his and Mr. McGrail's meeting on 22nd May, when he told Mr. McGrail it was discussed at the meeting when the Chief Minister and Governor said that they and the Attorney General had lost confidence in Mr. McGrail. You will understand that it would not be appropriate for Mr. McGrail to provide more detail of a live investigation. However, we can say that it relates to national security and involves an alleged criminal conspiracy which potentially reaches to the highest levels of the community.

4. This is a further reason why it is essential that the Chair provide reassurance to us that Mr. Pyle will not be involved in the GPA's decision-making under section 34. In addition, we suggest that it would be prudent for a further member of the GPA, Ms. Claire Pizzarello, to recuse herself from decision-making in this matter. We do not provide further details at this stage, and we trust that the Chair will agree that this would be a sensible course of action in the circumstances. (Should further information be required by the Chair, he should inform us of this.) We emphasise that there is no suggestion whatsoever of Ms. Pizzarello having any personal involvement in the matters in question, and this approach is suggested out of an abundance of caution.

(b) The legal framework

The Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006 ('The Constitution')

5. Chapter 1 of the Constitution protects fundamental rights and freedoms. The Preamble states that the people of Gibraltar's right to self-determination must be "promoted and respected in conformity with the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and any other applicable international treaties". The European Convention on Human Rights is an "applicable international treaty".

6. The Constitution protects, amongst other rights, the right to privacy (section ('s') 7) and the right to freedom of expression (s.10).

7. The Constitution provides that there shall be a Police Authority for Gibraltar which "shall be independent in the exercise of its functions" (s.48(1)).

8. The 2006 Act establishes the GPA (section 3(1)).

9. Part I sets out the responsibilities and powers of the GPA. s. 5 relevantly includes responsibilities: "to secure the maintenance of an efficient and effective police force for Gibraltar", "to ensure high standards of integrity, probity and independence of policing in Gibraltar", "to establish, operate and supervise the process for investigating complaints against police officers under this Act" and "to hold the Commissioner to account for matters which are the responsibility of the Authority.

10. Part II sets out the Governor's and the Government's responsibilities for policing. Section 13 provides for the Governor's powers "in default by the Authority", which are exercisable only where the Authority "has failed to discharge or perform a responsibility imposed on the Authority under this Act". The powers include "where in the opinion of the Governor the integrity, probity or independence of the police has been compromised or is at risk, to direct the Force to take appropriate action to remedy the situation or avoid the risk" and "to suspend from duty, or call for the resignation of the Commissioner".

11. Section 15(1) provides that the Chief Minister may exercise various powers on behalf of the Government, including (a) require factual or assessment reports from the Force or the Authority on any policing matter, provided that there may be withheld from any such report any fact disclosure of which is likely to prejudice the effective operation of the Force.

12. Part IV provides for the establishment of the Royal Gibraltar Police Force. Section 32(1) provides for the appointment of the Commissioner of Police by the Governor, acting on the advice of the Authority, subject to any provision of the Constitution; for such that the Authority may advise and as shall be set out in the instrument of appointment.

13. Section 33(1) provides that the Commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have command, superintendence, direction and control of the Force, and shall be responsible for the efficient administration and government of the Force and for the proper expenditure of all public moneys appropriated for the service. (section 33(2)).

14. Section 34 provides for the removal of the Commissioner by the GPA. It is set out in full below:

> "34.(1) The Authority acting after consultation with the Governor and the Chief Minister and with the agreement of either of them, may call upon the Commissioner to retire, in the interests of efficiency, effectiveness, probity, integrity, or independence of policing in Gibraltar.

(2) Before seeking the approval of the Governor and the Chief Minister under subsection (1), the Authority shall give the Commissioner an opportunity to make representations and shall consider any representations that he makes.

(3) Where the Commissioner is called upon to retire under subsection (1), he shall retire on such date as the Authority may specify or on such earlier date as may be agreed upon between him and the Authority."

Human rights

15. The European Convention on Human Rights protects the right to respect for private and family life under Article 8 and the right to freedom of expression under Article 10. Both rights can be interfered with by the state by certain situations but only where that interference is lawful, necessary and proportionate in pursuance of a legitimate aim.

16. The European Court of Human Rights and the Council of Europe (which oversees the European Court) have repeatedly emphasised that corruption threatens the rule of law. There have been a number of cases where sanctions imposed on whistleblowers have been found to breach Article 10 ECHR - in cases involving the dismissal of public servants this has sometimes been articulated as an attack on reputation protected by Article 8 ECHR. As you will see below, the law relating to whistleblowers is relevant.

17. In Guja v. Moldova (No. 1)[2] the Grand Chamber held unanimously that there had been a violation of Article 10 (freedom of expression). The applicant was Head of the Press Department of the Moldovan Prosecutor General's Office. The case concerned his dismissal for giving a newspaper two letters received by the Prosecutor General's Office which disclosed interference by a high-ranking politician in pending criminal proceedings.

The Court balanced the conflicting factors under Art.10 and concluded there had been a breach.

> [72] ... The Court thus considers that the signalling by a civil servant or an employee in the public sector of illegal conduct or wrongdoing in the workplace should, in certain circumstances, enjoy protection. This may be called for where the employee or civil servant concerned is the only person, or part of a small category of persons, aware of what is happening at work and is thus best placed to act in the public interest by alerting the employer or the public at large.

18. Article 8 ECHR includes the right to protection of reputation.[3] As stated in Axel Springer AG v. Germany[4], judgment (Grand Chamber) of 7 February 2012, paras. 83-84:

> "... [T]he right to protection of reputation is a right which is protected by Article 8 of the Convention as part of the right to respect for private life ... In order for Article 8 to come into play, however, an attack on a person's reputation must attain a certain level of seriousness and in a manner causing prejudice to personal enjoyment of the right to respect for private life ...

19. The Council of Europe's Criminal Law Convention on Corruption ('the Corruption Convention") of 27th January 1999 states[5] in its pre-amble that "corruption threatens the rule of law, democracy and human rights, undermines good governance, fairness and social justice, distorts competition, hinders economic development and endangers the stability of democratic institutions and the moral foundations of society".

[3] Denisov v. Ukraine [GC], paras. 111-112 and 115-117.
[5] https://www.coe.int/en/web/conventions/full-list/-/conventions/rms/0900001680071f5.

20. Each Party to the Corruption Convention shall adopt measures to ensure that persons or entities are specialised in the fight against corruption. They shall have the necessary independence in accordance with the fundamental principles of the legal system of the Party, in order for them to be able to carry out their functions effectively and free from any undue pressure.

21. The preamble to the Council of Europe Code of Police Ethics[6] states that "the criminal justice system plays a key role in safeguarding the rule of law and that the police have an essential role within that system". Paragraph 15 provides:

> The police shall enjoy sufficient operational independence from other state bodies in carrying out its given police tasks, for which it should be fully accountable.

22. Paragraph 34 states:

> Public authorities shall support police personnel who are subject to ill-founded accusations concerning their duties.

23. The Committee of Ministers' Recommendation on the protection of whistleblowers adopted on 30th April 2014 relevantly states in the preamble that "freedom of expression and the right to seek and receive information are fundamental for the functioning of a genuine democracy" and recognises that individuals who report or disclose information on threats or harm to the public interest, i.e. whistleblowers, can contribute to strengthening transparency and democratic accountability. Paragraph 21 states:

> Whistleblowers should be protected against retaliation of any form, whether directly or indirectly, by their employer and by persons working for or acting on behalf of the employer. Forms of such retaliation might include dismissal, suspension, demotion, loss of promotion opportunities, punitive transfers and reductions in or deductions of wages, harassment or other punitive or discriminatory treatment.

24. Protection from retaliation is clearly a matter of fundamental importance particularly when the potential victim is none other than the principal law enforcement officer of the Crown in Gibraltar.

(c) The invitation to retire

25. On the morning of 22nd May 2020 Mr. McGrail met with the GPA Chair, when the Chair invited him to retire pursuant to s.34(1) of the 2006 Act.

26. The Chair told Mr. McGrail that he had met with the Governor and the Chief Minister on Monday 18th May and they had told him they had lost confidence in Mr. McGrail. He said that he had taken notes of the meeting. It began with the Governor and Chief Minister taking him through the various options under the Police Act and focussing on section 13 (the power of the Governor to suspend from duty or call for the resignation of the Commissioner where the GPA has failed to discharge its duties) and section 34 (the GPA's power to remove the Commissioner from post).

27. The Chair made it very clear that he did not make this decision himself and that in his view the decision was entirely for the Governor and the Chief Minister to make. Although he said Mr. McGrail could make representations, it was made clear to him that if he does not take the offer of retirement then the Governor will trigger his power under s.13 to call for his resignation. It is in effect, an 'offer he can't refuse' – or, to put it another way, it is the equivalent, for an office-holder, of constructive dismissal.

28. It was also made clear to Mr. McGrail that the issue of his handling of the investigation referred to above was an important factor in the decision making by the Governor and Chief Minister. He said that the AG had all lost confidence in him because he had "lied" about the particular operation – which he strenuously denied.

29. At the time of the meeting none of the alleged issues with Mr. McGrail's conduct had been put in writing. When Mr. McGrail highlighted that this was unfair, the Chair offered to provide him with his notes of the 18th May meeting. Mr. McGrail asked for the reasons to be put in writing so he could properly respond.

30. At the meeting, Mr. McGrail was handed a letter containing a formal notification of the exercise of the s. 34(1) power ('the first letter'). This was a short letter which provided no detail save for referring to "grave concerns expressed by both the Governor and the Chief Minister, in respect of certain aspects of policing that have led to a serious and regrettable loss of confidence in you". It was clear from the letter that a decision had already been reached to invite Mr. McGrail to retire ("Given the above, the Authority invites you to retire"), however, confusingly, the letter also invited representations pursuant to s.34(2) which "shall, of course, be fully taken into consideration to allow the Governor, the Chief Minister and the Authority to express a firm and final view". Mr. McGrail was given 7 days to respond to the initial letter (i.e. by today, 29th May – a period which included a long weekend) and invited to seek more time if required.

31. Mr. McGrail received a second letter late on Friday night, 22nd May, which provided more detail, relevantly stating:

    a. "the reason that the Authority was taking this step arose from the communication by the Governor and the Chief Minister to the Authority that BOTH had lost confidence in your ability to run policing in Gibraltar."

    b. "Additionally, the Authority itself has agreed with the matters raised by the Governor and the Chief

    c. Five "main issues" (in reality, these are four issues as two run together) were set out "contributing to the loss of confidence", including:

i. Efficiency: "The Governor and the Chief Minister are very concerned about the findings of the HMICFRS Report ('the Report'). It is clear (sic) damning in respect of the efficiency of the RGP...."

ii. "Additionally, and equally importantly, the incident at sea in March, resulting in the death of two individuals, was pointed out as further evidence of the RGP acting inefficiently by seeking to act beyond its remit and jurisdiction."

iii. "I would refer you to the paragraphs of that letter which specifically set out that the Chief Minister has no confidence in his having been provided with the information expeditiously about this very serious incident... [he has] expressed the view that he feels he has been misled by you..."

iv. Effectiveness: that the RGP found itself without the use of a vessel for some time and will now be "seriously compromised given the increased legal workload".

v. Probity and integrity "It was communicated to me that both the Governor and the Chief Minister felt that their dealings with you have left them with the sense that you are lacking in both probity and integrity -- the maritime incident is one case in point...

vi. "additionally, the Authority is informed that the Attorney General has also expressed the same feelings"

vii. "The seriousness of this cannot be underestimated. The Governor and the Chief Minister expressed to the Authority that they consider that the Rule of Law in Gibraltar is compromised by the fact that they lack confidence in your probity and integrity." viii. Independence: "This area of concern was also brought to the attention of the Authority by reference to the parts of the report that deal with the potential for corruption and, consequently, influence, which, given what is identified in the Report, seems not to be completely understood in the RGP. The Governor and the Chief Minister expressed the view that it is not possible for the RGP to claim that it is acts independently in any investigation or matter unless it has properly addressed this recommendation that has remained outstanding for the period of your service."

(d) Fundamental Unfairness, Abuse of Process and Procedural Flaws

32. This process has been tainted from the outset by conspicuous unfairness, and it is grossly procedurally unfair. These flaws fall into the category described by Lord Bridge in Calvin v. Carr [1979] UKPC 1, [1979] 2 All ER 440: "when the defect is so flagrant, the consequences so severe, that the most perfect of appeals or rehearings will not be sufficient to produce a just result." The approach adopted here amounts to an attack on the Constitution, the rule of law and human rights principles, and it subverts the principle of separation of powers in a number of respects.

i. The Vanishing Reason for the Invitation to Retire

33. First, we indicated at the outset of this letter, when addressing the preliminary matter of recusal, that there is a sensitive matter concerning an ongoing criminal investigation, the detail of which Mr. McGrail does not address herein. The relevance of this issue to the invitation to retire is as follows. This matter was discussed in the 22nd May meeting as forming part of the reasoning behind the Chief Minister and the Governor informing the GPA Chair that he should invite Mr. McGrail to retire. Indeed, Mr. McGrail indicated at that meeting that he understood it to be the real and central reason for the request. However, this reason is, oddly, not cited in the second, detailed letter of 22nd May. Instead, that letter refers expressly only to two other matters – the incident at sea in March 2020 and the inspection report following the inspection in October 2019.

34. The two matters which are mentioned have been known to the Chief Minister, Governor and Attorney General ('AG') for months. As is explained below, Mr. McGrail has kept them fully informed in respect of both issues. The important point is that in respect of both issues, at all stages Mr. McGrail has received no criticism at all about his approach. The incident at sea is being investigated independently by the Metropolitan Police, at Mr. McGrail's request, and that report is yet to be received. Mr. McGrail has met regularly with the AG to discuss strategy towards this serious incident – the AG has been nothing but supportive. Equally, when the inspection report came out, Mr. McGrail received no public or even private criticism from authority figures at all – until the 22nd May invitation to retire.

35. By contrast, in recent months, and particularly the past fortnight, Mr. McGrail has received very significant and at times intemperate private criticism from the Chief Minister and Attorney General about a separate matter, namely how the criminal investigation we refer to above has been handled. For many months the AG has been trying (unsuccessfully, we might add) to persuade Mr. McGrail to change his and the RGP's approach to the investigation which would either lead to it being dropped entirely or certain suspects not being prosecuted. Mr. McGrail has rebuffed these attempts and has treated this investigation as he would any other – characteristic of his probity and professionalism. The operational decisions in respect of this investigation have, in any event, been taken by individual officers below Mr. McGrail's rank, acting professionally and appropriately.

36. On 12th May, out of courtesy, Mr. McGrail notified the Chief Minister, the AG and the Minister of Justice of a certain operational action which was taken by the RGP in the case. Both the Chief Minister and AG immediately messaged him to say, in no uncertain terms, that they disapproved of the action. He was immediately called into a meeting with the Chief Minister and the AG. He was very severely criticised for the action that had been taken. The Chief Minister told him that, in his view, Mr. McGrail had handled the investigation "very very wrongly". He was told by the AG that he had to this point approved of his work but from that day he could not "entertain" Mr. McGrail again. The emotional response from both the Chief Minister and the AG is startling.

37. This was followed by two subsequent meetings with the AG and Director of Public Prosecutions (on 13th and 15th May respectively) where pressure was put on Mr. McGrail by the AG to change the RGP's investigative approach to the operation and he was given the strong impression that the AG was primarily concerned with protecting the Chief Minister and "Gibraltar PLC" (the AG's words).

38. It is grossly inappropriate in a jurisdiction under the Rule of Law for politicians to interfere with any live criminal investigation in this way. It tramples over the separation of powers which is an integral feature of our Constitution. However, in this case the Chief Minister has a personal connection to the outcome of the investigation, which makes his intervention even more inappropriate. Not only should he not attempt to influence the investigation, he should completely recuse himself for any decisions or conversations which touch upon it.

39. The reason it is relevant to your decision is that we submit to you that the timing of the use of the s.34 process, which was triggered by the Chief Minister and the Governor and, we understand, came as a complete surprise to the GPA Chair, strongly suggests that the incident at sea and inspection report are fig leaves for the real reason Mr. McGrail is being pressured to retire, i.e. his (proper and reasonable) handling of a live criminal investigation.

40. It is unnecessary for us merely to rely on an inference raised by the timing of the s.34 letter to make this point. The GPA Chair confirmed to Mr. McGrail at their meeting on 22nd May that his handling of the criminal investigation referred to above was spoken about at the Chair's meeting with the Chief Minister and Governor and was one of the reasons they had "lost confidence" in Mr. McGrail. The Chair told Mr. McGrail he took a note of his meeting with the Chief Minister and Governor, which we assume he can provide to you for your consideration. It is wholly unclear why this matter is then omitted from the letters sent to Mr. McGrail on 22nd May – although a simple explanation is that it was obvious to those writing the letters that if it were included it would invalidate the entire process. This is a clear breach of the requirements of fairness in itself – this was a factor cited in the meeting on 22nd May, at which no written documents were given to Mr. McGrail, yet the letters omit this material factor.

41. Further, we note that a factor which is cited in the Chair's 22nd May second letter is the Attorney General being said to have "lost confidence" in Mr. McGrail, for an unspecified reason: "Additionally, the Authority is informed that the Attorney General has also expressed the same feelings". The Chair made clear to Mr. McGrail at the 22nd May meeting that this was entirely because of the criminal investigation matter referred to above and it reflects the comments made to Mr. McGrail by him directly at the meeting on 12th May. In reality, it is clear that this incident is at the heart of this request under section 34, despite it not appearing in the second letter.

42. We note that in the Chair's second letter it is stated "the Governor and the Chief Minister ... consider that the Rule of Law in Gibraltar is compromised". Unfortunately, we agree with that statement, and that statement alone, but for significantly different reasons. If the GPA decides to exercise its s.34 power, in the full knowledge that background involves the Chief Minister and AG seeking to interfere with a live criminal investigation, this would indeed be an affront to the rule of law and a breach of your duties under the Constitution. This would be a gross violation of the rule of law, and not the actions of an independent body in a mature democracy.

ii. Independence

43. There are further serious procedural failings. It was made clear to Mr. McGrail at the meeting on 22nd May 2020 that the Chair was proceeding on the basis that this is a decision for the Chief Minister and the Governor, and he has taken his lead from them. This is also clear from the first letter, which followed the meeting. This is a fundamental misunderstanding of the statutory scheme: the section 34 decision is for the Authority. It also disregards the vital importance of the independence of the Authority, enshrined in the Constitution, s. 48(1).

iii. A Settled Decision

44. The process followed on 22nd May is not compliant with section 34. The statute makes clear that submissions must be sought under section 34(2) before the section 34(1) process is followed. The Commissioner is entitled to be given an opportunity to make representations, and for them to be considered. For this to be a meaningful opportunity, the Authority must not have a closed mind. In this instance, however, the Authority Chair has called upon the Commissioner to retire (under section 34(1)), indicating that this decision has been reached already: "the Authority feels that it is left with no option but to exercise the powers afforded to the Authority under section 34(1)..." The wording used is unambiguous. This was clear at the meeting on 22nd May, and it is expressly set out in the first letter of that date.

45. The first letter is instructive. At this meeting, Mr. McGrail was handed this short letter, containing a formal notification of the exercise of the s.34(1) power. This was very brief and provided no detail save for referring to "grave concerns expressed by both the Governor and the Chief Minister, in respect of certain aspects of policing that have led to a serious and regrettable loss of confidence in you". It was clear from the letter that a decision had already been reached to invite Mr. McGrail to retire based on the Governor and the Chief Minister's views ("Given the above, the Authority invites you to retire"); however, confusingly, the letter also invited representations pursuant to section 34(2) which "shall, of course, be fully taken into consideration to allow the Governor, the Chief Minister and the Authority to express a firm and final view". This language, promising to take the submissions into consideration, cannot be squared with the fact that definitive language making clear that the Authority has already set out an invitation to retire under section 34(1).

46. This not only raises concerns under section 34. It also results in a process which is not compliant with the concept of natural justice. Mr. McGrail cannot be penalised by a decision which would have such a devastating impact upon him without him being given prior notice of the case he has to answer, and a fair opportunity to answer it. This has not been the case here.

iv. The Relevance of Section 13

47. At the meeting of 22nd May, the Chair informed Mr. McGrail that this was not a decision for him, but a decision for the Chief Minister and the Governor, and that if he did not invite Mr. McGrail to retire under section 34 then the Governor would exercise his power under s. 13. The Chair made clear that this had informed the decision to trigger section 34. However, this is an extraordinary situation, raising very serious concerns, and it taints the section 34 decision. The entire point of section 13 is that it only applies when Authority is in default; it is not a mechanism for the Governor to simply use when he disagrees with the Authority, or when he disagrees with an action by the Police Commissioner, and nor is it a power which should be pre-emptively threatened in order to lean on the Authority to trigger section 34.

(e) Response to the issues raised in the letter

48. We have addressed above why we believe that this attempt to remove Mr. McGrail from post is a pretence which would not have occurred but for the Chief Minister and AG's criticism of his handling of a particular live investigation. However, it is of course important and necessary to respond directly to the two issues which are directly mentioned in the 22 May letter. We should emphasise that our client takes both the incident at sea and the inspection report extremely seriously, as can be seen by his immediate and continuing actions in response to them, however we do not accept, even arguably, that either issue could be the basis of the use of the section 34 power to remove Mr. McGrail from his post in the interests of "efficiency, effectiveness, probity, integrity, or independence of policing in Gibraltar".

Mr. McGrail's career to date

49. Before addressing the substantive issues, we want to give you some background about Mr. McGrail's career as a police officer. This is so that in considering the issues, you can do so in the context of his record, which can only be described as exemplary. Mr. McGrail has had a long, unblemished and distinguished career in the RGP for 36 years, having joined in 1984. In the first decade of his career he served in front-line policing, and following the "fast launch" public disturbances in the mid-1990s he had particular responsibility for uplifting RGP's capacity and capability in order and personal safety.

50. In 2006, he became the youngest and most junior inspector at the time to be promoted to Chief Inspector. From 2012 he was a Superintendent. In 2015 he was included in the Queen's Birthday State Honours list and was awarded the Overseas Territories Police

Medal for meritorious service. He has been awarded the Queen's Golden and Diamond Jubilee medals and the long service and good conduct medal with first and second clasps. And, as you know his record is exemplary. Mr. McGrail has numerous letters of appreciation throughout his career and been commended five times, including once by the Director of the United States Naval Criminal Investigation Service and on another by the Chief Justice of Gibraltar. All the commendations have been for meritorious investigative work leading to prosecutions. He has throughout his career sought to develop personally and professionally and attended the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy Programme for 3 months in Quantico, Virginia 2007 , is a Master of Science in Policing and Public Order with the University of Leicester and in 2013 attended the Strategic Command Course with the UK's College of Policing.

51. What has distinguished Mr McGrail is his dedication to service and ability to innovate and develop new ideas and working practices. In 1995 following the most severe riots in the last twenty years in Gibraltar, Mr McGrail was one of two officers tasked with reviewing and developing the RGP's response to public order situations. He went on to qualify as a public order instructor and also as a public order commander. He created and developed an RGP public order unit, commenced a training and development programme, which continues in the form he devised to this day.

52. His flair for innovation and openness to new working practices saw him create the Corporate Development department. Corporate development being a non-existent concept in the RGP at the time. Mr McGrail was instrumental in creating / drafting policies and guidelines in areas where they were required. In addition, he helped put procedures in place to improve the processes around the detention and custody of persons in police detention.

53. On 1st May 2018, Mr. McGrail was appointed as Commissioner of the RGP for a four-year term of warrant, on the advice of the GPA. In his letter of appointment, it was requested that the GPA conduct a review process against the objectives set out in the vision statement and action plan he provided to the Governor. This was supposed to take place two years into his term, which means it should be taking place now. In his letter, the Governor at the time, His Excellency General Edward Davis, said he looked forward to working closely with Mr. McGrail "as we all do our utmost to protect, progress and promote the Rule of Law in Gibraltar".

54. Since he took up the post of Commissioner, one of the first things he did was present to the Gibraltar Police Authority all the force policies for the Authority to ratify as required in law, something which had not been done previously. This is characteristic of his qualities of openness, transparency and accountability.

55. More recently he has been instrumental in the development of the Force Intelligence Unit, taking it from being a unit of limited capability to professional and proactive unit properly servicing the organisation. Mr McGrail's networking skills have enabled him to draw upon contacts in the U.S., Spain and the U.K. to enhance the RGP's intelligence exchange and law enforcement co-operation mechanisms with all these territories. Very significant cross border operations have been carried under his leadership attracting extensive positive media coverage. These efforts have also been recognised by the Governor, the Chief Minister and Attorney General as it no doubt aids the building of relationships with the Kingdom of Spain in the post-Brexit era. Mr. McGrail is part of the Gibraltar law enforcement delegation to work on delivering the Brexit MOU on law enforcement co-operation with Spain. All these mentioned points have brought improvements to the quality of service delivered by the RGP.

56. In the organisational context Mr. McGrail has pushed for procedural and policy advancements. The RGP's total complement of officers results in officers such as Mr. McGrail having to embark on the tasks described on their own, without the benefit of a supporting team as would be the case in a UK mainland force. Further complicating the task is the distance between the RGP and mainland forces makes it impractical to regularly meet and consult colleagues engaged in similar projects to share experience and knowledge.

57. The year 2019 saw unprecedented levels of demand imposed on the RGP including a total of 85 major events, which included 13 Assemblies/demonstrations, 10 international football matches (including a top 3 with the most ultra-fan base in Europe, who were at the matches in numbers), European Elections, General Elections, Small Island Games that run for a full week, Grace 1 (the first time a vessel had been boarded for contravening EU sanctions), eight large scale music events, major social events such National Day, New Year's Eve Celebrations, the Festival of lights and 14 Public Military Events. Mr McGrail oversaw the planning and execution of all of these events all of which met with the operational aims and objectives. Public security and safety was successfully upheld.

58. He has also been responsible for, in just two years in post:

a. Adopting the UK Home Office counting rules for the recording of crime. The RGP's previous methods had been subject of criticism by HMIC for presenting overly favourable detection rates.;

b. Project Servator which is a community orientated counter-terrorism initiative;

c. Restructuring of the force to release police officers to core policing duties;

d. Restructuring and uplifting of the Economic Crime Unit ('ECU'), to incorporate a fraud and Anti Money Laundering Unit;

e. The creation of the RGP's first ever Wellbeing Strategy 2019-2022;

f. The creation of 16 Wellbeing Champions, spread throughout the force;

g. The creation of a bespoke Mental Health referral procedure with Ocean Views medical facility for all police officers and support staff. No other HMGOG department has this system in place;

h. Significant strides with PSN connectivity – this is connectivity with the UK police service;

i. Partnership building and resources obtained through National Police Co-ordination Centre for Brexit contingency planning, Small Island Games & International football matches;

j. COVID-19 policing – which has seen restrictions in freedom of movement as never seen before in modern history.

59. Additionally, under Mr McGrail's leadership, the RGP has developed and implemented the following new policies and reviewed a further number of them. All of these have met the approval of the GPA:

a. 2018: Response Team Leader Policy (new), Gifts and Hospitality Policy (new), Alcohol and Substance Abuse Policy (new), Taser Policy (New)

b. 2019: Transfer Policy (Reviewed & Amended); Management of Exhibits (Reviewed & Amended); Domestic Violence (Reviewed & Amended); Travel Policy (Reviewed & Amended); Mobile Device Policy (New).

c. 2020: Caution policy (Reviewed & Amended), Travel Policy (Reviewed & Amended); Bullying Policy (New); Grievance policy and Procedure (New); Compromised Persons Policy (New); Mental Wellbeing Policy – New (No police service in the UK has this).

60. During Mr. McGrail's tenure, there has been an 8.3% reduction in crime, a 33% reduction in repeat victimisation, a 33% reduction in repeat offending and a 54% detection rate. These statistics are enviable to any UK police service. Additionally, during his tenure, a good level of public satisfaction has been maintained and in certain areas improved, according to your own public consultation surveys. He has, most recently, appeared on live television delivering public information bulletins for COVID-19 crisis on four occasions: on 9th April with the Deputy Chief Minister, on 21st April with the Deputy Chief Minister, on 3rd May and Minister of Justice and on the 10th May with the Minister of Justice again. If the Government or Chief Minister had lost confidence in his abilities you might reasonably ask why he was allowed to give these important briefings to the whole of Gibraltar.

61. Further, and for the sake of completeness, we remind you of Mr. McGrail's success in promoting international law enforcement cooperation, in an area which has been fraught with difficulties in the past, has been recognised by both the Spanish National Police and the Guardia Civil who have nominated Mr. McGrail for the "La Cruz de la Orden del Mérito Policial con distinctivo Blanco" and "La Orden del Mérito de la Guardia Civil con distinctivo" medals respectively. This is of course unprecedented and underscores the high esteem with which Mr. McGrail is held by his international colleagues in Spain.

The incident at sea

62. On 8th March 2020 at around 03:38 an incident occurred involving a collision at sea between an RGP patrol craft and a smuggling vessel. Two people on the smuggling vessel, Dris Mohamed and Abdeselam Ahmed, reportedly both Spanish nationals, died in the incident and two were injured. The incident occurred outside of British Gibraltar Territorial Waters ('BGTW').

63. The March 2020 incident is raised by the 22 May letters in two ways: in itself ("the incident at sea in March, resulting in the death of two individuals, was pointed out as further evidence of the RGP acting inefficiently by seeking to act beyond its remit and jurisdiction"); and in respect of communication (the Governor "expressed the view that he feels he has been misled by you" and raises concerns that he has "no confidence in his having been provided with the information expeditiously about this very serious incident... ").

64. As regards the unfortunate incident itself, there is no explanation as to why it is suggested that the actions of individual officers reflect on Mr. McGrail or are indicative of a systemic pattern of acting beyond the remit and jurisdiction of the RGP. There is no particularity at all, meaning it is impossible to respond in any detail save to say that at Mr. McGrail responded to the incident with his usual integrity and transparency. It is simply bizarre to claim that the Governor and Chief Minister have lost confidence in Mr. McGrail because they blame him for the incident itself when (a) at the time of the meeting with the Chair and the 22 May letters the Chief Minister had requested, but had not received, a response to the detailed request for information which was sent to him on 21 May this was the first such request Mr. McGrail has received, and (b) at that time they had not received (and still have not received) the independent report which is being carried out by the Metropolitan Police and was commissioned within days by Mr. McGrail himself or the conclusive report of the independent marine accident expert.

65. A further example is given relating to the RGP being without the use of a vessel, and thus being, "seriously compromised given the increased legal workload". Again, there is no indication as to why this would justify the exceptional step of inviting the Commissioner to retire, and, indeed, this would not address the issue regarding the vessel. In any event, the proposition that the effectiveness of the marine section has been compromised is nonsense. The RGP's Marine Section has resilience. It has other vessels and the fact that one of them has been out of service because of the collision has not hampered capabilities.

66. In any event, it is for the GPA to reach an independent decision in respect of this issue. We submit that it would be highly unfair and contrary to the principles of natural justice for the GPA to pre-emptively blame Mr McGrail for this incident, prior to a detailed consideration of the independent report from the Metropolitan Police. However, and in any event, the fact that the alleged 'loss of confidence' it is so obviously premature and pre-emptive further proves the point we make above that the real motives behind the action by the Governor and Chief Minister are not this incident. Rather, this incident is serving as a pretext, although on any analysis not a convincing one.

67. As regards communication, we understand that the Section 15 reply (sent shortly before these submissions) comprehensively debunks the suggestion that there was inadequate communication. Mr. McGrail messaged the Governor, the Chief Minister and Attorney General within two hours of the emergency response group being convened and kept them fully informed throughout, promptly responding to all requests for information. He subsequently met with the Attorney General on 17th March to develop a working strategy to deal with the consequences of the incident, which the AG agreed to. He further briefed the AG on 18 March on the progress of the Metropolitan Police investigation. The Metropolitan Police team was also in direct contact with the Governor. On 22nd March Mr. McGrail again met with the Attorney General and DPP to discuss the potential civil legal action arising from the incident. The AG did not want to consider further strategy until the Metropolitan Police's report findings had been received. This has still not been received despite many requests to expedite it the Covid 19 Crisis in the UK has taken its toll on policing as in many other areas of business. A marine investigator's report has also been commissioned and is currently being finalised. The simple point here is that it is premature to reach any conclusions in relation to this incident and it would be highly unfair to dismiss Mr. McGrail on the basis of a wholly unparticularised and vague accusation such as this.

68. In relation to the suggestion that Mr. McGrail has misled the Governor, this is not particularised; it is a vague slur, without explanation. We do not know what it refers to. If it relates to the incident taking place in Spanish waters, it is not possible to follow the rationale. In any event, the Governor was promptly and fully briefed by Mr McGrail on that issue and Mr. McGrail understands that the Metropolitan Police team, who were conducting an independent investigation, also briefed the Governor's office.

69. A further slur is included in relation to Mr. McGrail's "probity and integrity," phrased in a hopelessly vague way, without specificity: "It was communicated to me that both the Governor and the Chief Minister felt that their dealings with you have left them with the sense that you are lacking in both probity and integrity – the maritime incident is one case in point..." Reference is made to the Attorney General, but as we have submitted above this could only refer to the criminal investigation, as the Chair also informed Mr. McGrail.

The HMICFRS Report

70. The claim that confidence in Mr. McGrail's ability to do his job has been lost to a lack of efficiency on the part of the RGP, based on the findings of the HMICFRS, does not stack up. As can be seen from the above, Mr. McGrail has a long and distinguished career. His term as Commissioner has been busy and successful. It is simply absurd to accuse him of failing to take proactive steps to address systemic issues which were identified in the 2016 report, two years before he commenced in office.

71. As regards efficiency, the inspection report is clear that there are long-standing problems, which were identified in the previous (2016) inspection report, have not been fully addressed by the time of the October 2019 inspection. Mr. McGrail had by that time only been in post for a little over a year, and it is simply not credible to suggest that these flaws can and should be laid at his door. Further, during his short period in office prior to the inspection he had to address the July 2019 arrest and investigation of the Iranian Oil Tanker "Grace 1" which was an extraordinary incident, managed by the RGP and supported by the Royal Marines, and which attracted widespread acclaim (see the brief reference at p. 13 of the report).

72. In addition, the report makes clear in respect of efficiency that the RGP is in need of additional resources, from the Government/ FCO.

73. Insofar as it is suggested that Mr. McGrail did not set up a working group, his response is that as a result of the unprecedented demand placed on the RGP during 2019, the RGP has been addressing the issues raised in the Report by merging them in daily work practices. This can be seen by the initiatives referred to above and the results achieved. In addition, as you know Mr. McGrail has provided the Authority and the Minister of Justice with a comprehensive road map for implementing the 2020 report. These have both been agreed to be the proper procedure and no concerns have been raised. Indeed, some of the recommendations in the Report have since been met and the others are in progress. It would simply be irrational to conclude that this approach would justify forcing him to take early retirement.

74. It is of note that the 22nd May letter was the first Mr. McGrail has heard that either the Chief Minister or Governor – or indeed any member of the Government – lays blame for any of the issues identified in the report with him. None of the conversations he has had around the report have reflected the 22nd May letter which again raises the strong inference that this issue is being used as a pretence to mask the real reason for attempting to remove Mr. McGrail. For example, the Minister for Justice, Samantha Sacramento MP, messaged him on 29 April to say the report "is shocking reading on the face of it, but if you analyse it deeper it's not that bad, and it's has easy solutions" and "it can all be fixed don't worry". This message reflected the tone and content of the communications around the report. There have also been a number of very recent articles in the press which highlight the exceptional nature of the RGP given the unusually wide range of issues it has to deal with – from drug smuggling and international fraud to world diplomatic incidents involving maritime vessels – and the potential unfairness of applying the same standards as apply to other forces to such an unusual jurisdiction.

75. In addition, we note that an article in the Gibraltar Chronicle of the 28th May 2020 by an independent journalist, Mr. James Neish, who is intimately aware of the work of the RGP, suggests that the Report may have unfairly minimised the unique demands made of the RGP and which it responds to successfully for the most part. The article is titled "It's always easier to judge from a distance".

76. As stated above, the GPA must reach an independent conclusion in respect of this issue. It has not carried out the 2-year performance review requested by the Governor at the time of Mr. McGrail's appointment. We submit that there is a complete lack of evidence of Mr. McGrail's culpability for any of the issues highlighted by the inspection report. He has, in any event, taken extensive steps to improve and modernise the RGP. It would therefore be grossly unfair to conclude that, having been in post just over a year before the inspection,

Mr. McGrail is sufficiently blameworthy for the conclusions of the inspection report such that he should be forced to retire "in the interests of efficiency, effectiveness, probity, integrity, or independence of policing in Gibraltar". However, and in any event, in order to reach such a conclusion it would be necessary for the GPA to carry out a full and fair review into Mr. McGrail's record during his time in post.

Conclusion

77. For the reasons stated above there is no possible, valid reason for the GPA to exercise its s.34 power to remove Mr. McGrail from office. The only rational decision for the GPA to reach is to dismiss the request of the Governor and Chief Minister. In any event, the defects in this process are already so flagrant that it would not be possible to reach a just result unless it is to allow Mr. McGrail to remain in post.

Dear Sirs

Re: Invitation to Retire: Section 34 of the Police Act

We are instructed by the Gibraltar Police Authority to reply to your letter of 29th May, 2020.

Our Client acknowledges that certain procedural errors have been made and is accordingly withdrawing the current process initiated under section 34 of the Police Act. However, the complaints made against your Client by the Governor and Chief Minister remain live and our Clients will consider how it will proceed in respect of them.

We will not address the substantive points raised in your letter save to state that we are instructed to dispute what your Client alleges was said to him by the Authority's Chairman about the ongoing police investigation Our Client maintains that it is your Client who repeatedly raised this matter and that other than what he had been told by your Client, the Chairman's knowledge of this matter was confined to the allegation that your Client had lied to the Chief Minister and the Attorney General.

Yours faithfully

Nicholas Gomez

Importance: High

Dear Sir,

We refer to your letter of today's date received after close of business at 16:28. This brief response has been prepared at speed given the timing of receipt of your letter.

We note the withdrawal of the flawed Section 34 process, and the recognition that there have been procedural flaws in the process.

Our client denies "lying" to the Chief Minister or the Attorney General in relation to the "on-going police investigation", or over any other matter.

Your clients are well aware that no particulars have been given to our client of any alleged lies. Our client has therefore had no opportunity to address the allegations which at the moment can only be classified as vague slurs.

An accusation of lying against the principal law enforcement officer of the Crown in Gibraltar is a matter of the highest gravity. Mr. McGrail's service has been recognised by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II herself.

We note that your client's Chair now admits to having been informed by the Chief Minister and Attorney General that Mr. McGrail "lied" to them about a police investigation. We also note that your client (we assume deliberately) omitted this allegation, which was plainly central to the Chief Minister's decision-making, from the second letter of 12 May purportedly setting out the detail of the complaint against him. We suggest that the strong inference is that your client knew the matter was constitutionally improper and for that reason left it out.

An allegation of lying in any circumstances is one of the utmost gravity yet our client has no understanding of the specifics of the allegation and has not had the chance to address it. We remain entirely unclear what your clients, the Authority, propose to now do.

Our client is gravely concerned by how he has been treated during this process, and I welcome your frank acknowledgment that there have been procedural flaws. He is an officer of the highest standing, with an impeccable record over the past 36 years. In these circumstances, given how unfairly he has been treated and the improper pressure put upon him to alter the course of a live criminal investigation, our client feels he must apply for early retirement from the Royal Gibraltar Police.

All of Mr. McGrail's rights are reserved.

Yours faithfully,

Charles Gomez.

Dear Commissioner

Thank you for coming to see my yesterday.

During our discussion you handed to me a copy of an email dated 5 June from Charles Gomez to James Neish under the subject "Invitation to Retire: Section 34 of the Police Act." I have now read that email and note the final 14 words which state "our client feels he must apply for early retirement from the Royal Gibraltar Police."

This matter is of course directly relevant to me as it is the Governor who, under S 32.(1) of the Police Act 2006 and acting on the advice of the Authority, appoints the Commissioner.

Before I review all the papers I have on this matter in advance of our meeting on Monday, can you please confirm to me, by no later than midday tomorrow, whether that is indeed your decision, and, if so, whether you will be tendering your letter of resignation on Monday with immediate effect.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

"Your Excellency

We continue to represent the Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police, Mr. Ian McGrail.

He instructs us to reply to your letter of yesterday's date sent by email at 14:24 in which you sought a response by midday today Sunday the 7th June 2020.

Frankly, we struggle to understand and are very concerned by the rush.

The history of this unfortunate case begun with the hasty and fundamentally flawed letters sent to Mr. McGrail by the Gibraltar Police Authority on the 22nd of May 2020. Those blunders should have taught us all to the dangers of rushing through major decisions involving the Rule of Law in Gibraltar which, although a small territory, fully expects complete adherence to internationally recognised principles of fairness and due process.

Last Friday day evening the GPA's lawyer wrote conceding that his clients' attempt to remove the Commissioner from office was flawed and the Section 34 procedure was duly withdrawn. Mr. Neish also, extraordinarily, admitted in writing that you and the Chief Minister had alleged that Mr. McGrail had "lied" to the Chief Minister and Attorney General in relation to an on-going police investigation, a matter which was (plainly deliberately) left out of the GPA's letters of the 22nd May 2020. That in itself must rank as a disgrace and an embarrassment to the system and as a loyal servant of the Crown our client finds himself not just aggrieved by the way in which he has been treated but also embarrassed that a procedure of such importance should have been so catastrophically mishandled.

For the sake of completeness I should add that in addition to the distress and embarrassment inflicted on Mr. McGrail he has been put to the expense of having to engage expert constitutional lawyers at very short notice to respond to the flawed process. I trust that you will agree that he is entitled to be reimbursed by the GPA for the expense that they have occasioned to him.

Moreover there is no reason that we can see why the process which you appear to be preparing for, i.e. the exercise of your powers under Section 13 notice should be rushed, unless it is because you want to dispose of this very serious matter and with it my client's career and reputation before the swearing in of Sir David Steel as Governor next Thursday.

On any calm and rational analysis this matter is so serious that it requires not haste but scrupulous care and deliberation. In issue is nothing less than the suspension and / or removal of the Queen's principal law enforcement officer in Gibraltar.

The evidential background could not be more defective or forensically troubling. The Commissioner is facing apparent accusations of lying to the Chief Minister and the Attorney General without having been given any detail of the supposed "lies" or any opportunity to contest them. One would struggle to find any civilized country in which a kangaroo process on this kind would be accepted as reasonable.

With respect I believe that you are in no position to exercise any power under Section 13 on the basis of unsubstantiated slurs and without giving our client a full opportunity to contest properly articulated accusations within a reasonable time frame.

The foregoing is the substantive background but I should also make very clear that it would be unlawful for you to invoke the Section 13 procedure at all. The procedure is only available to you if the GPA is in default of its duties under the Police Act 2006 – it is not in default, because it has correctly withdrawn the flawed procedure against Mr. McGrail. It has therefore discharged its responsibility. The attempt to use the section 34 procedure was, as we said in our response to the GPA, a sham and we urge to take due cognisance of our concerns which have so far proved to be well founded. The section 13 procedure is obviously not available in such circumstances – indeed, to use it in this way would be unconstitutional and you would be repeating the errors of the GPA.

I would also respectfully remind you that in addition to your position as interim Governor, you have also been involved in the complaint (still to be articulated to our client) which you made to the GPA and led to their ill-fated letters of 22nd May 2020. It was for this reason that at your meeting with Commissioner McGrail on Friday he suggested to you that you should leave this constitutional crisis for Sir David to deal with. I repeat that we see no legitimate reason whatsoever for such astonishing haste.

It will be clear to you from your own personal involvement and from the matters set out in our email of Friday's date to James Neish that Mr. McGrail is being forced to leave his post by a combination of pressures, the most grave of which is the apparent interference with a live criminal investigation involving suspected corruption in the area of national security. Our client would have preferred to avoid detailed reference to that interference in the national interest. However, Mr. Neish's letter has brought the issue into centre stage when he wrote that the allegations of lying to the Chief Minister and to the Attorney General related to discussions which Mr. McGrail had with those two gentlemen in connection with a criminal investigation with national security implications.

In all the circumstances we conclude that it is in everyone's interest, including yours, that you should recuse yourself from this matter. There can be no harm in waiting for the three clear days until Sir David is sworn in and indeed, I expect that you will have already briefed him in connection with this matter which will inevitably shroud his first days in office in the kind of controversy that Gibraltar has never before had to endure.

Because of the immense pressure which has been placed on our client and his family, and the grave realisation that he can no longer count on the impartiality of the most senior members of Gibraltar's Government, he have been left with no choice but to apply for early retirement – he will certainly not be resigning. The process of such a request for retirement will inevitably involve a number of essential pre-requisites such as the financial terms of the early retirement and the withdrawal of the vague allegations of impropriety against him. To be clear, his request for early retirement is subject to satisfactory terms being agreed in advance. However, should appropriate terms be agreed, from his perspective we anticipate that this process could be swift.

I hope that you will appreciate that my client's 36-year career is as important to him and his family as your career is to you and yours and it is not something that should be hastily disposed of on account of whatever expediency and obscure reasons behind this sudden campaign against him.

Mr. McGrail does not want to cause Gibraltar any harm at this difficult time and will be reasonable but expects to be treated reasonably, respectfully and justly.

In order to assist the incoming Governor, Mr. McGrail will be writing to him next week with what he believes will be reasonable terms for his retirement and I would ask you please to ensure that he is fully briefed without delay so that the matter of his forced departure can be dealt with in an honourable manner.

Once again and with all due respect I entreat you to take independent legal advice as a matter of urgency and I reserve all Mr. McGrail's rights.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Gomez.

In view of the latest developments I think that it would be helpful for Charles Gomez to be in attendance at our meeting.

His attendance would serve to expedite matters and our conversation would be without prejudice in order to allow us to speak openly and candidly.

My career and the happiness of my family and myself have been very severely prejudiced and I would like us to be able to talk things through in an honest and sincere manner.

Mr. Gomez's attendance at our meeting is not a condition for the meeting to go ahead but I reiterate that I think that he can bring an objective and helpful element to the meeting.

Dear Joey,

Re: Commissioner of Police - Letter dated 29th May 2020 from Charles Gomez & Company

Thank you for providing me with a copy of the letter dated 29th May 2020 that you have received from Charles Gomez and Co representing the Commissioner of Police ("COP"), Ian McGrail ("the letter").

I have no formal role under the Police Act in relation to the matters currently before the Authority for consideration. Therefore, whilst my views about the COP are relevant only in so far as the Authority wishes to have regard to them, I cannot allow the Authority's record to stand unrebutted on the basis of the untrue and scurrilous allegations made by the COP. Thank for giving me the opportunity to do so.

The letter makes important and very serious allegations against me, namely, that I have improperly, corruptly and in abuse of my powers "interfered" with an ongoing criminal investigation by:

(i) privately subjecting the COP to "significant and at times intemperate private criticism" about how the criminal investigation has been handled, and

(ii) trying "for many months" to persuade COP to "change his and the RGP's approach to the investigation which would either lead to it being dropped entirely or certain suspects not being prosecuted".

In support of those statements it is said that I have feigned loss of confidence in the COP as a means of disguising my alleged real objective which is said to be, effectively, to "nobble" the investigation and prosecution to which the investigation relates, and that in some way, this should be deduced from issues relating to "timing" of actions by others and the allegation (also denied by me) that I have reacted with "startling" emotion and consequential insinuation that this is apt to sustain the fantastic allegations made against me by the COP. I hasten to say that each of them is untrue and without merit or justification.

Part of the narrative of the COP's allegations against me is that I apparently gave him "the strong impression that I was primarily concerned with protecting the Chief Minister and 'Gibraltar PLC" (the AG's words)". I am not aware that the Chief Minister is a person in need of protection in the context of the criminal investigation in question. In so far as concerns the fact that I was primarily concerned with protecting "Gibraltar PLC" (which is vernacular for the public interest of Gibraltar) that is absolutely correct. That is my constitutional role and my job (a fact that the COP, and those advising him appear to overlook).

At a personal level, I deeply regret (because I have always enjoyed excellent working and personal relations with him) to have to say that I cannot recognise the truth in the statements and allegations that COP now makes in the letter. They are untrue.

I have a constitutional role both in relation to prosecutions (I have ultimate responsibility and control over them) and for the rule of law (I am the guardian of the laws of Gibraltar and compliance with them). This is important because it renders proper interventions by me which may not be proper if engaged in by others. What the COP is effectively doing, on the basis of pure speculation and assumption on his part, is to cast the gravest aspersions on my motives for my statements, views and actions.

I should comment also that, in any event, the COP is not (as he appears to believe) immune to having his actions "strongly disapproved of" or being "severely criticised for them". Yet he equates both to the improper interference with the conduct of a criminal investigation and a violation of police independence. This, worryingly, shows lack of understanding and judgment by the COP.

Because of my roles described above, and also the fact that I am the Crown's (in all its facets, including the RGP) principal legal adviser in Gibraltar, it has always been customary for the COP and the RGP to seek the Attorney General's advice and to discuss ongoing investigations with him, whenever that is required. Mr McGrail has done so, both before and after becoming COP.

Contrary to what the letter says, I have never said that the COP lied to me. What I have told him is that he has incurred in a serious breach of my trust (which I explain below) as a result of which I have lost confidence in him.

I turn now to what has actually occurred. I first became aware of this criminal investigation on the 11 May 2019, when I received an email from the COP (sent also to the Chief Minister, Minister of Justice, the Chief Secretary, the Financial Secretary and the DPP) asking to meet with us urgently to brief us in relation to certain information that they had obtained in that criminal investigation. That meeting took place on Monday 13 May 2019. At that meeting, or shortly thereafter, I became aware that James Levy QC had shares in one of the companies involved in that dispute and that he was mentioned in communications with the three suspects and was potentially a person of interest to the investigation.

Far from seeking to intervene or interfere for that reason, I had no further involvement with the criminal investigation until over 11 months later when, in early-April 2020, the DPP called me to discuss the Government's position in relation to the ongoing issues about the ownership of a computer platform and its software that HMGOG uses, to which the criminal investigation related.

During that discussion the DPP explained to me that the RGP had drawn up a list of 76 charges (some of which could be impacted by the question of ownership of the platform) and that the RGP were thinking of issuing search warrants against Mr James Levy QC. I was alarmed, both by the number of charges (which would be quite inappropriate in any prosecution) and also by the proposal to obtain and issue a search warrant against a senior lawyer without first seeking voluntary co-operation or voluntary production of evidence. My concern was not because of any sense that lawyers should be exempt from this mechanism, rather it was (as would be the case of any person) that such warrants should reflect the reality of the risk of destruction of evidence unless the person is taken by surprise, or the refusal of the person to provide the evidence voluntarily. Not only can that not be assumed against any person, still less a practising lawyer, but Mr Levy had been aware of the RGP's interest in him for many months, and had had plenty of opportunity to destroy evidence if he were minded or inclined to do so. I have a legitimate public interest role and function (indeed, a responsibility) in respect of both these matters.

I asked to meet with the COP in relation to these two matters, and we did so on 7th April 2019. In that meeting I advised him of my concern about the need to obtain clarity on the issue of ownership of the computer platform since it was clear that that issue would likely have an impact on at least some of the proposed charges, and I also told him that I was worried about the overall number (76) charges, which seemed wholly excessive, not to say absurd. I reminded him of the general wisdom of focusing the charges appropriately. We also discussed, in the terms that I have described above, the proposal to obtain and execute a search warrant against Mr Levy.

The outcome of that discussion was that we reached a clear understanding that the the RGP would not take any further action until they had considered my advice about the rationalisation of the charges, and then the COP would come back to see me again. It was clear beyond peradventure that nothing would happen until we met again. The next I hear (from COP himself, as it was happening) was that RGP officers were in the process of executing search warrants against Mr Levy at the offices of Hassans and at his home.

I have never said anything to the COP which can be interpreted as anything other than advice and assistance, as has always been the practice. The COP is of course free to take whatever action he considers lawful and appropriate regardless of any advice that I may give him on the matter, and he did so. He unquestionably has that right. What the COP cannot do, and also expect to retain my personal confidence, is to act contrary to an understanding reached between us, as he has done. This, and not my disapproval of his actions (even though I think that they were ill advised), is the reason for my loss of confidence in him.

I have made it explicitly clear to the COP throughout that the conduct of the investigation (including the seeking and execution of search warrants) are, whatever I may advise him, operational matters entirely for him. Nothing that I have ever said to the COP or any other member of the RGP has been even remotely open to the possible (mis)interpretation that I have advised or encouraged, still less that I have interfered to bring about or try to bring about, the curtailment of the investigation, how it is carried out by the RGP or to prevent any person from being charged. It is outrageously wrong and unfair for the COP to allege that I have (let alone that I have done so repeatedly over an extended period of time) and I am shocked and deeply resent that he has done so. This necessarily deepens my loss of confidence in him going forward.

I remain at the Authority's disposal for anything with which I may be able to assist it further by way of clarification or further explanation.

Yours Sincerely,

Michael Llamas QC

Dear Joey,

Re: Letter dated 29th May 2020 from Charles Gomez & Company, on behalf of the Commissioner of Police to the Members of the Gibraltar Police Authority ("the Letter").

Thank you for providing me with a copy of the Letter. Your having done so serves two purposes. Firstly, it fairly provides me with an opportunity to respond to the very serious and vile allegations made against me by the Commissioner of Police ("COP"). Secondly, it gives the Authority the opportunity to have whatever regard it considers appropriate to my response when it makes its further decisions (if any) in relation to its invitation to the COP to retire.

Let me say at the very outset that serious as they are, the COP's allegations against me are completely untrue. Like any other person who values the rule of law (of which the independence of operational policing is a key element), I would be the first to admire the courage of a COP who fearlessly makes a stand in defence of the independence of policing and its freedom from political interference. It would be a relief to know that our police force was under such leadership.

t +350 20070071 f +350 20076396 e cm@gibraltar.gov.gi w gibraltar.gov.gi

However, this does not provide the COP with licence to elevate the product of his apparently fertile imagination, and the consequent speculative inferences which it leads him to make, to the status of fact, as he does. Still less does it entitle the COP to make (on the basis of such speculation as to the motives of each of them), the very grave allegations that he makes against all of His Excellency the Governor, the Chief Minister, the Attorney General and the Director of Public Prosecutions. It seems to me that such allegations could only properly be made and justified if supported by credible evidence. They are not, as they cannot be because they are untrue. For that reason, they are a fanciful nonsense which self evidently serves to vividly illustrate why the COP is undeserving of my confidence.

I wish to make clear that I stand by and ratify everything that I have previously said to you about my loss of confidence in the COP, and the reasons for it. To those reasons I would now add the extraordinary nature and content of the Letter, on the basis of which my loss of confidence in the COP is further increased and cemented. Furthermore, it is not immediately clear to me how the COP can preside over the efficiency and effectiveness of the RGP in the light of the obvious breakdown of his relationship with each of the Governor, the Government (myself and all other members of my Cabinet), the Attorney General and the Director of Public Prosecutions that necessarily results from the contents of the Letter.

You will have seen in this regard the letter dated 3 June 2020 addressed to you by His Excellency the Governor which His Excellency has shared with me. Of further significance arising from this letter is the entirely unjustified and reckless nature of the allegation against the Governor, who was not at the material time even aware of the criminal investigation interference which is alleged to justify the COP's allegations against him. Yet, such is the nature of the Letter. I made His Excellency aware of that investigation at the same time as I referred the matter to you. I did so in a spirit of complete transparency.

I am, of course, not accountable to the Authority for my conduct as Chief Minister. Nevertheless, from a position of institutional respect for the GPA as the statutory body responsible for ensuring the independence of policing in Gibraltar, your role in respect of section 34 of the Police Act, and indeed deference to its members, I set out below my response to the COP's allegations in so far as they concern me.

The allegations levelled against me by the COP could not be more serious in nature. He accuses me of corruptly (see para 16- 22) interfering with the conduct by the RGP of a criminal investigation, in an unprecedented "abuse of power", motivated by a wish to retaliate against him (see paras 23 and 24) and a "personal connection with the outcome of the investigation" (para 38). He further accuses me of lying to the Authority about the "real reasons" for "pressuring" the COP to retire which he describes as a "a pretence" (para 48), "a pretext" (para 66) and "fig leaves" for the real reason which he declares to be a desire on my part to impede the COP's proper and reasonable handling of a live criminal investigation (para 39) and, which latter (asserted by him) reason is (as candidly stated by Mr Gomez at para 33) "the real and central reason for the request". In other words, I stand accused by the COP of all of outright dishonesty, wholly improper (indeed potentially unlawful) interference with the RGP and corruption.

Not content to level these grave allegations against me without a shred of evidence to support them, the COP has the temerity to declare that it is unnecessary for him "merely to rely on any inference raised by the timing of the s.34 letter to make this point" because (according to the COP) during your meeting on 22 May you confirmed to him that I had told you that his handling of "the criminal investigation" was "spoken about at the Chair's meeting with the Chief Minister and Governor and was one of the reasons they had lost confidence in Mr McGrail." This is relied on as some sort of "smoking gun" that puts his grave accusations beyond doubt or somehow justify his making them (para 40).

In the context of all the above, that he also accuses me of undermining the rule of law, that my conduct is 'an affront to the rule of law' and of seeking to "direct you" in your decisions (second para on page 2), serious as they are in themselves, pale into relative insignificance.

The COP's allegations are entirely untrue, and the manner in which he describes such interaction as there has been between us is so distorted as to be obvious that it would mislead the Authority.

Let me be absolutely clear, I have at no time or in any manner sought to interfere with the RGP's conduct of the criminal investigation in question in any manner of for any purpose, including (but not limited to) my alleged "personal connection with the outcome of the investigation". That personal connection is, presumably, the fact that Mr James Levy QC, whose conduct is apparently under investigation, is the senior partner of Hassans, a law firm of which I am also a partner although presently on a sabbatical.

At no time have I sought to intervene in or interfere to prevent Mr Levy being investigated or to prevent a search warrant being obtained and executed against him at the offices of Hassans, facts which I first learned about as they were already happening, that is, as the search warrant was being enforced at the offices of Hassans and at Mr Levy's home. This can be best illustrated by reference to the fact that at 12:25 pm on the 12th May 2020 I received a "Whats App" from the COP in which he said to me "CM- before you hear it from anyone else I want to inform you that detectives are executing a search warrant at Hassan for (JL) in relation to the case against Perez, Cornelio & Sanchez".

I responded at 12.34 in the following terms:
"Ian, Thank you for the courtesy of this information. I think that is a bad decision. A search should only have been sought if you believed that the person in question was not going to cooperate and will try to destroy evidence. If, as you say, you are hoping for cooperation, especially in a case involving a senior Silk and head of Gibraltar's largest legal firm, you should, in my view, first have sought to contact that person and obtain cooperation. Given my close personal relationship with JL, I won't comment further."

The COP replied at 12:35 as follows: "Noted CM".

I repeated that view to the COP during a meeting at my office in No 6 later on the same on day, coinciding with his presence in No 6 in connection with a Covid planning meeting in the basement of No 6. I also made it abundantly clear to him that my reaction would have been identical had he taken the same action against any other senior member of the Gibraltar Bar, all of whom, like him, are officers of the court with the legal and ethical obligations consequent to that status. These are the messages and the meeting to which the COP refers, in terms that I do not recognise, in paragraph 36 of the Letter.

The above is the full extent of my communications with the COP or the RGP in relation to the "criminal investigation" since then.

In so far as concerned my alleged motives for doing so, i.e. my personal connection with the outcome of the investigation, the accusation made against me is not sustainable even on the COP's case. In his Whats App at 12:25 (as the events were occurring) he told me that the warrant obtained and executed against Mr Levy was "in relation to the case against Perez, Cornelio & Sanchez". So, when I expressed the view that I did 9 minutes later at 12:34, I had no reason to believe that the investigation was of Mr Levy.

In fact, I am clearly entitled to express the views that I did in the above manner. That does not constitute interfering with the investigation in the grave manner of the allegations made, or at all. I am entitled to express my views to the COP on matters of policing policy in Gibraltar. I did not prevent the obtaining or the execution of the search warrant, both of which had already occurred. I have made no attempt to secure an end to those investigations, against Mr Levy or anyone else. Indeed, when I discovered that one of the persons under investigation was a civil servant, I directed the Chief Secretary that HMGOG should be a complainant to the police in the investigation, which duly occurred. Therefore, the notion that I was motivated by concern for the outcome of the investigation in so far as concerned my alleged personal connection with it is therefore simply unsustainable, as the COP well knows. This was an investigation in which I had insisted my Government should be a complainant (ie the entity whose interests may have been criminally damaged) and in respect of a National Security facility which I had been instrumental in creating in the public interest of Gibraltar. It is remarkable that the COP could even believe, less still suggest to others, that I might want to interfere with such an investigation.

In my opinion, the obtaining and execution of a search warrant which the COP referred me to in his Whats App in such circumstances (such as I described in my own Whats App response to the COP) is of dubious legality, abusive, unprecedented in policing in Gibraltar, incompatible with public confidence in policing and the good name and reputation of Gibraltar as a business and finance centre. It is noteworthy in this regard that these are policy matters in which, as Chief Minister, I have a legitimate interest, and that in the event of the RGP being sued for the unlawful obtaining and execution of a search warrant, it is HMGOG that has to bear the financial consequences.

Be all the above as it may, serious as they are, and as the COP also well knows, those are not the reasons why I have further lost confidence in him by virtue of this criminal investigation. I have not lost confidence in him because he obtained and executed a search warrant in circumstances in which I believe it was inappropriate to do so. Nor is the reason "how the criminal investigation we refer to above has been handled" (para 35, and elsewhere in the Letter). The primary reason is that the COP has clearly lied to me.

During the meeting to which I refer above, the COP stated to me in explicit terms, in response to my concerns about the propriety of the warrant, that he had obtained and executed the search warrant against Mr Levy in reliance on legal advice from the Director of Public Prosecutions who had confirmed that it was appropriate to seek such a warrant and proceed in that way. I have since determined that this categorical statement from the COP, clearly designed to suggest to me that my views as to the law were wrong and he / his officers had acted properly (and not compromised the investigation or exposed HMGOG to potential claims for civil damages) was wholly untrue. In fact, it is now clearly established that at no time did the COP or the RGP obtain legal advice from the DPP to that effect, a fact which the COP has now acknowledged in writing to Hassans (and has been separately confirmed to me by the DPP). This is unacceptable to me and goes to the COP's probity and integrity in his dealings with me, and to my ability to have confidence in him. This is unrelated to the nature, direction or conclusion which the investigation might take or reach (which I have been supportive of from the beginning, continue to be and have caused my Government to be a complainant for), as that continues to take its course. The COP has understood that, as evident from the fact that the investigation in question has not been affected in any way and has, rightly, continued unabated.

Additionally, I cannot accept the COP's statements in relation to his briefings to me about the "incident at sea". This was an incident with extremely serious external political consequences and very material potential financial consequences to the Government. I have, since our original discussion, already had to answer questions in the Parliament on this matter and there has been additional media reporting related to it both before and arising from my answer (including on the Spanish national broadcaster, RTVE). It has been the established practice for at least 50 years that Commissioners of Police keep the Chief Minister of the day fully, timeously and spontaneously informed, in detail about incidents of that kind. Had COP properly done so in this case it would not have been necessary for me to exercise the Chief Minister's powers under section 15 of the Police Act for the first ever time, as I confirmed to the Parliament. His Excellency the Governor has complained of the very same thing.

I have already taken you through my deep concerns in relation to the report from HM Inspectorate of Constabulary, which are also deeply concerning to me and relate to the efficacy and effectiveness of the RGP, both of which are the direct, legal responsibility of the COP under the Police Act.

Nothing in the Letter from the COP raises any real issue of interference with the independence of policing in Gibraltar, and the COP cannot raise imaginary allegations to escape the fact that he has lost the confidence of every relevant authority in Gibraltar, and the proper consequences thereof. His allegations are untrue and are based entirely on speculation on his part as to everyone's motives for forming the views of him that they have. It is in itself wholly improper that he should make such spurious and damaging allegations without evidence commensurate with their gravity (or indeed any evidence). This now also goes to my further lack of confidence in the COP.

Please do not hesitate to ask me to clarify any matter that it would be of assistance to the Authority that I explain further.

With very best wishes,

Dear Mr. Chairman

Re: Invitation to Retire – section 34 Police Act.

I would like to thank you for providing me with a copy of the letter dated 29 May 2020 sent to you by Mr Charles Gomez, acting on behalf of the Commissioner of Police ('CoP'), on the above-captioned matter (the "Letter").

A number of matters and allegations in the Letter concern me, either directly or indirectly. My position within the GPA (paras 1-4 of the Letter) is one which I assume you will be addressing yourself in the GPA's reply to Mr Gomez. In any event, as you are aware, I wrote to you on 19 February 2020 explaining how I thought we could proceed during such time as I was acting as Governor. For clarity, all my communications with you since 19 February 2020 have been as Governor and NOT as a member of the GPA.

With regard to the remaining contents of the Letter, I would like to address only two specific points at this stage. What I say is without prejudice to further information that I would be happy and able to provide if it were considered necessary to do so. Silence on any point made in Letter is not be interpreted as my acquiescence to any of them.

1. The relevance of the ongoing criminal investigation and its timing.

The first issue is the offensive assertion that my lack of confidence in the CoP, and therefore my conviction that he lacks both probity and integrity, is based on the RGP's handling of the so-called ongoing criminal investigation.

My deep concerns with the CoP's leadership qualities have absolutely nothing to do with that investigation. The already-existing concerns that I have had with the CoP were confirmed by the incident at sea (March 2020) and the HMIC Report (published in May 2020)

In relation to the former, the seriousness of the incident of 8 March 2020 does not require explanation. By its own, it has raised grave concerns with wide-reaching political, financial, reputational and sovereignty implications. They raise very serious concerns about the leadership at the RGP.

Furthermore, I suspected at the time of the immediate aftermath of the incident that the CoP's disclosure of information to me was evasive in particular in relation to the critical issue of whether or not the incident had occurred within BGTW. I know that when the CoP was telling me that it was not clear where the incident had occurred, he was informing the Chief Minister that the incident had indeed occurred outside BGTW. Indeed, it occurred some 7.5 nautical miles beyond Gibraltar's baseline and therefore well outside BGTW. I find this evasiveness on a key issue to demonstrate a total lack of respect to the office of Governor particularly since the CoP knew that this was the crucial issue for me and for both the UK and Gibraltar Governments as far as diplomatic relations with Spain were concerned.

In relation to the latter, on 30 April 2020, after having seen a draft of the Report, I wrote to the Chief Minister saying that I found the Report to be "quite damning". Indeed, the day before, I had written to you saying that I did not think that the Report should be published.

I was informed for the first time, of the very existence of the criminal investigation referred to in the Letter on 15 May 2020 (when the matter was raised with me for information by the Chief Minister, as he thought it right to disclose this to me as we considered matters related to the RGP and CoP).

I want to be clear, therefore, that my lack of confidence in the CoP's probity and integrity, and my conviction that the rule of law is compromised by the fact that I have lost confidence in him, therefore clearly arose well before I was aware of that criminal investigation. It is incorrect and untrue for anyone to suggest otherwise.

For Mr Gomez to therefore suggest, through conjecture and assumption, that the incident at sea and the HMIC Report were "fig leaves for the real reason Mr McGrail is being pressured to retire" (para 39) is an outrageous accusation which I bitterly resent and strongly object to. It is clearly not borne out by the facts and chronology as expressed above. In addition, for Mr Gomez to suggest that I had been aware of the incident at sea and the HMIC Report "for months" (para 34) is a wholly inaccurate statement which may mislead the GPA.

As a final point on this issue, I would also like to reiterate that these two incidents occurred on the back of a growing unease that I had been feeling over the months, in particular with the numerous allegations of bullying and mismanagement that I had picked up on. I have also been gravely concerned by the potential for corruption identified in the HMIC Report which has, tellingly, remained unaddressed by the CoP, despite his lawyer's response casting aspersions and allegations of corruption against others.

The CoP is the person who is ultimately responsible and accountable for all the actions and behaviour of the RGP, including those stated above.

2. The contents and allegations made in the Letter.

The second issue I must address is the tone and content of the Letter. I must place on record that the allegations made in the Letter that I am (or may be) interfering with the independence of the GPA, that I am (or may be) compromising the rule of law in Gibraltar and participating in a plot to discredit the CoP or influence the ongoing criminal investigation are entirely untrue and nothing short of a most scurrilous attack on my integrity. I find such allegations to be malicious and entirely misplaced. I strenuously refute them and hold each one up as a further demonstration of good reason for my lack of confidence in the CoP and my concerns about his probity and integrity.

To conclude, I communicate to you as Governor that, for all the above stated reasons, the content, tone and style of the Letter have done nothing but cement my lack of confidence in the CoP and my concerns about the integrity, probity and independence of policing in Gibraltar in addition to the matters I have already communicated to you as Governor.

Yours sincerely

Dear Commissioner

Thank you for coming to see me today.

We discussed your intention to retire and I agreed that this was the best course of action, adding that I would need a letter to that effect. I asked that your retirement be with effect from 18.00 on the 9th of June, and suggested that you may wish to make an announcement accordingly. Please do let me know if you intend to do so and perhaps we can discuss timing. I will then follow up with the following press release:

"His Excellency the Governor, Nick Pyle OBE, has accepted a request from the Commissioner of Police to retire with effect from 18.00 hrs on Tuesday 09 June.
Recognising the Commissioner's 36 years of service to the Royal Gibraltar Police, and cognisant of him being awarded the Overseas Territories Police Medal for meritous service in 2015, the Governor wishes the Commissioner all the very best for his retirement.
The Assistant Commissioner will perform the duties of the Commissioner until further notice, as set out in the Police Act 2006. "

You agreed to retire as set out above subject to financial terms being agreed which I believe you have done so with the Chief Secretary. I therefore look forward to receiving your letter.

I would like to reaffirm my commitment, notwithstanding the above, to ensure you are treated fairly and with respect at all times.

Yours sincerely

Nick Pyle

Dear Darren - I note your email below where the terms I discussed with HE are not acceptable to government, in particular the 22 months salary and the legal costs.

I note you make no reference to my untaken annual leave and days owed in lieu which I would ask should be paid.

In terms of my pension/gratuity I explained to HE that I would ask for this to be worked out on my currently salary. I understand My pension would be taxable until I attain the age of 55yrs.

I terms of the legal costs I would make the follow submission for your consideration:-
The Section 34 Police Act (2006) procedure was withdrawn because it was flawed.

In order to establish this I had to retain lawyers. In fact, it was recommended to me by the GPA Chair that I should get legal advice.

Moreover, the matter was sufficiently complex for the GPA itself to engage a QC who correctly advised that the process was flawed.

As a result of the expense I have had to incur the GPA now has the benefit of legal advice which will ensure that the mistake is not repeated.

The custom in situations such as this is for the public body to pay the cost of the citizen against whom a flawed process was initiated.

Finally, I feel entitled to retire in the same position I would have done so had I not been practically compelled to retire which is why I included the remaining months of salary as a consideration. If this is not possible, would you consider 12 months salary instead?

I look forward to hearing from you. If you feel we can discuss the matter over the phone please do let me know.

[08/06/2020, 20:09:53] Ian McGrail: Darren - I want to end all this saga but I need the terms agreed before I sign my letter to the Governor. Could you please expedite whatever you can so I can firm up my exit? Thanks.

[08/06/2020, 20:11:26] Darrren Grech: Quite understandable. Let me work on it tonight and tomorrow morning Ian. I need to clear with Principal Auditor etc without giving these people details of what I am working on.

[08/06/2020, 20:12:42] Ian McGrail: I am worried when you say that my pension rights are being 'considered' when really I am entitled to it.

[08/06/2020, 20:17:49] Ian McGrail: It wouldn't be fair. I wouldn't be able to retire.

[22/06/2020, 15:32:54] Ian McGrail: Darren - hope you're keeping well. Sorry for the bother but as pay day is coming up this Friday I wanted to ensure the agreed terms of my retirement have been actioned & that I will be getting my pension/gratuity and untaken leave/TOIL on Friday as otherwise I will only be receiving 9 days of pay for this month. I have alot of financial commitments which I do not want to fall behind with. I am sure you will understand. Can I have your assurances that all will be sorted for Friday please ?

Ian

[08/06/2020, 18:30:56] Ian McGrail: Nick - I have just read the exchange of emails between Darren Grech & ourselves.

I don't think what I am being offered is what I deserve. There isn't even a mention of my untaken leave & days owed being paid to me. Could you revert to Darren and enquire whether at least one year's salary is honoured? Rgds.

[08/06/2020, 18:33: [redacted] Ian. I've forwarded this to Darren. As I said I can't get involved but would hope days leave/toil not a problem.

[08/06/2020, 18:34:23] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[08/06/2020, 19:17:37] Ian McGrail: Nick - with all the uncertainty I am unable to sign my letter to you. Government are merely considering my pension and untaken leave etc. they haven't committed to agreeing to it. Its an awkward situation which I trust you understand. I have to safeguard my terms 100% whatever they end up being but certainly agree them before signing the letter.

Ian

[08/06/2020, 19:53 [redacted] Ian. Thanks for this. I'd be grateful therefore if you could see me at 09.00 tomorrow. Regards. Nick

[08/06/2020, 20:01:39] Ian McGrail: It isn't right Nick. For them to say that they are 'considering' my pension rights? What is the point of me retiring then. Darren is saying that he will revert as soon as he can - It is not me causing any delay to my intentions. Surely Darren can sort this out. I am not trying to be awkward at all.

[08/06/2020, 20:04:31] Ian McGrail: Lets hope so.

[08/06/2020, 20:19:57] Ian McGrail: Darren has informed me that he'll be working on it tonight and tomorrow morning. Shall we give it till midday before we meet again to allow him time to firm everything up?

[08/06/2020, 20:25:12] [redacted] I'll ask him to speed it up and conclude their reply to you terms tonight.

[08/06/2020, 20:26:14] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[08/06/2020, 21:28:57] Ian McGrail: Nick - you will have my letter with the agreed terms by 0830hrs tomorrow morning. Could you now send me the letter you had intended for me. I will relinquish command at 1800hrs tomorrow.

[08/06/2020, 21:34:02] Ian McGrail: Darren has reverted and I have agreed to the terms.

[08/06/2020, 21:34:28] [redacted] Ian. Thanks. I believe that is the correct way forward. I'll go into the office and send the letter once I've finished dinner. Nick

[08/06/2020, 21:34:40] Ian McGrail: Ok

[08/06/2020, 21:35:21] [redacted] I'll tweak it to say you have agreed terms with the CS.

[08/06/2020, 21:46:00] Ian McGrail: Yes please. And that he will expedite the arrangements. Thanks.

[09/06/2020, 08:18:39] Ian McGrail: Morning Nick. Email with scanned letter has been sent. Original on its way to The Convent.

[09/06/2020, 08:28:19] [redacted] Morning. I'll get written confirmation to me re terms then revert accordingly.

[09/06/2020, 09:26:58] [redacted] Maybe an hour or so later but let me check with CM who is in Spain. Can you share please what you will be saying.

[12/05/2020, 12:34:21] Fabian Picardo: Ian, Thank you for the courtesy of this information. I think that is a bad decision. A search warrant should only have been sought if you believed that the person in question was not going to cooperate and will try destroy evidence. If, as you say, you are hoping for cooperation, especially in a case involving a senior Silk and head of Gibraltar's largest legal firm, you should, in my view, first have sought to contact that person and obtain cooperation. Given my close personal relationship with JL, I won't comment further.

[12/05/2020, 18:41:41] Michael Llamas: Ian, it would not be constructive to meet, at least not for now. For me it was abundantly clear what we had agreed and there is therefore very little to discuss about that. All I have tried to do is to help you in all of this and to protect Gibraltar plc which is what I have spent all my life doing. I feel very, very let down. A serious breach of trust has occurred.

Subject: OFFICIAL - SENSITIVE Op Delhi CM-AG

I, Ian McGrail, am making these self notes on a matter which I am seriously concerned about regarding Operation DELHI (the investigation into the Caine Sanchez CS, John Perez JP , Tommy Cornelio TC and Eddie Asquez EA which is being led by Supt Richardson, Insp Wyan and Sgt Clarke). I am aware Supt Richardson has more comprehensive notes on the investigation proper and I will be requesting him a copy of these for my records.

For quite some time, I have been meeting with HMAG Mr Llamas, at his request, to discuss matters relating to this investigation. Mr Llamas has a view that Caine Sanchez in particular should be dealt with internally via civil service disciplinary mechanisms. To this date, however, The AG, has not been privy to the evidence that the team has gathered against CS or indeed the other suspects – the said evidence has been discussed with the DPP at great lengths who has advised that there is a criminal case for CS, JP and TC to answer and that there is a realistic prospect of conviction if prosecuted on community misuse offences and conspiracy to defraud offences. At most of these meetings with the AG, particularly the latter ones, I have been accompanied by Supt Richardson. The views I have expressed all along have been that the alleged criminal behaviour of all the parties concerned is very serious.

I have also discussed the potential conflict and/or embarrassing situation viz the CM and Fin Sec (and all the other partners of Hassans) being shareholders of the company that is part owner of 36 North who it is alleged would have benefitted from the defrauding process. He has said to me that he is aware of this and is of concern to him from a position of safeguarding the interests and reputation of the CM and Fin Sec both of whom (as indeed the other partners) will no doubt have not been aware of the alleged illegal practices employed by JP, TC, EA, and Jaime Levy - something which I also agree with. He has sais thoi to me in th presence of Supt Richardson and crown counsel Lloyd Devincenzi.

An issue that the investigation team have been wanting to clarify from the very early stages of the investigation is that of the ownership of the NSCIS platform. The DPP advises that it would ideal that this was cleared up before the point of charging but that it is not critical to a prosecution. This is an issue we have been trying address. On the one hand Blands asserts ownership and on the other so does HMGOG. The CM from the outset did say that the complainants on the hacking of the platform were HMGO, however, over 12+ months down the road, HMGOG have not been able to support that they are the owners.

I am aware that the AG has shared with the Ch Sec the correspondence submitted by defence counsel for TC, JP and EA so that he can base the argument that HMGoG are owners of the platform on these same arguments. Ch Sec has informed me that there isn't a single record he can find of how CS was handling the NSCSIS business on behalf of HMGOG. Totally lack of governance and supervision in the administration in this according to Ch Sec – but before his time in office. To this date the Ch Sec has still presented evidence to the investigating team that HMGOG are the owners of the platform.

I get periodic briefs from the investigating on the progress of the investigation. I am fully aware of the full range of sensitivities surrounding the matter because of the personalities involved. At a meeting in the office of the AG, with the DPP present, the AG was suggesting that I stopped the investigation from progressing on the basis that the ownership of the platform had not been established. I told him that I could not do so as I had Blands' versions of events that suggested they were owners and that in the absence of any concrete evidence from HMGOG I had to go along with that. DPP again reiterated that the whole of the did not hinge on the ownership of the platform. I went as far as informing the AG that it was within his power to discontinue a prosecution if he felt the need to – that I could not simply drop the matter because of 'public interest' reasons – that he would have to make that call. The AG asked both me and DPP whether he could enter a nolle prosequi. There was also further enquiries that needed to be carried as per evidence package submitted to the DPP – i.e interviewing Jaime Levy (JL) under caution. The rationale for this is well articulated by the investigating team. I am also aware that the investigating team had discussed with the DPP the detail of how JL was going to be addressed and that the DPP had advised the team accordingly.

At my last meeting with the AG on this matter where Supt Richardson and CC Llyod Devincenzi were present the AG said that he was now taking a step back on this case as he was advising HMGOG on the intellectual property rights of the platform and therefore wanted to steer away from the criminal investigation. Notwithstanding, it was agreed that the team would produce a list of proposed charges so that the DPP/AG would consider. He asking whether from 80 charges these could be brought down to 17 and from these what would CS be facing? I probed his reasoning behind this but he did not elaborate. It was also discussed that we hoped that JL was able to clarify many of the issues in order to mitigate the potential fall out of the sensitive issues surrounding the case.

AG also asked on hypothetical; scenarios; what if the owner of the platform [HMGOG] actually/consented allowed it to be hacked? What would the RGP's view be on this? This further indicated the unwillingness to prosecute the matter. Again I retorted that this was a matter for him to decide. That the RGP would present the evidence and that he wanted to pull that was his prerogative.

I have been aware that the investigating team have been planning to execute a search warrant on JL at his office and at his home. The team have presented the evidence for the application of the warrant to the stipendiary magistrate who has deliberated it contents. The stipendiary has met with Supt Richardson and probed for one and ahalf hours. He has signed the warrant. I am aware that the team have also given serious consideration to ensuring that any material recovered is subjected to independent counsel analysis to ensure any legally privileged data is not compromised.

The date of execution was arranged for 12th May though I was not aware of the time. I advised the team that out of courtesy (not obligation) I would be informing the CM, MoJ and AG of this action given the delicate nature of the intervention.

At 1030hrs today I attended a COVID-19 strategic coordinating group meeting at the Bunker in Number 6 Convent Place. At 1222Hrs whilst still at the meeting, I received notification from Supt Richardson that he was heading to execute the warrant. I then texted the officials referred to. MoJ was at the same meeting I was. She acknowledged the message. The AG replied saying this action was not what had been agreed to which I responded that it was, that we had to close off the lines of enquiry with JL before considering the proposing of charges. He disagreed with me so I said via text that I would go round to his office when I finished the meeting. Whilst texting with the AG I could see that the CM was typing out a message to me. AT 1234Hrs I received a message from the CM saying the following;-

"Ian, thank you for the courtesy of this information. I think that it is a bad decision. A search warrant should only have been sought if you believed that the person in question was not going to co-operate and will destroy evidence. If, as you say, you are hoping for cooperation, especially in a case involving senior Silk and head of Gibraltar's largest legal firm, you should , in my view, first sought to contact the person and obtain cooperation. Given my close personal relationship with JL, I won't comment further. " To this I replied "Noted CM".

A few minutes later, a member of staff of the office of civil contingencies ask me to go up to the CM's office as the CM and AG wanted to see me. I collected my belongings and excused myself from those at the meeting. I went up to the 2nd floor where I was seen to by Ms Amy Bonnich, one of the CM's Pas. She showed me to the board room. A few minutes later the CM and AG entered the room from the CM's office.

The CM states words to the effect in both the English and Spanish language " What are you doing Ian, this is a complete blunder. Why go with a warrant? Do you suspect Jaime has committed a crime? Look Jaime can be many things and he has been in messes before but he is not a criminal. He is a senior Silk, head of the Jewish community, helps out the RGP if needed, he is the head of the biggest law firm and he has a very good reputation as a lawyer. Are you suggesting that Jaime would destroy or dispose of evidence? You know Gibraltar, this will get out and you are managing this investigating very very wrongly. Why didn't you ask him to give you what you needed?" To this I said that what the team were after were devices which we knew JL would not hand over unless compelled to do so with a warrant. CM says words to the effect "but have you asked him?" I felt the CM was questioning an operational decision on a live criminal matter and that this was not appropriate. He said he hoped that I was right and that he was wrong as there would be consequences if he was found to be right, in that that we had not conducted ourselves properly on this matter. He stated that he would be calling in the senior command team to address us on how inept we were at investigating white collar crime. I advised that the warrant had been signed by a judge who was satisfied that this was the likely method we had to resort to in order to recover the material which could hold evidence and that all the grounsd to deal with JL had been consulted with DPP. CM dismisses this saying that it is very easy to obtain a search warrant. CM was very angry that we had obtained a warrant without considering a voluntary handing over the material we were after. I posed the question whether he genuinely believed JL would be handing over the material if asked without a warrant. CM said he would not. There was a heated debate on whether the actions of the team were proper or not, with me saying they were and the CM saying they were not. I stated that it would be left to a court to decide who was right or wrong. I said this because CM said that JL should not hand over his mobile device to the RGP but would do so to a court.

AG stated that I had betrayed him because the action carried out by the team was not what had been agreed with him. Notwithstanding that what the AG stated was incorrect, the AG has no operational remit and his address to me in this regard is wholly improper, more so when he had said that he was steering clear from the criminal investigation. I felt totally cornered having to explain a tactical decision on a live criminal investigation. AG says words to the effect "Ian, I liked you and how you worked, but as from today I cannot entertain you again". This really shocked and hurt me. The AG couldn't be more mistaken. My hypothesis is that the AG himself is under some form of pressure to ensure that the investigation is terminated and the intervention of JL has shown him up for not having achieved the stopping of the investigation. It is not the RGP that has put itself in this situation. The team has acted appropriately and without fear or favour. I fully understand there could potentially be reputational damage in a number of quarters.

Further comments by the CM

- the AG should have been aware of the intervention as he is the Leader of the Bar and heads the disciplinary committee for the bar.
- I and the RGP are being used by James Gaggero. That the RGP is pursuing a case on behalf of a rich businessman who wants to topple "these two" (I took it he meant TC and JP)
- The action carried by the team out has serious connotations – he referred to the Fins Sec, another minister, a member of the opposition and himself all being partners in Hassans and how those who call us pirates (Spain) would have a field day if this leaked out. He also referred to Rosety from VOX who was already asking parliamentary questions in connection to the collision at sea.
- That if CS was corrupt that I was HMGOG that had to make the complaint. I told CM the charges CS could face were that of misconduct in public office – he said even with that offence, it had to be HMGOG that had to lay the complaint.
- HMGOG were the owners of the platform. We had requested evidence to support this for the outset. It had not been forthcoming and still wasn't. It was not right the RGP were being accused of conducting a flawed investigation.

I have discussed the above with my command team senior officers who are also concerned and worried about the level of interference by the CM and demeanour of the AG..

I have also briefed the Chair of the GPA in person in my office.

My considerations are as follows;
If the GPA, HMGOG, or HE have any concerns about the manner the investigation has been carried I would insist that external police service is asked review the whole of the investigation file.

I have concerns about the impartiality of the OCPL to prosecute the matter given the apparent lack of appetite of the AG to do so. I will respect the decision of not running a prosecution but that decision has to be taken by the DPP or AG. Neither have indicated that they are willing to do so. I am also concerned of reputational issues the RGP and I may face in light of the behaviour of the CM and AG.

The possibility of engaging independent counsel to look after my and the RGP's interests.

I have extended a request to the AG to meet face to face to clear up his mistaken impression of myself but this has been declined. He claims there has been a breach of trust which I vehemently refute.

The above is my immediate recollection of the events of today which have left me somewhat scarred and shaken. I did not expect the CM or AG to address me in the way they did on a live criminal investigation. More was said, particularly by the CM, but I will add to this text in due course once my recollection revives with further details.

I take this behaviour as a total affront to the operational independence of the RGP and it deeply regrettable that I have to resort to speed type out these notes to safeguard myself from any possible reprisal, wherever that may come from, if indeed it comes and in what shape it manifests itself. I sincerely hope the need does not arise for me to take this matter further. In the meantime, the investigating team in OP Delhi continues with their function. They have carried out a pain staking investigation diligently and professionally. I only have praise for them.

Subject: FW: OFFICIAL - SENSITIVE Op Delhi CM-AG

These are further recollections of the meeting with CM and AG on Op DELHI on 12th May 2020. I have also corrected some typos (in red) on my original notes below.

CM asserts very forcefully that the allegations being investigated, particularly the conspiracy to defraud offence, do not meet the criminal liability threshold but rather that they are civil in nature. The CM has not been privy to the evidence secured during the 12+ month long investigation. I therefore cannot comprehend his forceful views on this.

CM states that police officers and lawyers are officers of the court (he included himself), that the approach taken by the investigating team against a fellow officer of the court was not ethical, proper or correct.
That we [the RGP] should focus on others like [redacted] and not JL. That this was not about status – it was irrespective of whether it was Melo Triay or Peter Caruana – that we cannot with a wide brush and sweep up whatever we want under the search warrant. Told him that was not the case, that an sensitive legally privileged material would not be handled or examined by us, this would be done by external counsel and JL would have this explained. CM said "that's what you say" and I said you will have to trust me. He also said he communicated with JL a lot and he'd only been in contact with him that morning discussing the reopening of places of worship.

This morning, I checked my phone to find an email from the AG last night 12 5 20. He was forwarding an email from Mr Lewis Baglietto QC who was making very serious allegations against the investigating team and RGP.

I responded that I would revert to him in writing once I had an opportunity to discuss the matter with the team. AG wanted to meet me with defence counsel at 1000 at his office but I said I would not be ready at that time but would meet him later today.

I will keep adding notes as the matter develops.

Subject: OFFICIAL - SENSITIVE Op Delhi CM-AG

I, Ian McGrail, am making these self notes on a matter which I am seriously concerned about regarding Operation DELHI (the investigation into the Caine Sanchez CS, John Perez JP , Tommy Cornelio TC and Eddie Asquez EA which is being led by Supt Richardson, Insp Wyan and Sgt Clarke). I am aware Supt Richardson has more comprehensive notes on the investigation proper and I will be requesting him a copy of these for my records.

For quite some time, I have been meeting with HMAG Mr Llamas, at his request, to discuss matters relating to this investigation. Mr Llamas has a view that Caine Sanchez in particular should be dealt with internally via civil service disciplinary mechanisms. To this date, however, The AG, has not been privy to the evidence that the team has gathered against CS or indeed the other suspects – the said evidence has been discussed with the DPP at great lengths and he has advised that there is a criminal case for CS, JP and TC to answer and that there is a realistic prospect of conviction if prosecuted on community misuse offences and conspiracy to defraud offences. At most of these meetings with the AG, particularly the latter ones, I have been accompanied by Supt Richardson. The views I have expressed all along have been that the alleged criminal behaviour of all the parties concerned is very serious.

I have also discussed with the AG the potential conflict and/or embarrassing situation viz the CM and Fin Sec (and all the other partners of Hassans) being shareholders of the company that is part owner of 36 North who it is alleged would have benefitted from the defrauding process. He has said to me that he is aware of this and it is of concern to him from a position of safeguarding the interests and reputation of the CM and Fin Sec both of whom (as indeed the other partners) will no doubt have not been aware of the alleged illegal practices employed by JP, TC, EA, and Jaime Levy - something which I also agree with. He has said this to me in the presence of Supt Richardson and crown counsel Lloyd Devincenzi.

An issue that the investigation team have been wanting to clarify from the very early stages of the investigation is that of the ownership of the NSCIS platform. The DPP advises that it would ideal that this was cleared up before the point of charging but that it is not critical to a prosecution. This is an issue we have been trying address. On the one hand Blands asserts ownership and on the other so does HMGOG. The CM from the outset did say that the complainants on the hacking of the platform were HMGO, however, over 12+ months down the road, HMGOG have not been able to support that they are the owners.

I am aware that the AG has shared with the Ch Sec the correspondence submitted by defence counsel for TC, JP and EA so that he can base the argument that HMGoG are owners of the platform on these same arguments. Ch Sec has informed me that there isn't a single record he can find of how CS was handling the NSCSIS business on behalf of HMGOG. Totally lack of governance and supervision in the administration in this according to Ch Sec – but before his time in office. DPP again reiterated that the whole of the evidence did not hinge on the ownership of the platform. I went as far as informing the AG that it was within his power to discontinue a prosecution if he felt the need to – that I could not simply drop the matter because of 'public interest' reasons – that he would have to make that call.

The AG asked both me and DPP whether he could enter a nolle prosequi. There was also further enquiries that needed to be carried as per evidence package submitted to the DPP – i.e interviewing Jaime Levy (JL) under caution. The rationale for this is well articulated by the investigating team. At 1030hrs today I attended a COVID-19 strategic coordinating group meeting at the Bunker in Number 6 Convent Place. At 1222Hrs whilst still at the meeting, I received notification from Supt Richardson that he was heading to execute the warrant. I then texted the officials referred to. MoJ was at the same meeting I was. She acknowledged the message. Notwithstanding that what the AG stated was incorrect, the AG has no operational remit and his address to me in this regard is wholly improper, more so when he had said that he was steering clear from the criminal investigation. I felt totally cornered having to explain a tactical decision on a live criminal investigation. AG says words to the effect "Ian, I liked you and how you worked, but as from today I cannot entertain you again". This really shocked and hurt me. The AG couldn't be more mistaken. My hypothesis is that the AG himself is under some form of pressure to ensure that the investigation is terminated and the intervention of JL has shown him up for not having achieved the stopping of the investigation. - That if CS was corrupt that I was HMGOG that had to make the complaint. I told CM the charges CS could face were that of misconduct in public office – he said even with that offence, it had to be HMGOG that had to lay the complaint.
- HMGOG were the owners of the platform. We had requested evidence to support this for the outset. It had not been forthcoming and still wasn't. It was not right the RGP were being accused of conducting a flawed investigation.

I have discussed the above with my command team senior officers who are also concerned and worried about the level of interference by the CM and demeanour of the AG..

My considerations are as follows;
If the GPA, HMGOG, or HE have any concerns about the manner the investigation has been carriedout I would insist thatan external police service is asked review the whole of the investigation file.

I have concerns about the impartiality of the OCPL to prosecute the matter given the apparent lack of appetite of the AG to do so. I will respect the decision of not running a prosecution but that decision has to be taken by the DPP or AG. Neither have indicated that they are willing to do so. I am also concerned of reputational issues the RGP and I may face in light of the behaviour of the CM and AG.

The possibility of engaging independent counsel to look after my and the RGP's interests.

I have extended a request to the AG to meet face to face to clear up his mistaken impression of myself but this has been declined. He claims there has been a breach of trust which I vehemently refute.

The above is my immediate recollection of the events of today which have left me somewhat scarred and shaken. I did not expect the CM or AG to address me in the way they did on a live criminal investigation. More was said, particularly by the CM, but I will add to this text in due course once my recollection revives with further details.

I take this behaviour as a total affront to the operational independence of the RGP and it is deeply regrettable that I have to resort to speed type out these notes to safeguard myself from any possible reprisal, wherever that may come from, if indeed it comes and in what shape it manifests itself. I sincerely hope the need does not arise for me to take this matter further. In the meantime, the investigating team in OP Delhi continues with their function. They have carried out a pain staking investigation diligently and professionally. I only have praise for them.

[10/03/2020, 13:12:04] Ian McGrail: Our officers are ok. We are constantly keeping tabs of their welfare. We are expecting them to come today at some point to provide a detailed account of what occurred. This is in accordance with our force policy on post incident procedure. Thanks for your interest. Its much appreciated.

[10/03/2020, 13:15:57] Samantha Sacramento: By pure co-incidence, last Friday I asked my office to organise on site visits to the traffic and marine sections because I had not yet visited. Probably now best to wait no ?

[10/03/2020, 13:16:56] Ian McGrail: Perhaps we could arrange for next week?

[10/03/2020, 13:52:05] Samantha Sacramento: Yes fine no problem I will ask Natalie to arrange .

[12/03/2020, 20:59:17] Samantha Sacramento: Ian hi.

[08/03/2020, 06:05:57] Ian McGrail: Nick - We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

Once I have further updates I will let you know.

[08/03/2020, 09:27:56] [redacted] Ian. Thanks for letting me know. Sorry to hear this.

[08/03/2020, 09:29:38 [redacted] And of course if ty need anything from us/HMG just ask. Hope your guys are ok.

[08/03/2020, 09:41:03] Ian McGrail: Thanks Nick.

[08/03/2020, 13:33:57 [redacted] Thanks for the briefing. I'll do a quick note for London for when it hits the press. Line will be. Investigation ongoing. Spanish nationals from Cueta (did you sa one person was Portuguese). Not sure in whose waters incident took place. RGP seeking assistance from UK police authorities. No assistance needed from FCO at this stage.

[08/03/2020, 13:56:38 [redacted] Ok. Thanks.

[09/03/2020, 10:15:56 [redacted] Morning. I was with the AG last night and we wondered whether it would be worth having an update at some stage later this morning. We are keen to reac ioutnto Spain given talks this week in London (please protect).

[09/03/2020, 10:16:1[redacted] Michael and I are happy to come to NMH when convenient for you. Nick

[09/03/2020, 11:25:18] Ian McGrail: Happy for you to come to NMH. I am here now. Please feel free to come round.

[09/03/2020, 11:50:5[redacted] Ian thanks. Michael and I will come to you @ 12.05

[09/03/2020, 11:52:28] Ian McGrail: Let me know when you're downstairs and I will come down to meet you.

[09/03/2020, 11:52:5[redacted] Will do.

[09/03/2020, 12:05:3[redacted] Just arrive in reception

[10/03/2020, 13:15:28] Ian McGrail: Nick - can you take a call?

[08/03/2020, 06:05:07] Ian McGrail: CM - We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

[08/03/2020, 07:24:40] Fabian Picardo: Ian. Thank you. What are the nationalities of the deceased? Was it drugs or tobacco? Any GC or SVA involvement?

[08/03/2020, 07:33:49] Ian McGrail: So far we have 3 identified. 2 from Ceuta (moroccan decent) & a Portuguese. No Spanish law enforcement agency involved. RHIB suspected to be involved in drug smuggling. I have also informed The Convent. I have held a "Gold" command meeting in my office to address, welfare of the crew, the investigation that will now follow, security/safety to our law enforcement officers, community impact et al.

Also linked up with GC and CNP more so after the disturbances in La Linea after the other death involving the our customs patrol boat but given that those on the RHIB are not from this region it may not have an impact. I am still waiting for the 4th & (also deceased) to be identified.

[08/03/2020, 07:37:33] Ian McGrail: Just had the ID of the 4th one confirmed. He is also from Ceuta of Moroccan decent.

[08/03/2020, 07:40:51] Fabian Picardo: Thank you. Are our officers safely ashore and seen by med staff if necessary? Are their families informed they are ok, in case social media lets on there has been a fatal collision, so they don't worry?

[08/03/2020, 07:41:46] Fabian Picardo: Also, what time did it occur and was it firmly within BGTW or questionable?

[08/03/2020, 07:42:45] Fabian Picardo: I think we should announce if possible to avoid social media speculation. Have you prepared media release or do you want Stuart's help?

[08/03/2020, 07:42:57] Ian McGrail: Our crew are ok. Their welfare is being totally safeguarded. I am also circulating a notice to all staff to prevent speculation and social media reporting from within. I will issue a very brief press notice shortly.

[08/03/2020, 07:43:49] Fabian Picardo: Ok. Re the two who survived, captured? Hospital or cells?

[08/03/2020, 07:44:51] Ian McGrail: The two who survived are in hospital with non critical injuries as far as I am informed.

[08/03/2020, 08:14:28] Ian McGrail: They will be if they haven't been already.

[08/03/2020, 09:49:55] Ian McGrail: CM - the information suggests that the collision took place outside BGTW - approx 6NM east off the runway/Santa Barbara beach.

[08/03/2020, 09:53:23] Ian McGrail: When a death arises from police contact its best practice to engage with an independent investigating team & I am studying how to achieve this.

[08/03/2020, 09:53:35] Fabian Picardo: Ok. We need to liaise with AG on this and ensure we are transparent on this.

[08/03/2020, 09:54:02] Fabian Picardo: Yes, agreed. Any necessary additional expenditure will be approved.

[08/03/2020, 09:54:20] Ian McGrail: Many thanks.

[08/03/2020, 09:00:04] Ian McGrail: Joey - We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

I have advised HE, CM & MoJ already.

[08/03/2020, 10:34:54] [redacted] This message was deleted.

[08/03/2020, 10:58:54] [redacted] Not asking any questions of you in view that it is under investigation and for Coroner to determine. Just like to say that it is unfortunate, to say the least!

[09/03/2020, 14:33:28] Ian McGrail: Joey - been working through the weekend on this collision case.

I am going to email you, (or if you want Elka), to formally notify you of the incident and refer you the fact that an investigation is underway. For purposes of transparency, this investigation should be independent & therefore I am trying to source out a team willing to take on the task. In UK the IOPC (our PCB) would decide whether the investigation would be wholly independent of managed by them with an external 3rd party (senior officer) overseeing on their behalf. If we applied that locally, it would mean the PCB would manage the investigation and we'd require a senior UK Officer to oversee it on the PCB's behalf. The field work though would be done by RGP Professional Standards. It may not be the best model as the independence element is not total. Then again for practicalities sake it may prove useful. I need to discuss the matter further with you & perhaps Frank too but I'm conscious that you're away.

I have held meetings with the AG & HE (Nick Pyle) and they support my intent to secure the best model to use.

Regards

Ian

[09/03/2020, 14:35:11] [redacted] Thanks - best model to use, in my view, would be to outsource completely

[09/03/2020, 14:35:49] [redacted]: If I'm honest, the PCB would not have the necessary expertise

[09/03/2020, 14:36:15] [redacted]: Neither would anybody in the GPA, if we are honest

[09/03/2020, 14:36:25] Ian McGrail: I agree - I share your views. It would be most unfair on PCB.

[09/03/2020, 14:39:56] Ian McGrail: The GPA/PCB should though retain some control similar to that when they receive a complaint against Police. Technically there isn't a complaint as no family member has yet filed one but it could happen. Even if it didn't happen, the fact that deaths have occurred we should treat this as an external complaint and not as internal one generated by the RGP itself. This aside for the concurrent coroner's investigation that will also take place.

[09/03/2020, 14:40:55] [redacted] There has been another death at sea and GPA was not involved - why is this different ?

[09/03/2020, 14:41:30] Ian McGrail: Because it wasn't arising from contact with the Police. It was Customs.

[09/03/2020, 14:41:42] [redacted] Ok - I see

[09/03/2020, 14:42:46] [redacted]: Ok - we would both be back tomorrow-

[09/03/2020, 14:43:42] Ian McGrail: I will work to get an independent team out. ASAP. & we can discuss tomorrow. Time is of essence, will explain in person..... Politics.

[09/03/2020, 14:44:01] [redacted]: We can have a discussion about this tomorrow - I'm sure we'll take your advice anyway

[09/03/2020, 14:44:30] [redacted]: I'll give you a call tomorrow as soon as I get back

[09/03/2020, 14:44:36] Ian McGrail: Many thanks

[09/03/2020, 14:45:04] [redacted]: As I said, whatever is best practice etc

[09/03/2020, 14:45:21] Ian McGrail:

[09/03/2020, 15:15:26] [redacted]: Ian - I'm flying in to Malaga tomorrow at around 5.00 so I'll call you as soon as I'm in Gib - even if it's late in the evening... ok?

[09/03/2020, 15:25:13] Ian McGrail: Ofcourse. No probs.

[10/03/2020, 11:33:49] [redacted]: Ian I've had to change travel plans and get the AVE instead of flying! I'll be in Gib later than expected - if you prefer, I can go to see you with Frank (hopefully) on Wednesday morning? Let me know if you are ok with this...

[10/03/2020, 12:29:04] Ian McGrail: Yes fine. I am going to forward you an email I have sent to UK NPOC who coordinate requests for assistance. Its just for your information.

[10/03/2020, 12:56:03] [redacted]: Ok

[10/03/2020, 12:59:10] [redacted]: When you can also let me know the time to meet tomorrow

[10/03/2020, 13:17:09] [redacted]: See you then.

[10/03/2020, 13:28:05] [redacted]: Got your email but for some reason I can't reply! Do you need me to do anything? Do you want me to see if Nick can help?

[10/03/2020, 13:28:42] Ian McGrail: Don't need anything from yourself, it was just for your info. Gonna speak with Nick now.

[10/03/2020, 13:29:23] [redacted]: Count on me - you know that!

[10/03/2020, 13:32:21] Ian McGrail: I know. Many thanks.

[12/03/2020, 15:49:54] Ian McGrail: Joey - just sent you an email with an update press notice I want to send. The Met team coming over asked me to consider this. i have shared it with them too & I'm waiting for a reply.

[17/03/2020, 13:40:50] [redacted]: In terms of coping with demands of Corona and investigation

[17/03/2020, 13:41:55] Ian McGrail: Ploughing on with all thats on our plate. We have 13 officers in self isolation. We are adjusting ourselves accordingly to be as resilient as possible.

[17/03/2020, 13:44:36] [redacted]: Or do you prefer I call?

[17/03/2020, 13:45:41] Ian McGrail: Can I brief you later.

[17/03/2020, 13:46:33] [redacted]: I know you are extremely busy - I'll arrange for a call tomorrow at some point -take care.

[17/03/2020, 13:47:10] Ian McGrail:

[19/03/2020, 13:30:45] Ian McGrail: Michael - Held video conference with GC as they wouldn't meet face to face because of the pandemic.

They were obviously cagey with our UK colleagues but it served well to demonstrate that we were totally transparent. The UK team were happy with the meeting. What I was able to elicit from GC is that a judge is still to be assigned the matter & it is likely that it'll be a judge from La Linea. Again because of their lock down there are delays in their courts.

GC anticipate that when appointed, the judge will request information and accounts from us. What form this will take is not clear - the judge could potentially summons our officers to provide their statements in person or simply request their accounts via police to police channels. What mechanisms we should rely on to facilitate this, were we to oblige, is something we'll need to discuss. GC also expects the family of the deceased to file a complaint in their courts to seek compensation. This will no doubt complicate matters for us as the judge may be swayed to look at the matter from a different perspective in terms of where the collision took place.

GC are requesting from us for photos of the vessels, post mortem reports & statements from those involved in the collision. We have to carefully study this request and weigh the pros and cons of withholding the data or provide it at some point.

Speak soon.

[19/03/2020, 13:32:32] [redacted] Ok - thanks for this, Ian.

[19/03/2020, 13:32:47] [redacted]: Let's see what happens

[19/03/2020, 13:33:11] [redacted]: Indeed!

[20/03/2020, 10:28:23] [redacted]: Good morning, Ian - just a thought, are you keeping Governor abreast of developments...? Also, maybe send an update to CM via the WhatsApp? Note that this is just my thinking and nobody has actually asked me but I think it would be prudent...?? See what you think

[20/03/2020, 10:54:25] [redacted]: Developments in respect of maritime accident, I meant...

[20/03/2020, 10:58:01] Ian McGrail: Yes The Convent is up to speed and AG too. Michael fed up to CM. By next week the UK Team will have more clarity on what route they will be suggesting this should take locally. That is a good point to provide a more formal update.

[20/03/2020, 10:59:42] [redacted]: As long as both are kept updated, that was my concern...

[20/03/2020, 10:59:49] Ian McGrail:

[20/03/2020, 10:59:55] [redacted]

During the course of a high-speed pursuit shortly afterwards, there was a collision between both vessels, and this resulted in the death 2 of the 4 RHIB's occupants, namely:

[redacted]

The remaining 2 occupants sustained injuries of various types, and were conveyed to St Bernard's Hospital in Gibraltar where they received treatment for their injuries and later discharged.

[redacted]

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were arrested on suspicion of Importing a Prohibited Import (14mt RHIB), Dangerous Navigation and Obstructing Police. [redacted] gave a "No comment" interview at New Mole House Police station and [redacted] gave only a brief account of events stating that he had been 1 of the 4 RHIB's occupants and that they had been chased by Police between Gibraltar and Spanish waters prior to the collision between both vessels.

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were later bailed out in the sum of £2500.00 to return to New Mole House Police Headquarters at 1100hrs on the 4th June 2020 whilst enquiries continue.

A Coroner's investigation is already underway into the deaths of [redacted] and [redacted] and post-mortem examinations will be conducted by a Forensic Pathologist on Wednesday 11th March and Thursday 12th March 2020. The Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police has sought assistance of specialist investigators from the United Kingdom.

[11/03/2020, 19:09:56] Ian McGrail: HE (Nick) is asking for confirmation of where collision took place as London are keen to know. I have informed him along the same lines that you advised CM ie that is highly probable that it happened outside BGTW.

[11/03/2020, 19:15:11] Michael Llamas: Ian that seems fine to me. Factual whilst being amenable to further precision once you o Tain further details

PR will not say where incident occurred but it is virtually certain it was outside BGTW eastern side opposite runway. It also seems that part of the chase was within BGTW .

[11/03/2020, 17:39:06] Ian McGrail: You deleted this message.

[11/03/2020, 18:02:19] Ian McGrail: Michael - we have still not provided any official account to GC of the incident at sea and they have asked for a brief from us. I am now at a stage where I also require background details of those who were on-board the RHIB as this is being requested by the independent investitagtion team. I can hardly ask them for these details when we haven't released anything official to them. Its only prudent to do so I propose to send them the below details and on the back of this make our request to them. I would appreciate your views on what i propose to send.

STARTS

Ref: Initial Incident Report – Collision at Sea with fatalities

At about 0300hrs on Sunday 8th March 2020, officers from the Royal Gibraltar Police Marine Interceptor Sir John Chapple (Bravo 4) communicated with the Guardia Civil COS in relation to the presence of a suspect susect vessel activity in waters off the Playa de Santa Barbara, near to the eastern side between Gibraltar and La Linea. Bravo 4 deployed and remained ready to engage at a point approximately 3 miles East of the runway. Soon afterwards a chase ensued with the suspect vessel and Bravo 4 challenging the vessel, a 14mt semi-rigid hulled inflatable vessel (RHIB) crewed by 4 occupants, powered by 4 x 300hp engines and fitted with Garmin radar. The said vessel was suspected to be involved in illicit drugs trafficking activity.

GC anticipate that when appointed, the judge will request information and accounts from us. What form this will take is not clear - the judge could potentially summons our officers to provide their statements in person or simply request their accounts via police to police channels. What mechanisms we should rely on to facilitate this, were we to oblige, is something we'll need to discuss. GC also expects the family of the deceased to file a complaint in their courts to seek compensation. This will no doubt complicate matters for us as the judge may be swayed to look at the matter from a different perspective in terms of where the collision took place.

GC are requesting from us for photos of the vessels, post mortem reports & statements from those involved in the collision. We have to carefully study this request and weigh the pros and cons of withholding the data or provide it at some point.

Speak soon.

[09/03/2020, 20:08:50] Fabian Picardo: Today I spoke to the British Ambassador in Madrid. He was having Interior Minister Grande Marlaska in for lunch today. He will express our desire for a full and transparent investigation that will assure the families of the deceased that they have the truth relating to their passing. Anything I can report on progress through that channel will be helpful, although, from what I understand, we have Spanish law enforcement on side.

[09/03/2020, 20:13:57] Ian McGrail: On side so far CM. The AG is up to speed on this. I am politely resisting sharing any information with ES LEAs until such time as we are certain oursleves of keys issues eg exact details of the pursuit etc. My own officers have only supplied a very preliminary account shortly after the incident & as per our post incident procedures will providing a more detailed account between tomorrow and Wednesday. [09/03/2020, 20:15:42] Fabian Picardo: Of course. I played for time saying we were on holiday and we would likely see a ramping up of activity next 48 hrs.

[09/03/2020, 20:19:14] Ian McGrail: We are going through a host of operational actions which include engaging independent police investigators, sourcing a forensic pathologist, a martime accident investigator, examination of digital devices amongst others.

[09/03/2020, 20:24:40] [redacted] Thank you for update.

[11/03/2020, 13:49:40] Ian McGrail: A quick upate -

Forensic pathologist has landed & will be performing PM with the GHA pathologist hopefully today if we can convince GHA to carry out a CT scan of the corpses today pre-autopsy. I reckon that as soon as the bodies can be released to the families for burial it'll ease off tensions.

An independent team from Scotland Yard's Professional Standards Directorate have agreed to fly out. They will arrive either tomorrow or Friday & review what we have done so far & then take over the investigation.

[12/03/2020, 16:13:17] Ian McGrail: All - An update for your info:

The post mortems have been carried out & HM Coroner has now released bodies to the famililes. Chris Finch is representing the families.

The independent team from London will be arriving tomorrow morining. They are 5 in number, headed by a superintendent.

The 3 officers are in a bad way psychologically and have not yet provided a full account of the incident though our procedures allow for upto 7 days for them to do so in certain circumstances. The Fed are bringing out a specialist lawyer from UK to advise the off cers and they are being advised not to produce their respective accounts until then. An awkward s tuation indeed.

In terms of the investigation proper the evidence points at the pursuit & collision occurring outside BGTW. Not the best news we wanted to hear.

Rgds

Ian

[12/03/2020, 17:08:15] Frank Carreras: Ian, many thanks for the update.

[12/03/2020, 17:09:47] Fabian Picardo: Thank you Ian. Location does not worry me so much. Helps us in a way. Will discuss directly with you.

[12/03/2020, 17:10:30] Ian McGrail: Many thanks.

Tape counter times	Person speaking	Text
00:0125	I McGrail	Hi gents.
	Mr Llamas	Good afternoon, you alright?
00:038		Okay, so with Blands, we've got various documents (inaudible) including the one that you've just emm... (inaudible) I've got others.
		Can I have a glass of water
	Nicole (AG's PA)	Its just
		Ah sorry
	Nicole	No problems. Coffees?
		Cheers
	Mr Llamas	Does anyone want a coffee?
		I'll have one thanks.
	I McGrail	No thanks.
	Supt Richardson Richardson	No thank you.
		(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	Total.
	Nicole	Do you want sugar Christian?
	Mr Rocca	Have you got sweetener?
	Nicole	We do yeah?
	Mr Rocca	One please. Thank you
	Nicole	Okay.
00:02.19	Mr Llamas	Okay, so, let's take this step by step. Okay, yo, the first thing I'd like to know Ian, is why did you get a search warrant? Why did you go for the most oppressive means of getting that, without asking Jaime Levy for an interview?

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	I McGrail	Okay, the, that was considered, the data that we wanted was obtainable on a search warrant, we did not expect him to hand it over willingly. Emm... we are looking at WhatsApp chats y todo, (inaudible) and emm.... the fact that we treated others in the same way, in the same investigation, and we are not looking at the chambers, we are looking at Jaime Levy as the individual. That is the reason why the investigation team, I'll allow Paul to elaborate further, but that's the main reason why the investigation team thought that this was the, the pertinent way to deal with it. He had to be interviewed under, under caution, that was the line of enquiry that we had to emm... carry out and I reiterate, before we proceeded to the proposing of charges. Because it would not make any sense whatsoever to propose charges until we had eliminate it, because he could have... and I was hoping and we were all hoping that he would have potentially cleared up many of the things. He may well have. And in regards the question of the charges may be different in posture to you, so that is something that I have to assert here from the word go. That's, that's my position and I cannot shift from that, because that is the truth.
00:0400	Mr Llamas	Sorry what's the truth?
	I McGrail	That, I would be reverting to you with the proposed charges, once Jaime Levy was dealt with.
	Mr Llamas	That's a separate issue between you and me and emm...we know we disagree in that, it was absolutely clear what we agreed in this room. Pero let's not talk about that.
	I McGrail	Bueno, pero it, it captures it, because emm.. Jaime Levy may be able to eliminate a lot of the issues that we, we have and if he does then, it has the bearing of what I present to you as, or to the DPP for the question of charges, it would have.
	Mr Llamas	For me it was clear, since you raised the matter, I repeat my position, from which I would never budge because I am 200% certain of what we discussed here, in this room, that day. You, both left this room with an agreement that you were going to rationalise the grounds and that you would come. Nothing else would happen, and that once you had rationalised the grounds, reduce the 76 charges to whatever you reduced it. We were going to call Christian in, we were going to assume that ownership emm... to, to the Government and therefore we would have placed ourselves in an absolute legally certain position and you would have advanced with that initially and then with time you would have been able to assess, with time, the question of ownership, would hopefully would have been clarified, which would have opened more doors or not for you. And for me it was clear that your, your, your text of yesterday, whilst all this was happening, emm... Bueno, you know how I feel about it.

MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

		Pero we are not here to discuss that Ian, we've obviously got very different views about what we discussed. I'm just trying to now get to a position where the likelihood as you have seen is that Hassans are going to be emm... challenging the actions that you've taken. And the first question that I know has caused a lot of bitterness with, with Jaime Levy and with Hassans, is the search warrant. You must have known from me, that I would not have supported that. Christian has not advised you that you, should, should do that, and therefore you have taken that decision on your own as its your right to do. Emm... I mean, this was a part of an investigation, que incluso, Christian and I, often speak about it, we are getting involved in a part of the investigation, which at the end of the day, is your call, we both got involved and I got involved in particular because I think it is a matter that's needs to be dealt with, with a lot of care and attention. And that is, I hope is why you know, I am involved in this and for no other reason. Because sometimes I wonder why you think why am I getting involved in this, I've got millions of other things to do rather than to be occupied over this. So, we think that a first point of challenge is going to be the search warrant, pero our understanding of your, of your narrative here is that you did not actually use it to get the information that he voluntarily. The search warrant was there but not actually used. And they may argue, while there was the threat of the search warrant and whatever, but your decision to get a search warrant was motivated by a fear that he would not cooperate other by doing that.
00:0748	I McGrail	And I, and I (inaudible) the effect of the search warrant is still live, because of the email abstractions. That's, if they do not provide those emails, it shows that the voluntary aspect and we've lost that. We've lost that because we now have to, the capability issues, of not being able to trawl through eighty million emails. We are unable to, that would have taken an inordinate amount of time to go through, and that would not have been practical and therefore Paul put the, the, made the call of saying okay, we are not going to trust you that you are going to extract, the numbering them up on the voluntary basis. But that can, that voluntary basis maybe now potentially be held back, given that not only are they challenging the legality of the warrant, they are now making criminal allegations against us.
	Mr Ilamas	Hmm...
	I McGrail	Hasta ahi llegaria la broma ya. Ahora lo malo somos nosotros. Tela.
	Mr Llamas	Okay so, then they are going to say that, as you know, that...
	I McGrail	What, what, what they have clearly (inaudible) and they make different claim, I make this suggestion very, very, very early on, if there is any doubt on the part of the DPP, on your part, or anybody else's part, or Hassans' part that we have flawed this investigation....

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

00:0910	Mr Llamas	That you have what?
	I McGrail	Made a flawed investigation, on the process and everything else, what I'll do today is offer my, offer every single paper, every single file, every single exhibit, to an independent police service to look into it. And what I can anticipate that would show, is that we wouldn't, that any other Police force, would not have gone, in the way that we have done. They would have picked up Jaime Levey at six o'clock in the morning. Now if that, that is where this is going, I am now officially asking, that this matter be investigated by an external police service. To see whether the RGP has flawed in this investigation.
	Mr Llamas	Fine.
9.49	I McGrail	I think, because I am getting cornered, being accused of criminality and that is, you, all of you know it here, que that is not on. This is now, trying to, to muscle me out of it. I may not even last in my post, pero Ian McGrail se viste por los pies, my integrity will not, my ethics are at this level and nobody will bring them down. Nobody. Si me tengo que ir me ire, yo me voy a la calle con la cara bien alta. Ian McGrail or the team that have been dealing with it is not corrupt. Eso te lo puedo garantizar. I am passionate of what I'm, what I'm saying. Passionate beyond anybody que se me pueda poner por delante. I have to tell you, because I have to vent my frustration. Its, its, its, this is an affront, this is an affront, to, to, to the legal process. As far as I am concerned.
00:1046	Mr Llamas	You, you have (inaudible) that nobody in this room has emm... questions your, your ethics emm... if Hassans are going to challenge you....
	I McGrail	No pero on the question of the investigation. The question of the investigation, the standards that this investigation has been compiled with, address and dealt with, and more so of how we have dealt with, the, the, the issue of yesterday, whether any police service, any police service, would have acted in the discrete, with the discretion and the, and the, and the approach that we have done.
	DPP	May I, may I
	I McGrail	And I invite...
	DPP	I have been involved, relatively early doors with Delhi, so, so I...probably more so (inaudible) I certainly I have no doubt that (inaudible) no doubt of the integrity of the investigation at all. Its been done properly and what Paul and I agreed at a very early stage was as a result of how the investigation was conducted, Jaime was a legitimate source of enquiry. We agree that Paul.
	I McGrail	As a suspect

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	DPP	I and Michael knows that.
	DPP	As a suspect, I mean he needed to be asked questions to clarify certain issues of the conspiracy and that would either resolve it or it would resolve. Whether I think, and again, I've always made it clear to Paul and to you, I don't get involved in operational matters. My view was that the warrant should come, if at all, post to interview. Look there is an operational matter for you on the ground, therefore my (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	and that is what's causing the (inaudible)
	I McGrail	And I, I accept that. I accept that. Had we gone to deal with Hassan's as the enterprise, yes I would accept that. Because probably the search warrant would not have been the valid one. That would have been (inaudible) category. But that is not the case. If we go, if we go and we have to be grown, we have to be realistic here. If we go and ask Jaime Levy, because I ask the same question to somebody else yesterday, if I was to ask you, as a senior partner in your previous firm, emm. Chris, would you hand over your mobile device to me voluntarily? What is your genuine answer?
	Mr Rocca	I would have, (inaudible) denied.
	I McGrail	No but, I mean when, when we show up at your office, or your office. Would you hand your mobile voluntarily?
	Mr Rocca	I would ask what, what its for?
	I McGrail	Of course, yes. But we've told you, we've read you that, (inaudible) because the first thing we do is we, we give you under caution, would you by then hand over anything?
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	You would sir? You would hand it over?
	Mr Rocca	Sorry?
00:1321	Supt Richardson	You would hand it over?
	Mr Rocca	Why wouldn't I?
	Supt Richardson	Well Jaime Levy didn't hand it over until nine o'clock. Ten hours later.
	Mr Llamas	Bueno because I think the, the approach was...
	Supt Richardson	So that answers the question. He wouldn't hand it over voluntarily. He wouldn't even.
	Mr Llamas	Pero he did, pero he did.
	Supt Richardson	He handed it over after exhausting all legal avenues to challenge it. He wouldn't even come to his own office. He told me he wouldn't come in.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	Mr Llamas	And do you think his reaction would have been different if you didn't have a search warrant?
	Supt Richardson	Then how would I have forced the issue? It took nine hours of persuading to hand it over with a warrant.
	Mr Llamas	But may be you wouldn't have needed the nine hours without the search warrant.
	Supt Richardson	I can't take that sir. That is sir, with greatest respect, it was an operational decision, I disagreed with the DPP on that, I will be criticised, I could not stand up in court and say, I have dealt with this man differently from this man because of any offence that might be caused and that is exactly what has happened.
	Mr Llamas	Its not because of what offence that may be caused, there is a, I think, I think and I stand to be corrected, there is a difference between Jaime Levy and the others. This is a very senior member of our community and above all, the head of chambers of the biggest law firm in Gibraltar. Whose phone will obviously contain hundreds of privileged
	I McGrail	A lot of sensitive data.
	Mr Llamas	Not just sensitive, Ian, privileged.
00:14:50	I McGrail	Yeah. Absolutely. And that can be protected. And that
	Mr Llamas	Especially…
	I McGrail	And that can be protected.
	Supt Richardson	Let's not lose fact that the fact (inaudible) more than one phone and the phone that he used the messages, doesn't have any more. He didn't know where it was.
	Mr Llamas	But that's besides the point, Paul. The, the point is that you went to one of the most senior guy, legal people in Gibraltar, an officer of the court, okay and you, there are ways in which, I mean I've been involved in a few cases, like this and the way that (inaudible) case; is you go for a production order and you identify the key words that you want to search and information is then provided in relation to them.
	I McGrail	that's when it's the financial institution in terms of banks and
	Mr Llamas	Si that's, that's true.
	I McGrail	Right look, this is not the first time, in the same way that you've, with respect that you've had that experience, I've had the experience of Jaime Levy telling me that the RGP and its investigation, and would never see the light to day, the case, the case would never see the light of day in the Marrache Inquiry. I'm used to this.
	Supt Richardson	The same language that was used yesterday.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

00:1600	I McGrail	And exactly the same, con que, mira. Emm.. que me va venir con una banderita y decirme I'm guilty. I mean, I don't expect him to do that. Pero, we have a job to do. And I...and I'm getting criticised and questioned because of the job that I am doing. And I am doing it on the, on the strength of a court order.
	Supt Richardson	He was treated with kid gloves, he thanked me....
	I McGrail	Como, como
	Supt Richardson	For the, the discretion.
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible)
	I McGrail	No, no, no he says it in between because, pero he has to come across Paul....
	Supt Richardson	We, we didn't even have badges on when we went there
	I McGrail	He used the word terror, he was terrorised.
	Supt Richardson	There was no, there was no searches in his office.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) darmelo, or I'll execute the warrant, I can understand that, but look I think we are losing...
	Supt Richardson	But Chris, Chris, if I go to your office and I say, Chris give me your phone, I'm going to execute a warrant and you are feeling threatened to do that, but if you then go out and consult leading counsel in the UK and spend you 20 minutes on the phone with Leading Silk, and come back and say, the means are telling me that this is judicial review, I want to show that I'm helping but and we wait nine hours later and we are still debating. There is no threat there, there is no urgency being applied.
	I McGrail	I'm gonna be honest, I'm gonna be honest, Paul on the way up, and this, he doesn't even know what I'm going to say, Paul on the way dice, I regret, que esta son, pasan cosa and you are gonna remember a particular case, whether we can draw correlation. I regret not getting the phone from the word go.
	Supt Richardson	Hmm...
	I McGrail	Y ahi no se cachondea nadie con nosotros. Que ahora mismito se estan cachondeando. Remember the flawed drug search, in the case Regina versus the late Andrew Bonavia, that you defended?
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	I McGrail	Where we accommodated....
	Supt Richardson	Yeah, yeah, yeah.
	I McGrail	The plea of the individual, por favor no ponga el perro en la cama, por favor no ponga el perro, y bueno, bueno esta bien, no lo vamos a poner, po vamos a registrar and that turned back on us.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	I McGrail	Po esto could easily turn back on us because he's been having the phone for nine hours, defence counsel could, will say he could have done anything with that phone. Phone or whatever. And that is something that he would have to live with as C as SIO.
	Supt Richardson	Because he's a senior member of a respected law firm in Gibraltar.
00:1802	I McGrail	Nine hours is practically more than a working day. And for us to be accused de que le habemos puesto presion, pa, pa, presion hubiese sido si yo te lo quito, eh. Eso es lo hubiera hecho cualquiera otra policia. Y eso te lo puedo garantizar eh. Conque como nos van a criticar de ser over bearing and over forceful….
	DPP	(inaudible_
	Supt Richardson	That's fair enough if you don't know the facts, but I was there and Jaime was there, and
	I McGrail	The recorded, the recorded
	Supt Richardson	Nothing was seized and it was handed over, when he gave me, when he gave me his laptop and his ipad in his house, I gave it back to him. I told him James I can't take this from you until you agree to hand it over by consent or if I take it by warrant. That didn't happen until an hour later. And when he signed that we took possession of it, not before.
	Mr Rocca	As we have agreed operationally its your call, that Michael may have handled it differently, that I may have handled it differently. Its your call.
	Supt Richardson	That's, that's fair enough
	Mr Rocca	Igual me estan criticando a mi que al Commissioner.
	Supt Richardson	I'm not a lawyer and you are not a police officer, I think that's a
	Mr Rocca	And you would have handled it differently to (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Ahha, ahha.
	Mr Rocca	We take decisions based on, on information available and I think we can part there, you took your decisions, they are nuance decisions. We all accept that but that, moving forwarded where are we? I think the first thing, and Michael and I had a quick chat about it, I think the first, I think we need to write to the Magistrates Court, no advise them…
	I McGrail	We have done that already.
	Mr Rocca	Yeah, advising them that we have, we have clarified that the information was not obtained under the search warrant, therefore the is no basis whatsoever with disclosure of the information they seek. Why are they seeking for disclosure of the search warrant information?

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	Supt Richardson	Why? Because the information that was laid will form the basis of the interview on Monday. And they know that they will have to come in on Monday and they want the questions in advance.
	Mr Rocca	Beside of the tipping of from the investigation, if the warrant was not exercised, wasn't served on Jaime Levy and the information was obtained not under the search warrant, they had no right to have that information under the search warrant.
	Supt Richardson	But the, truly they can't have a right anyway.
	Mr Rocca	If they were in jail they can.
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible)
	I McGrail	But not only that, they will argue that they need that information, because
	Mr Llamas	Because?
00:2007	I McGrail	Because if they are, there case is that they were threatened with the search warrant, then the, the material that was used to apply for it is relevant.
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible)
	I McGrail	So, so, they won't, they will spin it again to say, you had the warrant, even though you didn't use it, but you had it as a, as a lever to make compel us. En esta cosa, y mira me... paso con Waterson...
	Supt Richardson	Well that's exactly what...
	I McGrail	Y me paso, yo tengo ya el court order, I, I execute the warrant, es que we... mañana me, I, I kick myself, I'm kicking myself, bueno he is kicking himself because that's his call, pero, we would kick ourselves the same, etso no nos pasa mas. Y despues nos ponemos blando otra ves; yo tengo un warrant ya puedan decir lo que sea, el warrant is executed.
	Supt Richardson	That's what they do.
	I McGrail	Y ya esta. Y te quita de complicaciones, ni voluntarily, ni si esto, que si lo otro, que si para arriba y para abajo. Pero we execute it, no que ahora estan... claro I was executing, but you didn't execute it, because he volunteered it, pero he volunteered because he was under threat. 	Supt Richardson	Yeah.

	Mr Llamas	So Christian, what are the different channels.
	Mr Rocca	I'm, I'm not, I'm not clear. I'm not clear at all. There are clearly, there's, there's a number of attacks here one is against Paul and misfeasance allegation....
	I McGrail	Bueno I think I have to, I have to
	Mr Rocca	I think you have to investigate that.
	I McGrail	No, no, no, not investigate, not investigate that, that that; that allegation I am taking personally too. He is my officer. I stand in front of him for all of this.
	Mr Rocca	Yeah.
00:2248	I McGrail	Con que vamos a dejarnos de...
	Mr Rocca	No, no
	I McGrail	Que yo tengo dosciento cincuenta y pico de policia
	Supt Richardson	The other thing is, if you want, if you are going to, its suggest that we are going to investigate this ourselves, lets handover everything to a UK force and let them doing that for us.
	Mr Rocca	Si, because the allegations of misfeasance at the moment, are allegations only. And I think they need to make a formal complaint to the investigation before.

	Mr Llamas	I, I, I think Ian, to be honest with you, Ian, we are meeting with emm, because you have rightly emm... sought our legal advice, anticipating what most certainly is going to come.
	I McGrail	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	Whether they are going to fight this any way possible.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	No, I don't know, they don't want the publicity. (inaudible) about Jaime Levy's telephone and ipad.
	Supt Richardson	Do you want this, do you want that affidavit aired in court? That lays out all the communication he's had with Caine Sanchez and everybody else?
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I don't, I don't see it.
	Mr Rocca	I mean I haven't seen the warrant. I haven't seen the information.
	Supt Richardson	I said, I said exactly the same thing to Jaime yesterday. Jaime was...he was talking with me constantly throughout the whole afternoon. And he was asking me what do I do, who shall I speak to, who is going to speak to me? What would you do if I was, and he, and he, I don't know whether to judicially review it. My counsel is advising me this, but I'm thinking the other, I want to be cooperative. Emm... we had the exact same thing came up on the judicial review.
	Mr Rocca	They are simple to try to put pressure on you to push the information. And there are avenues for that.
	Supt Richardson	Because this is, this is...
	Mr Rocca	There are legal avenues...
	I McGrail	And I want to, I want to, because I am..... well I may come across as rigid, but I think you know me deeper than what your thoughts were, a reasonable person, very reasonable and I can; I may not be as intelligent as the others in this room and I'm very reasonable and I can... adonde he llegado me lo he currado and this is the third time; my proposal for this will be put for the third time; we as the investigators, we are doing a job, we produce the evidence, we've consulted with the DPP. The DPP sees that there is, we thought that there is, but confirmed with the DPP, the DPP sees that there is a case to be put to the, to...to...to trial. I get the whole periphery, I get it all. I cannot pull it, you can. You can, Michael.
00:2510	Mr Llamas	Pero no tiene, no teien que llegar a eso Ian.
	I McGrail	Pero bueno, es que who stops it, I cannot stop it. I... I cannot say, I... there is no offence. We have determined there are offences, we've determined that there is a, a, a, a, a, a highly prospect, which is not, even the DPP's call, but he supports that.

	Mr Rocca	Evidential, there's evidential...
	I McGrail	Threshold.
	Mr Rocca	Evidential... passed
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely, and I've known that from the beginning.
	I McGrail	Ahora, ahora, if, if we cannot and I, I would understand and...and I've said it, I've said it before, I would not raise any objections if this is pulled, but I will not pull it, Ian, the RGP cannot pull it. And if there are legal routes to pull it, those, I'm asking why not.
	Mr Llamas	Let me ask you one question if I may? One of the areas you wanted to interview Jaime on, is communications with the Chief Minister.
	I McGrail	I got con...I got to read that post that being served and I questioned that too. Paul would be better to (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	This isn't, there is no emm... there is no great, assuming we don't uncover anything on the device, which might be worth, a sticking point. But there is no great issue behind that, but what Caine Sanchez and the other persons involved in this have been doing, is to seek Jaime's influence with the Chief Minister to get him an appointment so that he can find out what's happening with the platform. So that, are we gonna get it back? Is the Chief Minister likely to change his mind? There is a lot of messages to him. I don't know what he said back again.
00:2648	I McGrail	Or, or whether, or Jaime Levy actually communicated with him
	Supt Richardson	Acted, he may not have acted with the Chief Minister.
	I McGrail	Precisely. He may not have acted on any of them
	Supt Richardson	So everybody is asking him to do things and he may not have
	I McGrail	A Sanchez (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	So the other suspects are telling Jaime Levy, to speak to the Chief Minister, to see whether the Chief Minister can change his mind, or they, whether Jaime can influence the Chief Minister in whatever way.
	Supt Richardson	For example, we got no decision, see if you can nudge the Chief Minister, he'll listen to you. Another one is, are we likely to get our platform back. (inaudible) I need my contract back. Yeah. Emm... and Jaime responds in that case, I don't think the Chief Minister will agree to it, and then another one he says, is it, is it likely for the contract to go out for tender now, and he says, yes will try again next month. That's the sort of thing. So it is clear there has been communication between Jaime and the parties involved in this, what we are suspecting in the conspiracy to defraud and there seems to have been some communication between the Chief Minister and Jaime. But I don't know where that is and we haven't with the Chief Minister

	Mr Rocca	And we disagreed on, on where the line, the debate in my office.
	Supt Richardson	Hmm...
	Mr Rocca	Where the line lied in relation to conspiracy to defraud and sharp business practices. Is that the, tu tiene contacto con el Chief Minister, al me un appointment. That for me was not part of a conspiracy to defraud.
	Sup	Ahha....
00:2815	Mr Rocca	But what Paul was looking at was more of the conversation between Jaime and the other people involved.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah, Sanchez and
	I McGrail	And I think and I know, pero aqui hay mas mayores that, that go right over my head. Jaime has on, on video has alluded to that I am under pressure from the Governor to see this investigation through.
	Mr Llamas	You?
	I McGrail	Yeah. No se de adonde viene eso.
	Mr Llamas	Adonde lo ha dicho eso?
	I McGrail	Emm... en, on, on tape delante de toda esta gente ahi en...
	Supt Richardson	Because he was suggesting that this is led from outside, that we are being compelled...
	I McGrail	And, and, and...
	Supt Richardson	...to act in this way.
	Mr Llamas	And where is that in one of the WhatsApp's?
	I McGrail	No, no, this is, te lo digo porque emm... it concerns me, because we've got it on tape, and that is not the case. You know how this investigation has been driven. Aqui no ha habido influencia de, de across the road, at all, at all. That they know that emm.... Governor Ed Davis knew at the time when a, a year, over a year and half ago, I briefed him that we were commencing an investigation. Yes, it is my duty to brief him on national security matters. Yes, pero ese hombre ni me ha preguntado mas, ni me ha dicho mas nada, nada, nada de nada de eso.
	Mr Llamas	I have no...
	I McGrail	For Jaime, no, no es que Jaime said it.
	Supt Richardson	And he was very sensitive about this because David Dumas told me the same thing when he came up to represent John Perez on

	Mr Llamas	What I have heard to be very honest, emm... here, that Gaggero had lumbered you into this investigation, that I have heard. In, in, in the investigation.
	Supt Richardson	And Levy said as much yesterday on, on camera. I know where that, what he suggests and he is completely, Gaggero...
00:3024	I McGrail	Innuendo, again. The one of talking to the Chief Minister.
	Supt Richardson	I will, I will, its understood, Gaggero is very apologetic for having spoken to the Chief Minister about this matter, I think it, that was, but I can understand his logic with it and he has apologised over and over again.
	I MgG	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	What, what, Gaggero, was taking civil action against all these people. [redacted] Remember that what they had done was they had registered it in different names, they changed the address [redacted]. Emm.. and he, he was commencing his legal action to, to pursue that and obviously protect his civil rights. We had asked him not to take action until we had intervened with the, with the main suspect. Because to do that he would be laying information about the hacking, about I've had people examining this information, this system. So we were saying, please hold on, please hold on, please hold on. Our investigation took longer, longer than; we initially agreed that we would take a month and we would be able to say, in a month you can go ahead with this. The month turned out to be five months before we were in a position. We had to negotiate with the NCA, we don't have the capability to examine devices like that, this is a huge... this is a national scale job in the United Kingdom. So he, we, he was advised, when we were going to be issuing, taking action, but not against who and not how. Just, can you wait until, for example, next Tuesday and by then we shall be in a position to resolve all of this. He foolishly and, and apologies unreservedly and says that I admonished him for this. He saw the Chief Minister outside the emm... No. 6 one day, I think he went up to him and says, I hear its going down today. Thinking that, that emm... that the Chief Minister would be pleased to know tha the matter they had been bringing to his attention with Caine

		Sanchez going behind his back and believing that this information was going to be addressed. He said this, I think in front of a Special Branch officer, now Jaime is suggesting that because of that I am colluding, we are colluding with James Gaggero. And I have a recording of everything, I have a recording and note of every conversation that I've had with Gaggero and there has not been one time, that he has tried to influence me in anyway at all. On the contrary, he always starts of saying, don't tell me anything, I don't want to know, emm.. I just need to know, is it likely to go on beyond this or are we still on track. Or do you need any more sup...any more support from my staff. That is the only thing that he's, he's raised with us, those sorts of issues.
00:3300	Mr Llamas	Okay, anyway, entonces, lets come back to this. Do you think, they will not, Hassans will not having anything or will not be able to.....
	Mr Rocca	Or its all bluff.
	Mr Llamas	If they were, what will you do? They could challenge the search warrant on the basis that it was used as a sword to get the information
	Mr Rocca	Yeah and the consent wasn't really a consent. They could try that.
	Supt Richardson	Well, that would mean that the Magistrate was completely misled.
	Mr Rocca	I doubt that the JR, I don't see it. Emm...
	I McGrail	At the end of the day you could hold that against a vulnerable person, I mean this is....
	Mr Rocca	Not after consulting with lawyers.

	Mr Rocca	So that you can...the problem you've got is, you've got mixed material, if you go to an office and you say I want this, this and, this is not privileged and I want this, ooh, but this, this contains both.
	I McGrail	You see actually he started of saying that the whole of the, the whole of the phone, the data that was in the phone was legally privileged material.
00:3410	Mr Rocca	Well it can't be (inaudible)

	Supt Richardson	And if I, if that happens, I would be criticized for not doing my job properly, by not going to Jaime Levy's house at six o'clock in the morning and waking up his family….

	Mr Rocca	I think, further to your email to Maurice, saying its important that I clarify that, that the, that, that the Magistrate be made aware, the information was not obtained under warrant, it was given voluntarily, therefore we don't have a basis upon which to request that information. Even if it were.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
[ORIGINAL]

	Supt Richardson	I don't think we can; and I tell you... I...I...I set out the reasons for that; we applied to the Magistrates Court and laid information on oath that we suspected that he was involved in a criminal offence and we...we set out the terms of our, one and a three quarter hours, the Magistrate made, made, agreed with that assessment as well as the clerk and issued an order which we were acting on. The fact that we chose not to exercise that power was because we were required by law to seek the consent of the person that, that is there, before exercising the power. And that was sought. And it was debated over a period of hours, including several consultations, as I would have described, leading silk in the UK. And at the end of all that negotiation, he voluntarily handed over that device. So, now we have it, its sat in a sealed bag, but we haven't done anything with it. To hand it over now,
	Mr Rocca	I think there is a simple way to defuse that paragraph, that is the concerning paragraph, you've certainly picked up. I would reply saying, given the allegations you are making, we'll sit the seven day, its in a sealed bag, it will not be touched, if you think you have grounds for making legal application to any court of law, for review, for an appeal...
	I McGrail	Which I was...even, even before this has been discussed, I would say look; we, we...when the warrant was being considered, I asked them, because I...I'm not in to the in-depth detail, but what if, emm...emm... I went through a couple of scenarios; que se levantara Jaime, y se fuera, what are you going to do? And he takes his phone with him. Todo eso, and, and, and he says, no, no me lo va hacer, no me lo va hacer, no me lo va hacer, no. Y bueno, what if they challenge, can they... is there any power that they can stop the warrant from happening? No there isn't, they cannot stop the warrant...
	Supt Richardson	Judicial review.
	I McGrail	They, they had to... pero and, but the point of judicial review, they have to stop, we, we would have to, would we have to grind everything to a halt, meaning no interrogation of devices, the, the, the thing stops. Emm.. y me dicen, no, no you carry on, the, the investigation carries on. The fact that the, the judicial review may come and then come back to haunt you, mira. Pero you...
	Mr Llamas	Okay.
	I MCGRAIL	...you've still got the empowerment...
01:0331	Mr Llamas	Let me ask you one question in relation to that; from Jaime Levy's point of view, what is the best outcome of doing the interview on Monday?
	I McGrail	Going to leave this for you Paul.
	Supt Richardson	From his point of view, from his perspective? He...he would have to give an explanation which accounts for what he has done, which holds some degree of water. In other words, I have been

	Mr Rocca	I didn't know what I was doing, I didn't manage the platform.
	Supt Richardson	I have been…I have been misled, I have been….
	Mr Rocca	I saw this opportunity…
	Supt Richardson	I have lost half a million pounds with this, I've invested with them. They told me that they were going to bring me carnival cruises, the told me that they were going to bring in business from Santome, they told me they were going to bring in business; none of them have materialised. I've lost all this money, they have deceived me.
	Mr Rocca	I didn't know they were [redacted] ….
	Mr Llamas	And…
	Mr Rocca	I didn't know Sanchez was….
	Mr Llamas	…are you interviewing him, Paul?
	Supt Richardson	No.
	Mr Llamas	No, then, the…and what's the best result then? That the, the, the Police Officer who interviews him comes back to you and says…
	Supt Richardson	I will listen to the interview, I can, I can, I can participate…well not participate, I can monitor it remotely. But it's not appropriate for me to conduct an interview at this, at this level.
	Mr Llamas	So the out come then is, so he…he can convince you on Monday, that he's got nothing to do here. Or its what he has to do is minimal and what then, would you exclude him from the investigation straight away and give him back his phone?
	Supt Richardson	I don't think that would be the prudent thing to do. We would have to make sure that what he is saying is, is… hold some degree of…and I'm saying this with…reservedly; because to discount him completely, would impact on everything else. If it was found that what he was saying was untrue, because the other side might decide to call him and say well, this isn't true what you are saying, you acted emm…emm… biased towards him for whatever reason. So we'd have to have an account that holds…holds some degree of water.
	Mr Rocca	I think what Michael is asking is, if he, if he, if he satisfies you in the interview, would you give the phone back or would you still need to do the sift of the phone? That's the question, I think. No?
	Supt Richardson	I think that would be, dangerous.

I can't let him speak to him. So I spoke to...to...to Chris and I said look Jaime Levy is trying to speak or... Perez is trying to speak to Levy. We haven't got to the stage where we need to speak to Levy, yet. This is a conflict of interest and you advised that it was up to him to resolve this. As it happened, Jaime didn't turn up at the station, it was David Dumas. And when David Dumas turned up, I don't think he was very well briefed, because he was very happily discussing matters with me, we were preparing, he was preparing statements. We were all, and then he said, this is a conflict of interest for me and then they stopped representing Perez as well.
	Mr Rocca	Because he is a partner in the firm that has an interest in 36 North, no I suppose?

		done is absurd, what I explained to him was that the, the only police involvement is to extract a....a...an image of the device, they connect it to computer, it runs overnight. Because he wanted someone to sit there whilst this was being done. I said look I've got no objections but this might take, you might be there for whole night, in the morning when you turn on the device, its corrupted and you start all over again. And its not that the guy that's doing the, the extraction, not extraction, the imaging, isn't doing something else. He connects it and starts working on another job. Six hours later or...or two days later he opens the extraction and if the, if the file works that's it, that's all that we would do. That is then given to a lawyer to, to examine, using certain search terms that we would give them and the defence can provide emm...can have imput to. Exactly the same like what happened with, I keep saying New Flame, what was the name, the Grace I, the Grace I. We produced search terms, they produce search terms, you end up with ten million references and its got to be sifted. That's why we can't delay the interview until this has been...

	Supt Richardson	Yeah
I	DPP	Its not gonna happen
	Supt Richardson	Yeah
	DPP	Within the next week or two, we'll keep it sealed in a bag, if you think its unlawful, look at the end of the day, the bottom line is, it was seized on the back of a legally obtained warrant, or consensually. Which ever way you look at it, if you want to challenge that, you challenge it. That's it, that has to be the response.
	Mr Llamas	Well I think, the, the first reply to that paragraph has to be that you have not copied or, or downloaded the material. Which are....
	Supt Richardson	That's correct, it just sits, it still sits in....

	Mr Llamas	That's not, that's their decision, yo no me voy a meter en esa decision. I think you've got to the diplomatic answer to that, if it gets us anywhere, is to confirm that you have not copied any material, or downloaded, the…the…you can rest assure that nothing is going to be done to this phone until after your interview on Monday.
	I McGrail	Ahha… Paul? Yes. No, no, what I mean to say is that, that's the drill
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	And that is it misleading to say then that we will review our position after the interview on Monday, because if you say that, that can be interpreted as meaning that you can hand back the phone after the interview on Monday. If that's a none starter then we, you shouldn't say it.
01:1526	Supt Richardson	I think its unlikely that we'll be able to say here it is, because what will, what will, the situation you are describing is, we are asking you to give your account and we are not going to check what you are saying is, is, is true. We've gone to court and filed a an application, we've been granted that, we've chosen not to do it because you've corroborated and now we are not going to check what it is that you are saying. It just supports the argument well come and see me and I'll just give you want you want in the first place and tell you the truth. I'm an officer of the court I wouldn't lie to you. It doesn't mean to say that we couldn't delay the examination of that phone for enough time, until everything else is resolved.
	DPP	I don't think you need to disclose that to the court if don't want to, don't you say its unlawful, go to a court of law. Then you remedy, you remedy exists.
	DPP	There are seven days where we can guarantee we are not going to look into it, no matter what I do afterwards….

	Supt Richardson	No, no, no, no Chris, if we are arresting, you have the power to enter the…the residence.
	DPP	Yeah but not to see his…not to see his documents.
	Supt Richardson	What for the legally privileged stuff? We wouldn't be able to examine it, we would have to bag it up and we would arrive at the same situation that we are in now. We would have to get a lawyer to sift through it.
	DPP	I'm not even sure you'd be entitled to enter and take stuff without a warrant. Just because you are arresting someone. There are certain conditions in, in the Police (inaudible) Act, for you to do that. Like you fear that your stuff is going to be destroyed, there's…there's an assailant in the premises, so you would have to tick those boxes first. I don't think its that simple eh? From recollection.
	Supt Richardson	I'm…I'm equally blurred at this, but we do, we do regularly use inspectors authorities, so if somebody has been arrested in….
	DPP	Maybe because you fear that they may destroy the property or the drugs or whatever.
	Supt Richardson	Its to…its to secure evidence, but I'm not going to argue because I'm not, I don't know that law very well, I'm not the inspector so I don't deal with these things on a day to day basis.

	DPP	Yet.
	Senior Crown Counsel	I wouldn't have thought.
	DPP	Yeah. I don't know.
	Mr Llamas	And with what conviction can we say that?
	DPP	I suppose with the conviction and with the reality is, if we get Jaime Levy in, charged with a conspiracy and we get 20 QCs, Jaime will unleash hell and everything that comes with it. I think the Marrache's will be the biggest barrage of QC;s I'll ever seen to defend him. Emm… are we gonna get any convictions at all? Is it in the public interest? And do we keep it confined when its touch and go anyway. Which at the moment it is, I think. The debate that you and I have Michael, my feeling was evidentially there is a case, would we get passed the jury, emm… I don't know. But its what Jaime says, or no?
	Supt Richardson	Which again is the worst case scenario.

	Mr Llamas	Hombre, its something that I'd rather not do, I've been approached several times since I was appointed Attorney General to enter a nolle and in both cases, some of them very sensitive, emm.. and have had no doubt, not to do the nolle because I think the threshold for a nolle is extremely, extremely high. If, if, there...I feel, that a prosecution, exposes the Chief Minister, lo digo claramente aqui, on grounds, which are flimsy, I'll stop it. Eso te lo digo clarisimo. 		go for the most oppressive means of getting that, without asking Jaime Levy for an interview?
	CoP	Okay, the, that was considered, the data that we wanted was obtainable on a search warrant, we did not expect him to hand it over willingly. Emm... we are looking at WhatsApp chats and all, (inaudible) and emm.... the fact that we treated others in the same way, in the same investigation, and we are not looking at the chambers, we are looking at Jaime Levy as the individual. That is the reason why the investigation team, I'll allow Paul to elaborate further, but that's the main reason why the investigation team thought that this was the, the pertinent way to deal with it. He had to be interviewed under, under caution, that was the line of enquiry that we had to emm... carry out and I reiterate, before we proceeded to the proposing of charges. Because it would not make any sense whatsoever to propose charges until we had eliminated it, because he could have... and I was hoping and we were all hoping that he would have potentially cleared up many of the things. He may well have. And in regards the question of the charges, may be different in posture to you, so that is something that I have to assert here from the word go. That's, that's my position and I cannot shift from that, because that is the truth.
00:0400	Mr Llamas	Sorry what's the truth?
	COP	That I would be reverting to you with the proposed charges, once Jaime Levy was dealt with.
	Mr Llamas	That's a separate issue between you and me and emm...we know we disagree in that, it was absolutely clear what we agreed in this room. Pero let's not talk about that.
	Cop	Well, but it, it captures it, because emm.. Jaime Levy may be able to eliminate a lot of the issues that we, we have and if he does then, it has the bearing of what I present to you as, or to the DPP for the question of charges, it would have.
	Mr Llamas	For me it was clear since you raised the matter, I repeat my position, from which I would never budge because I am 200% certain of what we discussed here, in this room, that day. You, both left this room with an agreement that you were going to rationalise the grounds and that you would come. Nothing else would happen, and that once you had rationalised the grounds, reduce the 76 charges to whatever you reduced it. We were going to call Christian in, we were going to assume that ownership emm... to, to the Government and therefore we would have placed ourselves in an absolute legally certain position and you would have advanced with that initially and then with time you would have been able to assess, with time, the question of ownership, would hopefully would have been clarified, which would have opened more doors or not for you. And for me it was clear that your, your, your text of yesterday, whilst all this was happening, emm... Well, you know how I feel about it. But we are not here to discuss that Ian, we've obviously got very different views about what we discussed. I'm just trying to now get to a position where the likelihood as you have seen is that Hassans are going to be emm... challenging the actions that you've taken. And the first question that I know has caused a lot of bitterness with, with Jaime Levy and with Hassans, is the search warrant. You must have known from me, that I would not have supported that. Christian has not advised you that you, should, should do that, and therefore you have taken that decision on your own as its your right to do. Emm... I mean, this was a part of an investigation, who even Christian and I, often speak about it, we are getting involved in a part of the investigation, which at the end of the day, is your call, we both got involved and I got involved in particular because I think it is a matter that's needs to be dealt with, with a lot of care and attention. And that is, I hope is why you know, I am involved in this and for no other reason. Because sometimes I wonder why you think why am I getting involved in this, I've got millions of other things to do rather than to be occupied over this. So, we think that a first point of challenge is going to be the search warrant, but our understanding of your, of your narrative here is that you did not actually use it to get the information that he voluntarily. The search warrant was there but not actually used. And they may argue, while there was the threat of the search warrant and whatever, but your decision to get a search warrant was motivated by a fear that he would not cooperate other by doing that.

00:0748	CoP	And I, and I (inaudible) the effect of the search warrant is still live, because of the email abstractions. That's, if they do not provide those emails, it shows that the voluntary aspect and we've lost that. We've lost that because we now have to, the capability issues, of not being able to trawl through eighty million emails. We are unable to, that would have taken an inordinate amount of time to go through, and that would not have been practical and therefore Paul put the, the, made the call of saying okay, we are not going to trust you that you are going to extract, the numbering them up on the voluntary basis. But that can, that voluntary basis maybe now potentially be held back, given that not only are they challenging the legality of the warrant, they are now making criminal allegations against us.
	Mr Ilamas	Hmm...
	CoP	That is taking the joke too far. We are the bad guys now, unreal.
	Mr Llamas	Okay so, then they are going to say that, as you know, that...

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BL UE)

	CoP	What, what, what they have clearly (inaudible) and they make different claim, I make this suggestion very, very, very early on, if there is any doubt on the part of the DPP, on your part, or anybody else's part, or Hassans' part that we have flawed this investigation….
00:0910	Mr Llamas	That you have what?
	CoP	Made a flawed investigation, on the process and everything else, what I'll do today is offer my, offer every single paper, every single file, every single exhibit, to an independent police service to look into it. And what I can anticipate that would show, is that we wouldn't, that any other Police force, would not have gone, in the way that we have done. They would have picked up Jaime Levey at six o'clock in the morning. Now if that, that is where this is going, I am now officially asking, that this matter be investigated by an external police service. To see whether the RGP has flawed in this investigation.
	Mr Llamas	Fine.
9.49	COP	I think, because I am getting cornered, being accused of criminality and that is, you, all of you know it here,that that is not on. This is now, trying to, to muscle me out of it. I may not even last in my post,but Ian McGrailhas integrity , my integrity will not, my ethics are at this level and nobody will bring them down, nobody. If I have to go, I'll go, but I will leave with my head held up high. Ian McGrail or the team that have been dealing with it is not corrupt. Eso te lo puedo garantizar. I am passionate of what I'm, what I'm saying. Passionate beyondanybody who stands before me . I have to tell you, because I have to vent my frustration. Its, its, its, this is an affront, this is an affront, to, to, to the legal process. As far as I am concerned.
00:1046	Mr Llamas	You, you have (inaudible) that nobody in this room has emm… questions your, your ethics emm… if Hassans are going to challenge you….
	COP	No pero on the question of the investigation. The question of the investigation, the standards that this investigation has been compiled with, addressed and dealt with, and more so of how we have dealt with, the, the, the issue of yesterday, whether any police service, any police service, would have acted in the discrete, with the discretion and the, and the, and the approach that we have done.
	DPP	May I, may I
	COP	And I invite…
	DPP	I have been involved, relatively early doors with Delhi, so, so I…probably more so (inaudible) I certainly I have no doubt that (inaudible) no doubt of the integrity of the investigation at all. Its been done properly and what Paul and I agreed at a very early stage was as a result of how the investigation was conducted, Jaime was a legitimate source of enquiry. We agree that Paul.

	CoP	As a suspect
	DPP	I and Michael knows that.
	DPP	As a suspect, I mean he needed to be asked questions to clarify certain issues of the conspiracy and that would either resolve it or it would resolve. Whether I think, and again, I've always made it clear to Paul and to you, I don't get involved in operational matters. My view was that the warrant should come, if at all, post to interview. Look there is an operational matter for you on the ground, therefore my (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	and that is what's causing the (inaudible)
	COP	And I, I accept that. I accept that. Had we gone to deal with Hassan's as the enterprise, yes I would accept that. Because probably the search warrant would not have been the valid one. That would have been (inaudible) category. But that is not the case. If we go, if we go and we have to be grown, we have to be realistic here. If we go and ask Jaime Levy, because I ask the same question to somebody else yesterday, if I was to ask you, as a senior partner in your previous firm, emm. Chris, would you hand over your mobile device to me voluntarily? What is your genuine answer?
	Mr Rocca	I would have, (inaudible) denied.
	COP	No but, I mean when, when we show up at your office, or your office. Would you hand your mobile voluntarily?
	Mr Rocca	I would ask what, what its for?
	COP	Of course, yes. But we've told you, we've read you that, (inaudible) because the first thing we do is we, we give you under caution, would you by then hand over anything?
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	You would sir? You would hand it over?
	Mr Rocca	Sorry?
00:1321	Supt Richardson	You would hand it over?
	Mr Rocca	Why wouldn't I?
	Supt Richardson	Well Jaime Levy didn't hand it over until nine o'clock. Ten hours later.
	Mr Llamas	Bueno because I think the, the approach was...
	Supt Richardson	So that answers the question. He wouldn't hand it over voluntarily. He wouldn't even.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	Pero he did, pero he did.
	Supt Richardson	He handed it over after exhausting all legal avenues to challenge it. He wouldn't even come to his own office. He told me he wouldn't come in.
	Mr Llamas	And do you think his reaction would have been different if you didn't have a search warrant?
	Supt Richardson	Then how would I have forced the issue? It took nine hours of persuading to hand it over with a warrant.
	Mr Llamas	But may be you wouldn't have needed the nine hours without the search warrant.
	Supt Richardson	I can't take that sir. That is sir, with greatest respect, it was an operational decision, I disagreed with the DPP on that, I will be criticised, I could not stand up in court and say, I have dealt with this man differently from this man because of any offence that might be caused and that is exactly what has happened.
	Mr Llamas	Its not because of what offence that may be caused, there is a, I think, I think and I stand to be corrected, there is a difference between Jaime Levy and the others. This is a very senior member of our community and above all, the head of chambers of the biggest law firm in Gibraltar. Whose phone will obviously contain hundreds of privileged
	Cop	A lot of sensitive data.
	Mr Llamas	Not just sensitive, Ian, privileged.
00:14:50	Cop	Yeah. Absolutely. And that can be protected. And that
	Mr Llamas	Especially...
	CoP	And that can be protected.
	Supt Richardson	Lets not lose fact that the fact (inaudible) more than one phone and the phone that he used the messages, doesn't have any more. He didn't know where it was.
	Mr Llamas	But that's besides the point, Paul. The, the point is that you went to one of the most senior guy, legal people in Gibraltar, an officer of the court, okay and you, there are ways in which, I mean I've been involved in a few cases, like this and the way that (inaudible) case; is you go for a production order and you identify the key words that you want to search and information is then provided in relation to them.
	COP	that's when it's the financial institution in terms of banks and
	Mr Llamas	Si that's, that's true.
	CoP	Right look, this is not the first time, in the same way that you've, with respect that you've had that experience, I've had the experience of Jaime Levy telling me that the RGP and its investigation, and would never see the light to day, the case, the case would never see the light of day in the Marrache Inquiry. I'm used to this.

	Supt Richardson	The same language that was used yesterday.
00:1600	COP	And exactly the same, so look, Emm.. Is he going to come to me waving a flag saying I'm guilty? I mean, I don't expect him to do that. But, we have a job to do. And I...and I'm getting criticised and questioned because of the job that I am doing. And I am doing it on the, on the strength of a court order.
	Supt Richardson	He was treated with kid gloves, he thanked me....
	CoP	What? what?
	Supt Richardson	For the, the discretion.
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible)
	CoP	No, no, no he says it in between because, but he has to come across Paul....
	Supt Richardson	We, we didn't even have badges on when we went there
	CoP	He used the word terror, he was terrorised.
	Supt Richardson	There was no, there was no searches in his office.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) give it to me, or I'll execute the warrant, I can understand that, but look I think we are losing...
	Supt Richardson	But Chris, Chris, if I go to your office and I say, Chris give me your phone, I'm gonna execute a warrant and you are feeling threatened to do that, but if you then go out and consult leading counsel in the UK and spend you 20 minutes on the phone with leading Silk, and come back and say, the means are telling me that this is judicial review, I want to show that I'm helping but, and we wait nine hours later and we are still debating. There is no threat there, there is no urgency being applied.
	CoP	I'm gonna be honest, I'm gonna be honest, Paul on the way up, and this, he doesn't even know what I'm going to say, Paul on the waysays , I regret,these things, things happen and you are gonna remember a particular case, where we can draw corrolation. I regret not getting the phone from the word go.
	Supt Richardson	Hmm...
	CoP	And no-one take the mickey out of us. Right now they are taking the piss. Remember the flawed drug search, in the case Regina versus the late Andrew Bonavia, that you defended?
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	CoP	Where we accommodated....

	Supt Richardson	Yeah, yeah, yeah.
	CoP	The plea of the individual, please don't put the dog on the bed, please don't put the dog on the bed please don't put the dog, and well, okay, its okay, we won't put it, we are going to search and that turned back on us.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	CoP	Well this could easily turn back on us because he's been having the phone for nine hours, defence counsel could, will say he could have done anything with that phone. Phone or whatever. And that is something that he would have to live with as S as SIO.
	Supt Richardson	Because he's a senior member of a respected law firm in Gibraltar.
00:1802	COP	Nine hours is practically more than a working day. And for us to be accused that we have put him under pressure, that we have pressured him, so, so, pressure would been if they'd taken it off him. That is what any other police service would have done and I can guarantee that. So how are they going to critisise us of being over bearing and forceful
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	That's fair enough if you don't know the facts, but I was there and Jaime was there, and
	CoP	They recorded, they recorded
	Supt Riachardson	Nothing was seized and it was handed over, when he gave me, when he gave me his laptop and his ipad in his house, I gave it back to him. I told him James I can't take this from you until you agree to hand it over by consent or if I take it by warrant. That didn't happen until an hour later. And when he signed that we took possession of it, not before.
	Mr Rocca	As we have agreed operationally its your call, that Michael may have handled it differently, that I may have handled it differently. It's your call.
	Supt Richardson	That's, that's fair enough
	Mr Rocca	They may be equally criticising me as they are the Commissioner.
	Supt Richardson	I'm not a lawyer and you are not a police officer, I think that's a
	Mr Rocca	And you would have handled it differently to (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Ahha, ahha.
	Mr Rocca	We take decisions based on, on information available and I think we can part there, you took your decisions, they are nuance decisions. We all accept that but that, moving forwarded where are we? I think the first thing, and Michael and I had a quick chat about it, I think the first, I think we need to write to the Magistrates Court, no advise them…

	CoP	We have done that already.
	Mr Rocca	Yeah, advising them that we have, we have clarified that the information was not obtained under the search warrant, therefore the is no basis whatsoever with disclosure of the information they seek. Why are they seeking for disclosure of the search warrant information?
	Supt Richardson	Why? Because the information that was laid will form the basis of the interview on Monday. And they know that they will have to come in on Monday and they want the questions in advance.
	Mr Rocca	Beside of the tipping off from the investigation, if the warrant was not exercised, wasn't served on Jaime Levy and the information was obtained not under the search warrant, they had no right to have that information under the search warrant.
	Supt Richardson	But the, truly they can't have a right anyway.
	Mr Rocca	If they were in jail they can.
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible)
	CoP	But not only that, they will argue that they need that information, because
	Mr Llamas	Because?
00:2007	Cop	Because if they are, their case is that they were threatened with the search warrant, then the, the material that was used to apply for it is relevant.
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible)
	COP	So, so, they won't, they will spin it again to say, you had the warrant, even though you didn't use it, but you had it as a, as a lever to make compel us. Look, it happens with these things – it happened with Waterson.
	Supt Richardson	Well that's exactly what…
	COP	And it happened, I have the court order, Y me paso, yo tengo ya el court order, I, I execute the warrant,its that we… tomorrow I , I, I, kick myself, I'm kicking myself, well he is kicking himself because that's his call,but , we would kick ourselves the same, this won't happen to us again And then we go soft again; I have a warrant and they can say what they want the warrant is ececuted.
	Supt Richardson	That's what they do.
	CoP	And that is it, you avoid complications whether it was voluntary or this or that, or up or down. But we execute it, and look now they

	Mr Llamas	And the phone where is it now?
00:2017	Supt Richardson	Its in a sealed bag, when I left it was in my office. I mean it hasn't been opened.
	Mr Llamas	And what's gonna happen?
	CoP	But that's another thing, that the legal privilege material under special….
	Mr Rocca	Interest material
	CoP	…interest material. Emm… the, the, again my integrity was put into question as you know, because that is what you say, that you say you did not know anything; I say it here and now and I'll, for the purpose of it being recorded, that that, the data in that emm..phone will not be examined by us. It will be a….and Jaime is fully aware that emm…he was even asked on the advice of Charlie Pitto.
	Supt Richardson	Of the Magistrates.
	COP	Of the, if the Magistrate tells him, correct me if I'm wrong?
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	COP	Or tells you, I'm getting this through his briefing, emm… tells him, if you are going to get it and there is and he claims legal privilege material offer him of the option of who does he want it to, to trawl through it; local or external counsel. And he opted for external counsel. So that's…
00:2216	Supt Richardson	Which we discussed months ago
	COP	Yeah
	Supt Richardson	And we decided to…
	COP	So he was given that option and he's…he's sort of agreeing that that is the…
	Mr Llamas	So Christian, what are the different channels.
	Mr Rocca	I'm, I'm not, I'm not clear. I'm not clear at all. There are clearly, there's, there's a number of attacks here one is against Paul and misfeasance allegation….
	Cop	Bueno I think I have to, I have to
	Mr Rocca	I think you have to investigate that.

	CoP	No, no, no, not investigate, not investigate that, that that; that allegation I am taking personally too. He is my officer. I stand in front of him for all of this.
	Mr Rocca	Yeah.
00:2248	Cop	So let's not .....
	Mr Rocca	No, no
	COP	I have more or less 250 police officers.
	Supt Richardson	The other thing is, if you want, if you are going to, I suggest that we are going to investigate this ourselves, let's handover everything to a UK force and let them doing that for us.
	Mr Rocca	Si, because the allegations of misfeasance at the moment, are allegations only. And I think they need to make a formal complaint to the investigation before.
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I, I, I think Ian, to be honest with you, Ian, we are meeting with emm, because you have rightly emm... sought our legal advice, anticipating what most certainly is going to come.
	CoP	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	Whether they are going to fight this any way possible.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	No I don't know, they don't want the publicity. (inaudible) about Jaime Levy's telephone and ipad.
	Supt Richardson	Do you want this, do you want that affidavit aired in court? That lays out all the communication he's had with Caine Sanchez and everybody else?
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I don't, I don't see it.
	Mr Rocca	I mean I haven't seen the warrant. I haven't seen the information.
	Supt Richardson	I said, I said exactly the same thing to Jaime yesterday. Jaime was...he was talking with me constantly throughout the whole afternoon. And he was asking me what do I do, who shall I speak to, who is going to speak to me? What would you do if I was, and he, and he, I don't know whether to judicially review it. My counsel is advising me this, but I'm thinking the other, I want to be cooperative. Emm... we had the exact same thing came up on the judicial review.
	Mr Rocca	They are simple to try to put pressure on you to push the information. And there are avenues for that.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Supt Richardson	Because this is, this is…
	Mr Rocca	There are legal avenues…
	COP	And I want to, I want to, because I am….. well I may come across as rigid, but I think you know me deeper than what your thoughts were, a reasonable person, very reasonable and I can; I may not be as intelligent as the others in this room and I'm very reasonable and I can… I have worked very hard to get where I have got to and this is the third time; my proposal for this will be put for the third time; we as the investigators, we are doing a job, we produce the evidence, we've consulted with the DPP. The DPP sees that there is, we thought that there is, but confirmed with the DPP, the DPP sees that there is a case to be put to the, to…to…to trial. I get the whole periphery, I get it all. I cannot pull it, you can. You can, Michael.
00:2510	Mr Llamas	But it hasn't got to, it hasn't got to get to that Ian.
	COP	Well then, then who stops it, I cannot stop it. I… I cannot say, I… there is no offence. We have determined there are offences, we've determined that there is a, a, a, a high prospect, which is not, even the DPP's call, but he supports that.
	Mr Rocca	Evidential, there's evidential…
	COP	Threshold.
	Mr Rocca	Evidential… passed
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely, and I've known that from the beginning.
	COP	Now, now , if, if we cannot and I, I would understand and…and I've said it, I've said it before, I would not raise any objections if this is pulled, but I will not pull it, Ian, the RGP cannot pull it. And if there are legal routes to pull it, those, I'm asking why not.
	Mr Llamas	Let me ask you one question if I may? One of the areas you wanted to interview Jaime on, is communications with the Chief Minister.
	COP	I got con…I got to read that post that being served and I questioned that too. Paul would be better to (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	This isn't, there is no emm… there is no great, assuming we don't uncover anything on the device, which might be worth, a sticking point. But there is no great issue behind that, but what Caine Sanchez and the other persons involved in this have been doing, is to seek Jaime's influence with the Chief Minister to get him an appointment so that he can find out what's happening with the platform. So that, are we gonna get it back? Is the Chief Minister likely to change his mind? There is a lot of messages to him. I don't know what he said back again.
00:2648	CoP	Or, or whether, or Jaime Levy actually communicated with him

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Supt Richardson	Acted, he may not have acted with the Chief Minister.
	COP	Precisely. He may not have acted on any of them
	Supt Richardson	So everybody is asking him to do things and he may not have
	COP	A Sanchez (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	So the other suspects are telling Jaime Levy, to speak to the Chief Minister, to see whether the Chief Minister can change his mind, or they, whether Jaime can influence the Chief Minister in whatever way.
	Supt Richardson	For example, we got no decision, see if you can nudge the Chief Minister, he'll listen to you. Another one is, are we likely to get our platform back? (inaudible) I need my contract back. Yeah. Emm... and Jaime responds in that case, I don't think the Chief Minister will agree to it, and then another one he says, is it, is it likely for the contract to go out for tender now, and he says, yes will try again next month. That's the sort of thing. So it is clear there has been communication between Jaime and the parties involved in this, what we are suspecting in the conspiracy to defraud and there seems to have been some communication between the Chief Minister and Jaime. But I don't know where that is and we haven't with the Chief Minister
	Mr Rocca	And we disagreed on, on where the line, the debate in my office.
	Supt Richardson	Hmm...
	Mr Rocca	Where the line lied in relation to conspiracy to defraud and sharp business practices. Is that the, you have contact with the Chief Minister, make me an appointment. That for me was not part of a conspiracy to defraud.
	Supt Richardson	Ahha....
00:2815	Mr Rocca	But what Paul was looking at was more of the conversation between Jaime and the other people involved.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah, Sanchez and
	COP	And I think and I know, but there's bigger stuff, that go right over my head. Jaime has on, on video has alluded to that I am under pressure from the Governor to see this investigation through.
	Mr Llamas	You?
	COP	Yeah. I do not where that come from.
	Mr Llamas	Where has he said that?
	COP	Emm... en, on, on tape in front of all of them there.
	Supt Richardson	Because he was suggesting that this is led from outside, that we are being compelled...

OP DELHI

	COP	And, and, and...
	Supt Richardson	...to act in this way.
	Mr Llamas	And where is that in one of the WhatsApp's?
	Cop	No, no, this is, I tell you because... it concerns me, because we've got it on tape, and that is not the case. You know how this investigation has been driven. There has been no influence from across the road, at all, at all. That they know that emm.... Governor Ed Davis knew at the time when a, a year, over a year and half ago, I briefed him that we were commencing an investigation. Yes, it is my duty to brief him on national security matters. Yes, but I haven't been asked absolutely anything by that man, nothing at all on the matter.
	Mr Llamas	I have no...
	COP	For Jaime, no, it's that Jaime said it.
	Supt Richardson	And he was very sensitive about this because David Dumas told me the same thing when he came up to represent John Perez on the same day. That he thought that this was being steered by the, the Foreign Office.
	COP	Okay, its not the case, I tell you its, I....its not the case. I submit myself to being (inaudible) on this. Not the case. Not the case at all. (inaudible) I have come this afternoon to talk to talk to you, its not the case, that it's not the case.
	Mr Llamas	What I have heard to be very honest, emm... here, that Gaggero had lumbered you into this investigation, that I have heard. In, in, in the investigation.
	Supt Richardson	And Levy said as much yesterday on, on camera. I know where that, what he suggests and he is completely, Gaggero...
00:3024	CoP	Innuendo, again. The one of talking to the Chief Minister.
	Supt Richardson	I will, I will, its understood, Gaggero is very apologetic for having spoken to the Chief Minister about this matter, I think it, that was, but I can understand his logic with it and he has apologised over and over again.
	COP	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	What, what, Gaggero, was taking civil action against all these people. [redacted]. Remember that what they had done was they had registered it in different names, they changed the address [redacted] Emm.. and he, he was commencing his legal action to, to pursue that and obviously protect his civil rights.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

		We had asked him not to take action until we had intervened with the, with the main suspect. Because to do that he would be laying information about the hacking, about I've had people examining this information, this system. So we were saying, please hold on, please hold on, please hold on. Our investigation took longer, longer than; we initially agreed that we would take a month and we would be able to say, in a month you can go ahead with this. The month turned out to be five months before we were in a position. We had to negotiate with the NCA, we don't have the capability to examine devices like that, this is a huge... this is a national scale job in the United Kingdom. So he, we, he was advised, when we were going to be issuing, taking action, but not against who and not how. Just, can you wait until, for example, next Tuesday and by then we shall be in a position to resolve all of this. He foolishly and, and apologies unreservedly and says that I admonished him for this. He saw the Chief Minister outside the emm... No. 6 one day, I think he went up to him and says, I hear its going down today. Thinking that, that emm... that the Chief Minister would be pleased to know that the matter they had been bringing to his attention with Caine Sanchez going behind his back and believing that this information was going to be addressed. He said this, I think in front of a Special Branch officer, now Jaime is suggested that because of that I am colluding, we are colluding with James Gaggero. And I have a recording of everything, I have a recording and note of every conversation that I've had with Gaggero and there has not been one time, that he has tried to influence me in anyway at all. On the contrary, he always starts of saying, don't tell me anything, I don't want to know, emm.. I just need to know, is it likely to go on beyond this or are we still on track. Or do you need any more sup...any more support from my staff. That is the only thing that he's, he's raised with us, those sorts of issues.
00:3300	Mr Llamas	Okay, anyway then , lets come back to this. Do you think, they will not, Hassans will not having anything or will not be able to.....
	Mr Rocca	Or its all bluff.
	Mr Llamas	If they were, what will you do? They could challenge the search warrant on the basis that it was used as a sword to get the information
	Mr Rocca	Yeah and the consent wasn't really a consent. They could try that.
	Supt Richardson	Well, that would mean that the Magistrate was completely misled.
	Mr Rocca	I doubt that the JR, I don't see it. Emm...
	Cop	At the end of the day you could hold that against a vulnerable person, I mean this is....

OP DELHI

	Mr Rocca	Not after consulting with lawyers.
	COP	Exactly and you are the head of the investigation.
	Mr Rocca	No JR (inaudible) for the turn of privilege and specialist material under section 38 which you said, you'll give back anyway.
	COP	Ahha..
	Mr Rocca	So that you can...the problem you've got is, you've got mixed material, if you go to an office and you say I want this, this and, this is not privileged and I want this, ooh, but this, this contains both.
	COP	You see, actually he started of saying that the whole of the, the whole of the phone, the data that was in the phone was legally privileged material.
00:3410	Mr Rocca	Well it can't be (inaudible)
	COP	Exactly, exactly. Which is when Paul said, Jaime are you saying that the communications between you and Thirty, Thirty-six North were in... he said no those are business. And then not all of it is legally privileged there must be some matters which are not....
	Supt Richardson	There are both, you can't have, be a business partner and investing in a firm and offering him legal advice.
	Mr Rocca	Legal advice.
	Supt Richardson	Out of the very, very beginning. Yeah.
	Mr Rocca	At the beginning of the investigation. I don't (inaudible) section 38 remedy at the Magistrates Court emm....and they've got a criminal complaint remedy which, it seems to, well is just misfeasance.
	Supt Richardson	Misfeasance.
	COP	No that's it. Abuse of the law, abuse of the law and misfeasance in public office.
	Mr Llamas	Abuse of....power
	Supt Richardson	Abuse of law and abuse of misfeasance in public office.
	COP	I've held on to that, but I am duty bound to, to act gross...
	Mr Rocca	Gross abuse
	COP	I've got to, I'm duty bound to refer the fact that there is a criminal investigation made to me, against us.
	Mr Llamas	Yes I do, if the...the gross.... is judicial review, I think.
00:3523	COP	This is a start to a complaint against police ...which is ... and if they are looking at me....

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	At the moment, at the moment you shouldn't do anything.
	COP	I know, I'm not, I'm holding, but if they keep on tightening bolts I have to start loosening them from elsewhere.
	Mr Rocca	No, I think at the end of the day, Michael, you were addressed, where you copied in or addressed to you.
	Supt Richardson	No, this is the letter, that's not, that's not, this is the letter from….
	Mr Rocca	No. the one about misfeasance.
	CoP	Esta.
	Mr Rocca	This is it.
	Supt Richardson	This is it
	COP	This is it.
	Mr Rocca	This is the one and also, are you copied into that one?
	Supt Richardson	Emm… I don't know
	Mr Llamas	This one you sent to me.
	Mr Rocca	Yeah that one I sent to you. Which one is the one….
	Mr Llamas	Its, its original, (inaudible) email of last year.
	Mr Rocca	Its to you. Its to you.
	Mr Llamas	That's directly to me yeah. Now, if there is a suggestion apparent gross abuse of power. (inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	but there is no misfeasance allegation in there is there? I've seen it, I've seen it somewhere
	Supt Richardson	Its here, its here on this one
	Mr Rocca	That one no. yeah. Do they make allegations of misfeasance in the email to you?
	Supt Richardson	No.
00:3632	CoP	No.
	Mr Llamas	Does it make allegations of misfeasance?
	COP	I've not read that.
	Mr Llamas	Fuf,I did not read that last night . I haven't had time to read then again this morning.
	COP	No, no I don't recall reading anything of that.
	Supt Richardson	But there are so many things that he said here that are inaccurate. The, the order of events, how things happened.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	There is an allegation of misfeasance here....
	Mr Rocca	Yeah there is one there. and perhaps you need to consider whether you need to be replying to Louis, saying there is an allegation of misfeasance, do you want to make a formal complaint. Then please put that forward formally to me, because then Ian is right, they have to go hang on a minute, you are investigating, I can't investigate me, you know, you may want to get somebody to investigate
	Mr Llamas	Pero that's for them to call.
	Mr Rocca	For them to call.
	Supt Richardson	No, no sir, with respect, I am the one that's being accused of this.
	Mr Llamas	Yeah.
	Supt Richardson	I don't want to just leave here when we are not just gonna pursue it. If you are gonna make this allegation, make the allegation.
	Mr Rocca	But that's what we are saying. If you are gonna make a formal complaint Ian, Paul Richardson, and I mean Paul Richardson I mean the RGP, then make it. But make a formal misfeasance allegation and go report a crime, because it's a crime.
	Supt Richardson	Sibut I would, I'd have to report it to (inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	That's right.
	CoP	It can't be reported through us.
	Mr Rocca	It can't be with yourselves.
	Supt Richardson	Would that be with you.
	CoP	And have it investigated by an external police force.
	Mr Rocca	And have it investigated by an external police force, I believe that is where Michael has to say, if these are the allegations, I've seen a copy of the letter and the allegations between. If these are formal allegations
	Supt Richardson	And if I, if that happens, I would be criticized for not doing my job properly, by not going to Jaime Levy's house at six o'clock in the morning and waking up his family....
	COP	Like the expert....like the expert in the MET...
	Supt Richardson	By not taking a team there and seizing any of his devices.
	COP	...the dog handler that said that that was not the way to run a dog search.
	Mr Rocca	Ofcourse
	COP	See what I mean? Do you see the correlation?

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Rocca	Yeah, yeah, yeah. Unfortunately...
	Supt Richardson	I'm not knocking on the Chief Ministers door and ask him to explain his emails.
	Mr LLamas	(inaudible) criticising to do things....
	COP	I am telling you now, I tell you, we are kicking ourselves, but next time, we'll do it again because that's in our nature, how we, we deal with things in the best way possible. But it warrants going there with a bit of a firm hand, and say, this is what there is, but we do not have same cold approach that the English have. They don't care who they are dealing with.
	Mr Rocca	But it think the, the two tacts I think it is, your response has to be, I don't get involved in operational matters, those are matters for the police. Emm.. and therefore I leave you to deal with it, be it the Magistrate avenue, whatever you wish to choose, that's with you. If there area allegation of misfeasance please let me know immediately, I'll put them formally in writing. So that I can arrange, for them to investigate it...
	COP	Or to consider whether there is any....
	Mr Rocca	Exactly. Otherwise put up or shut up.
	Mr Llamas	Yes but, how do I know that? I mean I, I know it because sending it to you is like.... essentially, you sent me an email,
	Mr Rocca	and that's not copied to you either.
	Mr Llamas	No, because it has been sent to me, because Paul when he replies to that letter copies me in.
	COP	Paul replies to the, Paul replies to the clerk.
	Mr Llamas	So what is your letter to the (inaudible) regarding this.
	Mr Rocca	I've got that. Paul let me have it.
	Supt Richardson	I, send it to him because there are allegations made to the clerk, and I'm saying give it the seriousness and copying in the Magistrate, oh no the Magistrate, the Commissioner and the DPP.
	Mr Rocca	And I think its right given the seriousness of the allegation I copied it to you.
	Mr Llamas	Yeah.
	Mr Rocca	Because there are allegations of misfeasance against the police force. I think that's our, that's our line.,
	Mr Llamas	Okay, so basically other than doing that I think we've anticipated more or lesswhere the shots are coming from . There may be, a....a challenge to the search warrant, maybe. Emm.. they'll have, we'll see whether they pursue the misfeasance point or not.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	We'll find out true enough probably. And apart from that….
00:4023	COP	That was the reason why this chap could not, in my view, Michael and with respect, we couldn't have it (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Okay, I am still….
	CoP	Now you understand, we are, they are accusing us.
	Mr Llamas	I am still and its the only reason why I am involved in this, its that this is highly sensitive as point 9 here.
	COP	I agree.
	Mr Llamas	Demonstrates.
	COP	I agree.
	Mr Llamas	In my view, its just a view, completely unjust, unjustifiable to me that this man should be even appearing on a formal document. Emm.. and I will not, if it's not legitimate, I want that to disappear immediately. My concern here, is the reputation of this jurisdiction and that passes to the reputation of our Chief Minister. Especially in this moment in time. And for that I shall fight until I die.
	COP	The thing is you have the magic wand here. You have it.
	Mr Llamas	I am sure, and if it's the case, I would ask you to get it out of this as soon as possible.
	COP	The reason we and look…the policy decision made, the fact that we whoever, whoever is pulling here whether its Caine with the golden nugget hidden under his arm, I do not know yet. But emm… we can presume that he can potentially have something up his sleeve to get out of this. To compromise the people we are talking about.
	Mr Llamas	What do you mean? That somebody told them to act like this?
	Cop	No, no, no, no. That maybe he, I do not know what it could be … we can toss and turn it in our head and we haven't go the answer. But from the word go, when we did the, interrogation of the devices of Caine and John Perez, the Chief Minister featured, unfortunately. And, call it this or that And he….
	Mr Llamas	Not him personally?
	Cop	No, no, no, no. There is no communications from the Chief Minister identified, that I can see. But,
	Mr Llamas	Levy?
	Cop	Bueno amongst them, amongst them, the, the, the three. And Paul would come and say Paul….

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Supt Richardson	There was, there was some communication.
	CoP	But you reminded me, you reminded me on this one. Emm...because of me asking you this. He says well, the question, that the Chief Minister comes very valid, validly asked me...is why didn't you ask me direct, about this. And my, and the response which he has had to drop, says man, we had to protect, he has to, he cannot feature as part of, these type of enquiries.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	COP	Yeah well, well. Exactly, but look, its there now
	Mr Rocca	That's part of...is that what's gone to the court?
	Supt Richardson	No, no, no that was given to me. That is telling Levy, this is what we want you to account for your...your communication with the Chief Minister or...on....
	COP	On this particular matter
00:4320	Supt Richardson	On this particular matter. Where is the contact, (inaudible) I don't... we don't know what the communication is/was.
	Mr Llamas	Do you realise how damaging if this came out? The reference to the Chief Minister is and maybe, I'm prepared to say just maybe, maybe completely unjustified. The first discussion I have with you Ian. It is not what happened here. It's the perception that's going to live and that is potentially very damaging and that, what I wanted to avert, from the beginning. That is the reason why I asked you to rationalise the ground and then to assume that ownership is with the Government. So that, if you did proceed you were doing in a completely secure basis. Now there are documents are flying around with things like that.
	Supt Richardson	Sir, the only person that has that document, the only person is Jaime Levy. Nobody else. So if it is flying around, it is because he chooses to fly it around nobody else has had sight of that document. It's not gone to court, it's not been discussed with anybody else. It was served to him directly, so that he was able to prepare for an interview to say, these are the areas that we want you to, to account for. Otherwise he was going to turn up to an interview and we are gonna ask him, we now need you to account for these texts. He's gonna say, I didn't know anything about that, why didn't you tell me about it before.
00:4445	Mr Rocca	I think short of the terms that we are in terms of....
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Rocca	On the, their shoes is on their, their boot on their foot, they've got to decide whether they JR, either or they section 38. I don't know whether they will. And Michael will say, if there is misfeasance, and I will, I will appoint someone to investigate. And you need to write to the Magistrates Court, saying look you might need to know the information was not obtained under the warrant, it was handed voluntarily.

	COP	Us, us, we have to write.
	Mr Rocca	I think, further to your email to Maurice, saying its important that I clarify that, that the, that, that the Magistrate be made aware, the information was not obtained under warrant, it was given voluntarily, therefore we don't have a basis upon which to request that information. Even if it were.
00:4530	Supt Richardson	But that would, does that not presuppose that there is a legal right to this. I mean that would mean, everywhere that you obtained….
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) and saying appear before the Magistrates Court tomorrow, we are gonna make an application to search your house and you don't have any objections. You have six days to produce something. Its absurd.
	Mr Rocca	No but I think its, its important that Pitto knows that the information you are asking is irrelevant, because you didn't execute the warrant.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Rocca	So why did you want the information that supported the warrant…
	COP	But they will argue with the court…
	Mr Rocca	Fine, but let them argue it. (inaudible) to protect your position. Lets make it clear. The next stage is, I think this is more your call Michael, what is the end game here
	Mr Llamas	Yeah.
	Supt Richardson	I know, that's what I want…
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) reality. We are gonna get to a stage where we are gonna go through pain, pain, and actually… There isn't enough to start with Jaime Levy. Could we possibly…
	CoP	We have to so that later no…
	Mr Rocca	Fine.
	COP	In the fairness, in the interest and the fairness of the others.
	Mr Roca	I totally agree with you. And that…and that…
	Supt Richardson	Because (inaudible) on Monday. Because if Jaime comes up with an explanation
	Mr Rocca	That's it

	Supt Richardson	That holds enough water that doesn't need probing too deeply, this could be put to bed.
	Mr Llamas	This is my point, in the end the game is… by this you mean Jaime Levy's information.
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	Mr Llamas	I mean the, the case is still there.
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	Mr Llamas	How, I mean, where are we, where are we going with this? it's a, it's a, it's a fundamental question to ask, where are you going next? I would say, so now what?
	Cop	We are, that's it on Monday they interview Jaime, gather force on whatever he says, that should then be… as far as we've been able to achieve…
	Supt Richardson	Its absurd sorry, the allegation against me for misfeasance, Jaime asked me personally why I didn't do the interview on Monday.
	CoP	He wanted him to interview him.
	Supt Richardson	And then the day later, he is telling me that I am acting with misfeasance.
	Mr Llamas	Well, those things happen
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Sorry Ian, carry on
00:4741	COP	Then short of what was needed to be picked up from Robert Fischel's submissions. Only today we received the stuff from Darren Grech. which now needs to be transposed into a proper statement form. He's prepared it on Government's letter headed form. It's got to be put in…. Any, any lines that come out from that one, any questions that need to come out from that one or Robert Fischel's submission about the ownership we will push it as far as we can on that.
	Mr Rocca	Bueno
	COP	Once, once, that is done, we were expecting some stuff, whether they were coming or not, that is from the Microsoft servers in the, in the US. Which we reckon would tell a hell of a story, because Caine used his emm… he made use of his private email a lot. And that will tell …
	Mr Llamas	Is that the information you requested?
	COP	Yes through the legal channels through MLA y all that, the thing is Covid as slowed everything down. But the, remind me, now, now, because my head is all over the place, remind, remind me

	Mr Rocca	So we've come to a position where we (inaudible)
	COP	Absolutely, we done that.
	Mr Rocca	There is, and my that its actually being, and Paul knows this, we keep it relatively simple...
	COP	It doesn't make sense that you go...
	Mr Rocca	because its gonna be unmanageable...
	COP	More consequence on, on, if there is a conviction on
00:4933	Mr Rocca	And once we start bringing in people like, like Jaime, we are gonna have a massive team of lawyers and if one walks, they will all walk. That's the reality of it, so for me, I'd rather get Cornelio, the hacker , without a doubt. Sanchez, I don't know enough about it yet. Perez, I don't know that much, correct.

	Mr Rocca	Vale, okay.
	COP	I cannot, this is a gut feeling not a, nothing that I…
	Mr Llamas	What would be the golden gun?
	COP	No idea. No idea.
	Mr Rocca	Embarrassment.
	COP	No idea, it can be from the worst you could imagine to the most inert. From the worst, to the most inert. From a thing to say look I've thrown… (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Ian, the way I see this now, okay, so there are three strands to this case. We've got the criminal investigation, which is yours. We have the outstanding contractual issue, on ownership. And as I think you may be aware there is a Data Protection breach.
	COP	Against Gaggero no?
	Mr Llamas	Opened by the GRA. Where you aware of that?

	COP	Commissioner or
	Mr Llamas	Commission or body would do, with the sensitivity of the data that you've got here and we are dealing, you haven't even got a signed contract, setting out the Data Protection obligation and that will look as bad on the government, as it will on Gaggero, as it will on Blands and everybody else involved in this….
	COP	I agree, I agree.

	Mr Llamas	That's what I'm doing.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah. There's no suggestion here about
	Cop	Malfeasance
	Supt Richardson	Malfeasance.
	Mr Rocca	No, which is surprising, given they've asked me to get involved and making an allegation of misfeasance.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah, against me. And now asking for staff they are asking the court to reply to.
57.44	Mr Rocca	Exactly.
	Supt Richardson	May the court has replied to, replied to them saying, we are not going to give it to because...
	Mr Rocca	Have you been copied in?
	Supt Richardson	I haven't, I haven't checked my emails. I don't know. The other...
	CoP	If we going to...
	Supt Richardson	Precisely this, it's not incorrect in law to say that the only way to obtain special material is through a production order.
	Mr Rocca	That is wrong.
	Supt Richardson	That is wrong in law. These are the best minds in Gibraltar that are looking at this and they are advising us incorrectly.
	COP	No, advising us no
	Supt Richardson	Bueno they are telling me, and wrong in law. Surely they know that what they are saying is wrong.
	Mr Rocca	Anyway...
	Supt Richardson	Its an ethical issue, is it not?

	COP	Exactly, exactly.
	Supt Richardson	Given, given the nature of what we are discussing, shouldn't we, should I be replying directly to this? Surely it's a lawyer that should be replying to this now. I can give the information but, it shouldn't be me reply...replying direct.
	COP	(inaudible) if you want.
	Mr Llamas	And the answer is going to be no on the 7.
	Supt Richardson	7. The substance on the advice given to the RGP, in relation to the purpose of seeking a warrant.
	Mr Llamas	No, no. on all of 7.
00:5900	Supt Richardson	The search warrant, no issue at all. You can have a copy of the search warrant. Application for the search warrant, no. Because that, that sets out the terms of the investigation, it goes into great lengths to, to, to explain that. So that's not, not, not possible. Any written evidence file in support of the application.
	CoP	It's the same
	Supt Richardson	Well that is the...it's the...it's the same document. Any notes taken by the RGP of the hearing; I don't think we made any notes, the information was laid by, by Detective Sergeant Clark. I sat there only because of the sensitivity in the matter and there was an Inspector who authorised it. But I don't think we made any notes at all. Any order or ruling by the Magistrates; the mag...the order by the Magistrate is the, is the warrant.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) is the warrant, that would have....
	Supt Richardson	Any instructions or briefing notes issued by the RGP to the officers attending Mr Levy's home office; there aren't, that's an operational matter. I can't disclose that. And the substance of the advise given to the RGP in relation to the merit seeking the warrant;
	Mr Rocca	There was none.
	Supt Richardson	There was none.

	Mr Rocca	It is inappropriate.

	Mr Rocca	Doesn't do crime at all. But I would normally sit down with the counsel and give them a pre-briefing of the
	Supt Richardson	Again, none of this was done for the other defendants. It was done only for him to give him advance notice.
	Mr Llamas	So, I don't think its problematic this letter, quite frankly, at least to reply to. The only one, is this one, when they ask effectively for the return of the phone.
	Supt Richardson	I don't think we can; and I tell you… I…I…I set out the reasons for that; we applied to the Magistrates Court and laid information on oath that we suspected that he was involved in a criminal offence and we…we set out the terms of our, one and a three quarter hours, the Magistrate made, made, agreed with that assessment as well as the clerk and issued an order which we were acting on. The fact that we chose not to exercise that power was because we were required by law to seek the consent of the person that, that is there, before exercising the power. And that was sought. And it was debated over a period of hours, including several consultations, as I would have described, leading silk in the UK. And at the end of all that negotiation, he voluntarily handed over that device. So, now we have it, it's sat in a sealed bag, but we haven't done anything with it. To hand it over now,
	Mr Rocca	I think there is a simple way to defuse that paragraph, that is the concerning paragraph, you've certainly picked up. I would reply saying, given the allegations you are making, we'll sit the seven

	COP	Which I was…even, even before this has been discussed, I would say look; we, we…when the warrant was being considered, I asked them, because I…I'm not in to the in-depth detail, but what if, emm…emm… I went through a couple of scenarios; what if Jaime got up and left? what are you going to do? And he takes his phone with him. All that, and, and, and he says, no, He won't do that to me, he won't do that to me. And well what if they challenge, can they… is there any power that they can stop the warrant from happening? No there isn't, they cannot stop the warrant…
	Supt Richardson	Judicial review.
	CoP	They, they had to…but and, but the point of judicial review, they have to stop, we, we would have to, would we have to grind everything to a halt, meaning no interrogation of devices, the, the, the thing stops. Emm..and they tell me, no, no you carry on, the, the investigation carries on. The fact that the, the judicial review may come and then come back to haunt you, look. But you…
	Mr Llamas	Okay.

01:0331	Mr Llamas	Let me ask you one question in relation to that; from Jaime Levy's point of view, what is the best outcome of doing the interview on Monday?
	CoP	Going to leave this for you Paul.
	Supt Richardson	From his point of view, from his perspective? He…he would have to give an explanation which accounts for what he has done, which holds some degree of water. In other words, I have been misled, emm… I was told this, he has already said this unofficially through other sources.
	Mr Rocca	I didn't know what I was doing, I didn't manage the platform.
	Supt Richardson	I have been…I have been misled, I have been….
	Mr Rocca	I saw this opportunity…
	Supt Richardson	I have lost half a million pounds with this, I've invested with them. 	Mr Rocca	I didn't know Sanchez was….
	Mr Llamas	…are you interviewing him, Paul?
	Supt Richardson	No.
	Mr Llamas	No, then, the…and what's the best result then? That the, the, the Police Officer who interviews him comes back to you and says…
	Supt Richardson	I will listen to the interview, I can, I can, I can participate…well not participate, I can monitor it remotely. But it's not appropriate for me to conduct an interview at this, at this level.
	Mr Llamas	So the out come then is, so he…he can convince you on Monday, that he's got nothing to do here. Or it's what he has to do is minimal and what then, would you exclude him from the investigation straight away and give him back his phone?
	Supt Richardson	I don't think that would be the prudent thing to do. We would have to make sure that what he is saying is, is… hold some degree of…and I'm saying this with…reservedly; because to discount him completely, would impact on everything else. If it was found that what he was saying was untrue, because the other side might decide to call him and say well, this isn't true what you are saying, you acted emm…emm… biased towards him for whatever reason. So we'd have to have an account that holds…holds some degree of water.
	Mr Rocca	I think what Michael is asking is, if he, if he, if he satisfies you in the interview, would you give the phone back or would you still need to do the sift of the phone? That's the question, I think. No?
	Supt Richardson	I think that would be, dangerous.
	Mr Rocca	So you are saying, you still would have to sift through the phones.

	Supt Richardson	He does, he made a copy of his phone before he gave it to us.
	CoP	If he brings in everything which we are asking of him and he presents it, then that pauses, that puts us in a more difficult position, to say maybe if…
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible) it's a different phone.
	Supt Richardson	He, he says he has taken the SIM card from one phone to…
	Cop	From one phone, the, the, the other phone hasn't appeared.

	Mr Rocca	What are we expecting to find anyway in…

	Mr Rocca	…his phone. (inaudible)
	Supt R ichardson	No, not necessarily, if its saved on the device, it was also backed up when you, he had it set to back up to the cloud so. Yeah. So there is that. You know there might be all sorts of conversations post the arrest to these people. Remember, when Perez was arrested, the first person his calls is Jaime Levy and the officers who where there called me and I spoke to you on the same day with, we are in a position now where one of our suspects is dealing directly with another suspect. I can't let him speak to him. So I spoke to…to…to Chris and I said look Jaime Levy is trying to speak or… Perez is trying to speak to Levy. We haven't got to the stage where we need to speak to Levy, yet. This is a conflict of interest and you advised that it was up to him to resolve this. As it happened, Jaime didn't turn up at the station, it was David Dumas. And when David Dumas turned up, I don't think he was very well briefed, because he was very happily discussing matters with me, we were preparing, he was preparing statements. We were all, and then he said, this is a conflict of interest for me and then they stopped representing Perez as well.

01:1059	Supt Richardson	Assuming he voluntarily attends and if he doesn't that would put us in an impossible position.
	Mr Rocca	Because then you have to arrest him.
	Supt Richardson	We have to arrest him. I'm hoping that we don't get to that. This is why he has been given a week to get ready, to prepare his position.
	Mr Llamas	Okay, then in the meantime, what are you doing with the phone?
	Supt Richardson	Nothing.
	Mr Llamas	At the moment its in a blue bag.
	Sup	No, no this blue bag is advice that he got from the silk in the UK that describes correct procedures; we don't have blue bags, white bags, green bags.
	Mr Llamas	Okay. It is sealed in a bag.
	DPP	(inaudible) blue bag yeah.

	Mr Llamas	Until after the interview?
	Supt Richardson	Until we are in a position to get somebody to be able to examine the content of it.
	Mr Llamas	But would you wait until the interview first?
	Supt Richardson	We would do the interview first because that might take, it might take a very long time. As I, as I explained to him yesterday. The suggestion that it would be sent to the UK or anywhere else to be done is absurd, what I explained to him was that the, the only police involvement is to extract a....a...an image of the device, they connect it to computer, it runs overnight. Because he wanted someone to sit there whilst this was being done. I said look I've got no objections but this might take, you might be there for whole night, in the morning when you turn on the device, its corrupted and you start all over again. And its not that the guy that's doing the, the extraction, not extraction, the imaging, isn't doing something else. He connects it and starts working on another job. Six hours later or...or two days later he opens the extraction and if the, if the file works that's it, that's all that we would do.

	CoP	Ahha... Paul? Yes. No, no, what I mean to say is that, that's the drill
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	And that is it misleading to say then that we will review our position after the interview on Monday, because if you say that, that can be interpreted as meaning that you can hand back the phone after the interview on Monday. If that's a none starter then we, you shouldn't say it.
01:1526	Supt Richardson	I think it's unlikely that we'll be able to say here it is, because what will, what will, the situation you are describing is, we are asking you to give your account and we are not going to check what you are saying is, is, is true. We've gone to court and filed a an application, we've been granted that, we've chosen not to do it because you've corroborated and now we are not going to check what it is that you are saying. It just supports the argument well come and see me and I'll just give you want you want in the first place and tell you the truth. I'm an officer of the court I wouldn't lie to you. It doesn't mean to say that we couldn't delay the examination of that phone for enough time, until everything else is resolved.
	DPP	I don't think you need to disclose that to the court if don't want to, don't you say its unlawful, go to a court of law. Then you remedy, you remedy exists.
	DPP	There are seven days where we can guarantee we are not going to look into it, no matter what I do afterwards....
	DPP	Seven days, well we are going to the interview into any event, pero (inaudible) if you think its unlawful....
	Cop	And who would...who would represent the RGP in this legal argument.
	DPP	That would be, I suppose me. It becomes a rightful lawful challenge of the warrant, in relation to the investigation.
	COP	On the, on whether we have to return the phone or not.
	DPP	Don't see how it couldn't in that regard no.

	CoP	Of course. Of course.
	Supt Richardson	Yes, yes, yes , even worse, this is the least ...
	Senior Crown Counsel	You are not cooperating, I am arresting you for and now I'm not going to need a warrant at all or a production order
	DPP	What are the conditions when you can go without a warrant. (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Which are met here?

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	DPP	I don't know. (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	For what?
	DPP	For exercising search powers without a warrant?
	Supt Richardson	Yes but, if we…if there is arrest,
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	No, no, no, no Chris, if we are arresting, you have the power to enter the…the residence.
	DPP	Yeah but not to see his…not to see his documents.
	Supt Richardson	What for the legally privileged stuff? We wouldn't be able to examine it, we would have to bag it up and we would arrive at the same situation that we are in now. We would have to get a lawyer to sift through it.
	DPP	I'm not even sure you'd be entitled to enter and take stuff without a warrant. Just because you are arresting someone. There are certain conditions in, in the Police (inaudible) Act, for you to do that. Like you fear that your stuff is going to be destroyed, there's…there's an assailant in the premises, so you would have to tick those boxes first. I don't think its that simple eh? From recollection.
	Supt Richardson	I'm…I'm equally blurred at this, but we do, we do regularly use inspectors authorities, so if somebody has been arrested in….
	DPP	Maybe because you fear that they may destroy the property or the drugs or whatever.
	Supt Richardson	Its to…its to secure evidence, but I'm not going to argue because I'm not, I don't know that law very well, I'm not the inspector so I don't deal with these things on a day to day basis.
	DPP	No I know, because I looked at it before I came over. Emm… I think that the…that the un…unspoken, question is and I'll be speaking to you, do we need to be communicating to Louis quietly, that Jaime, although he is ticking the boxes, isn't (inaudible) and that….
	DPP	But you don't know that yet no?
	DPP	I've seen every…I've not seen everything, I've seen a fair amount of documentation that Paul has left with me and summaries, etc. there are questions, I would agree him, there are questions that need to be asked to Jaime that he needs to answer. And there may be failage to his answer, I was conned by Perez
	Supt Richardson	What we are…what we are hoping for.
	COP	We are keeping an open mind.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	DPP	And they are keeping an open mind. But do we need to feed that back quietly to the
	COP	If you…
	Supt Richardson	I don't know.
	COP	The kiln is really hot, certainly not from us. The …the reactions we've had as a result of this, no way Jose.
	DPP	I mean are we crossing lines if we do so?
	Mr Llamas	I don't know.
	DPP	It would probably be us, I would have to say.
	DPP	Yes no, yeah, I just wanted to ask the question.
	Senior Crown Counsel	I have a gut feeling, that might be appropriate but not
	DPP	Yeah.
	DPP	Just now.
	DPP	Yet.
	Senior Crown Counsel	I wouldn't have thought.
	DPP	Yeah. I don't know.
	Mr Llamas	And with what conviction can we say that?
	DPP	I suppose with the conviction and with the reality is, if we get Jaime Levy in, charged with a conspiracy and we get 20 QCs, Jaime will unleash hell and everything that comes with it. I think the Marrache's will be the biggest barrage of QC;s I'll ever seen to defend him. Emm… are we gonna get any convictions at all? Is it in the public interest? And do we keep it confined when its touch and go anyway. Which at the moment it is, I think. The debate that you and I have Michael, my feeling was evidentially there is a case, would we get passed the jury, emm… I don't know. But its what Jaime says, or no?
	Supt Richardson	Which again is the worst case scenario.
	DPP	Do we, are we gonna give him that feedback, you know. We need to tick these boxes. And if there is a What'sUpp that says 'guilty', 'I did it', I'm conspiring, then yeah, yeah.
	Senior Crown Counsel	And that's the danger that we are getting in now because if you find it (inaudible) a smoking gun, then you'll have said something which in effect, well hang on a second there is nothing here.
	DPP	Ther';ll be nothing on his device. I think. Paul has to do this because Paul has to justify later on, in trial,

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Supt Richardson	Yeah
	DPP	That he has explored all the lines of inquiry.
	COP	In all....
	DPP	(inaudible) yeah I understand that you have to do this.
	CoP	Exactly.
	DPP	I disagree the, the timing, I think for me was difficult, but look it was an operational matter for...for...for Paul and for Ian and we can't interfere with that.
	Supt Richardson	For me the easy way to explain this is this; if you were lawyer acting in the best interest of your client, would you go the way that's likely to cause less emm... offence or would you...
	DPP	Depends who it is.
	Supt Richardson	...would you secure his, his rights. And I'm...we think that we are acting, in the interest of securing the evidence.
	DPP	And that is your call, you know the case better than we do.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	DPP	At the end of the day. Emm... you've got your finger on the pulse, we don't, emm... look that some of us would have done differently, but that's life.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	DPP	You ask ten people the same question and they'll answer you slightly differently perhaps.
01:2746	Senior Crown Counsel	And which is why a JR, even if mounted would probably wouldn't succeed because it wouldn't be that (inaudible) operational, with a reasonable.
	DPP	I haven't seen the application, but I...all I'm saying...
	Supt Richardson	It is very...
	DPP	(inaudible) disclosed everything, every JR, look, you are challenging Paul, they are actually challenging the judge
	Supt Richardson	Yes
	Senior Crown Counsel	Right. Absolutely, yeah, yeah, yeah.
	Supt Richardson	This wasn't, like I said before, this wasn't go before Mr Capurro or Mr Gareze...
	DPP	Yeah fine.

OP DELHI

	Supt Richardson	...two minutes, thank you very much, sign here. This was an hour and three quarters, laying, laying the information.
	CoP	After he had had it for days.
	Supt Richardson	And he had it the day before or two days before.
	Senior Crown Counsel	If I may emm...
	CoP	If the judge didn't feel that we had....
	Senior Crown Counsel	Yeah.
	CoP	...grounds, he would not have signed it.
	DPP	Yeah, yeah, because he would....(inaudible) section 13 of the Production Order, would they, would a judge ever say that to you? You've got the wrong... say, hang on Mr Richardson, this is a...
	CoP	This is the wrong route.
	DPP	This is the wrong route, this is a section 12 application, isn't this surely a section 13, because it's a production order.
	Supt Richardson	He, he, he...no he...
	DPP	Would he ever do that to you
	Supt Richardson	Yeah. He asked about how we would deal with the legally privileged material.
	DPP	Hmmm..
	Supt Richardson	And asked, he asked for clarification did we think if it would be compromised if we just asked for the information which we handed over. And for the...the reasons for that are clearly yes. And...and they were borne out yesterday. You know, this wasn't, I'm an officer of the court, here is, our understanding and the argument and therefore...
	DPP	(inaudible) that he has known this for months.
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	DPP	Then if I was, I would say, okay, if you...we're not going to compromise the information, but if this had been knowledge, knowledge from Jaime Levy for months, I would have gone. The ex party requirement, its almost, it goes out the window.
	Supt Richardson	I can't, I can't agree with you, with that Chris.,. he knows...
	DPP	He knows exactly what's been going on for months...
	Supt Richardson	Yes.
	DPP	He knows Cornelio has been interviewed, he knows...

OP DELHI

	Supt Richardson	He knows, I mean he is a partner in the same firm.
	DPP	Exactly, exactly.
	Supt Richardson	But, he we are today, discussing the fact that we had the, the gaul to do the warrant.
	DPP	No, no.
	Supt Richardson	So there made no expectation, clearly there was no expectation ever that it would get to give me your phone and will check those devices.
	COP	That's the...and he's picked up on a point, I don't think anybody expected that this, that it was gonna get to this stage.
	DPP	Or to a warrant.
	COP	No. to, to...
	Mr Llamas	The reaction.
	Cop	No the reaction no, to the findings of where, of where we got to.
	DPP	You mean...
	Cop	Nobody knows (inaudible)
	DPP	Incentivised (inaudible)
	CoP	I don't know, but I'm talking, when I say we, I'm talking about...I don't know the details, I'm probably at the same level as you are.
	DPP	Yeah.
	CoP	But when you look at it, because I...I trust him, when you see what there is , I only referred a couple of messages just to Darren Grech the other day when I met with him and I and Lloyd was there. And Darrien Grech, the man put his hands to his head.
	SCC	I left before you even did that.
	COP	Ah bueno, pero that was the day I referred to.
	Mr Llamas	Again, this....
	COP	And Caine, Caine, what I was saying, if we've taken a hospital worker to court, and its appeared in the newspapers.... Of three hundred pounds worth of, of ....
	Mr Llamas	So, and...and stop me if I'm asking questions I shouldn't be asking and I'd rather not know the answer if I'm asking them.
	COP	The thing is (inaudible) you don't know the substance, neither does, many other people don't know.
	Mr Llamas	Yeah.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Cop	For my own peace of mind, I am calm, because my conscious is very clear, in that regard, they've done a very diligent emm...emm...investigation. Competent to the limits. No, I can't, I can only knock them for, for being taken for a ride and we are still are, because they have eighty million, eighty million emails which they no ,onger are going to give, but that will show that they are not as voluntary and compliant as a court officer is.
	Supt Richardson	They should be.
	COP	Eh?
	Supt Richardson	They should be.
	COP	They should be.
	Mr Llamas	So you've got...you've got evidence that
	Supt Richardson	Its started to rain.
	CoP	No, no esta lloviendo.
	Supt Richardson	No?
	Mr Llamas	You've got evidence that makes you feel confident.
	COP	Yes. We are...we are not saying that anybody is guilty.
	DPP	Bueno Cornelio is
	COP	We are not saying, well
	DPP	Cornelio definitely is.
	COP	Fine.
	Supt Richardson	And Fischel is.
	DPP	And Fischel is as well, yeah.
	COP	I'm giving him the benefit of the doubt
	DPP	What's Fischel?
	Supt Richardson	He's saying that he's laid about eight, ten charges against Gaggero, saying
	DPP	Oh, Robert Fischel.,
	Supt Richardson	Saying wasting police employment, improperly use of information, hacking into the system. Yeah.
	COP	But even, even if, John Perezwas a life long neighbour of mine at Humphries , I...I...I feel for the lad,but look , this is beyondall , It's not feeling pitty or anything, it is what it is. What the guys are up to,look, I am...I give them the benefitthat they are not guilty, but we have a role to do and this is what I'm trying to stress, we do what we do. And then prosecutors take on the case and judges hear the case and the jury then decides whether they are guilty or not. Emm... as simple as that. And no, no hard feelings. No hard feelings against anybody. Pero lo que no puedo es emm... be...I cannot be, sinisterly speaking, like the scape goat here. That this is a flawed investigation, that its, that we don't know how to investigate white collar crime. Because if that's the case, lets hand it over to somebody else. I'm willing to do that, now.

	Mr Llamas	Shall we wrap up. So, and as far as I understand what we've discussed, is that, Paul is going to reply to the...
	COP	No, I will, I will.
	Mr Llamas	So you Ian, is going to reply to emm... this letter. Emm...
	COP	To?
	Supt Richardson	Louis no?
	Mr Llamas	In relation to the first paragraph after the seventh point, saying that no material has been improperly downloaded (inaudible)until after the interview on Monday.
	Supt Richardson	Can you please go a bit slower, cause I want to make sure that I have an...an accurate record of what we've agreed. No material has been downloaded.
	Mr Llamas	Has been.... (inaudible)
	COP	No, the device hasn't been examined or....
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible)
	Cop	Or remains sealed.
	Mr Llamas	Yeah, no material has been copied or downloaded.
	COP	Ahha...
	DPP	And remains in a sealed bag no.
	COP	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	Remains in a sealed bag and will remain in a sealed bag at least until the interview of Mr Levy on Monday.
	DPP	I'd rather you'd give them more time Michael, to make the application. I was going to say and we won't do so for seven days, fourteen days.
	DPP	To give them a more reasonable
	DPP	At least to come across as extremely reasonable. As long as we are concerned its lawful (inaudible) and make the application.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	DPP	We give them fourteen days.
	Supt Richardson	But we need to take notice that that fourteen days takes us up till June. And the bail date for the other people is coming up and we need to make a decision by then. So this has to be resolved.
	DPP	But they are not gonna get examined before they come back
	Supt Richardson	No, but that, I can justify the delay. Saying, haven't even started work on it, two weeks after I took it...
	DPP	Well give them seven days, seven days for the application will give them time no?
	DPP	Seven days
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	So, in the seven days they need to decide whether they, they can challenge.
	DPP	If they want to...if they want to make an application that is unlawful to, to the court, I'll give them seven days.
01:3530	COP	Now this is a question I need to know, and maybe its pre-emptive and there's no sign of weakness on my...I'm just trying for my own peace of mind. They, they do file an application.
	DPP	Yeah.
	COP	And the judge says return it. That leaves us exposed, that leaves us, does it
	DPP	No
	COP	Or is it a...a question of, their challenge is...
	Mr Llamas	No I think the challenge...the worst thing that is going to happen is...
	CoP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	....that the judge will tell you hold on, we should have, we should have emm...identified, or you should have asked....
	DPP	A production order, section 14 or you should have this....
	COP	Which you can't because it doesn't apply for What'sUpp messages. It doesn't.
	Mr Llamas	No it doesn't
	Supt Richardson	A production order is for a business, for records, accrued during business conduct, not personal messages.
	DPP	Section 13 actually refers to where there is, when you know there is going to be privileged and special interest material.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	I thought it applied to everything. (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	But the warrant also… no there is…
	DPP	I don't think it stops you from section 12.
	Supt Richardson	But it's the schedule 1. It's the schedule 1 warrant that…which is specifically for privilege material.
	DPP	True, yeah.
	Supt Richardson	Specific material caters for that.
	CoP	the difference between a production order and a search warrant is under the….
	DPP	(inaudible) interparty …
	COP	Well assuming that there is an interparty within the search that the…that the…the party 'x' amount of time will provide you with the data. And the search warrant is on demand. You've got to give it to me now. That's the only difference.
	DPP	And this is personal this time as opposed to a firm.
	Supt Richardson	Yes. This isn't Hassans.
	DPP	Yeah, no, no. Give me, give me (inaudible) Michael Llamas and Christian Rocca.
	Mr Llamas	I don't buy the distinction. I think its un…un…unreasonable and unrealistic to draw a distinction between Jaime Levy and Hassans.
	DPP	Yeah, that was an agreement as well.
	Mr Llamas	Anyway, so, Ian is replying, he's got answers to the seven points, we went over them so expected a yes for the search warrant, no for 2, no for 3, no for 4, 5 is the warrant itself, 6 there were none and 7 there were none.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	And then the first paragraph is that, seven days…
	Supt Richardson	Yes ,
	Mr Llamas	And then confirmation that you have not downloaded or copied…
	COP	I would also refer to the fact that its…it's not that I am refusing to it, to the meeting, that I think it's inappropriate .
	DPP	Inappropriate.
	DPP	And also sir, that you are comfortable, that you have acted in accordance with the law and…
	CoP	Yeah.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	DPP	But it does suggest highly (inaudible)
	COP	Yeah
	Supt Richardson	Should you be saying that we have met here and you are confident that nothing has been done.
	DPP	I think it just reserves...look at the end of the day (inaudible) if that's what they want to do, I think. Surely your fall back position is that I've got an order.
	Cop	That's emm... I alluded to that if...
	DPP	No, no.
	COP	But, I....
	Mr Llamas	Yes and especially lets not go over this again, I... Christian and I feel that it could have been done differently, but let's forget that now. We are where we are now, so yes, there is an agreement of what you are doing makes sense, that we would have done it differently, is a...is a....is another issue. So I would just confine it as Christian is saying, just to the reply, and on the last point what, is just to say that it's the 11th point raised here.
	COP	Paul?
	Supt Richardson	Yes. That...that...that emm... we've...we've all...
	Mr Llamas	Is anyone asking for this, because they've seen this
	Supt Richardson	Can I see it, I haven't, yeah, this is what I was asking for. Sorry. In the meantime, where is this?
	Mr Llamas	The last, the very last paragraph.
	Supt Richardson	Separately in relation to Mr Levy's proposed voluntary interview on the 18th of May, I request prior disclosure of the matters proposed to be (inaudible) I would send him a copy of all of what was given that is precisely what the document was
	Mr Llamas	Hmm...
	Supt Richardson	It was titled, invitation to Police...
	DPP	Yeah.
	Supt Richardson	...interview, setting out the terms and what was going to be discussed.
01:3933	DPP	And you'd been given the opportunity as normal practice.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	DPP	Pre interview briefing.

OP DELHI

	COP	And at that point, look if you…and we can bring any material that supports a…. any…any of his responses, well that will be helpful wouldn't it?
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I don't intend to
	DPP	You don't intend to reply. Because he is asking.
	Mr llamas	No unless I have to.
	DPP	He seems to be asking you ….give me the opportunity,
	Mr llamas	Yeah is it, is it, okay for me to meet him? He's asking for a meeting.
	DPP	With you and the RGP.
	CoP	No.
	Mr Llamas	But the RGP does not want to meet
	Senior Crown Counsel	May be you can say... (inaudible) because it seems like a way of saying, its (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Yeah.
	Senior Crown Counsel	Its you. (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I…if that is the case, its pointless, because I can't (inaudible)
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	It's just stop them from doing you can agree or disagree with what they've done.
	DPP	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	Emm…. But it's there at this stage, the way I see this is at three stages here, the first stage which is where we are, its you.
	Supt Richardson	That's fine.
	Mr Llamas	And you can do whatever you think is appropriate in the circumstances. Other people can agree or disagree with what you've done.
	Supt Richardson	Legitimate and proportionate is what we are looking at.
	Mr Llamas	When you do this phase and setting aside the discussions we've been having in meetings with the rationalising and all. But in the normal case then , you do your…your stuff and then you come to the conclusion, there's the case here to …
	CoP	We present.

OP DELHI

(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	You go to Christian. Vale, then Christian, has a look at your case, He will discuss it with you Ian....,it looks as if there isn't , Ian I don't think there is I don't agree....
	COP	We are at that stage. We have been at that stage.
	Mr Llamas	Pero....emm...
	Cop	Short of the little....
	Mr Llamas	And then we prosecute.
	Cop	Or not.
	Mr Llamas	Or not. Y si... all we are saying...
	COP	Or not, precisely ...
	Supt Richardson	It doesn't have to end in prosecution. There are other means of dealing with it. Caution, there's all sorts of ways of dealing with...
	Mr Llamas	You are asking...you are asking the wrong person in a sense.
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible)
01:4200	Cop	I tell you, if its not in the public interest for this to go any further, I cannot make that call.
	DPP	It's not at that stage. That's the point that we are making.
	Cop	No, but well, but, but...but we...
	DPP	It's not Michael's call.
	COP	I know, I know.
	DPP	To interfere with you.
	Cop	I know. But we are talking, of, moving where we are from now. We...we, we interview Jaime, we then assess what he says, we tie up the loose ends, what Fischel said in...in...in his submission. Ernesto Gomez, this and that, we have, what Darrien Grech submitted. Okay, this is what we propose.
	Mr Llamas	But, setting aside what...what happened in the last 24 hours. I would still like us to meet with the rationalisation
	Cop	That's, that....that's what I'm referring to.
	Mr Llamas	I think it would...it still remains important...
	COP	I ...that's...I agree.
	Mr Llamas	We do that exercise of rationalisation.
	Cop	I agree.

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	And we do also the exercise of assuming the platform is owned by the Government. Emm...which still remains, and then, then take a view.
	COP	I've got no, no problems with that.
	Supt Richardson	I think we, we...we
	COP	I've got no problems. Have you got any problems with that? And there
	DPP	Seventy-five charges no o algo.
	Cop	Which is ridiculous Emm...under normal circumstances, you...we would not, we would deal with them in any other way. Pero, we'll do that. Good, the...the evidence is perused, because perhaps with what Jaime says tomorrow it puts a spanner in the works, and the DPP says , looks this isn't so clear anymore. And you don't want to run with it. It that is the advice that you give to me, I would like that advice in writing, and therefore, that would be the end of the matter for me.
	DPP	Its raining
	Supt Richardson	No, its raining.
	COP	Do you get me? that would be the end of the matter for me, but what I cannot say is nothing is going to happen with this. I can't say that. That's the point that I've been saying all along.
	DPP	And Michael can't enter a nolle
	Mr Llamas	Hombre, its something that I'd rather not do, I've been approached several times since I was appointed Attorney General to enter a nolle and in both cases, some of them very sensitive, emm.. and have had no doubt, not to do the nolle because I think the threshold for a nolle is extremely, extremely high. If, if, there...I feel, that a prosecution, exposes the Chief Minister,I say it very clearly here , on grounds, which are flimsy, I'll stop it. I clearly tell you so. If you've got a smoking gun against the Chief Minister, I can't....
	Cop	Yo no,
	Mr Llamas	Can I assure you, you are not gonna have it.
	COP	No, no, nobut not...lets...for the record today, that's not the case.
	DPP	Let's look at the public interest ground.
	COP	Estamos. Am I...am I...
	Supt Richardson	That is the case then.
	Cop	That has to be categorical here now, that is not the case
	DPP	The public interest part is probably to justify

OP DELHI

(with translated parts in BLUE)

	Mr Llamas	I...so at least on those grounds, its that I would write it up as cool and collected as you can think Emm... because it...it would be awful, awful to the...for me personally and awful for the jurisdiction. Emm... because we know what's gonna happen at this critical moment in our history. Other than that, look, I think we've got all our own views, on some of the characters here. Without saying anymore, without saying anymore.
	COP	Yes, but that's, that's... that has in a way, not helped this, the sharing of the views. Because being who we are what we should be doing is assessing the evidence in the oibjective way that it is meant and lets make a decision. But instead we are looking at it, turning it.....
	DPP	Ahi no estamos lan.
	COP	No, no...
	DPP	Ahi no estamos
	COP	I know, I know, but that's, because if you get the emotions into it, it's where this starts to wobble.
	DPP	You need to complete the investigation and then we need to sit down.
	COP	Si, si. Talk about the proposed charges.
	Mr Llamas	I...I think, for me its very clear, vale, they've done what they've done, we are where we are, there's an interview on Monday. You are going to give them confirmation that no-one is going to touch the phone for seven days, so, challenge me.
	Cop	Yeah.
	Mr llamas	That is what you are telling them, challenge me
	COP	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	The interview is going to take place, we'll see.
	Supt Richardson	Yeah.
	Mr Llamas	And if you are wrong you are wrong. You'll have a come back, fine, it won't be the first or the last time.
	DPP	Yes
	Mr Llamas	And the phone, the phone Y el telefono, el telefono, I am telling you in writing that no-one is touching it.

	COP	Yes, when I get back I will do it.
	DPP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Exactly. I believe this is the big issue. So I believe you have to provide them that guarantee that no-one is touching it That there will be an interview and no-one is going to touch it for at least fro seven days so challenge me And that's it for now.
	Supt Richardson	I hope to God we haven't started, because yesterday, this time yesterday I was assuring him that I would process it by today, because he insisted in having the phone back again. The exact opposite.
	Cop	No, make sure.
	Supt Richardson	The exact opposite.
	COP	Call up and find out, well it's in your office isn't it?
	Supt Richardson	I'd…I'd be surprised if we were that efficient. But it was in my office locked up when we came out. So, unless someone has opened by office, I can't…
	Mr Llamas	Bueno I hope its not the case.
	Supt Richardson	I'm 99% certain its not, somebody would have…
	DPP	Well I think our strongest position is to say…
	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
	DPP	….we haven't opened it.
	Mr Llamas	Our strongest…
	DPP	Have it legally challenged
	Mr Llamas	Our strongest, totally, totally.
	Supt Richardson	Yesterday the pressure was the opposite.
	COP	We are lumbered with a
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible)
	DPP	Yes, no, put the…put the…put your money where you mouth is
	COp	I agree, I've said that.
	DPP	Yea, yeah, yeah
	COP	This is what I've been asking, we can't make a decision, let the court make the decision.
	DPP	Absolutely. Okay guys, (inaudible) Emm… so we don't have anything to do, as far as I'm
	Supt Richardson	I think we would want you to check….

	CoP	Si.
	DPP	Yeah.
	COP	(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Good to see you gents.
	COP	I'll do it when I get back.
	Supt Richardson	Okay sir, bye-bye.
	COP	Bye-bye.
	Mr Llamas	Bye-bye.
01:4828	Mr Llamas	Okay Ianwe now have a problem, the Chief Minister is adamant that you said yesterday, to both of us, you were acting on ad…on the search warrant, on advice of the DPP.
	CoP	On advice for the investigation all along.
	Mr Llamas	Well, he says, and you've confirmed now that such advice does not exist.
	COP	I ask my lot, this this is being cleared by the DPP. This…this is the way, he has read, the rationale as to why Jaime has to go through the interview process. The suspicions, what the level of suspicions are. That's he's be given all that, he's read it. They, it says, look this is what this man has done and he agrees that .....
	Mr llamas	Pero he says he never agreed.
	COP	Fine
	Mr Llamas	Yo no, yo no….
	COP	I've never been, I've never been privy to those conversations. But what I know is that he has been advising the team. And that is what I am referring to that, but I also said that I am not shrugging that responsibility, I am saying that we have been in consultation…
	Mr Llamas	No, no, (inaudible) what you told me and him yesterday, you told us yesterday, que the, the….
	Cop	No the….
	Mr Llamas	…the decision to do search warrant was on advice of the DPP.
	COP	I….prrfff, I can't remember the words Michael, what I remember saying is that and I've said it is this, I don't need to shrug responsibilities, but this matter had been dealt with in consultation with the DPP. That is what I've said, and I'm referring to an investigation and a....a relationship that has been back and forth on a number of... of times. That is what I'm referring.

	Mr Llamas	But what you can't categorically say, I think, is that you, you or Paul or any other member of the team...
	COP	Hmm... it...it...it was with...
	Mr Llamas	...asked the DPP, do you agree that a search warrant is the appropriate way in doing this and then the DPP replied saying yes.
	Cop	Paul has told me that ... there was conversations about the search warrant. Emm... and...and...and before what's happened...
	Mr Llamas	But he insists....
	COP	That is okay. That....that...he may insist that he did not say so (inaudible) they held conversations, because this is what Paul tells me.
	Mr Llamas	Basically, because I want it defuse the situation.
	COP	Of course.
	Mr Llamas	And this is going to be a big sticking point with Fabian. And I will have to tell him em emm...

	Mr Llamas	I believe, my gut feeling, Ian, is that, without a search warrant, I mean the voluntary thing that he has done, he would have done it anyway. But look, you can disagree with that, (inaudible) and this is what is creating all the buzz.
	COP	Well, he would not have given it.
	Mr Llamas	I don't know
	COP	Because if that's the case....
	Mr Llamas	He's got...
	COP	If that's the case...
	Mr Llamas	He's got too much
	COP	No, no, no. but wait ....if that's the case.
	Mr Llamas	You would have told him, look Jaime, we've come here in goodf terms.....
	COP	Si, I think that that's....
	Mr Llamas	...we've come in good terms because its you and because we know that your phone will have privileged information and all that stuff. And if you don't cooperate , I'm sorry, you are giving me no option but to.
	Cop	I think that that is more or less what happened. Yes but if, Jaime says, knowing with Javier and all, having spoken to Silk straight away, and he says emm... emm...look there is no need for the warrant, I will give to you.That there is no need for the warrant, break it up I will give it to you. Was that said? No. No. And we wouldn't it's that whoever wants to believe it, he could be told in some other way, there are ways and means....
	Mr Llamas	And look Ian, I do not want you to go in to details, because I do not want to know about what you know which I do not know you are quite sure that there is something?
	Cop	I sense that someone is covering up something. Whether....
	Mr Llamas	No, butno... I am not talking about covering up. It is about those what you have lined up.
	Cop	Sanchez must have, must ....lookits either that he has, its either that he has something or that they want to save his skin.
	Mr Llamas	And the rest? But you've...you've got to already have, to be saying all this.

	Mr Llamas	Ahi puede…
	COP	There could be a bomb there…there could be something there. prrfff…. But look if its not obtainable, its not obtainable. We've been told that now things are picking up again and they will come, but look - We didn't ask for this emm.. Michael. We didn't ask for this. This has been landed on the RGP, the RGP has not been going hunting not Jaime Levy, not Caine Sanchez, not even Tommy Cornelio at all. We haven't asked for this job, this has landed on us. This has been landed on us. This is not a proactive investigation. This is a con…con…come on…. And it truly hurts me that a good relationship that should exist between us, you are put in an awkward position.
	Mr Llamas	Well Ian, I am not a person that holds grudges.
	Cop	Me even less
	Mr Llamas	Emm.. okay but, vale, pero… I cannot resist it and that is why I could see you for now. We've had to and look, I am glad…that we've met. But for me it was clear what we agreed in this meeting yesterday. You don't know what went through my body when I saw your whatsapp yesterday. Forget Attorney General, Commissioner of Police. At a personal level, Ian McGrail with Michael Llamas
	Cop	Hmm..hmm…
	Mr Llamas	That is what I want to tell you, more than anything, it has never happened before. I will eventually accept that there was a misunderstanding between us, because that is the type of person I am.
	COP	The thing is there isn't any other explanation.
	Mr Llamas	Okay. But at the moment for me you were so clear and all of a suddent I received that, not the day before, its happening now guys, Fewffff….. Put yourself in my situation, forget what you did…
	COP	No, no, no…the thing is , the thing is …

	Mr Llamas	Well, I know what you mean, but you can be sure that Fabian I will .....
	COP	And I will respect
	Mr Llamas	.....defend to death. Okay?. Emm...If tomorrow you come and tell me, look what we've found, I will break in to tears. I am sure that will not exist anyway. And I'm 100% certain. But that's talking about Fabian Picardo. The office of the Chief Minister, ya sea Picardo, ya sea Azzopardi, ya sea Caruana o Hassans.
	Cop	That needs protection.
	Mr Llamas	I will protect them.
	Cop	Yeah, yeah, yeah.
	Mr Llamas	Because that is what has happened always.
	COP	Yeah, yeah, yeah.
	Mr Llamas	One of my big regrets of being Attorney General....well, you like football don't you? I say, I have spent twenty and ahalf years in Brussells and I only played for the Gibraltar national team. I didn't play to fight against Gibraltarians and I loved that. I've spent my whole life, defending this jurisdiction and promoting this jurisdiction as a lot of us do. No, no... I know I am not the only one. And being Attorney General I have to get involved in the messes like this which I don't like in the least because it is not what I like to do. But look, it comes with the job and I assume my responsibilities wholeheartedly. But that protection of the jurisdiction, and there can be no office, more symbolic of the jurisdiction than that of the Chief Minister, I will defend it.
	COP	Yeah of course. And I...and I respect that. In...in that same way lo...lo....lo...my oath of office which I probably take
	Mr llamas	Yeah...
	COP	more...more serious than my wedding vows.
	Mr Llamas	Yeah, yeah.
	COP	And you say protect, well you can protect – in the same way I want to protect my lot. But yes, if there is any wrong doing from my lot, I will hold them to account. I will not protect them from the question of corruption and all that...no way...no way.
	Mr Llamas	Well, I will try to calm things down which in all honesty will be difficult, and I cannot control Hassans. I will try and control things here and hope that we can get to wherever this goes to ss soon as possible and that these days go by and things caclm down and that Jaime Levy goes in for interview on Monday and that they challenge you. The best result here is that they challenge your intention of the phone, and let a judge decide. I think that's a good outcome, that is why that letter is so important. Well, the one you are going to send off today. And with Fabian, I will now explain what you meant was a context, that is what you meant, or else he is going to call him and

	COP	Fine, fine
	Mr Llamas	It is all going to blow up.
	COP	The DPP has been advising
	Mr Llamas	Generally, even though he was not specifically asked. Do you agree that he (inaudible) replied yes but there wasn't a context where they said, where the search warrant was mentioned? he was of the view that at some point.....
159:27	CoP	The way I understand the Chief Minister, I didn't know that that was the sticking point, the Chief Minister claiming that there's no crime on the conspiracy to defraud. I was not start arguing but there is evidence to suggest that, so I say to myself, they may be feeding this man with incorrect information. He's talking with hearing one side only. The same has happened to you. You may have seen something.
159:55	Mr Llamas	The truth Ian, prior to this he knew what was happening.
	CoP	Yes, but perhaps one side
	Mr Llamas	Yes, and that I don't know.
	CoP	Exactly.
	Mr Llamas	I have never been in conversation with him and anyone else who has been talking to him about this case.
	CoP	Very few people are in the know. Those that know are us, we haven't disclosed the package with the findings as such. They are volumes, volumes of papers. I'm happy that we've spoken
	Mr Llamas	I believe, off the record, the crook is....
	CoP	Cornelio
	Mr Llamas	That is what I believe.
	CoP	Cornelio with the flair from Perez, to get things erm
	Mr Llamas	That's the sentiment I get. And if that's the case Ian, if that's the case, the sooner that is confined to that, the better. That it is targeted.
	CoP	And Sanchez is corrupt.
	Mr Llamas	Yes, is he?

OP DELHI
MEETING 13 MAY IN AG's OFFICE
(with translated parts in BLUE)

	CoP	You can see it there. Cornelio would do the reports for Sanchez that [redacted] and Sanchez would submit them to Albert Mena as if it was his, (inaudible) Cornelio was already out of the picture and accessing with Sanchez credentials. The thing is that Cornelio will say that he had permission from Caine Sanchez.
	Mr Llamas	But doesn't the question of ownership then become crucial which is what I have been saying all along.
	CoP	About the part of the hacking?
	Mr Llamas	Yes
	CoP	I insist it isn't, but, Y, you're gonna go one way or the other. You're gonna assume that then , Darren Grech is going to say Caine to invite Tommy Cornelio, to contravene instructions from the Chief Minister, to hack the system.

		Persons Present Attorney General – Mr Michael Llamas Director of Public Prosecutions – Mr Christian Rocca Senior Crown Counsel – Mr Lloyd Devenicenzi Commissioner of Police – Ian McGrail Detective Superintendent – Paul Richardson Detective Inspector – Mark Wyan
		(inaudible) – introducing Insp Wyan to Mr Llamas and Mr Rocca.
	Mr Llamas	Hi Mark
	CoP	He's the one with probably the most intimate knowledge of the case. You've met?
	Mr Llamas	Si, we've met. When did we meet Mark?
	Insp Wyan	The Armed Forces Act
	Mr Llamas	Armed Forces Act
	CoP	So, he is the terror factor here in person.
	Mr Llamas	Is he.
	CoP	Actually, for whatever its worth, and I don't think you need to have sight of that until, and if it gets to that, I've had a glimpse of, because aveces con un poquito de picardia se avanza un poco, pero basically the issue of having body worn camera recording with his knowledge puts to bed all the arguments that he's saying that there was a threat y todo, porque, just read the transcript and you can hear it, let alone view it and listen to it.
5:12	Mr Llamas	(inaudible) asking if they've been offered anything to drink
5:34	Mr Llamas	Ok, chaps Christian y yo have been spending quite a bit of time together today. We're heading towards a major collision here. Yo creo que esta claro, whether you agree with what they're saying or not, its our view que it's clear that this is going to become very nasty very quickly and we're facing a potential escalation of the whole thing, and therefore we think that's best avoided, we think, and we just wanted to discuss with you now, whether there are things we can do, where you can achieve what you want to achieve, erm whilst avoiding a collision or whether you maintain yourselves in exactly the same position as you were the last time we met. I want us to have a completely relaxed discussion between the 5 of us on the handling of this and the best way to get to where you feel you have to get. So with that in mind what; has your position changed in any way since we met? yo ya ni me acuerdo,
	CoP	Yesterday

	Supt Richardson	Was it yesterday? I thought it was the day before
7:24	CoP	It hasn't. It hasn't changed because we continue with the hope that there are unexplained issues which have an impact on the remaining three, four suspects, and if it is a line of enquiry that can clarify or make worse the situation for those four individuals, we're gonna be left with that in the air if we do not look at this part of the investigation.
8:00	Mr Llamas	Ok, pero, my understanding Ian, and correct me if I'm wrong, is that what you've just said is that you have to carry on with the interview, in other words, that's what you're referring to.
	CoP	It is a line of enquiry that
	Mr Llamas	Which is essential to the investigation
8:11	CoP	To conclude, without anticipating what the outcome is going be of that.
8:17	Mr Llamas	Correct. Christian and I are with you entirely on that. What we think would be helpful for the management of the whole thing is, if that interview would still go ahead, pero not have it under caution.
	Mr Rocca	Is that possible? Can you interview him and then convert it under caution depending on what he says. I know it's not gonna be admissible whatever he tells you
8:44	Supt Richardson	I wouldn't be complying with the codes of practice if I did that
	Mr Rocca	We've done it before
	Supt Richardson	I've already cautioned him. Cautioned him on body worn camera. I've filed documents in court saying that we had reasonable cause to suspect…
	Mr Rocca	We'll come to that. But we have done it before where, for example, the ambulance guy, Haveland, he was a suspect and we interviewed him as a potential witness
	Supt Richardson	What do you mean for the body bag case?
	Mr Rocca	Yeh
	Supt Richardson	No, that was a decision made on purpose; it wasn't because there wasn't evidence, credible evidence to believe that he was a suspect. I know because I reviewed that case and it was the same decision we took when we interviewed the nurses for the KGV death in custody. If we had interviewed him under caution we wouldn't have obtained any evidence at all and it was a balance
	Mr Rocca	And this the point that the AG is going to make now I think. We believe, we're led to believe that if we go under caution he's not gonna say a word, to the extent that he may not even attend. But at the very least if you do arrest him he's not gonna give you anything, entonse we're discussing whether that is good or bad. I think it leaves us with a problem evidentially and I think it leaves us with, in a position whereby I've had my reservations you know, about whether we have enough on Jaime at the moment, I don't think were quite across the line with Jaime and we wouldn't proceed, so I would rather get information from him that may either incriminate him if it does, fantastic

10:14	Supt Richardson	How would we use it?
	Mr Rocca	No, no, we take a voluntary statement not under caution, as a witness. If he says things that make it in your view that incriminate him, you caution him, that's possible, no?
	CoP	Looking at it from the point of view that we did, like we were contemplating, or practically contemplating to use Chipol. Was Chipol under caution?
10:47	Insp Wyan	Yep. Entirely under caution. Several times.
	Mr Llamas	We think this gives us, obviously were going to listen to what you have to say, pero we think this gives us a, not a way out, pero a way in which you can obtain the information that you need to obtain to do your investigation and we are totally supportive of you on the need for that interview, but it will allow you to get that information in a way which you might not otherwise get, certainly not on Monday, and with the potential of a tremendous escalation because he may not turn up. And I'm trying to be realistic and practical. As you know I'm learning criminal law procedure on the hoof myself with a very good teacher if I may say so, and I'm just, yo no quiero que esto explote, let's be very clear and I don't think it's in your interest tampoco que esto explote. If there is an alternative way to do it, where you get
11:59	CoP	I think it's also not in his interest que explote. It's not only us.
	Mr Llamas	I agree. it's not in anybody's interest.
12:11	CoP	I don't want to feel cornered because this is not the question entose
	Supt Richardson	Agreed
	Mr Rocca	I agree
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely. And to be done in a way que se le va explica a ellos, if we were able to convince them to do it this way, se le va explica a ellos que this is entirely without prejudice on your views on the original issue of the search warrant and the caution and all that, todo eso se puede cubrir, so it is not seen, in other words, as the RGP backing down from the decision. You're just saying, mira, nosotro lo que queremos es esto, let's do it
13:08	CoP	I think there has to be prejudice here, Because, esto parese que estamo en el mercadillo actually bartering, that's not my law enforcement education at all because, if we take his view, hypothetically now, without prejudice on what I'm saying, if we take the view that yes let's get his version not under caution but to get something of him and on top of that the challenge of the warrant carries on, entose estamo ya hung up to dry
13:22	Mr Rocca	No no no. First and foremost
	CoP	We might aswell collide now

13:27	Mr Rocca	We've discussed that already. We would only run on the basis that they give an undertaking that its done in an order to be co-operative and would not be used to undermine anything, that Paul or anybody did in taking the warrant. Therefore, your (inaudible) suspect of the warrant would not be challenged because you have agreed, in a co-operative manner, to get the information you want. We would require that guarantee from his lawyers and we discussed that
13:53	Supt Richardson	I have no doubt whatsoever that if we put our actions before a court that they will be upheld, that they would see merit in it. I don't think we have anything to lose other than the wider issues here. The person that has something to lose by this is him not us, and for me it would seem to be a travesty that you can put up this barrage of emails that have come today to the Magistrates' Court, to the clerk, to me, to the Attorney General, to the Commissioner, alleging bad conduct, alleging a malicious prosecution, alleging gross breaches of law, to then say alright, were agreeing not to treat you as a suspect, tell us what you want and we can't use it against you, on the understanding that all the other stuff, that you've said, that I don't think holds any water to it anyway, we're gonna ignore. I don't think that's gonna serve the interest to this because we articulated very clearly what Jaime had to account for, all the messages that's there, and in the absence of that we would to rely on the normal conclusion that someone could draw. He has interfered with civil servants, he has used his influence, but there might be an explanation for this. In the absence of this what do we do? we say, we prefer getting your explanation because it's better than nothing, but we've got half of the conversation already.
15:11	Mr Rocca	We would not get a conviction anytime based on what we've got now. If Jaime gives us a no comment, and I'm assuming
	CoP	Maybe, maybe that is (inaudible) maybe tactically if he says no comment and that is the evidence that we cannot, from his account, and we cannot progress him further and stick anything on him, he walks, hablandolo frankamente, yes?
	Supt Richardson	Say that again?
	CoP	If we ask him under caution and he doesn't reply, which we expect him
	Supt Richardson	Which is his right
	CoP	Right. And then on the basis of what we already have right now, a charge would not stick.
15:52	Supt Richardson	With the greatest respect, I'm not sure that I would support that view because some of that evidence is so damning and
	CoP	Pero, pero I'm saying, looking at it from our activity, imagine that the dilemma of doing it under caution or not doesn't come into place, that we go as we are meaning to go and he provides a no comment
16:15	Supt Richardson	Sorry sir to interrupt you, I've had a thought, if that's the case get him to submit his version of events, don't come in for interview under caution, were not gonna ask for it. Give us your version of events

	Mr LLamas	In writing ?
	Supt Richardson	Yes
	CoP	Pero let me look at it, because eventually, eventually you want to ask questions on that version, or were gonna be back to square one.
16:38	Mr Llamas	So, just a second. So what does that
	Supt Richardson	What mechanism
	Mr Llamas	Yes, explain to me how that works
	Supt Richardson	This is what the other side have been doing continuously and they're doing it to frustrate the means to be able to obtain evidence by interview, which is prejudiced in Gibraltar, for the reasons that I articulated to you before. We can't ask questions and require answers, we can't put someone in a position because the constitution in Gibraltar doesn't allow that. The law was changed in England specifically to balance the arms of the prosecution and the defence because if you're found in possession of something and you don't give an account, it's not reasonable to provide an account a year later in court when you could have provided that account now. So we can't do that. So what the other side are doing and very frequently done, is they will sit in an interview under caution and say very little.
	Mr Llamas	yeah
17:27	Supt Richardson	And then they'll go away. And they'll come back with a statement and the statement says this, and then we have to interview again and we say you've said this but the evidence says that, you've said this, the evidence says that, they don't give an explanation; they go away, we come back again and this is how, this is how these things drag out. This is quite literally absurd the way that we're dragged through this. Now, the advantage of that for the defence is obviously is that you can't ask them questions and put them on the spot. You're saying this but it's not actually true. They can go away, come back in a months' time and produce something that agrees or disagrees with what we've said, or not at all. In this case what the defence has done, through Fischel, is they have produced volumes of information suggesting that the complainant is the guilty person in this. That he has committed false accounting, he has wasted police time etc. but if all were interested in and I'm not suggesting that that's the only reason behind this conversation, is to obtain Jaime's account without being able to use it under caution, let him produce his own account, but we will still have to speak to him at some point I would suggest on this.
18:	Mr Llamas	Pero esperate Paul, if Jaime on Sunday let's say, vale, he sends you a written statement, addressing the 9 or 10 grounds you got set out there, the first question is, would he be producing that statement under caution,

	Supt Richardson	Yes
	Mr Llamas	That would be under caution
	Supt Richardson	The fact that he's just providing it
19:00	CoP	Precisely – it Becomes evidence. you could use it for whatever.
	Mr Llamas	Ok, pero it's not necessarily being done under caution? If he volunteers, you haven't asked for it right,
	CoP	Bueno but it's a significant statement isn't it?
19:15	Insp Wyan	It's not the ordinary statement. Normally what would happen is if someone wants to produce a statement under caution is, they would prepare it, they would come in to the interview, we would open the interview and the caution would be read out, so it would be under caution.
	CoP	This would be a significant statement
	Supt Richardson	No a significant statement is something that's made for someone who's under arrest
19:33	Mr Rocca	If you give a witness statement or a statement which is co-operative, rather than under caution, all of that automatically becomes disclosable if and when we proceed against Cornelio and Sanchez and the others.
19:45	Insp Wyan	If he provides just a statements to us but not under caution, its inadmissible against him.
	Mr Rocca	Exactly but it would be part of the disclosure bundle so we would need to factor that into account as well. We would have to provide that to
	CoP	That's one option
	Mr Llamas	Esperate, conque, one option is a written statement volunteered in inverted commas, by JL before Monday, or by Monday. Then what do you do?
	Supt Richardson	We would have to see what the content of that was, see how it matches with the evidence that we know, and then decide whether we need to put that to him in an interview. If he gives an explanation, and I have to be honest, which is very unlikely, that would support a lot of the allegations that we need to explore, there might not be a need to speak to him but it is very unlikely. The only way around that, and I don't think we'd be prepared to do that is to disclose what it is that we want to ask about in advance and to get him to answer all those questions in writing. But that really would be a travesty.
	CoP	He has already compounded suspicions without him realising, when these gentlemen went to speak to him and he was under caution.
	Mr Rocca	In what way?
	CoP	I'll keep it for now.

	Mr Rocca	Ah ok.
21:18	CoP	Cuando, he starts making certain comments which are not viable at all because if that made sense then it wouldn't be an issue, but they're not viable because time lines don't work at all and the business venture was orchestrated way before the intent of 36. north, the creation of 36 north for the purpose it was set up and Jaime's involvement in that, what he is claiming, the purposes were for his involvement crash head on, head on. Can you read between?
	Mr Llamas	Yo no se lo que
22:07	CoP	Pero that's, look, that's only, it was transcribed yesterday and we've skim read through it and I wasn't even looking for that. I was looking at the tone to argue the oppressing picture that there is.
	Mr Llamas	Entonce , a written statement which he gives to you by Monday, doesn't go to the interview, this is instead of the interview,
	Supt Richardson	Its like an interim measure, its not the end of it.
	Mr Llamas	Ok, then you consider it and then you take one of two views. You take the view either that ok, he's answered all the questions we've got for him, or no, it doesn't, we still need to interview him. And that interview if it were to happen after,
22:54	Supt Richardson	Would have to be under caution.
	Mr Llamas	Would have to be under caution.
	Supt Richardson	One of the difficulties with us in dealing with the criminal procedure evidence act is that it gives you all the burdens of PACE, but none of the advantages of it, and so if you suspect that somebody has committed an offence you have to caution them, you can only speak to them in an interview, the interview has to be in a police station, and it has to be authorised by a custody sergeant, and it has to follow the form of being recorded and it has to follow a certain programme. We have to do that with comply with the law, so to find a creative way around it may work in some circumstances but I can't see it working in a criminal situation especially when even when we've acted legitimately those things have been twisted and thrown back to suggest that myself and the Commissioner are acting unlawfully. There's even a suggestion here that you advised us not to obtain a warrant.
	Mr Rocca	I read that
	Supt Richardson	We didn't say that. We didn't agree with that. Now where has that come from? who has told
	Mr Llamas	I think they've had a lot of confusion over that from the beginning.
24:02	Supt Richardson	That clearly might be the case, but this is a QC accusing the commissioner of police of acting unlawfully because he's gone against the advice of the DPP
	Mr Rocca	I picked that up

	CoP	Can we go back to...on a couple of instances
	Mr Llamas	That's an assumption that they're making.
	Supt Richardson	How can a QC just throw that out? Saying that the commissioner of police is acting unlawfully
24:25	Mr Rocca	It's almost worse than that, it kind of possibly suggests that I've spoken to Louis Baglietto, which I haven't
	CoP	That's my question. My question is
	Supt Richardson	Where has it come from? It wasn't aired in court
24:38	Mr Llamas	It must come from the conversation with Ian and the chief minister
	CoP	Entonce ya estamos hablando con mas mayores. That was my question. This is your misrepresentation to who and by who? They haven't told them. He hasn't told them, its exactly that.... Estoy vendido, me estan vendiendo, this is beyond belief. Lo tengo aqui.... 'following the threat to execute a warrant ..... on the advice of the DPP'. In page 7. Second paragraph. Anyway, that aside, assuming this is not Jaime Levy and it's another criminal, wouldn't be the first one, we put him in the interview room and we are dependant of him answering questions but he gives us a no comment. We revert, we analyse the evidence and in the global of things we present it to the DPP or discuss with the DPP and say mira si aqui hay evidencia contra este, contra este no, este you have not been able to nail him. Right? Isn't that the normal course of conduct we would say if somebody goes in and just stares at the top corner of the room and doesn't cooperate.... Or doesn't answer any questions. Now, clearly that is not the position he wants to find himself in, pero that
26:13	Mr Llamas	Aqui what's creating the bad atmosphere, bueno bad is an understatement, what's creating the tension here is the concept of Jaime being suspect and therefore being interviewed under caution and we think that if for the sake of the management of this case and you can get the interview not treating him that way there's a possibility of achieving that the you can achieve your aim of getting the interview with him, but that stigma is very oppressive.
	CoP	I accept this por que in a couple of months time we could potentially be discussing this same matter and if we are not, questions will be asked why not, when we talk about another barrister who's in our radar, and if we are handling this barrister in that way, then why isn't another barrister handled in the other way?
	Mr Llamas	I think the answer to that would be is depends on the degree of the suspicion we have of the barrister in question, no?
	CoP	That is what we are at. What degree of suspicion do we have? Of Jaime Levy? Look you don't want to know it, but it has already met that test, because or else we wouldn't have got to this stage.
	Mr Rocca	We all agree he has questions to answer.

	CoP	Yes
	Mr Rocca	He needs to be given the opportunity, like everybody has, to either defend himself or come up with explanations. Its also an exculpatory exercise not just a…..
	CoP	Absolutely
	Mr Rocca	And that's maybe what you need to explain to Jaime. Look there's an opportunity to put the record straight.
	CoP	That's what we've always wanted.
28:18	Mr Rocca	There are texts, there are whatsapps that are a little bit fishy
28:24	CoP	Not only that…I'm learning about the detail and that's why Mark is here but he's coming up with…. If this were to collide, I'm just gonna give you a flavour of what it is. We have Sanchez being requested back from the UK as he was doing some Brexit talks there
	Supt Richardson	Just before he was interviewed
	CoP	He was asked to return and the time between him being asked to return and for him to land in Gibraltar he was wiping up his phone and we have evidence of that.
28:54	Supt Richardson	Including the conversations between him and Jaime.
	Mr Rocca	A concern I have in relation to all this. I've been a defence lawyer so I know how to throw shit and make it stick and usually its all smoke and mirrors but it works with jurors. If there is a sniff of unlawful evidence, of Richardson being a bit naughty and misleading the misrepresenting the position, whether its true or not, that the DPP approved the search warrant or whatever, I don't want that to stick because I think we've got Cornelio, Sanchez, and Perez by the short and curlies, I think. And I don't want it to taint our prosecution; you know how it works, one walks they all tend to walk half the time, but you start throwing the shit, and you have to be careful with it as well.
29:47	Insp Wyan	Can I just interject on a similar point. We need to consider that if we do deal with Mr Levy in a different way to the others, that's likely to impact the case as well and it may backfire on us later on so what their lawyers might be saying is you've treated my client in a particular way, but you've clearly shown preference to (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	But doesn't, Mark, that depend on the degree of involvement in what's happened. From what I gather I think there's a very clear distinction between what Sanchez, Cornelio and Perez have done and what Levy may or may not have done; even if Levy has been involved in a way that makes you suspicious, still, it seems to me from what I've seen, it cannot be to the same level as these three, I think there's a clear distinction between the three on the one hand and the one the other hand.
	Insp Wyan	I think you're probably right in terms of the evidence certainly in respect of some is much stronger. That is for certain. But the problem that we have is we've met that threshold for the suspicion with regards, or we believe we have. And we have to follow a certain procedure such as interviewing under caution and things like that. If we don't follow that procedure as we will normally do, I certainly would, I think the questions would be raised why have you not, and the very fact we went for the warrant shows that we've met that threshold. Now we're suggesting, actually we haven't met that threshold, or were not sure, then somebody's gonna say well you know, are you sure about the rest of your case? Are you sure about the grounds of the other people?

31:28	Mr Llamas	But only in relation to Levy not the others, as Christian said,
	CoP	The only way that that's, if you review the involvement of Levy and before we went through all this, and that is the part that we consulted, no ibamos a toma un paso sin sabe his involvement, and he's got my instructions to consult the DPP, if he's happy that there is sufficient suspicion then we will consider, then we went through the questions of the, of how we went through the mechanics of the warrant. The question of body worn camera, menos mal que tenemos el body worn camera, y menos mal. And so we went through a couple of things. If, now, what we are saying is that there's a review of the level of suspicions that he has
	Mr Llamas	No I'm not saying that
	CoP	Entonces this is the difficulty we find.
	Mr Rocca	I will stand by the conversation that there was in my office where there was sufficient information to question to Jaime Levy. They're asking questions of course they are.
	Mr Llamas	But Christian, the issue is, what Ian has said is that we all agree with that, we all agree that the interview should take place, is what signal is it sending out there that now it would be done without caution and whether that is going to be interpreted as the RGP realising it's made a mistake.
32:59	Supt Richardson	That would be huge. Absolutely huge. We've managed to convince a Judge, that the most senior lawyer, QC in Gibraltar and officer of the court is under reasonable grounds to suspect that he's been involved in a criminal conspiracy and that took one and three quarter hours. So, we managed to do that and now we're saying, well actually, and we've been threatened with legal action and the court has been told you've gross of miscarriage justice, erm miscarriage of justice, the Commissioners acting unlawfully, and now were saying well actually we've thought about this again and we're
	Mr Rocca	We're not saying that Paul. We're saying that if we now know, if we proceed down this line we will get nothing from Levy.
	Supt Richardson	Well then, in any case that we deal with a lawyer were gonna come across the same position.
	CoP	Coming back to the typical interview with no comment, no comment interview. It could, if we have sufficient evidence to charge, we wouldn't even need to interview, so if we don't meet the threshold of him having any charges sticking on him then we can't deal with it.

	Mr Llamas	When would you know that? After the interview?
	CoP	Of course. It would be with a no comment, but the devices would still need to be checked.
	Mr Rocca	Exactly, which doesn't deal with the issue of the devices.
34:15	Mr Llamas	The way you're' going to be challenged almost certainly…
	Supt Richardson	So if we haven't addressed the elephant in the room, we went there with the power to execute a warrant; we negotiated not executing the warrant at his request repeatedly, and you'll see it from the body worn cameras, when that was agreed and he sat and read everything, he's now saying he was forced into doing it. The consent that we left Hassans premises with him, which was your IT guys going to deal with my IT guy and now were gonna hand this over to you because we're willing to help has now been withdrawn and we've still got the warrant. Are we supposed to go back now and force the issue a second time? Because all that consent that's been said, then why didn't he just ask me and I would have handed it over? It doesn't exist anymore.
35:04	Mr Llamas	Hombre, because, Paul, first of all they're going to argue and I think the Baglietto letter, it said that the warrant was used as a sword and therefore it was a threat.
	Supt Richardson	But that is absurd sir. When you read the transcript, that is absurd, that suggestion.
	Mr Llamas	Eso una. And I just fear que he's not going to turn up on Monday. Y entonces….
35:50	CoP	I think, if we get to that stage, I think you have to be ,para duermamos todo tranquilo porque esto may be keeping people a bit upsetting, you need to, both of you, need to dip into the real details of the evidence, real detail and get, and then if you feel that there isn't the, I mean I'm not doubting, you've seen the package that we sent, and the rationale for it, but I'm asking you to look at the detail of it, the full detail
	Supt Richardson	All the whatsapps.
	Mr Rocca	It's all in bag in the floor of my office
36:37	CoP	Because if it, it he wants to force the issue, I'm looking at it now from a state point of view, from the RGP point of view, if he is forcing the issue of having us having to go and feel his collar that we know that you know that this is justified.
36:58	Mr Llamas	Christian didn't think it is justified
	Mr Rocca	What?
	Mr Llamas	The, the caution, the search warrant,
	Mr Rocca	I thought it would have been far more practical (inaudible) to interview him, because, look I'll be

37:13	Supt Richardson	Chris, can I interrupt you there for just one second please? I understand that that's what you thought and I respect that position. Knowing now what has happened, you think it would have had any effect if I had gone there and said Mr Levy please give me your phone as we, the example we have there, we need to look at it as you're a suspect, he would never have handed it over
	Mr Rocca	Maybe not. The point I was going to make was, look, do I think you will withstand legal challenge? I think you probably will, and I told Michael, I think you would. I think there are arguments to be had about the warrant and whether it was doubtful, but I think at the end of the day it's a JR and I think it's it's been signed by the judge, y mira, judgement calls were made. Look I think it may have been , I would have done it a different way, but I think lawfully you can justify that
	CoP	This is what I mean to say, when you say you would have done it differently, knowing what you know about, when you see the things that Mark is coming up forward which is something that we would provide for you to argue the case that, its not only that he was a suspect, it was that we had already got notion that evidence had already been done away by a close suspect.
	Mr Rocca	By Sanchez, but the reality is, I always thought to myself, he's been investigated for a year,
38:24	Mr Llamas	Yo, sinceramente Ian,
		(Inaudible)
38:43	Mr Llamas	I don't think Jaime Levy could have afforded not to give you a voluntarily interview. Es que I think it would have been madness for him.
	Mr Rocca	We may have said we need to get privileged information out, there may have been (inaudible) material
39:03	Supt Richardson	That wouldn't have precluded the interview Chris .
39:07	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) It's been going on for a year, for me, if there was anything that would have gone. Now, if it's been deleted you will find that out anyway. So the rush to go ex-parte…
	Supt Richardson	…..We will find that out if we open the phone and process it.
	Mr Rocca	….I think is unfounded. That you felt it was right? Fine. We can defend that in court. I think it was wrong but look that is a matter for me.
	Supt Richardson	Let me stop you there because this is touching a nerve now. You know about the other case that we're dealing with the other lawyer? A lawyer that's involved with organised criminal groups of the highest standing in Europe, being accused of laundering million of pounds, that's an officer of the courts, that supports charities and things. Now I go to him now, and I don't apply for an ex-parte warrant?

	Mr Rocca	I think that is very different
		(inaudible)
40:05	Supt Richardson	Well, this evidence, is all about Levy's ethics. He is acting unethical, and he is acting unethical right up to the point of criminality, so where do I say this lawyer we're gonna go under ex parte, this one were gonna ask him please give me your devices, please give me the evidence against you and please answer questions?
		(inaudible)
40:30	Mr Rocca	Does Miles know your coming for him?
	Supt Richardson	I don't know. We suspect he does.
	Mr Rocca	Levy does. Levy does. Levy's known for months.
		(inaudible)
40:36	Mr Rocca	Its chalk and cheese Paul. I think it doesn't work the Miles....(inaudible). Of course you're gonna go ex parte. You've got drug traffickers, you've got
		(inaudible)
40:48	Supt Richardson	Who does Miles work for? Veralls? Is it Veralls? We're not investigating Veralls, we're investigating Miles, and in this case, we're not investigating Hassans, we're investigating Levy. Nobody's saying that Hassans has done anything wrong, and I accept your clarification that distincting one against the other is very very difficult, but threre's no evidence that we've see that suggests that anybody else in Hassans knew about what was happening other than him. And for me that's the same argument. He can't be compelled to hand over his personal device on a production order
41:25	Mr Rocca	He's an officer of the court. In fact Ian asked us yesterday, if I turned up would you hand it over. I actually would and Michael said the same thing actually. And Michael would as well. If I had something to hide, I probably wouldn't. GO and get a warrant.
41:30	Mr Llamas	I'd have concerns on my personal communications
	Mr Rocca	Well exactly. But my point is that Miles is a very different issue.
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Well, let me put it in a different way because we've been considering this matter. If we had information that the Bishop of Gibraltar was involved in child pornography, high standing member of the community, would we go and ask him can we please see your computer? Can we please search the cathedral?
	Mr Rocca	Of course you wouldn't.
	Supt Richardson	So what's the difference?
	Mr Rocca	If he'd been (inaudible) in front of the clergy for the last year, and the gossip was it's all the clergy, the bishop, its everybody, the bishop would have deleted it a year ago, which is what Jaime would have done. If we'd gone ex-parte and Jaime had deleted messages, you would get from the phone.

	Supt Richardson	Chris, Chris sorry. You're assuming, 1, that he's computer savvy which he isn't, and 2, that he thinks that there is no likelihood, that there is some likelihood of us challenging this. Perez, Commanding officer of the Gibraltar Regiment, writing Gibraltar's national security programme, he didn't delete his messages, it was all there, all, it's all laid out
42:42	Mr Rocca	Yeh but you've got without notice
	Supt Richardson	Ah ok.
	Mr Rocca	Didn't you?
42:46	Supt Richardson	Yes
	Mr Rocca	But Jaime Levy has been on notice for a year.
	Supt Richardson	Yes. And there's been no communication since then.
	Mr Rocca	Look, were debating an operational matter, that I would have done it differently like I've just said to Mark, I can understand why you've done it, would I have done it differently? Yes, I would have done. Is your position defensible in law? Yes, it probably is, because you swore an oath that that's what you generally believe and that is fine so I can defend your position, operationally I would have done it differently but you're a policeman and I'm not. Michaels not a policeman, he's the Attorney General. We Perhaps see things slightly different to a policeman, doesn't make it right or wrong Paul
	Supt Richardson	So how do we get past this?
43:24	Mr Rocca	My worry is that it taints the whole... what I don't want it is for someone like Cornelio who's [redacted] in the National security system, and undermine, [redacted] because Corenlio wants the business of Gaggero, eso me toca, de verdad it does.
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely
43:44	Mr Rocca	And for him to walk because there is mud flying around about Richardson misfeasance about Wyan's misfeasance , about Rocca (inaudible)
	CoP	So, we come back to re-assessing the level of suspicion we have on him.
44:00	Mr Rocca	Look, I'm not gonna, I'm not gonna, my integrity is not gonna, I'm not gonna lower my standard integrity, I'm not gonna do it nor are you guys. The advice that I gave at the beginning was that, that I gave Paul and Mark, I'm not gonna back down on. He needs to be asked these questions because he needs to either answer the questions properly, and give a defence, but maybe were not gonna achieve it under caution. And is that for you (inaudible)

	Mr Llamas	Exactly
44:23	Supt Richardson	But to achieve it not under caution serves no purpose.
	Mr Rocca	Well not necessarily. Because you can convert to a caution.
	Supt Richardson	So, hang on. He gives me a version of events, not under caution, and we have a load of information, its all full of bullshit and now I say, Jaime I'm sorry I need to remind you that you're under caution, would you say that again. I'm not saying anything
	Mr Rocca	Correct.
	Supt Richardson	What do I do now?
	Mr Rocca	I agree with you
	Supt Richardson	What do I do now? I've compromised everything.
	Mr Rocca	But it makes your position quite... it makes you understand the position quite clearly
	Supt Richardson	It makes me look like a fool.
	Mr Rocca	He's not gonna say something to incriminate himself.
	Mr Llamas	He's not an idiot
	CoP	I'd rather he says no comment.
	Supt Richardson	He's gonna be put in a position, where he's gonna give his version of events, which as you say, he's not gonna incriminate himself. We're gonna say, thank you for that, can you now answer this, because our evidence says the opposite, and before you answer that I need to caution you, because my evidence says that what you're saying is not true. I'm not answering that question. So I'm left with a version of events, that he will not give an account for
	Mr Llamas	Under caution
45:28	Supt Richardson	Under caution. How do I progress from there?
	Mr Rocca	I understand the problem. We're trying to come up with a solution. Jaime attends without us, without you having to arrest him.
	Supt Richardson	And we don't want that either. No one wants that.
		(inaudible)
	CoP	We want from what he has said very loosely in his, which is under caution, he's already said that, so he has provided an account under caution, saying que, all he did was set these people up and he wasn't interested in what they wanted, it's just, look, that there was problems with the national security platform and I don't know how he knew, pero he knew, and
	Mr Rocca	No, because there texts from (inaudible)
	CoP	No no no, this is the
		(inaudible)

46:18	CoP	That's it
	Mr Rocca	But he would have known [redacted] the platform porque se lo dijo Cornelio. I think Cornelio tells him
		(inaudible)
46:36	CoP	The collision, what happened
	Supt Richardson	I understand (inaudible) you're putting me in an absolute impossible position because it undermines everything else
	Mr Rocca	Which is why I said we can come up with a wording where it says it doesn't undermine you or your actions
	Supt Richardson	No forget that. That's another thing. I think that's just absurd for to say now, you can throw all this shit, and we know its all bullshit
	CoP	For us to reel our necks back in and say ok
	Supt Richardson	As long as you won't go ahead with your shit which we know won't hold water we're gonna allow you to be treated differently from everybody else. We know you can't use anything you say against you. That is just absurd
47:13	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) I think your arguments for non-disclosure (inaudible) it could redact things or even come up with a satisfactory version to the magistrate of saying don't have that over, and if you do hand it over (inaudible) I will defend your warrant. Do I think its unlawful that I don't. (inaudible)
	CoP	Yeh but you wouldn't be asked that question. It's not within your gift to say whether, you're not in a position to decide that.
		(inaudible)
47:47	CoP	It shouldn't even feature that (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Can we interview him at Hassans? We can can't we?
47:55	CoP	You can't say you would have done it differently, Eso no puede se, porque
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Well you see this is
	CoP	I was gonna say. Cant you just do it in his chambers?
	Mr Rocca	No. I thought about that
	CoP	Why not?
	Mr Llamas	Why not?
	Mr Rocca	Why not? Because interviews are required to be done in a police station and recorded. The woman Ochello who's supposed to have taken that child away to England, we looked if we could go it, because of Covid, under Skype or Facetime, and we couldn't do it.
	CoP	We've had interviews under caution done at hotels.

	Supt Richardson	That's probably before PACE, before the (inaudible)
48:30	Insp Wyan	I think there might be something. There might be something.
	Supt Richardson	There is a provision to bring a interview outside of an interview room, if the machine doesn't work, or if the person refuses to leave cells you can take an interview to him.
	Insp Wyan	But I think there is something about, because I remember reading some laws about the UK doing it.
	Supt Richardson	Maybe if somebody is unable to travel or
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Look, Covid is a good angle to look at it because our interview room is confined and even if we agreed that it was only done in the station he's gonna say I can't at 10, because of this that and the other. Covid is a, and perhaps a Board room is bigger.
	Supt Richardson	You mean use that as a .....
	Mr Rocca	That's not a bad idea actually. It might work. Would that work for Jaime? Under caution but in his office?
	Mr Llamas	I don't know.
49:29	Supt Richardson	It still has to be, in theory, with the consent of the Custody Sgt. And we can square that off.
	Mr Rocca	It's a fair point, because it is a small interview isn't it at the end of the day.
49:37	Supt Richardson	It does prejudice our investigation though because there's no opportunity to remote monitor an interview in anything other than a police station.
	Mr Rocca	You can't record it?
49:51	Supt Richardson	No, we could record it with portable equipment, but you can't remote monitor it, so the way these things work
	Mr Rocca	Yeh you watch it and someone comes (inaudible)
49:59	Supt Richardson	Mark, for example who's running the interview will sit and go through these things, he's trying to keep hundreds of volume of, well, twenty volumes of stuff that you've got there in his head and something will be said that he won't pick up on.
	Mr Rocca	This is why you can't remote monitor it by zoom or skype or something. That's why you can't do that. (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	No, no there's nothing that stops it that from happening, its just
		(inaudible)
50:23	CoP	The logistics
	Supt Richardson	It's the logistics. It should be in the same place so that when you stop the interview.
	Mr Rocca	Bueno you could be in a conference from next door

	Supt Richardson	Using their own wifi no?
50:36	Supt Richardson	That's what we would have to do to do a zoom conference
	CoP	You can do it with 4G?
50:44	Supt Richardson	Ok, well if that's a possibility, we'll work around
	Mr Llamas	I don't think it will
	Supt Richardson	It wont work either?
	Mr Llamas	No, because the issue here is the caution.
50:57	CoP	He, obviously, he genuinely believes, by the looks of it, he genuinely believes, or must genuinely believe that he's done nothing wrong.
	Mr Llamas	Yes. I think so
	CoP	Now, and we have already disclosed. What about if we inch a bit further in what we should, could
51:13	Supt Richardson	Pre-interview disclosure. What if we did pre- interview disclosure to all the partners in Hassans and let them know what they've been exposed to? Because he's saying that they all know what's happened. I'm sure that they haven't, they don't know what's happened. I don't because
51:25	Mr Llamas	I (inaudible)
51:29	Supt Richardson	We're not interviewing them.
	Mr Llamas	I mean, let's not complicate this even more
	Supt Richardson	Ok. Then definitely
	CoP	Paul, if we give more, is it in our interest that we give something? Yes. He wants to give it not under caution, it's not acceptable to us so how can we lure him
	Supt Richardson	You mean. How can we change his position. How can we change his view that he thinks in his mind he has done nothing wrong. To do that will be to disclose the evidence which we rely on beforehand, which is why there's been such a concerted effort to obtain that evidence from the court or from us, or from anybody that's willing to give that information beforehand. Now, yes it would allow him to change his position if he genuinely believes he's done nothing wrong, but if he did something wrong, and knew about it, well then you're giving him all the grounds for our suspicion
52:18	CoP	Ok, ok but we would put it to him and then if it's not going to incriminate himself, he would say no comment, so we would get the same response
52:37	Supt Richardson	I've lost you completely there
	Mr Llamas	I follow what Ian is saying
52:41	CoP	If he's not going to incriminate himself, so once he knows the incriminating data, he's gonna offer an explanation, and not incriminate himself, because if he does, then we would question that incrimination

52:57	Supt Richardson	But that would have to be under caution
	CoP	Yeh yeh yeh, I'm just assuming that we give him more which is what he wants so that he knows where we are coming from.
	Supt Richardson	But we still arrive at the same position
53:07	CoP	And then if we have to, if he provides that answer after asking him more data, more pre-disclosure material, of where we are coming from, because it's in our interest to square this off, one way or the other, we give him that extra bit, unorthodoxly, because that's not what we normally do but it suits us, we give him that, he answers or not,
53:38	Mr Llamas	Invite him? Or in any interview?
	Supt Richardson	Let just, and I'm not trying to make this more complicated that it already is, I'm just trying to think about the consequences if we took that cause of action. Let's just assume the best case scenario that we disclose in advance of any interview, information that we wouldn't normally do, but were doing it, not because we're worried about him, but were worried that we want to secure the prosecution of the others, so we're willing to take a hit in the risks that that involves to get to this position. So we give him that and he gives an account, and that account allows us to exclude him from any criminality. And then we ask him for a witness statement and he provides a witness statement for this. Is he gonna go and give evidence in court?
		(inaudible)
54:31	Supt Richardson	Wait wait wait, just think about where this is going. Cornelio and Sanchez will be the defendants there and they know what he's been exposed to because they sent the messages to him.
	CoP	Well, we'd have to subpoena him
54:43	Mr Rocca	It may well be that he gives us nothing of value as a witness. What I think
	Supt Richardson	Well if you're the defendant, would you not call him?
	Mr Rocca	Paul, what I've read, for me, and I'm thinking someone who's been a lawyer in private practice for a number of years and people like Peter Isola and Jaime Levy and Abraham Levy, all these people have interests in many many different projects, they're entrepreneurs, apart from being lawyers, they are venture capitalists. Is Jaime gonna turn around and say I have 50 million business interests, I have investments everywhere, if someone said to me do I want a business interest, to potentially run these platforms, (inaudible) how much, yeh yeh , (inaudible) £100,000 in, as he does all the time, as Peter Isola does, (inaudible) does, do I micro manage what Mark Wyan does, Paul Richardson does, I haven't got a clue what they do, do I know Cornelio I haven't got a clue.

55:34	Supt Richardson	That's ok, until Cornelio tells you, I'm worried that they're gonna prove that I've been hacking the system, and you do nothing.
	Mr Rocca	The wording, I looked at that, the wording is not quite that. Jaime doesn't reply, except with don't worry. It doesn't mean he knows he's [redacted]
	Supt Richardson	No no, I know it doesn't
	Mr Rocca	You have to ask him, and I accept that. Did you know that he was [redacted]? Y te va dici
55;55	CoP	No no but did you know that the system was being hacked? That Tommy was, did you know that Tommy was concerned that the system was being hacked? And he would have to say yes
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Jaime sabia que the system was [redacted], because Tommy was telling him and that somebody had been tampering with, no dijo? That I've been tampering, the word is tampering with the system.
	Mr Llamas	Who had been?
	CoP	Tommy Cornelio tells Jaime, I am worried that they are going to find out that I am going to be suspected of having been tampering, and that Jaime says, it doesn't mean to say that Jaime knows that he's the one that (inaudible). Tommy's worried that they are going to find out that the system has been tampered with, or they are going to suspect that I have tampered with the system, and Jaime says don't worry. Now, eso es un
56:47	Mr Rocca	It requires an explanation from Jaime
56:51	Mr Llamas	We all agree on that. We all agree. It's just this damned, suspect, caution thing. Now, I understand the reasons why you've done it, that with Christian and we've, we wouldn't have done it that way, y entonces Ian, I was starting to like your idea of the written, you provide further information to him on why you want to
57:22	CoP	(inaudible) somehow or another to engage, get him engaged.
	Mr Llamas	Ok con que…..
	CoP	It's in our interest. If it wasn't in our interest entonce mira, its either that or a la tremenda.
57:37	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
57:41	Mr Rocca	How are we going to relinquish Cornelio. Do we risk losing Cornelio, Sanchez and others because of… could this
	Supt Richardson	I think the risk is just as high if we don't.
57:59	Mr Rocca	The Cornelio criminality and the Sanchez criminality
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Mark, with respect, and I know, one second, with respect and I'm talking about in this case in particular. I'm taking hurdle after hurdle. Normally we look at, as police officers we feel satisfied that the investigation goes through the whole of the hoops including conviction and even sometimes sentence when you say well, he deserved that. Aqui, im not bothered about any of that. Yo, if best case scenario, as far as I am seeing it as Commissioner now, best case scenario and that is, seria triumfo using the analogy of success in a investigation, is if it got to court. If the case gets to court, against any of them, any of them,

	Mr Llamas	My view is
58:53	CoP	That for me is already
	Mr Llamas	A success
	CoP	My job is done.
58:59	Mr Llamas	And to take up the point (inaudible) it seems that we have a very strong case against Cornelio, and the other idiot. Ok. Vamo enfocarnos en eso. Levy has value as a witness for that and Levy if we don't handle well, has potential to spoil it in relation to those two. See, if that is where we are heading, and I'm talking pure tactics and practicality, porque no nos enfocamos on those two that we are fairly confident we've got them, y Levy, where it's going to be highly unlikely, it seems to me from my discussions with Christian and what I hear, that we are going to be able to have any successful challenge on. Use him as a witness, y vamo usarlo y vamo, and also have the potential of disruptive, porque aqui, preparase, ir preparando todo, aqui van a venir QCs a la pala, a la pala.
1.00:12	Mr Rocca	That's what worries me. (inaudible) imagine if this (inaudible) everything Paul. We've got all these guys bailed for what? another year. No we can't.
	CoP	That is a risk but not, and I welcome the fact that you're consulting it with us, because in other days, in other years by, the AG, before the DPP existed, would have said, he would have been the one who calls the shots on whatever actions I suppose after charge, pero I'm really really grateful that you're consulting this and getting our views. We want to come out good of this too, nosotros no queremos, because we have no concerns for not coming out good, yo se lo digo a ellos, y it's a measure of satisfaction the sleeping factor is good, si puede tu dormir de noche con la consiencia tranquila that says it all. And I think were all in that, everybody. I'm worried de que they can't carry on with what they're meant to be doing which is
	Mr Llamas	Esperate, I'm starting to see this all more clearly now. And I think this is the key issue at a tactical level that we've got today. We have what seems to be a very strong case against Cornelio and, the other one, Sanchez, and possibly Perez. Levy is probably I think, not going to.
	Mr Rocca	Look, you can possibly charge him, but I don't think you're going to get a conviction.... At the moment
1.01:48	Insp Wyan	The charging one is certainly in the balance.

1.01:54	CoP	Esto es importantisimo. If the DPP puts that to me in writing that he feels, because we could dig our heels and say we are charging him, and he's not gonna prosecute, I'm not gonna charge, so if he is saying that Levy is, the likely chances are that Levy's not gonna secure, that were not gonna secure a conviction, I'm not gonna charge Levy
	Supt Richardson	If it gets to that point, you have to explore those positions.
1.02:19	Mr Llamas	Exactly. And then. Entonces that would be taken on its merit, and it seems, it's a possible scenario right, encima it seems que it's going to be touch and go lo de Levy. He's clearly not in the same position as the other three. Bringing him in further va se la guerra, I mean they're gonna be ten QC's from London in Court, and every single breath you take is going to be challenged, that is what they are already doing. Badly, wrongly, no importa. Y entonce, we lose the wood from the trees here. Tenemo un caso fuerte contra estos dos, o estos tres,
1.03:04	CoP	No we, we discussed that, que he has the potential to be (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	He will.
	CoP	He has. He said it before coming over.
	Mr Llamas	Ian, he will y ensima where his involvement may be in the periphery, mira, you shouldn't have done this or that, pa que, pa que? Pa que? Vamo enfocarno en lo que podemo coge, y parese se que podemo coge estos dos.
1.03:32	CoP	Ahora, how do we justify our activity
1.03:35	Supt Richardson	Sir, sir, before we go any further. Chris, are you satisfied as DPP that if Jaime Levy is a witness in this matter or refuses to give a statement, or refuses to testify in court, that it would not prejudice the prosecution about the ones that we have the strong evidence about, because I think what Fischel will say is he knew all about this, this is now a miscarriage of justice, because you have chosen to deal with him differently.
	Mr Rocca	Which is why I said to you, we ask him the question, we tick the box, you have satisfied yourself that his involvement is this and doesn't meet the threshold. If it does, you can't prove it, and then from that basis you wouldn't charge him.
1.04:17	CoP	Exactly
1.04:18	Supt Richardson	He's gonna have to come up with some very very good explanations.
	CoP	Maybe Paul he does. I'm hoping that he does.
	Mr Rocca	I'll tell you what I think he would say, Which is look I don't micro manage investments. (inaudible)
1.04:34		(inaudible)
1.04:45	Mr Rocca	Is he conspiring to defraud. We get that line of business ethics and conspiracy to defraud. We had a debate about it and I think we need more. I said to you, I think we need his version of events.

	Mr Llamas	I think there's a lot of support for the prosecution to continue in relation to Cornelio, Sanchez and possibly Perez. And I think it's going to be a highway. Bringing Levy in is going to convert it into a mountain range
	Mr Rocca	We had this debate in my office remember. I said if we look at how wide we cast the net,
1.05:28	Supt Richardson	Yeh yeh, but I just think were undermining our own position. We've had all these accusations now, and now to change the suspect, change his status now after satisfying a court, on oath, about what we believe, how do we do that?
	Mr Rocca	And I would defend your position.
	Supt Richardson	But how do we do that? how do I look at Charlie Pitto in the face now and say I stood in your office for two hours (inaudible)
1.05:53	Mr Llamas	Again, I can only talk from a strategic point of view, because I'm not knowledgeable enough to speak on the criminal procedure. The answer to your question is because we took a tactical decision that .....for the end game
1.06:08		(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	In order to get Cornelio, Sanchez etc we needed to go down this road.
	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
	Mr Rocca	Or else we would get no one.
1.06:15	CoP	We can take this in slight changes and this is not gonna be resolved next week if. If he provides us with, if we provide a bit more and he provides us with a statement, which may even expose for more questions to be asked, but we know that we're not gonna get anything, we're gonna be criticised for not asking but we make the call there saying we are just gonna draw the line here.
1.06:46	Mr Rocca	I pose a question at that stage. What do you do with the phone? Do you say to yourself (inaudible) a quarter of a million pounds on a (inaudible) and return it or do you go through it. That's the call.
1.06:58	CoP	Right. I would hope that he also produces something in support of his account.
	Mr Llamas	Maybe that's a way of dealing with that.
	CoP	In which case if he satisfies us with that, I mean, fine, if we are then thinking, as we did with Chipol, the only difference is the caution, no caution,
1.07:22	Insp Wyan	That's a problem. I suppose we could look at it from the point of view that if he gave us a witness statement, or a statement that was so useful to us, that it would be on interest to use him as a witness as opposed to a suspect
	CoP	The statement

1.07:	Supt Richardson	What if he, lif this weekend he sends us a witness statement saying, I am aware that I am under the suspicion and that the police are carrying out an investigation in this matter, notwithstanding this, I have chosen to make the statement voluntarily of my own free will. And he sets out his stall, And he sets out his stall incriminating Cornelio, Perez
1.08:00	Mr Llamas	Or not
	Supt Richardson	Well he's gonna have to do it. How can he say he knew what they were doing. He can either say I knew what they were doing and I was misled, or I didn't know what they were doing. And the thing is, he did know, I think, a lot of what they were doing.
1.08:15	Mr Llamas	So Paul, if he did that, say, on Sunday, or Monday morning,
	Supt Richardson	We wouldn't carry out the interview. Well, we could, and we should but we could delay carrying out any interview until we considered the content of that. If it was sufficiently robust, we could discuss it with Chris,
	Mr Llamas	Well let's combine the various options that we have. He could, out of the blue, send you a witness statement by ten o'clock on Monday, what time's the interview?
1.08:42	Supt Richardson	Ten o'clock on Monday
	Mr Llamas	By 9 o'clock, latest on Monday, preferably by Sunday.
1.08:47	Insp Wyan	That wouldn't be a witness statement. It would be from one of the lawyers effectively setting out his position (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	A written statement as opposed to a witness.
1.09:01	Supt Richardson	You mean, for Baglietto to say, my client says this, my client's version of events are
	Insp Wyan	We could look at it and say, right where does that leave us
	Supt Richardson	I think that takes us a bit further down the line. That is what Fischel did....
	Mr Rocca	We can't stop him doing that.
	Supt Richardson	No we can't stop him doing it, but to have effect its gonna have to be sufficiently robust, for us to say, hang on there's something in this.
	Mr Llamas	Esperate, let's not jump steps. So what would he produce over the weekend, a witness statement or a written statement a la Fichel?
	Supt Richardson	Sorry Mark. I think it would be really helpful if he says, this is my statement. I have considered the matter which you have brought to my notice and this is what I have to say. In whatever format that
	Mr Llamas	Signed James Levy. A statement. A letter
1.09:47	Insp Wyan	Well, if that's the case, we send him a template of the forms etc and he signs at the bottom of the form.

	CoP	No no no that can be done afterwards. The same as Darren Grech....
		(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Hold on, hold on guys. Lets carry on. He sends you a statement. You then reply to him saying in view of the statement we shall delay the interview
	CoP	Postpone.
	Mr Rocca	To consider the matter in your statement.
	Mr Llamas	Then,
	Mr Rocca	He may be able to obtain documents.
1.10:27	CoP	That would be very helpful.
	Insp Wyan	That would be essential. I would say so.
	CoP	Yes. Supporting documents.
	Supt Richardson	The file for 36 North, the money that they lent them, the investment
	Mr Llamasa	Hold on. Then, you consider the statement, and then what happens next?
	CoP	We evaluate whether it is, like Paul said, robust enough where we think, ok we're happy with what he has given us, he's a witness.
1.10;57	Insp Wyan	His value as a witness (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	That I would be happy with.
	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
	CoP	Whether he goes to court or not....
	Mr Llamas	We'll cross that....(inaudible)
1.11:13	Supt Richardson	But all that other shit has got to go away.
	Mr Llamas	What shit?
	Supt Richardson	The six letters, the exocets flying across the Falklands
	CoP	...the Gaza strip
	Mr Rocca	...the west bank
1.11:28	Insp Wyan	But it has to be sufficient in evidence so that when the others go to court, that
		(inaudible)
1.11:33	Mr Llamas	Yeh but Mark, I think were onto a way of dealing with this now. Even if what you would get on Sunday or Mondays is not enough, he could say I will supplement this with further documents, or you could write back to him, saying thank you very much for this, supplement this this and that with documents.

	Insp Wyan	Yes, we could do that
1.11:55	Mr Llamas	You could enter a dialogue which is not pursuant, which is not under caution, which is not pursuant to a search warrant, even though its alive, you haven't removed it
	CoP	The only issue is if he doesn't co-operate with that.
	Mr Llamas	I think he will
	CoP	Vale. Ok so what we don't lose is, the notion is, Mark you articulated it well, that its in our interest to have him on side, that (inaudible)
	Insp Wyan	Exactly it's a balance.
	CoP	That is a tactical decision that we take. We consult, you say yes…as a team, as a team Chris.
	Mr Llamas	Y se enfocai en
	Mr Rocca	Were all on the same side here. Were all trying to protect injustice, balancing getting Cornelio, keeping the police force healthy and not coming into disputes. If the shit sticks, we all shit sticks
	Supt Richardson	Let's be honest, if the shit starts flying around with this, and what we know here becomes public, the reputation of the police has nothing to worry about compared to the reputation of Hassans.
1..13:00	Mr Llamas	Everybody loses Paul. Everybody Loses.
113:02	CoP	No, pero que, what I mean to say is, que mira
	Mr Rocca	For me, after having read everything, the real bad people here, this is the idea of Sanchez, Cornelio, Perez, they've approached Jaime Levy because Jaime Levy has got contact with the Chief Minister
	CoP	Its pounds shillings and pence
	Mr Rocca	That's the way I would have read everything If I was a
	CoP	Le voy ayudar a estos dos y encima me voy a llevar….
1.13:25	Mr Rocca	I can arrange contact with the Chief Minister (inaudible) yet he says it (inaudible) in December I think.
	Supt Richardson	No, its in March, and in April he says yes I will.
	Mr Rocca	And I think the proof is almost in the (inaudible), and I was saying to Michael, they actually don't get the bloody contract.
	Supt Richardson	But the irony of all this is 36 North is supplying scanners through public expense now.
	Mr Rocca	JBS no?
	CoP	JBS, AquaGib
	Mr Rocca	Yeh, but not Government.

1.13:55	CoP	JBS is Government.
	Mr Llamas	What was that Paul?
	Supt Richardson	36 North, the same firm that were talking about, are supplying scanners from our public expense.
1.14:10	CoP	Bueno, though GJBS, Aquagib, they don't know, they don't kno
	Mr Rocca	No they don't know. That the position I suppose.
	Supt Richardson	Somehow he knows
	Mr Llamas	Leave that with me.
	Mr Llamas	If we can go down this route,
	Supt Richardson	Sorry sir, but this is an important point and I'm (inaudible) you've said that, but do you know what that means to the police officers that are investigating that see a tweet from 36 North supplying
	Mr Llamas	You don't have to tell me
1.14:36	Mr Rocca	Pero es que its (inaudible)
		(inaudible)
1.14:45	Mr Llamas	Lo unico que yo quiero, because now, one is involved in all of this, that we clarify all of this, I don't have the full... because I feel very strongly I don't know, por que ya no se si se poco o mucho, pero ya se mas, so that other things that need to be happening need to happen in relation to three individuals we are talking about, need to happen. As you know there is a serious data protection breach which is a very serious one (inaudible). There's the question of the ownership of the damn platform que estoy I'm desperate to sort out as well as soon a possible, which is why I came in originally if you remember correctly. Entonces, let's get on, let's get on sin que esto becomes a complete earthquake, which will affect the prosecution of the guys who are almost certainly guilty of criminal (inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	Fischel piggy back on this. Fischel will piggy back on this big time, because I would.
1.15.55	Supt Richardson	How do you know?
	Mr Rocca	If this kicks off we'll have court proceedings here for the next six months to twelve months.
	Mr Llamas	(inaudible) and nothing to do with the....
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) we are not in a position to charge until we resolve all the outstanding issues, surely.
	Supt Richardson	We actually discussed....our position was, we are in a position to charge.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)...the charge of conspiracy, you have to name the conspirators.

	CoP	Exactly
	Supt Richardson	We could proceed without Levy
	Mr Llamas	You could proceed without Levy, exactly.
	Mr Rocca	you could
	Supt Richardson	But it would be messy, it would get very messy.
	Mr Llamas	We'll park that until we get there.
	Mr Rocca	Well, exactly.
	Mr Llamas	Pero vamos a quitarnos esto the encima and carry on
	CoP	I'll come back to the serious allegations y todo eso and the reservation of rights to…
	Mr Llamas	My advice, if this happens, I would, Christian and I would write very curt replies; we don't agree with anything that you're saying on a without prejudice basis; we are not proceeding with this…this is no longer relevant…but just for the record, we disagree.
	CoP	Because the bottom line is that the evidence eventually is there . If they want to bring it on…
1.17.25	Mr Rocca	….if you want to judicially review, fine, judicially review the decision of the Magistrate. If you insist in the disclosure of this information, we will file a notice, we've got 14 days to file notice to the Magistrate.
	Supt Richardson	I had got the impression that Maurice had accepted as notice but wanted the clarification on whether…
	Mr Rocca	Yeah, Maurice was saying……we rejected
		inaudible
	Mr Rocca	At least 14 days in which to file notice of an objection. Once its received the court will determine if a hearing is required.
		Inaudible
1.17.56	Mr Rocca	But I hope this will defuse all of that.
	Mr Llamas	I think it will, I think this defuses everything. There's only one thing we need to address….is what happens to the phone during this period?
	Supt Richardson	It will remain sealed. It can remain sealed
	CoP	They are in my safe, in the office safe
	Mr Llamas	In your safe?
	CoP	I am the only keyholder
	Mr Llamas	And that's not affecting Jaime Levy from (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	He took 6 hours to copy it before handing it over.

	CoP	Y yo me estoy preguntando, bueno, what if he's got his phone cloned now...estoy preguntado por que if there wasn't any merit in retaining it and already has it cloned (inaudible), he got his phone cloned, ya puede hacer lo que le de la gana. He can carry on operating with it. Quiere decir que cuando the examiner picks this phone up, its not going to be anywhere the same it was meant to be when it was first put in that bag, in terms of, because everything happens in the cloud y una cosita o otra, its gonn to look bad que haiga deletions.
	Mr Rocca	Can he?
	Supt Richardson	No, he can't delete something from a phone that is not connected to it. The situation you've described is that his copy of the phone would have different information on it from our copy of the phone and that would just show criminality.
1.19.19	Mr Rocca	He's not stupid enough to do that (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Or you gets his knickers in a twist and insists on getting the phone back
	Mr Rocca	Because we didn't go down the inter-parte procedure which you would explore how you dealt with....I remember Tom did with Marrache. I think Sharon Peralta looked at...
	CoP	Errr, she started looking at it, no, with somebody else, there were two counsels
	Mr Rocca	.....legally privileged material. What I do not want to end up is in a position we ended up with Wood and Robinson, where we fucked up because of disclosure...and we lost everything on that because frankly would've (inaudible) in prison. Whichever way you look at it.
	CoP	Can we re-cap?
	Mr Llamas	Yes, this is how I understand the position
	CoP	Mark, are you making notes?
	Insp Wyan	Yes Sir
	Mr Llamas	I will call Louis Baglietto, okay? Stop me if I am saying something
	Supt Richardson	Lets not make notes until we've agreed this, it might be the sensible thing.
	Mr Llamas	Somebody is going to call Louis Baglietto and is going tell him, mira, we reserve , or the RGP, our position..... a litany of (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	But doing what Chris said, that we believe our actions were lawful and if you don't agree with us
	Mr Llamas	Whatever....We reserve the RGP's position.....and therefore, no se, ...are they going be formally asked to do a witness statement or if the
	Mr Rocca	Volunteer

	Supt Richardson	I don't think you should ask, not in the letter anyway, It has to be asked but not asked.
	Mr Llamas	Can I pick up the phone and tell Louis Baglietto, mira Louis, I have met with Commissioner and the team, you can send a witness statement to the RGP, a statement…
	CoP	That provides them with sufficient data to….
	Mr Llamas	….seriously
	Supt Richardson	Seriously, a detailed account
	Mr Rocca	To assess your involvement….
	Mr Llamas	They will then postpone the meeting, the interview on Monday. They will review it, they may come back to you with….
	CoP	Some subsidiary questions
	Mr Llamas	With subsidiary questions…they may even provide you further elements of….
	CoP	Or direct you where they want….
	Mr Llamas	Or direct you, exactly, all of that… They will then come to a conclusion on Jaime Levy. And they will decide what they decide, but one possible outcome may be that the RGP, looking at the whole of the case, and the strategy of the case, and balancing all interests, may decide that Jaime Levy has more value to this investigation or prosecution as a witness than as a suspect.
	Mr Rocca	Without giving guarantees.
	Mr Llamas	Without giving guarantees obviously
1.22.50	Supt Richardson	If Louis is willing to accept that, it takes us beyond Monday, it takes us beyond the issue of the phone…it takes us to finding out what his account is and with a lot of luck and good will, we might end up with a plausible account, which at least….
	CoP	Which is what we've been after all the time
1.21.20	Mr Rocca	Which is where I think we are going to get to and on that basis it may turn around and you don't go through the whole palava of the telephone
	Insp Wyan	(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	The first thing you need to tell yourself is actually, you know what boss, (inaudible) he has more value as a witness, lets treat him as a witness. That is where you, and we can't interfere with your decision. Operationally, if he gave you enough in the statement for you to say, I will get, it will help me get Cornelio and Sanchez and the other one.
	CoP	I don't care, si se hechan a pelear ellos. If Jaime says, I didn't know anything or they have conned me, frankamente, whether its tru eor not, that he wants to hold his own, que se le apanen ellos.
	Supt Richardson	He set that argument out too, that he'd be deceived, to me

	CoP	So be it, whether its true or not
	Supt Richardson	That's what he told me
	Mr Llamas	What? On the business case or…
	Supt Richardson	He didn.t go into too much detail. Just said these people had let me down,….. I've lost half a million or a quarter of a million to these people
	Mr Llamas	How much?
	Supt Richardson	Quarter of a million to half a million apparently
	CoP	He's been let down apparently
		(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	What happens to the phone during all the exchanges
	Supt Richardson	It remains sealed
	CoP	It stays where it is under lock and key
	Mr Llamas	It stays with you?
	CoP	I am the only key holder
	Mr Llamas	And you've already said in this letter that it will remain sealed all the time
	Supt Richardson	For seven days
	CoP	Seven days
	Mr Rocca	We can extend that
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) …we still haven't got the emails, he can provide that with his account.
	CoP	Supporting documentation
	Mr Llamas	Okay chaps, I think that's worth a try. Ian I'll call you later.
	Supt Richardson	I think it's the best shot as well Sir.
	CoP	There's more to clear up after this. La parte de que nosotros habemos hecho el trabajo bien (inaudible)
1.25.22	Mr Llamas	Si,si, don't worry about that. Certainly that you feel very strongly, that you're very clear that you've done everything properly and that you, ….this, if it works and we're all hoping that it does, is without prejudice to your position in reply to all (inaudible)
	CoP	Because they will say, why didn't….inaudible
	Mr Rocca	Because you didn't have a written statement
	Supt Richardson	We didn't ask for one either
	CoP	If he's known that we were after…that this day was going to come… as an officer of the court, tu sabes que viene esto, vent u y da…..

1.26.38	Supt Richardson	Exactly, you make a really really valid point which he should clarify in the statement he's going to volunteer at the weekend hopefully. He was put on notice by Cornelio, way back in, I think, October 2018. That Cornelio was telling him I'm worried that the forensic experts are going to prove that I've done something to hack the system and to compromise it. Now, he may not have known about it at the time...I suspect that he didn't know about that. But he knows now. Fischel has been writing to him. He knows what the allegations are; he knows that Caine Sanchez has been arrested, he knows that its all...he's done nothing to say, look, I'm an officer of the court, I've had nothing to do with this; here is my version of events.
	Mr Llamas	Bueno mira (inaudible)
	CoP	Pero que digan why didn't we do....(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	That is inference Paul
	Supt Richardson	Its more than an inference
	Mr Rocca	I don't see that clearly, I never have. There are questions that need to be asked. The inferences that you have drawn are not the inferences that I am drawing.....(inaudible) .....perhaps its because you are a policeman and I am not.
	Supt Richardson	Maybe I have got the sequence of events clear in my mind. There are certain statements that were made that can only make sense if you knew something had happened before.
		(Inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Yo te llamo despues, I'll call you later. I think to be clear with this scenario, the search warrant remains, it sits there on hold, on in the back ground or whatever you want to call it and we go through this process, y aver adonde salimos.
	Mr Rocca	(Inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	I think you've got to do that before or else you agree to do something....(inaudible)
1.28.29	Mr Llamas	I agree with Paul, and we should do that on Monday. Do that once you receive the statement. i.e. In view of the statement we have received from Mr Levy, we are putting on hold our replies to all your letters...without prejudice of the fact that we are firm in our conviction
	CoP	...(inaudible) trawl through the detail of it..
	Mr Llamas	Esto siempre y cuando, I assume from them....
	Mr Rocca	And we don't deal with the Magistrates Couurt yet. We have 14 days to file...
	Mr Llamas	Bueno, this would take over everything.
	Mr Rocca	We get them to withdraw the application for....on the basis that they are cooperating
	Supt Richardson	Yes, that would be important, because if they purport to be helping us now, and we are taking that view, and at the same time, in the background, they are saying, now give me all the evidence of which we are suspected about…they get access…

	Mr Llamas	I think the way out of that Paul, is I may tell them, look, you've got to (inaudible) a very serious (inaudible) statement setting out the things. The RGP may then come back with proper questions and indeed, something you've mentioned, may provide you with further information that they have and specifically ask you which will deal with that point…
	CoP	Direct you…by then…we will have known
		Inaudible
	Supt Richardson	I can't pretend that we don't know about something if they know about it and they lie to me.
	Mr Llamas	I agree with that
	Mr Rocca	Worst case scenario we can agree to give them some redacted, ….(inaudible) the nature of the investigation.
	CoP	Because we will know where he is coming from….(inaudible) …o la temenos cruda…..(inaudible)I'm sorry it makes you look even worse.
	Mr Llamas	Ian, dejate el telefono encendido
	CoP	Ah si, siempre lo tengo encendido
	Mr Llamas	Mark, how's it going? Are you going to leave these people and join us?
	Insp Wyan	(Inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	And got to the dark side
	CoP	You know, that I said that, that if he was a mechanical engineer, or a marketing consultant, or whatever…go to the greener pastures, don't go to law…..I'm sorry that is why I'm a policeman.
		(inaudible and laughs)
	CoP	Ustedes estais acostumbrados….this is not part of our drill.
	Mr Rocca	Good to see you guys
		(inaudible)

		Persons Present Attorney General – Mr Michael Llamas Director of Public Prosecutions – Mr Christian Rocca Senior Crown Counsel – Mr Lloyd Devenicenzi Commissioner of Police – Ian McGrail Detective Superintendent – Paul Richardson Detective Inspector – Mark Wyan
Tape counter times	Person speaking	Text
		(inaudible) – introducing Insp Wyan to Mr Llamas and Mr Rocca.
	Mr Llamas	Hi Mark
	CoP	He's the one with probably the most intimate knowledge of the case. You've met?
	Mr Llamas	Yes , we've met. When did we meet Mark?
	Insp Wyan	The Armed Forces Act
	Mr Llamas	Armed Forces Act
	CoP	He is the terror factor here in person. Actually for whatever its worth, and I don't think you need to have sight of that, and if it gets to that, I've had a glimpse of, because sometimes with a bit wittiness we progress a bit, but basically the issue of having body worn camera recording with his knowledge puts to bed all the arguments that he's saying that there was a threat y todo, porque, just read the transcript and you can hear it, let alone view it and listen to it.
5:12	Mr Llamas	(inaudible) asking if they've been offered anything to drink
5:34	Mr Llamas	Ok chaps Christian and I have been spending quite a bit of time together today. We're heading towards a major collision here. I think its clear , whether you agree with what they're saying or not, its our view que it's clear that this is going to become very nasty very quickly and were facing a potential escalation of the whole thing, and therefore we think that's best avoided, we think, and we just wanted to discuss with you now, whether there are things we can do, where you can achieve what you want to achieve, whilst avoiding a collision or whether you maintain yourselves in exactly the same position as you were the last time we met. I want us to have a completely relaxed discussion between the 5 of us on the handling of this and the best way to get to where you feel you have to get, so with that in mind what; has your position changed in any way since we met? I can't even remember now…
	CoP	Yesterday
	Supt Richardson	Was it yesterday? I thought it was the day before

7:24	CoP	It hasn't. It hasn't changed because we continue with the hope that there are unexplained issues which have an impact on the remaining three, four suspects, and if it is a line of enquiry that can clarify or make worse the situation for those four individuals, we're gonna be left with that in the air if we do not look at this part of the investigation.
8:00	Mr Llamas	Ok, but my understanding Ian, and correct me if I'm wrong, is that what you've just said is that you have to carry on with the interview, in other words, that's what you're referring to.
	CoP	It is a line of enquiry that
	Mr Llamas	Which is essential to the investigation
8:11	CoP	To conclude, without anticipating what the outcome is going be of that.
8:17	Mr Llamas	Correct. Christian and I are with you entirely on that. What we think would be helpful for the management of the whole thing is, if that interview would still go ahead,but not have it under caution.
	Mr Rocca	Is that possible? Can you interview him and then convert it under caution depending on what he says. I know it's not gonna be admissible whatever he tells you
8:44	Supt Richardson	I wouldn't be complying with the codes of practice if I did that
	Mr Rocca	We've done it before
	Supt Richardson	I've already cautioned him. Cautioned him on body worn camera. I've filed documents in court saying that we had reasonable cause to suspect…
	Mr Rocca	We'll come to that. But we have done it before where, for example, the ambulance guy, Haveland, he was a suspect and we interviewed him as a potential witness
	Supt Richardson	What do you mean for the body bag case?
	Mr Rocca	Yeh
	Supt Richardson	No that was a decision made on purpose; it wasn't because there wasn't evidence, credible evidence to believe that he was a suspect. I know because I reviewed that case and it was the same decision we took when we interviewed the nurses for the KGV death in custody. If we had interviewed him under caution we wouldn't have obtained any evidence at all and it was a balance
	Mr Rocca	And this the point that the AG is going to make now I think. We believe, we're led to believe that if we go under caution he's not gonna say a word, to the extent that he may not even attend. But at the very least if you do arrest him he's not gonna give you anythingthen we're discussing whether that is good or bad. I think it leaves us with a problem evidentially and I think it leaves us with, in a position whereby I've had my reservations you know, about whether we have enough on Jaime at the moment, I don't think were quite across the line with Jaime and we wouldn't proceed, so I would rather get information from him that may either incriminate him if it does, fantastic.

10:14	Supt Richardson	How would we use it?
	Mr Rocca	No no, we take a voluntary statement not under caution, as a witness. If he says things that make it in your view that incriminate him, you caution him, that's possible no?
	CoP	Looking at it from the point of view that we did, like we were contemplating, or practically contemplating to use Chipol. Was Chipol under caution?
10:47	Insp Wyan	Yep. Entirely under caution. Several times.
	Mr Llamas	We think this gives us, obviously were going to listen to what you have to say, but we think this gives us a, not a way out, but a way in which you can obtain the information that you need to obtain to do your investigation and we are totally supportive of you on the need for that interview, but it will allow you to get that information in a way which you might not otherwise get, certainly not on Monday, and with the potential of a tremendous escalation because he may not turn up. And I'm trying to be realistic and practical. As you know I'm learning criminal law procedure on the hoof myself with a very good teacher if I may say so, and I'm just, and I do not want this to explode , let's be very clear and I don't think it's in your interest either that this explodes . If there is an alternative way to do it, where you get
11:59	CoP	I think it's also not in his interest that this explodes . It's not only us.
	Mr Llamas	I agree. it's not in anybody's interest.
12:11	CoP	I don't want to feel cornered because this is not the question then
	Supt Richardson	Agreed
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely. And to be done in a way which is going to be explained to them , if we were able to convince them to do it this way, it will be explained to them that this is entirely without prejudice on your views on the original issue of the search warrant and the caution and all that, all that can be covered , so it is not seen, in other words, as the RGP backing down from the decision. You're just saying, what we want is this, let's do it
13:08	CoP	I think there has to be prejudice here, Because this looks like we are in a small market actually bartering, that's not my law enforcement education at all because, if we take his view, hypothetically now, without prejudice, if we take the view that yes let's get his version not under caution but to get something of him and on top of that the challenge of the warrant carries on, we are then hung up to dry
	CoP	Collide now

13:27	Mr Rocca	We've discussed that already. We would only run on the basis that they give an undertaking that its done in an order to be co-operative and would not be used to undermine anything, that Paul or anybody did in taking the warrant. Therefore your (inaudible) suspect of the warrant would not be challenged because you have agreed in a co-operative manner to get the information you want. We would require that guarantee from his lawyers and we discussed that.
13:53	Supt Richardson	I have no doubt whatsoever that if we put our actions before a court that they will be upheld, that they would see merit in it. I don't think we have anything to lose other than the wider issues here. The person that has something to lose by this is him not us, and for me it would seem to be a travesty that you can put up this barrage of emails that have come today to the Magistrates' Court, to the clerk, to me, to the AG, to the Commissioner, alleging bad conduct, alleging a malicious prosecution, alleging gross breaches of law, to then say aright, we're agreeing not to treat you as a suspect, tell us what you want and we can't use it against you, on the understanding that all the other stuff, that you've said, that I don't think holds any water to it anyway, we're gonna ignore. I don't think that's gonna serve the interest to this because we articulated very clearly what Jaime had to account for, all the messages that's there, and in the absence of that we would have to rely on the normal conclusion that someone would draw. He has interfered with civil servants, he has used his influence, but there might be an explanation for this. In the absence of this what do we do? We say we prefer getting your explanation because it's better than nothing, but we've got half of the conversation already.
15:11	Mr Rocca	We would not get a conviction anytime based on what we've got now. If Jaime gives us a no comment, and I'm assuming
	CoP	Maybe maybe that is (inaudible) maybe tactically if he says no comment and that is the evidence that we cannot, from his account, and we cannot progress him further and stick anything on him, he walks, frankly speaking, yes?
	Supt Richardson	Say that again?
	CoP	If we ask him under caution and he doesn't reply, which we expect him
	Supt Richardson	Which is his rights
	CoP	Right. And then on the basis of what we already have right now, a charge would not stick.
15:52	Supt Richardson	With the greatest respect, I'm not sure that I would support that view because some of that evidence is so damming and
	CoP	But, but I'm saying, looking at it from our activity, imagine that the dilemma of doing it under caution doesn't come into place, that we go as we are meaning to go and he provides a no comment
16:15	Supt Richardson	Sorry sir to interrupt you, I've had a thought, if that's the case get him to submit his version of events, don't come in for interview under caution, we're not gonna ask for it. Give us your version of events

	Mr Rocca	In writing
	Supt Richardson	Yes
	CoP	But let me look at it, because eventually, eventually you want to ask questions on that version, or we're gonna be back to square one.
16:38	Mr Llamas	So, just a second. So what does that
	Supt Richardson	What mechanism
	Mr Llamas	Yes, explain to me how that works
	Supt Richardson	This is what the other side have been doing continuously and they're doing it to frustrate the means to be able to obtain evidence by interview, which is prejudiced in Gibraltar, for the reasons that I articulated to you before. We can't ask questions and require answers, we can't put someone in a position because the constitution in Gibraltar doesn't allow that. The law was changed in England specifically to balance the arms of the prosecution and the defence because if you're found in possession of something and you don't give an account, it's not reasonable to provide an account a year later in court when you could have provided that account now. So we can't do that. So what the other side are doing and very frequently done, is they will sit in an interview under caution and say very little.
	Mr Llamas	yeah
17:27	Supt Richardson	And then they'll go away. And they'll come back with a statement and the statement says this, and then we have to interview again and we say you've said this but the evidence says that, you've said this, the evidence says that, they don't give an explanation; they go away, we come back again and this is how, this is how these things drag out, this is quite literally absurd the way that we're dragged through this. Now, the advantage of that for the defence is obviously is that you can't ask them questions and put them on the spot. You're saying this but it's not actually true. They can go away, come back in a months' time and produce something that agrees or disagrees with what we've said, or not at all. In this case what the defence has done, through Fischel is they have produced volumes of information suggesting that the complainant is the guilty person in this. That he has committed false accounting, he has wasted police time etc. but if all we're interested in and I'm not suggesting that that's the only reason behind this conversation, is to obtain Jaime's account without being able to use it under caution, let him produce his own account, but we will still have to speak to him at some point I would suggest on this.
18:	Mr Llamas	But wait, Paul, if Jaime on Sunday let's say okay , he sends you a written statement, addressing the 9 or 10 grounds you got set out there, the first question is, would he be producing that statement under caution,

	Supt Richardson	Yes
	Mr Llamas	That would be under caution
	Supt Richardson	The fact that he's just providing it
19:00	CoP	Precisely – it Becomes evidence. you could use it for whatever.
	Mr Llamas	Ok but it's not necessarily being done under caution? If he volunteers, you haven't asked for it right,
	CoP	Well, but it's a significant statement isn't it?
19:15	Insp Wyan	It's not the ordinary statement. Normally what would happen is if someone wants to produce a statement under caution is, they would prepare it, they would come in to the interview, we would open the interview and the caution would be read out, so it would be under caution.
	CoP	This would be a significant statement
	Supt Richardson	No, a significant statement is something that's made for someone who's under arrest
19:33	Mr Rocca	If you give a witness statement or a statement which is co-operative, rather than under caution, all of that automatically becomes disclosable if and when we proceed against Cornelio and Sanchez and the others.
19:45	Insp Wyan	If he provides witness statements to us but not under caution, its inadmissible against him.
	Mr Rocca	Exactly, but it would be part of the disclosure bundle so we would need to factor that into account as well. We would have to provide that to….
	CoP	That's one option
	Mr Llamas	Wait, so one option is a written statement volunteered in inverted commas, by JL before Monday, or by Monday. Then what do you do?
	Supt Richardson	We would have to see what the content of that was, see how it matches with the evidence that we know, and then decide whether we need to put that to him in an interview. If he gives an explanation, and I have to be honest, which is very unlikely, that would support a lot of the allegations that we need to explore, there might not be a need to speak to him but it is very unlikely. The only way around that, and I don't think we'd be prepared to do that, is to disclose what it is that we want to ask in advance and to get him to answer all those questions in writing. But that really would be a travesty.
	CoP	He has already compounded suspicions without him realising when these gentlemen went to speak to him and he was under caution.

	Mr Rocca	In what way Ian?
	CoP	I'll keep it for now.
	Mr Rocca	Ah ok.
21:18	CoP	When he starts making certain comments which are not viable at all because if that made sense then it wouldn't be an issue, but they're not viable because time lines don't work at all, and the business venture was orchestrated way before the intent of 36 north, the creation of 36 north for the purpose it was set up, and Jaime's involvement in that, what he is claiming, the purposes were for his involvement, crash head on, head on. Can you read between?
	Mr Llamas	I do not know what you saying
22:07	CoP	But look, that's only, it was transcribed yesterday and we've skim read through it and I wasn't even looking for that. I was looking for the tone to argue the oppressing picture that there is.
	Mr Llamas	Well, a written statement which he gives to you by Monday, doesn't go to the interview, this is instead of the interview,
	Supt Richardson	Its like an interim measure, its not the end of it.
	Mr Llamas	OK, then you consider it and then you take one of two views. You take the view either that ok he's answered all the questions we've got for him, or no, it doesn't, we still need to interview him. And that interview if it were to happen,
22:54	Supt Richardson	Would have to be under caution.
	Mr Llamas	Would have to be under caution?
	Supt Richardson	One of the difficulties with us in dealing with the Criminal Procedure Evidence Act is that it gives you all the burdens of PACE, but none of the advantages of it, so if you suspect that somebody has committed an offence you have to caution them, you can only speak to them in an interview, the interview has to be in a police station, and it has to be authorised by a custody sergeant, and it has to follow the form of being recorded and it has to follow a certain programme. We have to do that to with comply with the law so to find a creative way around it may work in some circumstances, but I can't see it working in a criminal situation especially when even when we've acted legitimately those things have been twisted and thrown back to suggest that myself and the Commissioner are acting unlawfully. There's even a suggestion here that you advised us not to obtain a warrant.
	Mr Rocca	I read that
	Supt Richardson	We didn't say that. We didn't agree with that. Now, where has that come from? who has told…..
	Mr Llamas	I think they've had a lot of confusion over that from the beginning.

24:02	Supt Richardson	That clearly might be the case, but this is a QC accusing the commissioner of police of acting unlawfully because he's gone against the advice of the DPP
	Mr Rocca	I picked that up
	CoP	Can we go back to…on a couple of instances
	Mr Llamas	That's an assumption that they're making.
	Supt Richardson	How can a QC just throw that out? Saying that the commissioner of police is acting unlawfully
24:25	Mr Rocca	It's almost worse than that, it kind of possibly suggests that I've spoken to Lewis Baglietto, which I haven't
	CoP	That's my question. My question is…..
	Supt Richardson	Where has it come from? It wasn't aired in court.
24:38	Mr Llamas	It must come from the conversation with Ian and the chief minister
	CoP	Then we are talking big stuff here. Entose ya estamos hablando con mas mayores. That was my question. This is your representation to who and by who? They haven't told them. He hasn't told them, its exactly that….I am sold out, I am being sold out. This is beyond belief. I have it here …. 'following the threat to execute a warrant ..... on the advice of the DPP'. In page 7. Second paragraph. Anyway, that aside, assuming this is not Jaime Levy and it's another criminal, he wouldn't be the first one, we put him in the interview room and we are dependant of him answering questions but he gives us a no comment. We revert, we analyse the evidence and in the global of things we present it to the DPP or discuss with the DPP and say look there is evidence against this one, not against this one, this one you have not been able to nail him. Right? Isn't that the normal course of conduct we would say if somebody goes in and just stares at the top corner of the room and doesn't corroborate…. Or doesn't answer any questions. Now, clearly that is not the position he wants to find himself in but that ……
26:13	Mr Llamas	Here, what's creating the bad atmosphere, well bad is an understatement, what's creating the tension here is the concept of Jaime being suspect and therefore being interviewed under caution and we think that if for the sake of the management of this case and you can get the interview not treating him that way there's a possibility of achieving that the you can achieve your aim of getting the interview with him, but that stigma is very oppressive.
	CoP	I accept this por que in a couple of months time we could potentially be discussing this same matter and if we are not, questions will be asked why not when we talk about another barrister who's in our radar and if we are handling this barrister in that way, then why isn't another barrister handled in the other way?

	Mr Llamas	I think the answer to that would be is depends on the degree of the suspicion we have of the barrister in question, no?
	CoP	That is what we are at. What degree of suspicion do we have? Of Jaime Levy? Look you don't want to know it, but it has already met that test, because or else we wouldn't have got to this stage.
	Mr Rocca	We all agree he has questions to answer.
	CoP	Yes
	Mr Rocca	He needs to be given the opportunity, like everybody has, to either defend himself or come up with explanations. Its also an exculpatory exercise not just a....
	CoP	Absolutely
	Mr Rocca	And that's maybe what you need to explain to Jaime. Look there's an opportunity to put the record straight.
	CoP	That's what we've always wanted.
28:18	Mr Rocca	There are texts, there are whatsapps that are a little bit fishy
28:24	CoP	Not only that...I'm learning about the detail and that's why Mark is here but he's coming up with.... If this were to collide, I'm just gonna give you a flavour of what it is. We have Sanchez being requested back from the UK as he was doing some Brexit talks there
	Supt Richardson	Just Before he was interviewed
	CoP	He was asked to return and between him being asked to return and for him to land in Gibraltar he was wiping up his phone and we have evidence of that.
28:54	Supt Richardson	Including the conversations between him and Jaime.
	Mr Rocca	A concern I have in relation to all this. I've been a defence lawyer so I know how to throw shit and make it stick and usually its all smoke and mirrors but it works with jurors. If there is a sniff of unlawful evidence, Richardson being a bit naughty and misleading the misrepresenting the position, whether its true or not, that the DPP approved the search warrant or whatever, I don't want that to stick because I think we've got Cornelio, Sanchez, and Perez by the short and curlies, I think. And I don't want it to taint our prosecution; you know how it works, one walks they all tend to walk half the time, but you start throwing the shit, and you have to be careful with it as well.
29:47	Insp Wyan	Can I interject on a similar point. We need to consider that if we do deal with Mr Levy in a different way to the others, that's likely to impact the case as well and it may backfire on us later on so what their lawyers might be saying is You've treated my client in a particular way, but you've clearly shown preference to (inaudible)

		distinction between what Sanchez, Cornelio and Perez have done and what Levy may or may not have done; even if Levy has been involved in a way that makes you suspicious, still, it seems to me from what I've seen, it cannot be to the same level as these three, I think there's a clear distinction between the three on the one hand and the one the other has.
	Insp Wyan	I think you're probably right in terms of the evidence certainly in respect of some is much stronger. That is for certain. But the problem that we have is we've met that threshold for the suspicion with regards, or we believe we have. And we have to follow a certain procedure such as interviewing under caution and things like that. If we don't follow that procedure as we will normally do, I certainly would, I think the questions would be raised why have you not, and the very fact we went for the warrant shows that we've met that threshold. Now we're suggesting, actually we haven't met that threshold, or were not sure, then somebody's gonna say well you know, are you sure about the rest of your case? Are you sure about the grounds of the other people?
31:28	Mr Llamas	But only in relation to Levy not the others, as Christian said,
	CoP	The only way that that's, if you review the involvement of Levy and before we went through all this, and that is the part that we consulted, we were not going to take any step without knowing, and he's got my instructions to consult the DPP if he's happy that there is sufficient suspicion then we will consider, then we went through the questions of the, of how we went through the mechanics of the warrant. The question of body worn camera, thank goodness that we have the body worn camera, thank goodness. And so, we went through a couple of things. If now what we are saying is that there's a review of the level of suspicions that he has
	CoP	Then this is the difficulty we find.
	Mr Rocca	I will stand by the conversation that there was in my office where there was sufficient information to question to Jaime Levy. They're asking questions, of course they are.
	Mr Llamas	But Christian, the issue is, what Ian has said is that we all agree with that, we all agree that the interview should take place, is what signal is it sending out there that now it would be done without caution and whether that is going to be interpreted as the RGP realising it's made a mistake.
32:59	Supt Richardson	That would be huge. Absolutely huge. We've managed to convince a Judge, that the most senior lawyer, QC in Gibraltar and officer of the court is under reasonable grounds to suspect that he's been involved in a criminal conspiracy and that took one and three quarter hours. So, we managed to do that and now we're saying, well actually, and we've been threatened with legal action and the court has been told you've gross of miscarriage justice, erm mis carriage of justice, the Commissioner's acting unlawfully, and now were saying well actually we've thought about this again and were

	Mr Rocca	We're not saying that Paul. We're saying that if we now know, if we proceed down this line we will get nothing from Levy.
	Supt Richardson	In any case that we deal with a lawyer we're gonna come across the same position.
	CoP	Coming back to the typical interview with no comment, no comment interview. It could, if we have sufficient evidence to charge, we wouldn't need to interview, so if we don't meet the threshold of him having any charges sticking on him then we can't deal with it.
	Mr Llamas	When would you know that? After the interview?
	CoP	Of course. It would be with a no comment, but the devices would still need to be checked.
	Mr Rocca	Exactly, which doesn't deal with the issue of the devices.
34:15	Mr Llamas	The way you're' going to be challenged almost certainly.
	Supt Richardson	So, if we haven't addressed the elephants in the room, we went there with the power to execute a warrant; we negotiated not executing the warrant at his request repeatedly, and you'll see it from the body worn cameras, when that was agreed and he sat and read everything, he's now saying he was forced into doing it. The consent that we left Hassans premises with him, which was your IT guys going to deal with my IT guy and now were gonna hand this over to you because were willing to help has now been withdrawn and we've still got the warrant. Are we supposed to go back now and force the issue a second time? Because all that consent that's been said, then why didn't he just ask me and I would have handed it over? It doesn't exist anymore.
35:04	Mr Llamas	Hombre because, Paul, first of all they're going to argue and I think the Baglietto letter, it said that the warrant was used as a sword and therefore it was a threat.
	Supt Richardson	But that is absurd sir. When you read the transcript, that is absurd, that suggestion.
	Mr Llamas	That's one, And I just fear que he's not going to turn up on Monday.And then ....
35:50	CoP	I think, if we get to that stage, I think you have to beso that we all sleep well, because this may be keeping people a bit upsetting, you need to, both of you, need to dip into the real details of the evidence, real detail and get, and then if you feel that there isn't the, I mean I'm not doubting you've seen the package that we sent, and the rationale for it, but I'm asking you to action the detail of it, the full detail
	Supt Richardson	All the whatsapps.
	Mr Rocca	It's all in bag in the floor of my office

36:37	CoP	Because if it, it he wants to force the issue, I'm looking at it now from a state point of view, from the RGP point of view, if he is forcing the issue of having us having to go and feel his collar that we know that you know that this is justified.
36:58	Mr Llamas	Christian didn't think it is justified
	Mr Rocca	What?
	Mr Llamas	The, the caution, the search warrant,
	Mr Rocca	I thought it would have been far more practical (inaudible) to interview him, because, look I'll be
37:13	Supt Richardson	Chris, can I interrupt you there for just one second please? I understand that that's what you thought and I respect that position. Knowing now what has happened, you think it would have had any effect if I had gone there and said 'Mr Levy please give me your phone as we, the example we have there, we need to look at it as you're a suspect, he would never have handed it over
	Mr Rocca	Maybe not. The point I was going to make was look, do I think you will withstand legal challenge? I think you probably will, and I told Michael, I think you would. I think there are arguments to be had about the warrant and whether it was doubtful but I think at the end of the day it's a JR and I think it's it's been signed by the judge, and look, judgement calls were made. Look I think it may have been , I would have done it a different way, but I think lawfully you can justify that.
	CoP	This is what I mean to say, when you say you would have done it differently, knowing what you know, but when you see the things that Mark is coming up forward which is something that we would provide for you to argue the case that, its not only that he was a suspect, it was that we had already got notion that evidence had already been done away by a close suspect.
	Mr Rocca	By Sanchez, but the reality is, I always thought to myself, he's been investigated for a year,
38:24	Mr Llamas	Sincerely Ian, I.....
		(Inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	...he would not have come down...
	Mr Llamas	...he would have done...
38:43	Mr Llamas	I don't think Jaime Levy could have afforded not to give you a voluntarily interview.Its that I think it would have been madness for him not to do that.
	Mr Rocca	We may have said we need to get privileged information out, there may have been special interest material
39:03	Supt Richardson	That wouldn't have precluded the interview Chris .
39:07	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) It's been going on for a year, for me you are not going to find anything on his phone, that would have gone, if there was anything that would have gone. Now, if it's been deleted you will find that out anyway.

	Supt Richardson	We can only find out if we open the phone and process it
	Mr Rocca	So, the rush to go ex-parte I think is unfounded. That you felt it was right? Fine. We can defend that in court. I think it was wrong but look. That is a matter for me....
	Supt Richardson	...Let me stop you there because this is touching a nerve now. You know about the other case that we're dealing with the other lawyer? A lawyer that's involved with organised criminal groups of the highest standards in Europe, being accused of laundering million of pounds; that's an officer of the courts, that supports charities. Now I go to him now, and I don't apply for an ex-parte warrant?
	Mr Rocca	I think that is very different
		(inaudible)
40:05	Supt Richardson	Well, this evidence, is all about Levy's ethics. He is acting unethical, and he is acting unethical right up to the point of criminality so where do I say, this lawyer we're gonna go under ex parte, this one were gonna ask him please give me your devices, please give me the evidence against you and please answer questions?
		(inaudible)
40:30	Mr Rocca	Does Miles know your coming for him?
	Supt Richardson	I don't know.
	Mr Rocca	Levy does. Levy does. Levy's known for months.
		(inaudible)
40:36	Mr Rocca	Its chalk and cheese Paul. I think it doesn't work (inaudible). Of course you're gonna go ex parte. You've got drug traffickers, you've got....
		(inaudible)
40:48	Supt Richardson	Who does Miles work for? Veralls? Is it Veralls? We're not investigating Veralls, were investigating Miles, and in this case, were not investigating Hassans, were investigating Levy. Nobody's saying that Hassans has done anything wrong, and I accept your clarification that distincting one against the other is very very difficult but threre's no evidence that we've seen that suggests that anybody else in Hassans knew about what was happening other than him. And for me that's the same argument. He can't be compelled to hand over his personal device on a production order.
41:25	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) In fact Ian asked us yesterday, if I turned up would you hand it over. I actually would and Michael said the same thing actually. And Michael would as well. If I had something to hide, I probably wouldn't.

41:30	Mr Llamas	I'd have concerns on my personal communications
	Mr Rocca	Well exactly. But my point is that Miles is a very different issue.
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Well, let me put it in a different way because we've been considering this matter. If we had information that the Bishop of Gibraltar was involved in child pornography, high standing member of the community, would we go and ask him can we please see your computer? Can we please search the cathedral?
	Mr Rocca	Of course you wouldn't.
	Supt Richardson	So what's the difference?
	Mr Rocca	If he'd been (inaudible) in front of the clergy for the last year, and the gossip was it's all the clergy, the bishop, its everybody, the bishop would have deleted it a year ago, which is what Jaime would have done.
	Supt Richardson	Chris Chris sorry. You're assuming, 1, that he's computer savvy which he isn't, and 2, that he thinks that there is no likelihood, that there is some likelihood of us challenging this. Perez, Commanding Officer of the Gibraltar Regiment, writing Gibraltar's national security programme, he didn't delete his messages, it was all there, all, it's all laid out
42:42	Mr Rocca	Yeh but you've got (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Ah ok.
	Mr Rocca	Didn't you?
42:46	Supt Richardson	Yes
	Mr Rocca	But Jaime Levy has been on notice for a year.
	Supt Richardson	Yes. And there's been no communication since then.
	Mr Rocca	Look, we're debating an operational matter, that I would have done it differently like I've just said to Mark, I can understand why you've done it, would I have done it differently? Yes, I would have done. Is your position defensible in law? Yes, it probably is, because you swore an oath that that's what you generally believe and that is fine so I can defend your position, operationally I would have done it differently but you're a policeman and I'm not. Michael's not a police man, he's the Attorney General. We perhaps see things slightly different to a police man, doesn't make it right or wrong Paul
	Supt Richardson	So how do we get past this?
43:24	Mr Rocca	My worry is that it taints the whole... what I don't want it is for someone like Cornelio who's [redacted] in the national security system, and undermine, [redacted]

		[redacted] because Corenlio wants the business of Gaggero, that really touches me, honestly it does.
	Mr Llamas	Absolutely
43:44	Mr Rocca	And for him to walk because there is mud flying around about Richardson misfeasance about Wyan's misfeasance , about Rocca (inaudible)
	CoP	So, we come back to re-assessing the level of suspicion we have on him.
44:00	Mr Rocca	Look, I'm not gonna, I'm not gonna, my integrity is not gonna, I'm not gonna lower my standard of integrity, I'm not gonna do it, nor are you guys. The advice that I gave at the beginning was that, that I gave Paul and Mark, I'm not gonna back down on. He needs to be asked these questions because he needs to either answer the questions properly, and give a defence, but maybe we're not gonna achieve it under caution. And is that for you (inaudible)
44:23	Supt Richardson	But to achieve it not under caution serves no purpose.
	Mr Rocca	Well, not necessarily. Because you can convert to a caution.
	Supt Richardson	So hang on. He gives me a version of events, not under caution, and we have a load of information, its all full of bullshit and now I say, Jaime I'm sorry I need to remind you that you're under caution, would you say that again. I'm not saying anything
	Mr Rocca	Correct.
	Supt Richardson	What do I do now?
	Mr Rocca	I agree with you
	Supt Richardson	What do I do now? I've compromised everything.
	Mr Rocca	But it makes your position quite... it makes you understand your position quite clearly
	Supt Richardson	It makes me look like a fool.
	Mr Rocca	He's not gonna say something to incriminate himself.
	Mr Llamas	He's not an idiot
	CoP	I'd rather he says no comment.
	Supt Richardson	He's gonna be put in a position, where he's gonna give his version of events, which as you say, he's not gonna incriminate himself. We're gonna say, thank you for that, can you now answer this, because our evidence says the opposite, and before you answer that I need to caution you, because my evidence says that what you're saying is not true. I'm not answering that question. So I'm left with a version of events, that he will not give an account for

	Mr Llamas	Under caution
45:28	Supt Richardson	Under caution. How do I progress from there?
	Mr Rocca	I understand the problem. We're trying to come up with a solution. Jaime attends without us… without you having to arrest him.
	Supt Richardson	And we don't want that either. No one wants that.
		(inaudible)
	CoP	We want from, what he has said very loosely in his, which is under caution, he's already said that, so he has provided an account under caution, saying that, all he did was set these people up and he wasn't interested in what they wanted, it's just, look, that there was problems with the national security platform and I don't know how he knew, but he knew, and
	Mr Rocca	No because there's texts from (inaudible)
	CoP	No no no, this is the
		(inaudible)
46:18	CoP	That's it
	Mr Rocca	But he would have known [redacted] because he was told by Cornelio. I think Cornelio tells him
		(inaudible)
46:36	CoP	The collision what happened
	Supt Richardson	I understand (inaudible) you're putting me in an absolute impossible position because it undermines everything else
	Mr Rocca	Which is why I said we can come up with a wording where it says it doesn't undermine you or your actions
	Supt Richardson	No forget that. That's another thing. I think that's just absurd for to say now, you can throw all this shit, and we know its all bullshit
	CoP	For us to reel our necks back in and say ok
	Supt Richardson	As long as you won't go ahead with your shit which we know wont hold water we're gonna allow you to be treated differently from everybody else. We know you can't use anything you say against you. That is just absurd …
47:13	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) I think your arguments for non-disclosure (inaudible) it could redact things or even come up with a satisfactory version to the magistrates of saying don't have that over, and if you do hand it over (inaudible) I will defend you warrant. Do I think its unlawful that I don't. (inaudible)
	CoP	Yeh but you wouldn't be asked that question. It's not within your gift to say whether, you're not in a position to decide that.
		(inaudible)

47:47	CoP	It shouldn't even feature that (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Can we interview him at Hassans? We can cant we?
47:55	CoP	That can't be, because
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Well you see this is
	CoP	I was gonna say. Cant you just do it in his chambers?
	Mr Rocca	No. I thought about that
	CoP	Why not?
	Mr Rocca	Why not? Because interviews are required to be done in a police station and recorded. The woman Ochello who's supposed to have taken that child away to England, we looked if we could go it, because of Covid, under Skype or Facetime, and we couldn't do it.
	CoP	We've had interviews under caution done at hotels.
	Supt Richardson	That's probably before PACE, before the (inaudible)
48:30	Insp Wyan	I think there might be something. There might be something.
	Supt Richardson	There is a provision to bring a interview outside of an interview room, if the machine doesn't work or if the person refuses to leave cells you can take an interview to him.
	Insp Wyan	But I think there is something about, because I remember reading some laws about the UK doing it.
	Supt Richardson	Maybe if somebody is unable to travel or
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Look, Covid is a good angle to look at it because our interview room is confined and even if we agreed that it was only done in the station he's gonna say I can't attend, because of this that and the other. Covid is a, and perhaps a Board room is bigger.
	Supt Richardson	You mean use that as a
	Mr Rocca	That's not a bad idea actually. It might work. Would that work for Jaime? Under caution but in his office?
	Mr Llamas	I don't know.
49:29	Supt Richardson	It still has to be, in theory, with the consent of the Custody Sgt. And we can square that off.
	Mr Rocca	It's a fair point, because it is a small interview isn't it at the end of the day.
49:37	Supt Richardson	It does prejudice our investigation though because there's no opportunity to remote monitor an interview in anything other than a police station.

	Mr Rocca	You can't record it?
49:51	Supt Richardson	No, we could record it with portable equipment, but you cant remote monitor it, so the way these things work
	Mr Rocca	Yeh you watch it and someone comes (inaudible)
49:59	Supt Richardson	Mark for example who's running the interview will sit and go through these things, he's trying to keep about hundreds of volume of, well, twenty volumes of stuff that you've got there in his head and something will be said that he won't pick up on.
	Mr Rocca	This is why you can't remote monitor it by zoom or skype or something. That's why you can't do that. (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	No no there's nothing that stops it that from happening, its just
		(inaudible)
50:23	CoP	The logistics
	Supt Richardson	It's the logistics. It should be in the same place so that when you stop the interview.
	Mr Rocca	Well, you could be in a conference from next door
	Supt Richardson	Using their own wifi no?
50:36	Supt Richardson	That's what we would have to do to do a zoom conference
	CoP	You can do it with 4G?
50:44	Supt Richardson	Ok, well if that's a possibility, well work around
	Mr Llamas	I don't think it will
	Supt Richardson	It wont work either?
	Mr Llamas	No, because the issue here is the caution.
50:57	CoP	He, obviously, he genuinely believes, by the looks of it, he genuinely believes, or must genuinely believe that he's done nothing wrong.
	Mr Llamas	Yes. I think so
	CoP	Now, we have already disclosed. What about if we inch a bit further in what we should, could
51:13	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) disclosure. What if we did (inaudible) disclosure to all the partners in Hassans and let them know what they've been exposed to? Because he's saying that they all know what's happened. I'm sure that they haven't, they don't know what's happened. I don't because...
51:25	Mr Llamas	I (inaudible)
51:29	Supt Richardson	We're not interviewing them.
	Mr Llamas	I mean, let's not complicate this even more

	CoP	Paul, if we give more, is it in our interest that we give something? Yes. He wants to give it not under caution, its not acceptable to us so how can we lure him
	Supt Richardson	You mean. How can we change his position. How can we change his view that he thinks, in his mind, he has done nothing wrong. To do that will be to disclose the evidence which we rely on beforehand, which is why there's been such a concerted effort to obtain that evidence from the court or from us, or from anybody that's willing to give that information beforehand. Now, yes it would allow him to change his position if he genuinely believes he's done nothing wrong, but if he did something wrong, and knew about it, well then you're giving him all the grounds for our suspicion
52:18	CoP	Ok ok but we would put it to him and then if its not going to incriminate himself, he would say no comment, so we would get the same response
52:37	Supt Richardson	I've lost you completely there
52:41	CoP	If he's not going to incriminate himself, so once he knows the incriminating data, he's gonna offer an explanation, and not incriminate himself, because if he does, then we would question that incrimination
52:57	Supt Richardson	But that would have to be under caution
	CoP	Yeh yeh yeh, im just assuming that we give him more which is what he wants so that he knows where we are coming from.
	Supt Richardson	But we still arrive at the same position
53:07	CoP	And then if we have to, if he provides that answer after asking him more data, more pre-disclosure material, of where we are coming from, because it's in our interest to square this off, one way or the other, we give him that extra bit, unorthodoxly, because that's not what we normally do but it suits us, we give him that, he answers or not,
53:38	Mr Llamas	Invite him? Or in any interview?
	Supt Richardson	Let just, and I'm not trying to make this more complicated that it already is, I'm just trying to think about the consequences if we took that cause of action. Let's just assume the best case scenario that we disclose in advance of any interview, information that we wouldn't normally do, but were doing it, not because were worried about him, but were worried that we want to secure the prosecution of the others, so were willing to take a hit in the risks that that involves to get to this position. So we give him that and he gives an account and that account allows us to exclude him from any criminality. And then we ask him for a witness statement and he provides a witness statement for this. Is he gonna go and give evidence in court?

54:31	Supt Richardson	Wait wait wait, just think about where this is going. Cornelio and Sanchez will be the defendants there and they know what he's been exposed to because they sent the messages to him.
	CoP	Well, we'd have to subpoena him
54:43	Mr Rocca	It may well be that he gives us nothing of value as a witness. what I think
	Supt Richardson	Well if you're the defendant, would you not call him
	Mr Rocca	Paul, what I've read, for me, and I'm thinking someone who's been a lawyer in private practice for a number of years and people like Peter Isola and Jaime Levy and Abraham Levy, all these people have interest in many many different projects, they're entrepreneurs, apart from being lawyers, they are venture capitalists. Is Jaime gonna turn around and say I have 50 million business interests, I have investments everywhere, if someone said to me do I want a business interest, to potentially run these platforms, (inaudible) how much, yeh yeh , (inaudible) £100,000 in, as he does all the time, as Peter Isola does, (inaudible) does, do I micro manage what Mark Wyan does, Paul Richardson does, (inaudible) I do, do I know Cornelio (inaudible),
55:34	Supt Richardson	That's ok, until Cornelio tells you, I'm worried that they're gonna prove that I've been hacking the system, and you do nothing.
	Mr Rocca	The wording, I looked at that, the wording is not quite that. Jaime doesn't reply, except with don't worry. It doesn't mean he knows he's [redacted], Paul
	Supt Richardson	No no, I know it doesn't
	Mr Rocca	You have to ask him, and I accept that. Did you know that he was [redacted]? And he will say…
55;55	CoP	No, no, but did you know that the system was being hacked? That Tommy was, did you know that Tommy was concerned that the system was being hacked? And he would have to say yes
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Jaime knew that the system was [redacted], because Tommy was telling him and that somebody had been tampering with it he didn't say that I've been tampering, the word is tampering with the system.
	Mr Llamas	Who had been?
	CoP	Tommy Cornelio tells Jaime, I am worried that they are going to find out that I (inaudible) have been tampering, and that Jaime says, it doesn't mean to say that Jaime knows that he's the one that (inaudible). Tommy's worried that they are going to find out that the system has been tampered with, or they are going to suspect that I have tampered with the system, and Jaime says don't worry. Now that is a

56:47	Mr Rocca	It requires an explanation from Jaime
56:51	Mr Llamas	We all agree on that. We all agree. It's just this damned, suspect, caution thing. I understand the reasons why you've done it, that (inaudible) with Christian and we've, we wouldn't have done it that way, and then Ian, I was starting to like your idea of the written, you provide further information to him on why you want to
57:22	CoP	(inaudible) somehow or another to engage, get him engaged.
	Mr Llamas	Ok, so
	CoP	It's in our interest. If it wasn't in our interest look then, its either that or the other extreme
57:37	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
57:41	Mr Rocca	How are we going to relinquish Cornelio. Do we risk losing Cornelio, Sanchez and others because of... could this
	Supt Richardson	I think the risk is just as high if we don't.
57:59	Mr Rocca	The Cornelio criminality and the Sanchez criminality
		(inaudible)
	CoP	Mark, with respect, and I know, one second, with respect and I'm talking about in this case in particular. I'm taking hurdle after hurdle. Normally we look at, as police officers we feel satisfied that the investigation goes through the whole of the hoops including conviction and even sometimes sentence when you say well, he deserved that.Here , I'm not bothered about any of that. I, if best case scenario, as far as I am seeing it, as Commissioner now, best case scenario and that is, it would be (inaudible) success in the investigation, is if it got to court. If the case gets to court, against any of them, any of them,
	Mr Llamas	My view is
58:53	CoP	That for me is already
	Mr Llamas	A success
	CoP	My job is done.
58:59	Mr Llamas	And to take up the point (inaudible) it seems that we have a very strong case against Cornelio, and the other idiot. Ok Let'as focus on that . Levy has value as a witness for that and Levy if we don't handle well, has potential to spoil it in relation to those two. See, if that is where we are heading, and I'm talking pure tactics and practicality,why don't we focus on porque those two that we are fairly confident we've got them,and Levy, where it's going to be highly unlikely, it seems to me from my discussions with Christian and what I hear, that we are going to be able to have any successful challenge on. Use him as a witness,and use him and lets go and also have the potential of disruptive, because otherwise you prepare yourselves, start preparing everything, there will be QC's coming by the spades full.

1.00:12	Mr Rocca	That's what worries me. (inaudible) imagine if this (inaudible) everything Paul. We've got all these guys bailed for what? another year. No we cant.
	CoP	That is a risk but not, and I welcome the fact that you're consulting it with us, because in other days, in other years by, the AG, before the DPP existed, would have said, he would have been the one who calls the shots on whatever actions I suppose after charge, but I'm really really grateful that you're consulting this and getting our views. We want to come out good of this too, we don't want, because we have no concerns for not coming out good, and I tell them, it's a measure of (inaudible) the sleeping factor is good, whether you can sleep well at night with a clear conscience, that says it all. And I think were all in that, everybody. I'm worried that they can't carry on with what they're meant to be doing which is
	Mr Llamas	Wait, I'm starting to see this all more clearly now. And I think this is the key issue at a tactical level that we've got today. We have what seems to be a very strong case against Cornelio and, the other one, Sanchez, and possibly Perez. Levy is probably I think, not going to.
	Mr Rocca	Look, you can possibly charge him, but I don't think you're going to get a conviction.
1.01:48	Insp Wyan	The charging one is certainly in the balance.
1.01:54	CoP	This is really important . If the DPP puts that to me in writing that he feels, because we could dig our heels and say we are charging him, and he's not gonna prosecute, I'm not gonna charge, so if he is saying that Levy is, the likely chances are that Levy's not gonna secure, that we're not gonna secure a conviction, I'm not gonna charge Levy
	Supt Richardson	If it gets to that point, you have to explore those positions.
1.02:19	Mr Llamas	Exactly. And then,then that would be taken on its merit, and it seems, it's a possible scenario right,moreover it seemsthat it's going to be touch and gowith Levy. He's clearly not in the same position as the other three. Bringing him in furtheris going to be a war, I mean they're gonna be ten QC's from London in Court, and every single breath you take is going to be challenged, that is what they are already doing. Badly, wrongly,it doesn't matter . And then we lose the wood from the trees here.We have a strong case against these two, or these three.
1.03:04	CoP	No we, we discussed that, que he has the potential to be (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	He will.
	CoP	He has. He said it before coming over.
	Mr Llamas	Ian, he will ymoreover, where his involvement may be in the periphery,look , you shouldn't have done this or that,so what ? Let's focus on what we can get and it appears that we can get these two.

1.03:32	CoP	Ahora, how do we justify our activity
1.03:35	Supt Richardson	Sir, sir, before we go any further. Chris, are you satisfied as DPP that if Jaime Levy is a witness in this matter or refuses to give a statement, or refuses to testify in court, that it would not prejudice the prosecution about the ones that we have the strong evidence about, because I think what Fischel will say is he knew all about this, this is now a miscarriage of justice, because you have chosen to deal with him differently.
	Mr Rocca	Which is why I said to you, we ask him the question, we tick the box, you have satisfied yourself that his involvement in this and doesn't meet the threshold. If it does, you can't prove it, and then from that basis you wouldn't charge him.
1.04:17	CoP	Exactly
1.04:18	Supt Richardson	He's gonna have to come up with some very very good explanations.
	CoP	Maybe Paul he does. I'm hoping that he does.
	Mr Rocca	I'll tell you what I think he would say, Which is look I don't micro manage investments. (inaudible)
1.04:34		(inaudible)
1.04:45	Mr Rocca	Is he conspiring to defraud. We get that line of business ethics and conspiracy to defraud. We had a debate about it and I think we need more. I said to you, I think we need his version of events.
	Mr Llamas	I think there's a lot of support for the prosecution to continue in relation to Cornelio, Sanchez and possibly Perez. And I think it's going to be a highway. Bringing Levy in is going to convert it into a mountain range
	Mr Rocca	We had this debate in my office remember. I said if we look at how wide we cast the net,
1.05:28	Supt Richardson	Yeh yeh, but I just think we're undermining our own position. We've had all these accusations now, and now to change the suspect, change his status now after satisfying a court on oath about what we believe, how do we do that?
	Mr Rocca	And I would defend your position.
	Supt Richardson	But how do we do that? how do I look at Charlie Pitto in the face now and say I stood in your office for two hours (inaudible)
1.05:53	Mr Llamas	Again, I can only talk from a strategic point of view, because I'm not knowledgeable enough to speak on the criminal procedure. The answer to your question is because we took a tactical decision that
1.06:08		(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	In order to get Cornelio, Sanchez etc we needed to go down this road.

	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
	Mr Rocca	Or else we would get no one.
1.06:15	CoP	We can take this in slight changes and this is not gonna be resolved next week if.... if he provides us with, if we provide a bit more and he provides us with a statement, which may even expose for more questions to be asked, but we know that we're not gonna get anything, were gonna be criticised for not asking but we make the call there saying we are just gonna draw the line here.
1.06:46	Mr Rocca	A (inaudible) question at that stage. What do you do with the phone? Do you say to yourself (inaudible) a quarter of a million pounds on a (inaudible) and return it or do you go through. That's the call.
1.06:58	CoP	Right. I would hope that he also produces something in support of his account.
	Mr Llamas	Maybe that's a way of dealing with that.
	CoP	In which case if he satisfies us with that, I mean fine, if we are then thinking, as we did with Chipol, the only difference is the caution, no caution,
1.07:22	Insp Wyan	That's a problem. I suppose we could look at it from the point of view that if he gave us a witness statement, or a statement that was so useful to us, that it would be on interest to use him as a witness as opposed to a suspect
	CoP	The statement
1.07:	Supt Richardson	If this weekend he sends us a witness statement saying, I am aware that I am under the suspicion and that the police are carrying out an investigation in this matter, notwithstanding this, I have chosen to make the statement voluntarily of my own free will. And he sets out his (inaudible). And he sets out his (inaudible) incriminating Cornelio, Perez
1.08:00	Mr Llamas	Or not
	Supt Richardson	Well he's gonna have to do it. How can he say he knew what they were doing. He can either say I knew what they were doing and I was misled, or I didn't know what they were doing. And the thing is, he did know, I think, a lot of what they were doing.
1.08:15	Mr Llamas	So, Paul if he did that, say, on Sunday, or Monday morning,
	Supt Richardson	We wouldn't carry out the interview. Well, we could, and we should, but we could delay carrying out any interview until we considered the content of that. If it was sufficiently robust, we could discuss it with Chris,
	Mr Llamas	Well, lets combine the various options that we have. He could, out of the blue, send you a witness statement by ten o'clock on Monday, what time's the interview?

1.08:42	Supt Richardson	Ten o'clock on Monday
	Mr Llamas	By 9 o'clock, latest on Monday, preferably by Sunday.
1.08:47	Insp Wyan	That wouldn't be a witness statement. It would be from one of the lawyers effectively setting out his position (inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	A written statement as opposed to a witness.
1.09:01	Supt Richardson	You mean, for Baglietto to say, my client says this, my client's version of events are
	Insp Wyan	We could look at it and say, right where does that leave us
	Supt Richardson	I think that takes us a bit further down the line.
	Mr Rocca	We can't stop him doing that.
	Supt Richardson	No, we can't stop him doing it, but to have effect its gonna have to be sufficiently robust, for us to say, hang on there's something in this.
	Mr Llamas	Wait, let's not jump steps. So what would he produce over the weekend, witness statement or a written statement unofficial?
	Supt Richardson	Sorry Mark. I think it would be really helpful if he says, this is my statement. I have considered the matter which you have brought to my notice and this is what I have to say. In whatever format that
	Mr Llamas	Signed James Levy. A statement. A letter
1.09:47	Insp Wyan	Well, if that's the case, we send him a template of the forms etc and he signs at the bottom of the form.
	CoP	No, no, no ,that can be done afterwards. The same as Darren Grech, he sent me.....
		(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	Hold on, hold on guys. Lets carry on. He sends you a statement. You then reply to him saying in view of the statement we shall delay the interview
	CoP	Postpone.
	Mr Rocca	To consider the matter in your statement.
	Mr Llamas	Then,
	Mr Rocca	He may be able to append documents.
1.10:27	CoP	That would be very helpful.
	Insp Wyan	That would be essential
	CoP	Yes. Supporting documents.
	Supt Richardson	The file for 36 North, the money that they've lent them, the investment

		Hold on. Then, you consider the statement, and then what happens next?
	CoP	We evaluate whether it is, like Paul says, robust enough where we think, ok we're happy with what he has given us - he's a witness.
1.10:57	Insp Wyan	His value as a witness (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	That I would be happy with.
	Mr Llamas	Exactly.
	CoP	Whether he goes to court or not,
		(inaudible)
1.11:13	Supt Richardson	But all that other shit has got to go away.
	Mr Llamas	What has to go away?
	Supt Richardson	The six letters a day, the exocets flying across
	CoP	The Gaza strip
	Mr Rocca	West bank
1.11:28	Insp Wyan	But it has to be sufficient in evidence so that when the others go to court, that
		(inaudible)
1.11:33	Mr Llamas	Yeh but Mark, I think were onto a way of dealing with this now. Even if what you get on Sunday or Mondays is not enough, he could say I will supplement this with further documents, or you could write back to him, saying thank you very much for this, supplement this this and that with documents.
	Insp Wyan	Yes we could do that
1.11:55	Mr Llamas	You could enter a dialogue which is not under caution, which is not (inaudible) to a search warrant, even though its alive, you haven't removed it
	CoP	The only issue is if he doesn't co-operate with that.
	Mr Llamas	I think he will
	CoP	Ok . Ok so what we don't lose is, Mark you articulated it well, that its in our interest to have him on side, that (inaudible)
	Insp Wyan	Exactly, it's a balance.
	CoP	That is a tactical decision that we take. We consult, you say yes. As a team, as a team Chris.
	Mr Llamas	And you focus on....
	Mr Rocca	We're all on the same side here. We're all trying to protect injustice, balancing getting Cornelio, keeping the police force healthy and not coming into disputes. If the shit sticks, (inaudible)

	Supt Richardson	Let's be honest, if the shit starts flying around with this, and what we know here becomes public, the reputation of the police has nothing to worry about compared to the reputation of Hassans.
1..13:00	Mr Rocca	Everybody loses Paul. Everybody loses.
113:02	CoP	No, that what I mean to say is
	Mr Rocca	For me, after having read everything, the real bad people here, this is the idea of Sanchez, Cornelio, Perez, they've approached Jaime Levy because Jaime Levy has got contact with the Chief Minister
		(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	That's the way I would have read everything if I was a
		(inaudible)
1.13:25	Mr Rocca	I can arrange contact with the Chief Minister (inaudible) yet he says it (inaudible) in December I think.
	Supt Richardson	No, its in March, and in April he says yes he will.
	Mr Rocca	And I think the proof is almost in the (inaudible), and I was saying to Michael, they actually don't get the bloody contract.
	Supt Richardson	But the irony of all this is 36 North is supplying scanners through public expense now. The same firm
	Mr Rocca	JBS no?
	CoP	JBS, AquaGib,
	Mr Rocca	Yeh but not Government.
1.13:55	CoP	JBS is government.
	Mr Llamas	What was that Paul?
	Supt Richardson	36 North, the same firm that were talking about, are supplying scanners from our public expense.
1.14:10	CoP	Well , though GJBS, Aquagib, they don't know, they don't
	Mr Rocca	No they don't know. That's the position I suppose. And they are government.
	Supt Richardson	Somehow he knows
	Mr Llamas	Leave that with me.
	Mr Llamas	If we can go down this route…..
	Supt Richardson	Sorry sir, but this is an important point and I'm (inaudible) you've said that, but do you know what that means to the police officers that are investigating, that see a tweet from 36 north supplying

	Mr Llamas	You don't have to tell me
1.14:36	Mr Rocca	But its that its (inaudible)
		(inaudible)
1.14:45	Mr Llamas	The only thing I want because now, one is involved in all of this, that we clarify all of this, I don't have the full… because I feel very strongly I don't know, because now I don't know whether I know little or too much, But I now know more so that other things that need to be happening need to happen in relation to three individuals we are talking about, need to happen. As you know there is a serious data protection breach which is a very serious one (inaudible). There's the question of the ownership of the damn platform which I'm desperate to sort out as well as soon a possible, which is why I came in originally if you remember correctly. So then let's get on, let's get on without this becoming a complete earthquake, which will affect the prosecution of the guys who are almost certainly guilty of criminal (inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	Fischel piggy back on this. Fischel will piggy back on this big time, because I would.
1.15.55	Supt Richardson	How do you know?
	Mr Rocca	If this kicks off we'll have court proceedings here for the next six months to twelve months.
		(inaudible) and nothing to do with the….
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible) we are not in a position to charge until we resolve all the outstanding issues, surely
	Supt Richardson	We actually discussed….our position was, we are in a position to charge.
	Mr Rocca	(inaudible)…the charge of conspiracy, you have to name the conspirators.
	CoP	Exactly
	Suot Richardson	We could proceed without Levy
		You could proceed without Levy, exactly you could
	Supt Richardson	But it would be messy, it would get very messy.
	Mr Llamas	We'll park that until we get there.
	Mr Rocca	Well, exactly.
	Mr Llamas	But let's sort this out and carry on
	CoP	I'll come back to the serious allegations and all that and the reservation of rights to…
	Mr Llamas	My advice, if this happens, I would, Christian and I would write very curt replies; we don't agree with anything that you're saying on a without prejudice basis; we are not proceeding with this…this is no longer relevant…but just for the record, we disagree

	CoP	Because the bottom line is that the evidence eventually is there . If they want to bring it on…
1.17.25	Mr Rocca	if you want to judicially review, fine, judicially review the decision of the Magistrate. If you insist in the disclosure of this information, we will file a notice, we've got 14 days to file notice to the Magistrate
	Supt Richardson	I had got the impression that Maurice had accepted as notice but wanted the clarification on whether…
	Mr Rocca	Yeah, Maurice was saying……we rejected
		inaudible
	Mr Rocca	At least 14 days in which to file notice of an objection. Once its received the court will determine if a hearing is required.
		inaudible
1.17.56	Mr Rocca	But I hope this will defuse all of that.
	Mr Llamas	I think it will, I think this defuses everything. There's only one thing we need to address….is what happens to the phone during this period?
	Supt Richardson	It will remain sealed. It can remain sealed
	CoP	They are in my safe, in the office safe
	Mr Llamas	In your safe?
	CoP	I am the only keyholder
	Mr Llamas	And that's not affecting Jaime Levy from (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	He took 6 hours to copy it before handing it over.
	Cop	And I am asking myself, well, what if he's got his phone cloned now…I am asking because if there wasn't any merit in retaining it and already has it cloned (inaudible), he got his phone cloned,he can do whatever he wants. He can carry on operating with it. What that means is that when the examiner picks this phone up, its not going to be anywhere the same it was meant to be when it was first put in that bag, in terms of, because everything happens in the cloudand one thing or another y una, its gonna to look bad that there are deletions.
	Mr Rocca	Can he?
	Supt Richardson	No, he can't delete something from a phone that is not connected to it. The situation you've described is that his copy of the phone would have different information on it from our copy of the phone and that would just show criminality.

1.19.19	Mr Rocca	He's not stupid enough to do that (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	Or you gets his knickers in a twist and insists on getting the phone back
	Mr Rocca	Because we didn't go down the inter-parte procedure which you would explore how you dealt with....I remember Tom did with Marrache. I think Sharon Peralta looked at...
	CoP	Errr, she started looking at it, no, with somebody else, there were two counsels
	Mr Rocca	.....legally privileged material. What I do not want to end up is in a position we ended up with Wood and Robinson, where we fucked up because of disclosure...and we lost everything on that because frankly would've (inaudible) in prison. Whichever way you look at it.
	CoP	Can we re-cap?
	Mr Llamas	Yes, this is how I understand the position
	CoP	Mark, are you making notes?
	Insp Wyan	Yes Sir
	Mr Llamas	I will call Louis Baglietto, okay? Stop me if I am saying something
	Supt Richardson	Let's not make notes until we've agreed this, it might be the sensible thing.
	Mr Llamas	Somebody is going to call Louis Baglietto and is going tell him, mira, we reserve , or the RGP, our position..... a litany of (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	But doing what Chris said, that we believe our actions were lawful and if you don't agree with us
	Mr Llamas	Whatever....We reserve the RGP's position.....and therefore, no se, ...are they going be formally asked to do a witness statement or if the
	Mr Rocca	Volunteer
	Supt Richardson	I don't think you should ask, not in the letter anyway, It has to be asked but not asked.
	Mr Llamas	Can I pick up the phone and tell Louis Baglietto,look, Louis, I have met with Commissioner and the team, you can send a witness statement to the RGP, a statement...
	CoP	That provides them with sufficient data to....
		....seriously
		Seriously, a detailed account
		To assess your involvement....

	Mr Llamas	They will then postpone the meeting, the interview on Monday. They will review it, they may come back to you with….
	CoP	Some subsidiary questions
	Mr Llamas	With subsidiary questions…they may even provide you further elements of….
	CoP	Or direct you where they want….
	Mr Llamas	Or direct you, exactly, all of that… They will then come to a conclusion on Jaime Levy. And they will decide what they decide, but one possible outcome may be that the RGP, looking at the whole of the case, and the strategy of the case, and balancing all interests, may decide that Jaime Levy has more value to this investigation or prosecution as a witness than as a suspect
	Mr Rocca	Without giving guarantees.
	Mr Llamas	Without giving guarantees obviously
1.22.50	Supt Richardson	If Louis is willing to accept that, it takes us beyond Monday, it takes us beyond the issue of the phone…it takes us to finding out what his account is and with a lot of luck and good will, we might end up with a plausible account, which at least….
	CoP	Which is what we've been after all the time
1.21.20	Mr Rocca	Which is where I think we are going to get to and on that basis it may turn around and you don't go through the whole palava of the telephone
		(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	The first thing you need to tell yourself is actually, you know what boss, (inaudible) he has more value as a witness, lets treat him as a witness. That is where you, and we can't interfere with your decision. Operationally, if he gave you enough in the statement for you to say, I will get, it will help me get Cornelio and Sanchez and the other one
	CoP	I don't care, if they fight amongst themselves . If Jaime says, I didn't know anything or they have conned me, frankly , whether its true or not, that he wants to hold his own, its up to them .
	Supt Richardson	He set that argument out too, that he'd be deceived, to me ….
	CoP	So be it, whether its true or not
	Supt Richardson	That's what he told me
	Mr Llamas	What? On the business case or…
	Supt Richardson	He didn.t go into too much detail. Just said these people had let me down,….. I've lost half a million or a quarter of a million to these people
	Mr Llamas	How much?

	Supt Richardson	Quarter of a million to half a million apparently
	CoP	He's been let down apparently
		(inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	What happens to the phone during all the exchanges
	Supt Richardson	It remains sealed
	CoP	It stays where it is under lock and key
	Mr Llamas	It stays with you?
	CoP	I am the only key holder
	Mr Llamas	And you've already said in this letter that it will remain sealed all the time
	Supt Richardson	For seven days
	CoP	Seven days
	Mr Rocca	We can extend that
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) ...we still haven't got the emails, he can provide that with his account.
	CoP	Supporting documentation
	Mr Llamas	Okay chaps, I think that's worth a try. Ian I'll call you later.
	Supt Richardson	I think it's the best shot as well Sir.
	CoP	There's more to clear up after this. The part that we've done our job correctly (inaudible)
1.25.22	Mr Llamas	Yes, yes, don't worry about that. Certainly that you feel very strongly, that you're very clear that you've done everything properly and that you, ... this, if it works and we're all hoping that it does, is without prejudice to your position in reply to all (inaudible)
	CoP	Because they will say, why didn't....inaudible
	Mr Rocca	Because you didn't have a written statement
	Supt Richardson	We didn't ask for one either
	CoP	If he's known that we were after...that this day was going to come... as an officer of the court, you this is coming, you come forward and give....
1.26.38	Supt Richardson	Exactly, you make a really really valid point which he should clarify in the statement he's going to volunteer at the weekend hopefully. He was put on notice by Cornelio, way back in, I think, October 2018. That Cornelio was telling him I'm worried that the forensic experts are going to prove that I've done something to hack the system and to compromise it. Now, he may not have known about it at the time...I suspect that he didn't know about that. But he knows now. Fischel has been writing to him. He knows what the allegations are; he knows that Caine Sanchez has been arrested, he knows that its all…he's done nothing to say, look, I'm an officer of the court, I've had nothing to do with this; here is my version of events.

	Mr Llamas	Well look (inaudible)
	CoP	But that they say why didn't we do….(inaudible)
	Mr Rocca	That is inference Paul
	Supt Richardson	Its more than an inference
	Mr Rocca	I don't see that clearly, I never have. There are questions that need to be asked. The inferences that you have drawn are not the inferences that I am drawing…..(inaudible) …..perhaps its because you are a policeman and I am not.
	Supt Richardson	Maybe I have got the sequence of events clear in my mind. There are certain statements that were made that can only make sense if you knew something had happened before.
		(Inaudible)
	Mr Llamas	I'll call you later, I'll call you later. I think to be clear with this scenario, the search warrant remains, it sits there on hold, on in the back ground or whatever you want to call it and we go through this process,and let's see where it takes us.
		(Inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	I think you've got to do that before or else you agree to do something….(inaudible)
1.28.29	Mr Llamas	I agree with Paul, and we should do that on Monday. Be that once you receive the statement. i.e. In view of the statement we have received from Mr Levy, we are putting on hold our replies to all your letters…without prejudice of the fact that we are firm in our conviction
	CoP	…(inaudible) trawl through the detail of it..
	Mr Llamas	That is as long as ….. I assume from them….
	Mr Rocca	And we don't deal with the Magistrates Couurt yet. We have 14 days to file…
	Mr Llamas	Bueno, this would take over everything.
	Mr Rocca	We get them to withdraw the application for….on the basis that they are cooperating
	Supt Richardson	Yes, that would be important, because if they purport to be helping us now, and we are taking that view, and at the same time, in the background, they are saying, now give me all the evidence of which we are suspected about…they get access…
	Mr Llamas	I think the way out of that Paul, is I may tell them, look, you've got to (inaudible) a very serious (inaudible) statement setting out the things. The RGP may then come back with proper questions and indeed, something you've mentioned, may provide you with further information that they have and specifically ask you which will deal with that point…

	CoP	Direct you…by then…we will have known
		(Inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	I can't pretend that we don't know about something if they know about it and they lie to me.
	Mr Llamas	I agree with that
	Mr Rocca	Worst case scenario we can agree to give them some redacted, ….(inaudible) the nature of the investigation.
	CoP	Because we will know where he is coming from….(inaudible) …we have it difficult…..(inaudible)I'm sorry it makes you look even worse.
	Mr Llamas	Ian, keep you phone on
	CoP	Oh yes, my phone is always on.
	Mr Llamas	Mark, how's it going? Are you going to leave these people and join us?
	Insp Wyan	(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	And got to the dark side
	CoP	You know, that I said that, that if he was a mechanical engineer, or a marketing consultant, or whatever…go to the greener pastures, don't go to law…..I'm sorry that is why I'm a policeman.
		(inaudible and laughs)
	CoP	You are used to this ….this is not part of our drill.
	Mr Rocca	Good to see you guys
		(inaudible)

		Greetings with AG's PA
		Morning greetings with DPP and AG
01:42	CoP	The saga continues.
	AG	Christian and I were just discussing, erm, how to reply and what we recommend that you reply and we haven't finished our thinking but we are on the same line at least of a, a succinct reply, taking issue with a numbers of statements that they make, but that we've started a process to be erm acting in a cooperative, or whatever language we use, we should let that process conclude and then we will talk or in the meantime we will reply (inaudible), por que si empezamos a meternos aqui ya, en rebutting things that they say entonces everything that we a re trying to do would be, would be undermined, no Christian?
	DPP	Yeah, I got two hats here unfortunately, one is my worry is not being robust if we get to court and us getting (inaudible) but I am very conscious of
	AG	But doesn't a statement to the effect of, we take issue with a number, or even with many of the statements that you make in the letter. By saying something like that, even protects his position….
	CoP	That was my question, the challenge of the warrant which is at the hub of this all….
03:23	DPP	My view is to give them a little bit of a smack…tempered, but a little of errr, saying tranquilo leon, tread carefully, you know. I think there's got to be a bit of gentle gentle…..
	CoP	What they are doing is turning it on its head, that now, that obviously we're not regarding you as a suspect, and that is not necessarily the case.
	DPP	Not necessarily the case
	AG	I agree. I think that's probably the worst comment…
	CoP	Yeah, so what they are saying, that , that we've agreed, and it was an unsolicited account that we were requesting, because that is the understanding; that they were going to provide that, which could or could not clarify a lot of the matters…
	AG	That is one thing we need to make clear in this reply…that was never suggested by anyone.
	Supt Richardson	They've really turned that on its head…from your conversation with him…to turning round to the commissioner and say, now, the Attorney General has informed me that you have agreed to treat him as a witness. I mean that is….

	AG	…All I've told them is that …Ian has agreed, the RGP has agreed, to try a written statement. That's all I've told them.
04:47	Supt Richardson	And they've really turned that around
	AG	Yes, I agree. For me that's the most serious issue in the letter, and that we've got to make clear. Eso esta claro
	CoP	Which then brings all the other allegations….and I agree, perhaps, if you want to say, we'll deal with them….
	AG	…we strongly take issue. My concern, again, Christian and I feel a bit uncomfortable in this role, pero we are where we are…is we've tried to put in place a procedure….
	CoP	We've bent over, which we would not have normally done…
	AG	Which would errr… maybe, maybe leads us to a good place…we don't know. We've said, let's give it a try. Y ya esta, eso es todo lo que se a hecho aqui. Why they feel the need to make the assertions at this stage when this hasn't even started, I imagine, they must be drafting the statement now.
05:59	DPP	They are preparing an abuse (inaudible) ….under caution. They are preparing an abuse.
	CoP	And that is what worries me
	DPP	(inaudible)…I think they'd struggle. In law I think they are having difficulty. And therefore what they are trying to do is pick, pick and say yes, yes, yes ….abuse
	CoP	Knock the procedure
	DPP	Exactly
	CoP	And that's my concern too, because, erm, even if they did provide the statement…we would then have to perhaps follow up…
	AG	The view I've taken, with my limited knowledge in this area of the law, is that for so long that that is alive, its alive, you've just parked it for now. Que es el punto ultimo…when they say…erm, that I would therefore be grateful that you will confirm that you will not interview under caution, at a later stage…
	DPP	Es que, es que, they are pick and choosing the bits of the law which, for example, the public interest, the PII application, the PII matter, the interference with the investigation is encapsulated in PII. So, the fact that they are saying that, if we disclose this, it might interfere with the investigation, its not in the public interest to do so. So that ground is caught by the PII. Entonce you know, I think, respond to that, I think we…. Look, thank you for your letter. We are considering providing you with a redacted version to assist – we've done that
	CoP	…we haven't done that…
	DPP	…well Paul and I, we're going to sit down probably tomorrow or this afternoon we can do it…

	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) …is talking about is the information that was laid before the magistrates court. And see whether we can extract from that something which we will not prejudice our case, but having said that, since we talked about that…we've given them so much…(inaudible) other than leeks and potatoes and what its all based on.
08:10	DPP	We can do that exercise…they've had pretty much disclosed everything. Here is a redact…we are considering providing you a redacted version of what was produced to the Magistrate which will enable you to make your own decisions and come to your own conclusions. That defuses that paragraph, I think, we say, we note that your allegations or suggestions about PII. We reserve that position to be argued in court. Our view is that we'll ensure the interference of the investigation is encapsulated in that ground y punto. I wouldn't give 21 days, I think that's weak. I would agree to a give further 7.
	AG	For the statement?
	DPP	No, for the 21 days of assurance, we say no, we call the shots here, 7 days of what you're going to get.
	AG	Yes but hang on…for them that is a massive issue, the, the phone. Entonce, I think if we have embarked on this written statement procedure, I think it makes sense…
	CoP	..to run parallel
	AG	…or at least to wait for the outcome of that. Ya come le vee, el written statement procedure, they are going to submit something to you…
	CoP	Backed perhaps with emails or whatever…
	AG	…whatever. It is likely that you will want to ask further questions. It seems to me, I think that we would be truly optimistic that the first statement is going to …
	CoP	…be too complete
	AG	So I envisage a second round of questions to which they have to reply and then I think you want to draw the line there.
	Supt Richardson	I think Sir, the danger we have got with that is way we came up with this suggestion was that they would offer an explanation when we are asking him to come in for interview and the fact that they'd offered it, we would then consider it. If we then go back with questions, we are conducting an interview, albeit remotely. We are asking new questions that should be put under caution. So I think we have gone beyond that line. What we've done with Fischel, when he has, when we've interviewed his clients, on a couple of occasions, they've gone away and months later they have produced allegations against Gaggero and allegations against other people. But we haven't asked them for questions to clarify this. We are saying we need to interview you, we need to interview you we have finished our investigation. That depends of the output of this. I think we will cross the line if when we get that initial…which was supposed to be an unsolicited account, we will then decide to ask questions on it, because then we are caught by PACE. We are asking questions of somebody who is suspected of being involved in an offence and has to be under caution. I don't know what your views are on that Chris. I'd like to see the Codes of Practice just to make sure…

11:09	DPP	….tentatively, I thinks its right. We'll come to that, lets get the letter slowly. Okay, so I didn't mean to get a little bit (inaudible)…14 days? Just so they come back with something – we're calling the shots here. It come across a bit more…14 days subject to further review, if matters are progressing.
	Supt Richardson	Does 14 days take us up to the expiration of the warrant? Because this what they might be pushing. If we take it beyond that, the 21 days, then what do we do? We then go back to court and say can we have another warrant because Hassans agreed to give us stuff but they haven't and now(inaudible)
	DPP	We'll come to that, because I've actually got a note here that I've prepared saying, you're failing to deal with the voluntary disclosure issue – they've not responded to that. Its all being based…they are fighting the battle on the grounds they are wanting to, but they're ignoring the very important question which is (inaudible)…with the warrant, you gave it voluntarily, and therefore all this is smoke and mirrors (inaudible)….and we are not dealing with that. (inaudible)..
	CoP	…I am putting the question, are they withdrawing consent?
	DPP	…well exactly, in which case we would have to consider exercising the warrant (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	I think they have made it clear that they have withdrawn consent because of their actions that they wanted to take.
12:24	DPP	They've not said it it in black upon white Paul. We need to…I think we need to push back a little bit, in my view, so they realise we are not a soft touch and if we have to defend that position in court, on judicial review or abuse of process, or whatever, we are quite firm, ermm, I don't want to get rail roaded and ……
	CoP	The 3rd paragraph referring to you advising on the warrant…
	AG	(inaudible)
	CoP	…Paul absolutely denies that
	DPP	Its irrelevant
	CoP	No Paul?
	Supt Richardson	What's that?
	CoP	The DPP did not advise you or rather or rather that you said that the DPP had advised.
	Supt Richardson	No, the DPP didn't advise. We discussed this last time.
	DPP	These are not matters for the DPP, these are matters for the RGP and their operational functions…
	Supt Richardson	I think if push came to shove, and I hope that it doesn't, I think we all agreed that on the examination of the evidence, that Jaime's status at this moment in time is a suspect, but we a re willing to reconsider that position depending on what he says, but he won't say anything, so how do we move from this position forward?

13:24	AG	Well, hopefully with the witness statement.
	Supt Richardson	Yes
	DPP	(inaudible) … the DPP irrelevant….operational issues. They then say the seized material cannot be examined until the court has ruled on the propriety of (inaudible) of disclosure that, that's just wrong…we have on the face of it a valid lawful warrant (audible) …with evidence seized…..and as soon as Ian's undertaking expires (inaudible) …he can open it if he wants to.
	Supt Richardson	That leaves us exposed with regards to the corporate records and emails from Hassans. We left there on the understanding that they would give to us in one or two days (inaudible)
	DPP	We refer back to the voluntary (inaudible) cooperation. Because I think that if they do, we will have to, …..(inaudible) to execute the warrant
	Supt Richardson	Maybe, the letter if it had a line that we reserve out rights to revisit that we execute this warrant within the 30 days. We need to resolve this before that…because at the moment…it ius taken us beyond the 30 days.
	CoP	Next 30 days no, before the 7th June.
	Supt Richardson	Yes, it would be wrong for us, I think, to go before the court and say, we need to obtain a warrant again. The first thing they'll do is ask why haven't you executed it?
	DPP	Yeah, yeah (inaudible)
		(Inaudible)
	DPP	…we have given the the opportunity (inaudible)…but its their choice…as has been done by others in the past.
	AG	Como Paul started saying that maybe we should add then that we're keeping an open mind on this until this…
	Supt Richardson	Which we'll always do
	DPP	That's the flavour of the letter that we need to send back, de pegarle un poquito pero…
	Supt Richardson	I think there are also, we talked about some issues in this letter which were wrong in law…there were issues in the other ones which were wrong in law. They said the only way we could proceed with this was by production order; now that's, that's wrong. I'm conscious that we've let these slide, those allegations slide, because we're hoping to deal with this in a (inaudible)
	CoP	What are they thinking? I mean these are just tactics again…what are they thinking? Have we got them on the ropes?
	AG	Yo, mira, I've spoken to Lewis Baglietto as you know and err, my impression was, my impression is, that they welcome this written statement, but that there are, they consider there are issues that need to be dealt with, at the same time, como este in this letter. And my advice, if I can use the word advice, even though it is not advice, es , is what I have told him, is look, its taken Christian and me quite a bit of persuasion of the RGP to go down this path, vamos dejarnos, lets go down this process of the written statement. And for me in my mind, and correct me if legally this is wrong, all we are doing here is we are putting on hold the procedure that you started to allow this written statement to come in, and once it comes in then you will assess…and I imagine that you will tell yourself, bueno there's nothing here that really helps us…

	CoP	Or its substantive enough to change his status
	AG	…or, exactly, y entonces you decide whether to unfreeze or let it freeze forever. Ahora si nos meten estos canonazos in that process…, for the sake of transparency I will speak to Lewis and tell him, mira, its not for me to advice you if you felt you had reasons to send a letter such as this one…ya buscare algo para (inaudible)
17:39	CoP	What they are doing is practically leading us back to the path that we agreed we were going to stop. They are forcing the arm. Por eso digo yo, may be they think that they have got us on the ropes.
	AG	I don't think so.
	DPP	Tell me if I'm wrong guys, legally, the written statement….(inaudible) but its not under caution. If we then caution, can we use this statement we can't, but you're saying we can?
	CoP	We can put it into the interview and convert (inaudible)
	DPP	It can be used in evidence
18:14	CoP	The question that you're asking (inaudible)
	DPP	It would be potentially admissible against him, is what he says, that's not the law…
	CoP	Pero, if he makes an unsolicited statement, of course it can.
	DI Wyan	Its not under caution at the minute, this is just…
	Supt Richardson	The thing is, we cautioned straight from what we intended to do which is the danger. We have been clear; we suspect that you have been involved in a criminal offence to such an extent that we obtained the warrant. The warrant, the exercising of the warrant was delayed because we have a requirement to obtain the evidence by consent and you insisted in handing it over by consent over a period of several hours. We left in the belief that we were dealing with consent. Then we started off with the attack and allegations that came with that and the consent seems to have been withdrawn. To move beyond that point we agreed that if he offered us a statement we would, not park what we are doing, that is a dangerous concept, that is like saying we're not going to treat you as a suspect, because I would ask questions of somebody I have to comply with CPE.
	CoP	And the reason why accept that written account was because we'd rather have that…
	DPP	…than nothing…no comment interview
	CoP	Precisely
		(inaudible)
	CoP	And therefore it is an opportunity for him to clear something which could be cleared up, or not. But we wanted , that was the essence of it....

	Supt Richardson	Because a no comment interview would really tie your hands, because you can always evidence saying this has happened. A profession to say I am going to help you as much as I can, but when it come s to it I am not going to answer any questions, what do we do, we ignore? We are trying to move forward with this. What we can't say, that, the fact that whatever he says can't be used against him. It has to be under caution, or its an unsolicited request, which is, look, I don't care what you say, this is what we've got to say, use it as your will. But to give that protection that we won't use it becomes absurd. Because, I'll give you an account, I'll look at it and say it doesn't many sense, put it to in interview, you say nothing and then we've got nothing to use. How do I use that against him?
20:22	DPP	I think, just reply to paragraph 7, Mr Levy has and continues to be a person under suspicion. He was given an opportunity to write a statement voluntarily...
	CoP	...An unsolicited statement...
	DPP	...an unsolicited statement, voluntarily, which we understand he's agreed to do, erm, it's a matter for you to advise your client on the effect of that statement. We are not going to deal with guarantees or insurances (inaudible) you advise you client. I think, no?
	AG	(inaudible)
	DPP	...matters for you to advise your client
	CoP	That succinctly put, like the AG wants, but, he had an issue with my letter where he though that I was sending the wrong message that the interview would be not under caution, but they've picked it up, it was because they are referring to any subsequent interview being under caution. So they will read between the lines, so that is good, balanced against saying, erm, that the position on status has not shifted in accordance with the disclosure package that we gave you. That these are matters that suggest...
	DPP	...(inaudible) it's the tail wagging the dog, but at the end of the day Lewis, with respect, you're not here to wag the dog, we're the dog. We've been as reasonable and practical as we possibly can, but don't start wagging the dog. I think that he has to (inaudible) to Lewis. You can't come here telling the Police (inaudible), esta bien, you want to withdraw it, that's for Jaime to tell Lewis. That's what we're facing.
	Supt Richardson	And that's what everyone is trying to avoid
	DPP	Lewis needs to understand, if he pushes them up against a wall, they're going to turn round and say look (inaudible) I'm arresting you.
	CoP	That's what I'm trying to say, they are actually forcing us back to the point where we didn't want to go. Obviously they don't want to do an interview under caution, but maybe its time they reconsider and come in.
022:25	DPP	They want a guarantee and we can't give that guarantee Michael.
	AG	Hombre, I think that the whole point of the written statement is for the RGP to assess at that moment whether its necessary or not..

	CoP	Hablando aqui, we are all hopeful for the reasons that we all know, the whole periphery, that that account is as substantive as it can be…
	AG	…and that you don't need to…
	CoP	That
	AG	Es no se puede decir
	CoP	Tampoco vamos a decir hopefully, no le vamos a decir hopefully. Por que the same we would have to tell them others, hopefully if you give an account you're (inaudible)
	AG	Yo creo Christian, based on what Ian has just said and I am totally in that page. By all means, we should…are you going to prepare a draft for Ian?
23:15	DPP	Happy to do so.
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	And I think we have to address some of the…
	AG	…address
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) in law
	AG	Address some of the issues that you have suggested. Pero, in the conclusion, for all our sake and all our respective sanities , let's contain this, let's…
	CoP	But we are still open minded….
	AG	Si, si si…
	CoP	We, we, unfortunately these are processes that are set…
	AG	Y yo cojere el telefono y decir, Lewis joder, que estamos, the RGP is trying to accommodate his position; take it easy, vamos esperar, concentrate en hacer el statement y no de mandar estas cosas. I am very happy to look at a draft – I don't need to see it pero…
	DPP	What we'll do in the first instance Paul and I will concentrate on getting draft that we think, reflects the ground and we circulate it.
	AG	I am happy to look at it but I leave it up to you (inaudible) Con que, bueno, I think it's a very decent reply (inaudible) stand our ground in the law, giving, err, refuting what we feel we can refute…
	DPP	…unless you think the reply should come from the DPP.
	AG	Sorry?
	DPP	Should the matter, should the reply come from me or should it come from Ian?
	AG	I haven't got a view on that
	Supt Richardson	Unless you reply saying, give the areas in law you raise, you have consulted with the DPP and my advice is as follows.
	DPP	We could do that

	Supt Richardson	That addresses both issues…because at the moment the impression that we are giving them is that it's just us that are dealing with this, they might not be aware of the agreement s behind the scenes.
	CoP	…well they are, because Michael is brokering that (inaudible)
	AG	(inaudible) no, yo lo que le he dicho, si, I've told Lewis que Christian and I are talking to you, of course they know.
	DPP	I'll prepare a draft
25:26	AG	Ok, try to finish it in as positive a (inaudible)
	DPP	Yeah, yeah
	CoP	The open mindedness is…
	AG	Yo creo que, yo creo que ese punto de Ian, Christian, es importante if you can weave that in; that the RGP is waiting for the statement and keeps and open mind. This is not, I mean we are not doing all this for nothing, we are doing it, I mean, careful with the word, pero we are doing it in the hope que va salir algo ayi which will allow us ermm (inaudible) that is fairing dangerous territory. Pero que esto no se esta haciendo for a reason…
	DPP	Would it be fair to say, given an opportunity to provide a voluntary statement, rather than inviting?
	CoP	No, no that they felt it proper…
	DPP	I'm just, I'm just mindful here that we are trying to rope Michael in (inaudible)
	CoP	Was it in relation to the question?
	AG	Si por que, it must be that, because lo del written statement it was I that communicated that to them.
	Supt Richardson	No, no, they're saying in the 2nd paragraph, they refer to the letter to the AG on the 15th and don't want to go through these points again, so they are saying we've made all these complaints to you, we don't intend to rehearse them again, because we've already raised them with the AG, so they still stand.
	AG	Yeah
27:00	DPP	Fair to say that I do not want to misrepresent the position que diga that is not what the AG said, that he was given an opportunity to provide a voluntary statement (inaudible) choice, no?
	AG	It's very simple. We had out meeting on the (inaudible), yo llame a Lewis y le digo, Lewis, had a discussion with the Commissioner, you are, ahora no me voy acordar word for word…
	CoP	…if you provide a statement, they'll accept it…
	AG	Exactly
	CoP	If you provide statement
	AG	Provide (inaudible)
	CoP	It's up to them, we can't…

	AG	Provide a statement
	CoP	They'll consider it…
	AG	Notify the Commissioner that you are going to provide a statement so that when Jaime does not turn up for the interview its already agreed with you, because of the statement, y ya esta, le dije poca cosa mas.
	CoP	Then they put in the word witness statement, which then prompted my…
	AG	And that is a mistake, se lo dije claro, digo no es un witness statement, it's a simple written statement. Yo no se if there is any tactical reason…
	CoP	Si, of course, it changes his status
	DPP	From suspect to witness
	CoP	And all it takes is for that to slip in any correspondence and that is where the abuse starts, because they provided it in the belief that he was a witness.
28:23	DPP	14 days for the date Mr Levy provides a witness statement. We give them 14 days?
	DI Wyan	That takes us very close to the date of the warrant.
	DPP	Ok, 7 days and we then ask them to confirm (inaudible) voluntary disclosure.
	CoP	And not only that, we haven't challenged the court, or rather, we have to challenge the court…
	DPP	…within 14 days, I'll put it in my diary for next week and file notice of objection, formal notice of objection. I'm not sure (inaudible), I think we have to file formal notice say…
	CoP	That's to keep it there…
	DPP	…exactly…I'll put it in my diary fro Monday
	Supt Richardson	Monday is a public holiday
		(inaudible)
	CoP	To challenge the disclosure of the application, the content of the application.
	DPP	Correct. In the meantime, if we can meet tomorrow, if you can bring what we need for the Magistrates Court application to my office, we'll look redacting it5 and look at what we've given in advanced disclosure and then we'll sit down we'll black lines and we copy.
	CoP	Clarke's Clarke's affidavit.
	DPP	Essentially
	CoP	Le estamos dando mas de lo se le da (inaudible) tu imajinate (inaudible)
	AG	Lo que yo comprendi al hablar con Lewis is that they are in a very different place to you. Yo a Lewis le he dicho lo mismo, you've got to understand that the RGP is in a very different place to you, and the underlying problem we have here is that. You feel that you are being very (inaudible) and they feel they have been very hard done by, y ya esta. Therefore, however much we patch up today, that underlying sentiment, that is the whole difficulty of keeping this alive during this period. Y para mi in fact se lo voy a decir, contra menos cartas and communications during this period, mejor.

20:45	CoP	Mandarnos el statement
	AG	Concentrate en hacer el statement, para de mandar cartas, concentrate en el statement, y ya veremos que pasa then. Pero, this, this dangerous, to the very vulnerable structure that we've built here.
	CoP	Yeah, its like I said, it makes us, okay, we had an agreement, it's been warped a bit, the let's fall back to plan A (inaudible)
	AG	It's not going to get to that, pero, yay a se lo dije, si tu empieza a mandar cartas de legal traps, the RGP que ya esta donde tu sabes que estan, se van a poner nerviosos y van a decir fuck it.
	DPP	(inaudible) still available, but I think they are preparing an abuse
	AG	That is consistent with (inaudible)
	CoP	An abuse on the fact that we think that, on procedure…
	AG	On the warrant, en todo, todo.
	DPP	The suspect, not suspect, witness, not witness. That's why they are preparing (inaudible)
	CoP	Are we weakening ourselves?
	DPP	At the moment we haven't.
	AG	I don't think so
	DPP	At the moment we haven't. The problem is if they win the abuse it will impact on Sanchez, Perez and erm
	CoP	You don't reckon that we've weakened ourselves by being too kind (inaudible)
	DPP	In an ideal world, Ian, you would have gone like storm troopers as the MET would have done at six in the morning, got him out of bed, you would have executed the warrant, taken him to the station, mira, that's an ideal world, but we don't live in an ideal world.
	AG	Si, pero had you done that estamos ya en Guerra
	DPP	Estarimaos en Guerra
	Supt Richardson	It doesn't seem too different to where we are at the moment.
	AG	No, I think the distinction here, Paul, is that you've already been caught and Jaime Levy with ten top Silks from London defending him and they'd find fault in what you've done, a ti, a el, a mi, a quien sea. When you've got a top team to look at faults you are going to find faults and that is what we are trying to avoid without losing sight, as we discussed on Friday, que there seems to be a very strong case against Cornelio, Sanchez and the other idiot and at the end of the day you don't want to damage that. And had you done what Christian had said, you wouldn't have been put in that danger, let's not lose sight of that aswell.

	DPP	(inaudible) I'll put together a draft and circulate
	AG	(inaudible) …I'll be available for this…
	DPP	…We try and get a draft agreed today so we can get it off, no? (inaudible)
	AG	Y yo voy a llamar a Lewis, vale? (inaudible)
	CoP	He needs to ease off a bit.

INQUIRY INTO THE RETIREMENT OF THE FORMER COMMISSIONER OF POLICE

		Greetings with AG's PA
		Morning greetings with DPP and AG
01:42	CoP	The saga continues.
	AG	Christian and I were just discussing, erm, how to reply and what we recommend that you reply and we haven't finished our thinking but we are on the same line at least of a, a succinct reply, taking issue with a numbers of statements that they make, but that we've started a process to be erm acting in a cooperative, or whatever language we use, we should let that process conclude and then we will talk or in the meantime we will reply (inaudible),because if we start rebutting things that they saythen everything that we a re trying to do would be, would be undermined,right Christian?
	DPP	Yeah, I got two hats here unfortunately, one is my worry is not being robust if we get to court and us getting (inaudible) but I am very conscious of
	AG	But doesn't a statement to the effect of, we take issue with a number, or even with many of the statements that you make in the letter. By saying something like that, even protects his position….
	CoP	That was my question, the challenge of the warrant which is at the hub of this all….
03:23	DPP	My view is to give them a little bit of a smack…tempered, but a little of errr, sayingtake it easy lion , tread carefully, you know. I think there's got to be a bit of gentle gentle…..
	CoP	What they are doing is turning it on its head, that now, that obviously we're not regarding you as a suspect, and that is not necessarily the case.
	DPP	Not necessarily the case
	AG	I agree. I think that's probably the worst comment…
	CoP	Yeah, so what they are saying, that , that we've agreed, and it was an unsolicited account that we were requesting, because that is the understanding; that they were going to provide that, which could or could not clarify a lot of the matters…
	AG	That is one thing we need to make clear in this reply…that was never suggested by anyone.

	Supt Richardson	They've really turned that on its head…from your conversation with him…to turning round to the commissioner and say, now, the Attorney General has informed me that you have agreed to treat him as a witness. I mean that is….
	AG	…All I've told them is that …Ian has agreed, the RGP has agreed, to try a written statement. That's all I've told them.
04:47	Supt Richardson	And they've really turned that around
	AG	Yes, I agree. For me that's the most serious issue in the letter, and that we've got to make clear. That is clear.
	CoP	Which then brings all the other allegations….and I agree, perhaps, if you want to say, we'll deal with them….
	AG	…we strongly take issue. My concern, again, Christian and I feel a bit uncomfortable in this role, but we are where we are…is we've tried to put in place a procedure….
	CoP	We've bent over, which we would not have normally done…
	AG	Which would errr… maybe, maybe leads us to a good place…we don't know. We've said, let's give it a try. And that's it that's all we've done here. Why they feel the need to make the assertions at this stage when this hasn't even started, I imagine, they must be drafting the statement now.
05:59	DPP	They are preparing an abuse (inaudible) ….under caution. They are preparing an abuse.
	CoP	And that is what worries me
	DPP	(inaudible)…I think they'd struggle. In law I think they are having difficulty. And therefore what they are trying to do is pick, pick and say yes, yes, yes ….abuse
	CoP	Knock the procedure
	DPP	Exactly
	CoP	And that's my concern too, because, erm, even if they did provide the statement…we would then have to perhaps follow up…
	AG	The view I've taken, with my limited knowledge in this area of the law, is that for so long that that is alive, its alive, you've just parked it for now. Which is the last point …when they say…erm, that I would therefore be grateful that you will confirm that you will not interview under caution, at a later stage…
	DPP	Its that, its that , they are pick and choosing the bits of the law which, for example, the public interest, the PII application, the PII matter, the interference with the investigation is encapsulated in PII. So, the fact that they are saying that, if we disclose this, it might interfere with the investigation, its not in the public interest to do so. So that ground is caught by the PII. Then you know, I think, respond to that, I think we…. Look, thank you for your letter. We are considering providing you with a redacted version to assist – we've done that

	CoP	...we haven't done that...
	DPP	...well Paul and I, we're going to sit down probably tomorrow or this afternoon we can do it...
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) ...is talking about is the information that was laid before the magistrates court. And see whether we can extract from that something which we will not prejudice our case, but having said that, since we talked about that...we've given them so much...(inaudible) other than leeks and potatoes and what its all based on.
08:10	DPP	We can do that exercise...they've had pretty much disclosed everything. Here is a redact...we are considering providing you a redacted version of what was produced to the Magistrate which will enable you to make your own decisions and come to your own conclusions. That defuses that paragraph, I think, we say, we note that your allegations or suggestions about PII. We reserve that position to be argued in court. Our view is that we'll ensure the interference of the investigation is encapsulated in that ground full stop. I wouldn't give 21 days, I think that's weak. I would agree to a give further 7.
	AG	For the statement?
	DPP	No, for the 21 days of assurance, we say no, we call the shots here, 7 days of what you're going to get.
	AG	Yes but hang on...for them that is a massive issue, the, the phone. Then, I think if we have embarked on this written statement procedure, I think it makes sense...
	CoP	..to run parallel
	AG	...or at least to wait for the outcome of that. The way I see it, the written statement procedure, they are going to submit something to you...
	CoP	Backed perhaps with emails or whatever...
	AG	...whatever. It is likely that you will want to ask further questions. It seems to me, I think that we would be truly optimistic that the first statement is going to ...
	CoP	...be too complete
	AG	So I envisage a second round of questions to which they have to reply and then I think you want to draw the line there.
	Supt Richardson	I think Sir, the danger we have got with that is way we came up with this suggestion was that they would offer an explanation when we are asking him to come in for interview and the fact that they'd offered it, we would then consider it. If we then go back with questions, we are conducting an interview, albeit remotely. We are asking new questions that should be put under caution. So I think we have gone beyond that line. What we've done with Fischel, when he has, when we've interviewed his clients, on a couple of occasions, they've gone away and months later they have produced allegations against Gaggero and allegations against other people. But we haven't asked them for questions to clarify this. We are saying we need to interview you, we need to interview you we have finished our investigation. That depends of the output of this. I think we will cross the line if when we get that initial…which was supposed to be an unsolicited account, we will then decide to ask questions on it, because then we are caught by PACE. We are asking questions of somebody who is suspected of being involved in an offence and has to be under caution. I don't know what your views are on that Chris. I'd like to see the Codes of Practice just to make sure…

11:09	DPP	….tentatively, I thinks its right. We'll come to that, lets get the letter slowly. Okay, so I didn't mean to get a little bit (inaudible)…14 days? Just so they come back with something – we're calling the shots here. It comes across a bit more…14 days subject to further review, if matters are progressing.
	Supt Richardson	Does 14 days take us up to the expiration of the warrant? Because this what they might be pushing. If we take it beyond that, the 21 days, then what do we do? We then go back to court and say can we have another warrant because Hassans agreed to give us stuff but they haven't and now(inaudible)
	DPP	We'll come to that, because I've actually got a note here that I've prepared saying, you're failing to deal with the voluntary disclosure issue – they've not responded to that. Its all being based…they are fighting the battle on the grounds they are wanting to, but they're ignoring the very important question which is (inaudible)…with the warrant, you gave it voluntarily, and therefore all this is smoke and mirrors (inaudible)….and we are not dealing with that. (inaudible)..
	CoP	…I am putting the question, are they withdrawing consent?
	DPP	…well exactly, in which case we would have to consider exercising the warrant (inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	I think they have made it clear that they have withdrawn consent because of their actions that they wanted to take.
12:24	DPP	They've not said it it in black upon white, Paul. We need to…I think we need to push back a little bit, in my view, so they realise we are not a soft touch and if we have to defend that position in court, on judicial review or abuse of process, or whatever, we are quite firm, ermm, I don't want to get rail roaded and ……
	CoP	The 3rd paragraph referring to you advising on the warrant…
	AG	(inaudible)
	CoP	…Paul absolutely denies that
	DPP	It's irrelevant
	CoP	No Paul?
	Supt Richardson	What's that?

	CoP	The DPP did not advise you or rather or rather that you said that the DPP had advised.
	Supt Richardson	No, the DPP didn't advise. We discussed this last time.
	DPP	These are not matters for the DPP, these are matters for the RGP and their operational functions…
	Supt Richardson	I think if push came to shove, and I hope that it doesn't, I think we all agreed that on the examination of the evidence, that Jaime's status at this moment in time is a suspect, but we a re willing to reconsider that position depending on what he says, but he won't say anything, so how do we move from this position forward?
13:24	AG	Well, hopefully with the witness statement.
	Supt Richardson	Yes
	DPP	(inaudible) … the DPP irrelevant….operational issues. They then say the seized material cannot be examined until the court has ruled on the propriety of (inaudible) of disclosure that, that's just wrong…we have on the face of it a valid lawful warrant (audible) …with evidence seized…..and as soon as Ian's undertaking expires (inaudible) …he can open it if he wants to.
	Supt Richardson	That leaves us exposed with regards to the corporate records and emails from Hassans. We left there on the understanding that they would give to us in one or two days (inaudible)
	DPP	We refer back to the voluntary (inaudible) cooperation. Because I think that if they do, we will have to, …..(inaudible) to execute the warrant
	Supt Richardson	Maybe, the letter if it had a line that we reserve out rights to revisit that we execute this warrant within the 30 days. We need to resolve this before that…because at the moment…it ius taken us beyond the 30 days.
	CoP	Next 30 days no, before the 7th June.
	Supt Richardson	Yes, it would be wrong for us, I think, to go before the court and say, we need to obtain a warrant again. The first thing they'll do is ask why haven't you executed it?
	DPP	Yeah, yeah (inaudible)
		(Inaudible)
	DPP	…we have given the, the opportunity (inaudible)…but its their choice…as has been done by others in the past.
	AG	As Paul started saying that maybe we should add then that we're keeping an open mind on this until this…
	Supt Richardson	Which we'll always do
	DPP	That's the flavour of the letter that we need to send backhit back gently, but …
	Supt Richardson	I think there are also, we talked about some issues in this letter which were wrong in law…there were issues in the other ones which were wrong in law. They said the only way we could proceed with this was by production order; now that's, that's wrong. I'm conscious that we've let these slide, those allegations slide, because we're hoping to deal with this in a (inaudible)

	CoP	What are they thinking? I mean these are just tactics again…what are they thinking? Have we got them on the ropes?
	AG	Loo, I, I've spoken to Lewis Baglietto as you know and err, my impression was, my impression is, that they welcome this written statement, but that there are, they consider there are issues that need to be dealt with, at the same time, like this in this letter. And my advice, if I can use the word advice, even though it is not advice, is, is what I have told him, is look, its taken Christian and me quite a bit of persuasion of the RGP to go down this path, let's leave it, lets go down this process of the written statement. And for me in my mind, and correct me if legally this is wrong, all we are doing here is we are putting on hold the procedure that you started to allow this written statement to come in, and once it comes in then you will assess…and I imagine that you will tell yourself, bueno there's nothing here that really helps us…
	CoP	Or its substantive enough to change his status
	AG	…or, exactly, and then you decide whether to unfreeze or let it freeze forever. Now, if they fire those cannon balls in that process…, for the sake of transparency I will speak to Lewis and tell him, look, its not for me to advise you if you felt you had reasons to send a letter such as this one…I will look for something to (inaudible)
17:39	CoP	What they are doing is practically leading us back to the path that we agreed we were going to stop. They are forcing the arm. That's why I'm saying , may be they think that they have got us on the ropes.
	AG	I don't think so.
	DPP	Tell me if I'm wrong guys, legally, the written statement….(inaudible) but its not under caution. If we then caution, can we use this statement we can't, but you're saying we can?
	CoP	We can put it into the interview and convert (inaudible)
	DPP	It can be used in evidence
18:14	CoP	The question that you're asking (inaudible)
	DPP	It would be potentially admissible against him, is what he says, that's not the law…
	CoP	But , if he makes an unsolicited statement, of course it can.
	DI Wyan	Its not under caution at the minute, this is just…
	Supt Richardson	The thing is, we cautioned straight from what we intended to do which is the danger. We have been clear; we suspect that you have been involved in a criminal offence to such an extent that we obtained the warrant. The warrant, the exercising of the warrant was delayed because we have a requirement to obtain the evidence by consent and you insisted in handing it over by consent over a period of several hours. We left in the belief that we were dealing with consent. Then we started off with the attack and allegations that came with that and the consent seems to have been withdrawn. To move beyond that point we agreed that if he offered us a statement we would, not park what we are doing, that is a dangerous concept, that is like saying we're not going to treat you as a suspect, because I would ask questions of somebody I have to comply with CPE.

	CoP	And the reason why we accepted that written account was because we'd rather have that…
	DPP	…than nothing…no comment interview
	CoP	Precisely
		(inaudible)
	CoP	And therefore it is an opportunity for him to clear something which could be cleared up, or not. But we wanted , that was the essence of it….
	Supt Richardson	Because a no comment interview would really tie your hands, because you can always evidence saying this has happened. A profession to say I am going to help you as much as I can, but when it come s to it I am not going to answer any questions, what do we do, we ignore? We are trying to move forward with this. What we can't say, that, the fact that whatever he says can't be used against him. It has to be under caution, or its an unsolicited request, which is, look, I don't care what you say, this is what we've got to say, use it as your will. But to give that protection that we won't use it becomes absurd. Because, I'll give you an account, I'll look at it and say it doesn't many sense, put it to in interview, you say nothing and then we've got nothing to use. How do I use that against him?
20:22	DPP	I think, just reply to paragraph 7, Mr Levy has and continues to be a person under suspicion. He was given an opportunity to write a statement voluntarily…
	CoP	…An unsolicited statement…
	DPP	…an unsolicited statement, voluntarily, which we understand he's agreed to do, erm, it's a matter for you to advise your client on the effect of that statement. We are not going to deal with guarantees or insurances (inaudible) you advise you client. I think, no?
	AG	(inaudible)
	DPP	…matters for you to advise your client
	CoP	That succinctly put, like the AG wants, but, he had an issue with my letter where he though that I was sending the wrong message that the interview would be not under caution, but they've picked it up, it was because they are referring to any subsequent interview being under caution. So they will read between the lines, so that is good, balanced against saying, erm, that the position on status has not shifted in accordance with the disclosure package that we gave you. That these are matters that suggest…

	DPP	…(inaudible) it's the tail wagging the dog, but at the end of the day Lewis, with respect, you're not here to wag the dog, we're the dog. We've been as reasonable and practical as we possibly can, but don't start wagging the dog. I think that he has to (inaudible) to Lewis. You can't come here telling the Police (inaudible), okay, you want to withdraw it, that's for Jaime to tell Lewis. That's what we're facing.
	Supt Richardson	And that's what everyone is trying to avoid
	DPP	Lewis needs to understand, if he pushes them up against a wall, they're going to turn round and say look (inaudible) I'm arresting you.
	CoP	That's what I'm trying to say, they are actually forcing us back to the point where we didn't want to go. Obviously they don't want to do an interview under caution, but maybe its time they reconsider and come in.
022:25	DPP	They want a guarantee and we can't give that guarantee Michael.
	AG	Well, I think that the whole point of the written statement is for the RGP to assess at that moment whether it's necessary or not..
	CoP	Talking here, we are all hopeful for the reasons that we all know, the whole periphery, that that account is as substantive as it can be…
	AG	…and that you don't need to…
	CoP	That
	AG	That can't be said.
	CoP	Neither are wee going to say hopefully,we are not going to say hopefully.Because the same we would have to tell them others, hopefully if you give an account you're (inaudible)
	AG	I believe Christian, based on what Ian has just said and I am totally in that page. By all means, we should…are you going to prepare a draft for Ian?
23:15	DPP	Happy to do so.
		(inaudible)
	Supt Richardson	And I think we have to address some of the…
	AG	…address
	Supt Richardson	(inaudible) in law
	AG	Address some of the issues that you have suggestedBut , in the conclusion, for all our sake and all our respective sanities , let's contain this, let's…
	CoP	But we are still open minded….
	AG	Yes, yes, yes …

	CoP	We, we, unfortunately these are processes that are set…
	AG	And I will lift up the phone and say, Lewis heck, we are, the RGP is trying to accommodate his position; take it easy, let's wait, concentrate in making the statement and not sending these things. I am very happy to look at a draft – I don't need to see it but…
	DPP	What we'll do in the first instance, Paul and I will concentrate on getting draft that we think reflects the ground and we circulate it.
	AG	I am happy to look at it but I leave it up to you (inaudible) so, well, I think it's a very decent reply (inaudible) stand our ground in the law, giving, err, refuting what we feel we can refute…
	DPP	…unless you think the reply should come from the DPP.
	AG	Sorry?
	DPP	Should the matter, should the reply come from me or should it come from Ian?
	AG	I haven't got a view on that
	Supt Richardson	Unless you reply saying, give the areas in law you raise, you have consulted with the DPP and my advice is as follows.
	DPP	We could do that
	Supt Richardson	That addresses both issues…because at the moment the impression that we are giving them is that it's just us that are dealing with this, they might not be aware of the agreement s behind the scenes.
	CoP	…well they are, because Michael is brokering that (inaudible)
	AG	(inaudible) no, what I have told him is, yes, I've told Lewis que Christian and I are talking to you, of course they know.
	DPP	I'll prepare a draft
25:26	AG	Ok, try to finish it in as positive a (inaudible)
	DPP	Yeah, yeah
	CoP	The open mindedness is…
	AG	I believe, I believe that that point Ian has made , Christian, is important if you can weave that in; that the RGP is waiting for the statement and keeps and open mind. This is not, I mean we are not doing all this for nothing, we are doing it, I mean, careful with the word, but we are doing it in the hope that something will come out which will allow us ermm (inaudible) that is fairing dangerous territory. That this is not being done for …
	DPP	Would it be fair to say, given an opportunity to provide a voluntary statement, rather than inviting?
	CoP	No, no that they felt it proper…
	DPP	I'm just, I'm just mindful here that we are trying to rope Michael in (inaudible)

	CoP	Was it in relation to the question?
	AG	Yes because, it must be that, because about written statement it was I that communicated that to them.
	Supt Richardson	No, no, they're saying in the 2nd paragraph, they refer to the letter to the AG on the 15th and don't want to go through those points again, so they are saying we've made all these complaints to you, we don't intend to rehearse them again, because we've already raised them with the AG, so they still stand.
	AG	Yeah
27:00	DPP	Fair to say that I do not want to misrepresent the position which says that is not what the AG said, that he was given an opportunity to provide a voluntary statement (inaudible) choice, right?
	AG	It's very simple. We had out meeting on the (inaudible), I called Lewis and told him, Lewis, had a discussion with the Commissioner, you are, I am not going to remember word for word…
	CoP	…if you provide a statement, they'll accept it…
	AG	Exactly
	CoP	If you provide statement
	AG	Provide (inaudible)
	CoP	It's up to them, we can't…
	AG	Provide a statement
	CoP	They'll consider it…
	AG	Notify the Commissioner that you are going to provide a statement so that when Jaime does not turn up for the interview its already agreed with you, because of the statement, And that's it, I said little more.
	CoP	Then they put in the word witness statement, which then prompted my…
	AG	And that is a mistake, I clearly told him , I said it's a witness statement, it's a simple written statement. I don't know if there is any tactical reason…
	CoP	Yes , of course, it changes his status
	DPP	From suspect to witness
	CoP	And all it takes is for that to slip in any correspondence and that is where the abuse starts, because they provided it in the belief that he was a witness.
28:23	DPP	14 days for the date Mr Levy provides a witness statement. We give them 14 days?
	DI Wyan	That takes us very close to the date of the warrant.
	DPP	Ok, 7 days and we then ask them to confirm (inaudible) voluntary disclosure.

	CoP	And not only that, we haven't challenged the court, or rather, we have to challenge the court…
	DPP	…within 14 days, I'll put it in my diary for next week and file notice of objection, formal notice of objection. I'm not sure (inaudible), I think we have to file formal notice say…
	CoP	That's to keep it there…
	DPP	…exactly…I'll put it in my diary fro Monday
	Supt Richardson	Monday is a public holiday
		(inaudible)
	CoP	To challenge the disclosure of the application, the content of the application.
	DPP	Correct. In the meantime, if we can meet tomorrow, if you can bring what we need for the Magistrates Court application to my office, we'll look redacting it5 and look at what we've given in advanced disclosure and then we'll sit down we'll black lines and we copy.
	CoP	Clarke's Clarke's affidavit.
	DPP	Essentially
	CoP	We are giving them more than we (inaudible)can you imagine (inaudible)
	AG	What I understood from speaking to Lewis is that they are in a very different place to you.I have told Lewis the same , you've got to understand that the RGP is in a very different place to you, and the underlying problem we have here is that. You feel that you are being very (inaudible) and they feel they have been very hard done by,and that's it . Therefore, however much we patch up today, that underlying sentiment, that is the whole difficulty of keeping this alive during this period. Y para mi in factI am going to tell him, the less letters and communications during this period, mejor.
20:45	CoP	Send us the statement
	AG	Concentrate on making statement,stop sending letters para de mandar cartas,concentrate on statement,and we'll see what happens then.But , this, this dangerous, to the very vulnerable structure that we've built here.
	CoP	Yeah, its like I said, it makes us, okay, we had an agreement, it's been warped a bit, the let's fall back to plan A (inaudible)
	AG	It's not going to get to thatbut I've told him, if you start sending letters with legal traps, the RGPwho are where you know they are, they are going to get nervous and will say, fuck it.
	DPP	(inaudible) still available, but I think they are preparing an abuse

	AG	That is consistent with (inaudible)
	CoP	An abuse on the fact that we think that, on procedure…
	AG	On the warrant, on everything, everything.
	DPP	The suspect, not suspect, witness, not witness. That's why they are preparing (inaudible)
	CoP	Are we weakening ourselves?
	DPP	At the moment we haven't.
	AG	I don't think so
	DPP	At the moment we haven't. The problem is if they win the abuse it will impact on Sanchez, Perez and erm
	CoP	You don't reckon that we've weakened ourselves by being too kind (inaudible)
	DPP	In an ideal world, Ian, you would have gone like storm troopers as the MET would have done at six in the morning, got him out of bed, you would have executed the warrant, taken him to the station, mira, that's an ideal world, but we don't live in an ideal world.
	AG	Yes, but had you done thatwe're at war. estamos ya en Guerra
	DPP	We're at war
	Supt Richardson	It doesn't seem too different to where we are at the moment.
	AG	No, I think the distinction here, Paul, is that you've already been caught and Jaime Levy with ten top Silks from London defending him and they'd find fault in what you've done,on you, on him, on me on anyone . When you've got a top team to look at faults you are going to find faults and that is what we are trying to avoid without losing sight, as we discussed on Friday,that there seems to be a very strong case against Cornelio, Sanchez and the other idiot and at the end of the day you don't want to damage that. And had you done what Christian had said, you wouldn't have been put in that danger, let's not lose sight of that aswell.
	DPP	(inaudible) I'll put together a draft and circulate
	AG	(inaudible) …I'll be available for this…
	DPP	…We try and get a draft agreed today so we can get it off, no? (inaudible)
	AG	And I'm going to call Lewis, okay? (inaudible)
	CoP	He needs to ease off a bit.

Transcript of meeting between GPA Chair and Ian McGrail (CoP) at CoP's office

Tape counter	Person speaking	Text
00:37	GPA Chair	Basically I'm supposed to call you to the Authority y ahi decirte lo que te tengo que decir, pero yo dije this is best face to face, una persona sola, por que de verdad que yo nunca he echo nada igual en mi vida. Me llamaron during the week a un meeting el Gobernador y el Chief Minister pero the meeting was initiated by the Minister en el Convento.
	CoP	The Chief Minister?
	GPA Chair	No, by the Governor sorry, and the Governor said the Chief Minister will also be there; can you make it? Y le digo when? (inaudible) y fui.
1:19	GPA Chair	Y entre los dos me dijeron that they've lost complete confidence, te lo tengo que decir, lost complete confidence in your leadership and management of the RGP. Le dije based on what? Right. Empeso la conversacion, tengo nota eh, explicandome de que hay dos secciones en el Act. Uno el gobernador can simply ask the commissioner to creo que es to resign en section 13 o algo asi, y en section 34 the CoP can be invited to retire, pero commissioner can also make representations to argue the case as to why you shouldn't retire. Me explicaron that Gibraltar had been put in a very very very poor position because of the incident at sea y me dijeron que ahi no me metiera mucho porque they were gonna write to you separately y ayer me dijeron que they had written to you. I'm not sure because I haven't checked mine con que no se si yo e cojido una copia o no. The incident at sea apparently es bastante bastante bastante grave y lo que me explicaron era nothing that you won't know de que its put Gibraltar in a very bad position with Spain y with Britain todo esas cosas, I won't go into detail because technically el Authority no es algo que que we can do anything about. El reporte leads them to believe that reasons regressed instead of progressed, I, clearly yo explique varias, varias cosas de ahi. A couple of things I couldn't answer because I felt that was for you really. Yo no queria menciona a otros comisarios tampoco. They asked me, Bueno, have you any idea why there's still so many recommendations pending from the previous report, y actually le explique, he doesn't want to mention any third parties, there's probably an explanation there. Despues me empesaron a decir, going through the report, the issue of not being alive to corruption I think it's to do, no estoy seguro, I think it's to do with the whole reputation of Gibraltar resting on the police. In fact they went through the report on the issues of even independence of police can be tainted, I've never seen it that way, can be tainted by not being alive to corruption por que somebody might do, do something and it's because they've got, that doesn't mean that it's you who's doing it e. pero en fin they reiterated that they have completely lost confidence, now, como me explicaron, they've put the Authority in a position where we are left with no option, why? Because if the governor asks you to step down he can only do so if the Authority hasn't done its job in default, bueno they said that clearly. But they realise that you may have explanations, so section 34 is where the Authority invites you to retire, right, but gives you time to make representations and unfortunately, I've been asked to hand you that letter. Pero hace eso delante de todo el Authority, I've had a couple of meetings with them y tuve que llama por telefono to make sure that the Authority also feels that there is no option and everybody is in agreement. Erm, having said that, the preference is, es que lo que pasa is that retirement is not the same as resignation, if you see what I mean, I don't expect you to answer ni dicirme nada ni nada eh, de verdad, y puedo ve lo incomodo

5:25	CoP	My initial reaction Joey, this is a complete travesty, because there is an underlying
5:36	GPA Chair	Esperate, esperate, the governor was there and he also agreed that he had lost confidence in the leadership and management, erm, this is not one party saying it, it's both of them, now the Authority is bound to do something about it because we've been told we have to, ahora, there's the option of, cuando tu leas la carta you'll see what I mean. There's the option of preparing a response
6:12	CoP	Which for my own integrity I'm bound to do so, I've got to I think
	GPA Chair	Yo no te puedo dar advice
	CoP	No, no, pero what I'm saying is, from what you're telling me
6:21	GPA Chair	Bueno it depends on why you retire, por que alguien puede decir I'm retiring for personal reasons
	CoP	No, no, pero I'm not thinking that, I'm thinking about the, in a way the personal attack that has been levelled at me, and an opportunity to express myself no?
	GPA Chair	Si, si, absolutely pero lo mismo te digo que there's nothing in the Act to stop you from making representations to the Authority either in, yo prefiero que sea in writing y then in person, si quiere tu explica todo.
	CoP	And that. What is that because I haven't even looked at the
	GPA Chair	Bueno, en el Act no dice nada, pero I've been advised que seven days, but if you, espera, espera, if you need more time, que me lo diga y que me diga mira en siete dias no puedo prepara esto. Pero essentially, there's a bit in the report that indirectly calls the, puts the RGP into disrepute. The answer is to why the previous report seems to have been ignored, yo le dije que no, que they had been met. I also said that you already, since you got the report that you met quite a few of the recommendations, I actually said that. I think what's triggered this, apart from anything else por lo que me dijeron, is, actually the incident at sea, according to the governor. The, the meeting was very very long and everything was aired. Yo lo que pasa que
7:54	CoP	When was the meeting held? This meeting?
	GPA Chair	Monday or Tuesday. Monday, lo que pasa que I had to give notice to, porque no pudo ir todo el mundo, so I had to call people, I had to give notice to the Authority so I couldn't meet immediately.
	CoP	I mean the meeting between you and the chief minister I'm referring to.
	GPA Chair	No, no, me and the chief minister no. Me and the governor and the chief minister.
	CoP	That's what I mean.

	GPA chair	That was on Monday. I was called on a Sunday
	CoP	This Monday?
	GPA chair	Si si, esta semana
	CoP	Ok
	GPA Chair	I was called on Monday, erm and was told I had to discuss it with the Authority, and I said si eso es lo que dice en el Act, I need a quorum, the chairperson can't take a decision, erm, pero claro, the position the Authority has been put in, if what the governor and the chief minister is saying that they have no, they've lost
	CoP	But what is the position of the Authority? Is the Authority accepting that? Have you had any concerns about me?
	GPA Chair	No, no, esperate, we would have told you
	CoP	Exactly
	GPA Chair	Exa ctly. We would have told you, con que si tu quiere that can be part of the
	CoP	No, but what I mean to say is, are you expecting me to resign, to retire, are you expecting me to retire, because
	GPA Chair	Esque te voy a decir lo que pasa, if. The meeting started by, because I'm not a lawyer, what was explained to me was that there are two options, for the removal of a commissioner. One is through retirement, the other one is through resignation, and that's the nuclear option, to actually ask the, no ask no, request the commissioner's resignation. So clearly, they feel que the incident at sea is serious enough to warrant that.
	CoP	But but but but
	GPA Chair	Lo que dicen que, basically lo que me dijeron es que you hadn't been (inaudible) with giving them information
	CoP	I've read the letter today and obviously I've started to
	GPA Chair	Es muy larga no?
	CoP	No, no, but it's not that. It's that there's a lot of unfortunate inaccuracies there that this, the catalyst for the chief minister's letter to me arises from a very recent letter of claim, or suggestion of claim from Verralls to us, saying that they are now representing the families and they now want details because they are going to initiate a claim. Now when there's letters of claim of that nature, from what I've learnt throughout the years here, is that we engage with the crown counsel. Normally that's done by someone in the headquarters division. So I assign it to Cathal Yeats to link up with Director of Public Prosecution to say can you appoint a counsel to defend, to sort of to represent the RGP's interest in this and he does that, he goes and sees Christian Rocca and Christian Rocca says look I'm in a bit of a quandary here because I don't know if my chambers could do this, because there could be, we don't know what the final outcome of the recommendation of the independent team coming whether that's going to be a case of organisational learning from a, whether there's going to be conduct issues, there could even be criminal liability and Christian Rocca was a bit uneasy to say, to commit to representing, but that he would consult with the AG to see what the suggestions were, and one of the suggestions, the possibilities was to farm it to someone. So that conversation was had between DPP and AG and the AG says well I'll have to tell the RGP to write to me and then I'll consult with the Chief Minister. Because it involves funding. Not that we were asking for funding, it's that we were asking for representations.

11:23	GPA Chair	What you were saying was mira we foresee that there's going be extra expenditure
	CoP	Not so much extra expenditure, que we need a representation. I mean this happens because in the past, like for example, there's been a search warrant and they've broken a door down and the owner of the house claims, there's, civil claims. And that is, there was a reaction from the Chief Minister, a very tough reaction, which I was quite surprised myself, in the sense that he was claiming that I hadn't, that he wasn't up to speed with all these things, but yet again I have been meeting up with Michael and I've been meeting up with Michael throughout and with the DPP of late, expressing my concerns about this and Michael has been my middle person to get to the chief minister
	GPA chair	Lo que, esas cosas because they are part of what I was told, you have to tell the Authority in terms of,
12:14	CoP	I think I have even briefed
	GPA Chair	Si si. No,, n, no, no que you have to tell me about the incident at sea, that this explanation, the reason why the preference is to alert you to a section 34 is because there is provision in the second part, 1 y 2 nada mas, es muy simple, el 1 y 2, y 2 dice the commissioner may make representations to the Authority and, because the Authority has to seek consent from, es que se a hecho alrevez, in other words, they told us we are going to trigger this. There's two ways of doing it. In other words, from the Authority's perspective, we haven't taken a firm view, but this
12:56	CoP	Have I lost my job?
	GPA Chair	Ahora mismo no. ahora mismo no.
	CoP	So what's the situation then?
	GPA Chair	The letter your invited, we have to invite you to resign
	CoP	But
	GPA Chair	But if you don't feel that you can't
	CoP	But what you're giving me 7 days to make a decision?
	GPA Chair	To make no. to make representations, mira
	CoP	Si but what effect does that letter have. Do I know have to hand in everything here and I've got go, or, I don't know
	GPA Chair	No, no, no, you're not suspended ni nada. You now have to. It's an invitation, it's an invitation, I think the other way would be, you would lose your job if the governor
	CoP	This is a travesty Joey. This is a travesty. This is a serious travesty
	GPA Chair	No puedo comentar. Anything that you have to say, de verdad, tell, everybody is going to be there, the Authority. You make the explanations on that, because then, once you make the representations we have to take a view but also go to the governor and the chief minister. Any one of them, en el Act dice que both of them can trigger this but any one of them can take the final decision. We need consent so in other words, you can't be removed without anyone's consent, the consent is needed. In fact you can't even retire without having the consent of one of them. The there is no easy way of saying this, because the other route is the Authority is in default and that means simply that not even an, not even chance

14:24	CoP	I have been threatened by the chief minister
	GPA Chair	Pero no me lo diga ahora, dirlo ahi
	CoP	Pero te lo digo ahora as a, pero que I've been threatened, ahora que, this is a situation whether I save my skin and I come forward with absolutely everything?
14:43	GPA Chair	De verdad que I would like to advise you, pero no
	CoP	No, no, no, I'm not asking you to advise
	GPA Chair	I'm conscious that y esto siempre me lo a recordado desde los tiempos de John de que, de que there has to be a quorum there has to be a minimum of 6 people y mas in important decisions, that's why it's taking so long, y mas que hay que explicarle a todo el mundo, mira, but the bottom line is, the bottom line is, that I was called to a meeting, the Authority was called to a meeting, and the view was expressed clearly, very clearly that both sides of government, the governor and the chief minister had lost faith in you, had no faith in you.
15:26	CoP	I've never had that feedback from the governor. I've had the feedback from the chief minister arising from certain Actions that we carried out, executive Actions that we carried out on, which I think I briefed you on and that is the catalyst behind this all in my view but but I've not had a reAction from the governor. On the contrary
15:47	GPA Chair	De verdad que I was just as surprised.
	CoP	Are your surprised?
	GPA Chair	Si si of course, y la gente del Authority tambien, but the thing is that there is no option left, because the other option would be simply to dis-appoint you rather, in the same way you were appointed to dis-appoint you directly by the governor and I think they want to avoid that, they want it to be your choice, erm por lo que veo yo. But the the phrase, 'we have lost faith in in our commissioner' y tambien they're worried that the RGP seems to have regressed, I'm in no position to say because I wasn't there, I've only been lo mismo que tu, two years
	CoP	Regressed in what sense?
	GPA Chair	Bueno, that, rather than regress, que it hasn't progressed as much as they felt it should in terms of policies and all that. Tambien acuerdate tu que
	CoP	One of the first things I did was have the Authority erm, check all the policies, which was never done in the past.
16:51	GPA Chair	Another thing that I, I didn't know this because I wasn't involved, this was brought up, in your application as commissioner you said that immediately, with immediate effect you were going to set up a working party to meet all the recommendations, or most of the recommendations of the previous report and that one question that we've been asked to ask you. Was that done and and (inaudible) so that's the other one.

	CoP	Yeh yeh.
17:16	GPA Chair	They clearly are worried about international, asi me lo dice el gobernador, reputation in terms of
17:22	CoP	What's your view of engaging with HMI and finding out that this report warrants my
	GPA Chair	Yo esque I wouldn't be able to do that myself, because it talks about the RGP, I presume you could do it yourself. Mira de verdad I think you need time, si quiere te leo la carta because
	CoP	Valiente shock. Valiente valiente shock joey.
	GPA Chair	Yo llevo 40 años en government and I've never had to do anything like this
	CoP	This is a shock. I'm shocked.
	GPA Chair	No no I know you're shocked, that's why you're not reacting, erm, pero the bottom line is that they, this way is giving you more more leeway because you can make representations to the Authority before a final view is taken. Pero acuerdate, the wording of the letter, it's an invitation to retire right. Ahora, I wouldn't know on what terms you can retire. Pero clearly, you have to give it a lot of thought
18:49	GPA Chair	The important part is lo del firm and final view, that has not erm, happened.
	CoP	I don't see, with respect, with respect, I don't see any, the shots have been called by way above the Authority.
	GPA Chair	But the the governor is the the governor is the person who called me to the meeting and told me the chief minister was going to be there as well by the way. And the governor started the the meeting
	CoP	I could even kick off a constitutional crisis here Joey.
	GPA Chair	Mira, I've had to do what I've been obliged to do, what, how you react is, is up to you, mira te voy a dejar with your own thoughts, lan de verdad.
	CoP	No es justo, no es justo. No es justo. It's not just. It's very unjust.
	GPA Chair	Como te digo
	CoP	Very very unjust.
	GPA Chair	I need you que te tranquilise, to take advice, if you need to, and whatever, pero que que we are willing to listen to your representations and that
	CoP	And what happens? After that, if I, if I make representations, would you consider them?
	GPA Chair	We would consider them and we go to the governor and the chief minister
	CoP	And, bueno they say yes, they say yes, we accept the recommendations, the submissions and we go back, or they say we don't, the invitation to retire still stands

	GPA Chair	No, if they say, put it this way, if you say ahora mismo, no no, yo esto lo voy a ignorar, it's a invitation, it's an invitation, you're not being forced. It's an invitation. I am presuming that they would then trigger the section 13, the governor removes you, I am assuming, I haven't been told that. There must be a reason why the preference is to do it this way, to give you the the the option. Erm pero yo si quiere vete para casa Ian
	CoP	Yo no se.
	GPA Chair	Vete para casa
21:04	CoP	Para casa? Para casa Joey? Esto es una injusticia Joey,
	GPA Chair	No no no no no digo pa
	CoP	Esto es una injusticia. Me he quedado
	GPA Chair	Pues imaginate
	CoP	Tu sabe lo unico que tengo tranquilo? La consiencia. And my ethics which remain up here. I am being muscled out here because there are other underlying issues and that is what I'm toying with. I'm toying with whether if I defend myself, I sink Gibraltar, basically, at this crucial time, or whether I take the hit and save Gibraltar. But that is not going be viewed like that.
	GPA Chair	Pero esperate esperate,
	CoP	That is what I'm toying with. Because
	GPA Chair	You can be perfectly open with the Authority.
	CoP	I cannot be open with the Authority, bueno my first reaction if I was a loose cannon, is go and see the governor with a big file. With a big file and then, pero that is damaging for Gibraltar
22:10	GPA Chair	They, mira, the Authority is acting on the premise that both the governor and the chief minister have categorically stated that both have lost faith in you. And If we don't
22:27	CoP	Have you got that in writing from them?
	GPA Chair	no
	CoP	I need that in writing
	GPA Chair	Ahi esta, that they've lost faith in you.
	CoP	Si pero I need the reasons .
	GPA Chair	The reasons is.
22:45	CoP	No, I would want that in writing to defend my case. I think the reasons have to be (inaudible) to me because me esta dando
	GPA Chair	No, no, esta bien. I was told that you were going to be sent the, the reasons, lo del maritime
	CoP	There's no reference there to
	GPA Chair	No, no
	CoP	Asking me to retire
	GPA Chair	But that is part of what the Authority is
	CoP	Bueno

	GPA Chair	That is what I have to ask you, que que esta pasando
	CoP	Si, si pero that is not linked to this letter. If it is , its not written.
	GPA Chair	No, no I'm not saying its linked.
	CoP	If it is, if it is, if that's one of the reasons you've been told
	GPA Chair	The loss of faith, one of the reasons of the loss of faith, or the loss of confidence in you is the way it's been handled apparently. The maritime incident.
	CoP	Si, pero apparently is not good enough for me. I need to know in writing what the Authority has been asked to consider for you to send me this. Because you've sent me this, pero you've lost that
23:41	GPA Chair	No, no, no, no, it should be enough con decir, yo tengo aqui the main points, pero yo
	CoP	This in respect of certain aspects of policing that have led to serious loss of , I need I need to
	GPA Chair	Mira, great concerns expressed by the governor and chief minister in terms of loss of confidence. The main things that were mentioned, the contents of the report, the incident at sea, then they explain that they've lost confidence in you because mainly failing to inform them of failing to keep them at
24:36	CoP	Pero mira, how can they ask me that if I haven't even responded to that yet? How can they, they've arrived to a certain situation, a very pre-emptive situation when I haven't even had the opportunity to explain. Do you see what I mean? Would you be able to revert and say look if the questions of the, if the content of the report that has regenerated so much concerns which evidently hasn't generated the concerns of the Authority or the governor himself, because the governor has not mentioned it to me
	GPA Chair	No, no, the governor mentioned
	CoP	Right, pero
	GPA Chair	I'll highlight the
	CoP	And and so the report, the contents of the report fine. The report stands on its own. Fine. If it's to do with the handling of the collision at sea , I've been asked by the chief minister to respond to that pero that is the reason why I'm being served this so can
	GPA Chair	One of the reasons.
	CoP	There's two reasons. You've told me there's two reasons. Si o no?
	GPA Chair	Si si there's two main reasons. Pero I took my personal notes, lo que pasa que no me lo e traido, pero I took my own personal notes of the meeting where they gave me the reasons, you can take it from me, pero you don't need to,
	CoP	I need to I need to
	GPA Chair	Yo ahora te lo mando
	CoP	I would be grateful if it was in writing, because this is now a very,
	GPA Chair	When you make representations you can base It on the points that I said

	CoP	The certain aspects of policing I need to know what those certain aspects are, erm , and we were at the point of saying that if I make representations and they are accepted or not accepted, what that, how does that leave me.
	GPA Chair	Te lo dire. If the Authority accepts the recommendations, and say mira no ase falta really que se vaya then we still need to go, because they triggered it, we still need to go to the chief minister and governor, and say mira we don't think que, or we do think or we don't think but then it's up to them, erm
	CoP	Entonces basically you haven't got a say.
	GPA Chair	The meeting started with, por que, the meeting didn't start with saying we've lost confidence, the meeting started with the different ways through the Act in which they can express, if you like, the the loss of confidence in a commissioner, and one is ask them to retire by the Authority or simply remove
	CoP	Si, pero I want to know what has been the cause of loss of confidence
	GPA Chair	Yo, I've got no notes, no me lo he traido, la verdad, con los nervios,
	CoP	no pero notes, lo notes, you've told me, I think I need it in writing no? at least I deserve that in writing
	GPA Chair	No, no definitely. It's my fault eso, it's my fault, es culpa mia por no traermelo. Los tengo. Tengo las rasones clearly laid out. Before, dejame que te las mande. Te la puedo mandar por email no? es mas rapido.
	CoP	Como quiera Joey. This is not right.
	GPA Chair	The the Authority has been put in this position
	CoP	Si, pero even the Authority, yeh I accept that, pero even then you're not gonna have a final say
	GPA Chair	Bueno the Authority can't ever have the final say because were all appointed by the governor and the commissioner is appointed by the governor
	CoP	Si, pero the point of independence, the independence factor here, is the issue.
	GPA Chair	He has the final say through section 13. Entonces and apparently it's one of the two, the Authority needs to consult both of them, but a decision can be taken by one of the two.
	CoP	Which it has been taken, obviously. Who generates this issue?
	GPA Chair	Bueno the governor called me.
	CoP	Yes pero do you know who generates? Did you ask ?
	GPA Chair	The governor called me
	CoP	Is there any reason why you didn't ask?
	GPA Chair	I assumed it was the governor. My assumption it was the governor because he called me. El me llamo and it wasn't in number 6, it was in the Convent.

	CoP	This has all been triggered off from the impromptu meeting that I was called to in the chief minister's chamber with the AG. That is where it all stems from. There's no doubt at all, at all, at all, that that is where this is stemming from. The fact that he has not been in agreement with the way we have been handling the case of the involving Jaime Levy. I was threatened there and then, and I was told that he was going to call call up, in other words there was like, total interference with the operational running. That is against the law itself. Look, ahora this is how the issues
	GPA Chair	Como digo yo, there's nothing, I am assuming, there's nothing stopping you from seeking, mira esto a que viene, mira lo que a hecho el Authority, tampoco van a decir that's up to the Authority, because I've told you that I was called to a meeting and told that section 34 had to be triggered because by default section 13 would be triggered but they both lost confidence in you, the majority of the meeting was to do with the maritime incident and the repercussions for Gibraltar
	CoP	That was it? I've got no issues, I've got the trail of
	GPA Chair	The majority, pero despues that you hadn't been forthright pero its connected with that. Issues to do with the report, to do with the being alive to corruption y cosas asi, that I can write for you, because and we can have answers.
	CoP	The concerns regarding the report.
	GPA Chair	Si si the concerns
	CoP	By the report
	GPA Chair	Ahora yo I did mention tambien que we'd met with the minister for justice to erm, to discuss the contents of the report
	CoP	Does she know
	GPA Chair	She didn't react
	CoP	She did react. She said that she wasn't overly concerned.
	GPA Chair	That's why, digo there were areas in the report where she could actually help and support. There are areas in the report that are quite close to her heart. In the Act the minister for justice doesn't appear me dijeron, digo bueno no no, I'm not telling you because it's that, I'm telling you because
	CoP	She's the minister with responsibility for policing, she deals with resourcing issues y cosas asi.
	GPA Chair	Mira I'm going hold, te voy a manda exactly what
	CoP	Joey this is a complete travesty eh, it's
	GPA Chair	Es que no te puedo da una opinion until que, if you choose to
	CoP	We haven't clarified yet is that if I choose to respond to you provide you with representations which is not a question of challenging anything, it's a question of
	GPA Chair	No, no, pero you might feel so strongly, es que el
	CoP	Pero then the question is then that if it's not accepted then I am fired as opposed to retiring.

	GPA Chair	That's unclear in the Act actually. I see what you mean. You might make representations but,
	CoP	And then retire
	GPA Chair	And then retire
	CoP	Claro, claro. That's what I'm saying. Or not.
	GPA Chair	Si si I see what you mean, because you're not refusing, acuerdate this is not an instruction, esto e un invitation to retire, you're absolutely correct, entonces you're given a certain amount of time, if you need more time, there's a provision que no esta en el Act,
	CoP	And then after providing you with that response, I may say look if these, does your view change? If it changes, then if it doesn't change, then I would have to consider the invitation
	GPA Chair	Exactly. What what was explained to me that we consider the considerations and we go to the governor and the chief minister , with them, pero que tienes razon, it's not that the, the Authority is in a position to say no no were not going to, this is the important part, we're not going to invite him to retire, we don't believe you simply what would have happened was section 13, which is why this allows for representations, it's fair, es que lo que pasa que it's to do with
33:36	CoP	Would the Authority question if you were, for arguments sake, hypothetically, I'm thinking ahead, if I make my response to argue the case that I shouldn't accept the invitation, and convince the Authority, and then you share it with the governor and the chief minister and then they are still of the view, would you ask them any explanations as to why?
	GPA Chair	We would
	CoP	But you would not be able to go against it
33:48	GPA Chair	We may be put in such a position that we would have to stand down if there is a direct erm, conflict, por que
	CoP	Would you do that?
	GPA Chair	I can't speak for the others, I haven't made up
	CoP	Hypothetically, si yo te escribo a ti, y no te convenso al Authority, then mira, la tengo jodida
	GPA Chair	The good thing,
	CoP	If i argue my case that this should not be the case,
	GPA Chair	We would say, we don't see it as sufficient grounds. Having said that the issue here is that it's not the Authority, por eso mensiono los tres, the Authority has to be, has to have full confidence in you, que ahora mismo its completely, como tu, a pasado, but it's the governor and the chief minister, who are the two main principal parties that have to have confidence in the police. Yo te lo pongo,
35:07	CoP	Me tengo que coge abogados y todo Joey. My biggest call here is what I'm telling you. My biggest call here is, do I create a constitutional crisis? Because the chief minister is suspected of a crime? estamos?

	GPA Chair	Si quiere
35:34	CoP	No no pero digo, te lo estoy diciendo porque me estoy desahogando un poco no. Me informan que he was aware of all that the, it is alleged that the , Cornelio, John Perez, and that if I create, do do that and affects Gibraltar the way it does or salgo yo mal apaleado, or
	GPA Chair	Pero that that you need to seek advice, what I'm trying to say is de que, if you tell me something now, yo ahora mismo, yo no puedo ir para atras al Authority y dici a dicho esto, esto y esto because you have to think about all the options. Lo que te estoy diciendo es que el Authority can reach up to there and then there's the governor and the chief minister, y basta con one of them not having full confidence, but that's not for this section, that's for section 13.
	CoP	Tu lo ve injusto tambien no?
	GPA Chair	I really can't comment de verdad porque I am relatively new to this. Most chair people have 6 years y yo acaba de empeza, pero que me a cojido de sorpresa si, que te digo. But then again I'm not involved at those levels. What is, como te digo, the core, lo del incident at sea was discussed at length, no tinian mucha informacion de que apparently esto no paso aqui, paso muy lejos, substantially,
	CoP	Si si, Bueno, lo que me indican. Mas transparent de lo que hemos echo, hemos llamado un equipo de afuera que venga. Yo no se que mas quiere que haga. He traido a un accident investigator y el miercoles estuvo hacienda 3D scanning, we are feeding the coroner todo el tiempo. He estado hablando con los Españoles por email preguntandole como va la cosa ahi, que no, que el juez todavia no a recibido instruccion hasta ahora poco. Todo esto se lo estoy diciendo a Michael. Mira Michael todo esto is not going to go away, esto we need to have the strategy in place of how were going to deal with it, as Gibraltar, from the local angle to the Spanish angle. Todo eso se lo estao diciendo yo y Michael agrees with me. Y me dice yes, yes are you going to deal with, I will mention it to the chief minister all these conversations, and me a dicho tambien, dice well let's wait for the final report from the investigating team; yo e hecho todo como debe de ser. Todo todo todo todo
	GPA Chair	Lo que empese por explicarte
	CoP	Esque no entiendo. Te estoy explicando que the trigger has been de que we've gone for the government to ask for representation pero by government lawyers, and government lawyers have said que that they have not been able to represent us, that's the catalyst for all this.
	GPA Chair	Pero esperate, que I have to be clear on one thing and you have to know this y ya tu lo interpreta como tu quiera. Que I was told, I was asked, I was requested by the governor, to go back to the GPA and tell them that they have both lost faith, the reasons why, que era the incident at sea and all that, but if the answer had been no we don't think he should be asked, offered this way,
	CoP	Que they would do it themselves in other words, me voy hace una notita.

	GPA Chair	No, eso te lo voy a mandar yo.
	CoP	Eso me lo tiene que pone. You need to be frank, por que if you didn't, you have been put in a corner basically is what you're saying, because if you didn't do it, they would do it.
	GPA Chair	No, no, no ,me lo dijeron. They explained the two mechanisms of why would they bother the mechanisms. In other words, ultimately I am assuming that this affords a more dignified way out because it's through retirement rather than resignation, entonces the Authority can never ask the commissioner for his resignation, basically por que we don't have the authority to ask for his resignation. The only authority that the Authority has is to invite, under the Act, to invite you to resign. Te voy a dejar.
	CoP	No ,no, yo no voy a ir al meeting ahora. Pero iba ir al meeting, tu sabe que yo iba ir al meeting ahora pa respaldar el chief minister del pastiso este, ahora va tener que ir el superintendent mio y el superintendent mio no se va medir las palabras y se lo va dicir a Michael llamas y se va liar la pajaraca. Yo voy a tener que llama a Michael ahora y dicirle mira Michael I cannot go I'm not in a physical state to go, a mental state to go, I've just been served papers that I've got to retire.
	GPA Chair	Buenos served is a legal term, acuerdate que esto
	CoP	I've been served papers to retire and I obviously can't go
	GPA Chair	Inviting you to retire eh, acuerdate
	CoP	I can't I can't entertain with any
40:21	GPA Chair	It's an option. You can make representations y ya I don't know what the outcome is going to be
	CoP	Si pero la parte esa e importante, que, la parte importante que
	GPA Chair	Lee el Act, its very short
	CoP	Yes but what I mean to say is, you invite me to retire and also invite me to make representations. But once those representations are considered what
	GPA Chair	Por eso dice before the full and final view is
	CoP	Can, can you clarify that for me if I can still retire ?
	GPA Chair	I'll find out
	CoP	You know what I mean
	GPA Chair	Si si que
	CoP	How are you going to find out?
41:01	GPA Chair	Pues preguntando; esque esta claro en el Act no se, a alguien le tendre que pregunta , a alguien le tendre que pregunta
	CoP	Por que I want to know
	GPA Chair	Ayi no dice, you can claim pero es que esta claro en la carta. En la carta, this is taken from the Act, en el Act dice you're invited to reitre, pero si quiere hace representations, y ahi lo dice claro before a full and final view is taken
	CoP	Si, pero a final view of, to accept, of accepting the retirement or

	GPA Chair	There's nothing on, a mi no me han dicho nada to resign, ay i es to do with retirement. It's to do with retirement, pero acuerdate que you're not dealing with a lawyer, con que so you may have to, bueno si quiere, you may have to seek advice. Pero I'm going to, me voy a tener que ir por que I'm not making things any better for you by being here, pero pero tu tiene que sabe que esto no es facil para mi tampoco. Ni pa mi, ni para nadie.
42:02	CoP	Yo creo que si tu habria tenido concerns tu me lo hubiera dicho no? the Authority would have
42:07	GPA Chair	If I had been alive to any concerns, po claro, si no yo somebody else from the Authority
	CoP	And you've keep your abreast tambien con la cuestion del collision at sea diciendote todo lo steps que hemos tomado y todo. The coroner hasn't expressed any concerns tampoco
	GPA Chair	Bueno pero eso, eso es parte de lo de
	CoP	Que digo que why have they gone to this drastic measure, this is what I'm getting at. Why has this been the drastic measure of
42:38	GPA Chair	Possible because Gibraltar doesn't operate in a bubble and whatever we do here affects Spain, Britain and, yo que se, our reputation
	CoP	I know, that's why I've been airing my concerns to the attorney general. In fact I, el chief minister estaba un vez en inglaterra y I said mira chief estoy concerned que esto a pasado en españa, y me dice don't worry I've got something in mind me dijo. le dije fine, pero me dijo que me lo iba explicar y no me lo pudo explicar, y covid vino
	GPA Chair	Porque alomejor se creia que era
43:38	CoP	No no no, y Michael le digo, Michael el chief minister que lo que dicia, no, no, que this was based on co-operation y que it's a defendable matter and Michael's been telling me all along que no, que this is part de lo que se va habla en lo workstreams de de Brexit y todo. Que mal, que mal, que mal, que mal. Tu sabe que yo voy hscer 36 años no? este año. What a way, what a way. No me lo merezco esto Joey
	GPA Chair	No a pasado nada.
	CoP	No! por favor!
	GPA Chair	Nothing's happened. Pero acuerdate que because
	CoP	The underlying issue yo se cual es
	GPA Chair	Fine
44:17	CoP	Ahora I'm been pushed, I am been pushed into a corner, whether I save my skin which ahora mismito digo..... I have to porque yo soy un tio de integridad, a mi que me can a pisotear asi? No me lo merezco, no me lo merezco de verdad que no me lo merezco; simply because I have executed, bueno we've executed a search warrant at the chambers of an individual who's suspected of..... that is the bottom line
	GPA Chair	That's
	CoP	Pero es que te digo que that is the bottom line.

	GPA Chair	Pero that's not
	CoP	Yo lo que quisiera sabe porque no esta, porque no pide esta pregunta, why aren't they concerned about the way we have handled that particular case? And provide details, because that has serious repercussions.
	GPA Chair	The governor seemed to be in the know porque, porque the meeting estaban hablando the way that you handled, because, porque me mensiono que even the AG had lost faith in you con que, so, so they had that conversation. Yo, como no estaba hablando conmigo no tome nota de lo que dijeron ellos.
	CoP	Bueno eso es importante. Bueno tu me lo a dicho ya, y I will make a note of that. Joey, that there's reference to operation Dehli which is the case I'm referring to.
	GPA Chair	Yo no se nada de eso
	CoP	No pero I'm referring to the case que even the AG has lost faith in me
	GPA Chair	Pero he said que he can't speak for the AG
	CoP	But he's said it con que I'm
	GPA Chair	Si si no no pero yo te pongo
	CoP	Yo quiero que tu me diga todo
	GPA Chair	El puede decir si si pero lo que pasa es que a mi no me han dado un carta tampoco, I was taking notes, pero yo te puedo, I can write up the notes on a point by point
	CoP	And please tell me; and if there's reference to that case in question I think it needs, because that is key, that is key
	GPA Chair	No no, what was mentioned is the way you handled cases, que you had lied, you lied basically to the chief minister
	CoP	On what?
	GPA Chair	Or omitted the truth. Erm that's
	CoP	On what esperate, esperate, esperate, on what?
	GPA Chair	I'll find out..... or que you kept the truth from them or que you, vamo que why would they lose faith or, faith no es la palabra, confidence in you
	CoP	I lied in what? in what? in the collision or in that particular case
	GPA Chair	In everything, in in everything

Translated transcript of meeting between GPA Chair Ian McGrail (CoP) at CoP's office
[translated parts in BLUE]

Tape counter times	Person speaking	Text
00:37	GPA Chair	Basically I'm supposed to call you to the Authority and there tell you what I have to you, but I said this is best face to face one person alone because the truth is I have never done anything like this in my life I was called during the week a meeting, the Governor and Chief Minister, but the meeting was initiated by the Minister in the convent.
	CoP	The Chief Minister?
	GPA Chair	No, by the Governor sorry, and the Governor said the Chief Minister will also be there; can you make it? and I said when? (inaudible) and went.
1:19	GPA Chair	And between both of them they said that they've lost complete confidence, I have to tell you lost complete confidence in your leadership and management of the RGP. I asked based on what? Right, the conversation started, I have notes eh, where they explained there are two sections in the Act. One, the Governor can simply ask the commissioner to resign I think under section 13 or something like that and in section 34 the CoP can be invited to retire but the commissioner can also make representations to argue the case as to why u shouldn't retire. They explained that Gibraltar had been put in a very, very, very poor position because of the incident at sea and I was told not to delve too much in this as they were going to write to you separately and yesterday I was told that they had written to you. I'm not sure because I haven't checked mine so I do not know if I have received a copy or not . The incident at sea apparently is very, very, very grave and what they explained is, nothing that you won't know, that its put Gibraltar in a very bad position with Spain and with Britain, all those things. I won't go into detail because technically it's not something the Authority can do anything about. The report leads them to believe that reasons regressed instead of progressed, I, clearly various things, things about this. A couple of things I couldn't answer because I felt that was for you really. I didn't want to mention other commissioners either. Well, they asked me, have you any idea why there's still so many recommendations pending from the previous report, and actually I mentioned, he doesn't want to mention any third parties, there's probably an explanation there. They then went on to say going through the report, the issue of not being alive to corruption I think it's to do, I am not sure its to do with the whole reputation of Gibraltar resting on the police. In fact, they went through the report on the issues of even independence of the police can be tainted, I've never seen it that way, can be tainted by not being alive to corruption because somebody might do, do something and its because they've got, that doesn't mean that its you who's doing it. But essentially they reiterated that they have completely lost confidence, now, as they explained, they've put the Authority in a position where we are left with no option, why? Because if the Governor asks you to step down he can only do so if the Authority hasn't done its job in default, well they said that clearly. But they realise that you may have explanations, so section 34 is where the Authority invites you to retire, right, but gives you time to make representations and unfortunately I've been asked to hand you that letter. But to do this in front of the whole of the Authority. I've had a couple of meetings with them and I had to make some phone calls to make sure that the Authority also feels that there is no option and everybody is in agreement. Erm, having said that, the preference is, the thing is retirement is not the same as resignation, if you see what I mean, I don't expect you to answer or say anything at all, honestly, you can see how uncomfortable

5:25	CoP	My initial reaction Joey, this is a complete travesty, because there is an underlying
5:36	GPA Chair	Wait, wait, the Governor was there and he also agreed that he had lost confidence in the leadership and management, erm, this is not one party saying it, its both of them, now the Authority is bound to do something about it because we've been told we have to. Now, there's the option of, when you read the letter you'll see what I mean. There's the option of preparing a response
6:12	CoP	Which for my own integrity I'm bound to do so, I've got to I think
	GPA Chair	I can't give you advice
	CoP	No, no but what I'm saying is, from what you're telling me
6:21	GPA Chair	Well it depends on why you retire, because someone can say I'm retiring for personal reasons
	CoP	No, no but I'm not thinking that, I'm thinking about the, in a way the personal attack that has been levelled at me, and an opportunity to express myself, no?
	GPA Chair	Yes yes absolutely, but I also tell you, there is nothing in the Act to stop you from making representations to the Authority either in, I prefer that it is in writing and then in person but I would prefer it in writing. You can explain everything if you want. .
	CoP	And that. What is that because I haven't even looked at the
	GPA Chair	Well, the Act doesn't say anything but I have been advised that seven days, but if you, wait, wait, if you need more time, you tell me and you say look in seven days I can't prepare this. But essentially, there's a bit in the report that indirectly calls the, puts the RGP into disrepute. The answer is to why the previous report seems to have been ignored, and I said no, that they had been met. I also said that you already, since you got the report that you met quite a few of the recommendations, I actually said that. I think what's triggered this, apart from anything else, from what they said, is, actually the incident at sea, according to the Governor. The the meeting was very, very long and everything was aired. The issue is….
7:54	CoP	When was the meeting held? This meeting?
	GPA Chair	Monday or Tuesday. Monday, The thing is that I had to give notice to, because not everyone could make it, so I had to call people, I had to give notice to the Authority so I couldn't meet immediately.
	CoP	I mean the meeting between you and the chief minister I'm referring to.
	GPA Chair	No no, me and the chief minister no. me and the Governor and the chief minister.

	CoP	That's what I mean.
	GPA chair	That was on Monday. I was called on a Sunday
	CoP	This Monday?
	GPA chair	Si si, esta semana
	CoP	Ok
	GPA Chair	I was called on Monday, erm and was told I had to discuss it with the Authority, and I said yes that is what the Act says, I need a quorum, the chairperson can't take a decision, erm, but then, the position the Authority has been put in, if what the Governor and the chief minister is saying that they have no, they've lost
	CoP	But what is the position of the Authority? Is the Authority accepting that? Have you had any concerns about me?
	GPA Chair	No, no wait, we would have told you
	CoP	Exactly
	GPA Chair	Exactly. We would have told you, so if you want that can be part of the...
	CoP	No, but what I mean to say is, are you expecting me to resign, to retire? are you expecting me to retire? because
	GPA Chair	I have to explain the situation. The meeting started by, because I'm not a lawyer, what was explained to me was that there are two options, for the removal of a commissioner. One is through retirement, the other one is through resignation. And that's the nuclear option, to actually ask the, no ask no, request the commissioner's resignation. So clearly, they feel that the incident at sea is serious enough to warrant that.
	CoP	But, but, but, but
	GPA Chair	What they say, basically what they said is that you hadn't been (inaudible) with giving them information
	CoP	I've read the letter today and obviously I've started to
	GPA Chair	It's very long isn't it?
	CoP	No, no but it's not that. It's that there's a lot of unfortunate inaccuracies there that this, the catalyst for the chief ministers letter to me arises from a very recent letter of claim, or suggestion of claim from Verralls to us, saying that they are now representing the families and they now want details because they are going to initiate a claim. Now when there's letters of claim of that nature, from what I've learnt throughout the years here, is that we engage with the crown counsel. Normally that's done by someone in the headquarters division. So I assign it to Cathal Yeats to link up with Director of Public Prosecution to say can you appoint a counsel to defend, to sort of to represent the RGPs interest in this and he does that, he goes and sees Christian Rocca and Christian Rocca says look I'm in a bit of a quandary here because I don't know if my chambers could do this, because there could be, we don't know what the final outcome of the recommendations of the independent team coming whether that's going to be a case of organisational learning from a, whether there's going to be conduct issues, there could even be criminal liabillty and Christian Rocca was a bit uneasy to say, to commit to representing, but that he would consult with the AG to see what the suggestions were, and one of the suggestions, the possibilities was to farm it to someone. So that conversation was had between DPP and AG and the AG says well I'll have to tell the RGP to write to me and then I'll consult with the Chief Minister. Because it involves funding. Not that we were asking for funding, it's that we were asking for representation.

11:23	GPA Chair	What you were saying was look we foresee that there's going to be extra expenditure
	CoP	Not so much extra expenditure, that we need representation. I mean this happens because in the past, like for example, there's been a search warrant and they've broken a door down and the owner of the house claims, there's civil claims. And that is, there was a reaction from the Chief Minister, a very tough reaction, which I was quite surprised myself, in the sense that he was claiming that I hadn't, that he wasn't up to speed with all these things, but yet again I have been meeting up with Michael and I've been meeting up with Michael throughout and with the DPP of lately, expressing my concerns about this and Michael has been my middle person to get to the chief minister
	GPA chair	Those things, because they are part of what I was told, you have to tell the Authority in terms of,
12:14	CoP	I think I have even briefed
	GPA Chair	Yes,yes. No no no, no that you have to tell me about the incident at sea, that this explanation, the reason why the preference is to alert you to a section 34 is because there is provision in the second part, 1 y 2 that's it, it's very simple el 1 y 2, y 2 says the commissioner may make representations to the Authority and, because the Authority has to seek consent from, it's been done the wrong way round, in other words, they told us we are going to trigger this. There's two ways of doing it. In other words, from the Authority's perspective, we haven't taken a firm view, but this
12:56	CoP	Have I lost my job?
	GPA Chair	Right now, no. Right now no.
	CoP	So what's the situation then?
	GPA Chair	The letter you're invited, we have to invited you to resign
	CoP	But
	GPA Chair	But if you don't feel that you can
	CoP	But what you're giving me 7 days to make a decision?
	GPA Chair	To make no. To make representations,look
	CoP	Yes , but what effect does that letter have. Do I know have to hand in everything here and I've got go, or I don't know
	GPA Chair	No, no, no, you're not suspended or anything You now have to, it's an invitation, it's an invitation, I think the other way would be, you would lose your job if the Governor
	CoP	This is a travesty Joey. This is a travesty. This is a serious travesty
	GPA Chair	I can't comment . Honestly, anything that you have to say, tell everybody is going to be there, the Authority. You make the explanations on that, because then, once you make the representations we have to take a view but also go to the Governor and the chief minister. Any one of them, in the act it says any one of them can trigger both of them can trigger this but any one of them can take the final decision. We need consent so in other words, you can't be removed without anyone's consent, the consent is needed. In fact, you can't even retire without having the consent of one of them. The, there is no easy way of saying this, because the other route is the Authority is in default and that means simply that not even a, not even a chance

	GPA Chair	But do not tell me now, say it there.
	CoP	But I tell you now, that I have I've been threatened, now what? this is a situation whether I save my skin and I come forward with absolutely everything,
14:43	GPA Chair	Honestly, I would like to advise you, but no
	CoP	No, no, no, I'm not asking you to advise
	GPA Chair	I'm conscious that and this is something I was reminded of in John's times, that there has to be a quorum there has to be a minimum of 6 people and more so in important y more so in important decisions, that's why its taken so long, and more so that everything has to be explained to everyone, but the bottom line is, the bottom line is, that I was called to a meeting, the Authority was called to a meeting, and the view was expressed clearly, very clearly that both sides of government, the Governor and the chief minister had lost faith in you, had no faith in you.
15:26	CoP	I've never had that feedback from the Governor. I've had the feedback from the chief minister arising from certain actions that we carried out, executive actions that we carried out on, which I think I briefed you on and that is the catalyst behind this all in my view but but I've not had a reaction from the Governor. On the contrary
15:47	GPA Chair	Honestly, I was just as surprised.
	CoP	Are you surprised?
	GPA Chair	Yes, yes of course, and so are the Authority members but the thing is that there is no option left, because the other option would be simply to dis-appoint you rather, in the same way you were appointed to dis-appoint you directly by the Governor and I think they want to avoid that, they want it to be your choice, erm from what I can see, but the the phrase, 'we have lost faith in in our commissioner' and they are worried that the RGP seems to have regressed, I'm in no position to say because I wasn't there, I've only been like yourself, two years
	CoP	Regressed in what sense?
	GPA Chair	Well, that, rather than regressed, that it hasn't progressed as much as they felt it should in terms of policies and all that. Also remember that
	CoP	One of the first things I did was have the Authority erm, check all the policies, which was never done in the past.
16:51	GPA Chair	Another thing that I, I didn't know this because I wasn't involved, this was brought up, in your application as commissioner you said that immediately, with immediate effect you were going to set up a working party to meet all the recommendations, or most of the recommendations of the previous report and that one question that we've been asked to ask you. Was that done and and (inaudible) so that's the other one.

	CoP	Yeh yeh.
17:16	GPA Chair	They clearly are worried about international, that's how the Governor tells me, reputation in terms of
17:22	CoP	What's your view of engaging with HMI and finding out that if the report warrants my
	GPA Chair	The thing is. I wouldn't be able to do that myself, because it talks about the RGP, I presume you could do it yourself. Honestly look, I think you need time, If you want I will read the letter
	CoP	What a shock. What a shock Joey.
	GPA Chair	I have worked 40 years in government and never have I had to do anything like this.
	CoP	This is a shock. I'm shocked.
	GPA Chair	No, no, I know you're shocked, that's why you're not reacting, erm , but the bottom line is that they, this way is giving you more more leeway because you can make representations to the Authority before a final view is taken. But remember, the wording of the letter, it's an invitation to retire right. Now, I wouldn't know on what terms you can retire. Pero clearly, you have to give it a lot of thought
18:49	GPA Chair	The important part is about the firm and final view, that has not erm, happened.
	CoP	I don't see, with respect, with respect, I don't see any, the shots have been called by way above the Authority.
	GPA Chair	But the the Governor is the the Governor is the person who called me to the meeting and told me the chief minister was going to be there as well by the way. And the Governor started the the meeting
	CoP	I could even cause a constitutional crisis here Joey.
	GPA Chair	Mira, I've had to do what I've been obliged to do, what, how you react is, is up to you, look, I am going to leave you a with your own thoughts.Honestly Ian.
	CoP	It isn't just, It isn't just, It isn't just. It's not just. It's very unjust.
	GPA Chair	Like I say
	CoP	Very, very unjust.
	GPA Chair	I need you to calm down , to take advice, if you need to, and whatever, but that we are willing to listen to your representations and that
	CoP	And what happens? After that, if I, if I make representations, would you consider them?
	GPA Chair	We would consider them and we go to the Governor and the chief minister
	CoP	And, well, they say yes, they say yes, we accept the recommendations, the submissions and we go back, or they say we don't, the invitation to retire still stands
	GPA Chair	No, if they say, put it this way, if you say right now you are going to ignore this, its an invitation, its an invitation, you're not being forced. It's an invitation. I am presuming that they would then trigger the section 13, the Governor removes you, I am assuming,

		I haven't been told that. There must be a reason why the preference is to do it this way, to give you the the the option. Erm but why don't you go home Ian.
	CoP	I don't know .
	GPA Chair	Go home.
21:04	CoP	Home? Go home Joey? This is an injustice, Joey.
	GPA Chair	No, no, no, no, no, I mean to,
	CoP	This is an injustice, I am shocked
	GPA Chair	You can imagine.
	CoP	Do you know the only thing that I have at peace? my conscience. And my ethics which remain up here. I am being muscled out here because there are other underlying issues and that is what I'm toying with. I'm toying with whether if I defend myself, I sink Gibraltar, basically, at this crucial time, or whether I take the hit and save Gibraltar. But that is not going to be viewed like that.
	GPA Chair	But wait, wait.,
	CoP	That is what I'm toying with. Because
	GPA Chair	You can be perfectly open with the Authority.
	CoP	I cannot be open with the Authority, Well, my first reaction if I was a loose cannon, is go and see the Governor with a big file. With a big file and then, but that is damaging for Gibraltar
22:10	GPA Chair	They, look, the Authority is acting on the premise that both the Governor and the chief minister have categorically stated that both have lost faith in you. And If we don't
22:27	CoP	Have you got that in writing from them?
	GPA Chair	no
	CoP	I need that in writing
	GPA Chair	That's it, that they've lost faith in you.
	CoP	Yes, but I need the reasons .
	GPA Chair	The reasons is.
22:45	CoP	No, I would want that in writing to defend my case. I think the reasons have to be (inaudible) to me becauseyou are giving me
	GPA Chair	No, no okay . I was told that you were going to be sent the, the reasons, about the maritime.....
	CoP	There's no reference there to
	GPA Chair	No no
	CoP	Asking me to retire
	GPA Chair	But that is part of what the Authority is
	CoP	Well
	GPA Chair	That is what I have to ask you, what, what is happening
	CoP	Yes, yes but that is not linked to this letter. If it is , its not written.
	GPA Chair	No, no I'm not saying its linked.

	CoP	If it is, if it is, if that's one of the reasons you've been told
	GPA Chair	The loss of faith, one of the reasons of the loss of faith, or the loss of confidence in you is the way it's been handled apparently. The maritime incident.
	CoP	Yes, but apparently is not good enough for me. I need to know in writing what the Authority has been asked to consider for you to send me this. Because you've sent me this, but you've lost that
23:41	GPA Chair	No, no, no, no it should be enough by me saying I have the main points here., but I
	CoP	This in respect of certain aspects of policing that have lead to serious loss of , I need I need to
	GPA Chair	Look, grave concerns expressed by the Governor and chief minister in terms of loss of confidence. The main things that were mentioned, the contents of the report, the incident at sea, then they explain that they've lost confidence in you because mainly failing to inform them or failing to keep them at
24:36	CoP	But look, how can they ask me that if I haven't even responded to that yet? How can they, they've arrived to a certain situation, a very pre-emptive situation when I haven't even had the opportunity to explain. Do you see what I mean? Would you be able to revert and say look if the questions of the, if the content of the report that has regenerated so much concerns which evidently hasn't generated the concerns of the Authority or the Governor himself, because the Governor has not mentioned it to me
	CoP	Right, but
	GPA Chair	I'll highlight the
	CoP	And and so the report, the contents of the report fine. The report stands on its own. Fine. If it's to do with the handling of the collision at sea , I've been asked by the chief minister to respond to that but that is the reason why I'm being served this so can
	GPA Chair	One of the reasons.
	CoP	There's two reasons. You've told me there's two reasons. Yes o no?
	GPA Chair	Yes, yes there's two main reasons.But I took my personal notes, the thing is I haven't brought them with me but I took my own personal notes of the meeting where they gave me the reasons, you can take it from me,but you don't need to .
	CoP	I need to I need to
	GPA Chair	I will send them to you now.
	CoP	I would be grateful if it was in writing, because this is now a very....,
	GPA Chair	When you make representations you can base It on the points that I said
	CoP	The certain aspects of policing I need to know what those certain aspects are, erm , and we were at the point of saying that if I make representations and they are accepted or not accepted, what that, how does that leave me.

	GPA Chair	I will explain, ilf the Authority accepts the recommendations, and say look, there really isn't a need for him to go, because they triggered it, we still need to go to the chief minister and Governor, and say look we don't think that, or we do think or we don't think but then its up to them, erm
	CoP	Then basically you haven't got a say.
	GPA Chair	The meeting started with, that's why, the meeting didn't start with saying we've lost confidence, the meeting started with the different ways through the Act in which they can express, if you like, the the loss of confidence in a commissioner, and one is ask them to retire by the Authority or simply remove
	CoP	Yes, but I want to know what has been the cause of loss of confidence
	GPA Chair	Yo, I've got notes, honestly I have notes, I haven't brought them because of my nerves.
	CoP	No but notes, the notes, you've told me, I think I need it in writing no? at least I deserve that in writing
	GPA Chair	No no definitely. It's my fault that, it's my fault. It's my fault for not having brought them with me. I have them. I have the reasons clearly laid out. Before, let me send them to you, can I send them by email? Its quicker.
	CoP	However you want Joey. This is not right.
	GPA Chair	The the Authority has been put in this position
	CoP	Yes but even the Authority, yeh I accept that,but even then you're not going have a final say
	GPA Chair	Well, the Authority can't ever have the final say because we're all appointed by the Governor and the commissioner is appointed by the Governor
	CoP	Yes but the point of independence, the independence factor here, is the issue.
	GPA Chair	He has the final say through section 13.Then and apparently it's one of the two, the Authority needs to consult both of them, but a decision can be taken by one of the two.
	CoP	Which it has been taken, obviously. Who generates this issue?
	GPA Chair	Well, the Governor called me.
	CoP	Yes, but do you know who generated it? Did you ask ?
	GPA Chair	The Governor called me
	CoP	Is there any reason why you didn't ask?
	GPA Chair	I assumed it was the Governor. My assumption it was the Governor because he called me.He called me and it wasn't in Number 6, it was in the Convent.
	CoP	This has all been triggered off from the impromptu meeting that I was called to in the chief ministers chamber with the AG. That is where it all stems from. There's no doubt at all, at all, at all that that is where this is stemming from. The fact that he has not been in agreement with the way we have been handling the case of the involving Jaime Levy. I was threatened there and then, and I was told that he was going to call up, in other words there was like, total interference with the operational running. That is against the law itself. Look, now this is how the issues

	GPA Chair	Like I say, there's nothing, I am assuming, there's nothing stopping you from seeking, what is all this about, look at what the Authority has done, they are not going to say that is up to the Authority, because I've told you that I was called to a meeting and told that section 34 had to be triggered because by default section 13 would be triggered but they both lost confidence in you, the majority of the meeting was to do with the maritime incident and the repercussions for Gibraltar
	CoP	That was it? I've got no issues, I've got the trail of
	GPA Chair	The majority, but then that you hadn't been forth right but its connected with that. Issues to do with the report, to do with the being alive to corruption and things like that, that I can write for you, because and you can have answers.
	CoP	The concerns regarding the report.
	GPA Chair	Yes, yes the concerns
	CoP	By the report
	GPA Chair	Now, I did mention also that we'd met with the Minister for Justice to erm, to discuss the contents of the report
	CoP	Does she know?
	GPA Chair	She didn't react
	CoP	She did react. She said that she wasn't overly concerned.
	GPA Chair	That's why,I said there were areas in the report where she could actually help and support. There are areas in the report that are quite close to her heart. In the Act the Minister for Justice doesn't appearthey said. I said well no,I'm saying, I'm not telling you because it's that, I'm telling you because
	CoP	She's the minister with responsibility for policing, she deals with resourcing issuesand things like that .
	GPA Chair	Look, I'm going hold,I'm going to send you exactly what
	CoP	Joey this is a complete travesty eh, its
	GPA Chair	I just can't give you an opinion, until, if you choose to
	CoP	We haven't clarified yet is that if I choose to respond to you provide you with representations which is not a question of challenging anything, it's a question of
	GPA Chair	No nobut you might feel so strongly, that the
	CoP	But then the question is then that if it's not accepted then I am fired as opposed to retiring.
	GPA Chair	That's unclear in the Act actually. I see what you mean. You might make representations but,
	CoP	And then retire
	GPA Chair	And then retire
	CoP	Claro claro. That's what I'm saying. Or not.
	GPA Chair	Yes, yes I see what you mean, because you're not refusing. Remember this is not an instructionthis is an invitation to retire, you're absolutely correct, then you're given a certain amount of time, if you need more time, there's a provision which is not in the Act.

	CoP	And then after providing you with that response, I may say look if these, does your view change? If it changes, then if it doesn't change, then I would have to consider the invitation
	GPA Chair	Exactly. What what was explained to me that we consider the considerations and we go to the Governor and the chief minister, with them, but you're right, it's not that the, the Authority is in a position to say no no were not going to, this is the important part, were not going to invite him to retire, we don't believe you simply what would have happened was section 13, which is why this allows for representations, its fair, the thing is that it's to do with
33:36	CoP	Would the Authority question if you were, for arguments sake, hypothetically, I'm thinking ahead, if I make my response to argue the case that I shouldn't accept the invitation, and convince the Authority, and then you share it with the Governor and the chief minister and then they are still of the view, would you ask them any explanations as to why?
	GPA Chair	We would
	CoP	But you would not be able to go against it?
33:48	GPA Chair	We may be put in such a position that we would have to stand down if there is a direct erm, conflict, because
	CoP	Would you do that?
	GPA Chair	I can't speak for the others, I haven't made up
	CoP	Hypothetically, if I write to you and I do not convince you, then look, I am fucked.
	GPA Chair	The good thing,
	CoP	If I argue my case that this should not be the case,
	GPA Chair	We would say, we don't see it as sufficient grounds. Having said that the issue here is that it's not the Authority, that is why the three were mentioned., the Authority has to be, has to have full confidence in you, which right now its completely, as you, what's happened, but it's the Governor and the chief minister, who are the two main principal parties that have to have confidence in the police. I will put it
35:07	CoP	I will have to get a lawyer and all Joey. My biggest call here is what I'm telling you. My biggest call here is, do I create a constitutional crisis? Because the chief minister is suspected of a crime? ok?
	GPA Chair	If you want
35:34	CoP	No, no but I say, I am telling you because I am letting off a bit of steam. I am informed that he was aware of all that is alleged, it is alleged that the, Cornelio, John Perez, and that if I create, do do that and affects Gibraltar the way it does or it ends up worse for me or
	GPA Chair	Pero that that you need to seek advice, what I'm trying to say is that, if you tell me something now, I can't now go back to the Authority and say he's said this this and that because you have to think about all the options. What I am telling you is that the Authority can reach up to there and then there's the Governor and the chief minister, and it only takes one of them, one of them not having full confidence, but that's not for this section, that's for section 13.

	CoP	You also see it unjust don't you?
	GPA Chair	I really can't comment honest because I am relatively new to this. Most chair people have 6 years and I have just started and it has caught me by surprise, what can I say. But then again I'm not involved at those levels. What is, as I say, the core, the incident at sea was discussed at length, they haven't got much information that this did not apparently occur here, it occurred quite far , very far, substantially,
	CoP	Yes, yes well what I'm told. More transparent that what we've been, we've called a team from abroad to come over. I don't know what else they want me to do. I have brought over an accident investigator and on Wednesday he was doing '3D scanning' we are feeding the coroner all the time. I have been speaking with the Spanish via email asking how the matter is going there, they reply that a judge had not been appointed until only recently. I am telling Michael all about this, look Michael, this is not going to go away, we need to have the strategy in place of how were going to deal with it, as Gibraltar, from the local angle to the Spanish angle. I am telling Michael all this and Michael agrees with me. And he says yes, yes are you going to deal with, I will mention it to the chief minister all these conversations, and he has also said well let's wait for the final report from the investigating team; I have done everything as it should be done. Everything, everything, everything everything.
	GPA Chair	What I started to explain
	CoP	The thing is I don't understand, I am explaining that the trigger has been de que we've gone to the government to ask for representation but by government lawyers, and government lawyers have said que that they have not been able to represent us, that's the catalyst for all this.
	GPA Chair	But wait, que I have to be clear on one thing and you have to know this and you interpret this however you want, that I I was told, I was asked, I was requested by the Governor, to go back to the GPA and tell them that they have both lost faith, the reasons why, it was the incident at sea and all that, but if the answer had been no we don't think he should be asked, offered this way,
	CoP	Que they would do it themselves in other words, I am going to make a note of this.
	GPA Chair	No, I am going to send you that.
	CoP	You have to put that. You need to be frank, because if you didn't, you have been put in a corner basically is what you're saying, because if you didn't do it, they would do it.
	GPA Chair	No, no, no, I was told. They explained the two mechanisms of why would they bother the mechanisms. In other words, ultimately I am assuming that this affords a more dignified way out because it's through retirement rather than resignation, then the Authority can never ask the commissioner for his resignation, basically because we don't have the authority to ask for his resignation. The only authority that the Authority has is to invite, under the Act, to invite you to resign. I am going to leave you.

	CoP	No no I am not going to the meeting now. But I was going to the meeting and you know what, I was going to back the chief minister up in this mess. Now my superintendent will have to go and he won't measure his words and he is going to tell Michael Llamas and all hell will break loose. I will have to call Michael and say look Michael, I cannot go, I'm not in a physical state to go, a mental state to go, I've just been served papers that I've got to retire.
	GPA Chair	Well served is a legal term, remember that
	CoP	I've been served papers to retire and I obviously can't go
	GPA Chair	Inviting you to retire eh, remember
	CoP	I can't I can't entertain with any
40:21	GPA Chair	It's an option. You can make representations and then I don't know what the outcome is going to be
	CoP	Yes, but that part is important , the important part that
	GPA Chair	Read the Act, its very short
	CoP	Yes, but what I mean to say is, you invite me to retire and also invite me to make representations. But once those representations are considered what
	GPA Chair	That's why it says before the full and final view is
	CoP	Can can you clarify that for me if I can still retire?
	GPA Chair	I'll find out
	CoP	You know what I mean
	GPA Chair	Yes yes that
	CoP	How are you going to find out?
41:01	GPA Chair	I will have to ask, the thing is it's clear in the Act, I will have to ask someone, I will have to ask someone.
	CoP	Because I want to know
	GPA Chair	It doesn't say, you can claim, but it's clear in the letter. In the letter, this is taken from the Act, in the Act it says you're invited to retire but of you want you can make representations, and it says it clearly before a full and final view is taken
	CoP	Yes but a final view of, to accept, of accepting the retirement or
	GPA Chair	There's nothing on, I have not been told anything about resigning, it's all to do with retirement. It's to do with retirement, but remember you are dealing with a lawyer but you may have to, well, if you want, you may have to seek advice. But I'm going to, I will have to go, because I'm not making things any better for you by being here, but you have to know that this is not easy for me either, not for me or anybody.
42:02	CoP	I think that if you would have had any concerns you would have told me no? the Authority would have
42:07	GPA Chair	If I had been alive to any concerns, of course, if it wasn't me somebody else from the Authority
	CoP	And I've kept your abreast also with the question of the collision at sea informing you of the steps we've taken and all, The coroner hasn't expressed any concerns either.

	GPA Chair	Well, but that is, that is part of the CoP	Which is why I ask, why have they gone to this drastic measure, this is what I'm getting at. Why has this been the drastic measure of
42:38	GPA Chair	Possibly because Gibraltar doesn't operate in a bubble and whatever we do here affects Spain, Britain and, I don't know , our reputation
	CoP	I know, that's why I've been airing my concerns to the Attorney General. In fact the chief minister was once in England and I told him look chief, I am concerned that this has happened in Spain and he said, don't worry I've got something in mind. I said fine, He said he would explain what he was thinking but he couldn't explain and Covid came.
	GPA Chair	Maybe because he thought that
43:38	CoP	No no no, and Michael I say , Michael the Chief Minister what was he meaning, no, no that this was based on co-operation and that it's a defendable matter and Michael's been telling me all along that no, that this is part of what is going to be discussed in the Brexit workstreams and all. This is awful, this awful, this awful. Do you know I am going to do 36 years this year? What a way. What a way. I do not deserve this Joey.
	GPA Chair	Nothing has happened. .
	CoP	No? please!
	GPA Chair	Nothing's happened, but remember that because
	CoP	The underlying issue, I know what it is.
	GPA Chair	Fine
44:17	CoP	Now I am being been pushed, I am been pushed into a corner, whether I save my skin which right now I say..... I have to because I am a man of integrity, am I just going to get trampled all over? I do not deserve this. I honestly do not deserve this, I do not deserve this. Simply because I have executed, well, we've executed a search warrant at the chambers of an individual who's suspected of..... that is the bottom line
	GPA Chair	That's
	CoP	But, I'm telling you that is the bottom line.
	GPA Chair	But that's not
	CoP	I would want to know why it isn't, why that question is not being asked, why aren't they concerned about the way we have handled that particular case? And provide details, because that has serious repercussions.
	GPA Chair	The Governor seemed to be in the know because, because at the meeting they were talking about the way that you handled, because, because they mentioned the AG had lost faith in you so, so, so they had that conversation. As they were not talking to me I didn't take note of what they said. .
	CoP	Well , that is important. Well, you have told me now and I will make a note of that. Joey, that there's reference to operation Dehli which is the case I'm referring to
	GPA Chair	I do not know about that.

	CoP	No, but I'm referring to the case that even the AG has lost faith in me
	GPA Chair	But he he said that he can't speak for the AG
	CoP	But he's said it so I'm
	GPA Chair	Yes yes, no no, but i will put
	CoP	I want you to tell me everything
	GPA Chair	He can say yes yes, the thing is they haven't given me a letter either. I was taking notes, but I can give you, I can write up the notes on a point by point.
	CoP	And please tell me; and if there's reference to that case in question I think it needs, because that is key, that is key
	GPA Chair	No no, what was mentioned is the way you handled case, that you had lied, you'd lied basically to the Chief Minister
	CoP	On what?
	GPA Chair	Or omitted the truth. Erm that's
	CoP	On what? Wait, wait, wait, on what?
	GPA Chair	I'll find out..... or that you kept the truth from them or that you, sort of why would they lose faith or, faith it's not the word, confidence in you
	CoP	I lied in what, in what, in the collision or in that particular case
	GPA Chair	In everything, in in everything

CONFIDENTIAL

1st November 2017

Gibraltar Police Authority
25B Casemates Barracks
Casemates Square
Gibraltar

Dear Sirs,

Re:- Application for appointment as Commissioner of The Royal Gibraltar Police

I refer to your recent invitation to apply for the appointment as Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police (RGP) and would respectfully ask that you accept this letter as my intention to apply for the said appointment.

I feel totally honoured and privileged to be in this position where after over 33 years of public service as a police officer the opportunity arises where I can be considered for the top policing post in Gibraltar. Way back in 1996, when I was competing for promotion to Sergeant, I vividly recall the then Commissioner of Police, the late Joe Canepa QPM, asking where I saw myself in the police service two decades from thereon: I distinctly remember responding bluntly but very focused and saying "right where you are sitting Sir.....and serving as Commissioner of Police!". That desire I expressed at that time is still very much alive now, in fact more alive than ever before because of the splendid career I am enjoying and the vacancy arising.

The role of Commissioner of the RGP, a Constitutional appointment, is enshrined in the Police Act 2006 s.33 which explains that the post holder will have overall command, superintendence, direction and control of the Force together with responsibility for the efficient administration and government of the Force including the proper expenditure of public funds used for the provision of policing services. To be able to properly discharge these legal requirements the post holder needs to meet certain criteria; the following list of competences are what I feel are the necessary personal qualities the post holder should possess. I have included some examples as evidence of key personal achievements aligned with the said list of competences to demonstrate my own qualities for your esteemed consideration and evaluation.

1. Serving the public

The Commissioner of the RGP must be an individual who is already well known and respected in the community and not necessarily only known because of his police career; known and respected in other social circles too. He must be engaging and work to serve the public's interests with all the diversity a modern Gibraltarian community presents. The Commissioner must also work to build public confidence in the RGP and work with Government, the GPA and other partners to build on an overall better service to the public.

Personal evidence
My past involvement in the local sporting scene and scouting movement has cemented lifelong relationships outside my professional life. Similarly, my membership of the Royal Gibraltar Regiment which I only recently suspended and the St John's Ambulance Association has expanded my outreach to the community outside the police environment. I have no doubt that this has aided my ability to engage with the public as I have been seen not only as a police officer but also as an inclusive member of wider society.

As a senior police officer and particularly in my incumbent post as commander of the Crime and Protective Service Division I lead a very dedicated team of detectives dealing with a myriad of disciplines in the crime domain. I have on many occasions been the RGP's 'talking head' reporting on matters of concern to the public as well as offering reassurance when this has been necessary.

I sit in multi-agency committees/groups such as (i) the legally constituted Child Protection Committee, (ii) the Strategic Management Board for Sex Offender Management (soon to also incorporate violent offenders) and the Executive Committee of the Gibraltar Contingencies Council (GCC) which is the tier below the GCC proper. I chair the Joint Operating Working Group [Land] which works towards optimising Gibraltar's security posture in the land environment with a view of identifying existing and emerging threats to this posture. I have stimulated multi-agency debate to develop contingency responses for a marauding terrorist attack and designed, co-ordinated and directed both multi-agency table-tops and live exercises to test these responses.

1. Leading strategic change

It is necessary for the Commissioner to have a convincing vision and that this vision is well aligned to the values of the police service and it that provides clear direction. It is not healthy for a police force to remain static in terms of innovation and change. Whilst I am not an advocate of introducing change simply for the sake of it, I equally recognise that the ever shifting landscape requires constant reviews of how policing is conducted and how resources are allocated. Whilst austerity has not [yet] reached Gibraltar, I irrespectively feel it is good management and business practice to always seek to deliver value for money services and save unnecessary public expenditure. My personal vision for the next 5 years is contained in a separate paper and therefore I do not intend to rehearse it in this letter.

Personal evidence
I would refer you to the accompanying vision paper entitled 'Delivering a safer Gibraltar, through excellence in the provision of policing services'.

For the past 6 years I have been a member of the senior management team which has embedded Commissioner Yome's culture change from a previously micro-managed styled organisation to one that encourages empowerment and inclusion.

During my time as Superintendent in the headquarters and support function and with a view of uplifting our firearms capability, I was able to negotiate with South Wales Police the procurement of (43) firearms making a saving to the RGP of circa £75,000. I also prepared a business case to argue with Government for extra funding for armed policing requirements.

I also acted as the RGP's senior point of contact for the construction project of new the Marine Base at Gun Wharf. From planning/design to physical construction, the project required constant liaison with architects, developers, builders etc - the end result being a modern fit for purpose facility which instils a host of positives in terms of working environment and staff morale.

Following a period of consultation with the rank and file over concerns regarding personal safety and comfort of uniforms for the front line officer I embarked on a process of researching and procuring protective body armour for Force wide issue together with a more comfortable and practical uniform attire. The outcome was well received by the rank and file as indeed the staff association – the workforce now boast stab and ballistic protection vests purpose made for Gibraltar's requirements and climate together with far more practical and comfortable uniform shirts and trousers.

An EU Directive transposed to local legislation placed an extremely administrative cumbersome responsibility on the RGP to do with the provision of case dockets in the native language of the accused person. To overcome this I researched various options and entered in to a contractual arrangement with a translator and interpreter provider in the UK and we now have a 24/7 service to meet all the requirements imposed by law in this regard. Not only does this save significant officer time, the additional enhancement of having translator and interpreter services for most languages spoken in the world is something which in any case would surpass the RGP's or Gibraltar PLC's ability to provide.

Because of the demand and workload carried by certain units currently under my command, I have held consultations with line managers to seek out solutions and have aligned our resources accordingly. This is very evident in the field of Economic Crime where because of new legislations and expectations we have had to restructure the unit to cater for (i) fraud and (ii) money laundering, counter terrorist financing and asset recovery.

I conducted a gap analysis of our existing terrorism laws and provided rationale to Government for their modernisation, a draft of which together with accompanying codes of practice are being considered for enactment. I am also currently engaged with rolling out a programme of capability/capacity uplifting in Counter Terrorism Policing an area which the RGP dearly requires development.

2. Leading the workforce

During my long law enforcement career I have had the privilege of working with and judging different styles of leadership. To a certain extent this experience has allowed for the development of my personal style. Strong leadership is the bedrock of a police service. The Commissioner has to have sufficient character to inspire staff to meet challenges and targets whilst creating an environment of enthusiasm, rewarding good doers and recognising the efforts of staff. Strong leadership is also necessary during challenging/difficult times in order to instil morale. In my view it is important that the Commissioner is visible and connected within the workplace and whilst keeping a strategic outlook, remains sufficiently savvy about the detail and has the ability to dip into it if required.

Personal evidence
A leadership quote which resonates very closely to my thinking is that of the late US General Schwarzkopf, who led a 750,000 strong coalition force to liberate Kuwait when invaded by Iraq in 1991 – the infamous Op Desert Storm. He said, "Leadership is a potent combination of strategy and character. But if you must be without one, be without the strategy". It is sometimes the most simple and overseen actions that can display good leadership. I make it a point of recognising good work by dropping an email to individual officers and when possible I have face to face contact with them, even if these officers are not directly under my command. I have also recommended officers for more formal recognition under the RGP Honours and Awards Policy. Having been a front line officer for most of my career, I know how important it is for senior management to support and be seen to support the front line. To this end and because of the challenges front line officers were facing, I proposed that senior officers made it a point to patrol alongside junior ranks during the most busy periods of the week and this was unanimously accepted and very well received by the staff.

I am the only serving superintendent to have commanded all three divisions in the RGP (Operations – Crime – Support) and can therefore relate to the challenges faced in them together with the different personnel dynamics and leadership traits that have to be applied respectively.

3. Managing performance

A policing vision requires a tactical plan to convert the vision to a reality. The Commissioner should in consultation with his senior team establish a clear strategy with SMART objectives. It is important to navigate through obstacles to performance by removing these obstacles and managing resources to ensure best delivery and value for money. Under-performing officers and the reasons for their poor performance also require attention and intervention in order to redress.

Personal evidence
It is a recognised notion that a happy team reaps better results, so in this regard junior and middle line managers are key to motivating officers – I am a strong promoter of this. In order to better prepare Sergeants and Inspectors as managers/leaders and indeed those constables showing potential as future Sergeants, I organised a series of courses under the auspices of Institute of Leadership and Management which were successfully delivered and completed by 50 officers. The said courses covered personal responsibility in working towards organisational goals – making our managers realise that they are accountable for performance of their teams.

I am a firm believer of turning up for work and putting in an effort for honest day's living and I promulgate this 'philosophy' to my colleagues. Understandingly so, not everyone can produce the same levels of output so I play to the strengths of each individual to extract the best in them.

I am extremely fortunate that Crime and Protective Services Division officers are probably the most self-motivated officers in the organisation and therefore there is very little need for direct intervention on my part. I am, however, very conscious of their welfare as they can become overly engrossed in their tasks to the detriment a reasonable work/life balance. They work in the higher of risk areas and carry the most serious of crime work pulling off great results which significantly contribute to the detection rates published in the annual report.

I have had occasion to address poor performances and lack of commitment to the job, acting to address each instance accordingly with varied levels of success.

4. Professionalism

Honesty, integrity, high values and the best ethical standards depicts the qualities a Commissioner should portray coupled with determination and drive to ensure things get done. Unlike previous eras where it would be unheard of for a Commissioner to acknowledge shortcomings in the service, in my view it is good practice to openly accept any shortcomings and commit to putting them right. During turbulent times, the Commissioner must remain calm and collected when under pressure. He must also take personal responsibility for difficult, contentious or unpopular decisions.

Personal evidence
I have an unblemished discipline record. I was the pioneer in 2001, setting the tone for a wave of senior officers to undertake Higher Education academic studies on police related subjects. In essence, I am of the view that this has enriched the RGP with the setting of higher benchmarks of professionalism and academia to compliment already acquired experience and skill sets.

I encourage the Detective Inspectors in my Division to share their concerns and pressures with me so that [some] of the risk burden is lifted off themselves – this gives them a sense of security whilst I campaign for solutions behind the scenes. They are fully aware that I cannot wave a magic wand and make things happen straight away but they take comfort that senior management have their backs whilst they plough on with criminal case work.

There have been very testing times and situations where the reputation of both the RGP and personal reputation have been at stake. During these times I have always operated with common sense and within the confines of the law, with certainty and conviction and without fear or favour. Similarly, I have managed very sensitive matters keeping operational security in tact.

5. Decision making

The ability to assimilate copious amounts of information and make quick and spontaneous decisions is a competency that a Commissioner must command. There is also a requirement for the decision making process to be justified and rationalised. In assuming responsibility for ultimate decisions, even when these have been made on the back of unclear circumstances, the Commissioner must consider the wider impact and implications that fall out from the decision(s) in question. It is also important that a process is invoked that allows for a review of these critical decisions to ensure that they remain fit for purpose.

Personal evidence
The National Decision Model is the recognised model to follow in the UK police service. The RGP have followed suit and I was the first RGP officer to be exposed to this model in 2011-12 and commence its local application. It is a model that if applied properly can withstand scrutiny at different levels.

I readily accept where my levels of knowledge and experience can take me when it comes to decision making, more so in critical circumstances. Consequently, I have had to rely on advice of more experienced and/or skilled individuals, always retaining the responsibility for the outcome of the decision taken. An example of this was during the recent intervention of a bulk carrier following information disclosed to me by the US Drugs Enforcement Administration that it was laden with a large consignment of Cocaine – the situation warranting an armed intervention to ensure safety of officers.

6. Working with others

The Commissioner must be able to consult and involve others in the decision making process, showing tact, respect and understanding to the views of others. The private sector has a lot to offer in terms of contributions to maintain the jurisdiction safe from crime and enhance security. It is therefore key that the Commissioner is able to work with any sector whose intentions are in the overall interests of Gibraltar's safety, always negotiating effectively, representing the interests of the RGP.

Personal evidence
Cyber dependant and cyber enabled crime is very much under reported in Gibraltar. This phenomenon is not exclusive to Gibraltar and the RGP has a role to raise awareness, reduce and prevent this type of crime from affecting so many victims. In June 2017, the RGP partnered with the private sector to bring to Gibraltar a world class cyber security event. I undertook to be the RGP point of contact with the partnering firm to present this event. 245 delegates from public and private sector attended with the Chief Minister and HE the Governor hailing it as a success and worthwhile project.

The policing of major events requires close co-operation with other essential services, public agencies, organisers and private entities. During my service as Superintendent Operations, I planned and oversaw the execution of the policing arrangements in major events such as the Royal visit of HRH Prince Andrew and the Countess of Wessex, Gibraltar National Week including the Gib Music Festival, National Day rally, general elections, Queen's birthday parades, the 3 Kings Calvacade and Guy Fawkes (when this was renowned for acute anti-social behaviour and violence).

In my present post, I have been assigned responsibility for building relationships with international partners. I have been able to negotiate the reinstatement of the RGP in the very important forum as is the National Counter Terrorism Policing HQ Business Area Meetings where regional UK police chiefs periodically meet with the CT National Co-coordinator, DAC Neil Basu, Assistant Commissioner Mark Rowley who is the most senior CT police officer in UK and SyS and SIS. RGP attendance at this forum had been discontinued over 6 years ago for reasons unknown to me. Closer contact with SO15 Counter Terrorism Command, New Scotland Yard, has also been enhanced. I also keep alive relationships with the USA's FBI and DEA via the US Embassy in Madrid. I am responsible for flourishing Spanish law enforcement relationships and I am very pleased with the progress, particularly with the Servicio Vigilancia Aduanera who on occasions have been rather conflicting and hostile on operations at sea. A very good relationship is also maintained with the Guardia Civil's UC2 responsible for international terrorism as indeed the Cuerpo Nacional de Policia, Comisaria de Informacion in Canillas, their HQ in Madrid. Despite the already known political influences which unfortunately hinders full operational co-operation, I can sincerely state that working with the stated Spanish law enforcement agencies has been very productive. Further work to attempt to formalise these relationships continues with the very kind assistance of the British Embassy in Madrid.

I developed a close working relationship with the police embed in the National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) and successfully negotiated for the UK's 'Cyber Information Sharing Partnership' to be extended to Gibraltar for the benefit of our business community. I am pleased to report that numerous business entities have already signed up to this initiative and enrolled as members of this platform.

7. Effective communication

As previously alluded to in the 1st of the competencies, the Commissioner has to be visible and ensure that corporate communications are effective both internal and external to organisation. He must be an articulate communicator who is confident is public speaking. Very often, the RGP is fairly criticised in the media – there has to be courage to readily accept this criticism and efforts to put things right. Conversely, it is a known fact that certain media outlets seem to have an unjustified gripe against the Force. With this type of reporting it is my submission that focusing on improving public confidence in the RGP through effective communications and positive actions will by default rebut any adverse media reporting.

Personal evidence
Being one of the trained media officers in the RGP I have had the experience of engagement with all local media outlets, those in the campo region and even some major UK tabloids. I have received letters of appreciation from local media praising my style of communications and my relationship with them during difficult times.

I have formed part of debate panels on live TV programmes such as Viewpoint. Promoting the RGP's good work and particularly in the crime domain, I have given numerous interviews to both radio and TV.

In 2013, I successfully argued for personalisation of social media communications for senior officers and some departments within the Force. In addition to the RGP corporate Twitter account, each senior officer is able to push out information on this very popular social media channel thereby enhancing our contact with the community.

8. Respect for Diversity

The police service is inherently still regarded by many as a male chauvinistic dominated institution. The RGP should aspire for our workforce to be representative, as far as possible, of the make-up of our community and therefore the Commissioner must show commitment to this aspiration, the outreach of which can be enhanced by ensuring that the RGP respects all sections of society and make them feel included.

Internal culture within the Force has to demonstrate similar vein in terms of fair treatment and respect for all officers and staff in the context of a custom that values diversity and individuality.

Personal evidence
I have formed part of the senior management team that has driven a culture change which has taken the RGP forwards as an organisation with a high ethos of equality and diversity. Perceived barriers to equality are not as blatant as they used to be. As a team we discuss where reasonable adjustments can be made to find ways to help staff members who need particular attention. There is a long way to go and I take this opportunity to express total commitment to continue in this journey in support of equality and diversity both internal and external to the organisation.

In closing this letter in support of my application, I offer the GPA my availability to answer any questions arising or elaborate on any of the points stated above.

Yours faithfully,

"DELIVERING A SAFER GIBRALTAR THROUGH EXCELLENCE IN THE PROVISION OF POLICING SERVICES"

Like with so many aspects of life today, Gibraltar is vastly different from the way it was when the then Gibraltar Police Force was formed 177 years ago. Even in the last 10 years a lot has changed. The trends we see today will have a big impact on the Royal Gibraltar Police (RGP) over the next 5 years and the organisation must respond to them to continue to ensure the jurisdiction remains a safe one.

A strategic analysis of the risks and challenges that the RGP will face in the forthcoming years recognises that our operating environment is changing at quite a pace. Increasing community expectations, population growth, the continued development of Gibraltar as a nation, changes in crime and upholding national security present both challenges and opportunities.

To build on successes of how Gibraltar has been and continues to be the safe place it is for residents to live in, for our visitors and those who venture here to do business, the RGP also needs to move with the times. Any transformation over the next 5 years must involve the way we deliver our services, the way we utilise our officers, how we exploit the use of available technology and very importantly, the way we engage with partners and stakeholders.

This paper sets out my vision for the RGP for the next 5 years – a vision which I truly believe will pave a very positive path for the Force to meet the challenges ahead. The notion behind my vision being that through the provision of excellence in service delivery, Gibraltar will continue to be safe and prosper for existing and future generations. Against the backdrop of my vision I will be alluding to the areas where I view the Force to be strong in, those requiring attention of some sort, the risk areas and challenges/opportunities arising. I will also incorporate key actions to address the main issues, as I see them, which affect the Force

RGP's CORE VALUES

Excellence in policing is not simply acquired off the shelf. Good reputation, good results, continuous organisational improvement and development, wellbeing of the workforce, commitment and a genuine belief in what we stand for are some of the key factors that can drive the Force towards excellence in service delivery. Our organisational Values and Code of Ethics are at the core of the RGP (see Appendix - A). They underpin our policies, procedures and practices and how we interact with the community. There is therefore the need to constantly align all our daily activities to these values. Strong leadership is required to ensure consistency around the Force towards abidance and promulgation of the values with the reasonable expectation that by improving on existing behaviours, professional service delivery in the key areas referred to in this paper will by default be enhanced – the aim being that of optimisation of overall service provision.

STRATEGIC CONTEXT

To support and achieve my vision there are 5 areas of focus the RGP would need to work towards as follows;-

- Effective service delivery – by providing responsive, personal and visible policing services
- Improving community safety – by minimising crime and improving safety
- Working with others – by developing strong partnerships with stakeholders
- People development – by creating a capable, flexible and professional workforce
- Workplace development – by improving systems to make our functions more efficient and effective. By improvements in the physical workplace (real estate).

In order to provide an easy to follow perspective on what I deem to be the main issues affecting the RGP and which indeed are aligned to the above 5 areas, I will split these between Operational and Organisational issues.

An action plan to address each of these issues can be found in Appendix – B

OPERATIONAL THREATS

(i) National Security

The existing threat of terrorism to western Europe originating from the conflict in Iraq and Syria neither recognises or respects any borders. Gibraltar sits between two countries that are on high alert because of this threat. Incidentally, this threat is also seriously perceived by the UK, who acting to protect British interests offer advice, via the FCO, to British citizens travelling to or living in Spain and Morocco. Whilst there is no specific intelligence of any terrorist activity in or aimed at Gibraltar, the mere proximity to these two nations together with a host of other reasons puts Gibraltar in a vulnerable position. The re-emergence of Northern Ireland related terrorism (NIRT) has also got be kept in mind as indeed the phenomena of cyber terrorism, for which a Gibraltar strategy is required.

Gibraltar's security apparatus has never been clearer defined as is it now with strategic, tactical and operational tiers established in multi-agency forums. Interoperability amongst the blue light agencies has been subject of praise by staff from the UK's Joint Emergency Services Interoperability Programme who have recognised the great advantage we enjoy because of our personal and close working arrangements, hailing this as a great asset to local critical/major incident management. Regular multi-agency training has strengthened our ability to deal with a terrorist incident – we are now at the stage where emergency service heads should commit to signing the 'Joint Operating Principles' to formalise interoperability in the counter terrorism domain.

A programme to uplift our counter terrorism policing efforts is under way, however, this will take its time to roll out and get officers trained with the necessary skills. Because of the close liaison we enjoy with SO15 Counter Terrorism Command of the Metropolitan Police, opportunities are arising to enhance the RGP's connectivity with the UK's CT network.

Despite all the practical work achieved in enhancing our security posture, we are still lacking in modern and updated terrorism legislation and this places our practitioners at a disadvantage without the tools to carry out their duties.

Arrangements for Military Aid to the Civil Authorities (MACA) need to be firmed up so that our response plans have clarity to what extent the locally based military can be deployed and employed in a CT incident/operation. These arrangements should also incorporate and extend to any UK based military assistance that would be required.

Defusing any identified vulnerabilities whether these are physical, structural or cultural will make Gibraltar a lesser attractive target for potential terrorists which reinforces the need to work towards a tailor made counter terrorism strategy for Gibraltar.

(ii) Child Safeguarding & Sex Offender Risk Management

When attempting to analyse the extent of child sexual exploitation in our jurisdiction we realise that the true picture of any exploitation is unclear. Significant anecdotal information exists which indicates that sharing of sexually explicit photographs occurs frequently between young people and we have dealt with reports in this regard. The ever increasing reliance of social media by young people also uncovers a ready-made platform for grooming activity by sexual predators. Pro-active community engagement to raise awareness is underway sanctioned by the Child Protection Committee.

The successes of our Safeguarding Unit in bringing sex offenders to justice and the numerous convictions secured in court demonstrates the Force's capability to deal with cases of historic abuse. Our efforts should by no means rest with these convictions. Many victims of sexual exploitation tend to suffer in silence and withhold themselves from reporting their ordeals. It is our duty to pro-actively reach out to those silent victims and offer them the reassurance that they will heard and believed.

Our relationship with the National Crime Agency's Child Exploitation and Online Protection Command (CEOP) is outstanding and an established channel for referrals is in place to investigate peer to peer sharing of indecent imagery of children online. The RGP sits as a full member of the UK forum MOSOVO (Management of Sex Offender & Violent Offenders) and has presented case studies on the challenges of cross border management of sex offenders.

The well being of staff who deal with child safeguarding and sex offender management has to remain constantly under review. At present there are no systems in place to ensure these officers remain psychologically fit to continue discharging their duties.

The RGP were the pioneers and stimulators for the creation of Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA) and we have developed a specialist niche in this field. The RGP is in fact exporting the Gibraltar model to other overseas territories which is testament of the effectiveness of our practices.

(iii) Economic & Cyber Crime

It is now an accepted notion that Economic Crime is causing an overwhelming effect on police services not only because of the devastating effects it has on victims, but also because of the investigation complexities these crimes present and the drain in police resources required to investigate them – Gibraltar does not escape this problem. The RGP has limited but very competent resources in this field as has been proved in recent very high profile cases which in the United Kingdom would have been handled by a national unit such as the Serious Fraud Office.

As a finance centre, Gibraltar will no doubt attract financial criminality, whether it is locally based or from abroad by making use of banking and other financial institutions here. Cyber fraudsters also avail themselves of a borderless landscape to rip off their victims via a myriad of methods which they keep innovating to outwit law enforcement efforts. The risk therefore amplifies when enforcement capabilities are insufficient to meet the demand with the consequences of reputational damage to the jurisdiction.

The Government's intention to become a member of MONEYVAL is presenting the RGP with unprecedented challenges. MONEYVAL is a Council of Europe committee of experts on the evaluation of anti money laundering and the financing of terrorism. Their evaluation process is ruthless and if aspiring members do not meet their set criteria, they run the risk of becoming blacklisted as an unreliable country to do business with.

It is evident that with our existing resources, the RGP will not be able to meet all the requirements set out by MONEYVAL. A possible solution to this situation is to create a Joint working team comprising of HM Customs, FSC personnel, AG's Chambers, accountants, tax specialists and Police – a sort of Gibraltar Crime Agency. Expertise can also be sought by entering in to formal collaborative arrangements with the City of London Police, the UK's lead force for economic crime.

The RGP has to keep driving forward in raising awareness on cyber crime. Experts predict that this type of crime will soon override traditional crime statistics and this will clearly place extra demand on the RGP. Though known to sometimes be perpetrated by lone actors, cyber crime is now very much being exploited by organised crime groups who because of the anonymity the internet affords, no longer have to expose themselves physically when committing their criminal acts.

(iv) External Affairs

Foreign Affairs have always had an impact on policing in Gibraltar and the current situation with Brexit looming is no exception together Spain's incessant claim over our territory's sovereignty. The Spanish Government's posture is unfortunately one that cannot be trusted even though the incumbent Foreign Secretary has assured that its Spain's intention not to disrupt fluidity at the border because of Brexit. Realistically, Spain has not got to rely on Brexit to make our border a 'hard' one – they can resort to strict compliance with Schengen processes to create the same negative effects. Irrespectively of the stated, a 'hard' border will present challenges to the RGP in terms public order, traffic management, internal security and possibly even increased crime levels.

(v) Drugs Misuse

I think there can hardly be any disagreement with the fact that drugs misuse in Gibraltar is a social problem and not solely a police related issue as if often perceived by the community. Police enforcement in interrupting the supply chain is only one of the strands of what should constitute a holistic drugs strategy – including that of reducing the demand through education and awareness and providing supporting rehabilitation services. It is therefore evident that partnership working is essential. Notwithstanding this, police enforcement efforts need to be consistent and effective. For this to happen in this day and age, officers must be supported by investigatory tools within their corresponding legal framework. Our contributions to disrupt international drug trafficking have to continue and in fact we will aim for more detections and disruptions in this regard. This intent is necessary as otherwise organised criminal networks can perceive the RGP as weak in this area to the detriment of good social order as has been experienced of late in the Campo area.

(vi) Anti-Social Behaviour & Domestic Violence

Anti-social behaviour is often associated to, or is the indicator of, other criminal activity or social problem. It creates a state of insecurity particularly so in residential areas where the peace and tranquillity of law abiding citizens is hampered. Inaction or ineffective action on the part of the RGP diminishes public confidence in the police. A particular challenge for the RGP and its partnership agencies (Housing Dept, Education etc) is that of the inability to relocate offenders because of the limited housing stock in the jurisdiction. Consistent, intelligence led, focused and high visible patrols of problem areas is a tried and tested policing response that addresses this issue and one that should not be compromised because of other competing demands.

An increase in instances of domestic abuse with calls for our service has been noted. The Force operates a positive action policy in support of victims, however, re-active work needs to run in tandem with pro-activity. In this regard, engagement with Social Services and embarking on a DV awareness/prevention campaign will complement enforcement efforts.

ORGANISATIONAL THREATS

(vii) Human Resources – Recruitment – Retention – Composition – Training

It is an accepted fact that the RGP is a very young service in terms of the average age of its officers. This observation has got to be considered alongside the projected retirements for the RGP which show that a significant proportion of the Senior Management Team could actually retire forthwith, with additional turnover at various other ranks across the Force. Similarly, there are several officers at Constable and Sergeant ranks who are also eligible to retire having the appropriate age in specialist areas such as Special Branch, Crime Scene Investigation Unit, Marine Section and Force Intel Unit.

According to the last HMIC report, 3 Superintendents, 3 Chief Inspectors, 6 Inspectors, 9 Sergeants and 35 Constables are all eligible to retire within the next five years. Annual training bids are assessed by the training prioritisation board, comprising senior officers. In the recent staff survey, only 44 percent of the workforce was satisfied with their current level of training and development. There is a need to seriously discuss succession planning as soon as possible and invest in the continuous development of our people.

A force restructure recently carried out in consultation with the staff association was designed to align our resources to demand also taking in to account the work-life balance of the staff. This also uncovered the need to increase the establishment of the Force and consequently a business case was prepared for due consideration by Government. I am concerned that the Force will seriously struggle to cope with the existing demand unless extra human resources are hired. The pace at which the Force operates has been the catalyst for dips in retention – this exposes the need to delve deeper in to the abilities and qualities of a new applicant to join the Force so that the recruitment process weeds out those who may be unable to cope with the occupational needs and pressures.

(viii) Legislation

A wave of new pieces of legislation such as the Crimes Act, Criminal Procedure & Evidence Act, and Proceeds of Crime Act has caused the Force to re-adjust its resources to ensure the service delivery arising from them is met. These changes have caused considerable challenges and strains – challenges because officers have had to be re-deployed from the front line and upskilled to cover other duties imposed by the new laws – strains because even though the redeployments have been effected we suffer from resilience issues in these sub-units which incidentally are also under-resourced.

In the pipeline there are other new laws (Terrorism Act, Immigration Act, Regulatory of Investigatory Powers Act) that will challenge the Force even further. Training in the application of these laws will require more instructors who they themselves will require induction in order to teach the subject matter. These challenges will be affronted with positivity and zeal. There will have to be an element of prioritization and delivery programme designed.

(ix) Technology & Workplace

The RGP has historically struggled with challenges arising out of complexity and cost of IT infrastructure, inadequate databases and paper based systems. With the enviable support of the Government together with sheer drive and in-house talent we have managed to revolutionise a crucial part of the criminal justice system. Managing a culture change from antiquated systems to a modern purpose designed platform will have to take its course and already, obstacles and resistance from some quarters is being addressed and overcome.

Technical support is an important cog in the fight against crime and indeed terrorism. Serious consideration will be given to acquiring the necessary equipment which is used by law enforcement agencies worldwide and once the legislation which governs its deployment is passed.

The RGP of today has totally outgrown its headquarters at New Mole House. Despite not being a purpose built facility it was an improvement to the old Central Police Station in Irish Town. New Mole House is an extremely tired building – the environment is not ideal for such a fast moving organisation. It is welcoming that Government acknowledges this and are committed to a new purpose built building which not necessarily should be wholly RGP occupied. There is scope for conducting a value for money exercise to collaborate with the other emergency services for a joint command and despatch unit, fleet management and other building space.

(x) HMIC recommendations

The inspection of the RGP by HMIC in 2015 revealed various areas for improvement. Whilst some of these recommendations have already been addressed there still remains some requiring further action. It is imperative that a working group is created to see this project through. In my view the most pressing area for improvement, as highlighted in one of the recommendations, is that of the creation of manual of guidance which should represent Force policy in crime investigation standards. This will inherently make officers better at conducting investigations and is positive for their all-round personal development.

(xi) Gibraltar Defence Police

The announcement in the Government's manifesto that the GDP would be transferred directly to Government or into a wholly owned company of the Government raised a number of issues which have been debated at length amongst the RGP's SMT. It is fair to say that the possibility is also being mooted of an eventual full amalgamation of the GDP with the RGP.

I am a strong advocate that if any transfer of the GDP were to materialise that this should take the form of a full amalgamation with the RGP – the opportunities arising far outweighing any disadvantages. My argument rebutting other arrangements such as the GDP forming itself into a [GoG] agency to provide services to the MOD have been documented.

(xii) BREXIT – implications to policing

The uncertainty that BREXIT has unearthed in the UK is to a large extent transferrable to us in Gibraltar. Aside from the issues in the socio-political space, Brexit presents challenges to policing if the UK fail to secure a good exit deal. Key themes that will have a direct impact on policing are listed below in no particular order;

- Schengen (incl SIS, SISII & RGP liaison with Cuerpo Nacional de Policia, Guardia Civil and SVA.
- Prüm (incl Prüm decisions)
- European Criminal Records System (ECRIS)
- European Counter Terrorism Strategy
- Europol engagement
- European Police College
- European Arrest Warrant arrangements
- European Investigation Order (Incl Joint Investigation Teams)

Whilst expectant that the UK's exit deal will not undermine any of the above subject areas, we have to be ready to react if it does. Equally, the situation discloses opportunities for joining up further with the UK on law enforcement matters.

THE RGP RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GPA

The functions and responsibilities of both the RGP and GPA are clearly articulated and enshrined in statute. However, in practice and for the past 8 years or so, the relationship between both has only been limited to consultations and progress reporting on the objectives set out in annual policing plan/annual reports, recruitment and promotion boards. Whilst these activity fall squarely within the statutory responsibilities, there is ample room for the building of a more solid and productive relationship.

Being the independent body that it is, the GPA has to ensure RGP operates to a high standard and as efficiently/effectively as it can within its scope of resourcing. In order to discharge its function fully the GPA has to provide information on police matters to the community. To deliver on this the GPA needs to be kept abreast of policing issues which matter to the community and not solely rely on annual reporting. It is therefore necessary that periodic and prearranged briefs are delivered to the GPA by the RGP's Commissioner. Subject to mutual agreement, the briefing could be delivered on a monthly basis to either the full Authority, or to a sub-group of its members. A proposed structure of topics for these briefings would include;

- an element of operational content
- trends in performance and incidence of crime that may impact on policing plan priorities
- strategic projects/proposals of the commissioner not considered in other forums
- strategic finance
- human resource issues
- strategic policing initiatives
- complaints and matters of discipline

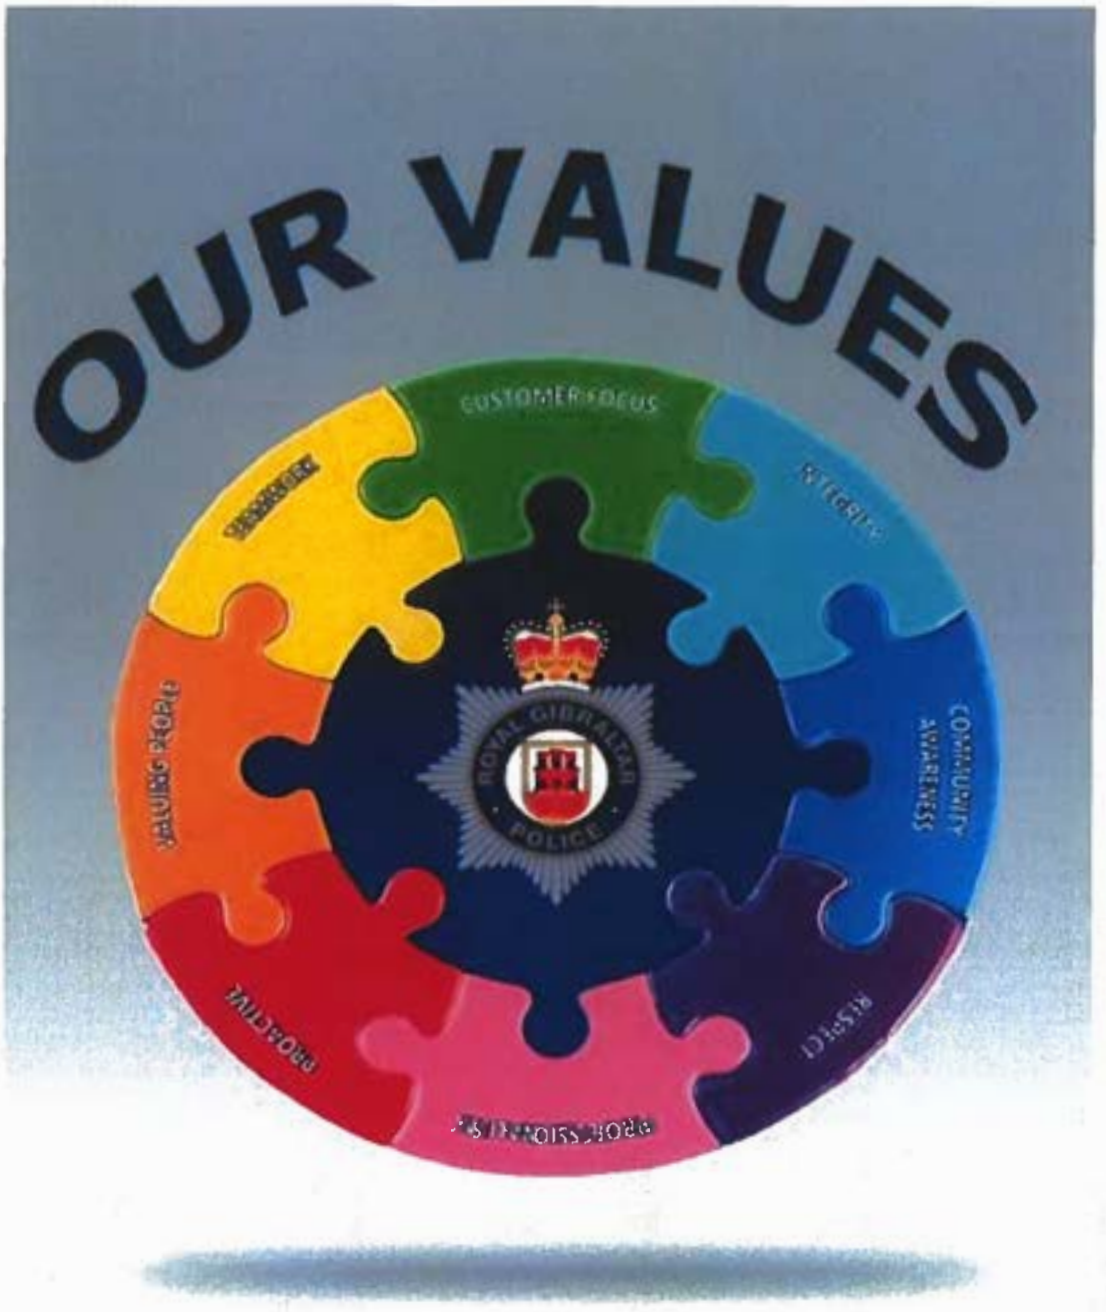
The outcomes of these briefings will very much serve as indicators of approval or conversely, disapproval by the Authority of the manner the RGP is conducting its business.

CONCLUSION

As can be appreciated from the contents of this brief paper, the next 5 years will undoubtedly bring considerable challenges on the RGP. I have distinctly kept to highlighting what I perceive are to be the main issues affecting the Force together with a delivery plan that is synced with my Vision. There are a host of other issues which require attention but not to the same degree as the ones referred to in this paper. In policing, things change very quickly and therefore whilst the intention is to deliver on the stipulated actions, unexpected exigencies may warrant a review of these actions.

Simplicity is my Vision's forte – the RGP gets its act right in all its areas of responsibility, and by default, Gibraltar will be an even safer place than it has been in the past ..... to live, to visit and to do business in.

APPENDIX – A
RGP VALUES & CODE OF ETHICS



Working Together To Make Our Community Safer

10

CODE OF ETHICS

Integrity
I recognise my role in policing as being a symbol of public faith and trust and the obligation this places upon me to act with integrity, fairness and respect. I shall behave in a way which reflects the values of policing in Gibraltar. I understand I am personally responsible for my own actions and will appropriately exercise my discretion.

I shall act as a positive role model in delivering a professional, impartial service, placing service to communities before my personal aims. I will not accept any gift or gratuity that could, or could be perceived to, compromise my impartiality. I shall avoid all behaviour, which is or may be reasonably considered as abusive, bullying, harassing or victimising.

I will demonstrate and promote good conduct and I will challenge the conduct of colleagues where I reasonably believe they have fallen below the standards set out in this Code.

Fairness
I will act with courage and composure and shall face all challenges with self-control, tolerance and impartiality. I will promote a positive well-being within the community and service and ensure that all people have fair and equal access to police services according to their needs.

I shall maintain an open attitude and continue to improve my understanding and awareness of cultural, social and community issues. I will carry out my duties in a fair manner, guided by the principles of impartiality and non- discrimination.

Respect
I take pride in working as part of a team dedicated to protecting people. I will show respect for all people and their beliefs, values, cultures and individual needs. I will have respect for all human dignity as I understand that my attitude and the way I behave contributes to the consent communities have for policing. I will respect and uphold the law in order to maintain public confidence and, by enhancing my personal knowledge and experience, contributing to the professional development of policing.

I shall treat all people, including detained people, in a humane and dignified manner. I shall ensure that my relationships with colleagues is based on mutual respect and understanding and shall, therefore, conduct all communications on that basis.

Human Rights
I shall ensure my actions and policing operations respect the human rights of all people and officers whilst understanding that I will also enjoy these same human rights. I will not undertake high-risk activities or use force other than where strictly necessary in order to attain a legitimate objective and only after I have balanced all the competing priorities I am aware of. (Article 2, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006 & Section 5, Subsection 1 of the Crimes Act 2011)

I will not encourage, instigate or tolerate any act of torture or inhuman or degrading treatment under any circumstance nor will I stand by and allow others to do the same. I understand that the humane treatment of prisoners is an essential element of policing and that the dignity of all those I am trusted to care for remains my responsibility. (Article 5, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

I understand that people have an equal right to liberty and security. Accordingly, I will not deprive any person of that liberty, except in accordance with the law. (Article 1, Gibraltar Constitution 2006) I will investigate crimes objectively and be sensitive to the particular needs of affected individuals whilst following the principle that everyone who is the subject of criminal investigation is innocent until found guilty by a court. (Article 8, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

In carrying out my duties I shall respect everyone's fundamental rights. I will only interfere with privacy or family life when I am legally authorized to do so. (Article 3, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006) I will respect individual freedoms of thought, conscience or religion, expression, peaceful assembly, movement and the peaceful enjoyment of possessions. (Articles 9, 10, 11 Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

Dear Superintendent McGrail,

APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONER OF POLICE GIBRALTAR

I am delighted to inform you that you have been selected for the appointment of Commissioner of Police Gibraltar, in succession to Commissioner Yome, as of 1st May 2018 for a four-year term of warrant in this role. I do so, on the advice of Gibraltar's Police Authority (GPA) and having consulted with the Chief Minister.

Both the Chief Minister and I have noted and support your vision statement and associated action plan for your tenure. It aligns with our collective assessment of the Royal Gibraltar Police's (RGP) priority developmental areas. Accordingly, we have requested that the GPA review progress against the objectives set out in these documents at the mid-point of your tenure as Commissioner.

I would wish to assure you of my personal support in the conduct of your vital duties as Commissioner; a sentiment that I have no doubt will be reflected across the whole Gibraltarian Community. I look forward to working closely with you as we all do our utmost to protect, progress and promote the Rule of Law in Gibraltar against the ever-changing Policing challenges of the 21st century.

Matters related to all terms and conditions of employment arising from this appointment, including salary, should be finalised with the Human Resources Department of Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar.

Finally, may I congratulate on your well-deserved appointment and offer my best wishes for your command of the RGP.

Very respectfully,

Edward Davis

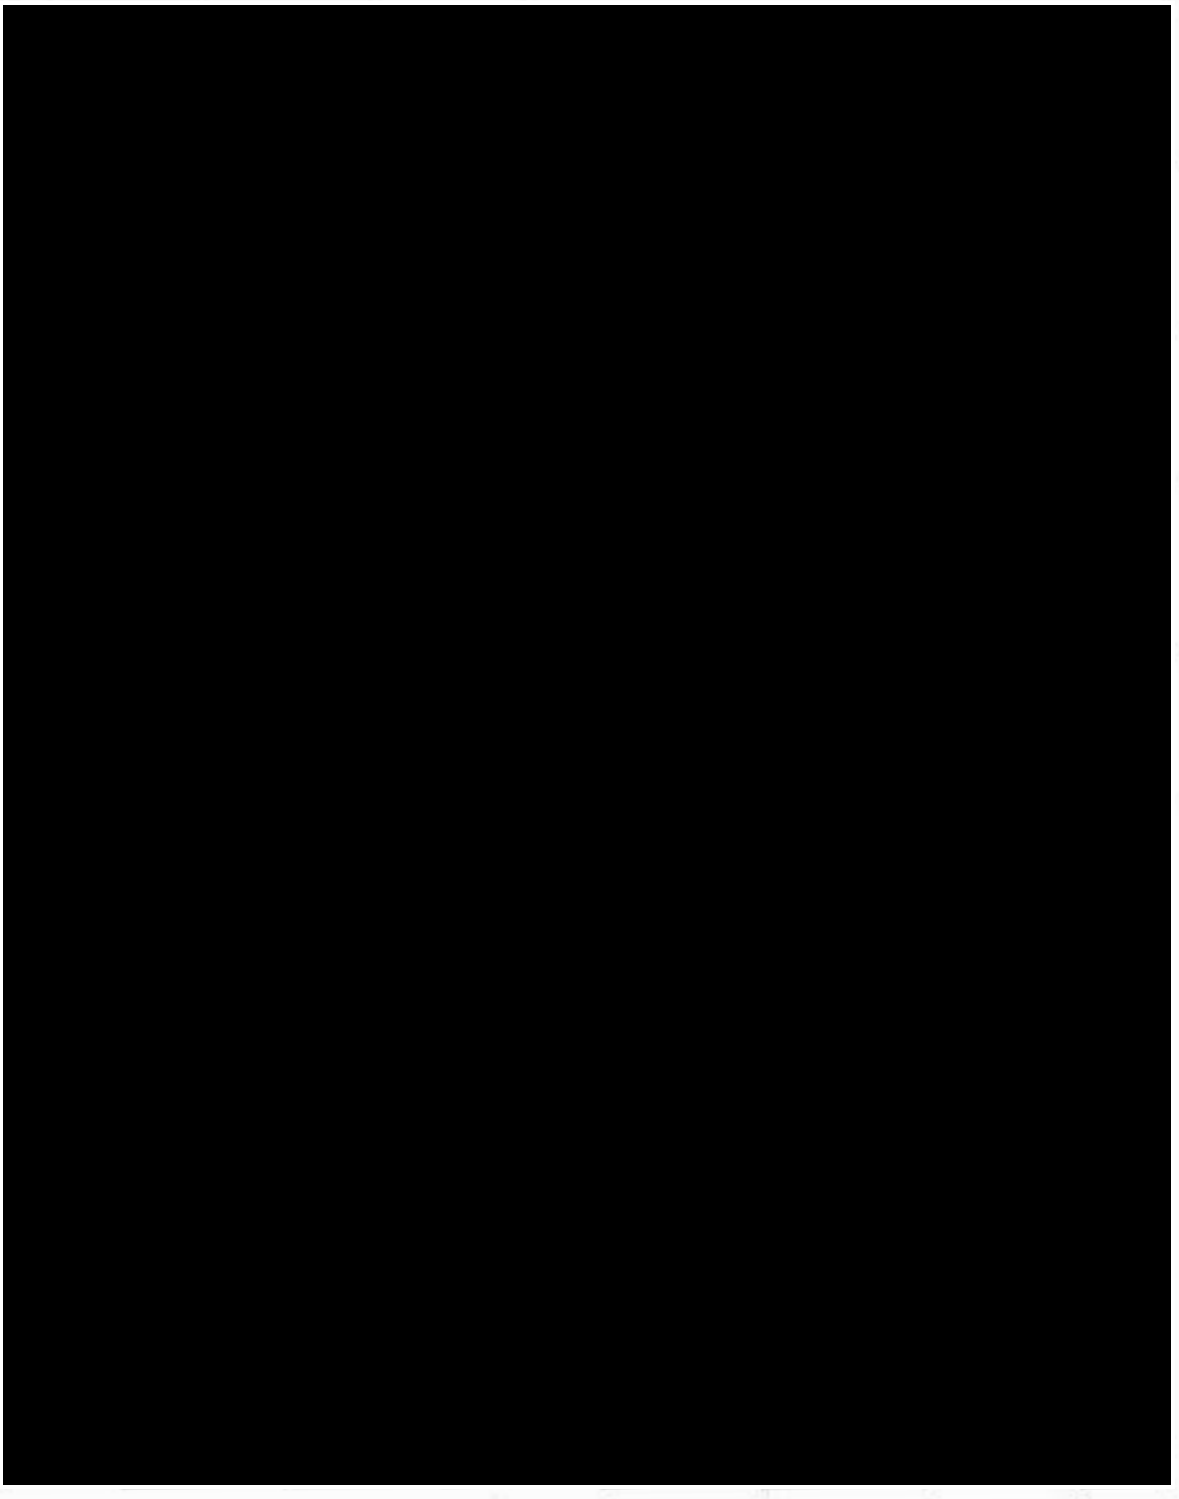
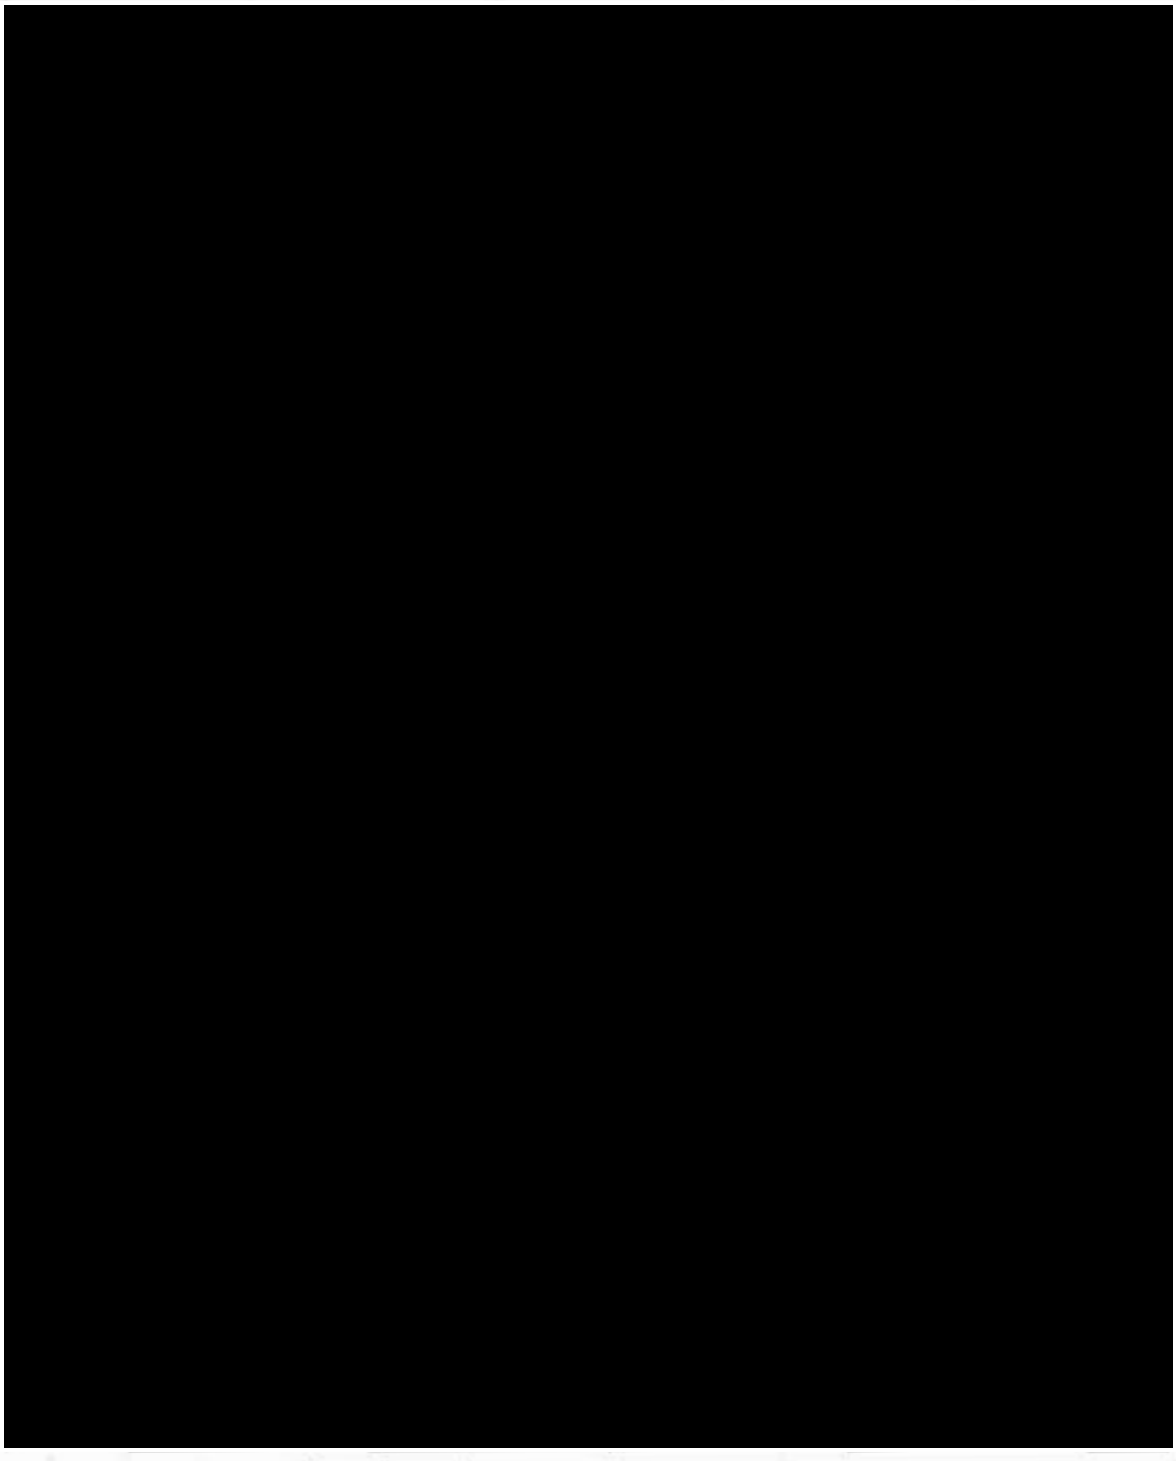
Ian McGrail and Joey Britto (GPA Chair)

[09/09/2018, 14:25:01] [redacted]: Messages and calls are end-to-end encrypted. No one outside of this chat, not even WhatsApp, can read or listen to them.





[30/10/2018, 16:07:30] [redacted]: Good afternoon, Ian. FYI:

GPA will submit a request for funding in relation to the HMIC inspection; just to let you know that inspection will happen if we get the funding. Can we meet at some point during the week? I'm ok fo Thursday..

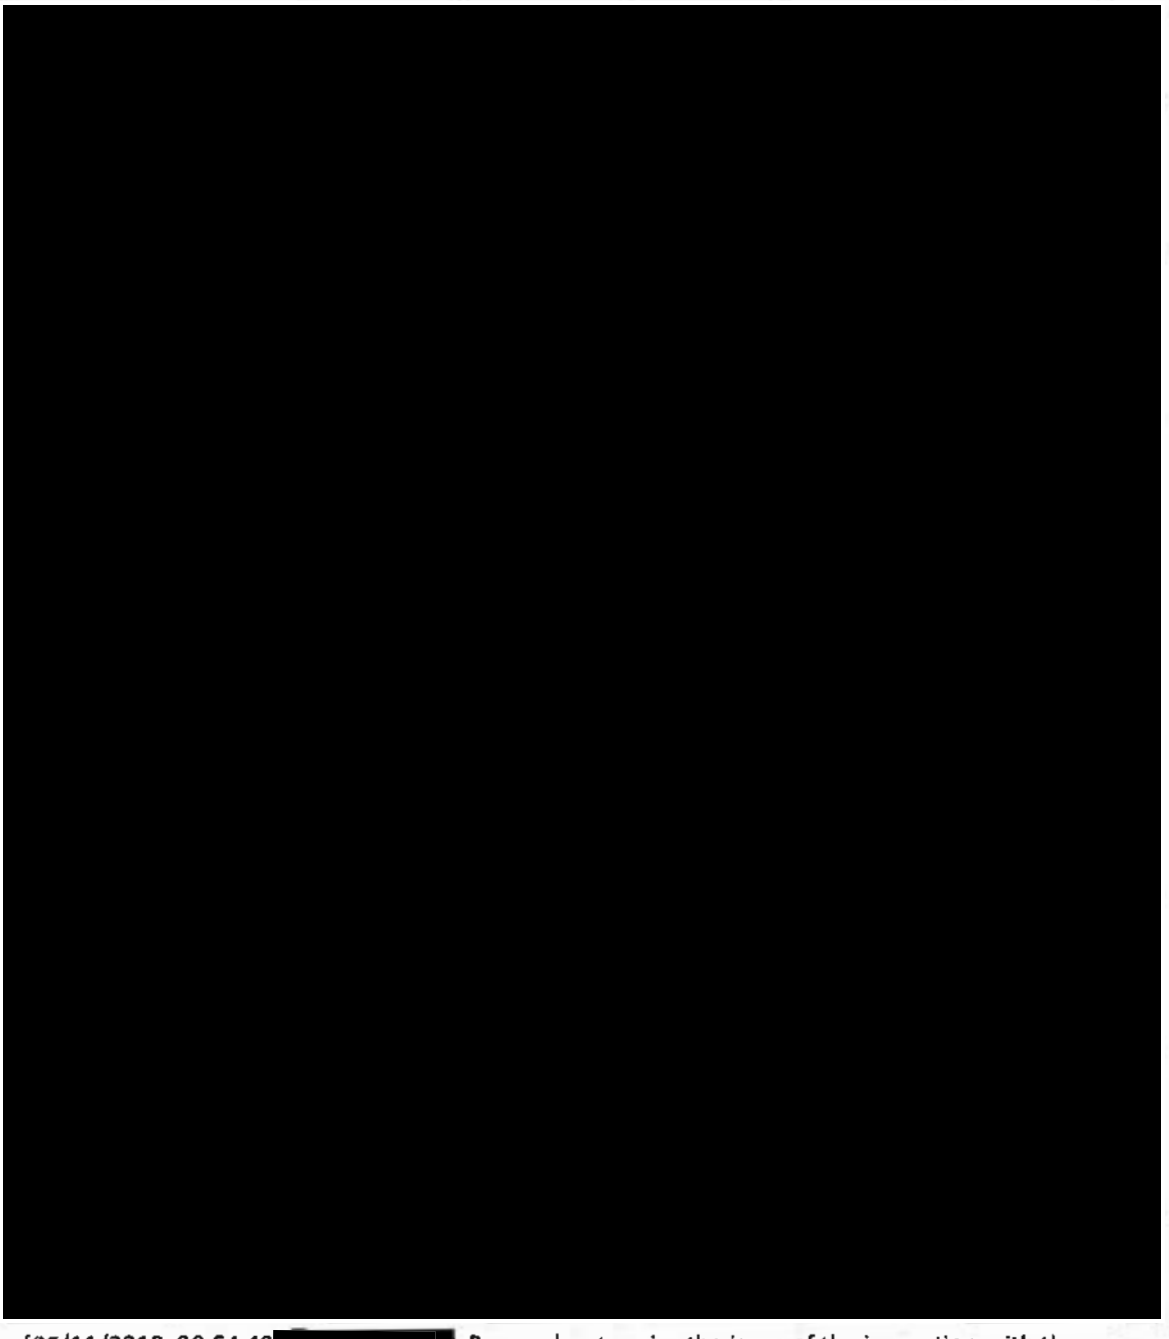
Best

Joey

[30/10/2018, 16:09:23] Ian McGrail: Thursday is good for me? 10am, New Mole or Casemates?

[30/10/2018, 16:37:14] [redacted]: I'll go to NMH. See you at 10.00am - thanks, Ian.

[30/10/2018, 16:53:10] Ian McGrail: 👍



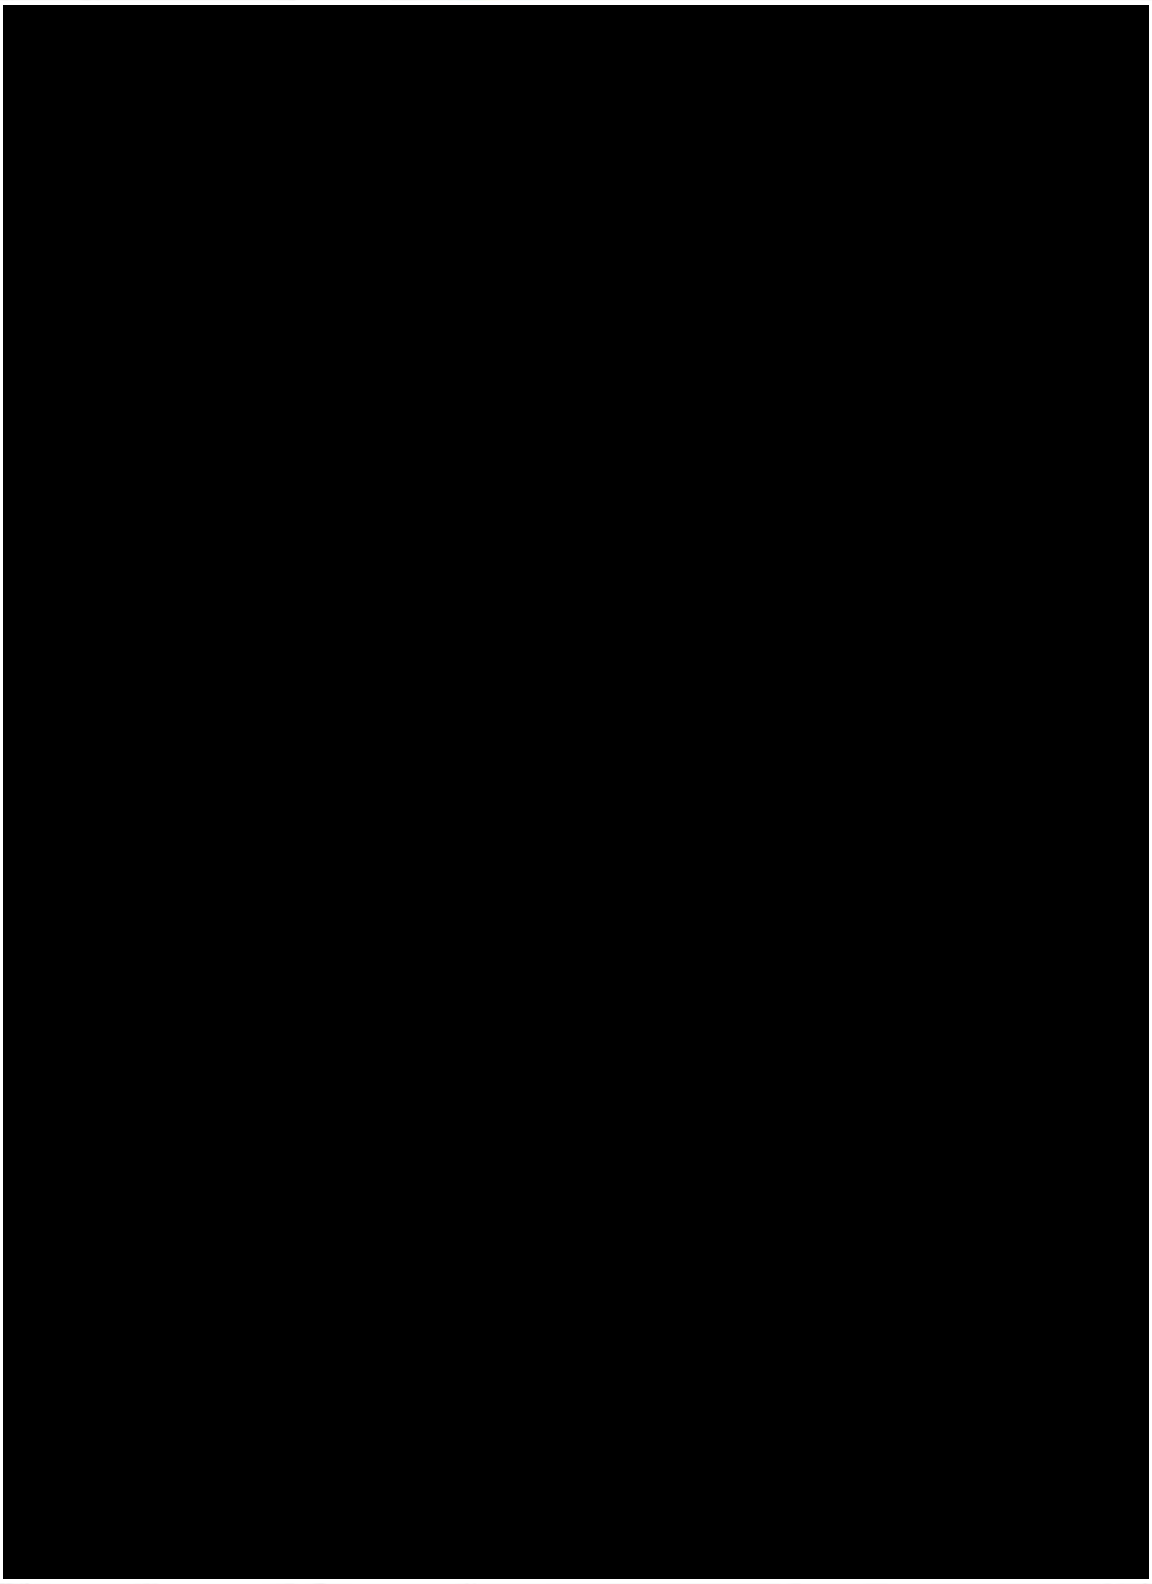
[06/11/2018, 20:54:42[redacted]: Remember to raise the issue of the inspection with the minister tomorrow if you can - thanks

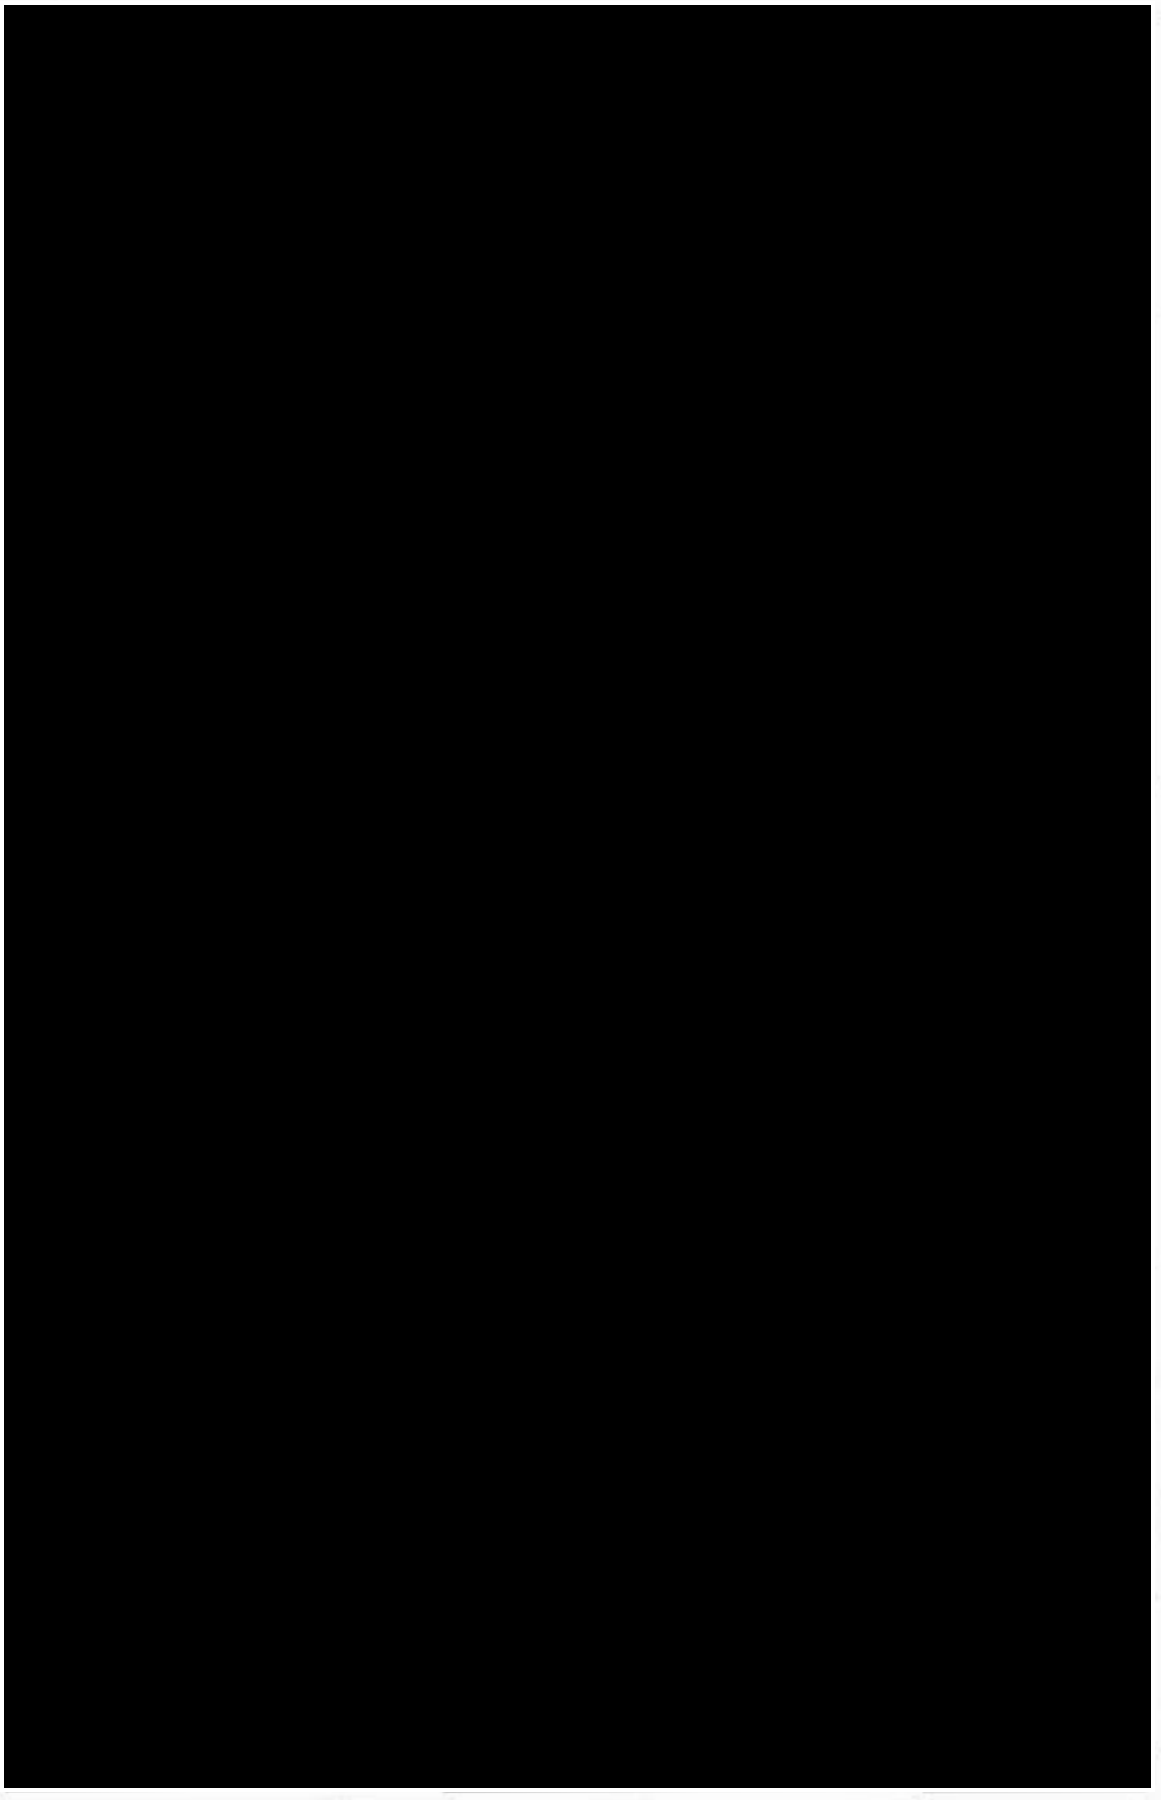
[06/11/2018, 20:56:36] Ian McGrail: Yes will do - its in the agenda

[06/11/2018, 20:57:02[redacted]: I think he wants to make sure you are comfortable with the idea!

[06/11/2018, 20:57:59] Ian McGrail: As you know, I am more than comfortable. 👍

[06/11/2018, 20:58:06] [redacted]: 👍





[12/02/2019, 15:38:43] Ian McGrail: 👍 👍 👍

[12/02/2019, 15:41:04] [redacted]: I plan on letting them know About ToRs and possible dates by the 22nd so they can plan

[12/02/2019, 15:41:29] Ian McGrail: I will send TOR's by tomorrow.

[12/02/2019, 15:41:47] Ian McGrail: Our suggestions that is [12/02/2019, 15:42:15] [redacted]: Yes, I understand.

By the way, Michelle is sending you the gpa survey - just for your attention

[12/02/2019, 15:43:15] [redacted]: Can you send me suggested ToRs and possible dates by email - I'm going away for a few days

[12/02/2019, 15:43:33] [redacted]: Better than by letter, quicker too!

[12/02/2019, 15:43:51] Ian McGrail: Yes - she has sent it. It doesn't make pleasant reading. But there are quite alot of I dare say 'suspect' responders in the mix. I will share my views when we meet.

[12/02/2019, 15:44:38] [redacted]: Apparently, we similar responses every year ?

[19/02/2019, 11:31:00] [redacted]: Ian - remember to email me the suggestions for HMIC tors...

Thanks

[19/02/2019, 12:00:09] Ian McGrail: I will do today.

[19/02/2019, 12:00:18] [redacted]: Thanks

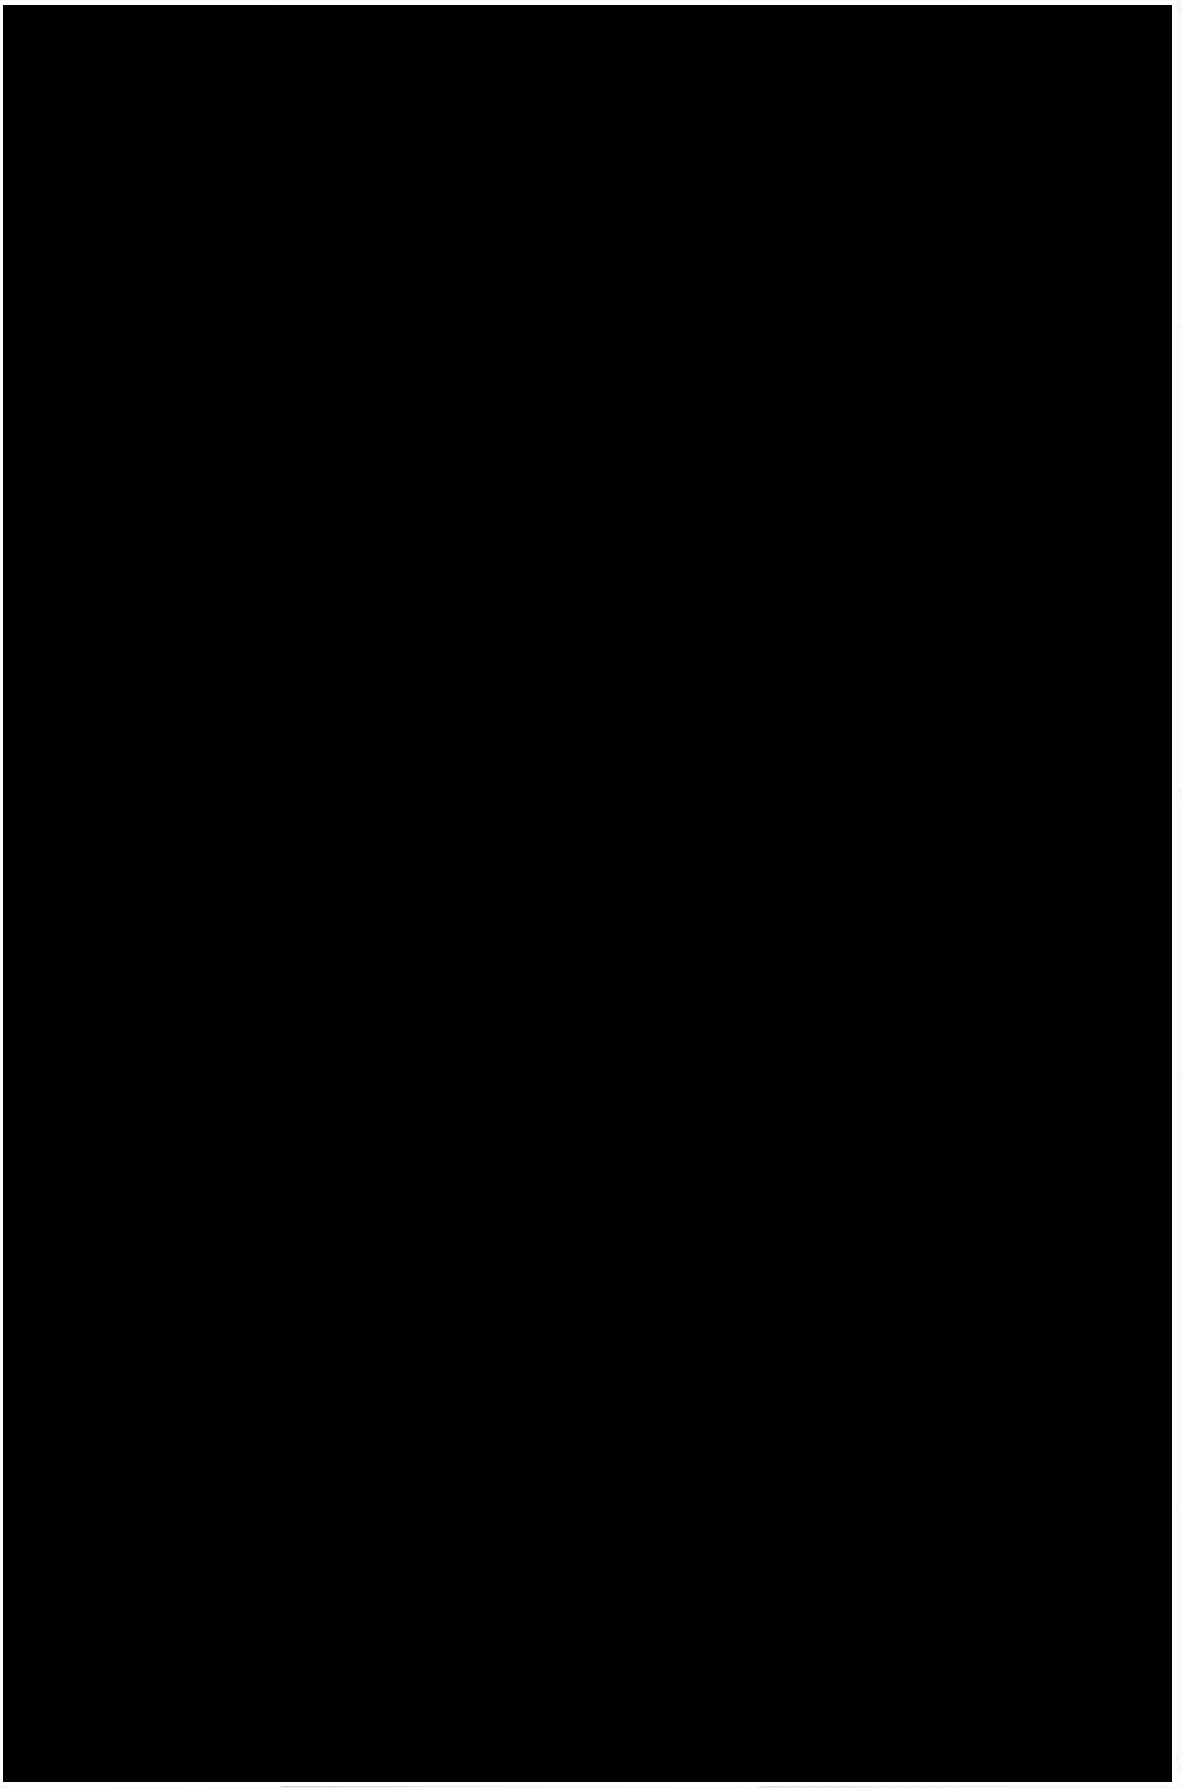
[21/02/2019, 11:13:32] [redacted]: Ian - easier this way - I spoke to Michael - he says to give him a couple of weeks to sort Michelle's move out - this gives us a bit more time to arrange hand over etc

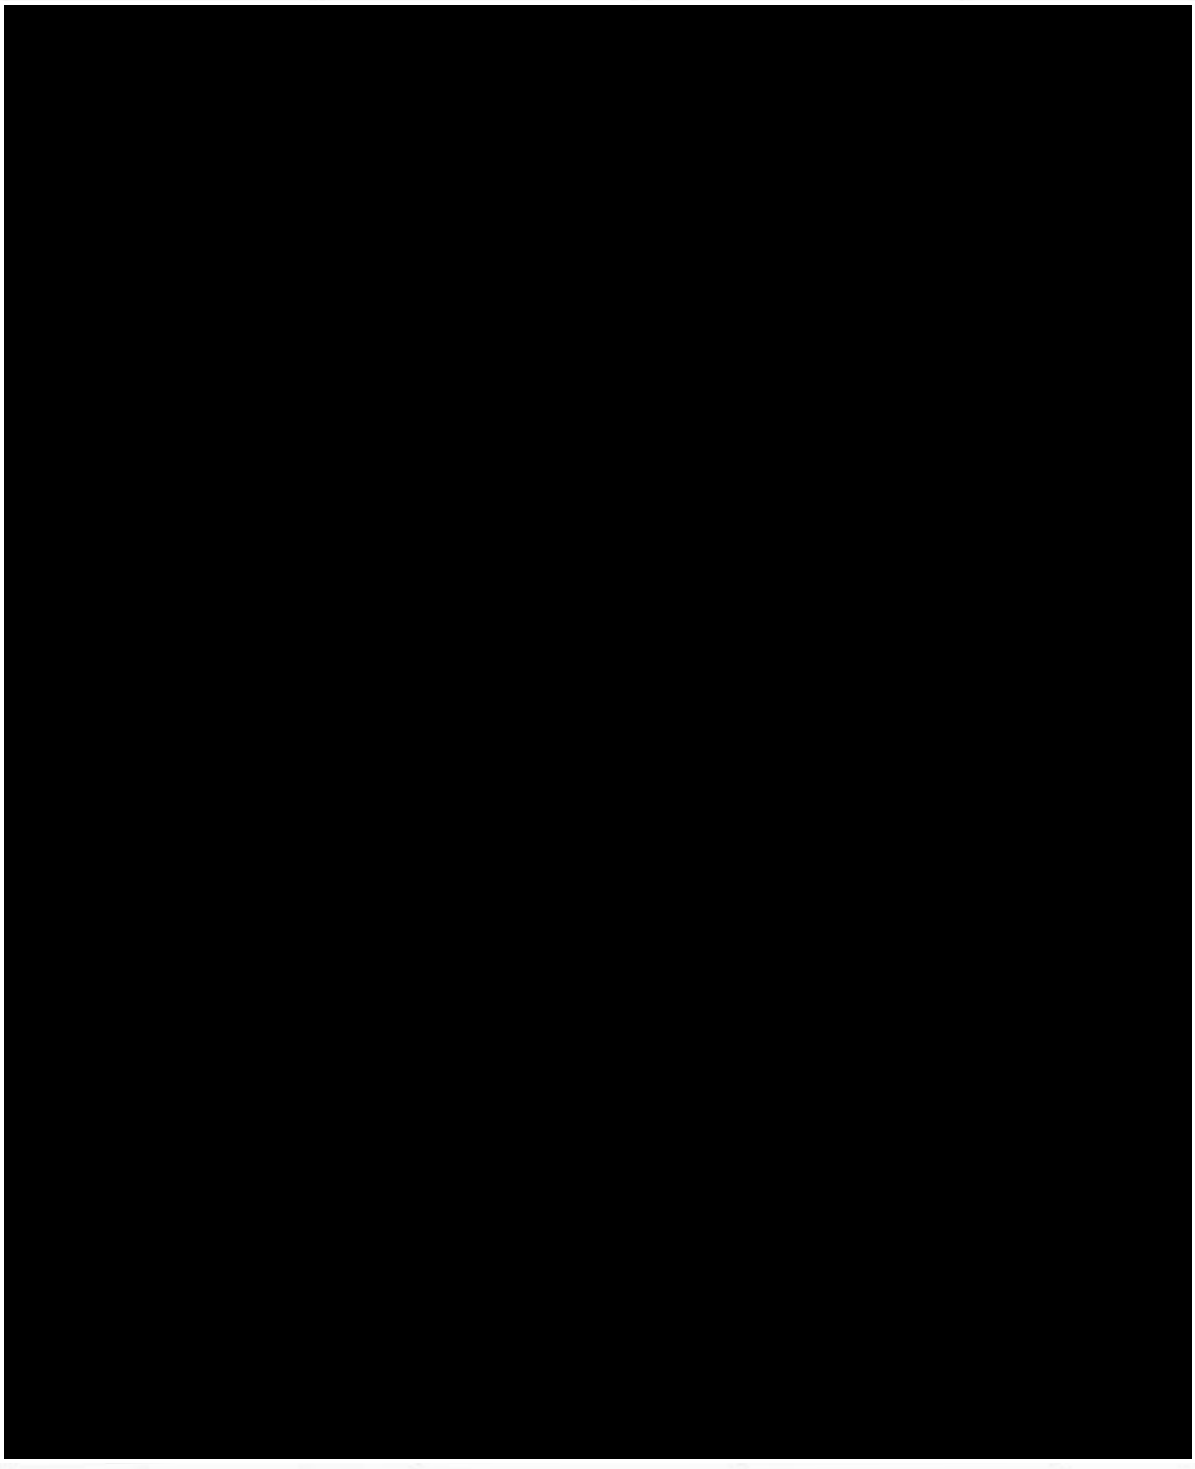
[21/02/2019, 11:15:51] Ian McGrail: 👍 many thanks

[21/02/2019, 11:23:42] [redacted]: Michael has promised !

[21/02/2019, 11:42:23] Ian McGrail: Thank god

[redacted]





[26/03/2019, 17:20:36] [redacted]: Ian - Richard passed on the draft APP - grateful for this to be perused by you so I can seek approval from rest of GPA. HE, Gov and RGP priorities already incorporated..

[26/03/2019, 17:20:47] [redacted]: Thanks

[26/03/2019, 17:30:48] Ian McGrail: I have read it only a few moments ago and will provide my feedback (if any) first thing tomorrow.

[26/03/2019, 17:31:43] [redacted]: Still got to polish up language and punctuation but I hope this gives you a good idea if the final product??

[26/03/2019, 17:31:57] Ian McGrail: Indeed it does.

[26/03/2019, 17:32:17] [redacted]: Thank you, Ian - I look forward to your feedback

[27/03/2019, 10:52:51] [redacted]: Ian - remember APP feedback - I'd like to have it approved etc by the end of the month - thanks

[27/03/2019, 10:53:22] Ian McGrail: Its in hand

[27/03/2019, 10:53:33] [redacted]: Thanks

[27/03/2019, 13:59:03] [redacted]: Ian after talking to Paul Holewell the tor is still too wide ie how effective is the RGP at keeping Gib safe is a full inspection of everything you do..! Could you narrow the scope of what would really help you? Can you give it some more thought please?

[27/03/2019, 14:14:14] [redacted]: I have my own view - linked to an assessment of current procedures relating to staff welfare, grievances procedures etc even if we go over old ground - would this still be helpful?

[10/04/2019, 14:06:09] [redacted]: Missed voice call

[redacted]

[20/05/2019, 15:26:58] Ian McGrail: Good afternoon Joey, are you free to talk at 4pm? Its ref Panoama questions. I have spoken to CM & HE who also have received a set of questions. I wanted to brief you on what we intend to push out. CM

& HE are happy with it.

[20/05/2019, 15:51:32] [redacted]: I'll call you in a few minutes -

[20/05/2019, 15:52:01] [redacted]: I'm not in Gibraltar at present - doing El Camino

[20/05/2019, 15:53:52] [redacted]: I'd rather wait until I get to somewhere private ...

[20/05/2019, 15:54:18] Ian McGrail: No probs

[20/05/2019, 15:54:18] [redacted]: I need a few minutes to get there

[20/05/2019, 15:54:23] [redacted]: Thanks

[20/05/2019, 16:01:15] [redacted]: Ian - I'm not alone and I can't guarantee privacy

[20/05/2019, 16:01:45] [redacted]: Is there any other way we can do this?

[20/05/2019, 16:03:38] Ian McGrail: I will send it to you via whatsapp when I return to the office. HE was going to share his too with you. Not sure if Panorama has also asked questions to GPA.

[20/05/2019, 16:04:49] [redacted]: They normally do

[20/05/2019, 16:05:05] [redacted]: But I won't get them until tomorrow

[20/05/2019, 16:05:20] [redacted]: WhatsApp is better thanks

[20/05/2019, 16:06:18] [redacted]: Is this about fishing?

[20/05/2019, 16:07:37] Ian McGrail: Indeed it is.

[20/05/2019, 16:08:49] [redacted]: I told HE and CM we had discussed it briefly

[20/05/2019, 16:09:37] [redacted]: Truthfully, I trust you, HE and CM implicitly...

[20/05/2019, 16:10:01] [redacted]: But send me a WhatsApp

[20/05/2019, 16:11:05] [redacted]: I really can't get out of being surrounded by a large group... so text better than speech

[20/05/2019, 16:11:49] Ian McGrail: No probs. Will send it in a little while.

[20/05/2019, 16:18:35] [redacted]: Thanks

[20/05/2019, 16:18:42] [redacted]: Sorry about this!

[20/05/2019, 16:19:09] [redacted]: Don't really trust my compatriots

[20/05/2019, 16:19:17] Ian McGrail: No probs. Sorry to have bothered you whilst on a break as you are.

[20/05/2019, 16:19:30] [redacted]: Que va -

[20/05/2019, 16:20:54] Ian McGrail: panorama response.docx • 2 pages document omitted

[20/05/2019, 16:22:00] Ian McGrail: Our responses are in red. Rather than reply to each question I have opted for a paragraph response.

[20/05/2019, 16:29:00] [redacted]: I'm happy with this - it's in accordance with what we discussed....

[20/05/2019, 16:29:44] Ian McGrail: Indeed

[20/05/2019, 16:36:23] [redacted]: Ok with me

[20/05/2019, 16:39:25] [redacted]: Ok just seen the questions and proposed answers

[20/05/2019, 17:58:38] [redacted]: From HE

[20/05/2019, 17:59:00] [redacted]: In accordance with GPA view

[20/05/2019, 17:59:15] Ian McGrail: I take it you've seen the questions that HE recieved. Panorama are clearly after my head. HE's response falls short of what he said he'd put in ie that he supported the posture of the Commissioner. I suppose he is leaving people to read between the lines without explicity saying he supports my approach.

[20/05/2019, 17:59:25] Ian McGrail: Cross texting we are.

[20/05/2019, 18:01:24] [redacted]: Sorry

[20/05/2019, 18:01:46] [redacted]: Crossed texts

[20/05/2019, 18:03:24] [redacted]: GPA's position in respect of this operational issue can only be RGP position - we would not be qualified to say otherwise - my view - no time to consult others

[20/05/2019, 18:29:00] Ian McGrail: 👍

[20/05/2019, 18:30:34] Ian McGrail: The question they are basically putting to HE is whether what they perceive to be the mal handling of the situation warrants a call for head.

[20/05/2019, 18:32:10] [redacted]: In my view, there are more important issues needing the attention of RGP

[20/05/2019, 18:33:01] [redacted]: Should the situation get out of hand and we are inundated by foreign fishing flotillas then we would have to reconsider

[20/05/2019, 18:48:12] Ian McGrail: Indeed. The situation has never been as quiet at sea as it is now

[27/05/2019, 09:46:30] [redacted]: Response to Press Questions.docx • 3 pages document omitted

[27/05/2019, 09:47:59] [redacted]: Ian - I am taking same approach as you - not answering all Qs - before I discuss my response any further - please read and comment etc

Thanks.

Joey

[27/05/2019, 09:54:40] Ian McGrail: Joey - can you take a call?

[27/05/2019, 09:55:16] [redacted] I'll call you

[27/05/2019, 10:11:33] Ian McGrail: Read it - 👍You may have to tweak the last sentence but I can explain tomorrow. In any case, like I explained, Panorama are not following up the questions for the time being. I am not sending my response unless they chase me & by the looks of it that isn't happening.

[27/05/2019, 10:12:16] [redacted] Ok - we'll touch base tomorrow

[28/05/2019, 13:33:30] [redacted] Ian - can you take a call? If so, when's the best time? Nothing to do with fishing..

[28/05/2019, 13:34:01] Ian McGrail: Happy to talk now

[30/05/2019, 15:59:17] [redacted]: Ian - GPA response to last question:

No RGP officers have recently been sentenced in a Spanish Court.

The GPA understands that all matters with regard to the incident you refer to have been dealt with and that no serving RGP officer is the subject of an adverse record in Spain.

Mirrors yours - ok?

[30/05/2019, 16:03:16] [redacted]: No worries - Cathal told me it was ok

[30/05/2019, 16:03:41] [redacted]: I forgot you were travelling!

[30/05/2019, 16:05:17] Ian McGrai[redacted]: Good with me. Panorama on the war path. Estan fatal. Have you read today's edition?

[30/05/2019, 16:05:35] [redacted]: Yes!

[30/05/2019, 16:05:49] [redacted]: Incredible!

[redacted]

[redacted]

[25/06/2019, 09:10:00] Ian McGrail: Morning Joey - the Panorama rhetoric continues today. Will send you the article via email. Happy to discuss it over the phone.

[25/06/2019, 12:11:21] [redacted]: Ian - will call you this afternoon - at interviews in HR all week

[25/06/2019, 12:12:22] [redacted]: Sorry

[25/06/2019, 12:12:52] [redacted]: I finish at 4.00 - I can call you then?

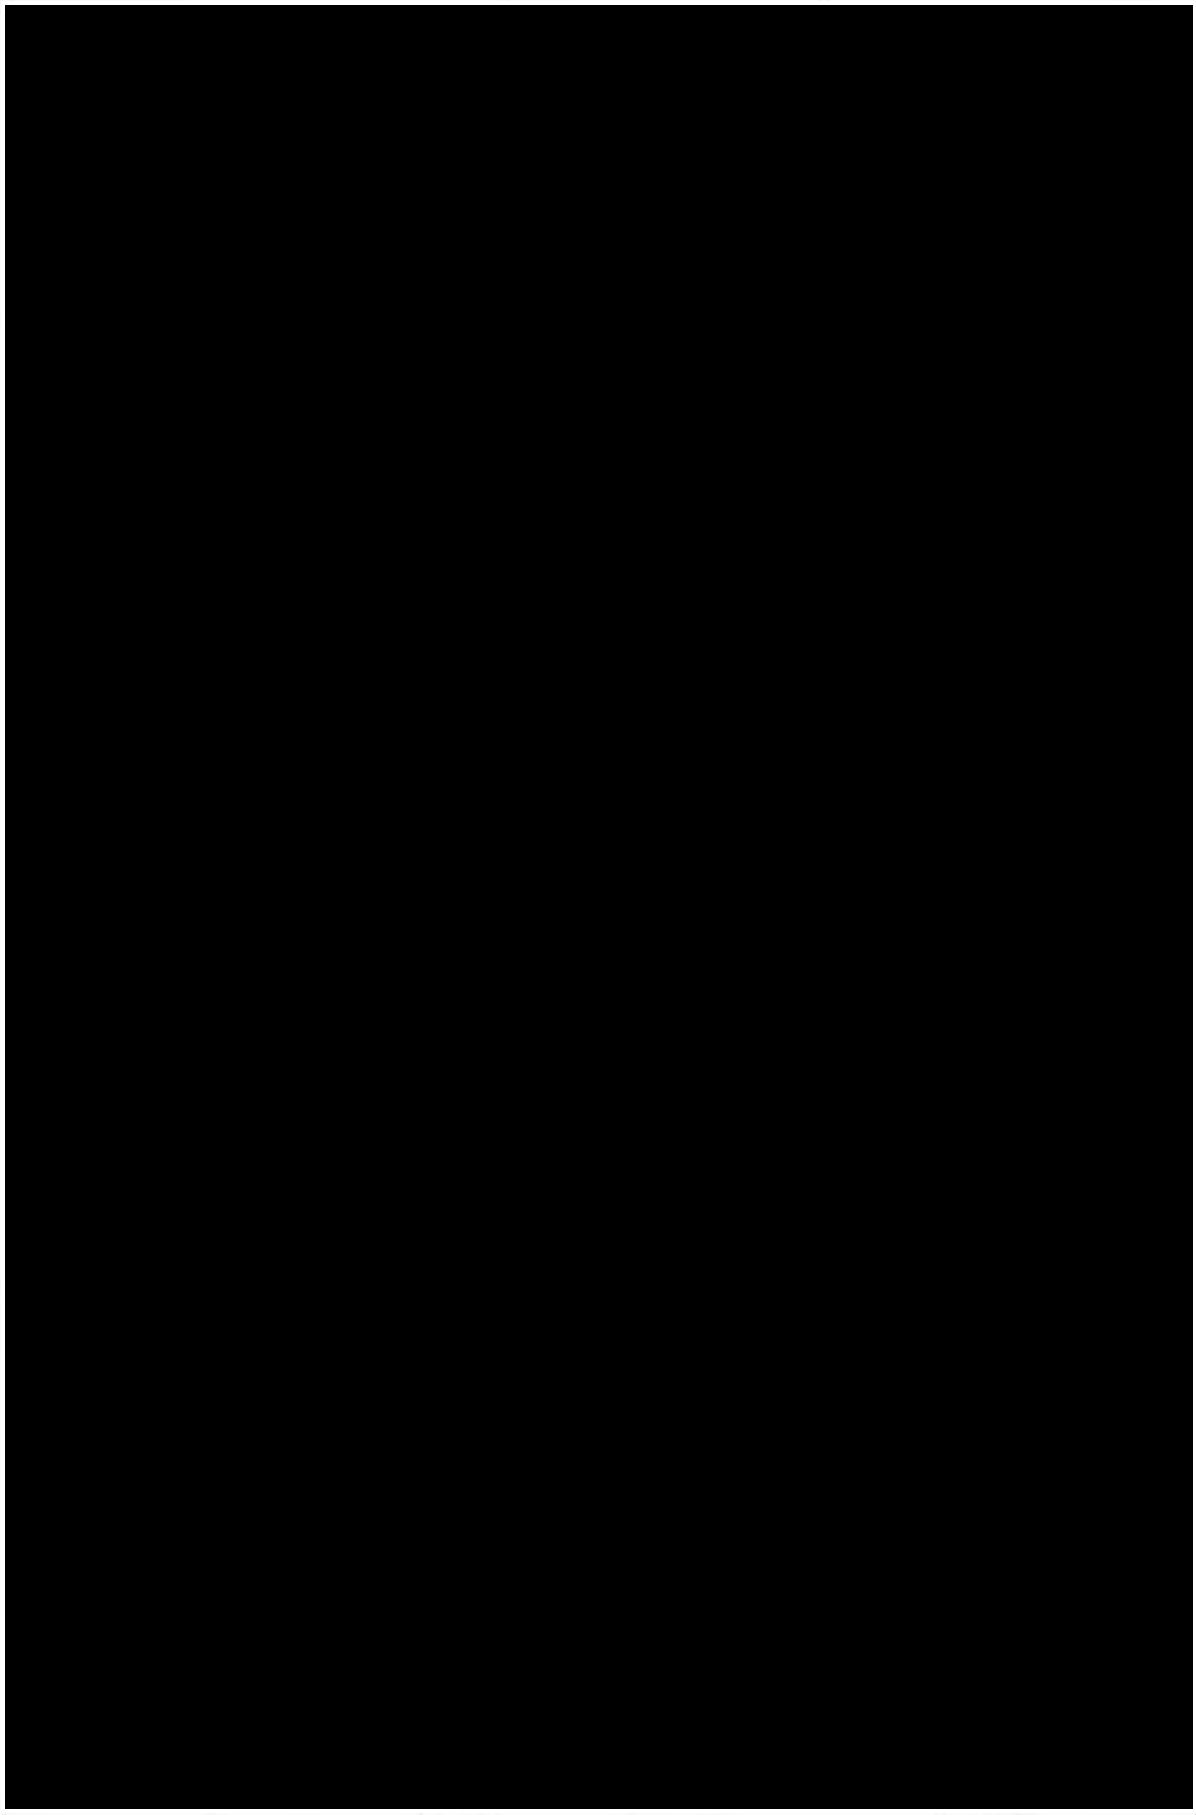
[25/06/2019, 12:16:39] Ian McGrail: No worries - call when you can.

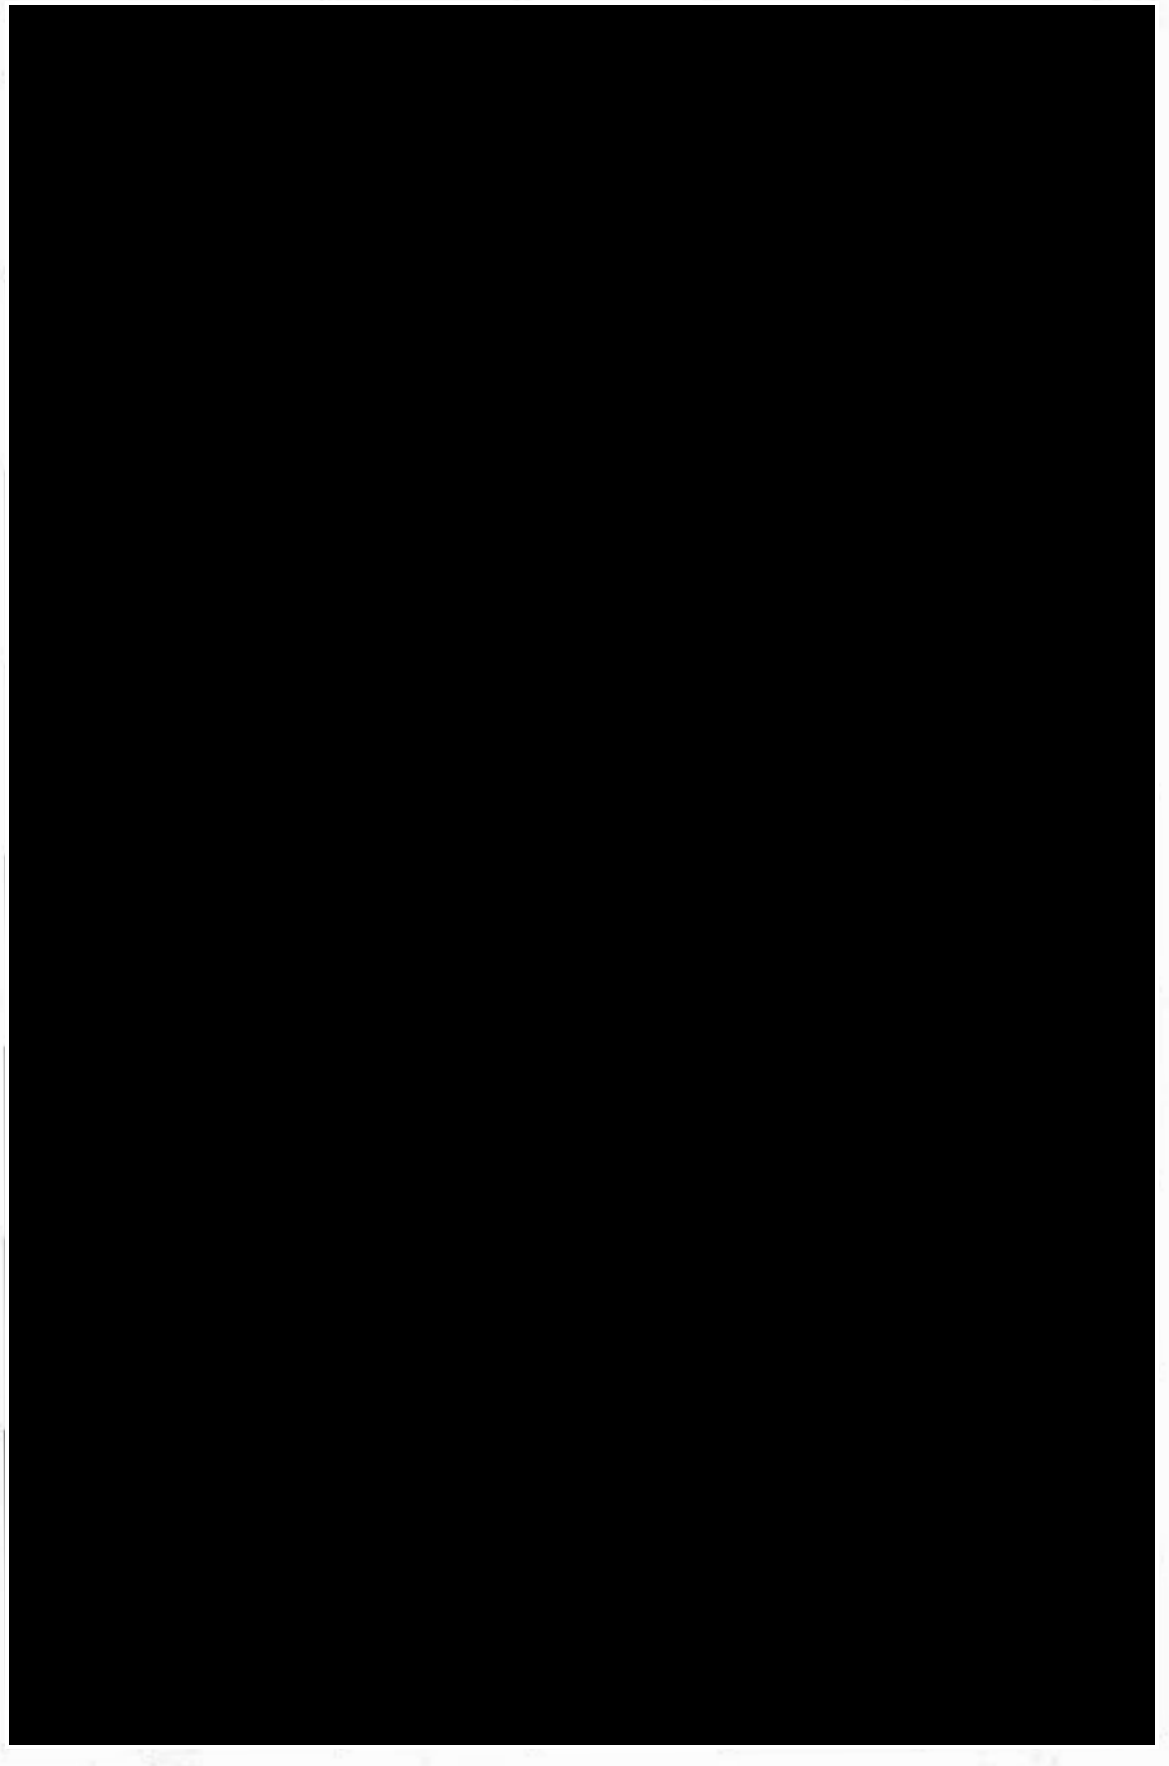
[26/06/2019, 08:29:54] [redacted]: Ian - after reading CM's email - how many commissioners back does this go to? Seems a bit unfair if you were not involved yourself..?

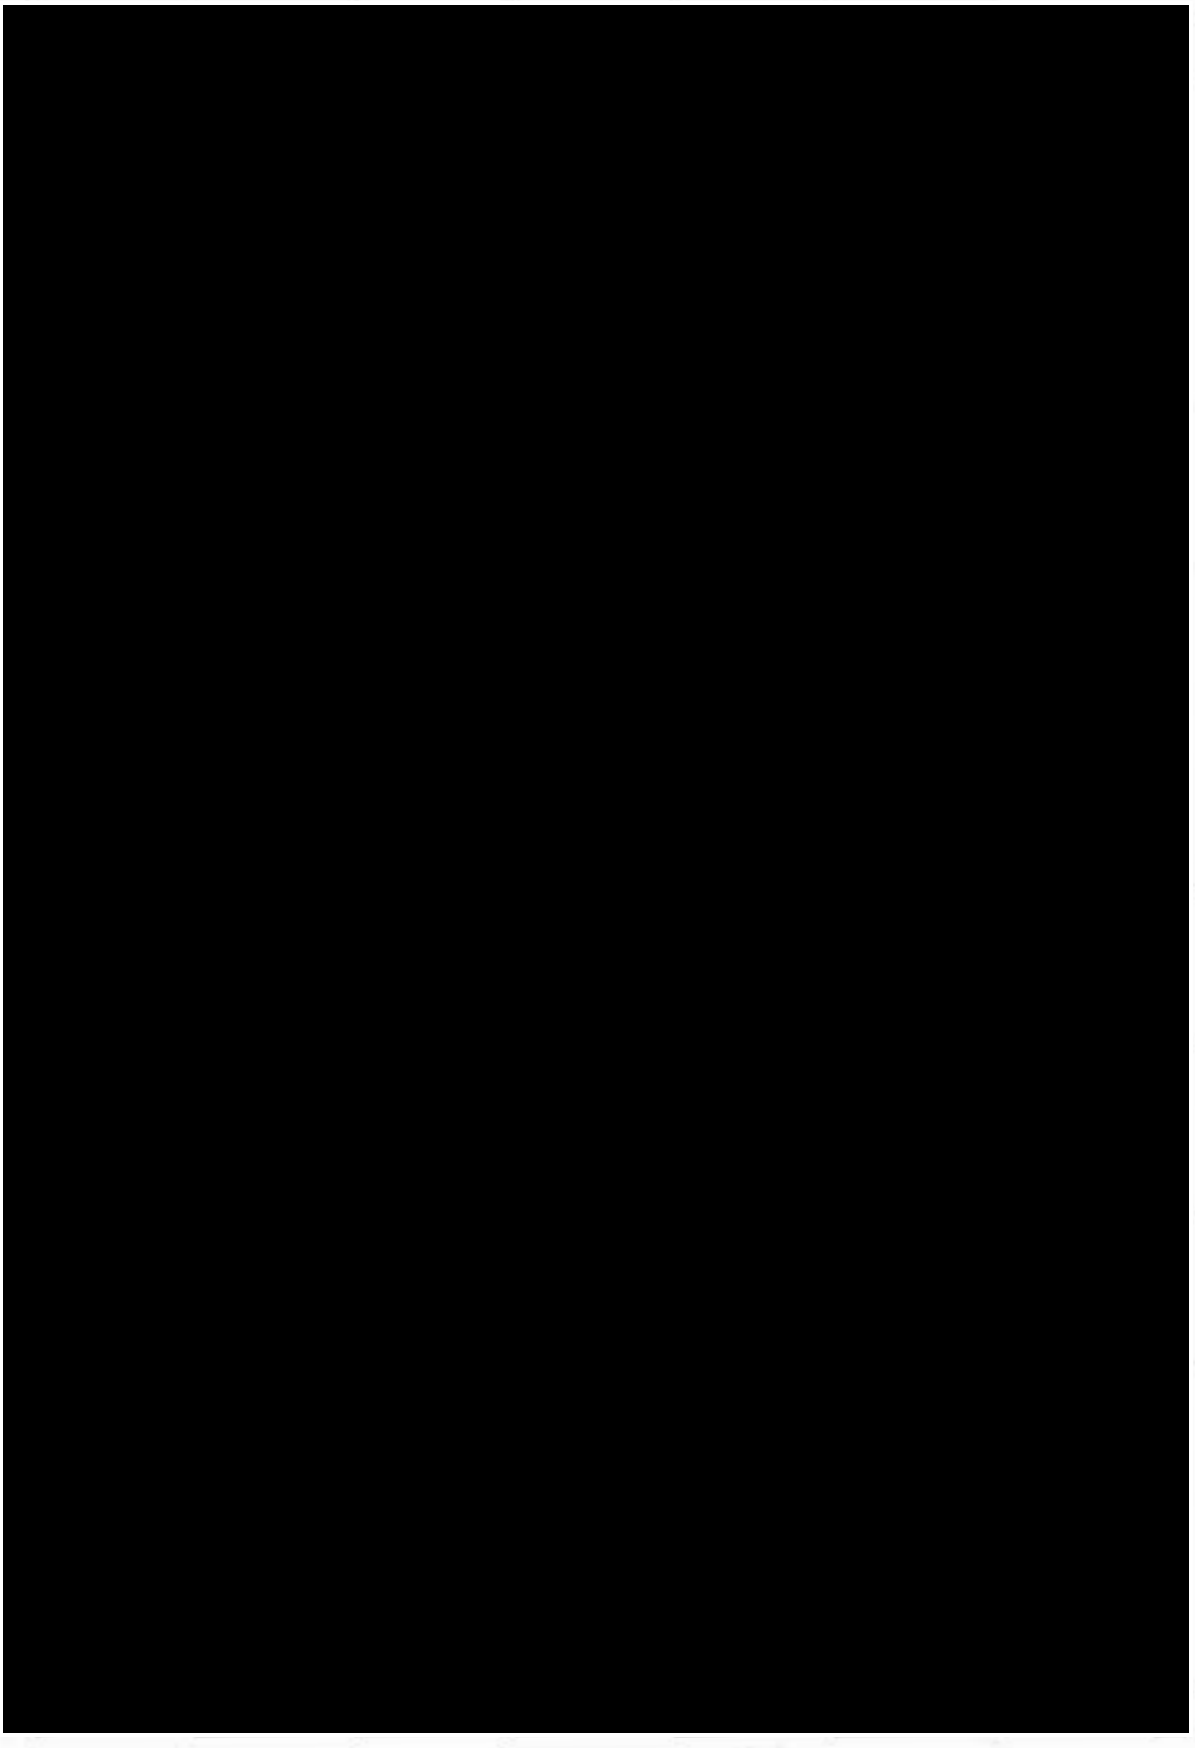
[26/06/2019, 08:33:20] Ian McGrail: This goes back go Louis Wink's time bur hey, I'm in the hot seat now & will accept the fall outs of this and anything else. Funnily enough I was involved in the internal investigation that was carried out of the officers concerned.

[26/06/2019, 08:36:43] [redacted]: Indeed, I think we all find ourselves in a similar situation

[redacted]







[redacted]

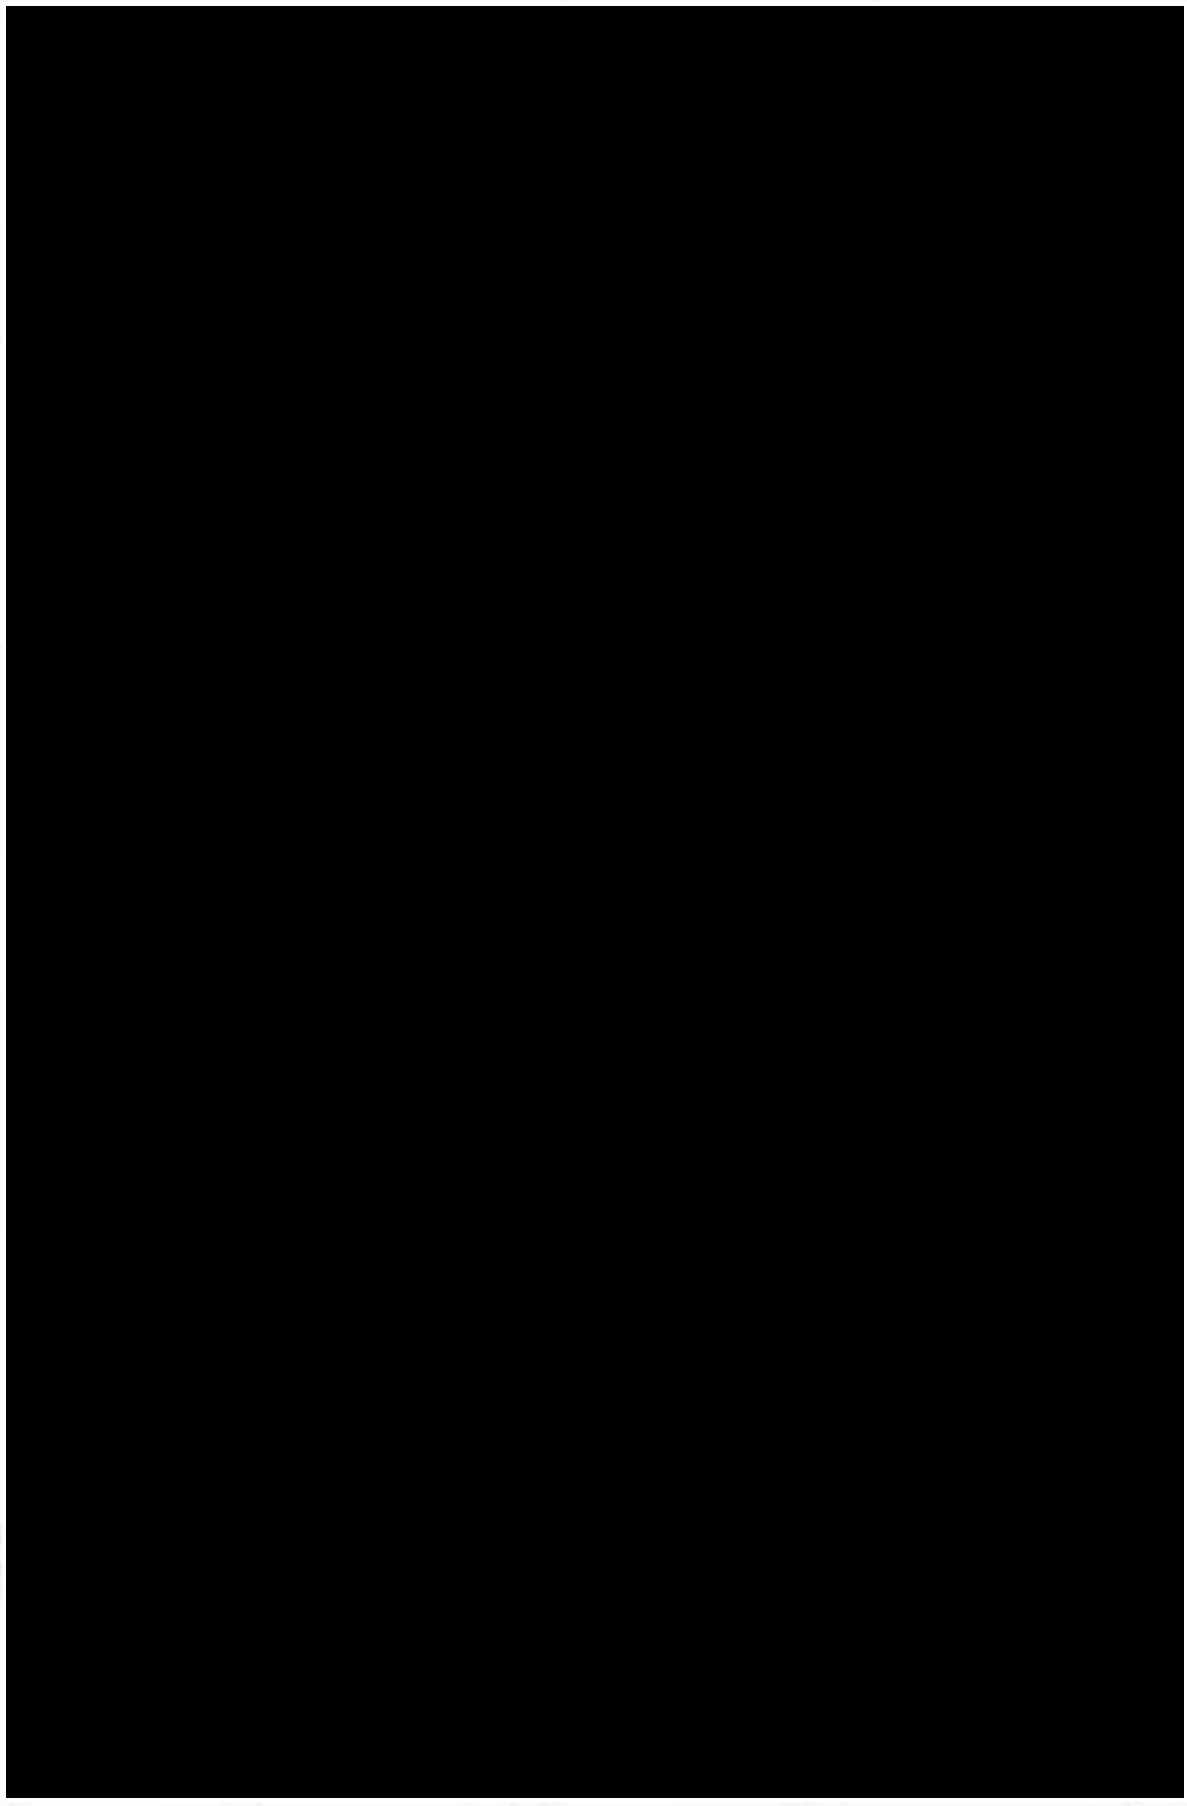
[05/09/2019, 11:45:23] [redacted]: Ian - in another matter: HMIC inspection 14-18 October - are you ok with this? Did you know?

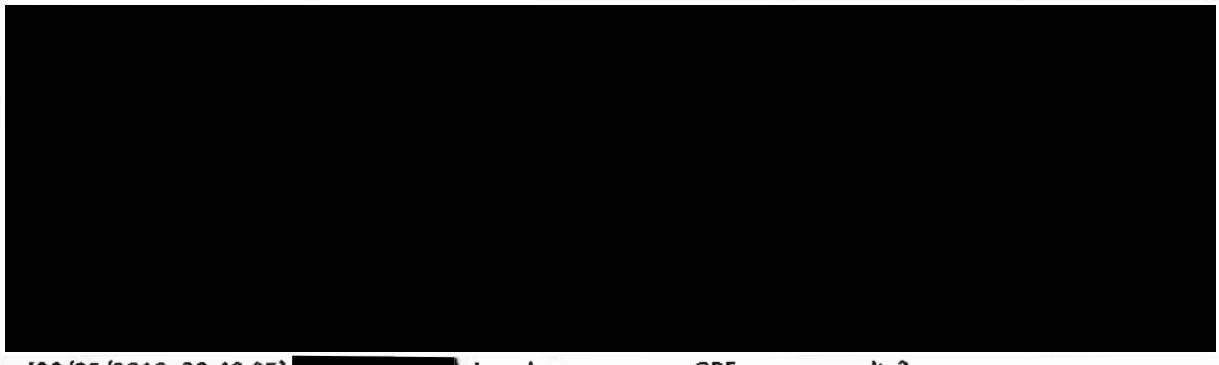
[05/09/2019, 11:45:28] [redacted]: on

[05/09/2019, 11:59:16] Ian McGrail: Yes indeed. We are collating data which they asked for and I have to send it off by 13th sept

[05/09/2019, 12:00:21] [redacted]: Ok thanks. I sent you a separate email advising you, for the record

[redacted]





[30/09/2019, 20:40:05] [redacted]: Ian - have you seen GPF survey results?

[30/09/2019, 20:40:49] Ian McGrail: Yes I have. Very damning again.

[30/09/2019, 20:41:19] [redacted]: They are going to do this every year, it seems

[30/09/2019, 20:41:50] [redacted]: It's quite demoralising from a senior command perspective

[30/09/2019, 20:42:40] [redacted]: They results can't be ignored, though, particularly the bullying part

[30/09/2019, 20:44:27] [redacted]: Perhaps you could come up with a strategy in relation to 'bullying' based on how other forces tackle this issue? The Met, perhaps?

[30/09/2019, 20:47:51] Ian McGrail: It is. Addressing warped perceptions is turning out to be more challenging than expected more so with the contamination being asserted by those set out to cause havoc. Because of the survey design bullying will continue to feature as an issue.

If you ask the same question to a respondent who in a previous year has said he has been bullied, he will reply the same this year & the next. The Fed haven't taken heed of the advice to design the questions appropriately as per recommendations made by AAP.

[30/09/2019, 20:52:36] Ian McGrail: We are working to the recommendations made by AAP to introduce tailor made measurea because they recognised the difficulties of applying UK practices here. Notwithstanding, the Fed have already said that they will advise the membership not to accept any system other than the one suggestes by DAWN (via bullying at work act). So already the Fed is influencing the members not to accept managements proposed changes.

[30/09/2019, 20:54:00] [redacted]: Ok - maybe I can raise with Michael Crome

[30/09/2019, 20:55:02] Ian McGrail: We can certainly have a good chat about the results.

[30/09/2019, 20:55:06] [redacted]: He could advise the fed as to desirability of having a bespoke policy for RGP etc

[30/09/2019, 20:55:31] [redacted]: Speak to you soon - are you in Friday morning?

[30/09/2019, 20:56:14] Ian McGrail: I am though I have the Opening of the Legal Year ceremony which I think is at 11am

[30/09/2019, 20:56:21] [redacted]: True

[30/09/2019, 20:56:24] [redacted]: I forgot

[30/09/2019, 20:56:35] [redacted]: We'll leave it for next week

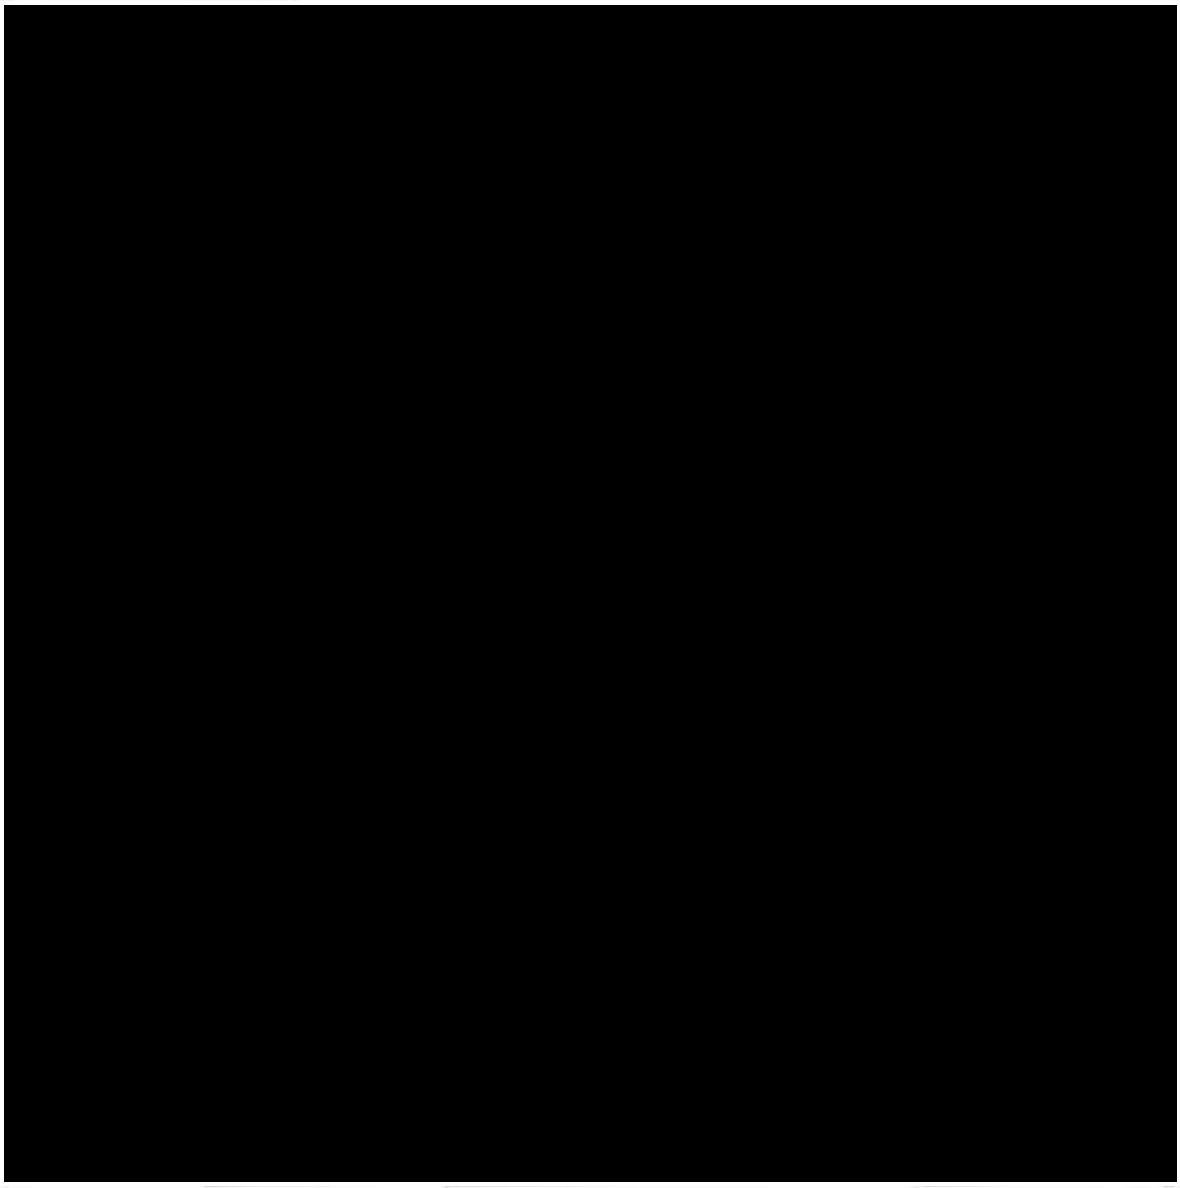
[30/09/2019, 20:56:43] [redacted]: I'll arrange with your sec

[30/09/2019, 20:56:49] Ian McGrail:

[30/09/2019, 20:57:23] [redacted]: Don't hesitate to call me if you need anything in the meantime

[30/09/2019, 20:57:34] Ian McGrail: Many thanks.

[30/09/2019, 20:57:55] [redacted]:



[01/10/2019, 14:48:21] [redacted]: Ian - in case it helps - GGCA have just published a survey als alleging that their members are bullied or feel bullied so it's not just the RGP but public services as well - this may help to put GPF survey into context!!

[01/10/2019, 14:53:02] Ian McGrail: And probably Customs and prison will come out the same. Its the same company being used and all designed to support DAWN. They are behind all of this.

[01/10/2019, 14:53:50] [redacted]: Customs and prison also participated in GGCA survey so yes you are quite correct

[01/10/2019, 14:55:08] [redacted]: At least it's not just RGP.. this puts it into context and dilutes potential sensationalist news reports etc

[01/10/2019, 14:55:16] [redacted]: Hopefully

[01/10/2019, 14:55:52] Ian McGrail: Hopefully election fever clouds both the GGCA & GPF surveys.

[01/10/2019, 14:56:01] [redacted]: Indeed!!

[05/10/2019, 21:02:31] Ian McGrail: Its not always bad news. See the following message from a Temp Commander in the Met Police (equivalent to an Asst Chief Constable) who writes privately on LinkedIn to me. I don't know the man. .....

[05/10/2019, 21:02:44] Ian McGrail: image omitted

[05/10/2019, 21:02:51] Ian McGrail: image omitted

[05/10/2019, 21:03:12] Ian McGrail: The MET wanting to learn from us - que te parece?

[05/10/2019, 21:03:42] [redacted]: Ian - this is really good!

[05/10/2019, 21:04:10] Ian McGrail: And he is an ex HMIC Staff Officer

[05/10/2019, 21:04:28] Ian McGrail: According to his profile

[05/10/2019, 21:04:43] [redacted]: I've been following up on police feeds over twitter and every force seems to be faced with the same issues you/we are

[05/10/2019, 21:05:37] [redacted]: In other words, you are not alone

[05/10/2019, 21:07:17] [redacted]: It seems that police officers all over UK are not happy but it seems to be connected with the sort of people joining the force - a sort of millennial issue

[05/10/2019, 21:07:34] Ian McGrail: I know but the impact here is probably felt more because of our size. Then again many people are telling me they are fed up with the 'anonymous' public sector surveys. Its seems everyone is sooooo unhappy at work !!! & wait for Customs to react after the death at sea enquiry is completed. They'll want salary increase et al.

[05/10/2019, 21:08:07] Ian McGrail: Indeed a generational thing. No longer a job for life as it used to be.

[05/10/2019, 21:08:41] [redacted]: Exactly where I am with this - my take is that all of the public services seem to be unhappy because they resent being told what to do

[05/10/2019, 21:09:11] [redacted]: Same with teachers (some, not all)

[05/10/2019, 21:09:24] Ian McGrail: A culture which needs addressing - the sooner the better. Can't wait post elections.

[05/10/2019, 21:10:09] [redacted]: Yes

[05/10/2019, 21:21:47] [redacted]: Indeed

[05/10/2019, 21:22:28] [redacted]: Anyway - I'll see what the situation is in UK when I meet up with HMIC 👍

[05/10/2019, 21:22:42] [redacted]: Just to compare etc

[05/10/2019, 21:23:04] Ian McGrail: 👍 👍 👍

[05/10/2019, 21:23:21] [redacted] 👍

[05/10/2019, 21:29:34] [redacted]: Take care, Ian - speak to you soon

[05/10/2019, 21:33:16] Ian McGrail: 👍

[08/10/2019, 11:28:03] Ian McGrail: Panorama giving us kisses and hugs again.

[08/10/2019, 11:28:38] [redacted] Haven't seen it

[08/10/2019, 11:29:01] Ian McGrail: Will send you it

[08/10/2019, 11:29:00] [redacted]: It was to be expected, though... easy target etc!!

[08/10/2019, 11:29:07] [redacted]: Thanks

[08/10/2019, 14:23:05] [redacted]: Ian - we need to discuss this further - whatever the validity of the survey, there must be underlying issues which have to be seen to be addressed - I know you have set up workstreams etc - can we talk about this and how RGP is trying to counter bullying allegations etc? Maybe we could meet up or I could meet up with Richard if you prefer... what do you think??

[08/10/2019, 14:23:51] [redacted]: Or we could consult HMIC to see if this is a trend in other forces as well?

[08/10/2019, 14:24:08] [redacted]: Let me know what you prefer etc

[08/10/2019, 14:32:20] Ian McGrail: I am happy with whatever. We can tell you what we have don so far. The issue here in my view is addressing perceptions. Seek out ways to influence perceptions without necessarily losing comand and control which is what the GPF want by going down the DAWN route for dealing with allegations.

[08/10/2019, 14:34:16] [redacted] Yes I agree - I'll call to arrange a meeting so we can go over this etc - thanks Ian

[08/10/2019, 14:54:15] Ian McGrail: 👍

[09/10/2019, 09:19:27] Ian McGrail: Morning Joey - just for you info, we have now received the barrage of questions from Panorama. Amongst other things they infer that the GPF has engaged with the paper - I received the results of the survey on the same date & in the same Email as you & which included the CM, & that wasn't a week or more before it was published as they say - it was more like 2 days. The Asst Comm has infact engaged with the GPF in my absence and is doing so again in a pre-arranged meeting today. So you can see how they enjoy spreading porkies.

[09/10/2019, 09:20:19] [redacted]: This is very useful - thanks

[09/10/2019, 16:13:41] Ian McGrail: Joey - I have just received very disturbing news from Richard Ullger. He met with the GPF this afternoon and amongst other things the chairman has admitted meeting up with Leo Olivero for a coffee and making very damaging suggestions to him which brin an absolute discredit on the RGP. You will be shocked when you hear it. I understand HE is arrangir a meeting to see both of us?

[09/10/2019, 16:14:35] [redacted]: Yes but I can't make it at 4.30 he can meet us at 5.00 tomorrow

[09/10/2019, 16:15:05] Ian McGrail: Fine by me. Como si me dijiera a la 11pm.

[09/10/2019, 16:15:20] [redacted]: Why would GPF confess to this? I don't understand

[09/10/2019, 16:17:24] Ian McGrail: Exactly - i put it down to them feeling they are on a high and mighty horse right now. They do not recognise boundaries and certainly have lost their moral compass on ethics. But it gives context to their whole game plan which I have been warning about for some time.

[09/10/2019, 16:18:10] [redacted]: I think we also have to tell CM - he's also been asked press questions - happy to leave that in your hands

[09/10/2019, 16:18:19] [redacted]: Or at least warn him

[09/10/2019, 16:19:04] [redacted]: Just to put things in context

[09/10/2019, 16:20:10] Ian McGrail: Indeed. The GPF's feeling of mightiness apparently follows on from a meeting with the CM where they claim he will oblige to all the GPF's claims.

[09/10/2019, 16:22:23] [redacted]: At least tomorrow we can let the Governor know everything you've done as well as the AAP work you commissioned etc

[09/10/2019, 16:23:52] Ian McGrail: That was my intention.

[09/10/2019, 16:29:20] [redacted]: From the line of questioning, panorama doesn't seem to know that you commissioned an independent review??

[09/10/2019, 16:29:57] [redacted]: They insist on an independent investigation so AAP counts seeing as they interviews 150!!

[09/10/2019, 16:30:35] Ian McGrail: Maurice Morello is a very cunning person Joey. He will only rely in things that suit him.

[09/10/2019, 16:31:25] [redacted]: Check emails from Stuart Green ref CM's press reply

[09/10/2019, 16:31:40] Ian McGrail: I have written to CM requesting to see him urgently.

[09/10/2019, 16:31:56] [redacted] Ok best approach, I think

[09/10/2019, 16:32:32] Ian McGrail: Don't seem to have been copied in on this. I haven't received anything from Stuart.

[09/10/2019, 16:32:48] [redacted]: Blind copied he told me

[09/10/2019, 16:35:53] Ian McGrail: Nothing received. Can you forward to me?

[09/10/2019, 16:36:09] [redacted]: Yes

[11/10/2019, 15:56:53] Ian McGrail: Joey - ref Panorama's front page today, the CM has said absolutely nothing to me on the subject. I have written to him and he has responded stating it all skewered by Panorama & that he will be responding later today.

Rgds

[11/10/2019, 16:49:59] [redacted] Thanks - I haven't seen it yet been at hr interviewing all day

[11/10/2019, 16:50:25] Ian McGrail: I will email it to you.

[11/10/2019, 16:50:30] [redacted] Thanks

[11/10/2019, 16:50:44] [redacted]: Just finished now!

[11/10/2019, 16:51:05] Ian McGrail: I have also advised HE.

[11/10/2019, 16:51:27] [redacted] Sorry I've been shut off from the world today

[11/10/2019, 16:51:33] [redacted]: Apologies!

[11/10/2019, 16:52:02] Ian McGrail: No need to apologise.

[11/10/2019, 16:52:22] Ian McGrail: I will show you the screen shot exchange I have had with the CM.

[11/10/2019, 16:52:30] Ian McGrail: image omitted

[11/10/2019, 16:52:30] Ian McGrail: image omitted

[11/10/2019, 16:52:32] [redacted] Ok

[11/10/2019, 16:54:00] [redacted] Thank you Ian - most prudent approach by you, [15/10/2019, 08:38:56] [redacted] Ian can you spare a few minutes before 9.00 for a brief chat?

[15/10/2019, 08:41:43] Ian McGrail: Ofcourse

[15/10/2019, 08:42:01] [redacted] Almost there

[16/10/2019, 12:04:54] Ian McGrail: Joey - so far so good with HMIC. No doubt they will come up with decent recommendations but in the main I am getting quite positive vibes from feedback. Esta gente no tienen ni un pelo de tontos.

Aside - I have just sent off the letter seeking approval for the promotions. I would like to announce them next week so there still isn't any rush to get the GPA's endorsement - but close of play Friday would be good.

[16/10/2019, 13:09:16] [redacted] Yes understood. I think they will flag last inspection recs that have not been completed as well?

[16/10/2019, 13:10:11] [redacted] image omitted

[16/10/2019, 13:10:30] [redacted]: Just to add joy to your day... just been sent this...

[16/10/2019, 13:10:50] Ian McGrail: Lovely

[16/10/2019, 13:11:58] [redacted] Ya!

[17/10/2019, 10:51:04] Ian McGrail: Rob Allan from the GDP wants to contact you. I won't pass on your mobile phone unless you are happy with it.

[17/10/2019, 11:21:32] [redacted] I'm ok - thanks feel free

[17/10/2019, 14:31:09] [redacted] Sent you an email with proposed reply to panorama - I hadn't seen the questions but now have them - see what you think...

[17/10/2019, 15:25:15] Ian McGrail: Will read them now. Just finished quite a long session with Matt Parr. Again, they'll make recommendations on areas to improve on but in broad terms they have not found any issues if concern of how we are doing. In his words "there are things you do far better than some big forces in UK and there are others where you need to improve on." He also explained what the bullying situation is in the UK police and he was quick to say that it is being taken far to extreme

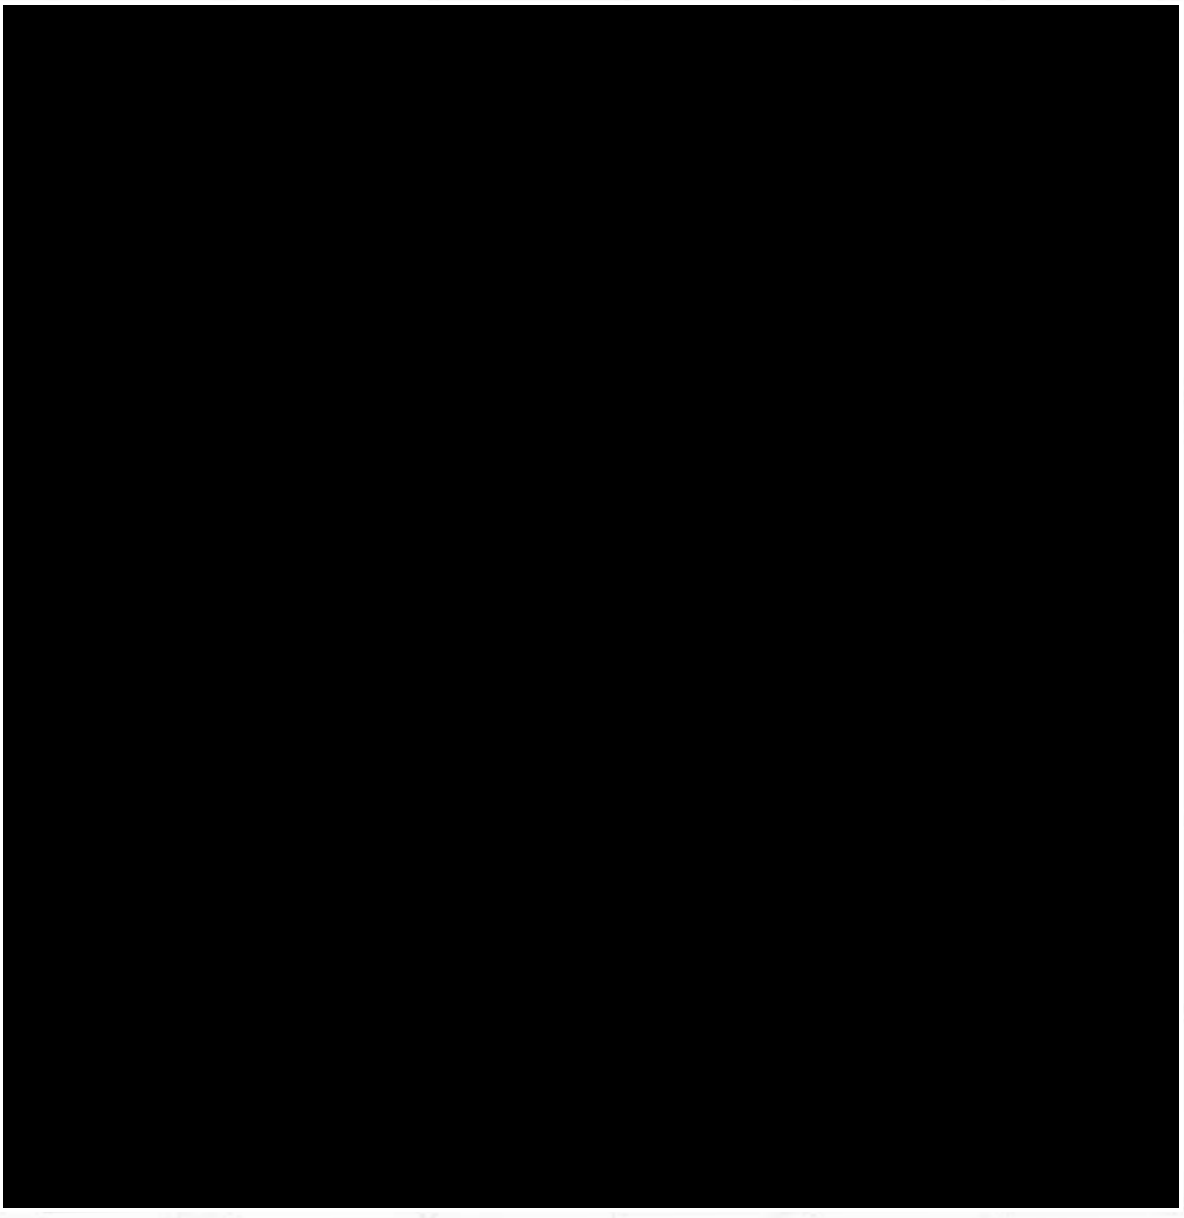
[17/10/2019, 16:00:53] [redacted] Good news

[17/10/2019, 16:01:06] [redacted] I also met with him earlier

[17/10/2019, 16:01:34] Ian McGrail: Hope it went well for you too.

[17/10/2019, 16:01:55] [redacted]: Yes I'll discuss next week with you

[17/10/2019, 16:02:13] Ian McGrail: 👍



[21/10/2019, 21:06:14] Ian McGrail: Good evening Joey - I have today been informed by Supt Cathal Yeats that the PCB have asked that I be investigated following a complaint made by two ex military police officers based in Gib. This is related to the infamous airport incident and subsequent arrest of three senior military officials back in March 2017. I feel duty bound to advise HE, CM & yourself officially of the situation. I will be doing this tomorrow. I am uncertain under what legal provisions I am being investigated as the Commissioner of Police is not subject to Police Discipline Regulations 1991. Needless to say I will be seeking legal advice on the matter to safeguard my interests and that of the RGP. This could potentially bring us into conflict with the PCB. Would you want to meet up to discuss this matter? I will be seeking to meet HE & CM accordingly.

[21/10/2019, 21:10:39] [redacted]: I can certainly meet, of course but I'm interviewing all day tomorrow as from 8.00 but can call you during the lunch break -

[21/10/2019, 21:11:55] [redacted]: I'll find out more for tomorrow

[21/10/2019, 21:13:05] Ian McGrail: I am actually concerned how this is being handled. i am told that the PCB is looking at it because at the time of the incident I was a supt but then again the complaint against me has only been filed a couple of weeks ago.

[22/10/2019, 19:44:29] Ian McGrail: Meeting with [new] MoJ went very well. She was upfront saying she would not intefere with us and would help in any she could. She acknowledged the RGP ran itself & was very happy for it to continue this way. She asked about our relationship with the GPA and I said it was a positive one - that the GPA asked questions of us as they should but also didn't meddle in operational matters. I have invited her to New Mole to show her around so it may be a good opportunity to also ask the new GPA members to come along we we arrange the visit. We'll do the usual with explaining how we are structured etc.

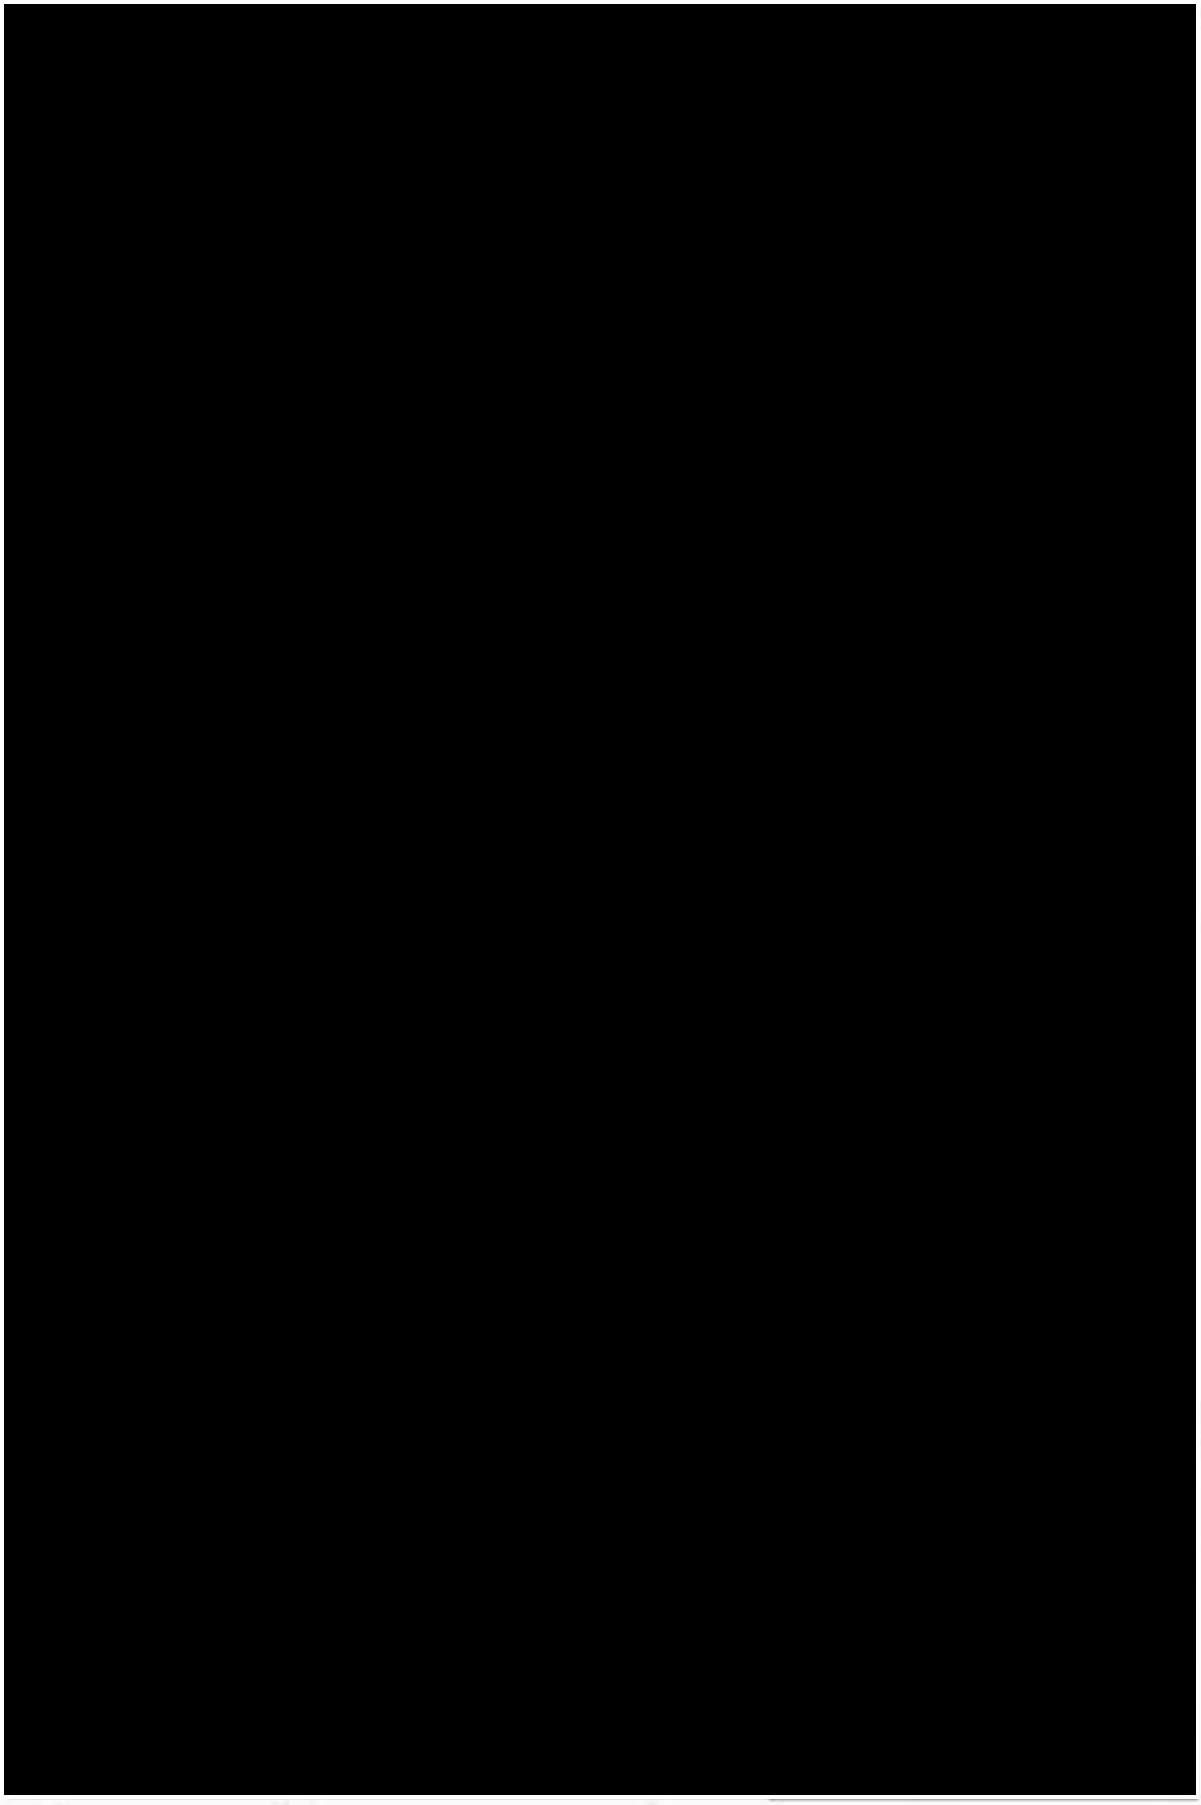
[22/10/2019, 20:22:32] [redacted] Excellent news! Thanks!

[22/10/2019, 20:23:36] [redacted] Hopefully, she can also help push for new premises etc

[22/10/2019, 20:23:55] Ian McGrail: 🔥

[22/10/2019, 20:24:06] [redacted] Indeed!

[redacted]



[27/01/2020, 18:57:11] Ian McGrail: At 11.30am

[27/01/2020, 19:19:18] [redacted]: Pity I can't make it - or else I would try to be there. In any case, I'll call you later to see what her reaction is.

Ian, thinking aloud here and to ensure the official side keeps and is seen to keep the moral high ground

[27/01/2020, 19:21:00] [redacted] I may look into suggesting / recommending a formal mediation process between RGP and GPF - I'm looking into this atm after our chat today but won't move until I discuss fully with you

[27/01/2020, 19:21:43] [redacted]: Just looking at the moment

[27/01/2020, 19:23:17] [redacted]: Of course things may well be past this

[27/01/2020, 19:23:36] [redacted] But no harm in me looking to see what is possible legally

[27/01/2020, 19:24:32] Ian McGrail: It is welcomed but there being a disciplinary process ongoing it may not be desirable. Until such time as they accept that they are police officers and accountable as such there won't, in my honest view, shift from their position. They genuinely beleive they are right and behaving the way they are behaving.

[27/01/2020, 19:26:24] Ian McGrail: We have consulted unofficially with a UK force professional standards dept because we wanted to ensure we weren't being unreasonable with our stance. On the contrary they say, we are to lenient apparently - this behaviour should have been stamped out ages ago they say.

[27/01/2020, 19:29:25] [redacted]: Ok let's see what MfJ meeting comes out with etc

[27/01/2020, 19:29:52] Ian McGrail: Will let you know.

[27/01/2020, 19:30:47] [redacted]: Ok

[27/01/2020, 19:30:52] [redacted] Speak tomorrow

[27/01/2020, 22:29:43] [redacted]: Ian - by the way, any news from HMIC?

[28/01/2020, 00:09:14] Ian McGrail: Yes- Paul Holewell told us the report was being circulated amongst them for a final proof read before they sent it to us to check for accuracy. We are expecting it any time.

[28/01/2020, 10:48:19] [redacted]: Ok

[29/01/2020, 11:30:48] Ian McGrail: Good morning Joey - I have had the meeting with the CM firmed up for 1130am on Wednesday 5th Feb. There have been developments since we last spoke which elevate my concerns and that of my command team to another level. Basically it revolves around the CM potentially legislating to exclude the GPF conveners from discipline procedures. Me deja a la altura del betùn. I am seriously concerned where this is going.

My meeting with MoJ yesterday went well and she seemed totally onside with understanding my concerns. Then again I am sure she will not challenge the CM's position.

Rgds

[29/01/2020, 13:22:06] [redacted]: Ok noted - my advice then is for you not to press ahead with anything that may indeed leave you and senior command in a bad light... ie los malos de la película - wait for me to call you at some point today and I'll explain

[29/01/2020, 14:15:18] [redacted] By the above, I'll explain what I interpret by this - that's what I mean by the way - not that I know anything else you don't

[30/01/2020, 08:09:19] [redacted] Ian - good morning. I'm having to do this via this medium because it is off the record atm: as you know the gpa can proffer official guidance to cop after having discussed with gov and Governor under the act (I haven't done this yet as I prefer my guidance to seem to come from you as I feel it would put you in a good light and would be good from a community opinion perspective) what I'm suggesting is that you offer to meet gpa under mediation arrangements - official and professional mediators- to try and resolve what can only be a battle with no victors - this would probably mean suspending disciplinary investigation etc, I suspect - but anyway, could you at least discuss this with your senior command please? Try to put aside who is right or wrong because this why the community will know you have bent over backwards to try to mend relationships with Fed. Please consider this. You see, if they refuse, you will immediately take the moral high ground! Note that this is not about who is right and who is wrong! At this moment I won't be able to talk until about 6.00 but at least discuss with Richard and Cathal if you can...

food for thought - apologies for sending you this in this way....

[30/01/2020, 08:23:32] Ian McGrail: All noted. I think I need to brief the GPA who still are not fully aware of the story board the GPF have been crafting for the past two years.

[30/01/2020, 08:37:49] Ian McGrail: We have been through attempts to mediate and offered an olive branch on more than one occasion. It simply hasn't been taken by them. All this is evidenced. I have a view that I will share with you on how this could be resolved. And I beg to differ with you, with these people it is indeed crucial to establish who is right and wrong.

[30/01/2020, 08:46:36] Ian McGrail: Unfortunately it is their lack of knowledge and understanding of how to conduct their side of business & their entrenched positions. If they were reasonable people it would be a different ball game. A police force cannot be unionized at that is what they want.

Notwithstanding, lets have a discussion over this.

[30/01/2020, 10:59:34] [redacted]: Ian - to let you know that as long as you have the high ground and have shown a willingness to fix and resolve then gpa will be happy - thanks

[30/01/2020, 10:59:58] [redacted]: Gpa being me atm, of course

[30/01/2020, 11:00:26] [redacted]: Best if you meet all of us as you suggest - this is appreciated

[30/01/2020, 11:00:31] [redacted]: 👍

[30/01/2020, 13:09:07] Ian McGrail: Thanks.

[03/02/2020, 18:39:32] Ian McGrail: https://www.yourgibraltartv.com/society/20646-unions-concerned-by-disciplinary-action-against-gibraltar-police-federation-leaders

[03/02/2020, 18:43:12] Ian McGrail: Trade Unions associating with the GPF !!! This is totally against the principles of the regualtions governing the GPF.

[03/02/2020, 18:43:56] Ian McGrail: The GPF has to be independent of any other organisation outside the force.

[03/02/2020, 18:45:55] Ian McGrail: The unions feeding out incorrect statement too. Talking about GPF being targetted and censored when they don't know the truth.

[03/02/2020, 18:51:02] [redacted] I saw this coming, Ian. It may well be that you are quite correct in your assessment of the situation, vis a vis, the status of GPF but this is definitely going to escalate with no way of knowing how it is going to end... unions tend to stick together and de facto (not de jure, obviously) GPF is construed to be a union of sorts...

Let's see government's take on this when you meet on Wednesday

[03/02/2020, 18:51:30] [redacted]: No winners with this

[03/02/2020, 18:52:49] [redacted] You see now it's all the unions and not just fed 😩

[03/02/2020, 18:56:09] Ian McGrail: The police service cannot be unionsed. It would be its downfall. What needs sorting out is what their real purpose is - & how they can and cannot do to achieve their aims. Like I was 100% with my assessment of strachan, I can assure you that I know I am not wrong on this. I have researched the matter well and asked questions from UK police forces and fed reps there. Equally i have engaged with other professionals who cannot understand how the situation is unfolding.

[03/02/2020, 18:57:52] [redacted] I completely understand this and know you'll be elaborating on Thursday to rest of GPA, anyway. Perhaps a carefully worded statement is required but I'm not at all sure...

[03/02/2020, 18:59:43] [redacted]: Agree that police can't be unionised but it will depend on how this is explained to the general public because not being unionised can't be interpreted by the general public to mean that officers are unprotected in their rights etc

[03/02/2020, 19:01:45] [redacted]: Hopefully, this can all be discussed at our meeting on Thursday

[03/02/2020, 19:02:12] [redacted]: Only you know the inside and out of the situation etc

[03/02/2020, 19:02:31] Ian McGrail: Indeed. I have to balance out the erroneous statement made by the unions. I will work on this tomorrow.

I also hear that the Inspectors and Ch Inspectors are not at all happy with the GPF Chair and Sec. And that the Inspector's branch board will be writing to the GPA, CM and HE to express their concerns. It'll be difficult to believe this but I nor my senior colleagues have had any influence on them. They are not in agreement with how the convenors are conducting their business and want to express their dissassociation.

[03/02/2020, 19:03:10] [redacted] This is very good news

[03/02/2020, 19:03:25] Ian McGrail: They are asking the convenors to retract their public posts & tweets (something that ain't gonna happen).

[03/02/2020, 19:03:32] [redacted]: It'll show that there are fissures in the fed

[03/02/2020, 19:04:01] Ian McGrail: Agree.

[03/02/2020, 19:04:29] [redacted]: Yes - it'll be a question of explaining this out there properly

[03/02/2020, 19:04:48] [redacted]: Take a deep breath

[03/02/2020, 19:05:02] [redacted]: And don't lose it...!

[03/02/2020, 19:05:37] Ian McGrail: Oh, I am sleeping well, for now at least

[03/02/2020, 19:06:02] [redacted]: At least it's something, Ian

[04/02/2020, 16:14:42] Ian McGrail: Joey, I am sending you a letter by hand to the GPA office tomorrow which I am copying to HE, CM and Min Sacramento. Its sets my views & concerns on the matter. You may wish to discuss the contents with the GPA members before I show up for the meeting.

[04/02/2020, 17:00:47] Ian McGrail: I can forward you the letter by email if you want.

[04/02/2020, 17:29:25] [redacted]: Yes please - this would be most useful.

[04/02/2020, 17:29:28] [redacted]: Thanks

[04/02/2020, 17:38:15] Ian McGrail: Sent

[04/02/2020, 18:01:32] [redacted]: Thanks - I'll make sure we read before you come over - thanks, Ian.

[04/02/2020, 18:01:58] Ian McGrail:

[04/02/2020, 18:09:26] [redacted]: Ian - do you mind if I circulate the electronic version to gpa members today, to give them time to read?

[04/02/2020, 18:19:02] Ian McGrail: Ofcourse I do not mind. The only this is its dated with tomorrow's date.

[04/02/2020, 18:19:35] [redacted]: Of course - I'll circulate first thing tomorrow- you are quite right.

[05/02/2020, 11:04:32] Ian McGrail: Morning Joey, can you speak?

[05/02/2020, 12:45:12] [redacted] Ian still at HR interviewing

[05/02/2020, 12:45:31] [redacted]: Do you need me to leave the room if urgent?

[06/02/2020, 17:27:32] Ian McGrail: Joey - can I give you a quick call?

[06/02/2020, 17:27:42] [redacted] Yes

[07/02/2020, 12:33:18] [redacted] Ian - how did it go?

[07/02/2020, 13:00:36] Ian McGrail: I am now at a meeting at the Bunker. Will call you later.

[07/02/2020, 13:00:59] [redacted]: Thanks - whoever you can

[07/02/2020, 13:01:04] [redacted]: Whenever

[07/02/2020, 17:20:50] Ian McGrail: I have only a few moments ago sent you the letter we spoke about - copied to the same people as the first. Have a good weekend.

[07/02/2020, 17:21:11] [redacted]: Thanks - you too!

[07/02/2020, 17:22:58] [redacted]: Ian I'll wait for hard copies before I circulate or have you distributed electronically?

[07/02/2020, 17:31:41] Ian McGrail: I have just distributed electronically to all those shown as recipients.

[07/02/2020, 17:32:09] [redacted]: Ok

[07/02/2020, 17:32:12] [redacted]: Thanks

[07/02/2020, 17:33:23] Ian McGrail: Happy for you to circulate - will send the original next week. I am not back in the office till Tuesday when I will arrange to meet with the Board.

[07/02/2020, 17:33:47] [redacted]: No problem- thsnks

[10/02/2020, 10:49:14] [redacted]: Ian - re your last letter - think carefully about whether you want to meet: GPA, RGP and Fed ir would you meet up with Fed and then report to GPA? I'm asking in case you want to avoid them thinking that you have been somehow asked by third parties to go down this route... just something I've thought of.. happy with whatever approach you choose, it goes without saying

J

[10/02/2020, 10:49:42] [redacted] Still interviewing!

[10/02/2020, 10:52:37] Ian McGrail: Noted. The reason i say meet with GPA is to show transparency yet again and I will offer it to them in that context. If they are happy we arrange the TOR's between them and us then I would report to GPA accordingly in due course.

[10/02/2020, 10:56:39] [redacted]: Whichever strategy you choose - you have my support

[10/02/2020, 10:56:50] [redacted]: Speak to you when you get back

[10/02/2020, 10:57:11] Ian McGrail: 👍

[10/02/2020, 11:20:45] Ian McGrail: Panorama at it again today and in his usual way, warping all and sundry.

[10/02/2020, 11:25:09] [redacted]: I suspected

[12/02/2020, 08:12:55] Ian McGrail: GPF LETTER REPLY INSPECTORS.doc document omitted

[12/02/2020, 08:15:05] Ian McGrail: Joey, the letter I was referring to yesterday. In confidence. Note the contradictory remarks regarding the need to go public on matters to get things done but conversely stating they have no issues with the command team and work is being advanced.

[12/02/2020, 08:16:30] Ian McGrail: If work is being advanced then why the need to go public. & more importantly, they have been sitting on the draft policy which they are crying out for for over a month!

[12/02/2020, 08:31:48] [redacted]: Understood- thanks for this, Ian.

[13/02/2020, 19:03:25] Ian McGrail: Good evening Joey - met the full Board of the GPF and they have accepted the proposal for the independent review. We will jointly devise TORs for this review & get cracking to bring a team over.

[13/02/2020, 19:06:19] [redacted]: This is the best news I've heard all day - excellent! I'll let the GPA members know 👍

[13/02/2020, 19:08:42] Ian McGrail: 👍

[13/02/2020, 19:09:04] [redacted]: Thank, Ian!

[20/02/2020, 22:55:38] [redacted]: Good evening, Ian - are you still on for meeting tomorrow at 9.30?

[20/02/2020, 22:55:55] [redacted] At NMH?

[21/02/2020, 07:26:51] Ian McGrail: Sorry Joey - just seen your text. Yes I am still on for a 9.30am meet.

[02/03/2020, 08:32:03] Ian McGrail: Morning Joey - Didn't want to bother you at the weekend but I have been reading through the HMIC draft report which they finally sent last week. We are trawling through it checking for accuracy. Would it be possible to meet this week before we revert to them with our comments?

[02/03/2020, 08:45:15] [redacted]: Yes - can you do tomorrow, though? I can go to see you?

[02/03/2020, 08:47:31] [redacted] I'll be away from Gibraltar from Thursday 5th - 10th March, so it'll have to be tomorrow if at all possible?

[02/03/2020, 08:48:20] Ian McGrail: Tomorrow at 11am works for you?

[02/03/2020, 08:58:57] [redacted]: Yes - I'll see you at NMH -

[02/03/2020, 08:59:17] Ian McGrail: 👌

[02/03/2020, 08:59:31] [redacted]: Any surprises/ issues of great concern?

[02/03/2020, 09:00:10] Ian McGrail: Regretablly yes to my liking.

[02/03/2020, 09:01:16] [redacted]: Ok - we'll discuss these tomorrow then

[02/03/2020, 09:01:32] Ian McGrail: 👍

[03/03/2020, 21:44:19] [redacted]: Ian - seeing as GPA was included in the report, could you also add - when you revert - that you are also sure that the GPA will question the comment about the point they make about not having an appetite for modernisation? Seeing as you are going to point out that you have completed the anti bullying statement and policy, your senior command have undertaken management training etc? Also, if GPA has no appetite then why request an inspection? I'll leave the first steps in your capable hands and I'm hoping they submit a draft to me once you have reverted...

Thanks

[03/03/2020, 22:05:45] [redacted]: GPA also advised some time ago about RGP exploring the possibility of placements in UK forces and vice versa, if you recall etc?

[03/03/2020, 22:40:49] Ian McGrail: Indeed Joey. Will include your views and share my intended response before sending it.

Rgds

[03/03/2020, 22:46:34] [redacted]: Thanks

[04/03/2020, 15:43:05] [redacted]: Ian - also tell me at what point you want me to call Matt - I'm conscious that I haven't seen a draft yet, if you see what I mean

[04/03/2020, 16:11:19] Ian McGrail: Ok. I will ask paul H whether I can share the draft report with you

[04/03/2020, 16:12:40] [redacted] Thanks - or at least ask him if after you, I'll be getting a draft as well

[04/03/2020, 16:12:49] [redacted] Thanks

[04/03/2020, 16:46:14] Ian McGrail: 👍

[04/03/2020, 16:47:15] [redacted] Thanks

[05/03/2020, 17:43:30] Ian McGrail: Joey - I've emailed you my proposed response to Paul H. The email has attachments with the draft document and our comments.

[05/03/2020, 18:09:10] [redacted] Thanks, Ian.

[08/03/2020, 09:00:04] Ian McGrail: Joey - We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

I have advised HE, CM & MoJ already.

Rgds

Ian

[08/03/2020, 10:31:20] [redacted]: Thanks - I saw it on the news feed.

[08/03/2020, 10:34:54] [redacted]: This message was deleted.

[08/03/2020, 10:58:54] [redacted]: Not asking any questions of you in view that it is under investigation and for Coroner to determine. Just like to say that it is unfortunate, to say the least!

[09/03/2020, 14:33:28] Ian McGrail: Joey - been working through the weekend on this collision case.

I am going to email you, (or if you want Elka), to formally notify you of the incident and refer you the fact that an investigation is underway. For purposes of transparency, this investigation should be independent & therefore I am trying to source out a team willing to take on the task. In UK the IOPC (our PCB) would decide whether the investigation would be wholly independent of managed by them with an external 3rd party (senior officer) overseeing on their behalf. If we applied that locally, it would mean the PCB would manage the investigation and we'd require a senior UK Officer to oversee it on the PCB's behalf. The field work though would be done by RGP Professional Standards. It may not be the best model as the independence element is not total. Then again for practicalities sake it may prove useful. I need to discuss the matter further with you & perhaps Frank too but I'm conscious that you're away.

I have held meetings with the AG & HE (Nick Pyle) and they support my intent to secure the best model to use.

Regards

Ian

[09/03/2020, 14:35:11] [redacted]: Thanks - best model to use, in my view, would be to outsource completely

[09/03/2020, 14:35:49] [redacted]: If I'm honest, the PCB would not have the necessary expertise

[09/03/2020, 14:36:15] [redacted]: Neither would anybody in the GPA, if we are honest

[09/03/2020, 14:36:25] Ian McGrail: I agree - I share your views. It would be most unfair on PCB.

[09/03/2020, 14:39:56] Ian McGrail: The GPA/PCB should though retain some control similar to that when they receive a complaint against Police. Technically there isn't a complaint as no family member has yet filed one but it could happen. Even if it didn't happen, the fact that deaths have occurred we should treat this as an external complaint and not as internal one generated by the RGP itself. This aside for the concurrent coroner's investigation that will also take place.

[09/03/2020, 14:40:55] [redacted]: There has been another death at sea and GPA was not involved - why is this different ?

[09/03/2020, 14:41:30] Ian McGrail: Because it wasn't arising from contact with the Police. It was Customs.

[09/03/2020, 14:41:42] [redacted] Ok - I see

[09/03/2020, 14:41:55] Ian McGrail: Customs have it easier.

[09/03/2020, 14:42:46] [redacted]: Ok - we would both be back tomorrow-

[09/03/2020, 14:43:42] Ian McGrail: I will work to get an independent team out. ASAP. & we can discuss tomorrow. Time is of essence, will explain in person..... Politics.

[09/03/2020, 14:44:01] [redacted]: We can have a discussion about this tomorrow - I'm sure we'll take your advice anyway

[09/03/2020, 14:44:30] [redacted]: I'll give you a call tomorrow as soon as I get back

[09/03/2020, 14:44:36] Ian McGrail: Many thanks

[09/03/2020, 14:45:04] [redacted]: As I said, whatever is best practice etc

[09/03/2020, 14:45:21] Ian McGrail:

[redacted]

[09/03/2020, 15:25:13] Ian McGrail: Ofcourse. No probs.

[09/03/2020, 15:42:27] [redacted]:

[10/03/2020, 11:33:49] [redacted]: Ian I've had to change travel plans and get the AVE instead of flying! I'll be in Gib later than expected - if you prefer, I can go to see you with Frank (hopefully) on Wednesday morning? Let me know if you are ok with this...

[10/03/2020, 12:29:04] Ian McGrail: Yes fine. I am going to forward you an email I have sent to UK NPOC who coordinate requests for assistance. Its just for your information.

[10/03/2020, 12:56:03] [redacted] Ok

[10/03/2020, 12:59:10] [redacted] When you can also let me know the time to meet tomorrow

[10/03/2020, 13:09:56] Ian McGrail: Can do anytime. Shall we fix for 9am?

[10/03/2020, 13:17:09] [redacted] See you then.

[10/03/2020, 13:28:05] [redacted] Got your email but for some reason I can't reply! Do you need me to do anything? Do you want me to see if Nick can help?

[10/03/2020, 13:28:42] Ian McGrail: Don't need anything from yourself, it was just for your info. Gonna speak with Nick now.

[10/03/2020, 13:28:55] [redacted] Ok

[10/03/2020, 13:29:23] [redacted] Count on me - you know that!

[10/03/2020, 13:32:21] Ian McGrail: I know. Many thanks.

[12/03/2020, 15:49:54] Ian McGrail: Joey - just sent you an email with an update press notice I want to send. The Met team coming over asked me to consider this. i have shared it with them too & I'm waiting for a reply.

[17/03/2020, 13:39:49] [redacted] Ian - how are things?

[17/03/2020, 13:40:50] [redacted]: In terms of coping with demands of Corona and investigation

[17/03/2020, 13:41:55] Ian McGrail: Ploughing on with all thats on our plate. We have 13 officers in self isolation. We are adjusting ourselves accordingly to be as resilient as possible.

[17/03/2020, 13:44:04] [redacted] Understood. Keep safe, Ian.

[17/03/2020, 13:44:26] [redacted] Any news on the other fronts?

[17/03/2020, 13:44:36] [redacted] Or do you prefer I call?

[17/03/2020, 13:45:41] Ian McGrail: Can I brief you later.

[17/03/2020, 13:46:33] [redacted] I know you are extremely busy - I'll arrange for a call tomorrow at some point -take care.

[17/03/2020, 13:47:10] Ian McGrail:

[17/03/2020, 13:47:37] [redacted]

[19/03/2020, 13:30:45] Ian McGrail: Michael - Held video conference with GC as they wouldn't meet face to face because of the pandemic.

They were obviously cagey with our UK colleagues but it served well to demonstrate that we were totally transparent. The UK team were happy with the meeting. What I was able to elicit from GC is that a judge is still to be assigned the matter & it is likely that it'll be a judge from La Linea. Again because of their lock down there are delays in their courts.

GC anticipate that when appointed, the judge will request information and accounts from us. What form this will take is not clear - the judge could potentially summons our officers to provide their statements in person or simply request their accounts via police to police channels. What mechanisms we should rely on to facilitate this, were we to oblige, is something we'll need to discuss. GC also expects the family of the deceased to file a complaint in their courts to seek compensation. This will no doubt complicate matters for us as the judge may be swayed to look at the matter from a different perspective in terms of where the collision took place.

GC are requesting from us for photos of the vessels, post mortem reports & statements from those involved in the collision. We have to carefully study this request and weigh the pros and cons of withholding the data or provide it at some point.

Speak soon.

[19/03/2020, 13:32:32] [redacted] Ok - thanks for this, Ian.

[19/03/2020, 13:32:47] [redacted] Let's see what happens

[19/03/2020, 13:33:00] Ian McGrail:

[19/03/2020, 13:33:11] [redacted] Indeed!

[20/03/2020, 10:28:23] [redacted] Good morning, Ian - just a thought, are you keeping Governor abreast of developments...? Also, maybe send an update to CM via the WhatsApp? Note that this is just my thinking and nobody has actually asked me but I think it would be prudent...?? See what you think

[20/03/2020, 10:54:25] [redacted]: Developments in respect of maritime accident, I meant...

[20/03/2020, 10:58:01] Ian McGrail: Yes The Convent is up to speed and AG too. Michael fed up to CM. By next week the UK Team will have more clarity on what route they will be suggesting this should take locally. That is a good point to provide a more formal update.

[20/03/2020, 10:58:41] [redacted] Ok understood! Thank you, Ian.

[20/03/2020, 10:59:42] [redacted] As long as both are kept updated, that was my concern...

[20/03/2020, 10:59:49] Ian McGrail: 👍

[20/03/2020, 10:59:55] [redacted] 👍

[24/03/2020, 14:59:43] Ian McGrail: Joey - How did it go with Paul Holewell?

[24/03/2020, 15:33:54] [redacted] Richard spoke to him and he said that we was going to change language etc - I emailed him and am going to send you copy now but he hasn't replied...

[24/03/2020, 15:35:14] [redacted] Email sent yesterday:

Good morning, Paul,

I have had sight of the initial draft passed on to me on Friday by the Commissioner - as it stands it does not make good reading and I was, quite naturally, disappointed.

I have also had sight of the the RGP's comments and observations which I also feel should be taken on board and afforded due consideration. I do understand you've already been in discussion with them and have agreed to either redact or modify the language used in places where there may have been a factual error or misunderstanding.

I can only say that I found the language used to be quite unfortunate and I'm quite sure the same message can be conveyed in a more constructive tone, especially when referring to issues such as 'corruption'.

I cannot find a reference to the GPA you refer to in page 9 (my copy) but I am assuming that you mean:

"We also found limited enthusiasm from the Gibraltar Police Authority to modernise. Governance (of the force) is noticeably less intrusive than we would expect in England and Wales. The Authority doesn't thoroughly scrutinise the force's financial, business and operational plans. Tighter governance arrangements could help it become more efficient and effective..."

In my copy this appears in page 10 and yes, it is innacurate and, frankly, I was quite disheartened when I saw it - good thing I had already read your email advising me that it had been redacted! Thank you for this.

In any case, Paul, thank you for allowing me to have sight of the first draft.

Please let me know if you require further clarification or anything else that I can assist with.

Regards and keep safe in these difficult times.

Joey

[24/03/2020, 15:40:03] [redacted]: Today I sent him this:

Paul

My previous email refers.

Forgive the omission - these are stressful times!

I should also have said, even though it goes without saying, that the GPA will work with the RGP to ensure that every effort is made to address the points and areas for development raised in the report, in any case.

Many thanks, once again, for allowing me to peruse the initial draft and I look forward to receiving the final version once this is ready.

Keep safe, Paul.

Kind regards

Joey

[24/03/2020, 15:56:02] [redacted] Let me know what you think...

[24/03/2020, 16:20:51] Ian McGrail: Yes - happy with that.

[24/03/2020, 16:22:23] [redacted] He wrote to me to apologise for the GPA comment but I felt I had to mention the whole tone and style of the report as non-constructive, [24/03/2020, 16:22:57] Ian McGrail: Indeed. I hope the final version will reflect our observations.

[24/03/2020, 16:23:19] [redacted] Venga - keep safe, Ian. Will be in touch.

[24/03/2020, 16:23:28] Ian McGrail: You too.

[09/04/2020, 11:30:46] [redacted] Ian - check your email - HMIC report just submitted by Matt Parr... I haven't read it yet but will do so shortly - let's discuss a after we've both read it...

[09/04/2020, 11:53:03] Ian McGrail: Thanks. With GBC at present. We are featuring tonight in ViewPoint and at 4pm the No6 daily brief.

[09/04/2020, 11:55:19] [redacted] Ok - please contact me once you've read it etc

[09/04/2020, 11:55:37] Ian McGrail: 👍

[09/04/2020, 11:56:07] [redacted] Should I also forward to Richard?

[09/04/2020, 12:01:18] Ian McGrail: Yes please

[09/04/2020, 12:57:49] [redacted] Ok - after you have read it, see if you can call me to we can discuss this - this catches all at a very bad time!

[09/04/2020, 13:47:03] [redacted] After the break, we'll arrange to meet and discuss before I share with third parties etc.

[09/04/2020, 14:31:07] Ian McGrail: Ok joey. No probs.

[14/04/2020, 09:15:05] [redacted] HMIC Report

Good morning, gents.

I hope you've had a reasonably restful Easter.

Would it be possible for us to meet to discuss the above-captioned?

Wednesday, Thursday or Friday - I can work around your availability so just identify a day and a time.

Thanks.

Regards

Joey

[14/04/2020, 09:17:24] [redacted]: Gents,

See you at NMH Thursday at 10.00hrs then thanks.

Regards

Joey

[14/04/2020, 09:24:01] Ian McGrail: 👌

[16/04/2020, 15:29:44] Ian McGrail: Just sent you an email with my draft statement for the press. Sent it to your Gibtelecom address.

Please do let me know your views on it.

[16/04/2020, 15:31:13] [redacted] Yes - thanks - sent the heads up WhatsApp to Cm but no reply yet...if not forthcoming I'll go ahead and submit report (I'll include you) to the three stakeholders as discussed 👍

[16/04/2020, 15:32:17] [redacted] Wil do

[16/04/2020, 15:33:00] Ian McGrail: 👌 👌 👌

[16/04/2020, 15:58:20] [redacted]: Replied via email.

A couple of tracked changes as suggestions for you but happy with it - I'll wait for a response to my message and if I don't get anything we'll go ahead as discussed - as I said, I'll include you in the correspondence

[16/04/2020, 15:59:11] [redacted]: you can then intervene as you feel etc

[16/04/2020, 15:59:50] Ian McGrail: Seen you tracked changes and I am ok with them. Will put this statement on our press notice template and re-send to you.

[16/04/2020, 16:00:04] [redacted]: 👍

[17/04/2020, 11:57:35] [redacted] Ian - no response yet but I'm meeting with Darren this afternoon. I'm thinking of arranging a short mtg with MfJ if I can't access CM - would you wish to attend with me if I can arrange for next week?

[17/04/2020, 11:58:02] Ian McGrail: Yes please

[17/04/2020, 11:58:28] [redacted] Ok - I'll let you know one way or the other this afternoon 👍

[17/04/2020, 11:58:49] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[17/04/2020, 17:53:15] [redacted]: Ok - Ian - Darren is going to try and access him on Monday if no joy then I'll call you to discuss next steps. In any case, I'm going to have to share with GPA on Monday just to ensure we are all on same page etc

[17/04/2020, 18:19:25] Ian McGrail:

[17/04/2020, 18:22:25] [redacted] Ya

[17/04/2020, 18:22:29] [redacted] Ta

[20/04/2020, 10:50:26] [redacted] Ian - FYI: I haven't shared the report with anyone yet but will do so with GPA colleagues at end of play today. I am awaiting a response from government and will wait until end of play today as well at which time I will share report with CM, MfJ and HE first thing tomorrow along with my recommendations, unless I am advised otherwise. It goes without saying that I'll keep you posted...

[20/04/2020, 10:53:34] Ian McGrail: The sooner we go public with it the better. We are on the wave if good public support and in my view its the best time to do it.

[20/04/2020, 10:55:08] [redacted] That'll be my recommendation..

[20/04/2020, 10:56:15] [redacted] I'll copy you in when I share it with them

[20/04/2020, 11:03:14] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[20/04/2020, 15:33:43] [redacted] Ian have decided to email them separately - grateful for comments iro suggested wording to my email- sorry for lengthy message:

Dear

Please find, attached, the HMIC Report which looked at the RGP's internal governance processes. As you will see, the report identifies quite a few areas for development and, in places, makes for uncomfortable reading.

Of note, is that more work is required to ensure there can be no accusations of bullying from the workforce; more work is required on ensuring that the force is better protected from possible allegations of corruption and there needs to be better supervision of criminal investigations. There are other issues which are to be highlighted, such as working towards a corporate definition of 'vulnerability' as well as further developing safeguarding and vetting mechanisms within the organisation.

I have shared it with Senior Command and have discussed the principal issues alluded to in the report. To be fair, RGP have taken it on the chin and are already working towards these recommendations. The GPA shall, of course, monitor this process.

From a GPA perspective, this report provides both the GPA and RGP with a developmental road-map and I have thanked HMIC for their assistance and input.

I should point out that the commissioner has no problems with making the report public via the media. Having said this, given the extraordinary circumstances we are currently experiencing, I am happy to take advice. In view of the unprecedented levels of community support the RGP is currently enjoying, I would not wish to possibly undermine the very evident levels of public confidence (this is my own personal view). The commissioner, however, is confident that he will be able to expound further on the report and answer any press questions with minimal negative coverage and, to this end, he has already prepared a draft PR on the matter. I am sure that he will want to discuss any potential PR issue with yourselves and the GPA whenever anything is issued.

I should be grateful for your views.

Kindest regards,

Joey

[20/04/2020, 15:57:26] Ian McGrail: happy with it Joey

[20/04/2020, 16:18:06] [redacted]: 👍

[20/04/2020, 16:18:58] [redacted]: I'll send out late tonight - you CM and MfJ and separately, HE

[20/04/2020, 16:19:30] [redacted]: Just to give Cm time to recover from today's efforts

[22/04/2020, 10:31:44] [redacted]: Ian - FYI have requested a meeting with MfJ for both of us - I am waiting for a response - all I've said it is to discuss the 'report'

[22/04/2020, 10:32:22] [redacted]: At least this way, you can make your preferences clear, if you see what I mean

[22/04/2020, 10:32:24] Ian McGrail: Good. Thanks

[22/04/2020, 10:32:33] [redacted]: *our

[22/04/2020, 10:33:12] [redacted]: I'll keep you posted -

[22/04/2020, 10:34:12] Ian McGrail: Please do.

[22/04/2020, 18:14:38] [redacted] Ian - FYI - will be sending you and Richard an email asking for your plan of action in response to the report and recommendations - working groups to be set up, how many have already been met etc. This is for the benefit of GPA colleagues - I am sending them the report. I shall also send them the contents of the PR as well. But we are going to need evidence of how you propose to tackle the addressing of recommendations etc. The more we have prepared, the better. Anyway, I'll email you but just so you know that it'll be for colleagues at GPA - I'll send to tomorrow [22/04/2020, 18:15:14] [redacted]: Thank you, by the way!

[22/04/2020, 18:33:08] [redacted]: I'm asking because I've said that you are already working on recommendations etc so I'd need your plans etc

[22/04/2020, 19:05:32] Ian McGrail: All noted. Thanks

[22/04/2020, 20:39:24] [redacted] 👍

[23/04/2020, 16:04:06] [redacted] FYI - have just sent a reminder that we gave to meet to MfJ via her secretary

[23/04/2020, 16:12:10] Ian McGrail: Thanks. She is awful to respond, I have to keep chasing on other matters too.

[23/04/2020, 16:12:45] [redacted] I've discretely told Darren as well so he can push

[23/04/2020, 16:13:10] [redacted] He will see her before I do etc

[23/04/2020, 16:13:39] [redacted] and if not, then we'll see if Cm can see you and I...

[23/04/2020, 16:13:44] Ian McGrail: I will next see on Tues

[23/04/2020, 16:14:45] Ian McGrail: When I last spoke to her on the day you emailed the report she hadn't read your email yet.

[23/04/2020, 16:15:22] [redacted] Let's see - she knows that we both need to see her together but if you get the opportunity I have no problem for you to get to her first at all, Ian

[23/04/2020, 16:16:22] Ian McGrail: Ok. I will try my best to get her to meef both of us.

[23/04/2020, 16:17:06] [redacted] The same goes for you seeing CM without me so you don't waste an opportunity - if you find they can meet with you - I mean it - you shouldn't wait for me

[23/04/2020, 16:17:30] Ian McGrail: 💍

[23/04/2020, 16:17:30] [redacted] We are both going to say the same thing

[23/04/2020, 16:17:39] [redacted] 👍

[23/04/2020, 16:18:03] [redacted] Take care

[23/04/2020, 16:18:17] Ian McGrail: You too

[27/04/2020, 10:03:51] [redacted] Ian - meeting with MfJ at 11.00 on Wednesday 29th at No6... you should have an invite...

[27/04/2020, 10:22:57] Ian McGrail: Yes I have just seen it.

[27/04/2020, 10:23:29] [redacted] See you there - it's probably in the bunker

[27/04/2020, 10:23:39] Ian McGrail: Yep probably is.

[27/04/2020, 10:23:53] [redacted] You ok with this mtg?

[27/04/2020, 10:24:02] Ian McGrail: Yes no probs

[27/04/2020, 10:24:16] [redacted] Ok then - see you then 👍

[27/04/2020, 10:24:24] Ian McGrail: 👌

[29/04/2020, 08:59:04] [redacted] Ian -meeting rescheduled for tomorrow - no time set yet.

[29/04/2020, 08:59:19] Ian McGrail: Ok

[29/04/2020, 08:59:45] [redacted] Were you informed?

[29/04/2020, 09:02:09] Ian McGrail: Yes, and was told the minister's PA would advise you too.

[29/04/2020, 09:02:58] [redacted] She just called - I didn't know if you had been told

[29/04/2020, 09:03:14] Ian McGrail: 👌

[29/04/2020, 09:03:28] [redacted] See you tomorrow hopefully 👍

[29/04/2020, 09:03:41] Ian McGrail: Yes. 👍

[29/04/2020, 13:36:15] [redacted] Ian - mtg tomorrow at 14.00 Venue is MfJ Office in Governor's Parade...

[29/04/2020, 13:36:54] Ian McGrail: Just received the meeting request. See you there.

[29/04/2020, 13:37:01] [redacted] 👍

[29/04/2020, 16:14:19] Ian McGrail: Joey can I call you for a quicj word?

[30/04/2020, 14:01:56] [redacted] Ian - are you coming?

[30/04/2020, 14:02:23] Ian McGrail: I am here

[03/05/2020, 16:27:07] [redacted] Ian - excellent today, de verdad!

[03/05/2020, 16:27:26] [redacted] Both of you!!

[03/05/2020, 17:03:32] Ian McGrail: Ta

[03/05/2020, 17:03:50] [redacted] 👍

[04/05/2020, 16:39:18] [redacted] Ian - can you take a quick call...?

[04/05/2020, 17:57:14] [redacted]: Ian - try to copy in MfJ as well as CM and HE seeing as we met with her etc...

[04/05/2020, 18:01:08] Ian McGrail: 👍 👍 👍

[04/05/2020, 18:01:27] [redacted] 👍

[05/05/2020, 08:24:52] Ian McGrail: Morning Joey - I have checked the media release & can confirm that I make no reference to the explanations of why they was little progress in the areas for improvement of the last inspection. I reckon the GPA members may have confused the seperate sheet you requested from me with these details thinking this was also to be shared with the media when as you kno that is not the intention.

Sending off the email to HE, CM & MoJ in a bit.

[05/05/2020, 08:25:51] [redacted] Ok thanks

[05/05/2020, 08:28:51] [redacted] I don't know if they possibly meant at interview then maybe, not sure... doesn't matter

[05/05/2020, 08:29:17] Ian McGrail: 👍

[05/05/2020, 09:44:01] [redacted] Ok got it - I've got to send HMIC a copy of what you intend to go out with but can't until a decision is taken so let me know etc

[05/05/2020, 09:51:39] [redacted] Unless you prefer to advise HMIC directly? Let me know what you prefer...

[05/05/2020, 10:16:23] [redacted] Let me know when I can call you - just got an email from Federation

[05/05/2020, 15:09:03] [redacted] This message was deleted.

[05/05/2020, 15:13:33] [redacted] Ian - before we go ahead with this, would you add to your PR that the report will be made available by GPA at:

www. gpa.gi

It can also be accessed at the HMIC&FRS website.

Let me know if ok with you.

[05/05/2020, 15:15:31] Ian McGrail: Absolutely no issues. I have chased MoJ for her to agree to the report going public.

[05/05/2020, 15:16:10] [redacted] Keep me posted 👍

[05/05/2020, 15:17:14] [redacted] Already in touch with HMIC - no issues from their side but I'll tell them once we go ahead so they can post on website

[05/05/2020, 15:17:32] Ian McGrail: Any reaction from them?

[05/05/2020, 15:18:30] [redacted] Paul replies simply thank me for this and asking me to advise them as soon as we go live

[05/05/2020, 15:18:48] [redacted] Ian when are you issuing force orders?

[05/05/2020, 15:19:01] Ian McGrail: Ok. Un poco frio no?

[05/05/2020, 15:19:10] Ian McGrail: Today

[05/05/2020, 15:19:16] [redacted] Ok

[05/05/2020, 15:19:26] [redacted] So tonight I'll reply to fed?

[05/05/2020, 15:19:52] [redacted] Saying that an announcement will be made shortly?

[05/05/2020, 15:20:08] Ian McGrail: Yes you can because they would have already read the force order entry

[05/05/2020, 15:20:19] [redacted] Ta

[05/05/2020, 15:21:41] [redacted] Sent you Paul's email - no tan frío

[05/05/2020, 15:22:35] [redacted] It's strange noted eh an frío, no?

[05/05/2020, 15:22:51] [redacted] *No tan

[05/05/2020, 15:23:37] Ian McGrail: No se que decirte

[05/05/2020, 17:32:48] [redacted] Ian - let me know when Force Orders are out

[05/05/2020, 17:44:55] Ian McGrail: They are out already

[05/05/2020, 17:51:34] [redacted] Ta - in any case, I'll reply to them later tonight- thanks

[06/05/2020, 08:10:14] Ian McGrail: Morning - Samantha hasn't reacted to my nudge yesterday though she has read my message.

I am on the live conference again this sunday and it would be ideal that I could bat off some questions from the press on the report if they decided to ask (which is most likely).

One other thing. We should aim at pushing the report with my statement simultaneously to avoid a barrage of questions coming both our ways.

[06/05/2020, 09:16:36] [redacted] Just an idea - why don't you message the chief.. as well saying that the Fed already knows Ed gave the Report and they will alert press etc..?

[06/05/2020, 09:16:52] [redacted]: *we have

[06/05/2020, 09:24:12] [redacted]: By the way, I like your idea of the press conference on Sunday... good opportunity!

[06/05/2020, 11:44:08] Ian McGrail: Can I call you Joey?

[06/05/2020, 11:50:58] [redacted]: I'll call you back - in the middle of something at the moment

[06/05/2020, 11:51:14] Ian McGrail: Ok.

[06/05/2020, 14:15:06] Ian McGrail: Spoke to Nick who said he would reply to the email agreeing we should go public.

[06/05/2020, 14:16:14] [redacted] Noted - let's see if that does the trick... no joy on my side.

[06/05/2020, 14:18:02] Ian McGrail: I hope its not that something is bothering the CM about going public...& that its more to do that he is busy with other matters to give this attention.

[06/05/2020, 14:18:38] [redacted] I think it's the second of Darren would have told me

[06/05/2020, 14:19:00] Ian McGrail: Can't Darren also nudge?

[06/05/2020, 14:19:19] [redacted]: Indeed - I'll contact him as well

[06/05/2020, 14:19:24] Ian McGrail: Ta

[06/05/2020, 16:19:01] [redacted] Email sent

[06/05/2020, 16:19:31] Ian McGrail: Will check in a sec

[06/05/2020, 16:19:32] [redacted]: Let's wait for a reply... I'm also waiting for a reply via Darren

[06/05/2020, 16:20:06] Ian McGrail: 👍

[06/05/2020, 16:20:25] [redacted]: Note RGP website - it occurred to me as I was writing - I should have discussed with you...sorry

[06/05/2020, 16:20:44] [redacted]: As an interim thing whilst I sort out gpa

[06/05/2020, 16:22:28] Ian McGrail: Yes ofcourse we could do that. Not sure we have ever published this type of report before but to be honest I have no issue.

[06/05/2020, 16:23:26] [redacted]: We can discuss - thanks I'm worried that gpa website will take too long por eso...

[06/05/2020, 16:26:33] Ian McGrail: I am going to ask how quick we can upload it on our site.

[06/05/2020, 16:30:54] Ian McGrail: Ok, we can upload instantly, so we can make use of that.

[06/05/2020, 16:57:22] [redacted]: Great - e-mailedrest of gpa with draft statement - I've added that you've already started to work on it

[06/05/2020, 16:57:55] [redacted]: Don't forget press list for Elka, please

[06/05/2020, 16:58:28] Ian McGrail: It should have been sent to secretary@gpa.gi

[06/05/2020, 16:58:40] [redacted]: Ok I'll get her to check

[06/05/2020, 17:01:48] [redacted]: Yes she has it

[06/05/2020, 17:02:01] Ian McGrail: 👍

[06/05/2020, 17:28:25] [redacted]: Ian when we go public it is important to that you do so first and then me - if I go first it is going to seem that I am forcing your hand

[06/05/2020, 17:29:11] [redacted]: Or at the same time

[06/05/2020, 17:29:32] Ian McGrail: I would suggest simoutaneously

[06/05/2020, 17:29:39] [redacted]: Yes

[06/05/2020, 17:29:56] [redacted]: That would work

[06/05/2020, 18:16:50] Ian McGrail: Anything from Darren?

[06/05/2020, 18:19:11] [redacted]: Yes

[06/05/2020, 18:27:49] [redacted]: Let's go for 10.30 to give me time to alert HMIC

[06/05/2020, 18:28:09] [redacted]: I'm emailing them now but they won't see it until tomorrow

[06/05/2020, 18:28:22] Ian McGrail: Ok no worries.

[06/05/2020, 18:51:01] [redacted]: Nick ok as well

[06/05/2020, 18:51:36] [redacted]: Advised HMIC as well

[06/05/2020, 18:51:54] Ian McGrail: 👍 So we are good to go tomorrow at 1030. We'll touch base in the morning.

[06/05/2020, 18:52:43] [redacted]: Yes 👍 hopefully, GBC or Chronicle will give you an opportunity for a proper interview

[06/05/2020, 18:53:28] Ian McGrail: I hope so.

[06/05/2020, 18:53:38] [redacted]: 👍

[06/05/2020, 20:54:16] [redacted]: I got direct confirmation that it's ok for tomorrow at 10.30

[06/05/2020, 20:54:47] Ian McGrail: 👌

[07/05/2020, 08:46:15] [redacted]: Good morning, Ian. Could you make sure that both Convent and Gov Press Office are included as well? I'll also do so from my end.

[07/05/2020, 10:10:22] [redacted]: Can you take a call?

[07/05/2020, 10:13:45] [redacted]: Elka - [redacted]

[07/05/2020, 13:51:12] Ian McGrail: No reactions (yet). Its only been put out by YGTV on social media with very little interaction if any at all from the public.

[07/05/2020, 14:02:49] [redacted]: Yes, I noticed..... will let you know if I see or hear anything...

[07/05/2020, 15:31:05] Ian McGrail: Brian Reyes has been on the phone to me. He is preparing an article & is going to send me some questions based on the corruption part of the report, the supervison of investigations and some other areas.

[07/05/2020, 15:36:09] [redacted] That is really good - it'll take a positive note and will take the wind out of the sails of others ...

[07/05/2020, 15:36:29] [redacted]: This message was deleted.

[07/05/2020, 15:37:14] [redacted]: Error

[07/05/2020, 15:37:35] [redacted]: I meant the more extensive the exposure now, the better...

[07/05/2020, 15:38:24] Ian McGrail: It won't be a good report though but I hope to balance it out when i respond to his questions.

[07/05/2020, 15:39:03] [redacted]: Well if not it'll be objective, at least

[07/05/2020, 15:39:15] Ian McGrail: Ya

[07/05/2020, 15:40:10] [redacted]: Try your best... good luck

[07/05/2020, 15:40:42] Ian McGrail: 👍

[07/05/2020, 15:41:38] [redacted]: 👍

[07/05/2020, 20:01:17] Ian McGrail: Hi Ian. Good to talk just now. As discussed, I'll set out below a few questions I hope you can give me some input on for the article I'll write on this. Obviously, feel free to expand on any areas you feel are important and which I may have missed. Once I have your response and I block out the piece, I'll get back to you if there are any areas I feel need additional input. I took note during our conversation of your observation that this process starts with a self-assessment and that the RGP itself identified many of the areas picked up on by HMIC. And lastly, thanks, as always, for your time and feedback. Brian [07/05/2020, 20:01:17] Ian McGrail: The HMIC report highlights a number of positive aspects of how the RGP goes about its work and broadly concludes that the RGP was "professional, committed and enthusiastic" about its work. But the report also includes a lengthy list of core areas where HMIC believes the RGP needs to improve. Many of these recommendations focus on management structures, oversight of investigations, care of victims and the need for a deeper understanding of risks and future demands on resources. In broad terms, what is your response to these recommendations? Which of the report's many recommendations are the biggest source of concern for you and your senior management team?

Perhaps one of the most concerning observations in the report is the claim that the RGP does not fully understand its exposure to the risk of corruption and that its professional standards unit lacks both resources and expertise to deal with this. Do you accept this observation and if not, why not? What will you do to address the issues raised by HMIC in this context?

The inspectors said they found no evidence of bullying (albeit this was not part of their remit), but nonetheless noted a perception among a large part of the workforce of a "firm leadership style", to the point that some officers believed senior officers sometimes behaved in an unacceptable manner when dealing with staff, and that there was a degree of "blame culture" in the force. Is this a reality you recognise and accept? How will you tackle this perception, given its corrosive impact irrespective of whether or not it is rooted in fact?

The report points to weaknesses in the RGP's systems, including its IT framework and how it interfaces with other agencies. It also points to areas of policing that might properly be handled by other agencies with their own resources (e.g. policing border queues and elements of the maritime sphere). What additional support from GoG might the RGP need to address these recommendations?

The HMIC inspectors appeared disappointed with the progress in implementing earlier recommendations made in 2016, noting too a reluctance in the force to embrace change. To what extent has this been an issue and how will you tackle it going forward?

[07/05/2020, 20:01:33] Ian McGrail: These are brian reyes' questions

[07/05/2020, 20:02:11] Ian McGrail: I am working on my response which i will share with you before sending.

[07/05/2020, 20:51:16] [redacted]: Of course - thanks

[07/05/2020, 21:17:32] [redacted] Try to avoid being too critical of Gov - remember that HMIC actually see top up funding as a bad thing

[07/05/2020, 21:18:17] Ian McGrail: Oh no, not critical at all. You'll have my response in 2mins

[07/05/2020, 21:18:53] [redacted]: 👍

[07/05/2020, 22:00:31] Ian McGrail: Sorry for the bother Joey. Have you had a chance to read my response? i want to send it tonight.

[07/05/2020, 22:01:14] [redacted]: Yes - just replied to email.

[07/05/2020, 22:01:38] [redacted] Thanks!

[07/05/2020, 22:02:00] Ian McGrail: Ta many thanks. I have tweaked minor bits having received feedback from Rich.

Good night.

[07/05/2020, 22:02:17] [redacted]: Good night!

[08/05/2020, 15:14:18] [redacted]: Ian chronicle Headline (web version: 'Hard-hitting external audit of RGP identifies serious deficiencies, makes wide-ranging recommendations' - a bit sensationalist...

[08/05/2020, 15:16:13] Ian McGrail: It is indeed.

[08/05/2020, 15:16:32] Ian McGrail: Have you read the whole article?

[08/05/2020, 15:21:04] [redacted]: I can't access it via the app

[08/05/2020, 15:21:10] [redacted] Benn trying to [08/05/2020, 15:21:33] [redacted] Are you ok?

[08/05/2020, 15:22:51] Ian McGrail: Yes fine. Will send you screen shots.

[08/05/2020, 15:25:11] [redacted]: Got them

[08/05/2020, 15:32:34] [redacted]: Ok - read

[08/05/2020, 15:32:50] [redacted]: I suppose it could have been worse!

[08/05/2020, 15:34:42] [redacted]: We just have to carry on and ensure that as many of the recs are addressed as possible in the time frame

[08/05/2020, 15:35:10] Ian McGrail: It was worse. He has picked up some bits of what I sent him in my responses to his questions which has balanced it out a tiny bit. You have read in between the lines to get the balancing.

[08/05/2020, 15:36:36] Ian McGrail: He told me off the record that he smelt of rat about the tone of the report - inferring there was some underlying motive for such negative reporting. I have my theories which I will share with you in due course.

[08/05/2020, 15:36:52] Ian McGrail: We are on it.

[08/05/2020, 15:36:58] [redacted]: And where these can't be met, we have to ensure we have recorded the reasons

[08/05/2020, 15:37:18] Ian McGrail: 👍

[08/05/2020, 15:37:33] [redacted]: I suspect we will be on the same page on this one!

[08/05/2020, 15:37:59] [redacted]: Try and have a good long weekend, Ian

[08/05/2020, 15:38:07] Ian McGrail: 👍

[10/05/2020, 16:43:08] [redacted]: Very good answer from you and brilliantly followed up by MfJ 👍

[10/05/2020, 18:18:44] [redacted]: Ian - by the way, she told me privately what she said in public about supporting

[10/05/2020, 18:23:22] Ian McGrail: It was very kind of her indeed and I thanked her after the briefing. She is on side pero como te dije dame a Neil any time. She takes forever to address our issues which require GoG approval. Incidentally, Neil sent a great message of support yesterday which I really appreciated. So did Ed Davis and other prominent people in Gib. We'll ride the wave and come better out of it - of that i am sure.

[10/05/2020, 18:32:01] [redacted]: I'm glad - I told Neil and he asked as to how you were! Also, good that Ed also contacted you 👍

[10/05/2020, 18:32:30] [redacted]: And if you need me to do anything, let me know, Ian

[10/05/2020, 18:34:43] [redacted]: Has the CM said anything?

[10/05/2020, 18:34:54] Ian McGrail: Just waiting for GBC to react, that is if they do. I have a plan to promote our response to the recommendations as they get accomplished. Will discuss with you whenee next meet.

[10/05/2020, 18:34:59] Ian McGrail: Nope

[10/05/2020, 18:35:30] [redacted]: Brilliant, idea, Ian!

[10/05/2020, 18:36:16] [redacted]: I'll contact you to arrange a meeting towards the end of the week.

[10/05/2020, 18:36:24] Ian McGrail: 👍

[10/05/2020, 18:36:28] [redacted]: 👍

[10/05/2020, 18:38:21] [redacted]: I've got to share a couple of ideas relating to what I think may be behind the tone and style of the report

[10/05/2020, 18:38:41] Ian McGrail: The GPF saying they are perusing the report and may come out with a statement. Veremo ve oor donde salen esta gente !!! Una caja bomba !!!

[10/05/2020, 18:39:11] Ian McGrail: They are probably synced with mine.

[10/05/2020, 18:39:23] [redacted]: Well, the report is also about them!!

[10/05/2020, 18:39:47] [redacted]: We'll chat next week

[10/05/2020, 18:39:55] Ian McGrail: 👍

[11/05/2020, 13:28:27] Ian McGrail: Joey - for your info, GBC coming down to interview this afternoon.

[11/05/2020, 13:30:11] [redacted]: I hope it goes well - thanks for letting me know!

[11/05/2020, 17:18:44] [redacted]: Ian - how did it go??

[11/05/2020, 17:26:05] Ian McGrail: It was ok. It was a 30min interview which he says he will use 3mins for newswatch tonight and the rest maybe for a viewpoint on Thurs.

[11/05/2020, 17:26:31] [redacted] Ok - thanks

[11/05/2020, 17:26:40] [redacted] Will watch tonight

[11/05/2020, 17:27:07] Ian McGrail: 👍

[12/05/2020, 10:08:56] [redacted]: Trying to arrange meeting with you for Friday morning - via Leeanne

[12/05/2020, 10:10:20] [redacted]: Just emailed her

[12/05/2020, 10:10:36] [redacted]: I'll wait for her to revert

[12/05/2020, 10:10:39] [redacted]: 👍

[12/05/2020, 10:10:57] Ian McGrail: Ok. No probs.

[redacted]

[12/05/2020, 14:20:10] Ian McGrail: Joey - sorry for the bother. But I urgently need to speak to you face to face.

[13/05/2020, 19:19:55] Ian McGrail: Joey - met with Ag & others to discuss the matter. I can provide you with a quick update over the phone if you want or would you rather I leave it for Friday when we meet.

[15/05/2020, 10:34:45] [redacted]: Is. I'm downstairs

[15/05/2020, 10:35:00] Ian McGrail: Coming for you

[15/05/2020, 10:35:04] [redacted]: 👍

[21/05/2020, 11:46:40] Ian McGrail: Joey - would it be possible to meet you tomorrow morning?

[21/05/2020, 11:56:26] [redacted]: I planned to - what time?

[21/05/2020, 11:57:17] Ian McGrail: I have a meeting with AG & DPP at 10. Could we do 8.30 or 9am?

[21/05/2020, 11:57:40] [redacted]: 9.00 is fine

[21/05/2020, 11:57:48] Ian McGrail: Ok thanks.

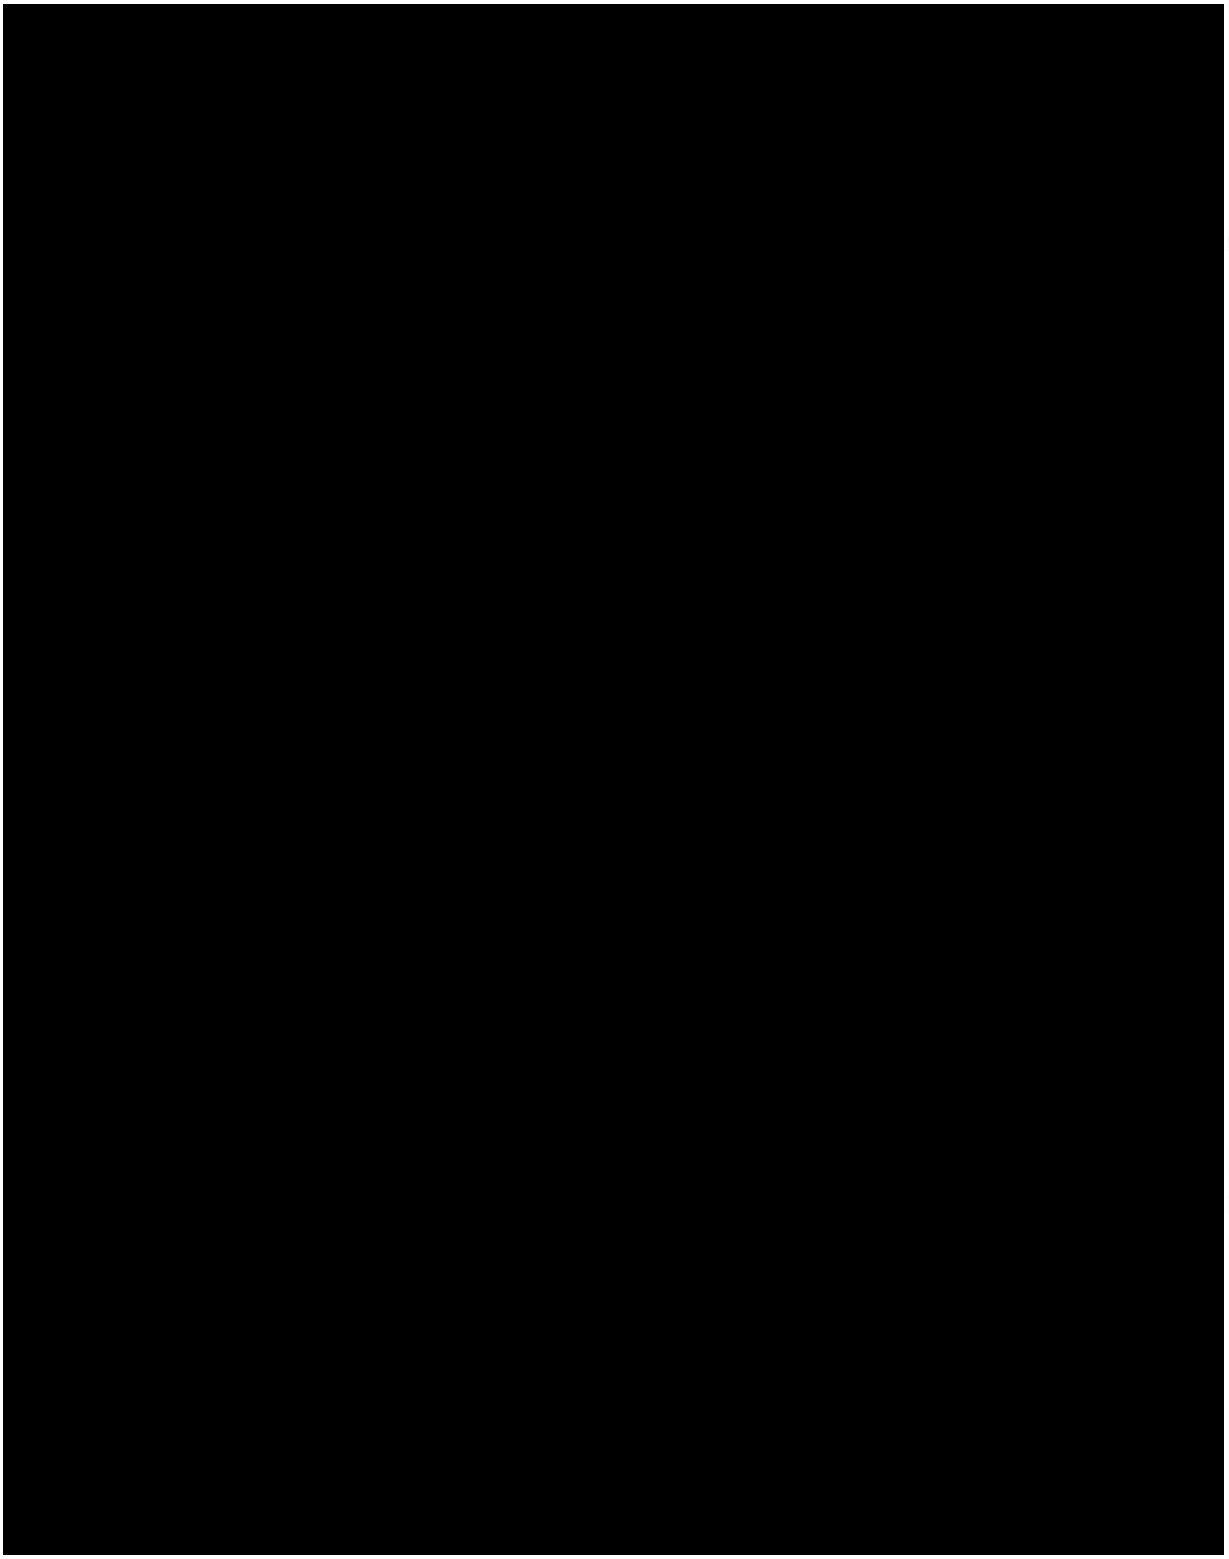
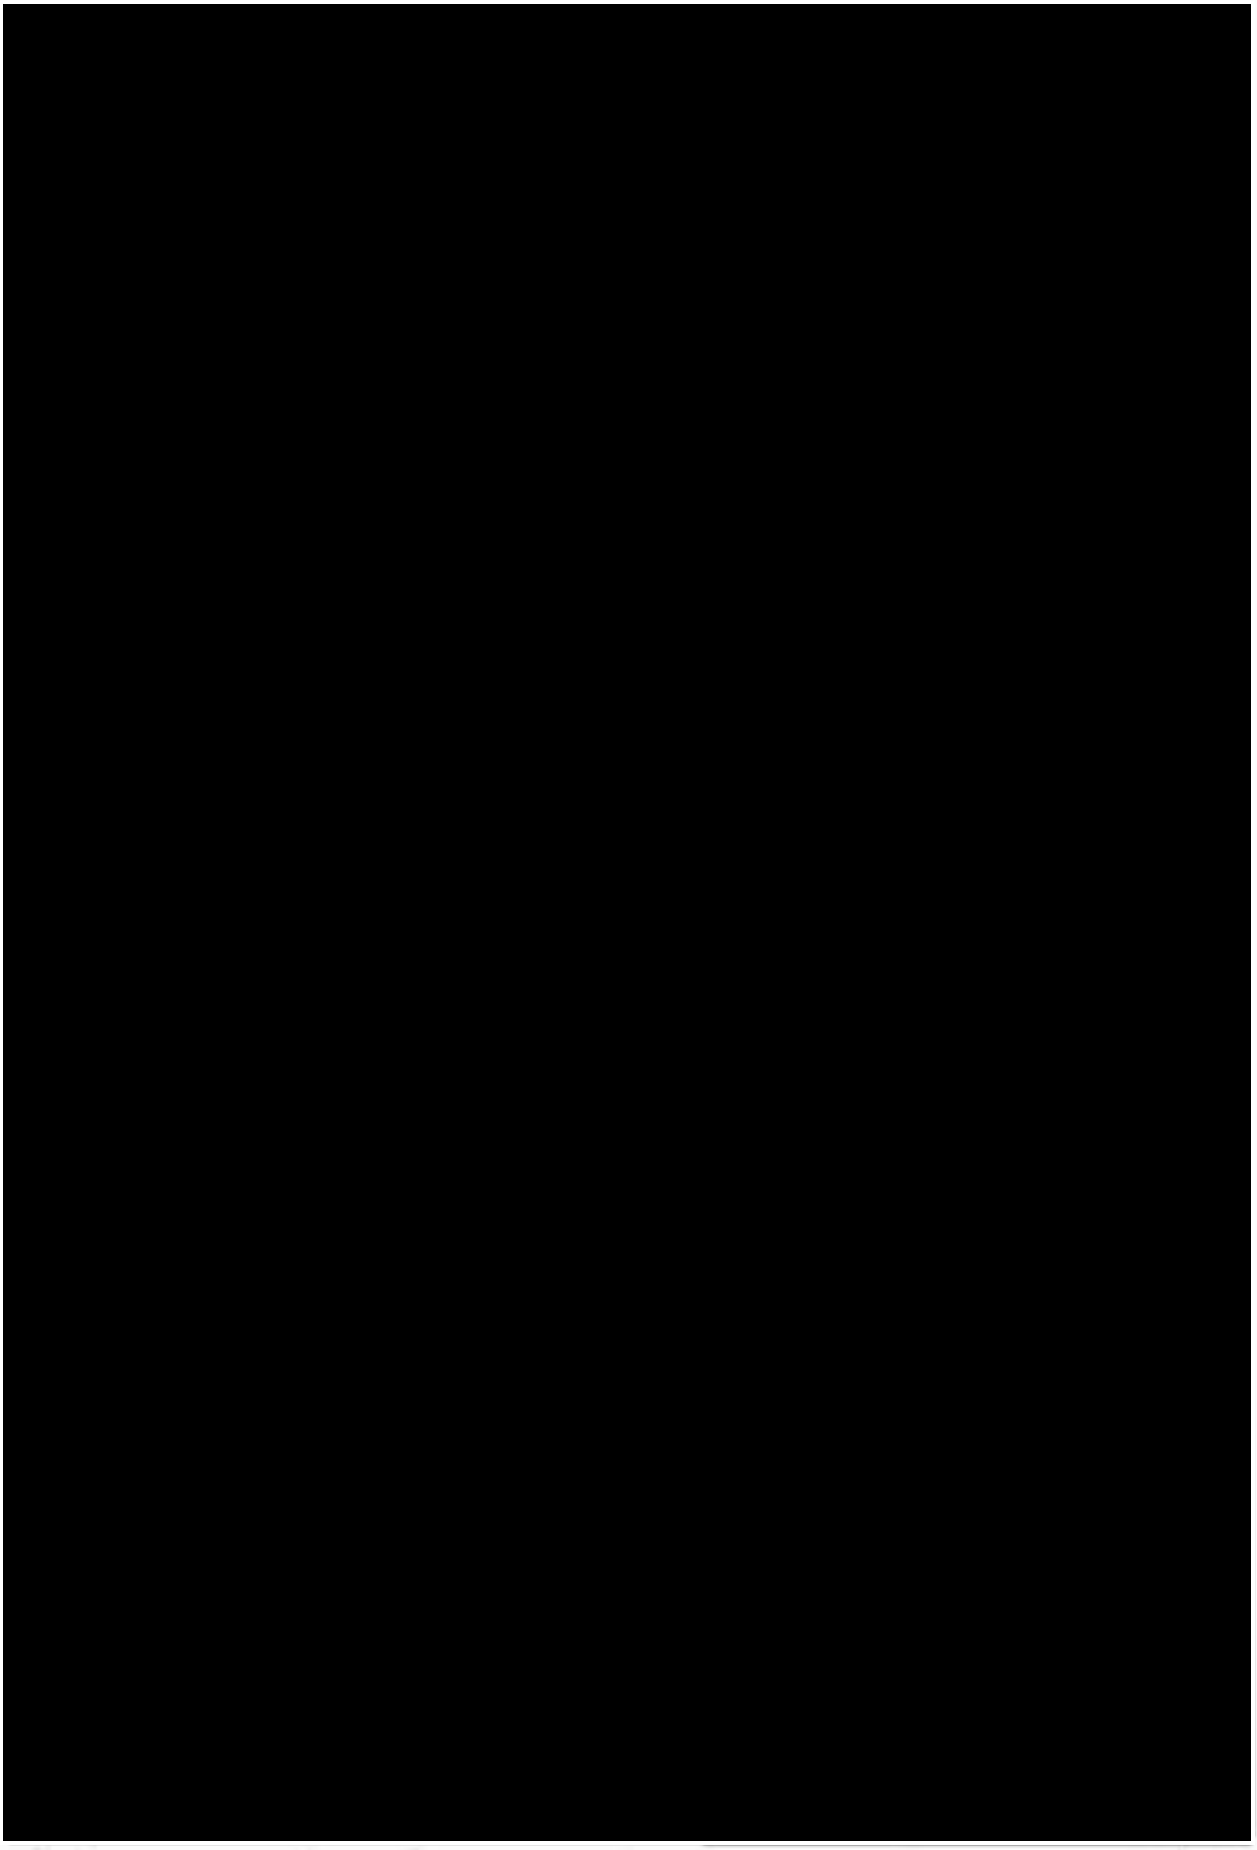
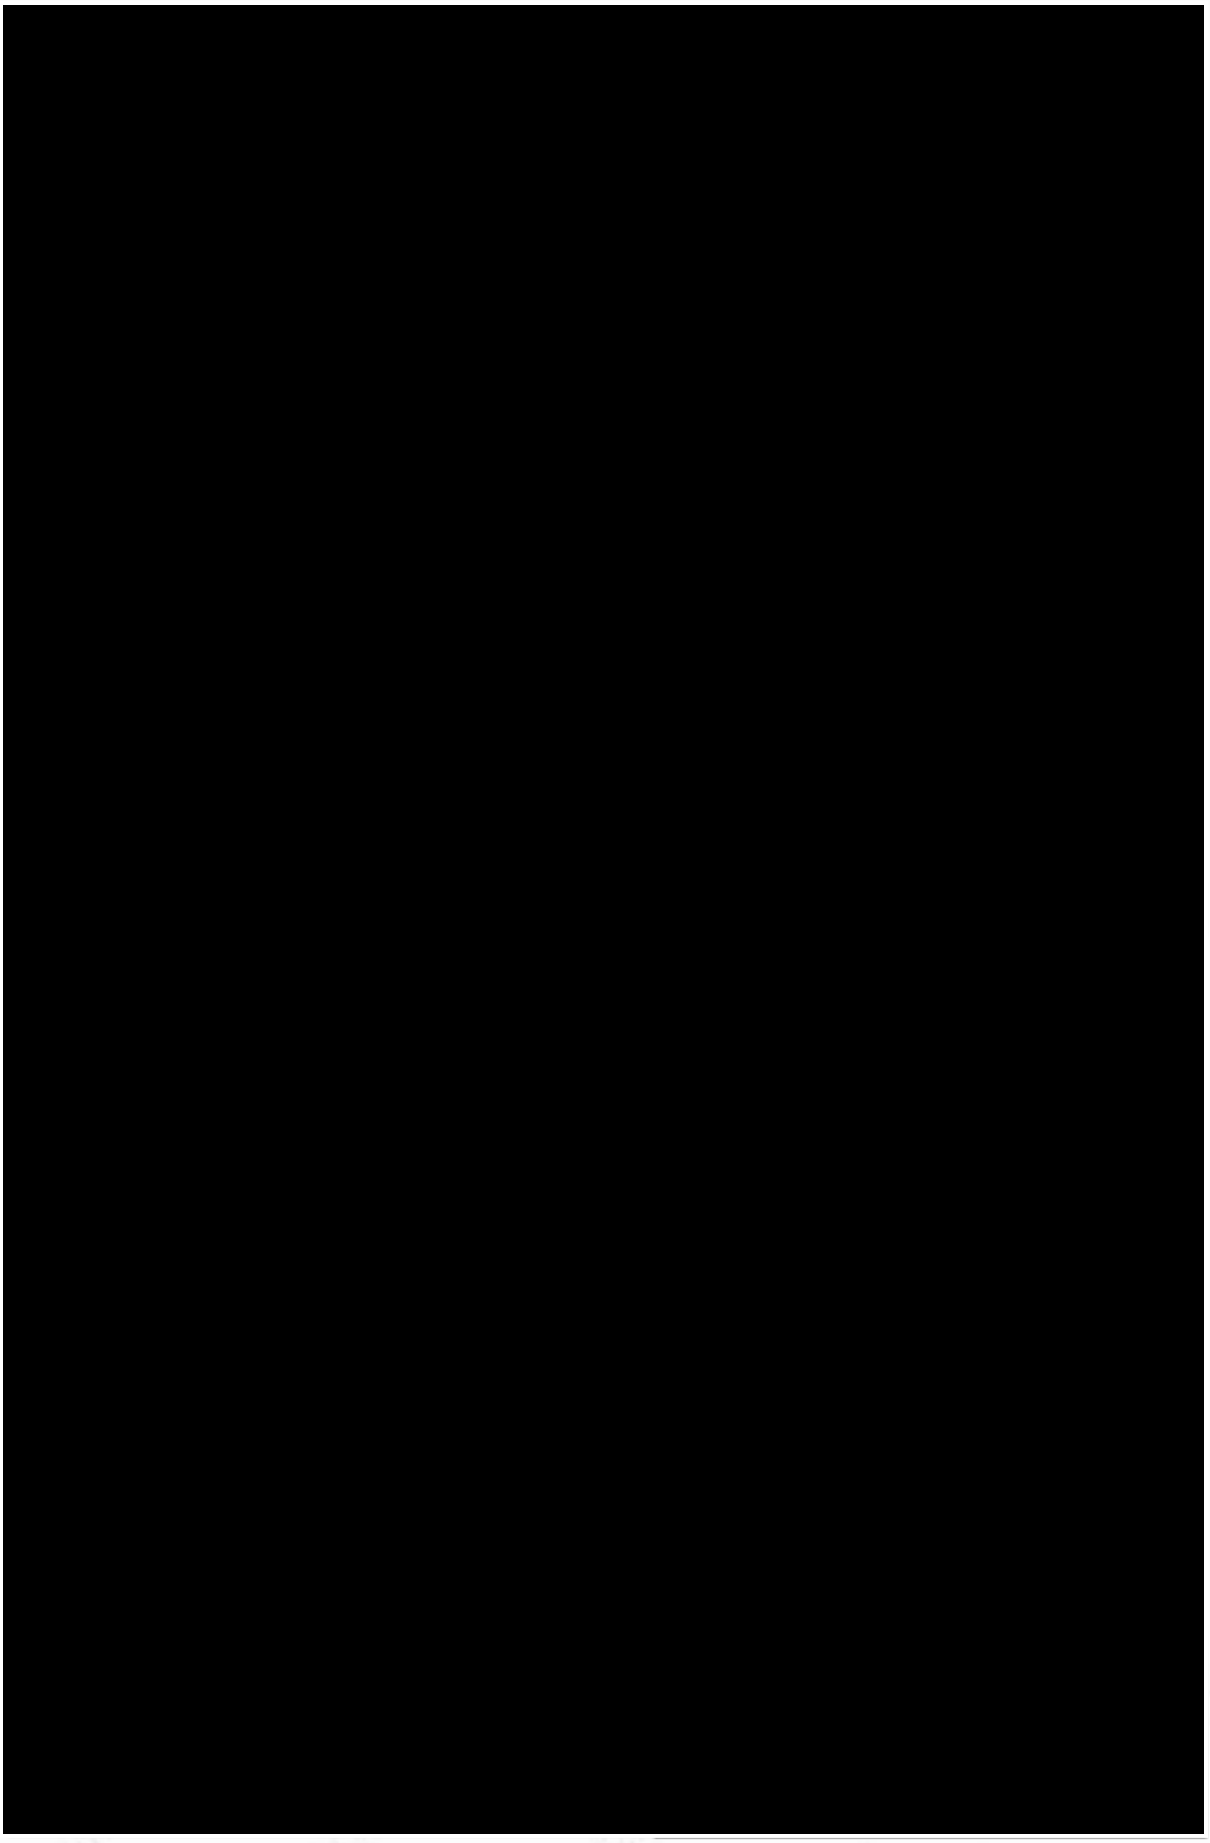
Ian McGrail & Samantha Sacramento (MoJ)







[redacted]

[28/01/2020, 20:55:50] Ian McGrail: Samantha - many thanks for a very productive meeting today. Apologies for such a lengthy agenda but I am happy we trawled through each of items. Out next meeting shouldn't have such a ling list of items. On the Federation matter I am forwarding you whatsapp message I have sent to the CM a few moments ago so that you are kept informed. Really concerned if what is being bragged about by Sgt Maurice Morello is true. I am awaiting a response from the CM.....

[28/01/2020, 20:56:03] Ian McGrail: CM - I hope all is going well in London. I really feel tight bringing this matter up at this time when you are so tied up with Brexit matters but this issue is picking up considerable adverse traction - I am sure you aware of the latest diatribe viz the Gib Police Federation as exposed on Panorama & social media. I have today briefed Min Sacramento on my concerns, but post to this meeting I have been advised that you are favourably considering legislation to exclude the GPF conveners, who are warranted officers, from from Force discipline regulations. This has been said by the GPF Chair himself in quite an arrogant, defiant and confident tone earlier today. Surely this cannot be true & I sincerely hope this is 100% not the case. I seek your reassurance that this statement by Sgt Maurice Morello is incorrect. I, together with the senior command of the RGP are seriously concerned with the journey the GPF are on. Today Sgt Morello literally said that legislation is sitting on the CM's desk to exclude the conveners from any discipline regulations - you cannot imagine the adverse hype this is causing. Already I have notion of a very fractured GPF Board who are not all in agreement with the way the Chairman and Secretary are running business - this is not a healthy state of affairs at all. I trust we can meet on your return to Gib so that you can hear out the serious concerns we have with the latest developments.

Best rgds

Ian

[28/01/2020, 21:03:09] Samantha Sacramento: Ok thanks for this. I spoke to him earlier, I will ask to meet him when he returns.

[28/01/2020, 21:03:43] Ian McGrail: Many thanks.

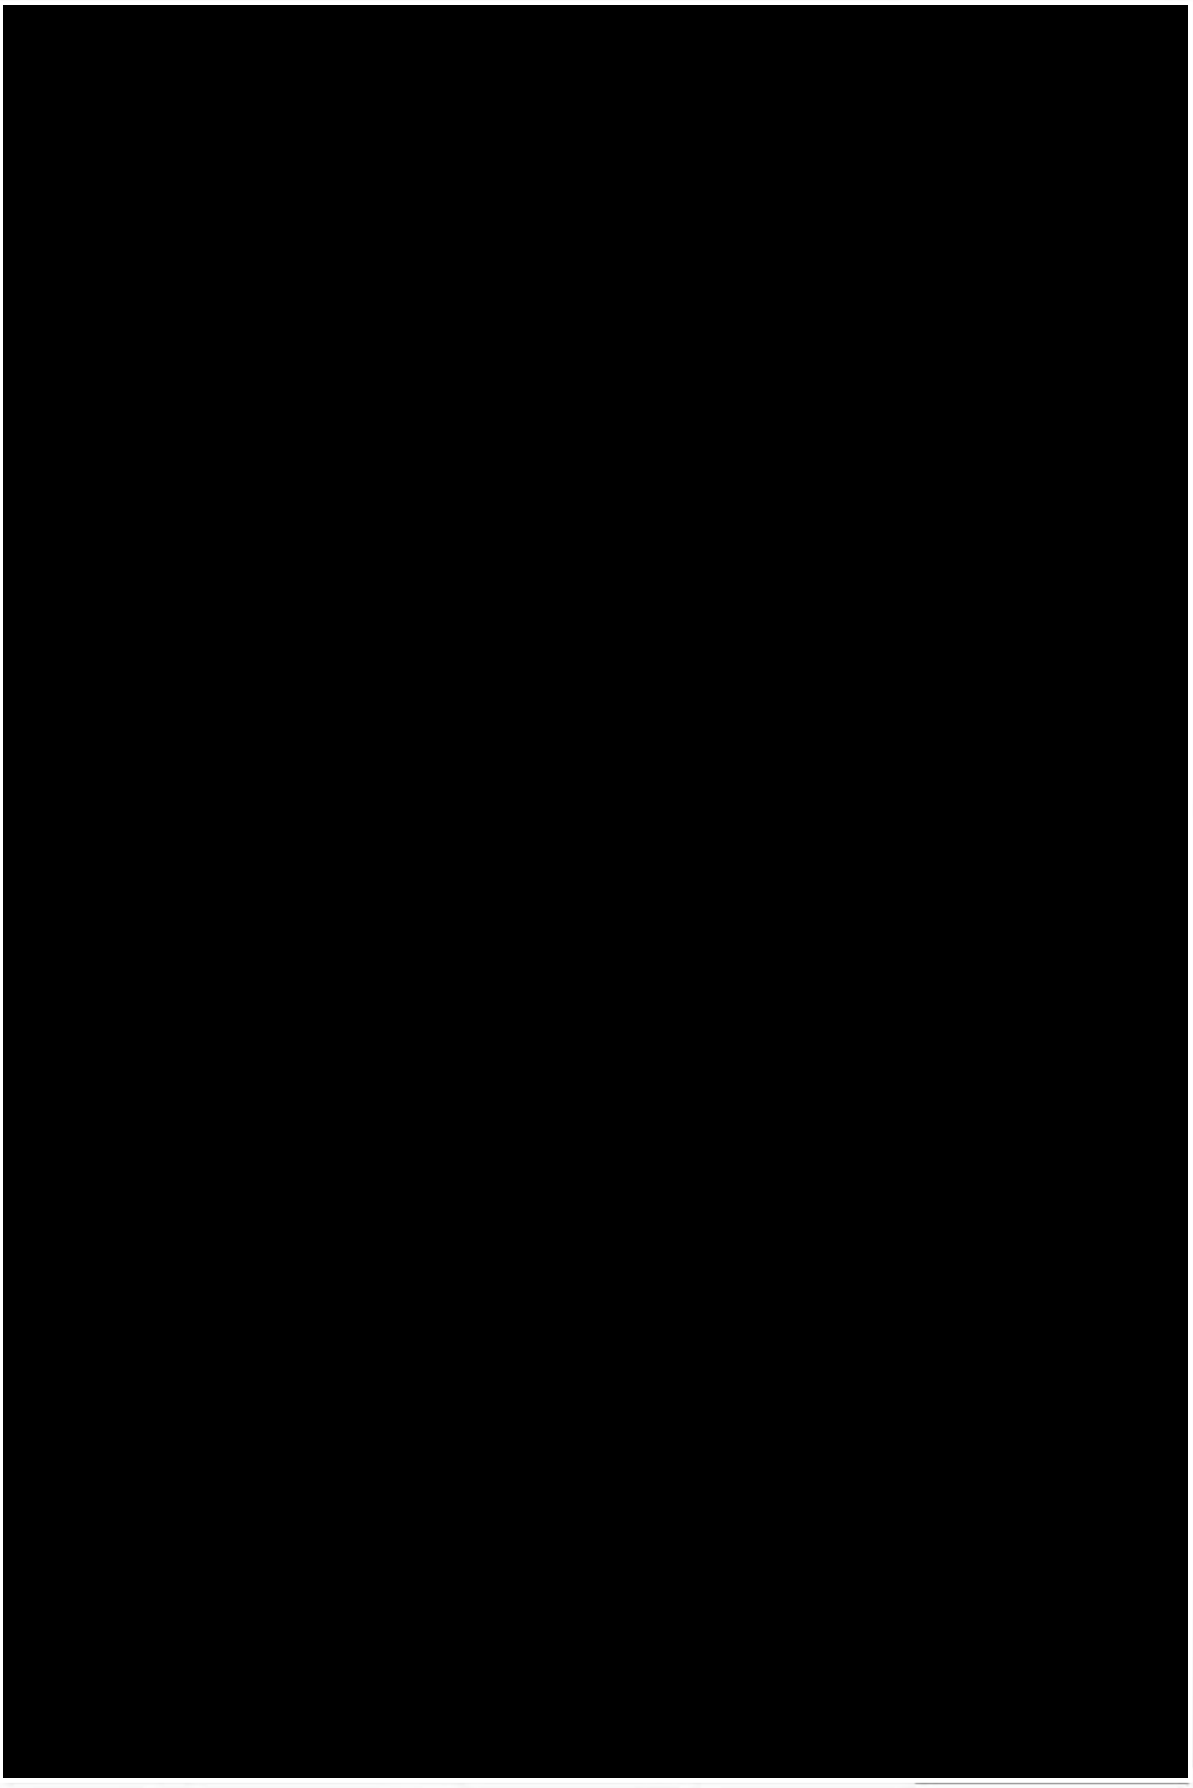
[28/01/2020, 21:04:04] Samantha Sacramento: Thanks for the meeting it was good, there was a lot on the back burner for a while but that's ok. It needs to be done. I have all the time in the world for anything that needs to get done

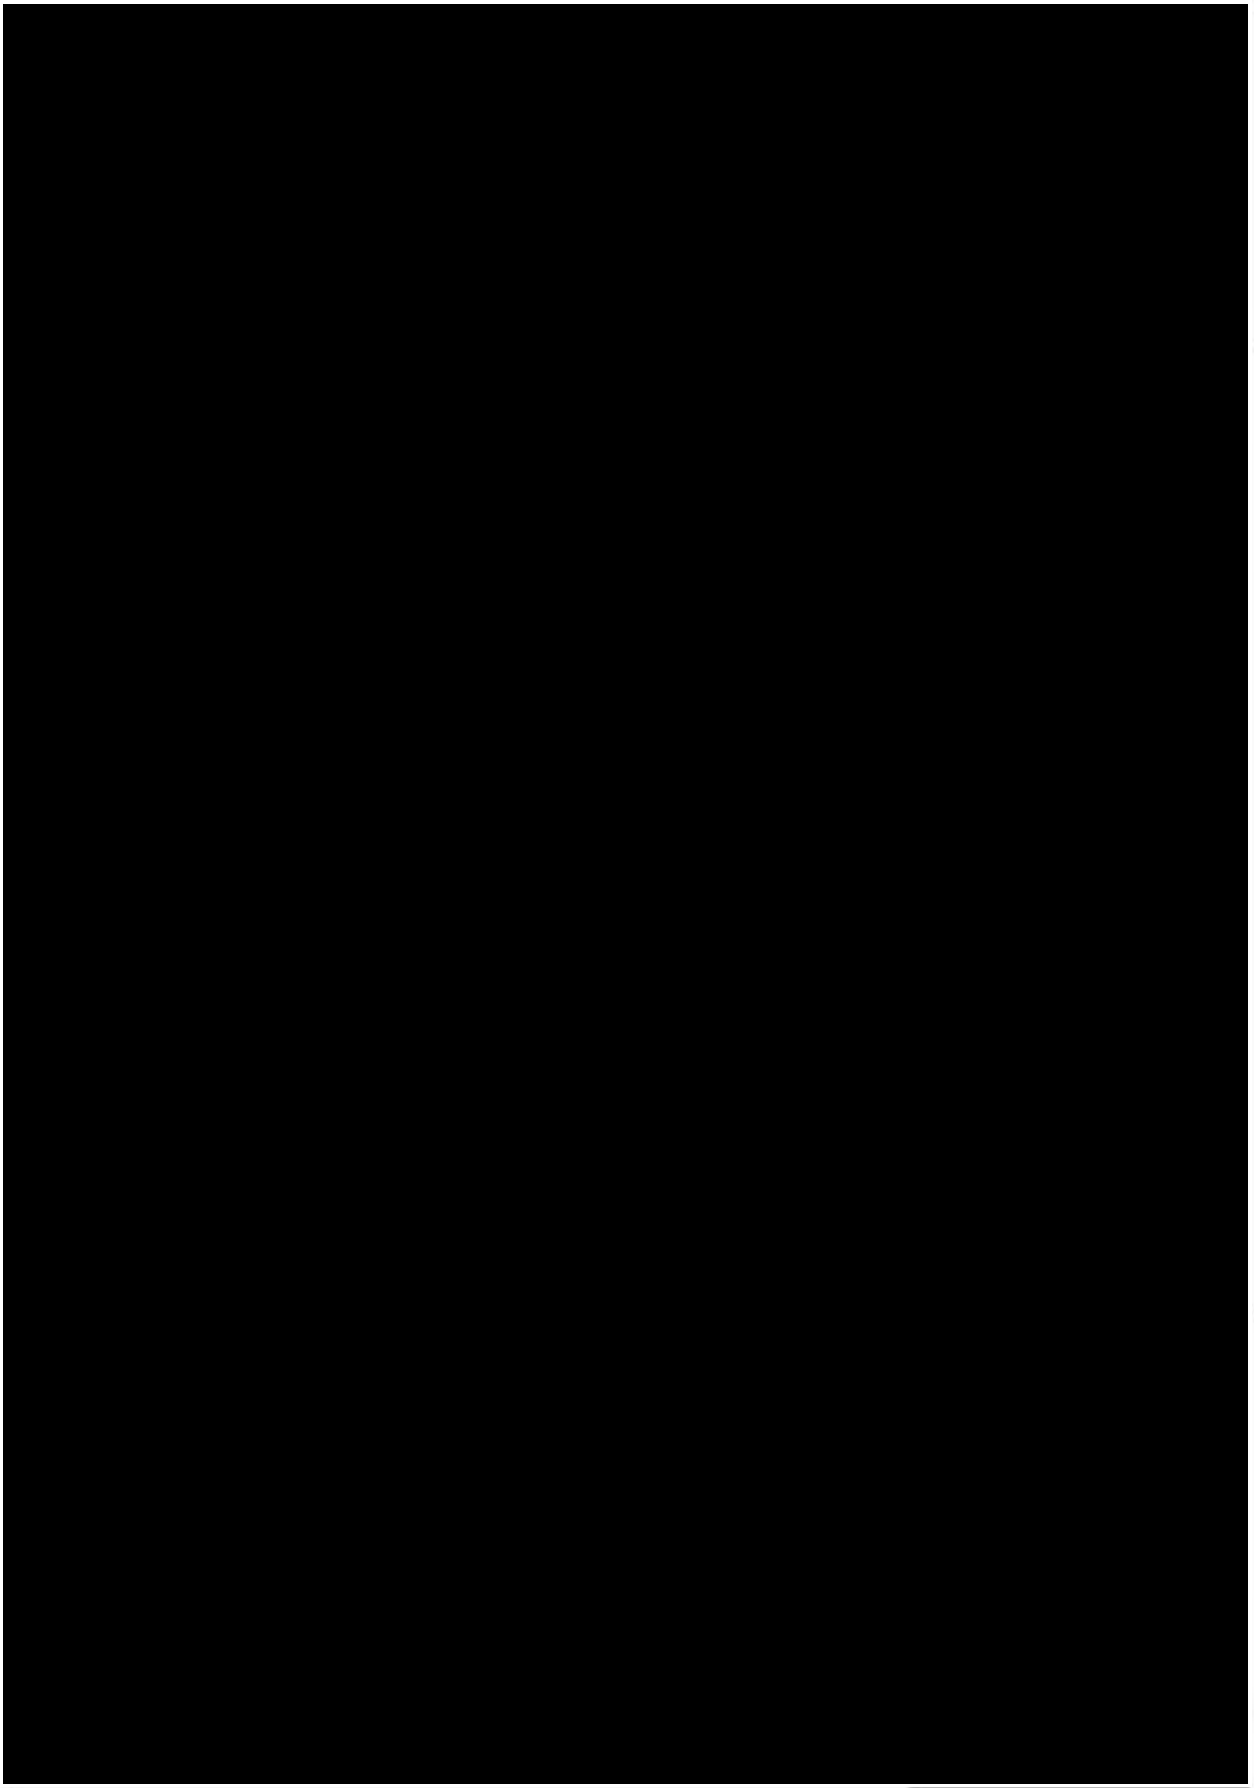
[redacted]

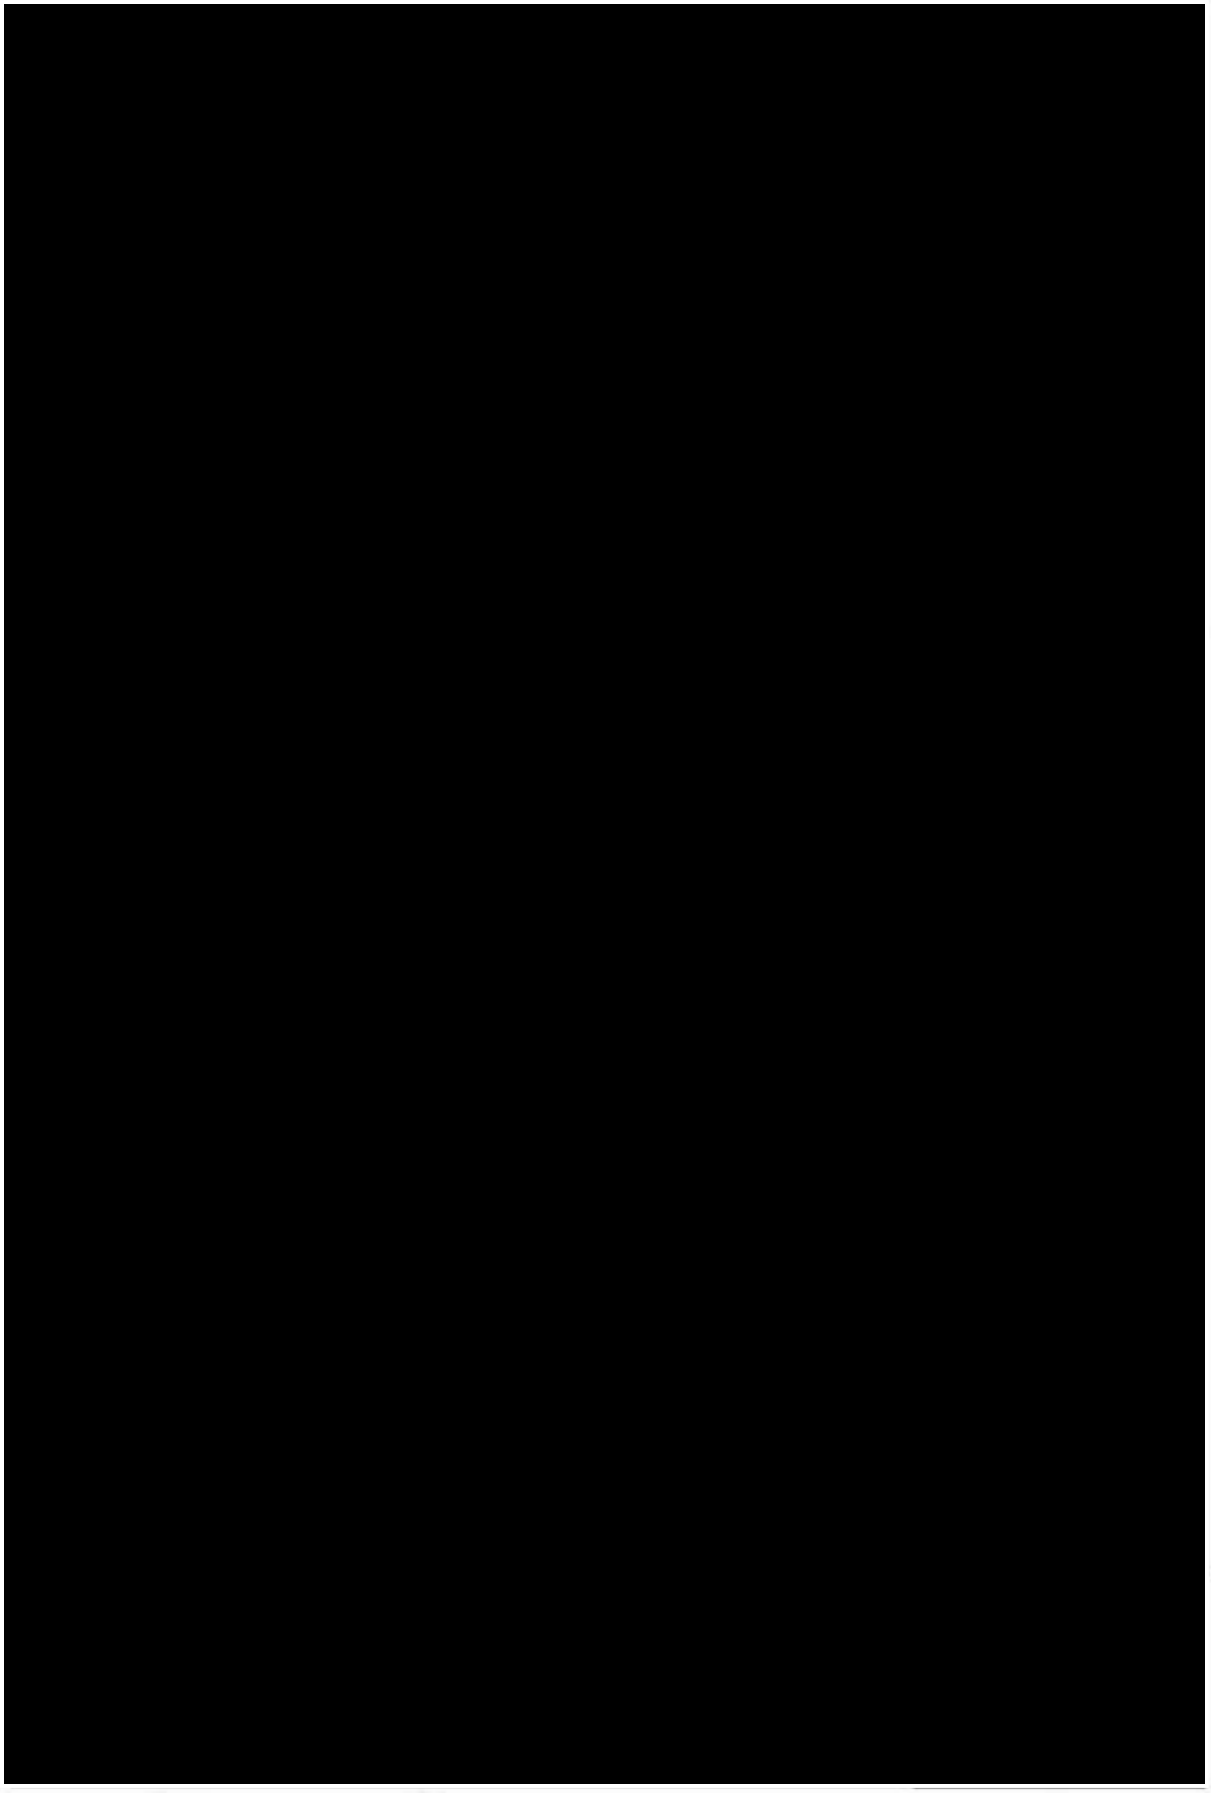
[29/01/2020, 11:23:46] Ian McGrail: Good morning Minister - just to let you know that I have secured a meeting with the CM @ 1130am on Wed 5th Feb.

My colleagues and I are extremely concerned at how things are panning out with the GPF and the consequences of these.

Rgds







[04/02/2020, 15:39:25] Ian McGrail: Good afternoon - I am scheduled to meet with the CM tomorrow regarding the police federation. Will you be there? Its at 1130am.

Were you able to speak to him on the matter?

[05/03/2020, 14:35:36] Samantha Sacramento: Hi. I spoke to chief secretary about Marion this morning

[05/03/2020, 14:48:45] Ian McGrail: Thanks. And what was he reaction? Its actually Darrien.

[05/03/2020, 14:49:28] Samantha Sacramento: Hahaha I wrote that and autocorrect kicked in and I didn't realised

[08/03/2020, 08:59:10] Ian McGrail: Minister- We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

I have advised CM & HE already.

Rgds

Ian

[08/03/2020, 09:25:32] Samantha Sacramento: Ian thanks for letting me know.

[08/03/2020, 09:25:49] Samantha Sacramento: If there is anything you need from me let me know

[08/03/2020, 09:41:10] Ian McGrail: Many thanks

[10/03/2020, 12:20:06] Samantha Sacramento: Hi. How are the officers ?

[10/03/2020, 13:12:04] Ian McGrail: Our officers are ok. We are constantly keeping tabs of their welfare. We are expecting them to come today at some point to provide a detailed account of what occurred. This is in accordance with our force policy on post incident procedure. Thanks for your interest. Its much appreciated.

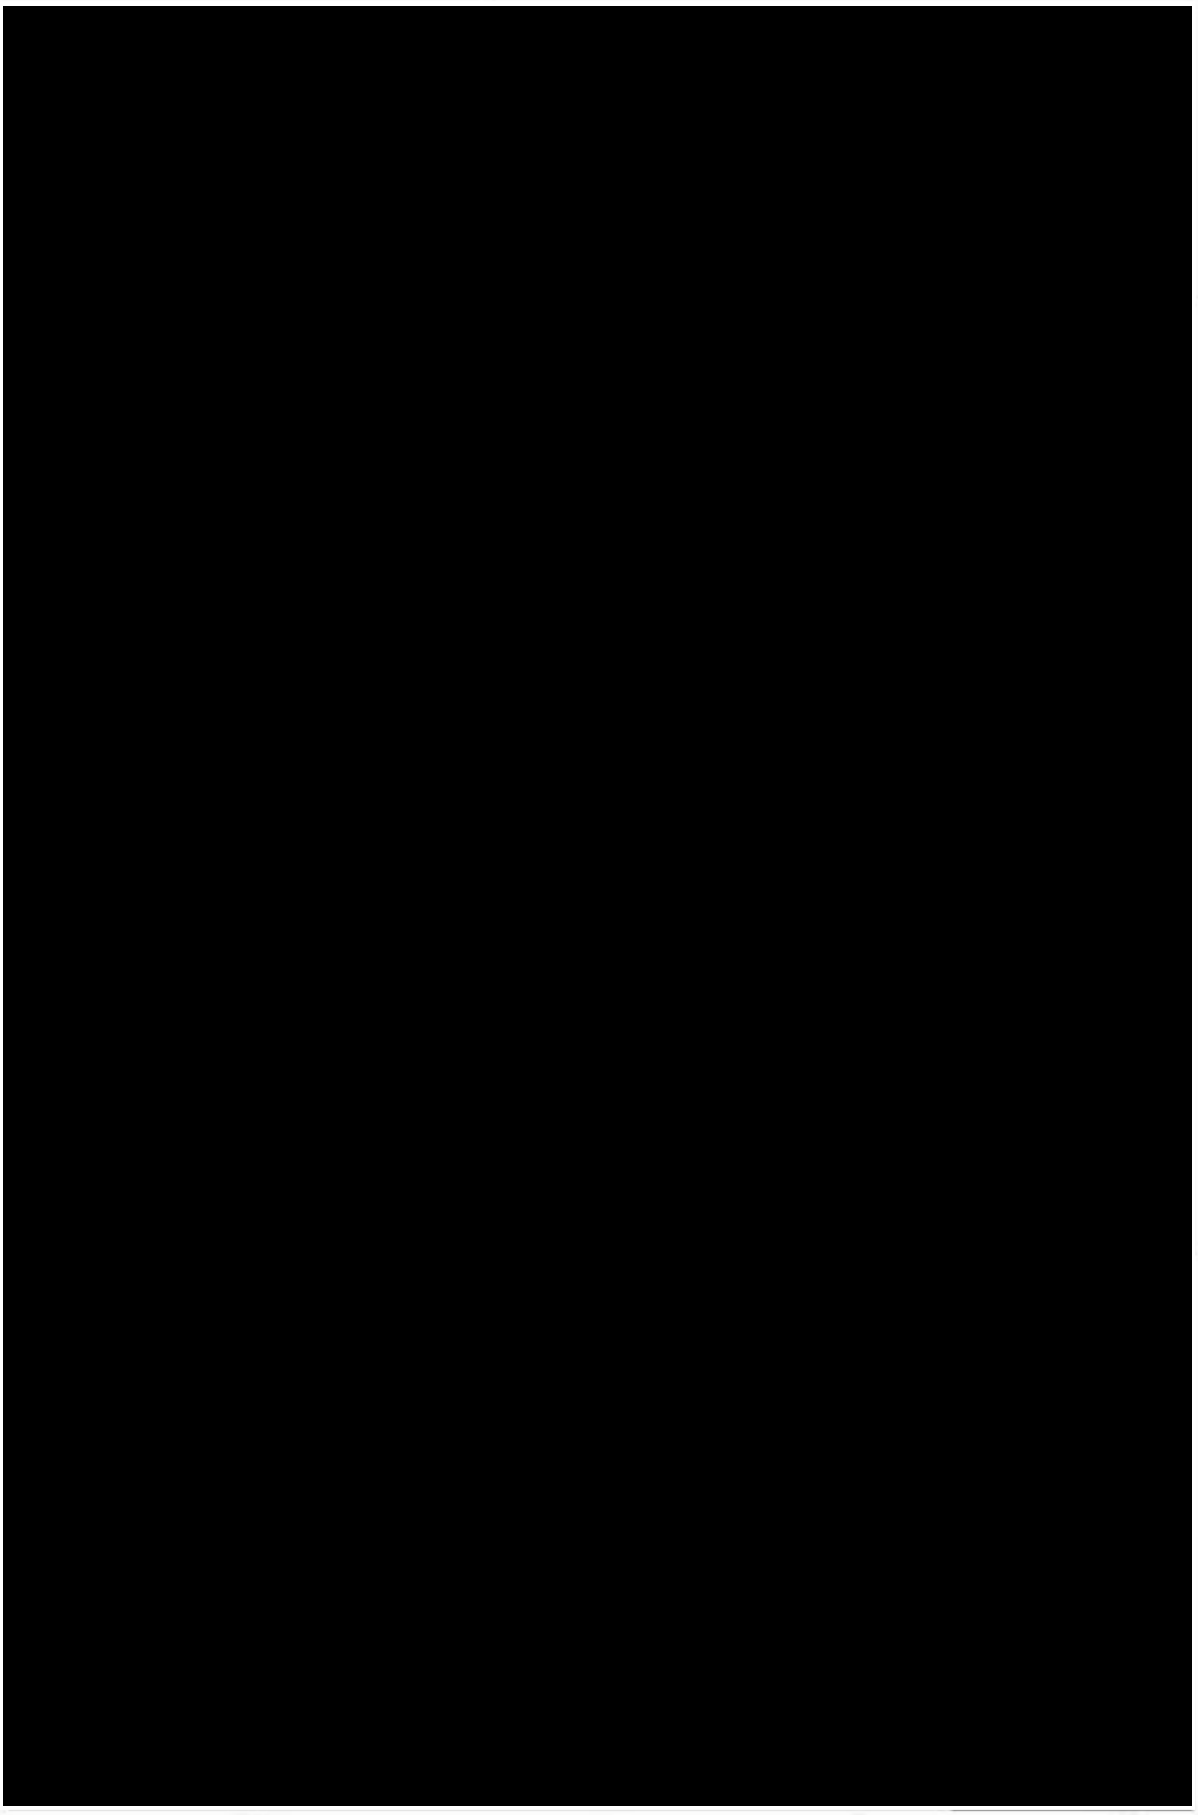
[10/03/2020, 13:15:57] Samantha Sacramento: By pure co-incidence, last Friday I asked my office to organise on site visits to the traffic and marine sections because I had not yet visited. Probably now best to wait no ?

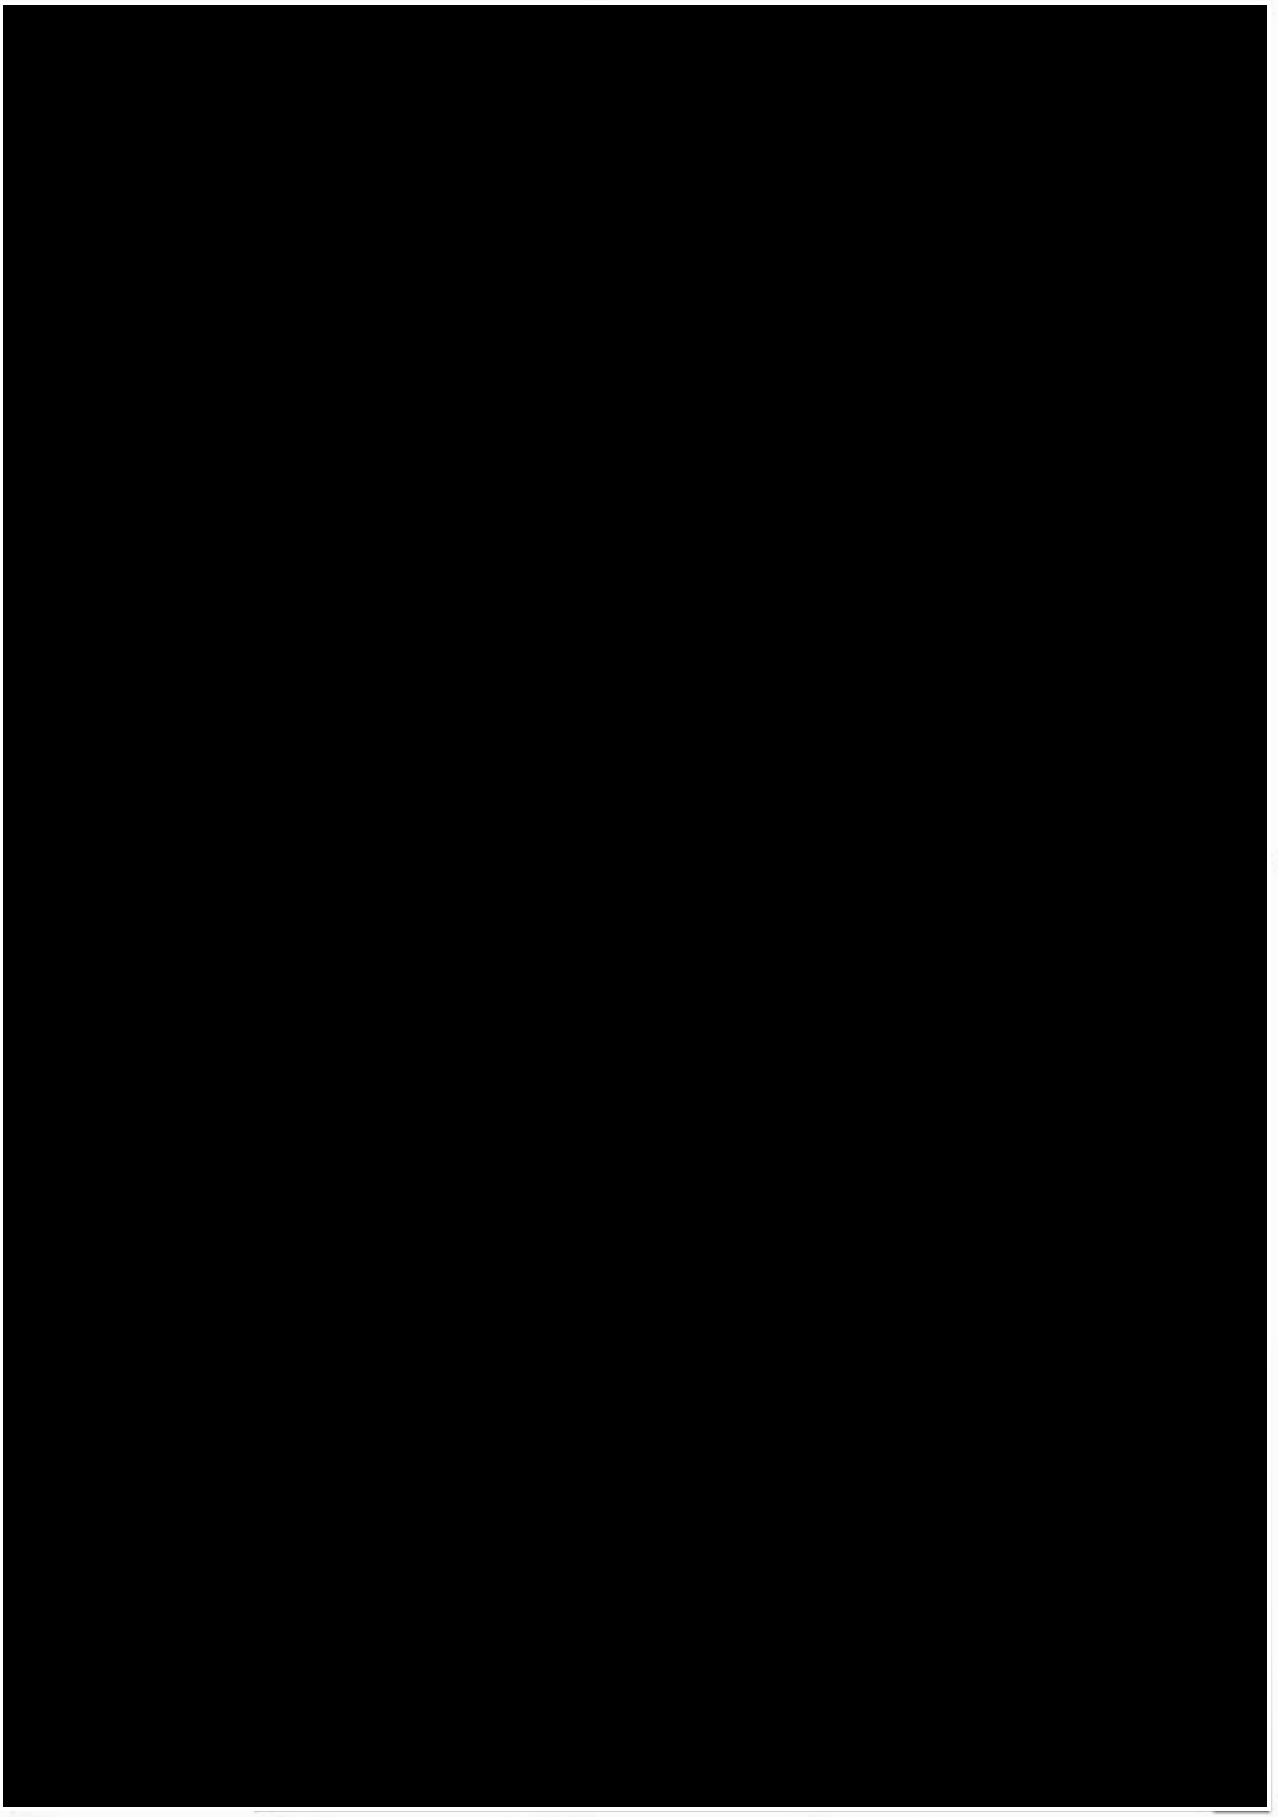
[10/03/2020, 13:16:56] Ian McGrail: Perhaps we could arrange for next week?

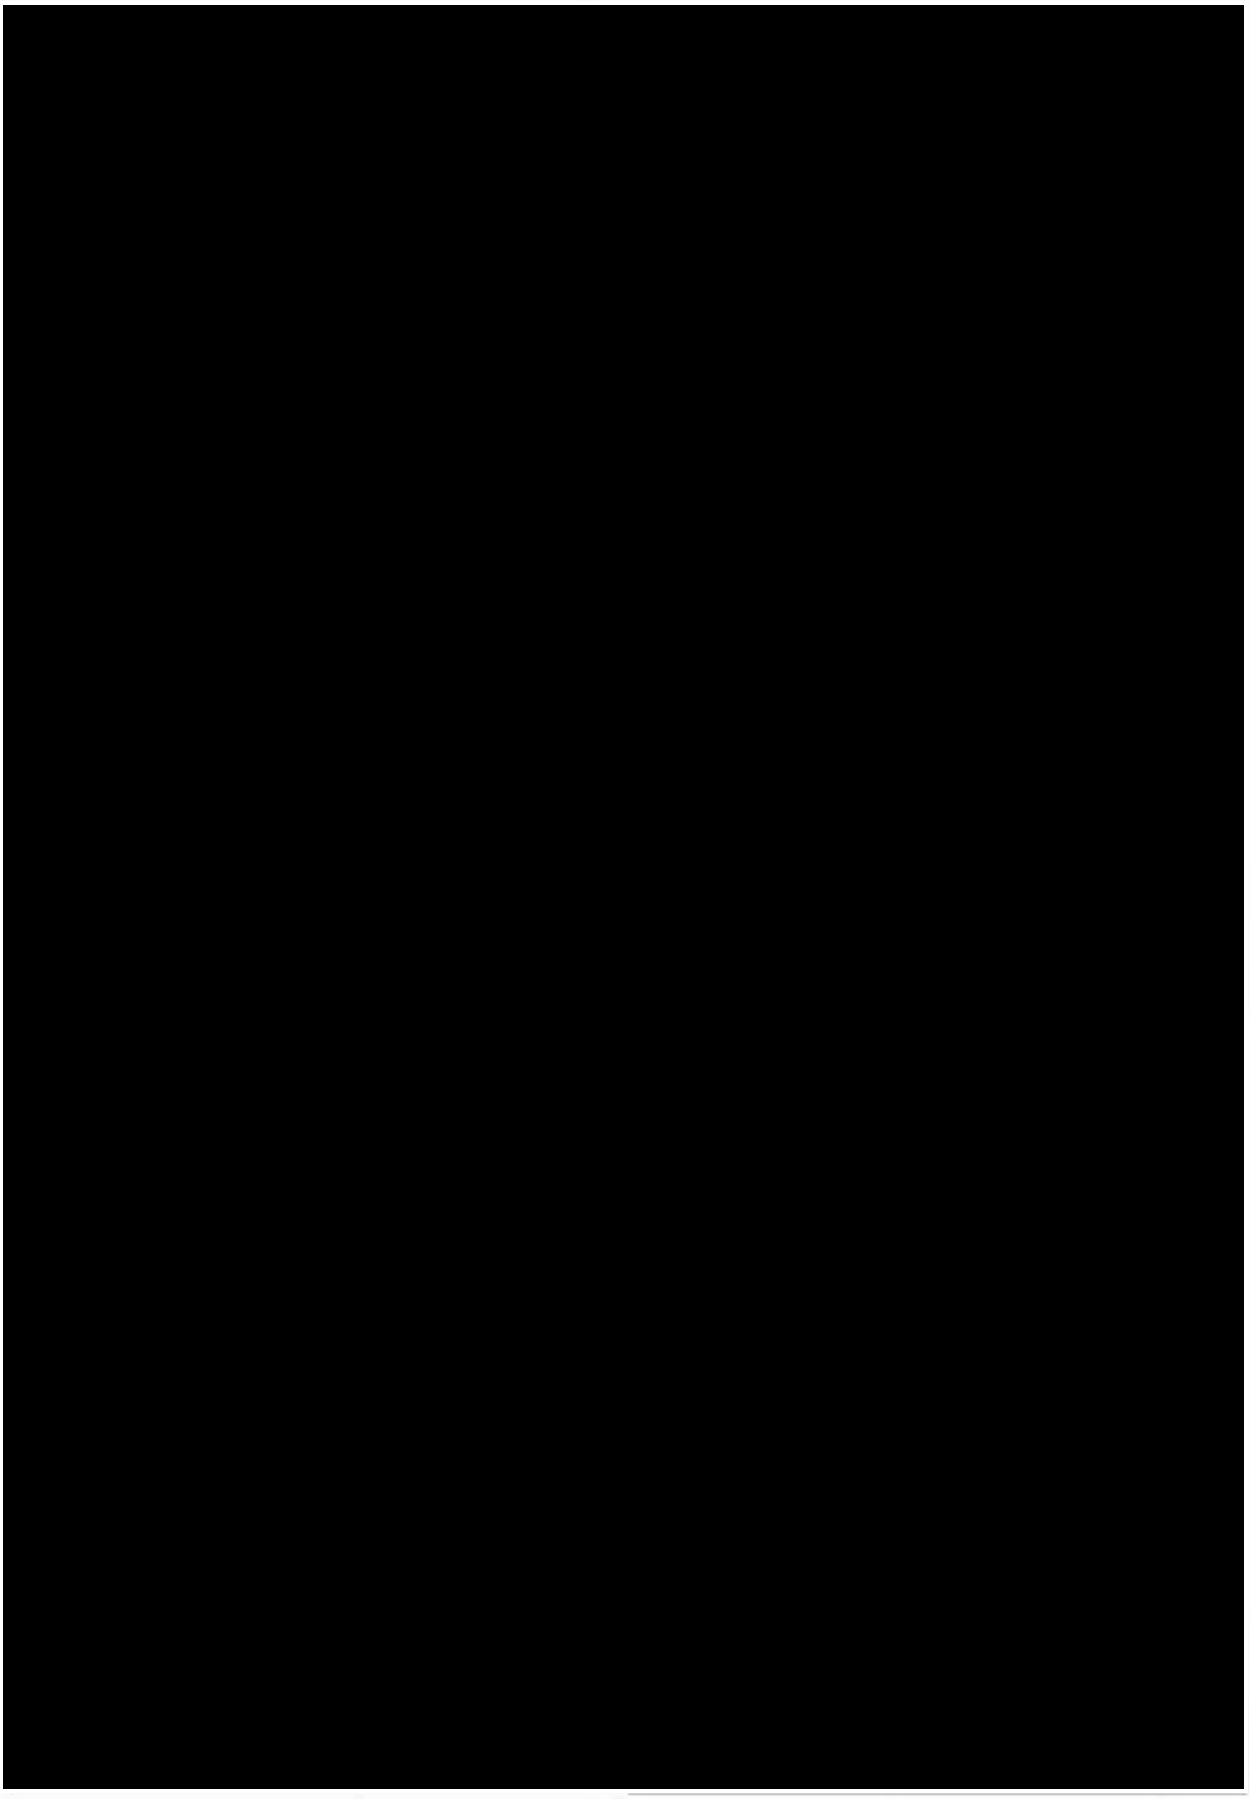
[10/03/2020, 13:52:05] Samantha Sacramento: Yes fine no problem I will ask Natalie to arrange .

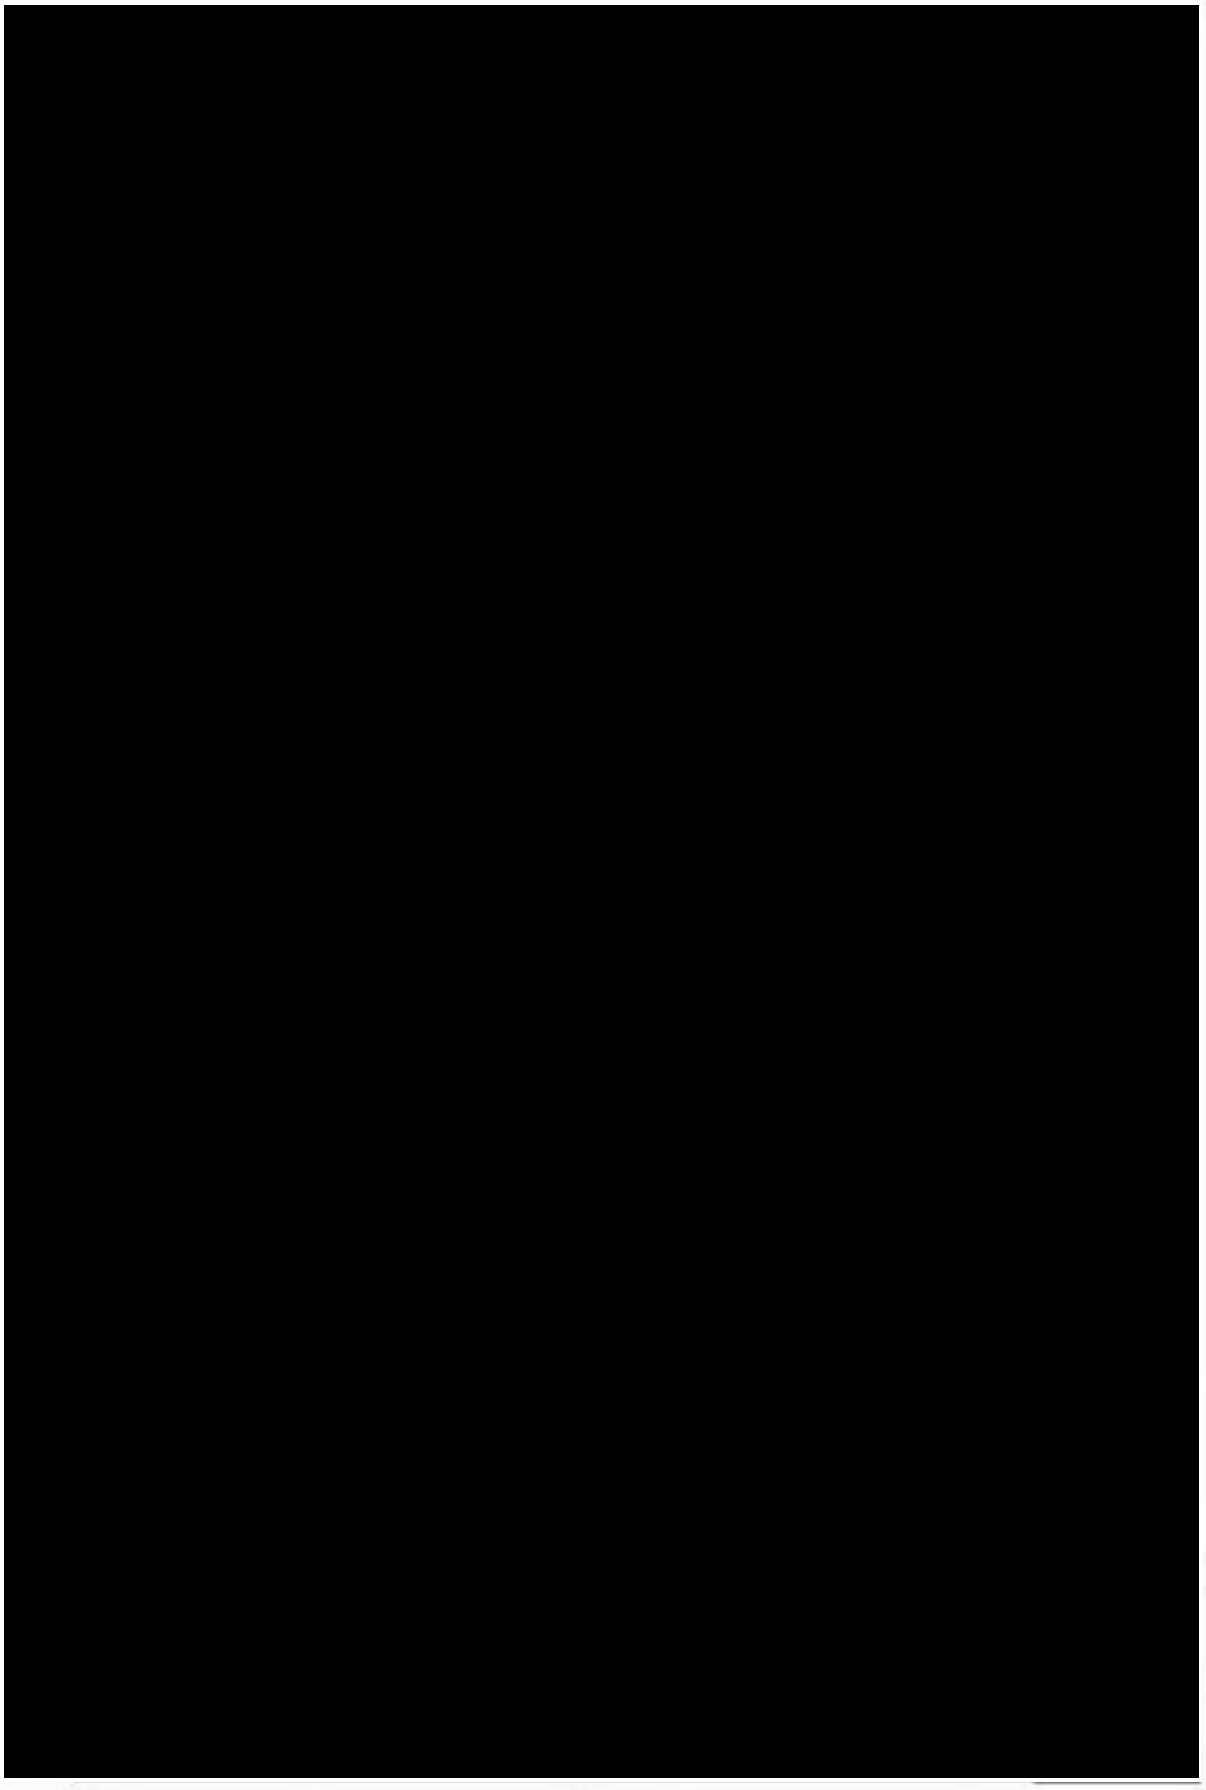
[10/03/2020, 14:02:23] Ian McGrail: 👍

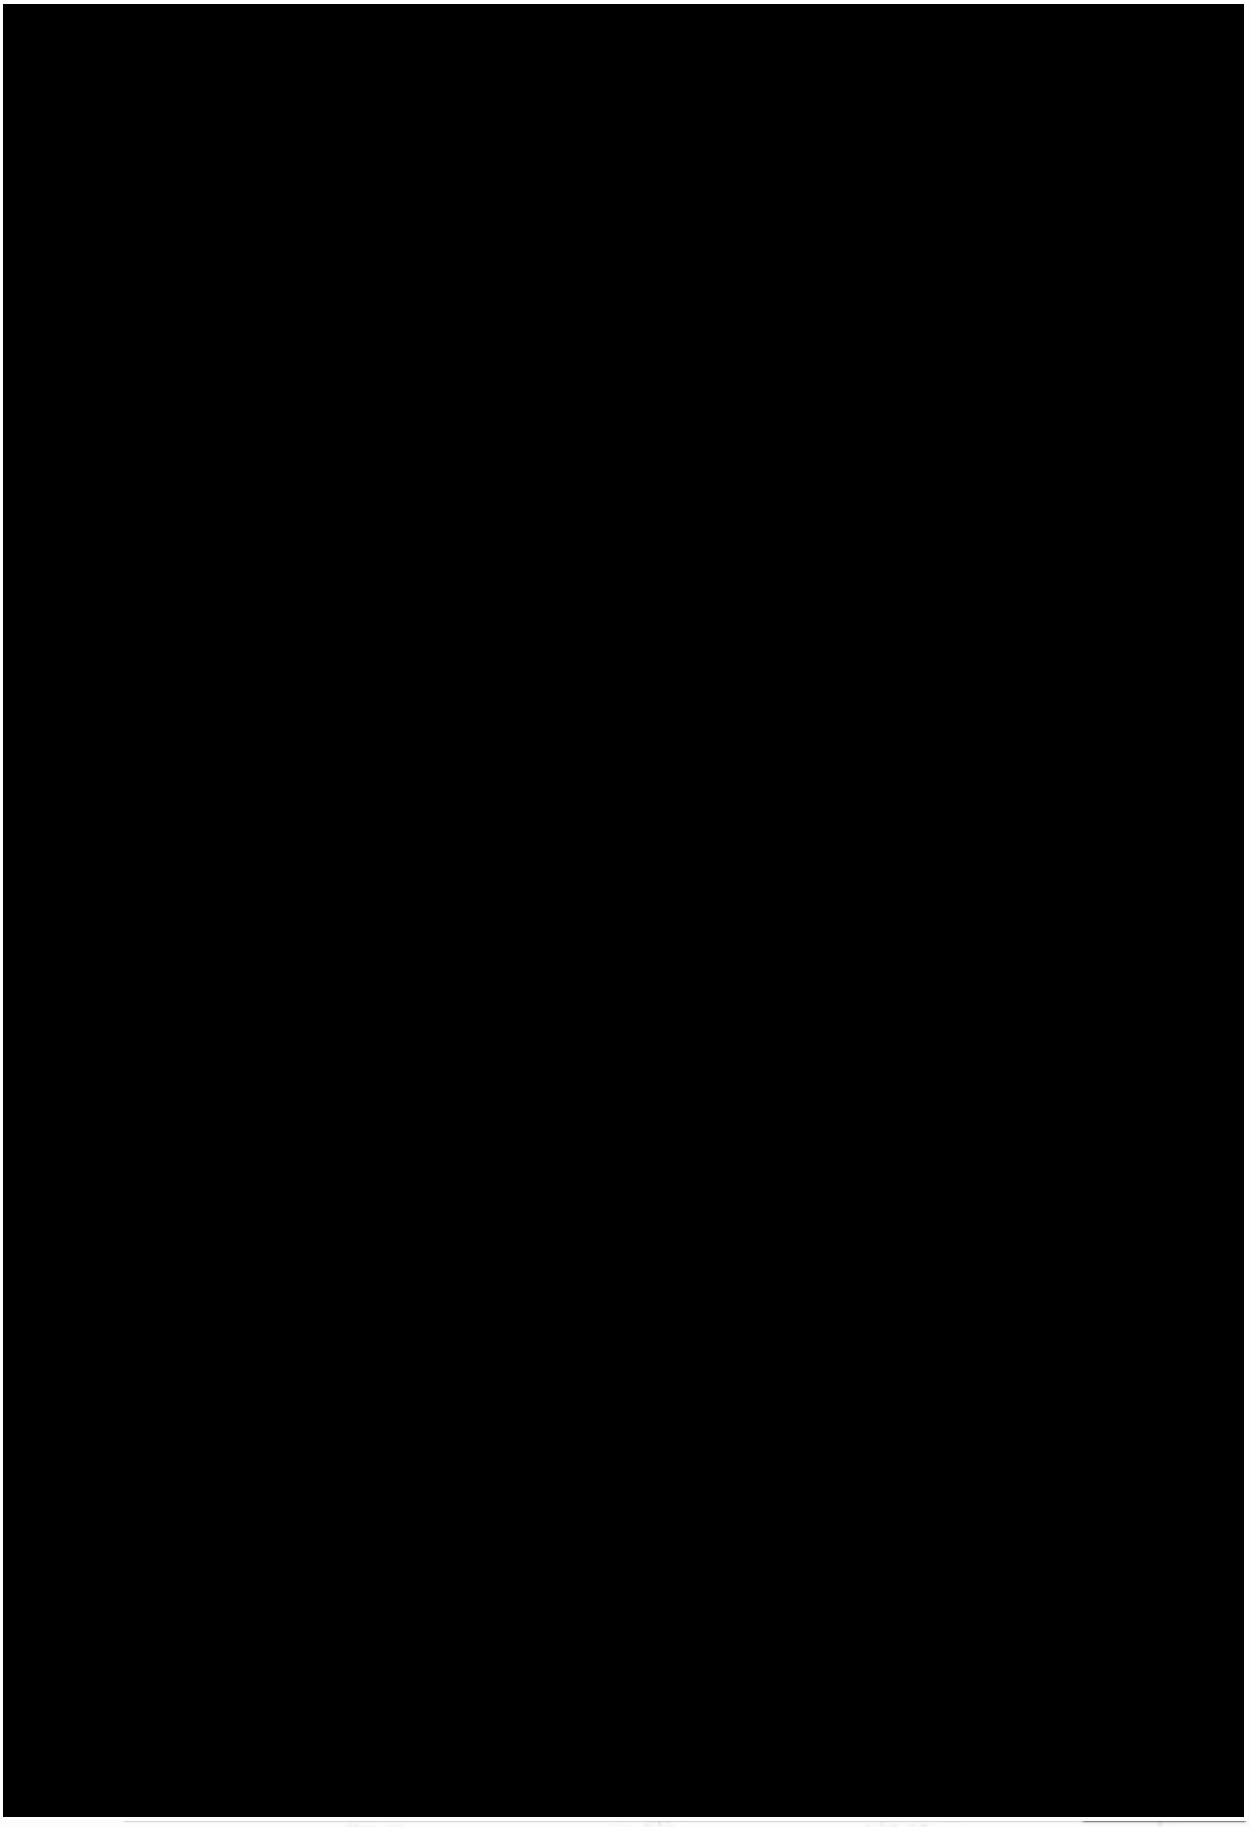
[12/03/2020, 20:59:17] Samantha Sacramento: Ian hi.

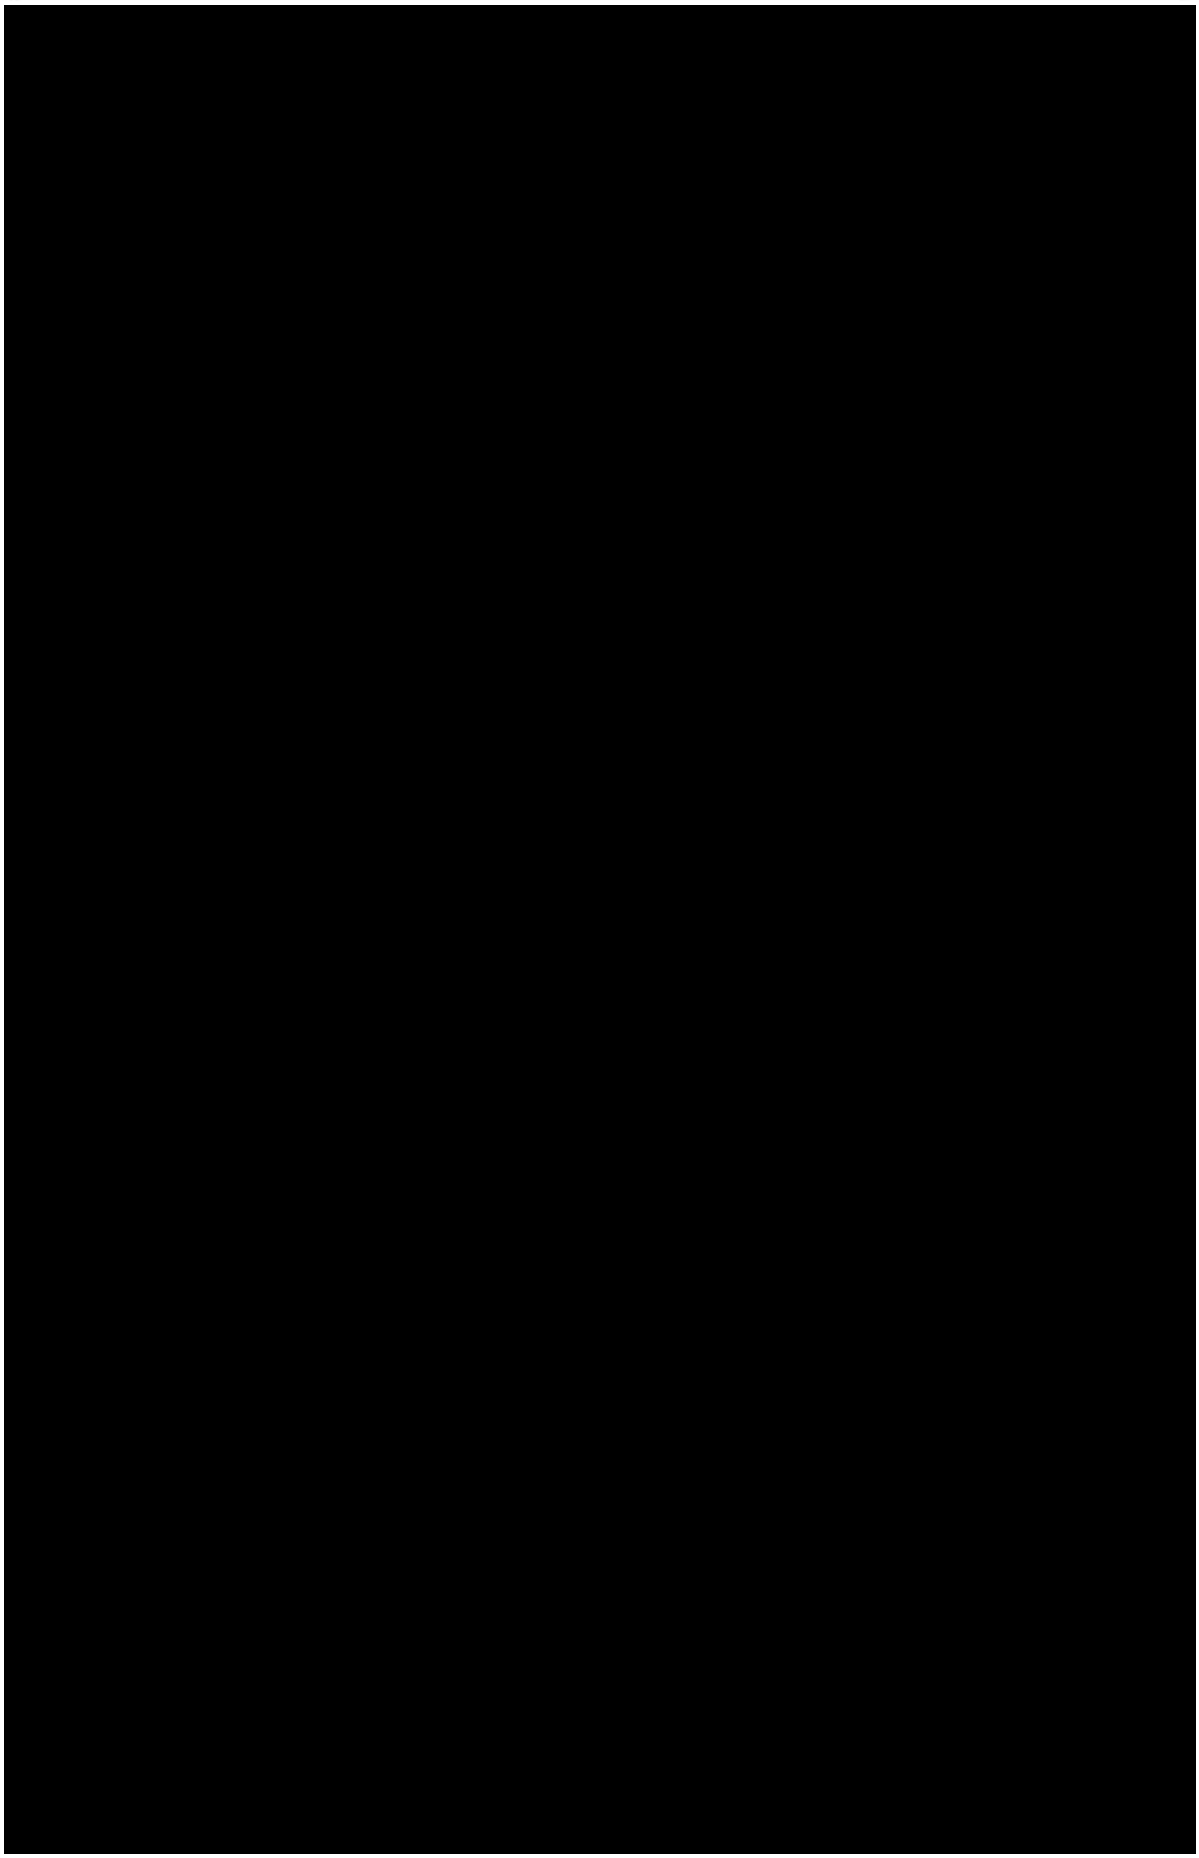


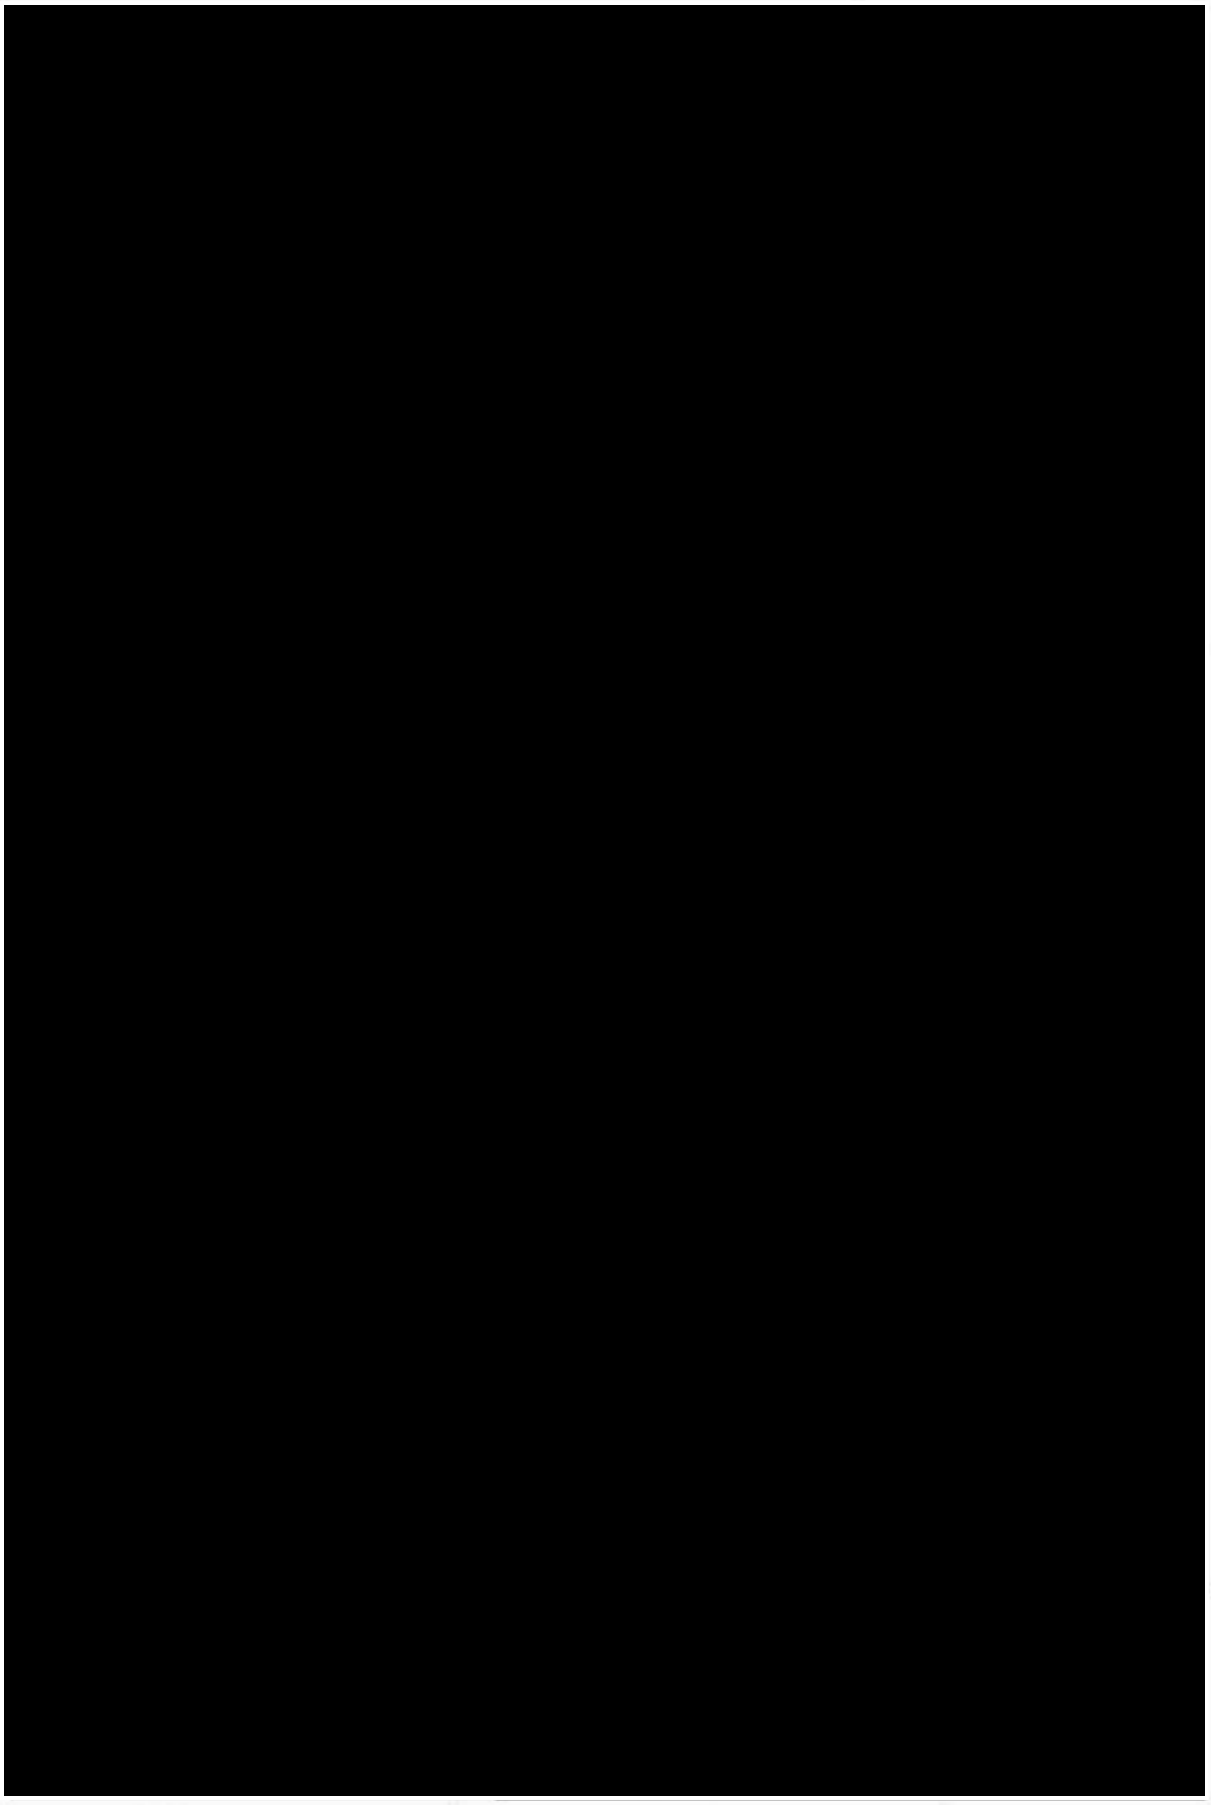


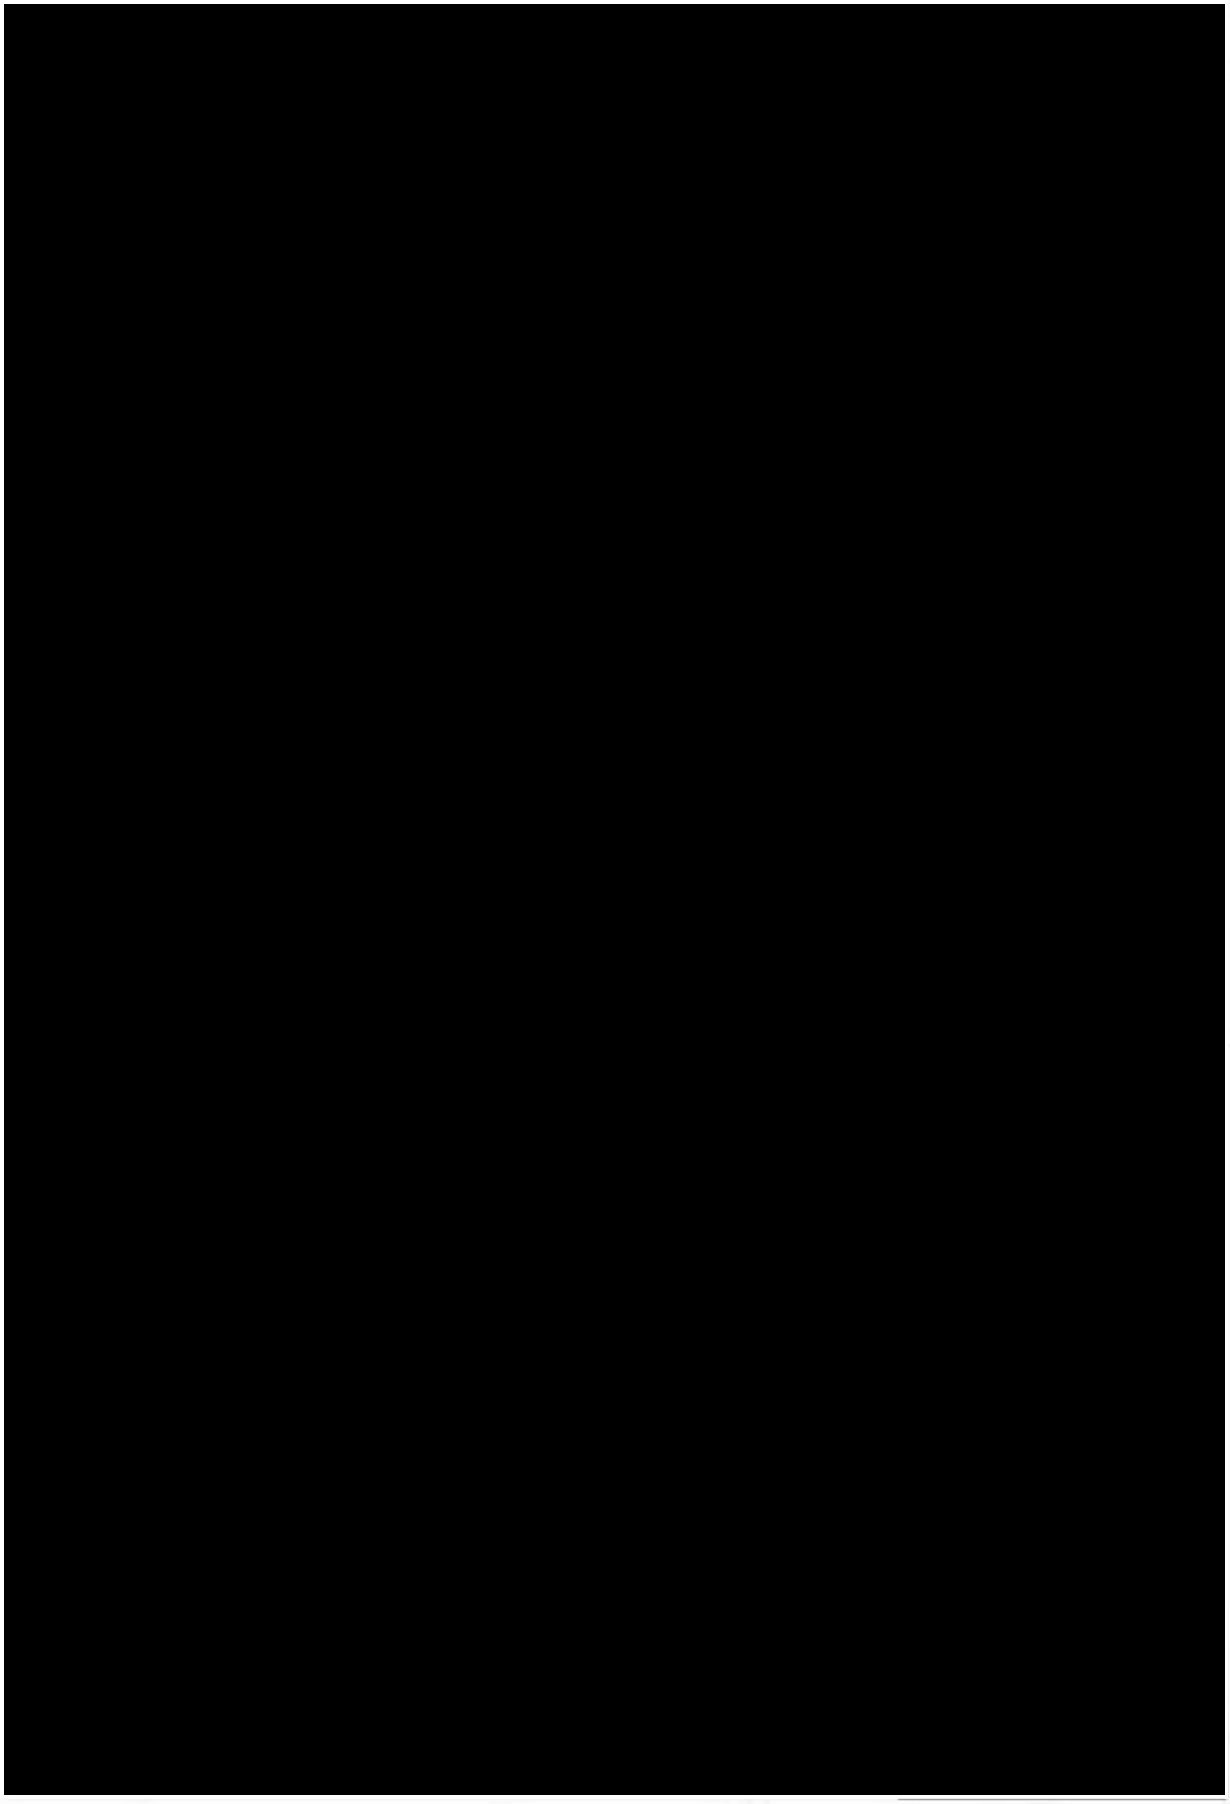


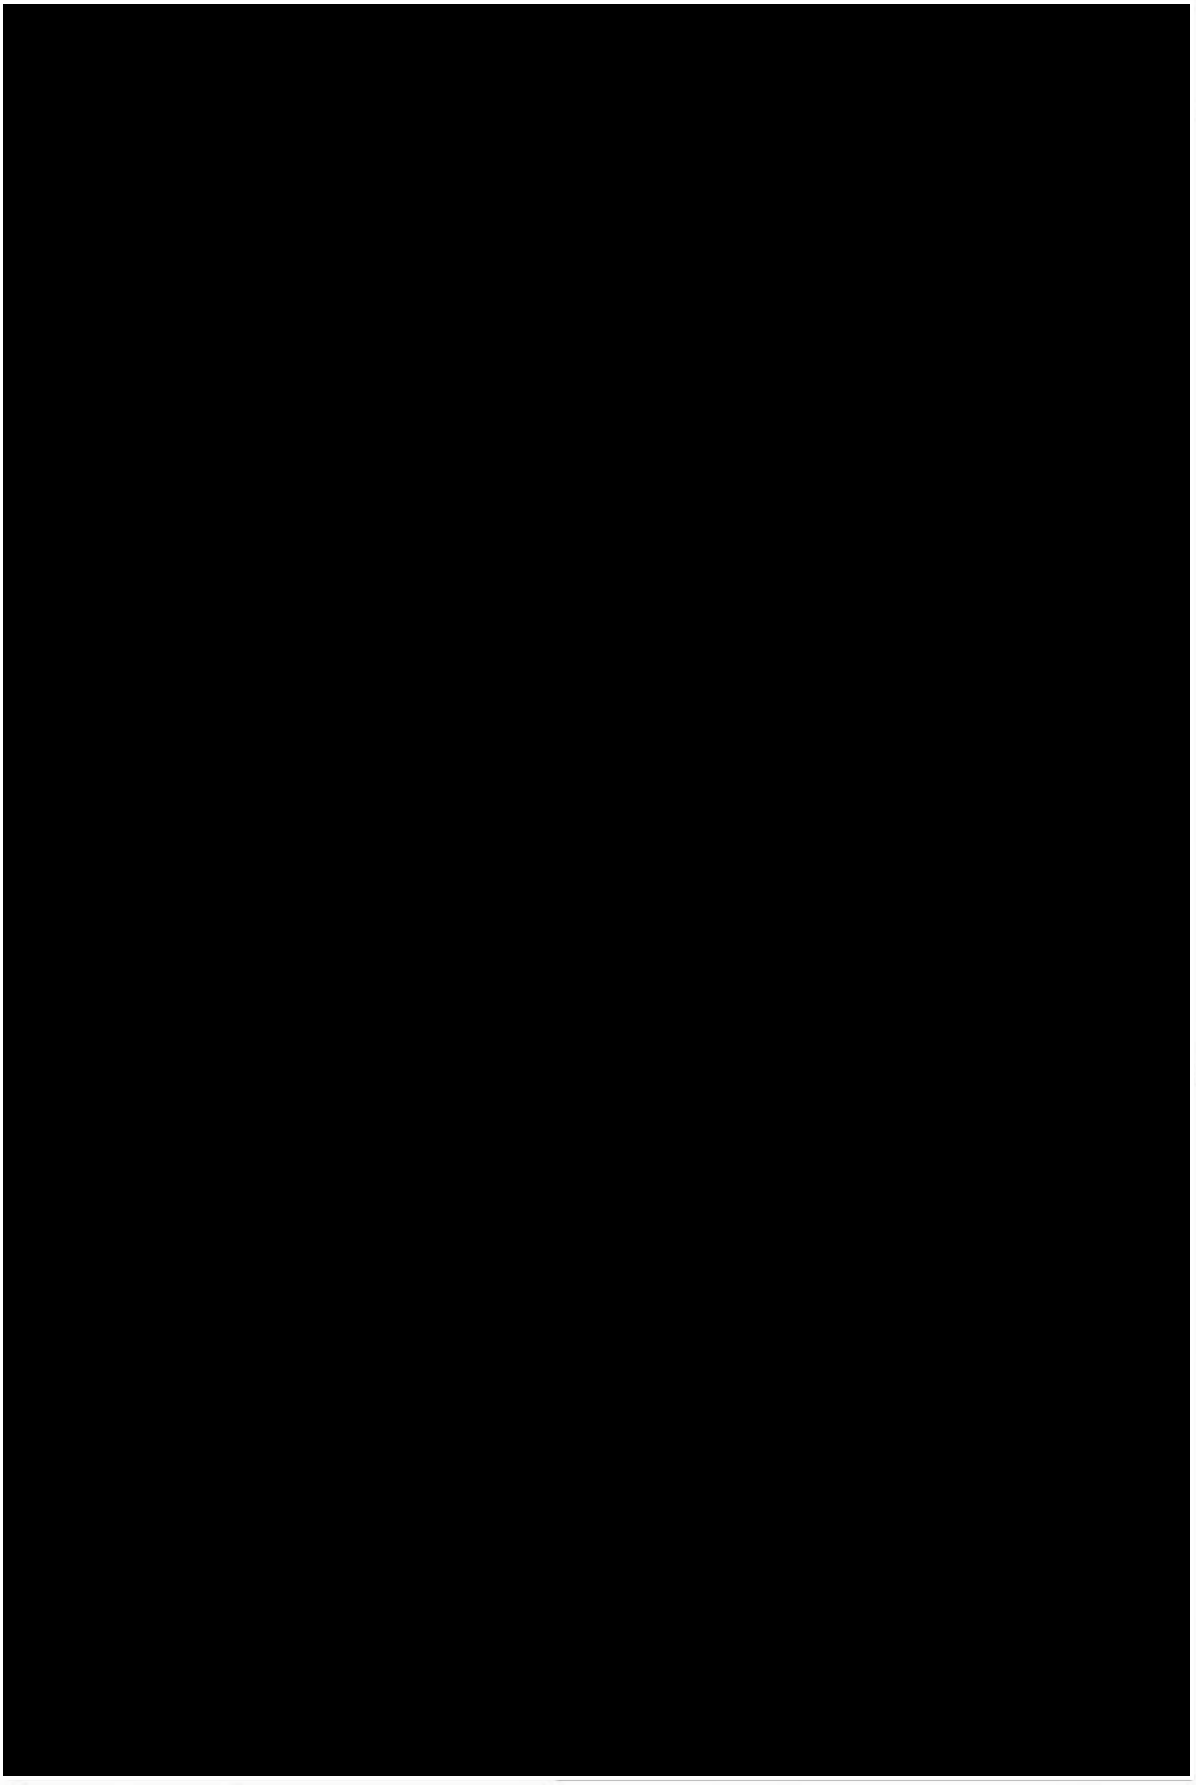


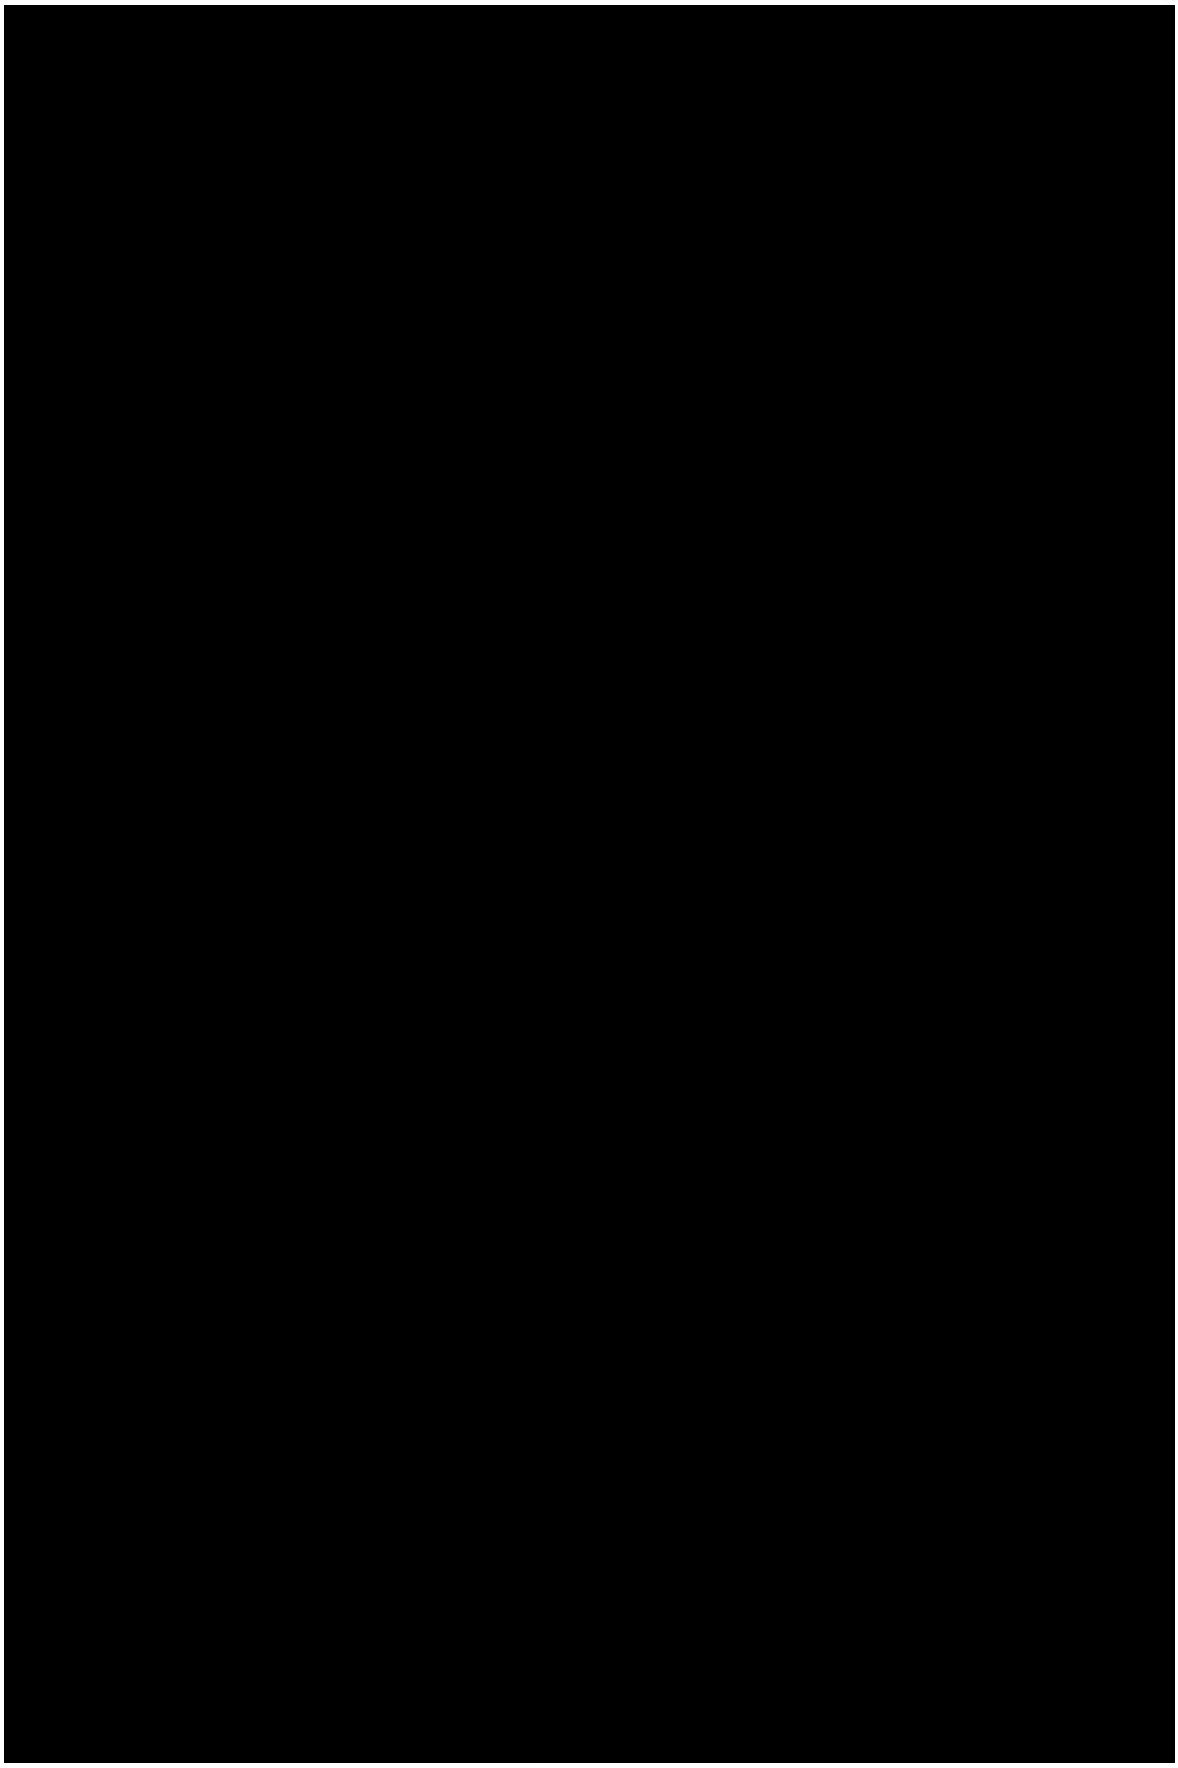


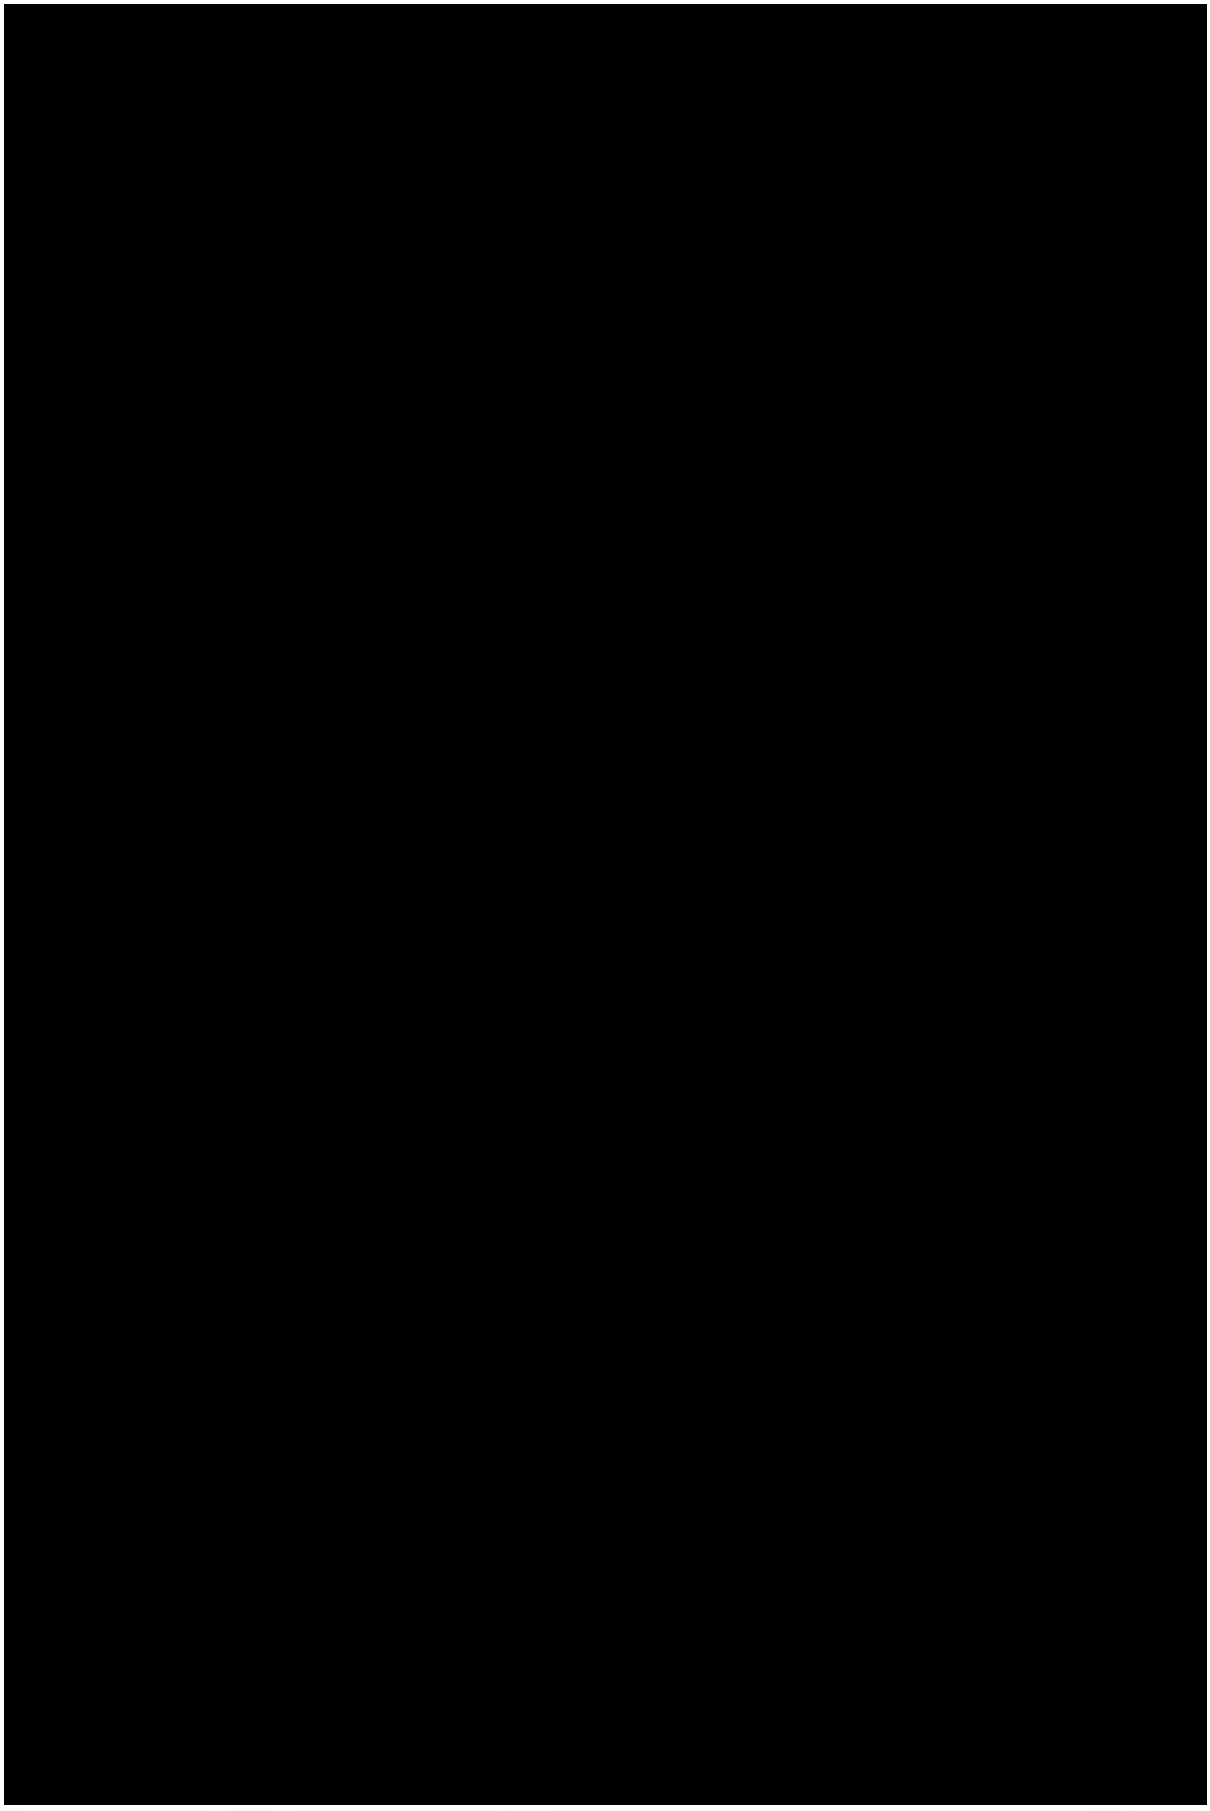


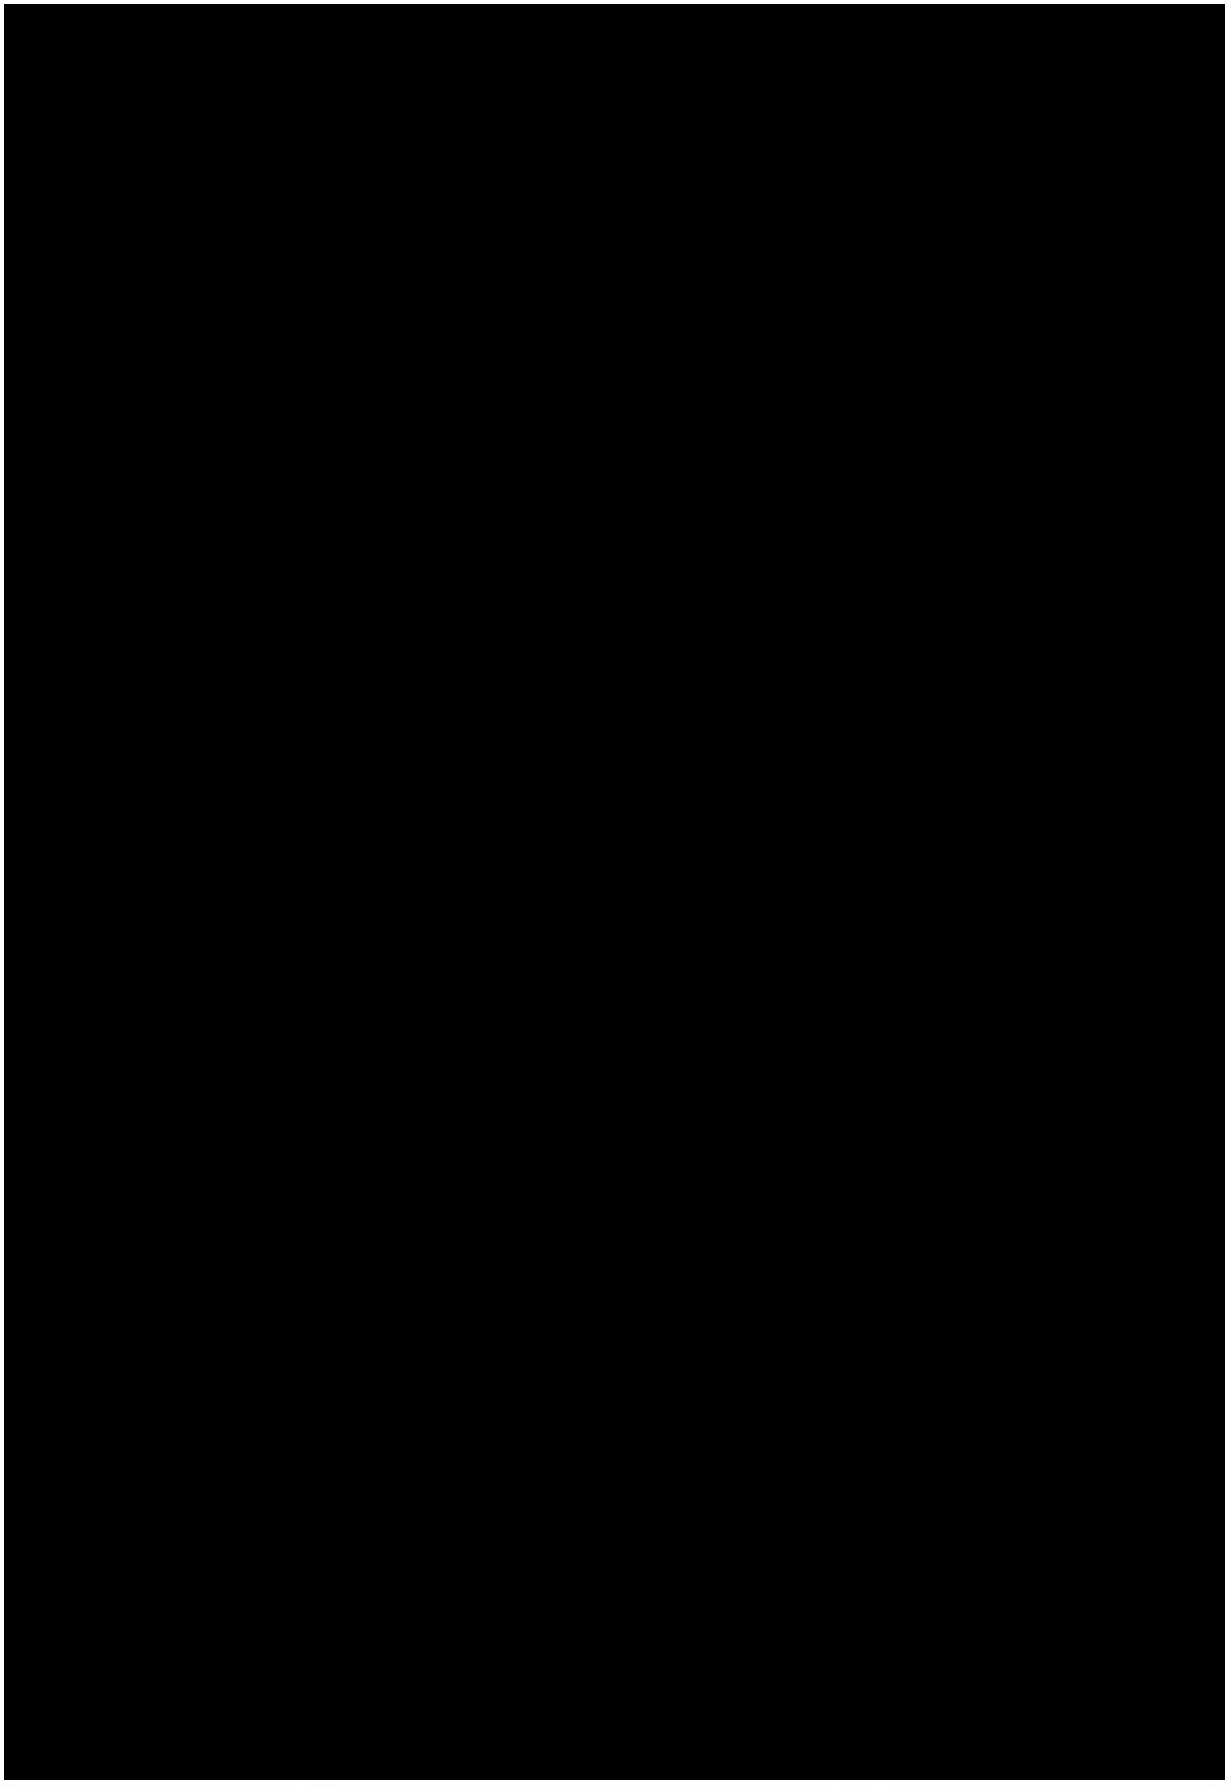


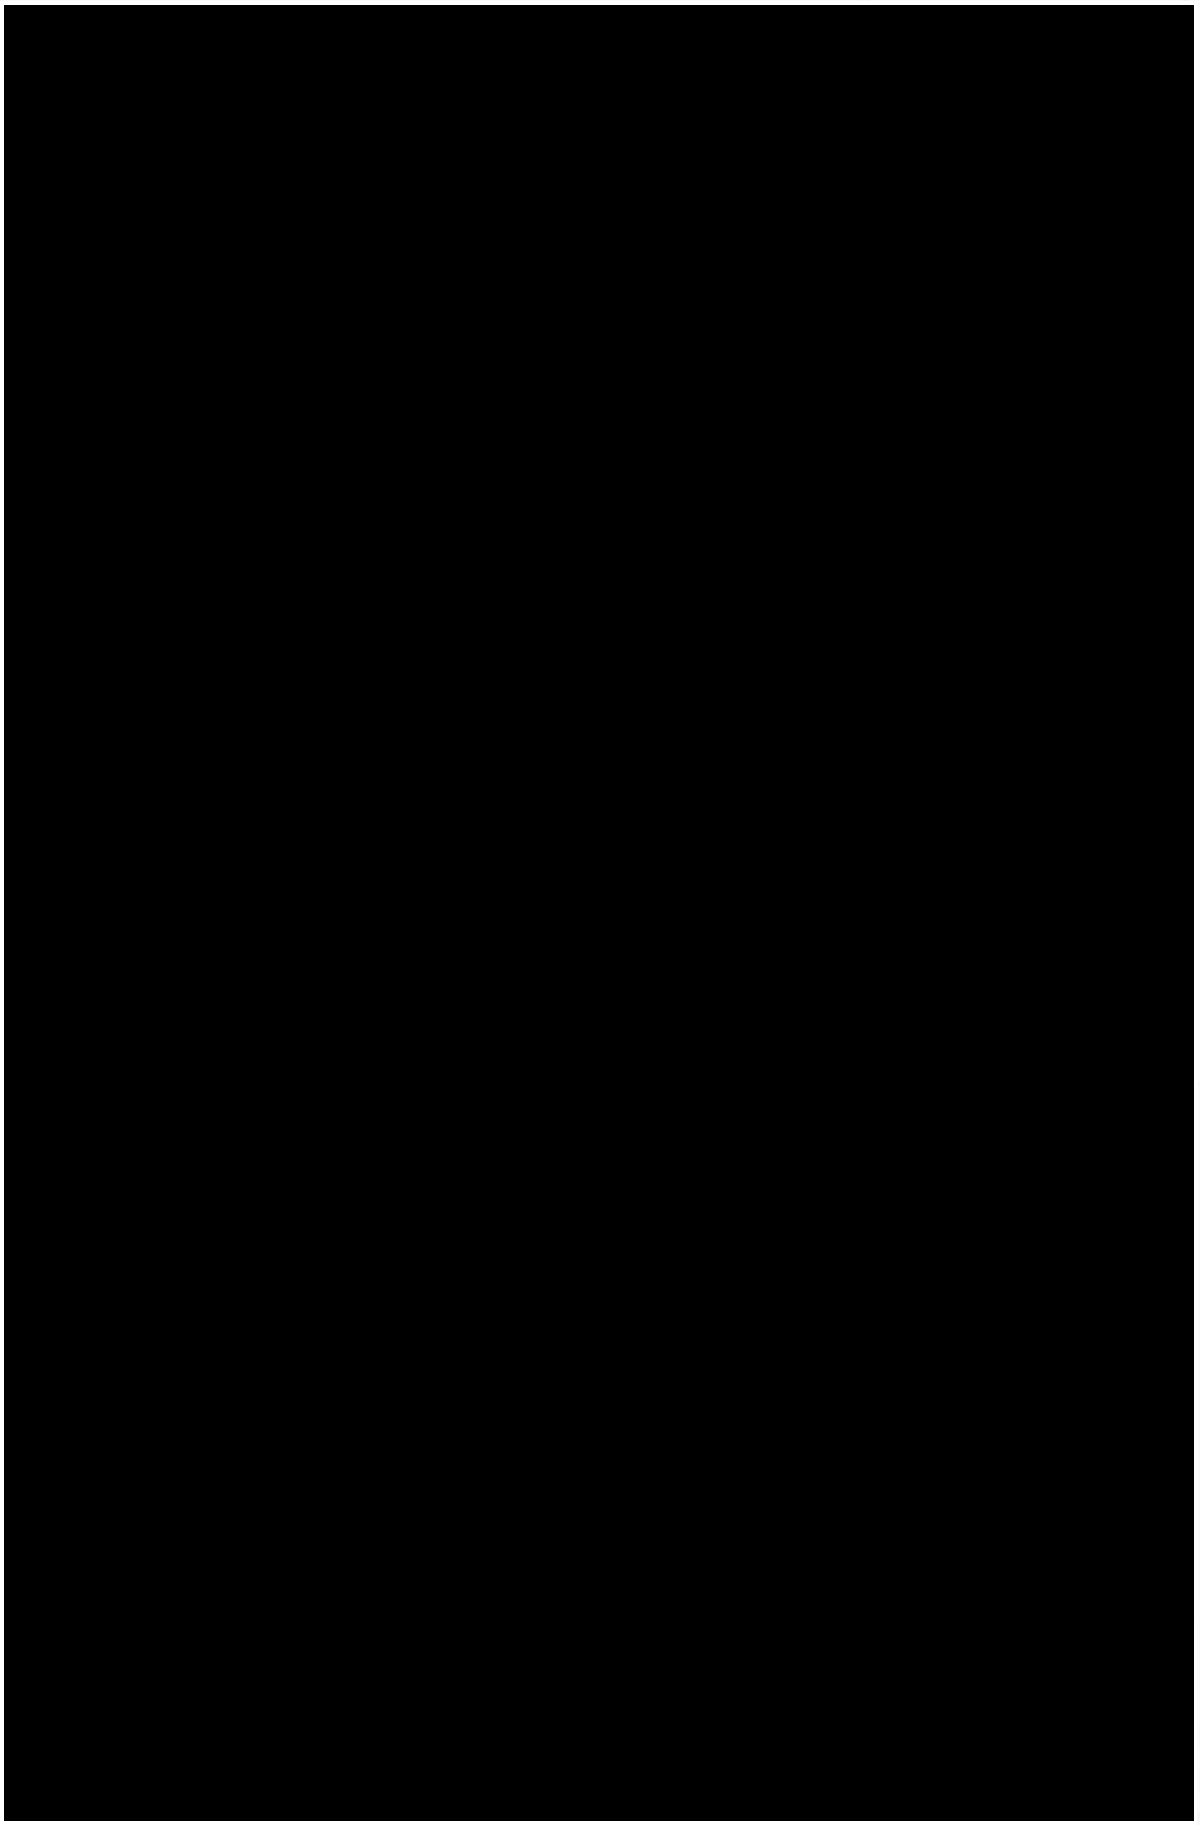


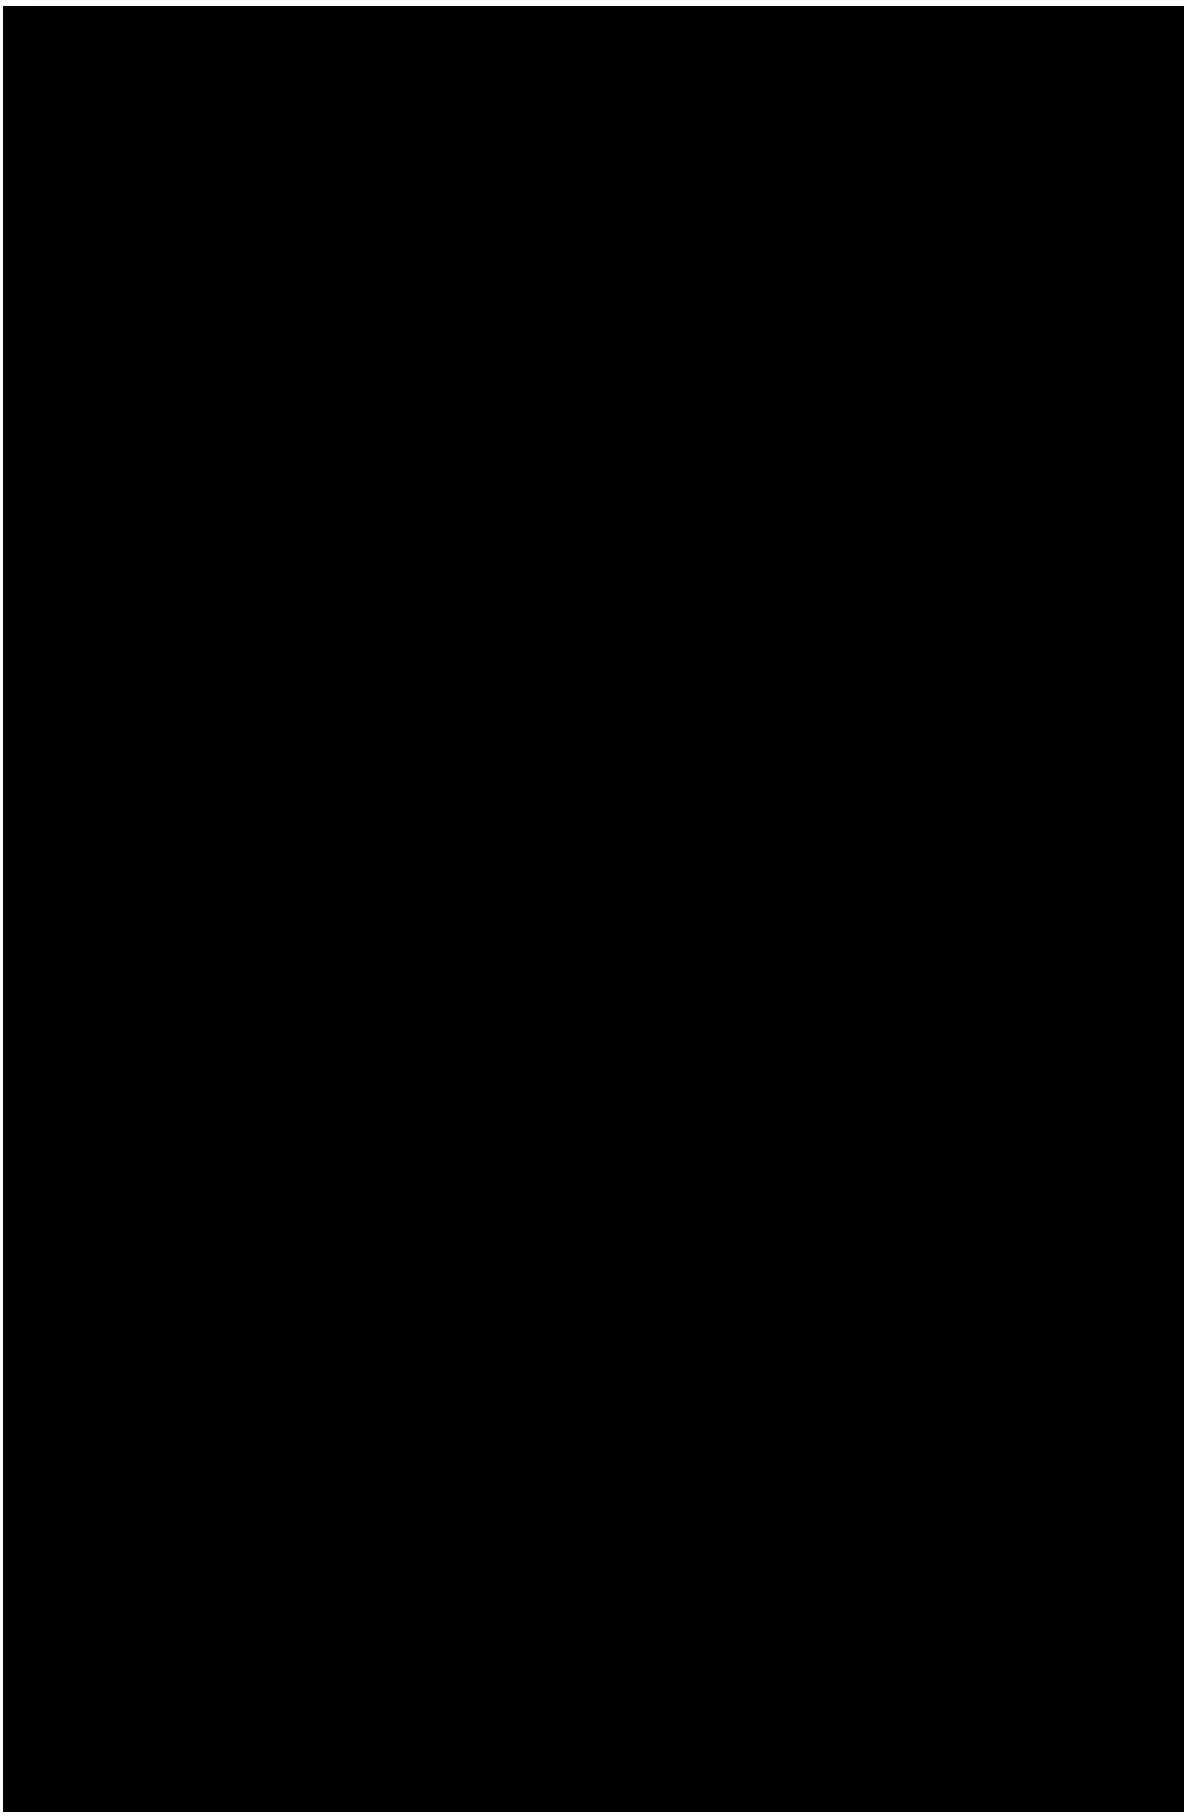


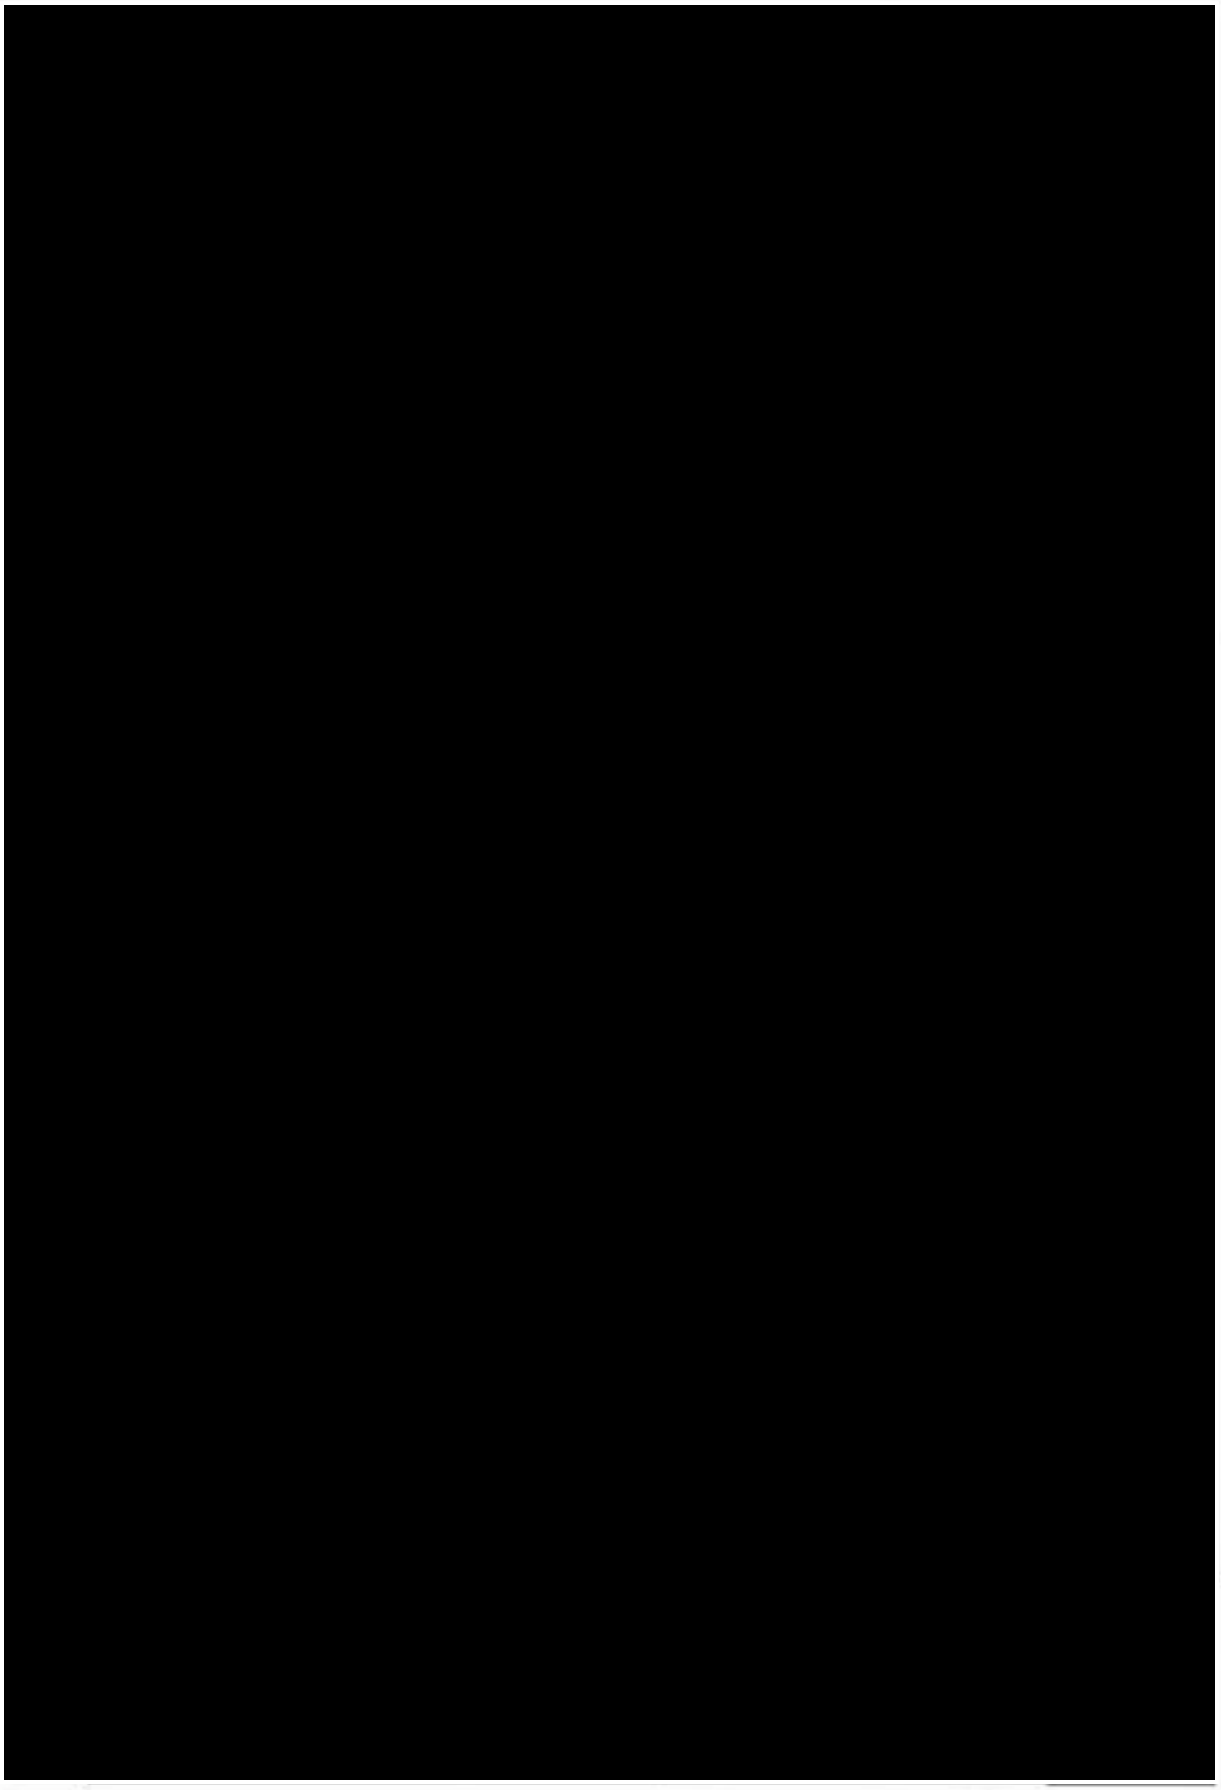


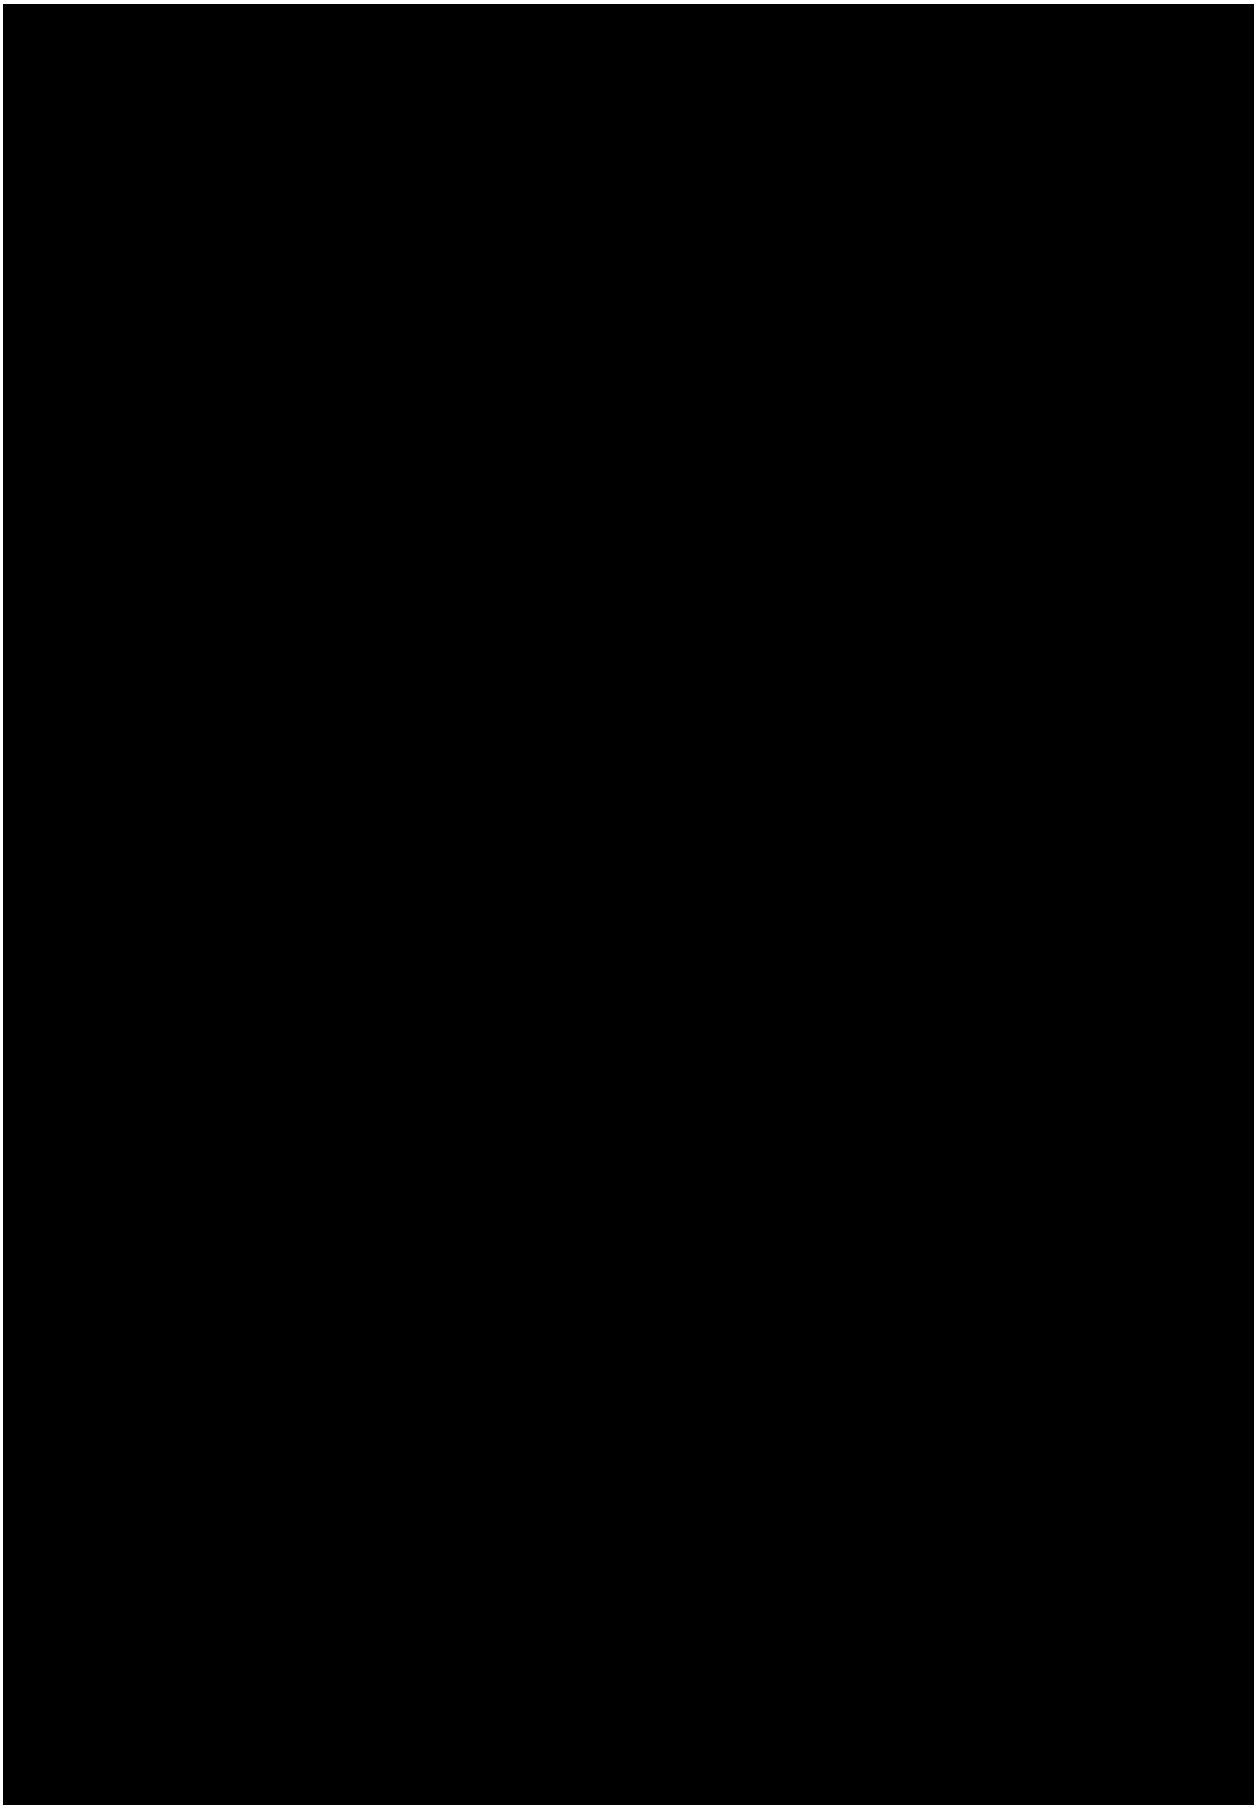


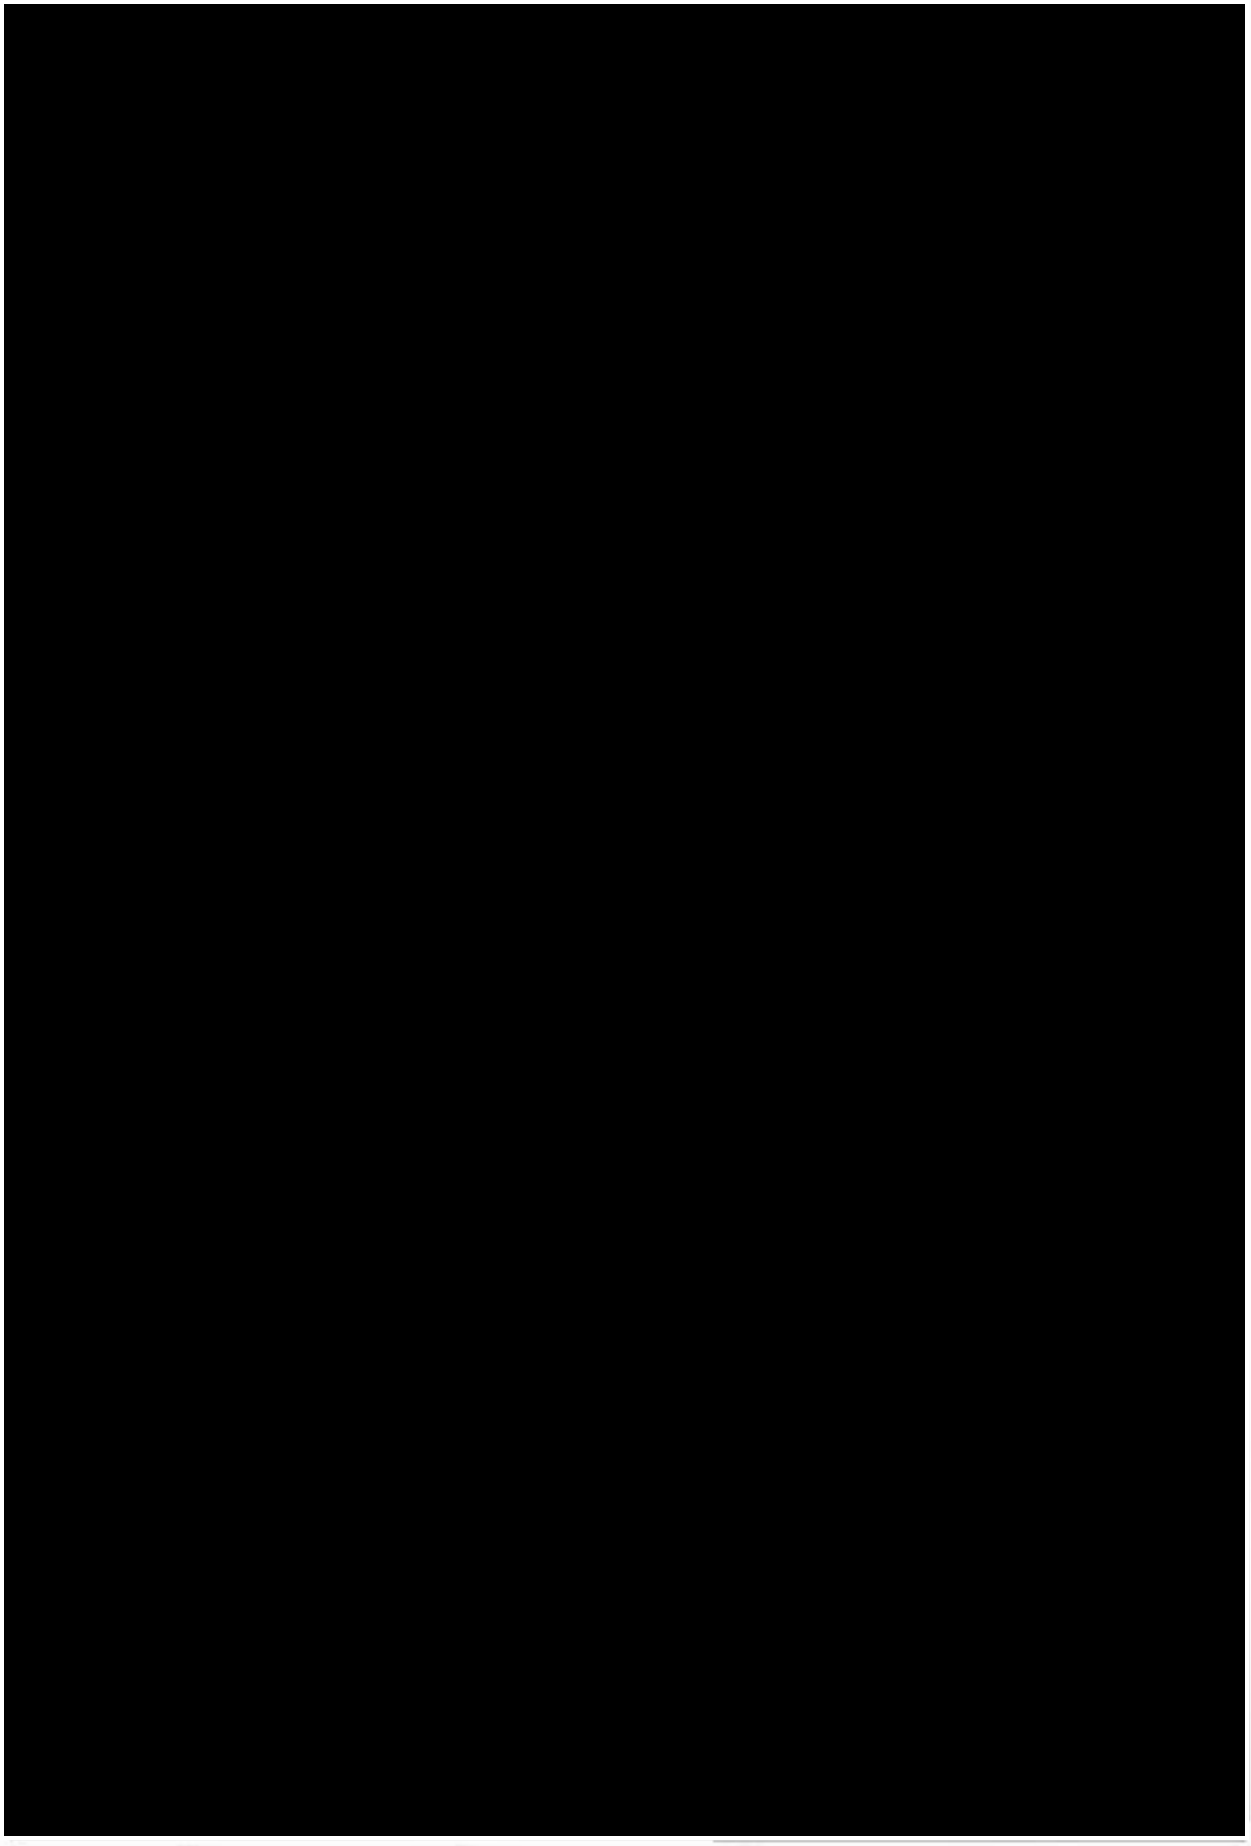


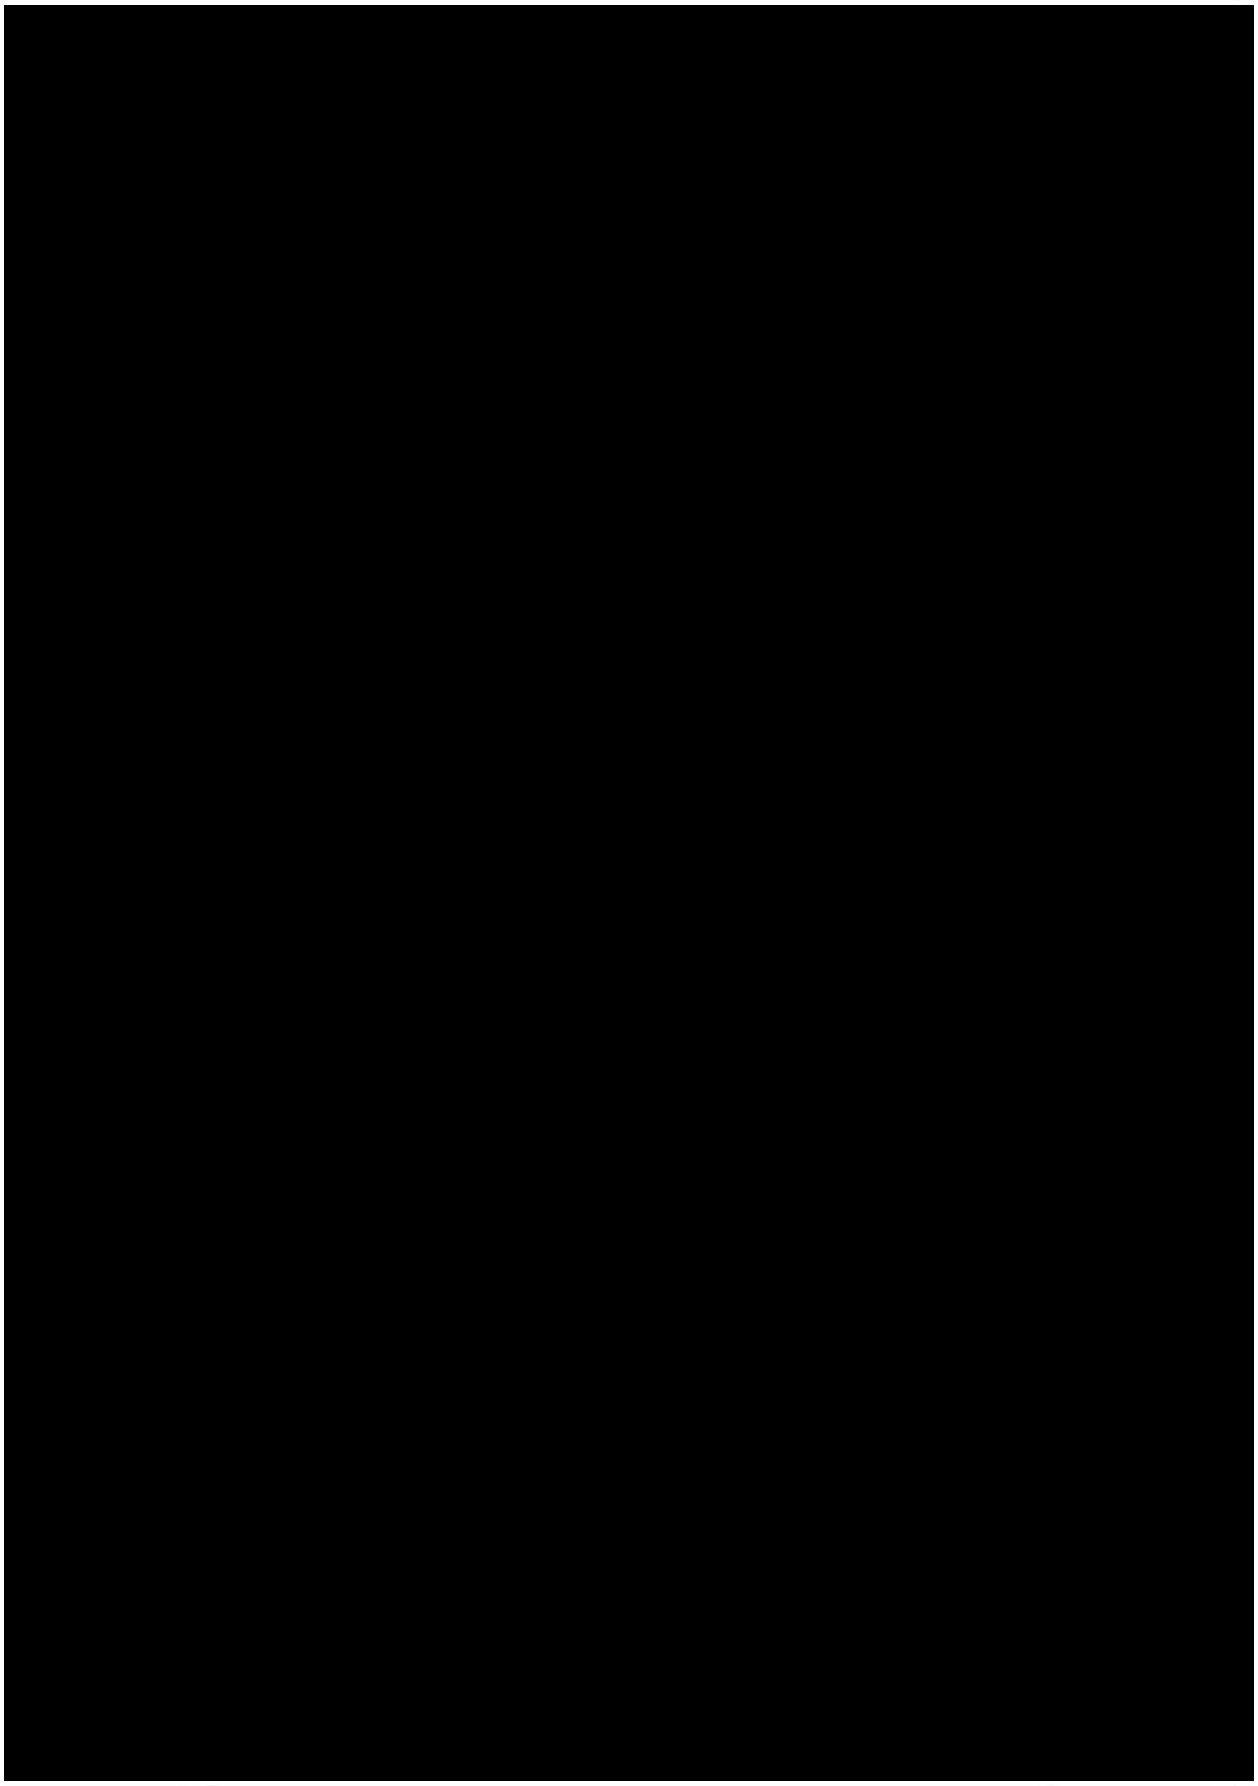


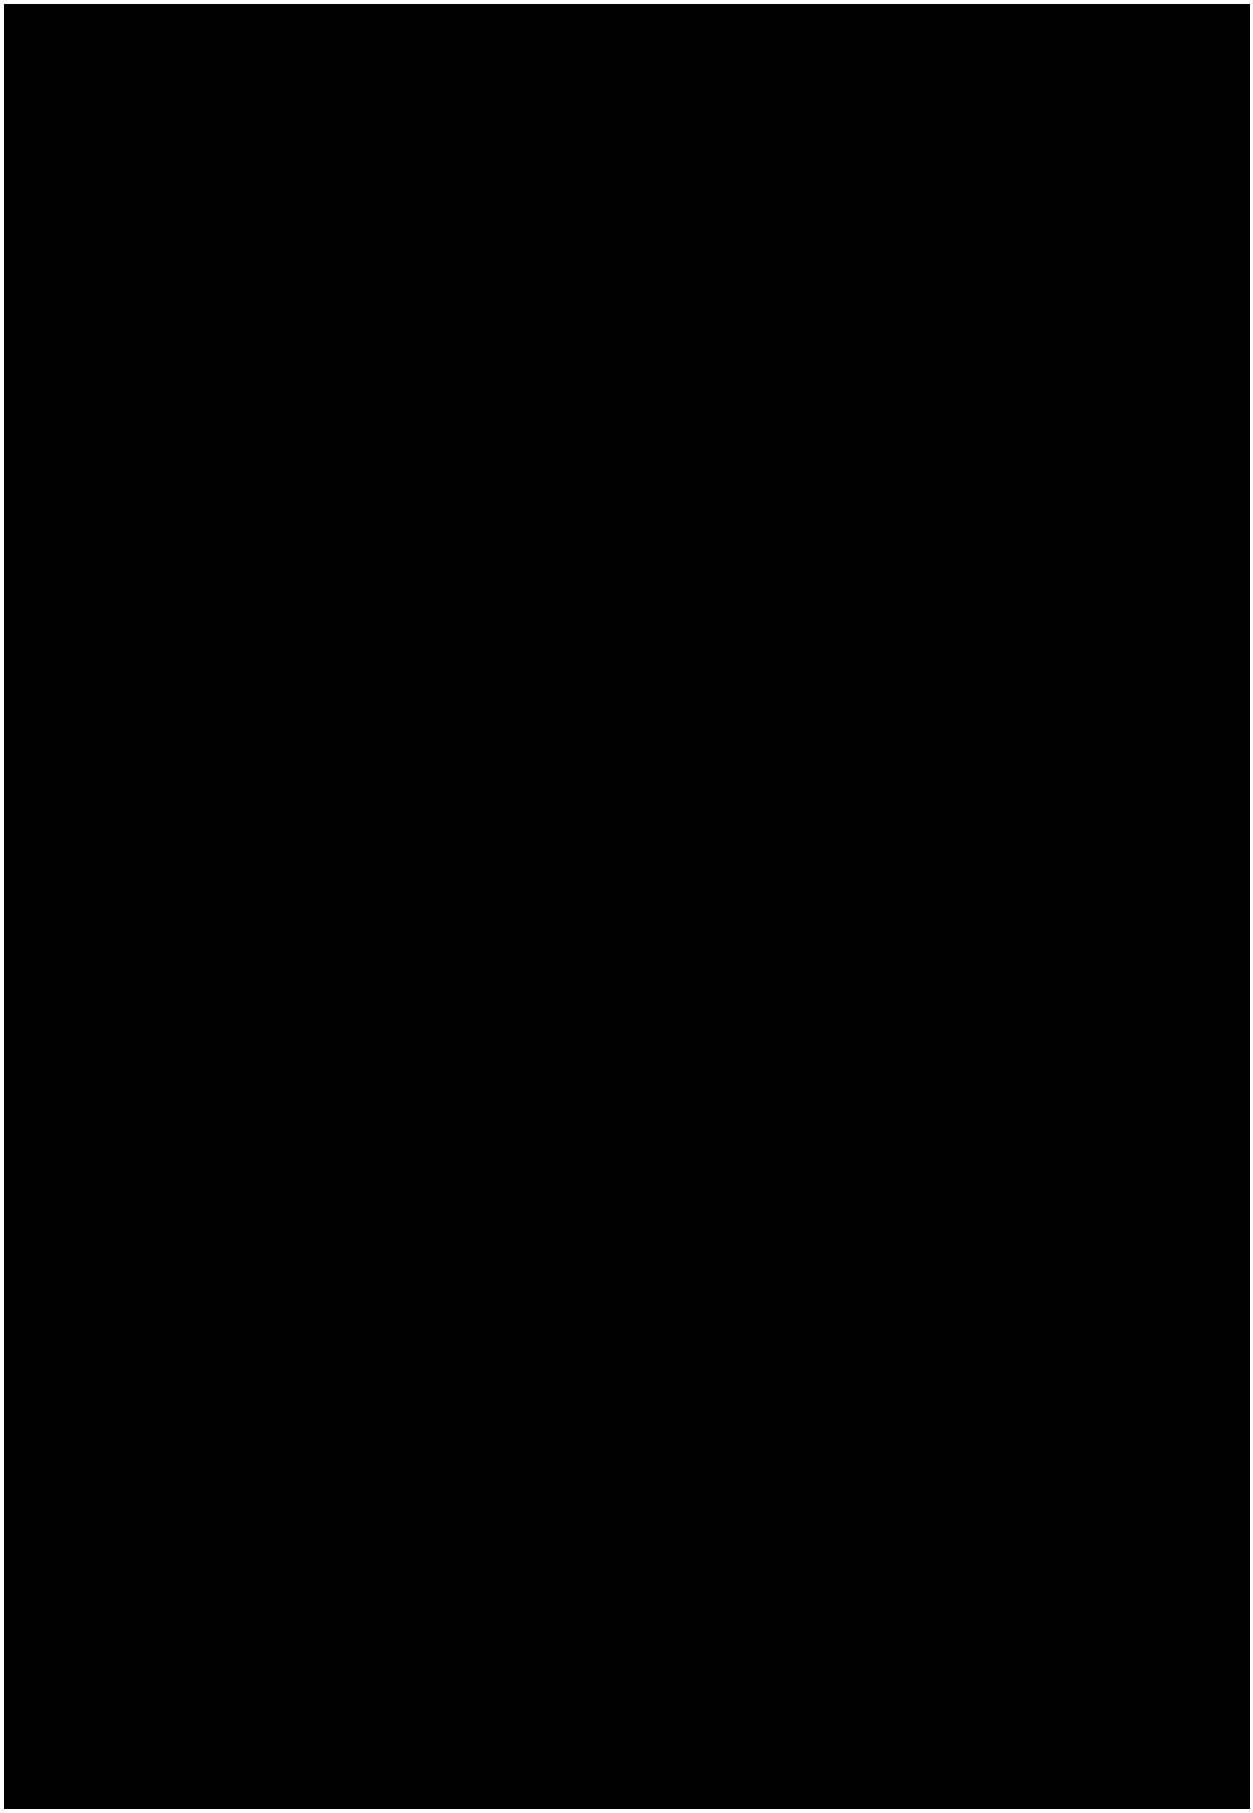


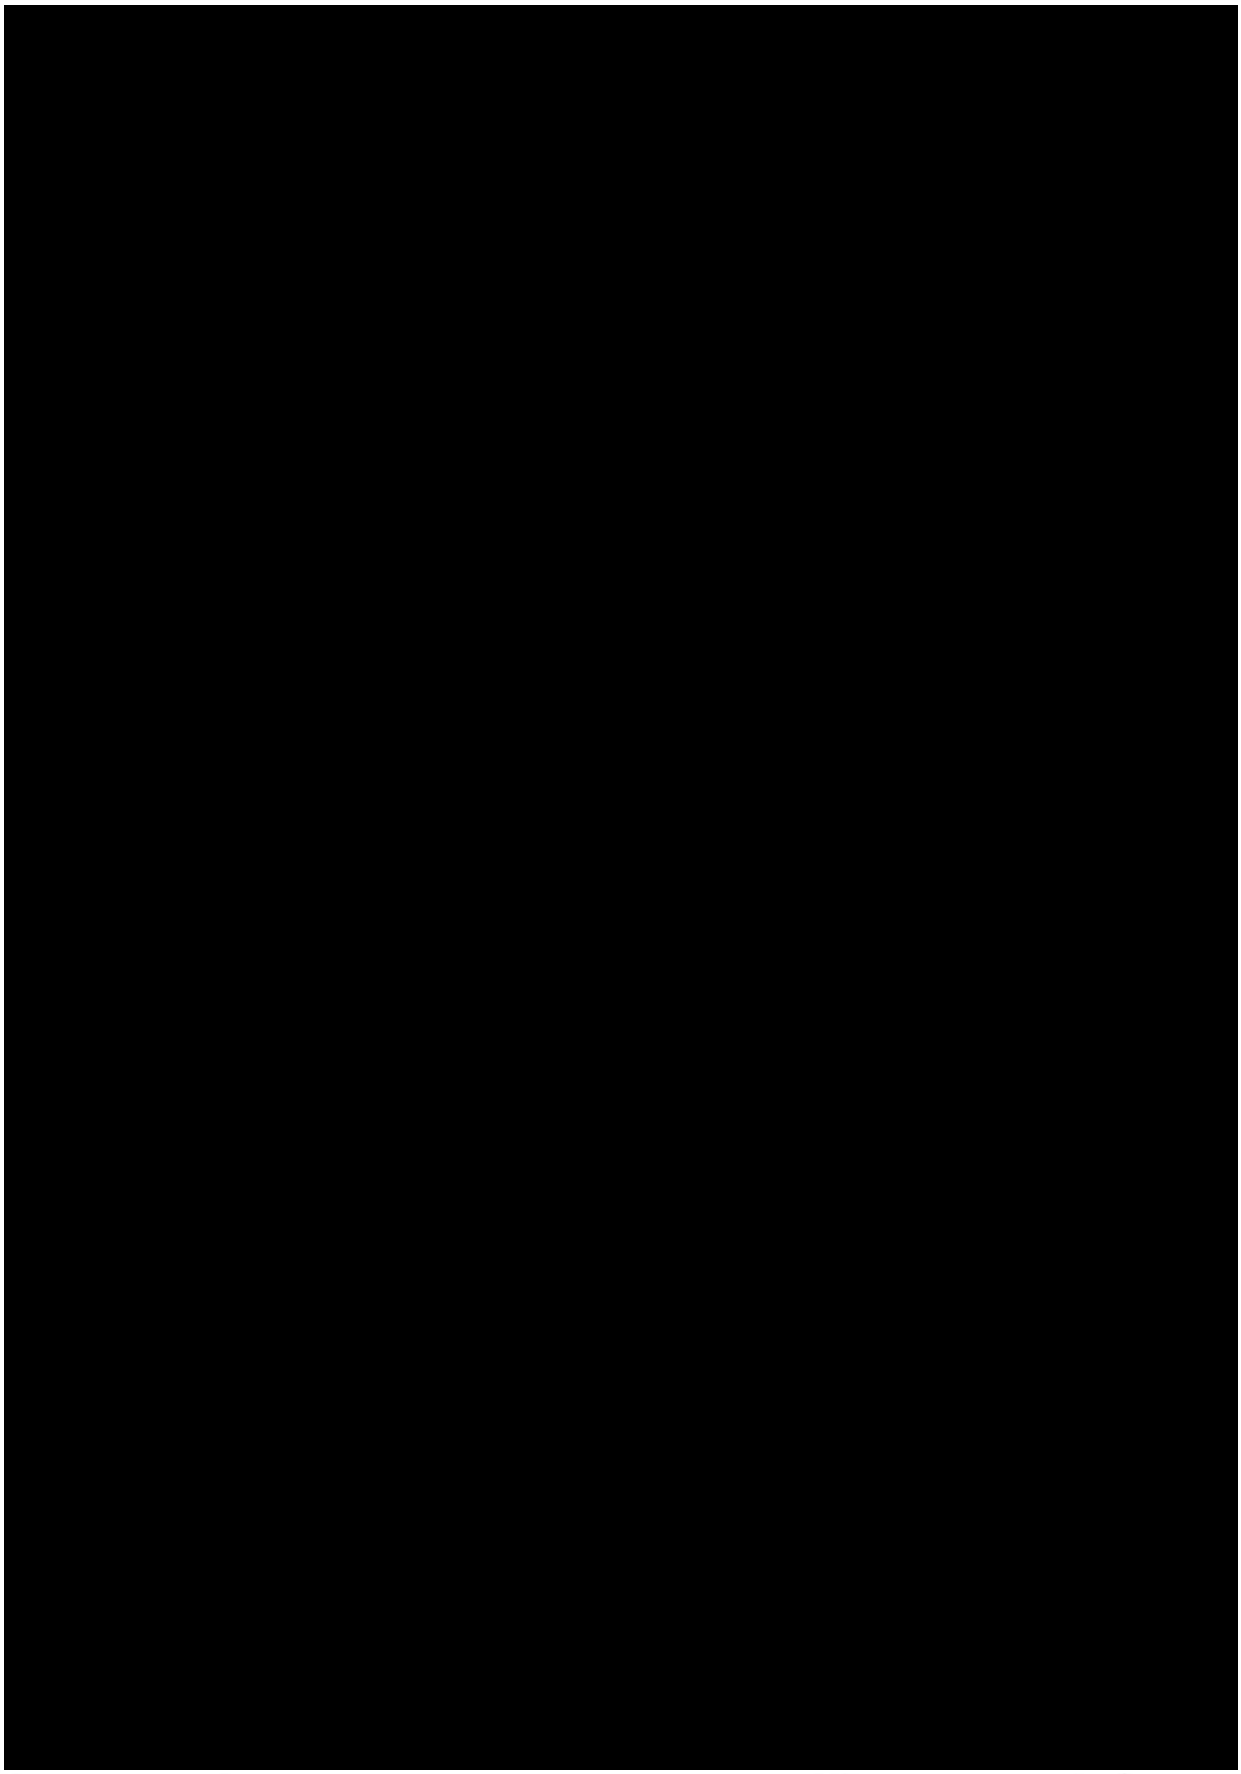


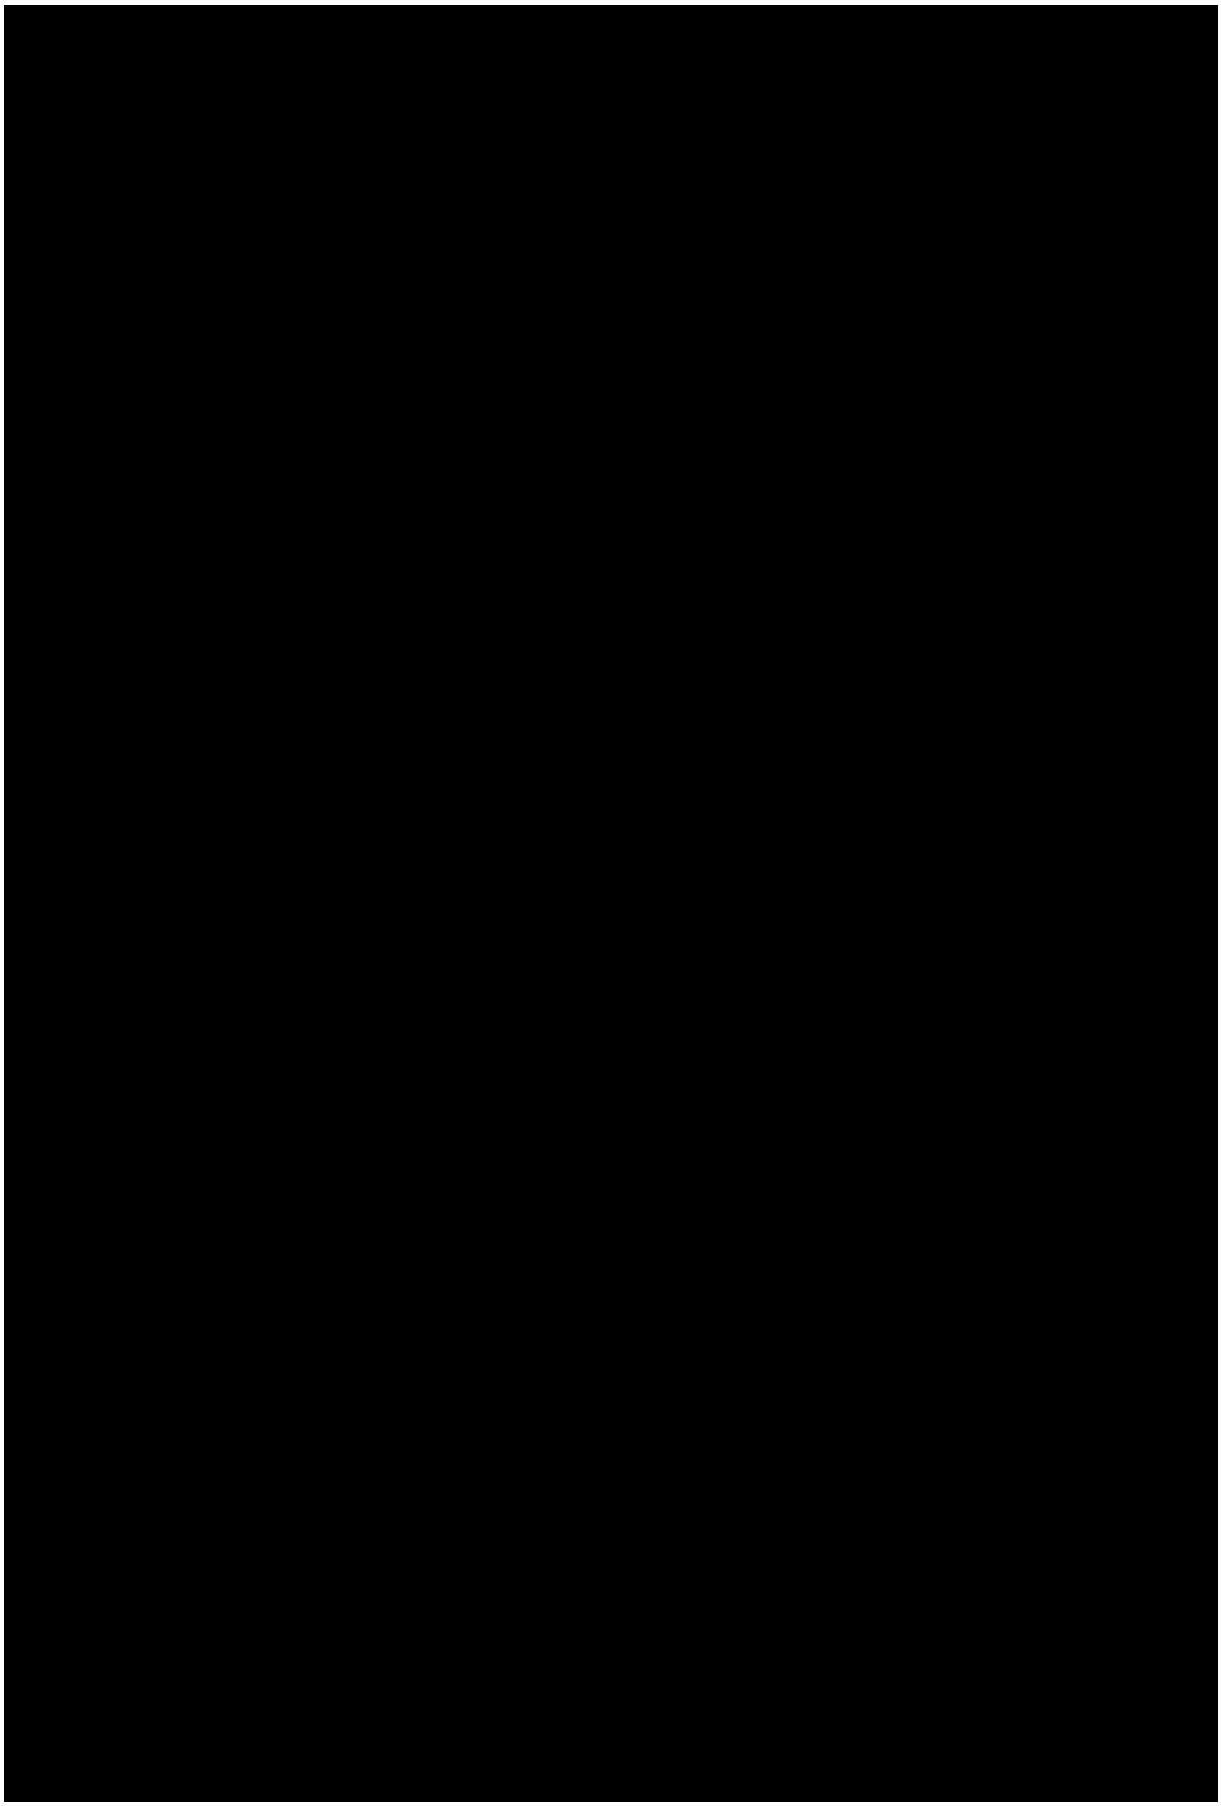




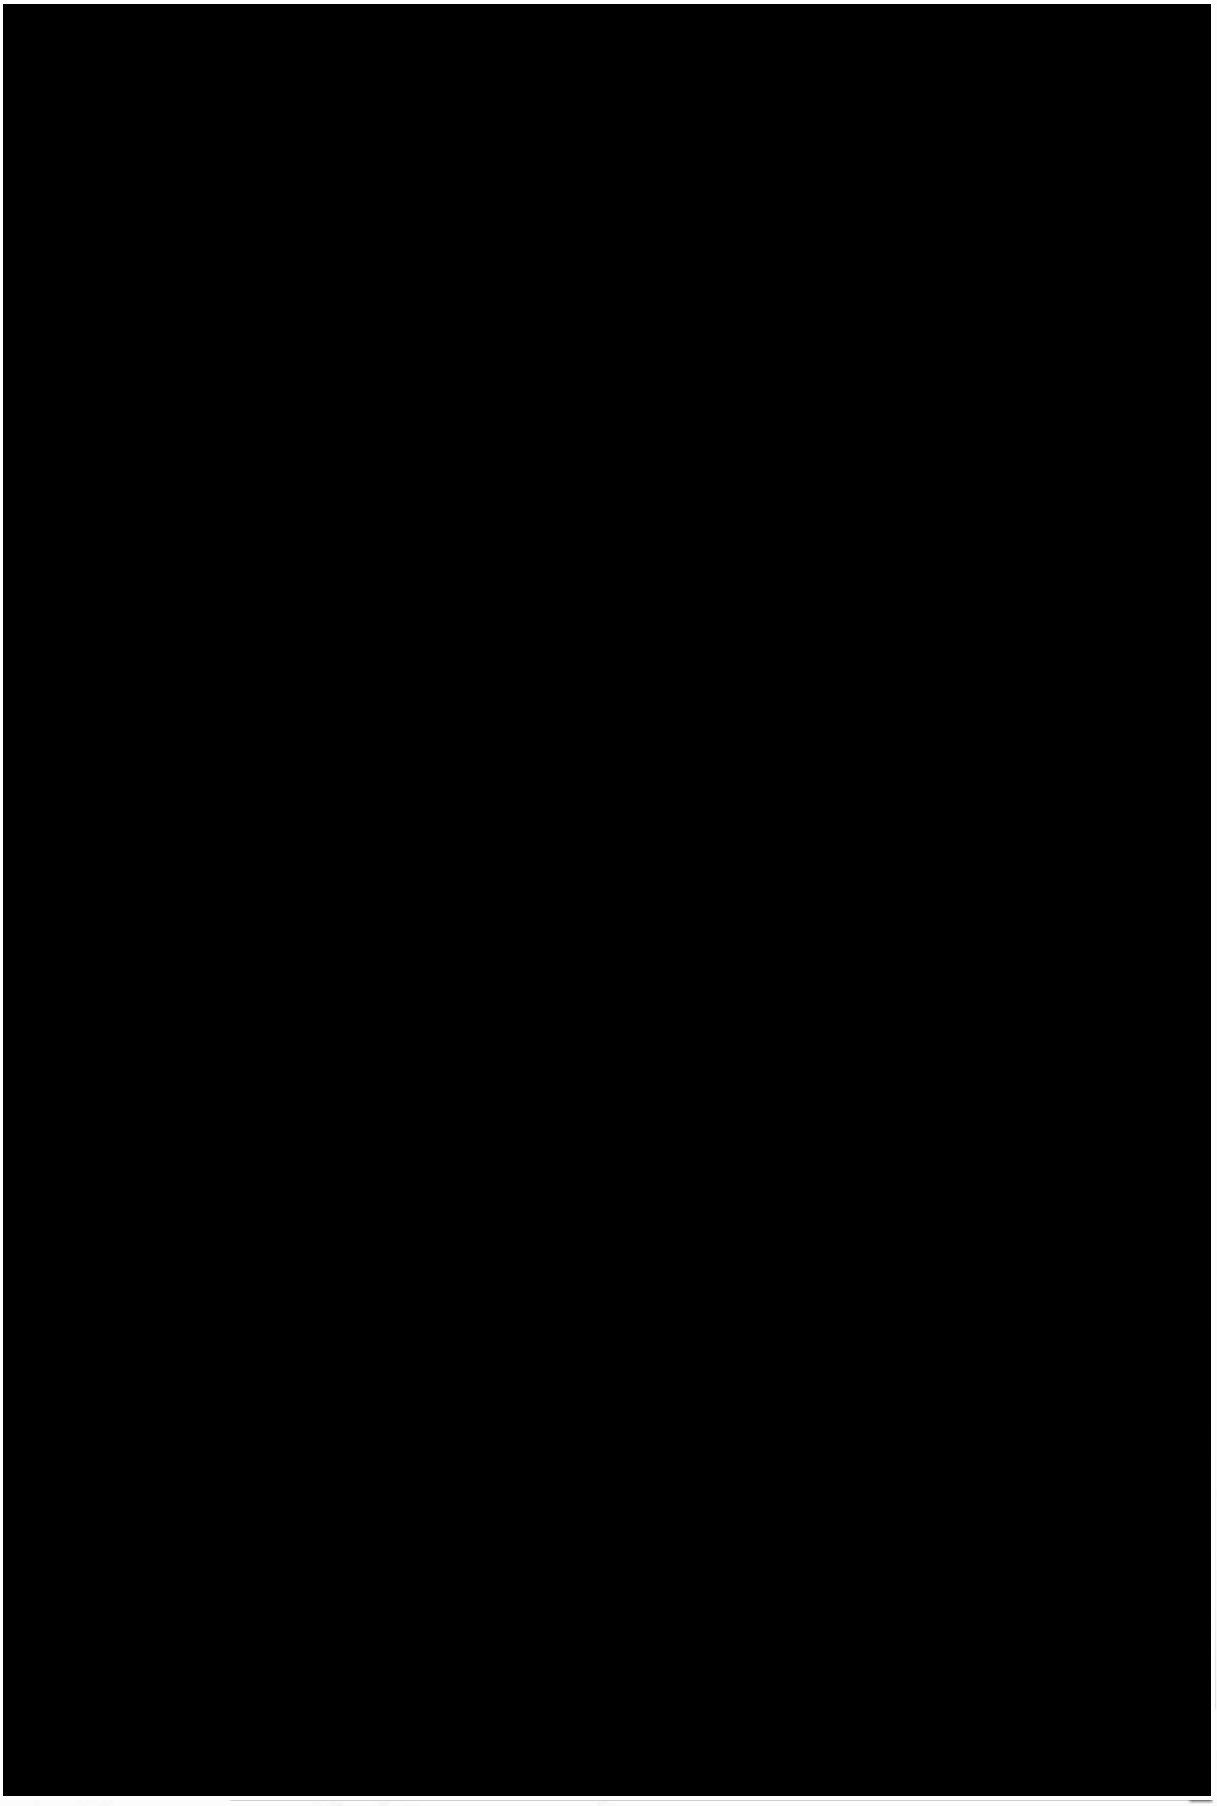


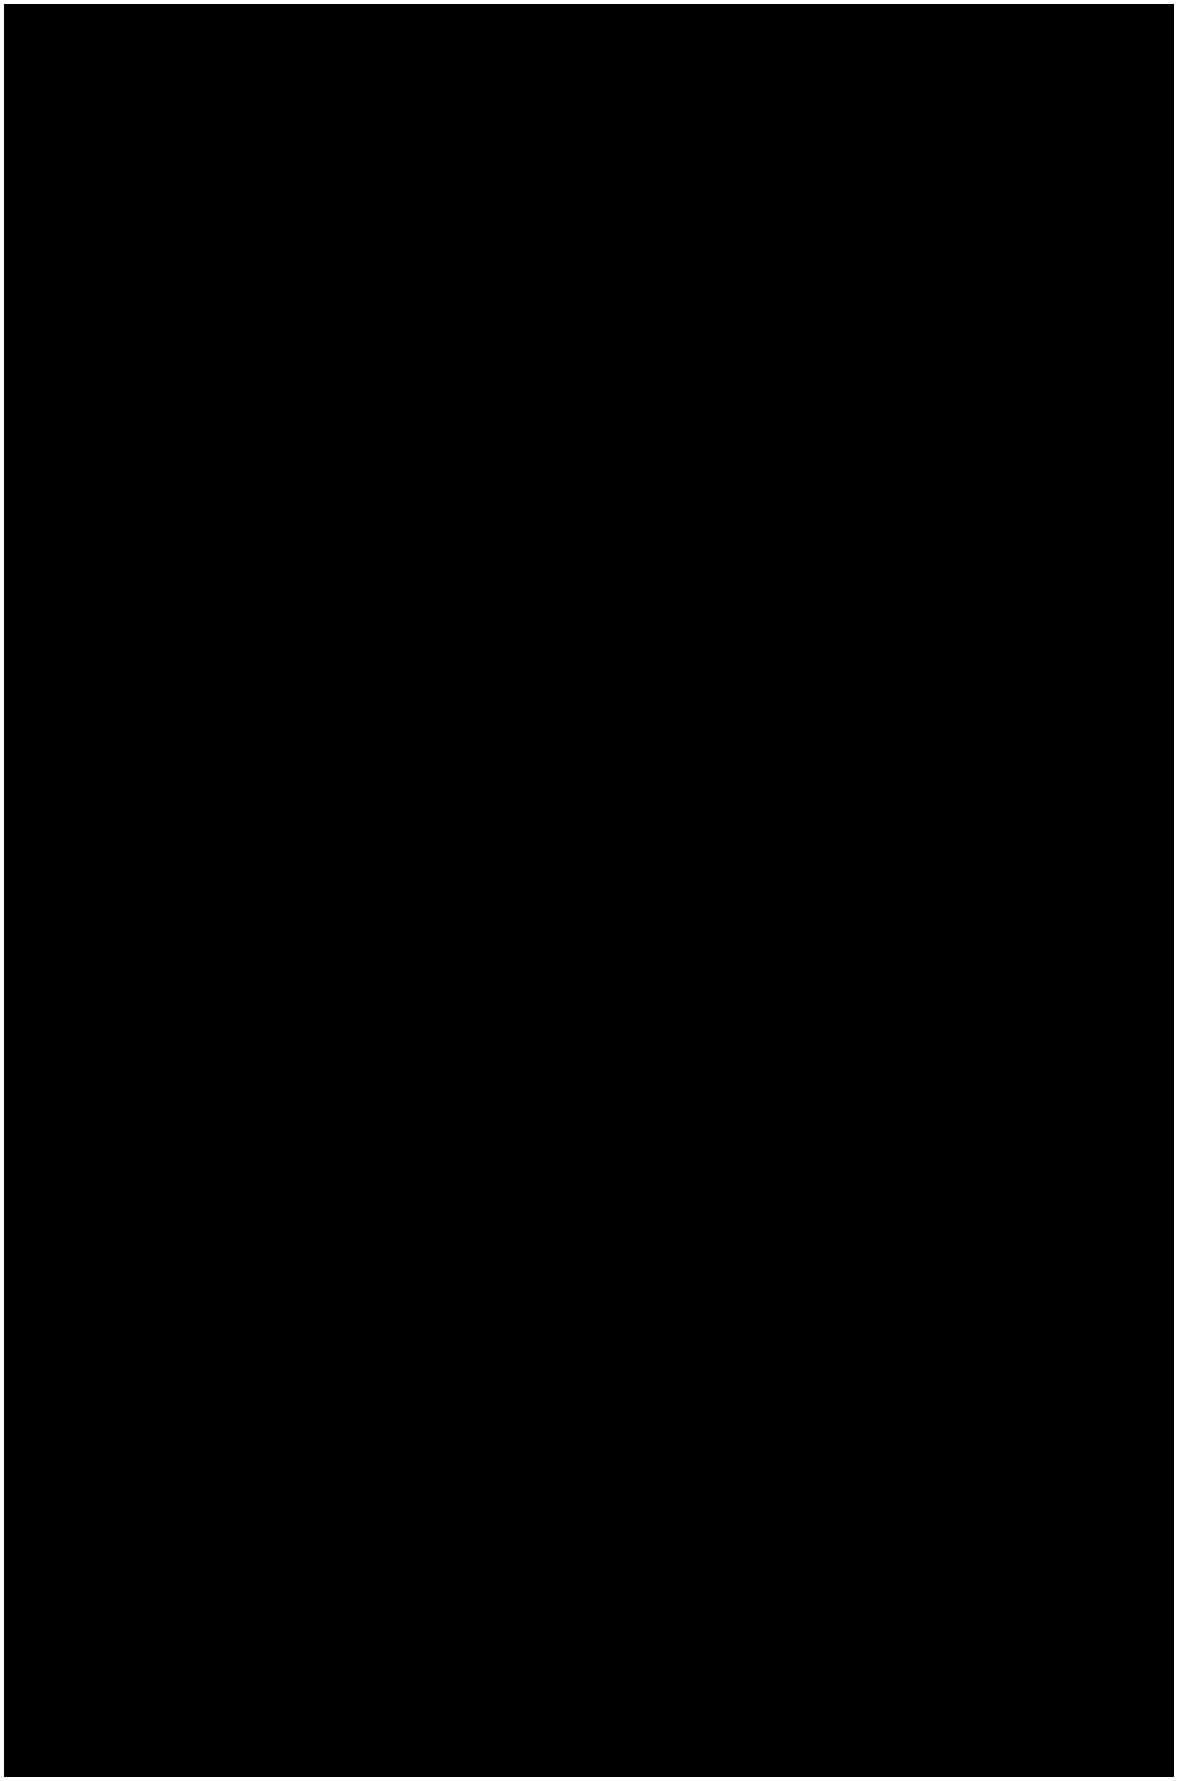


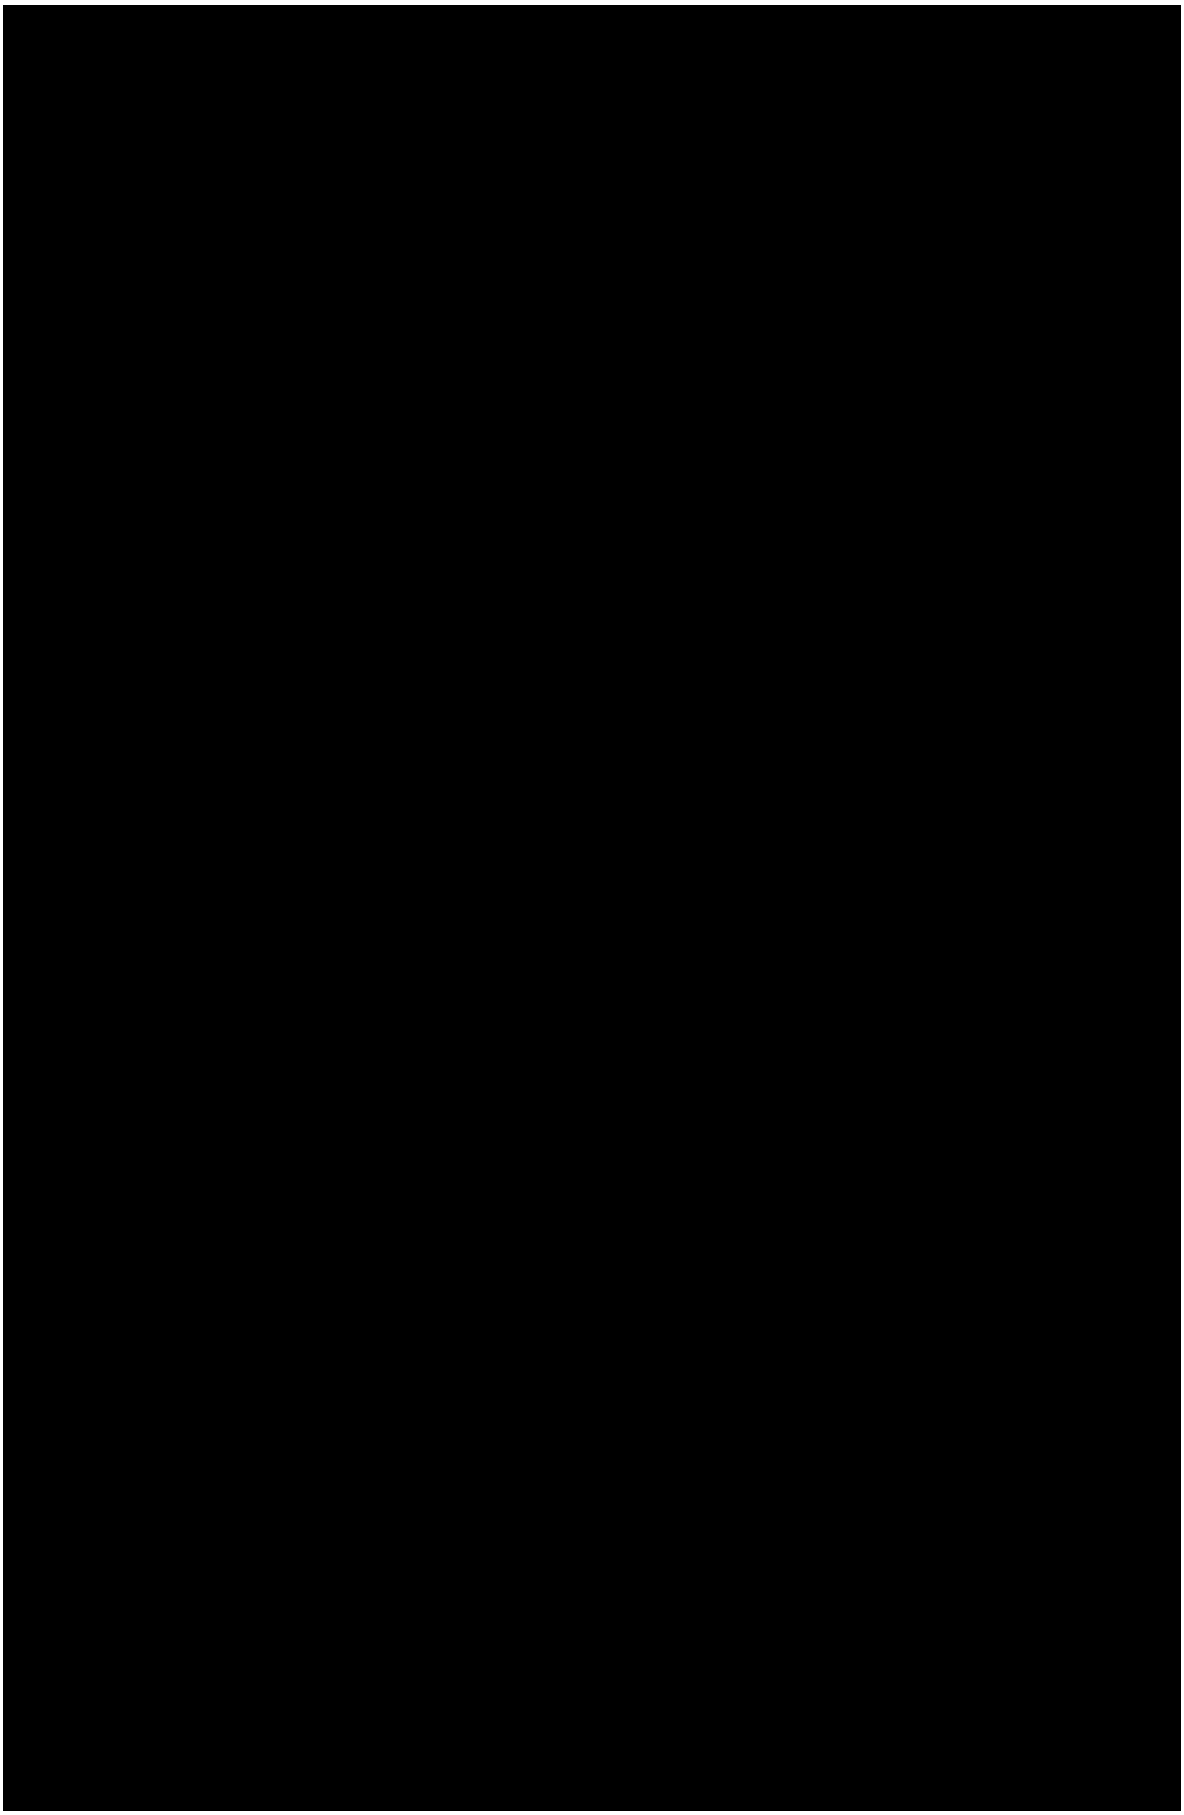


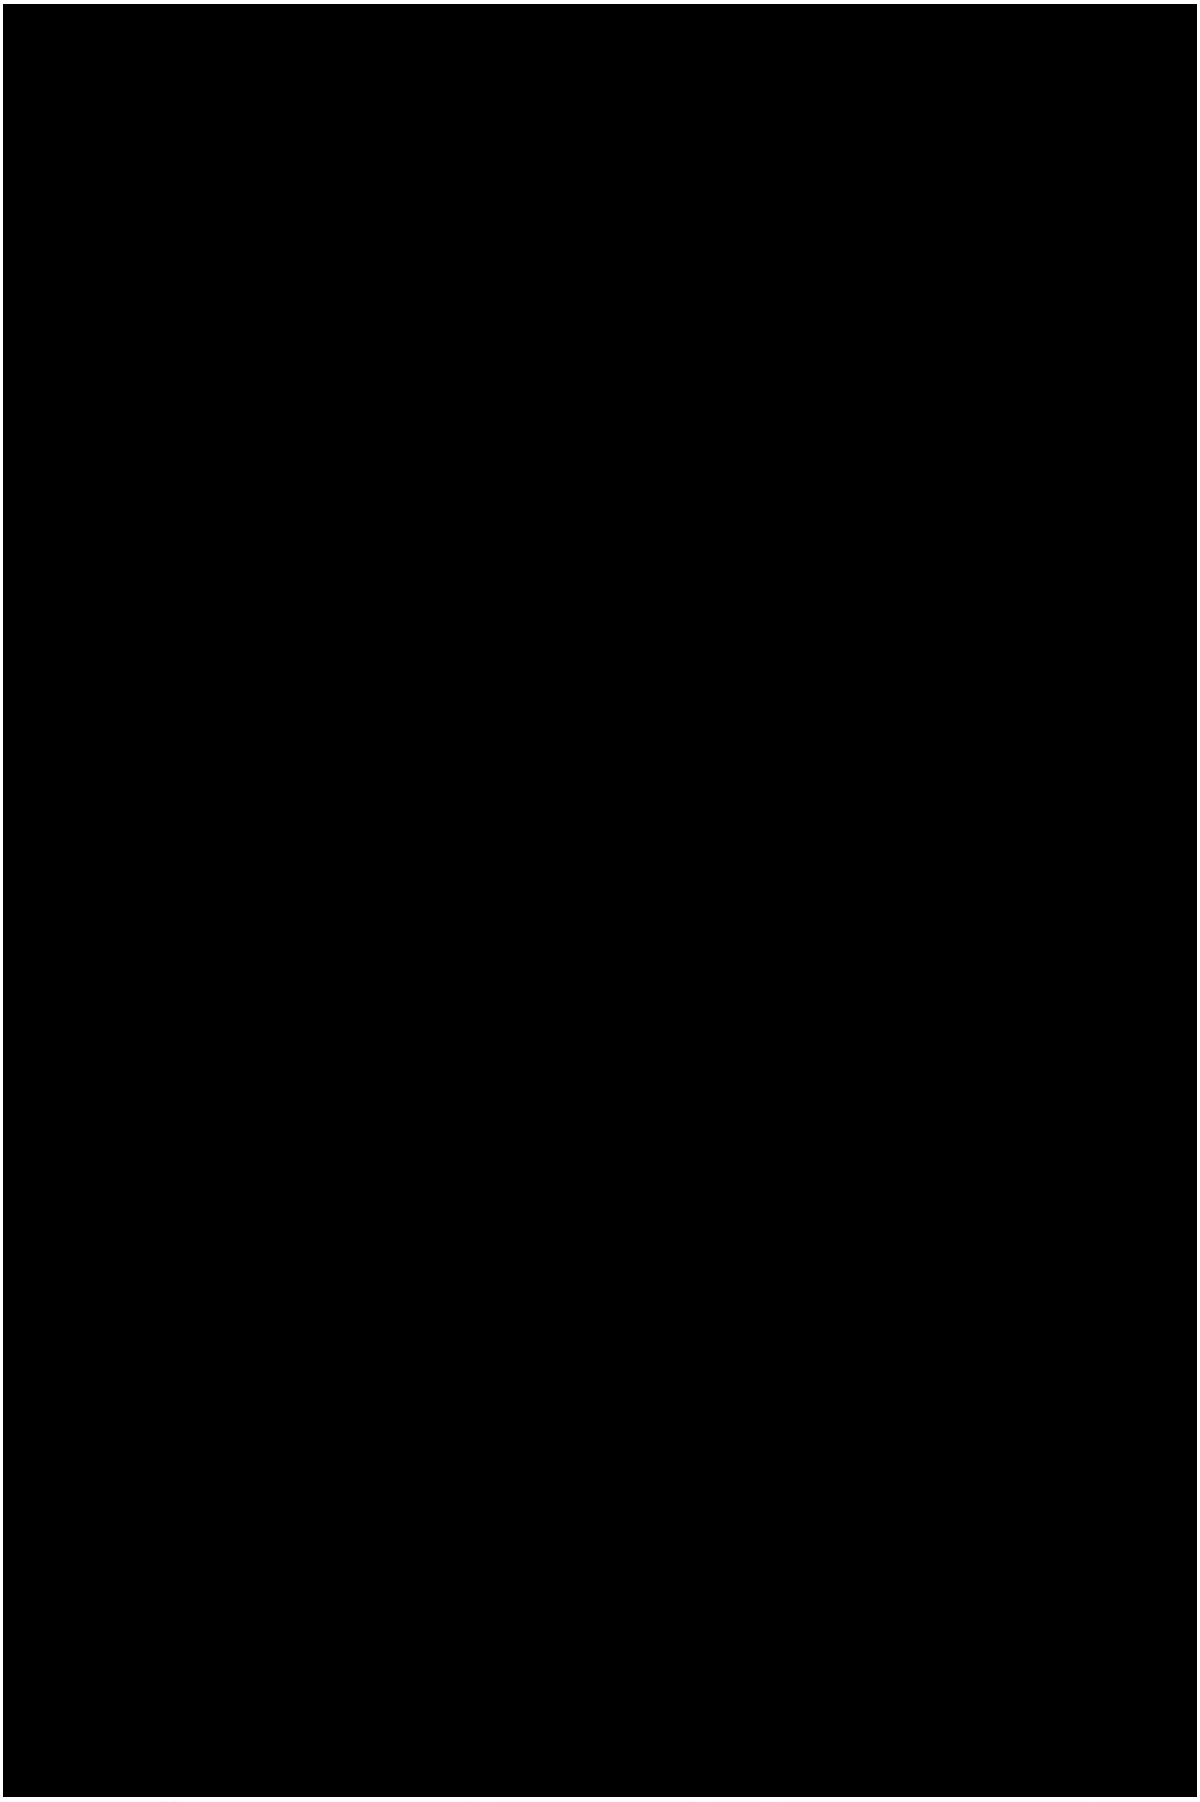


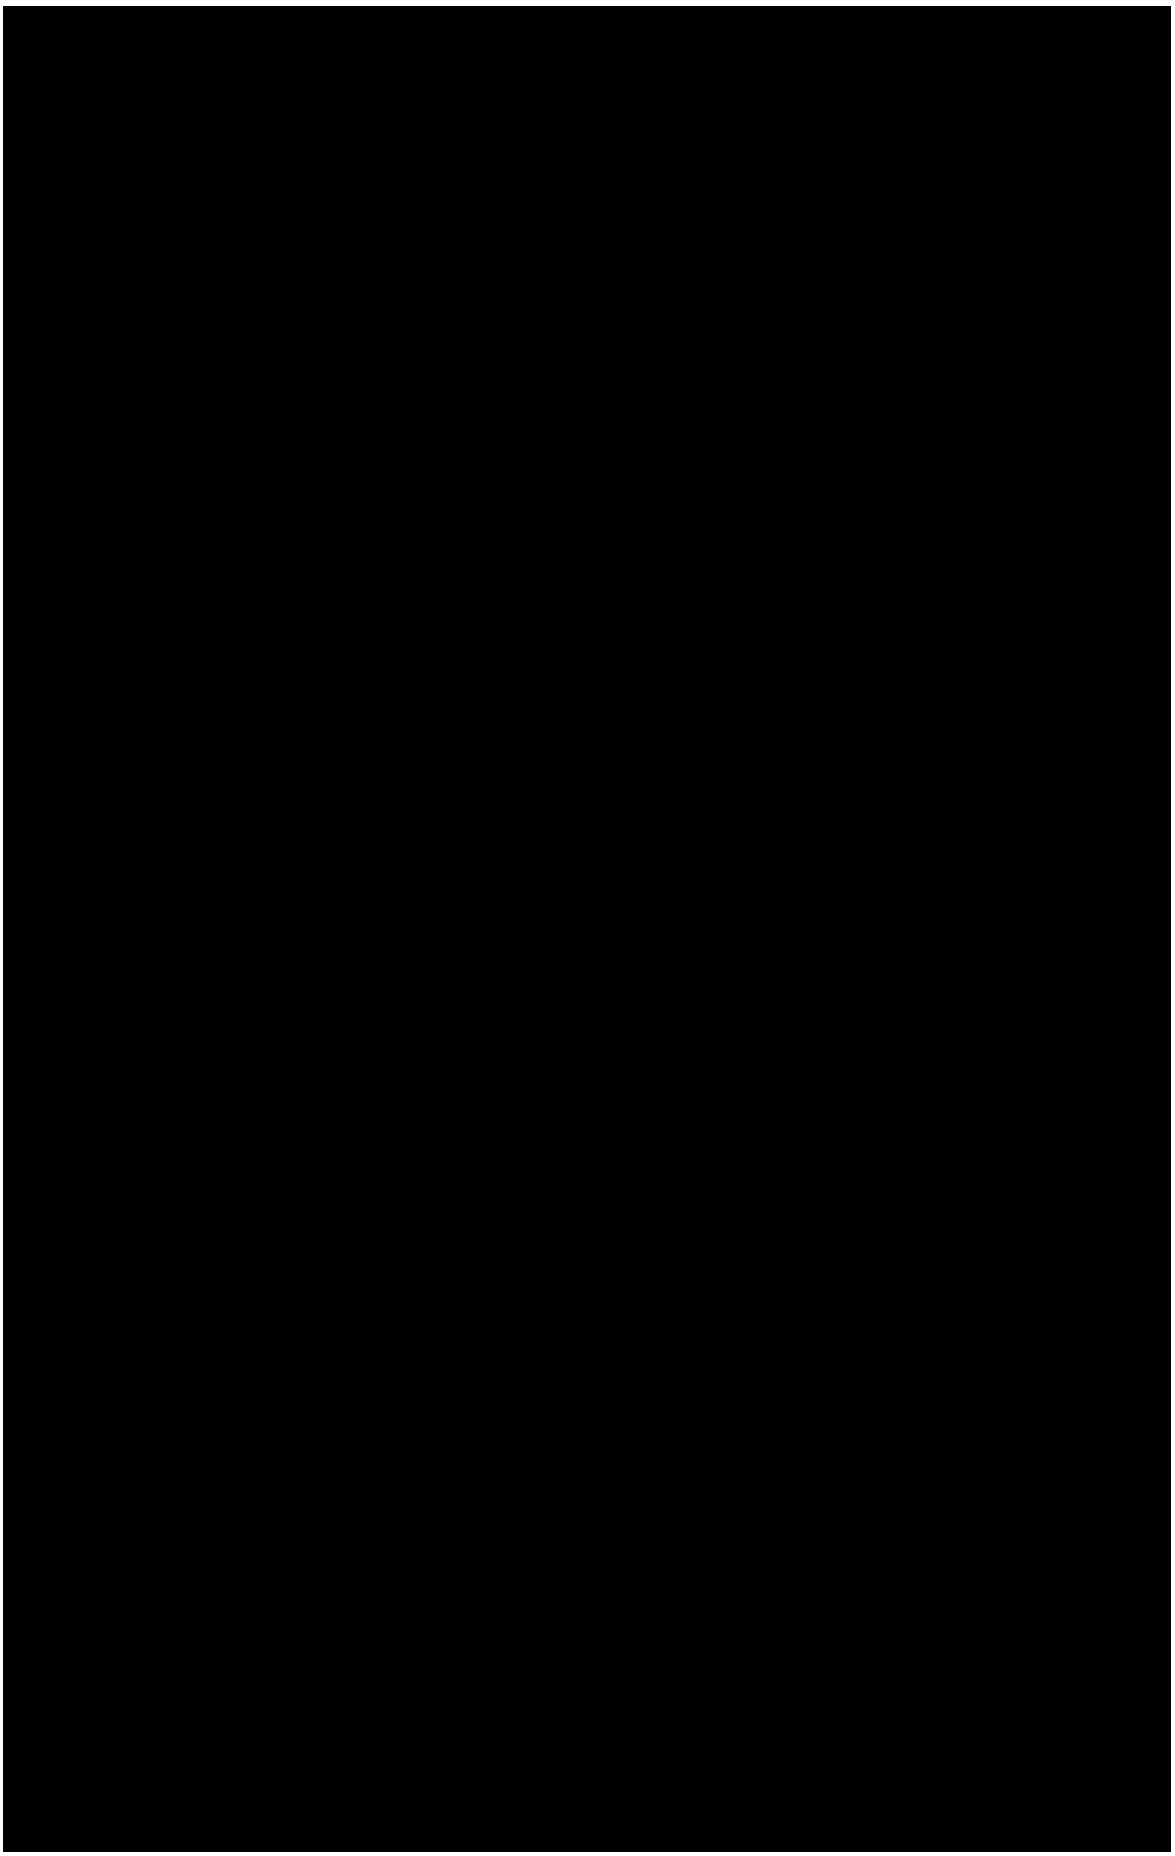
[29/04/2020, 13:08:36] Samantha Sacramento: The report is shocking reading on the face of it I, but if you analyse it deeper it's not that bad, and it's has easy solutions

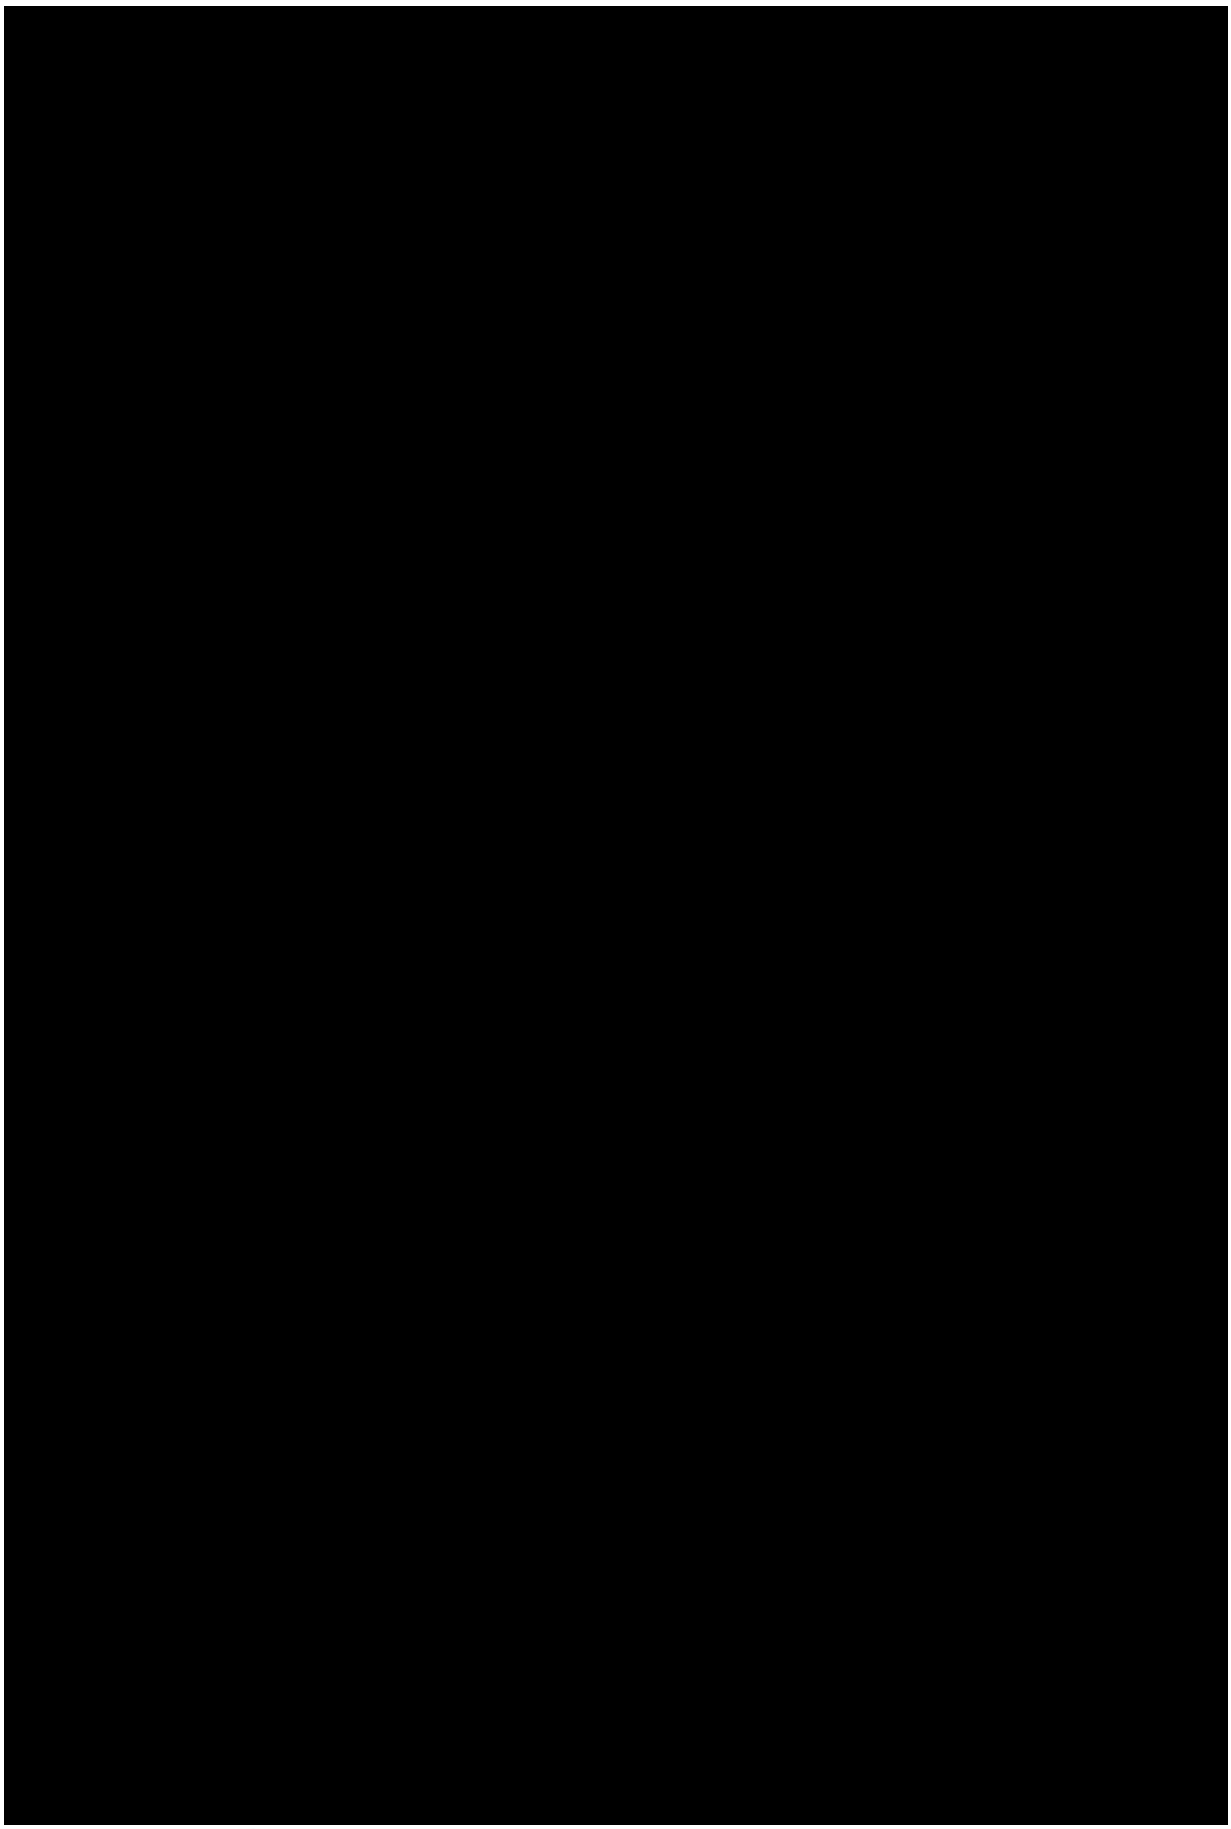


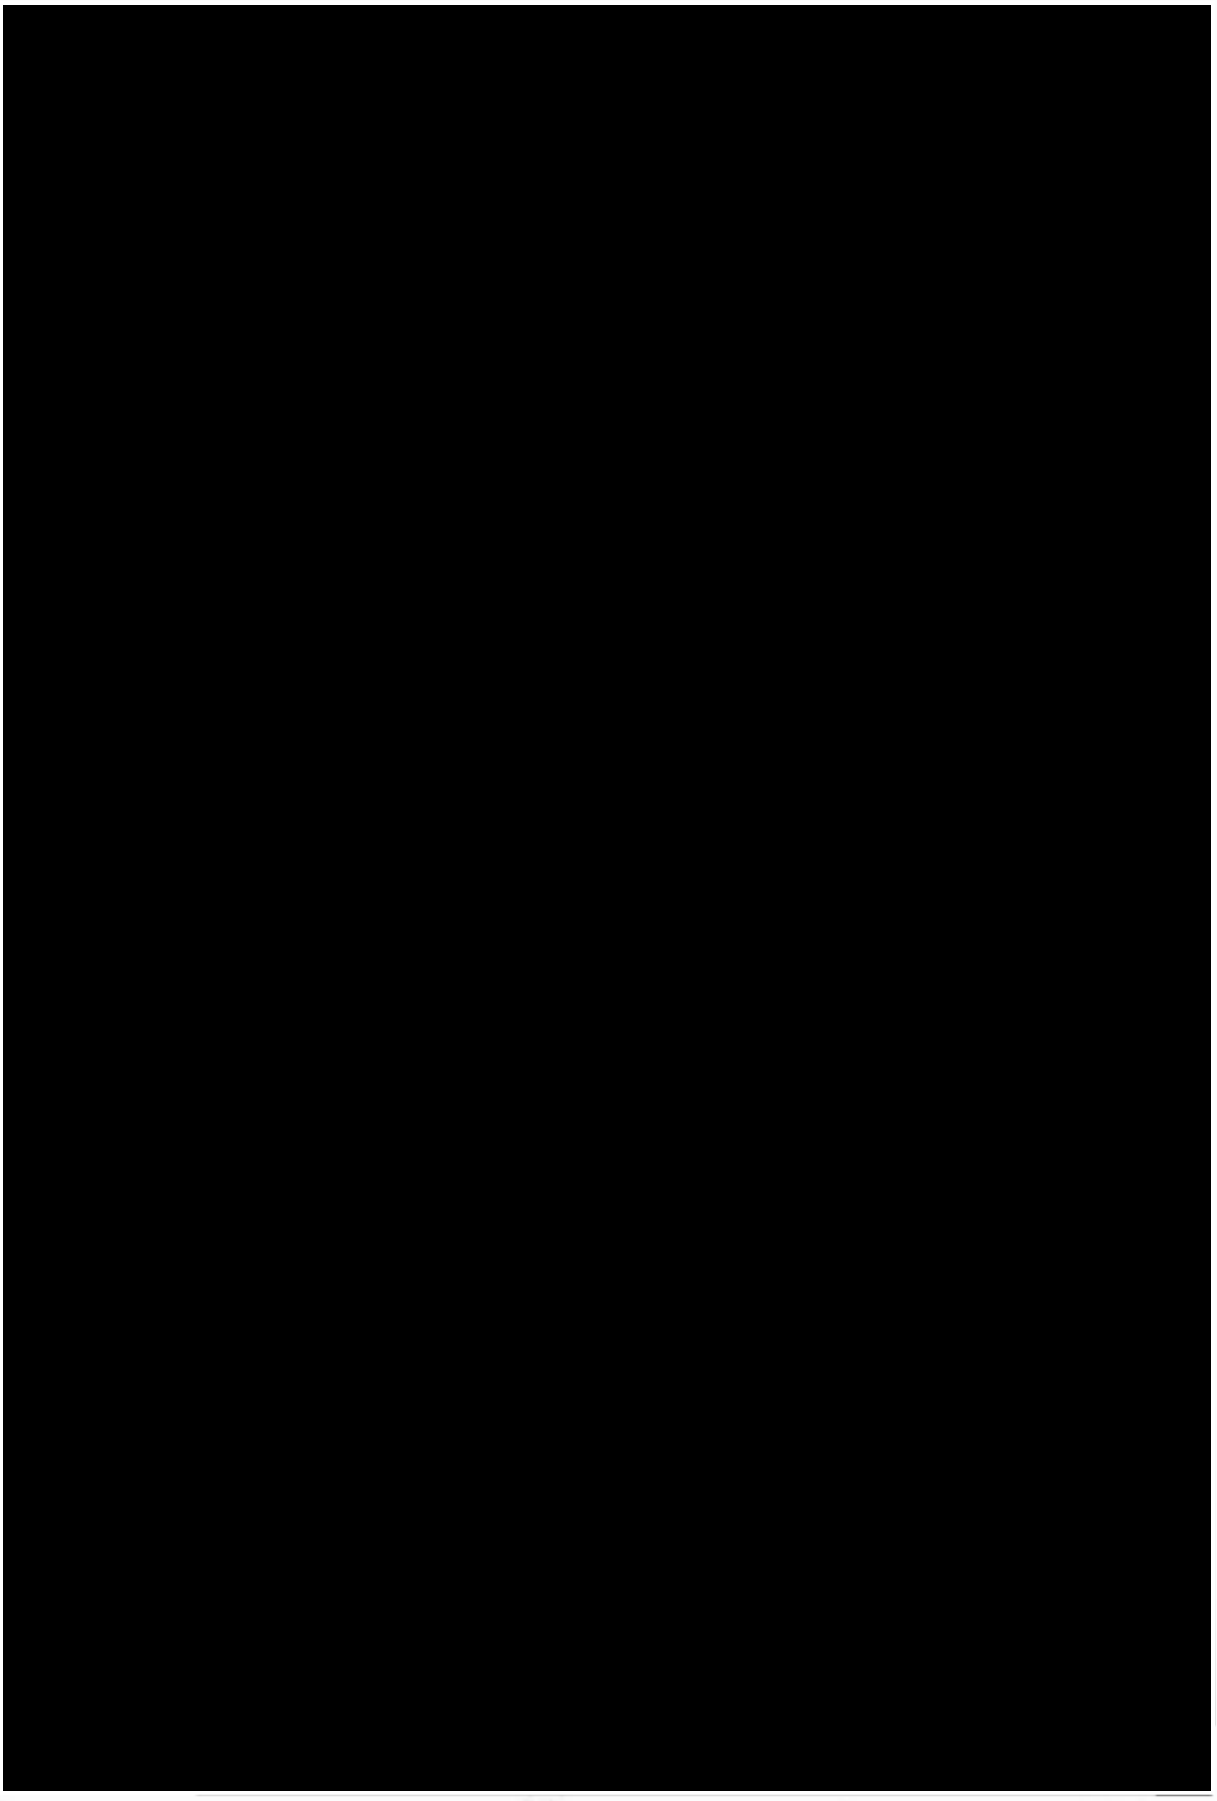


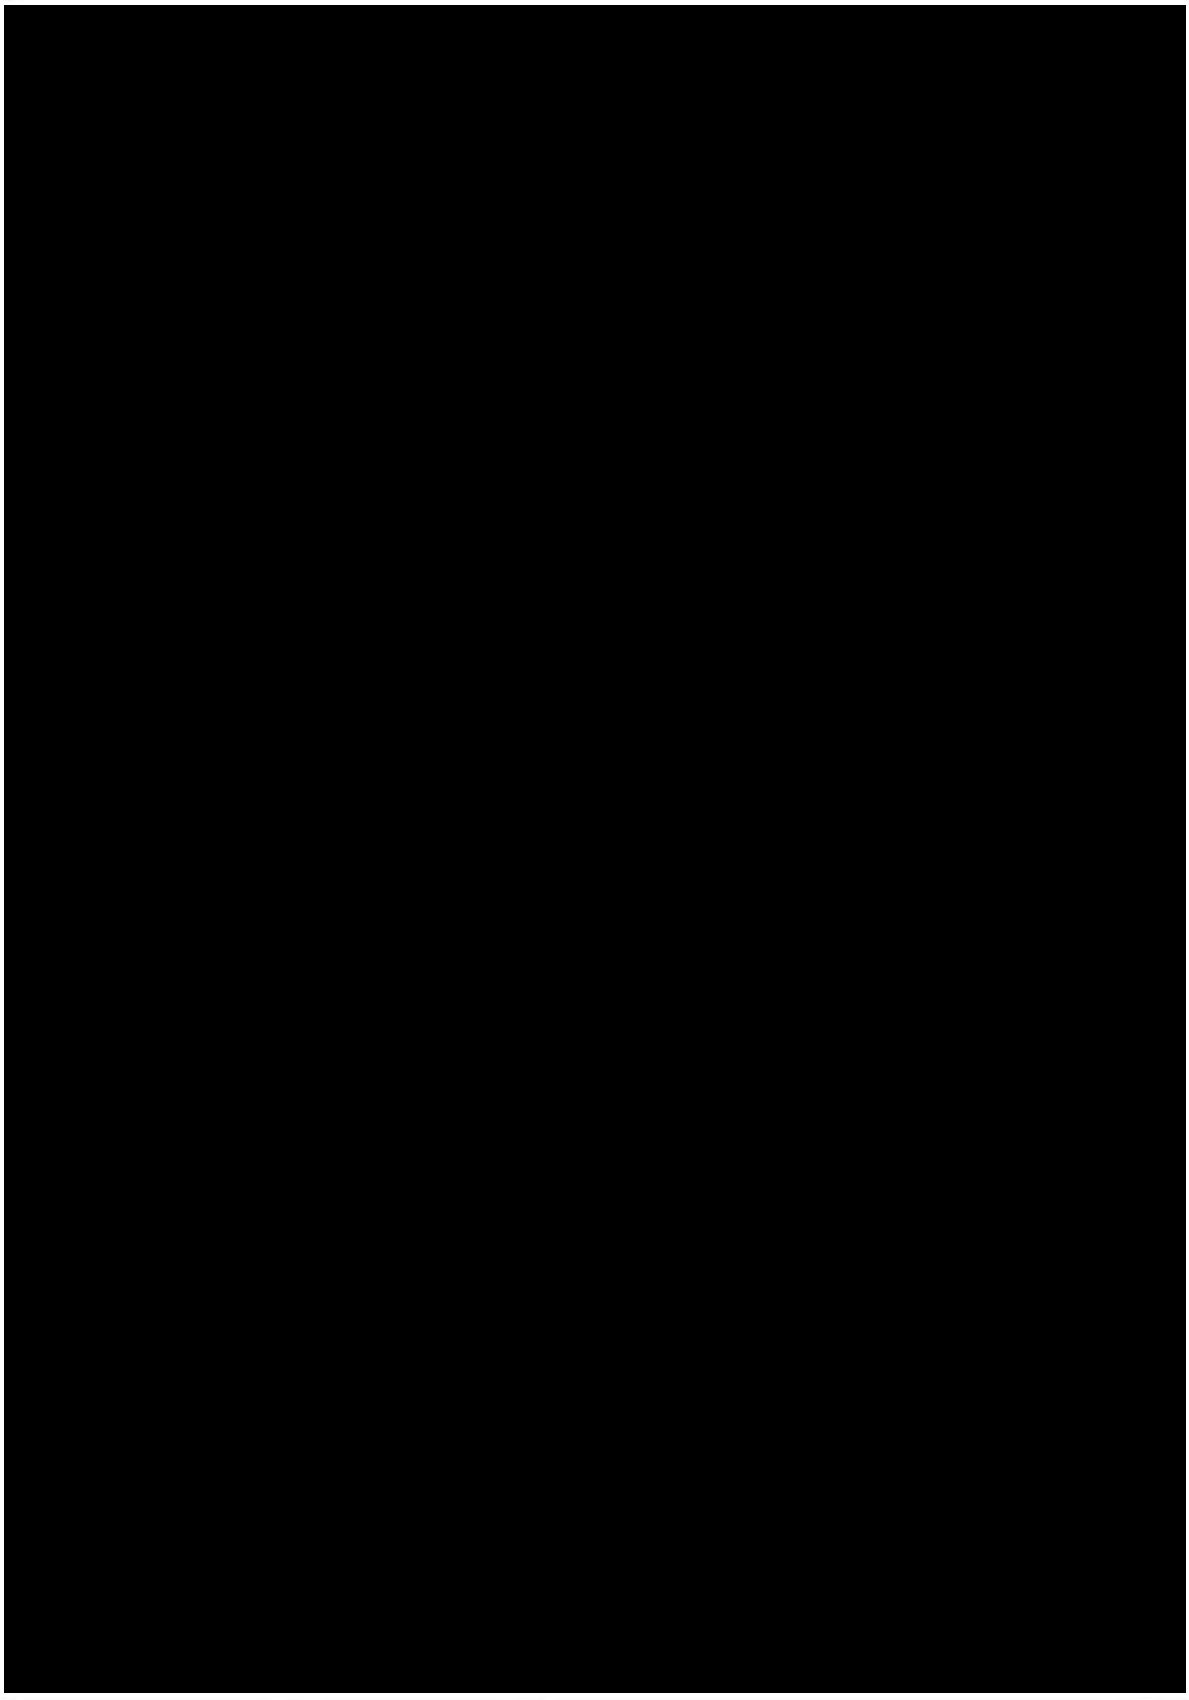


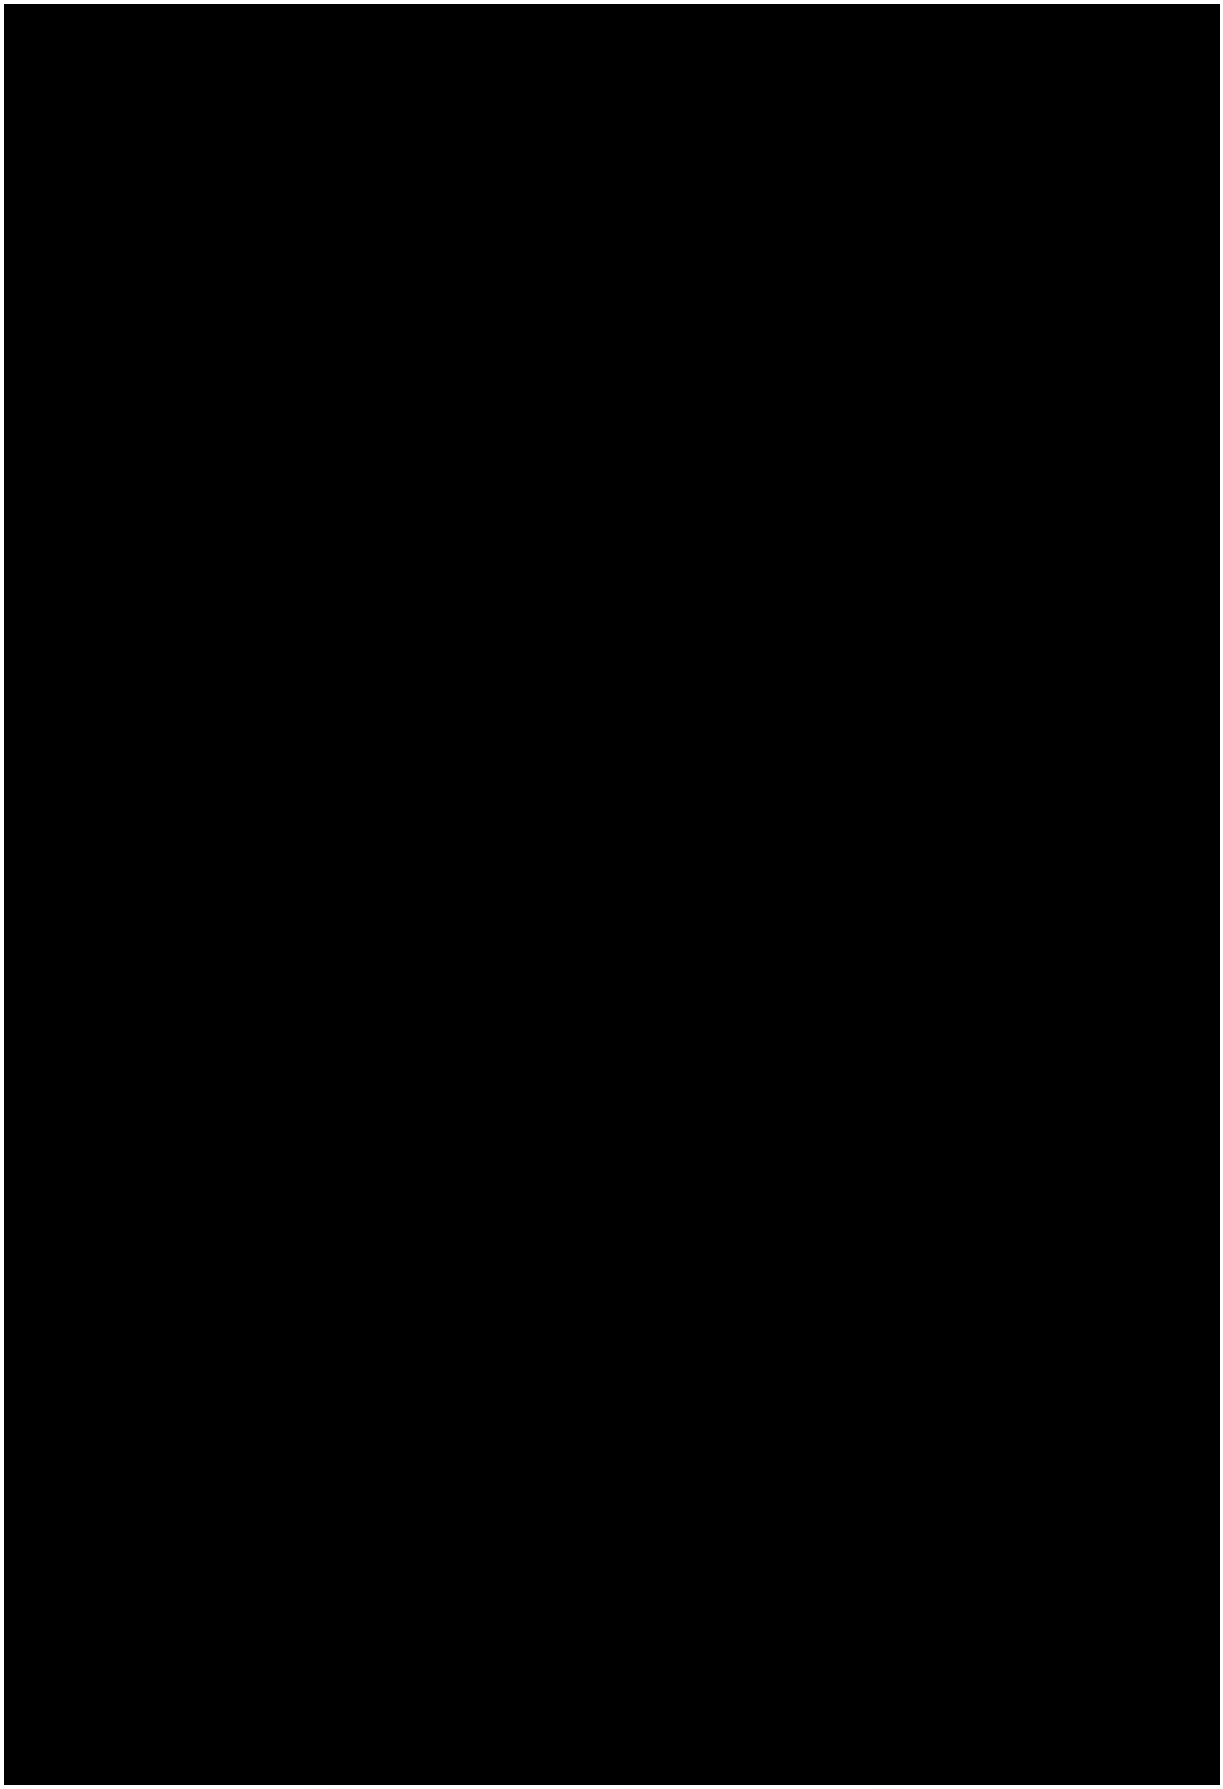


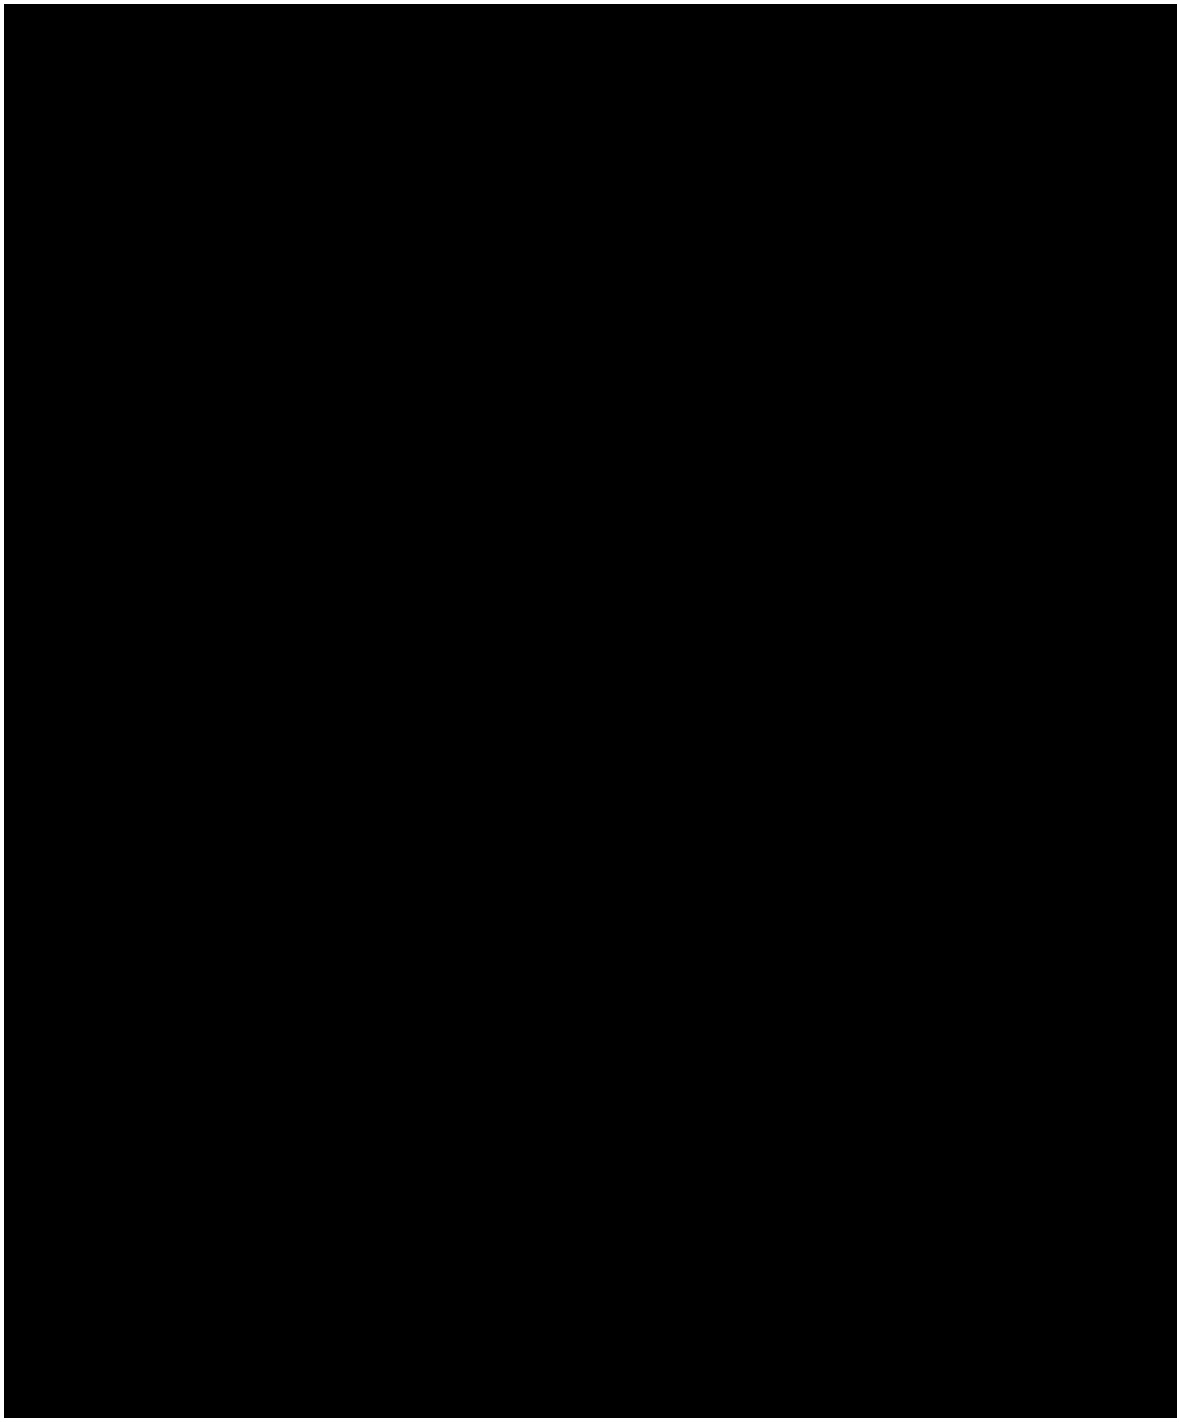












[12/05/2020, 12:25:58] Ian McGrail: Minister - before you hear it from anyone else I want to inform you that detectives are executing a search warrant at Hassans for (JL) in relation to the case against Perez, Cornelio & Sanchez. Its been done in the most discreet of ways and we're hoping there is co-operation. I have also advised CM.

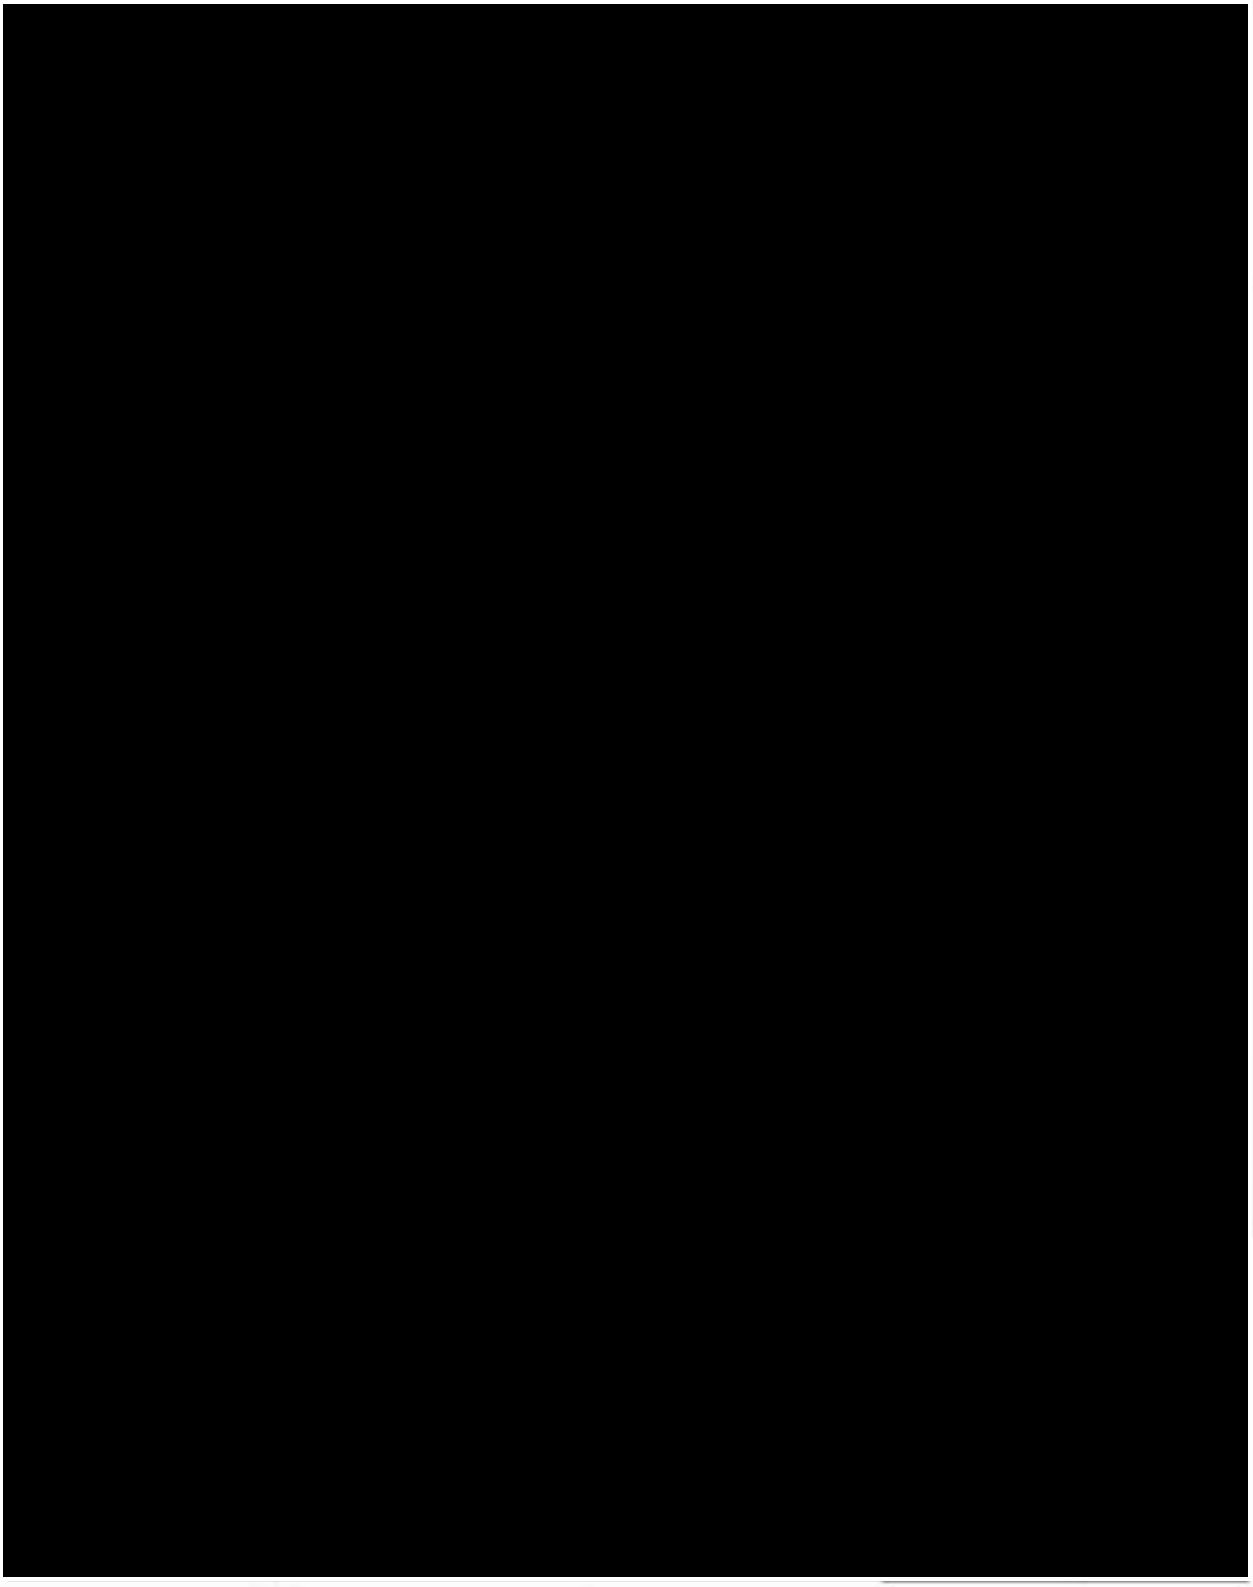
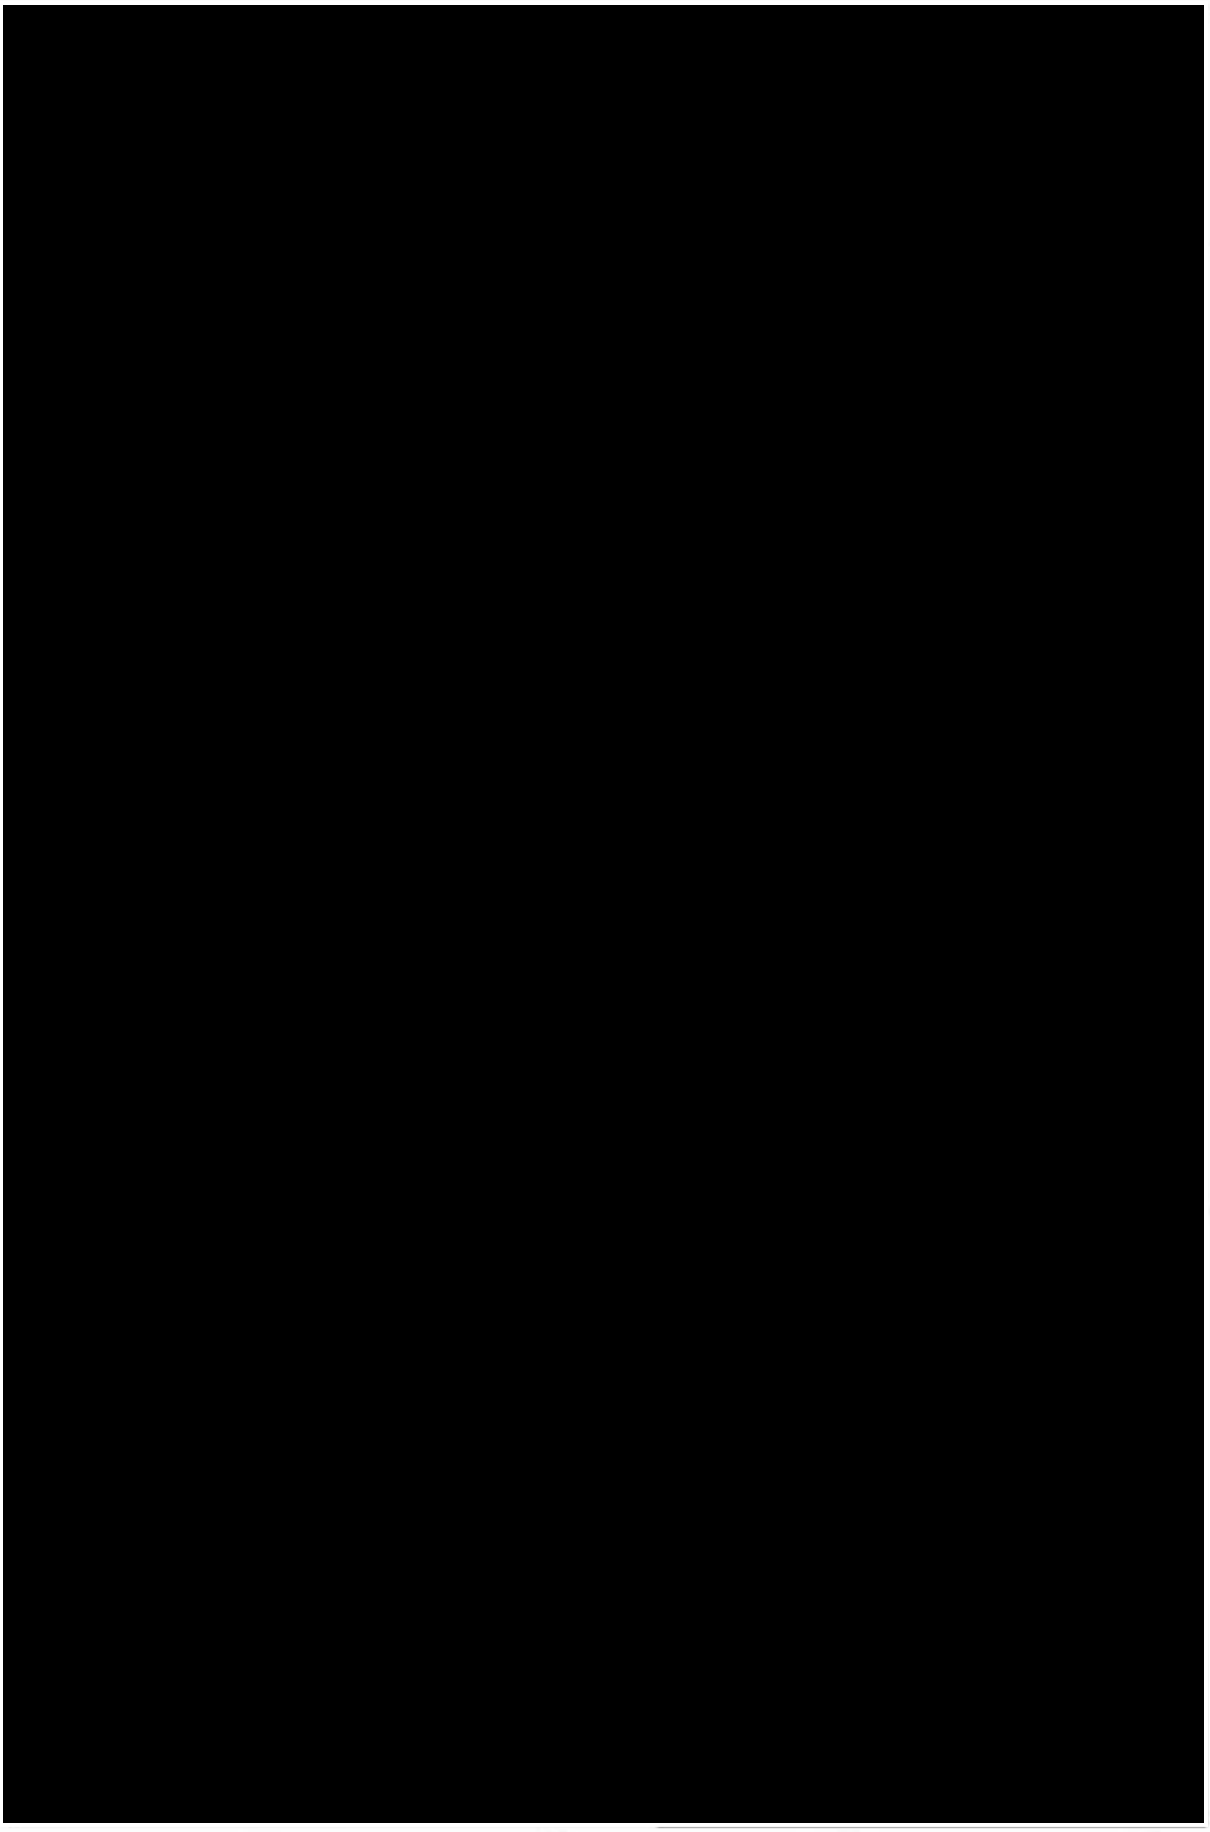
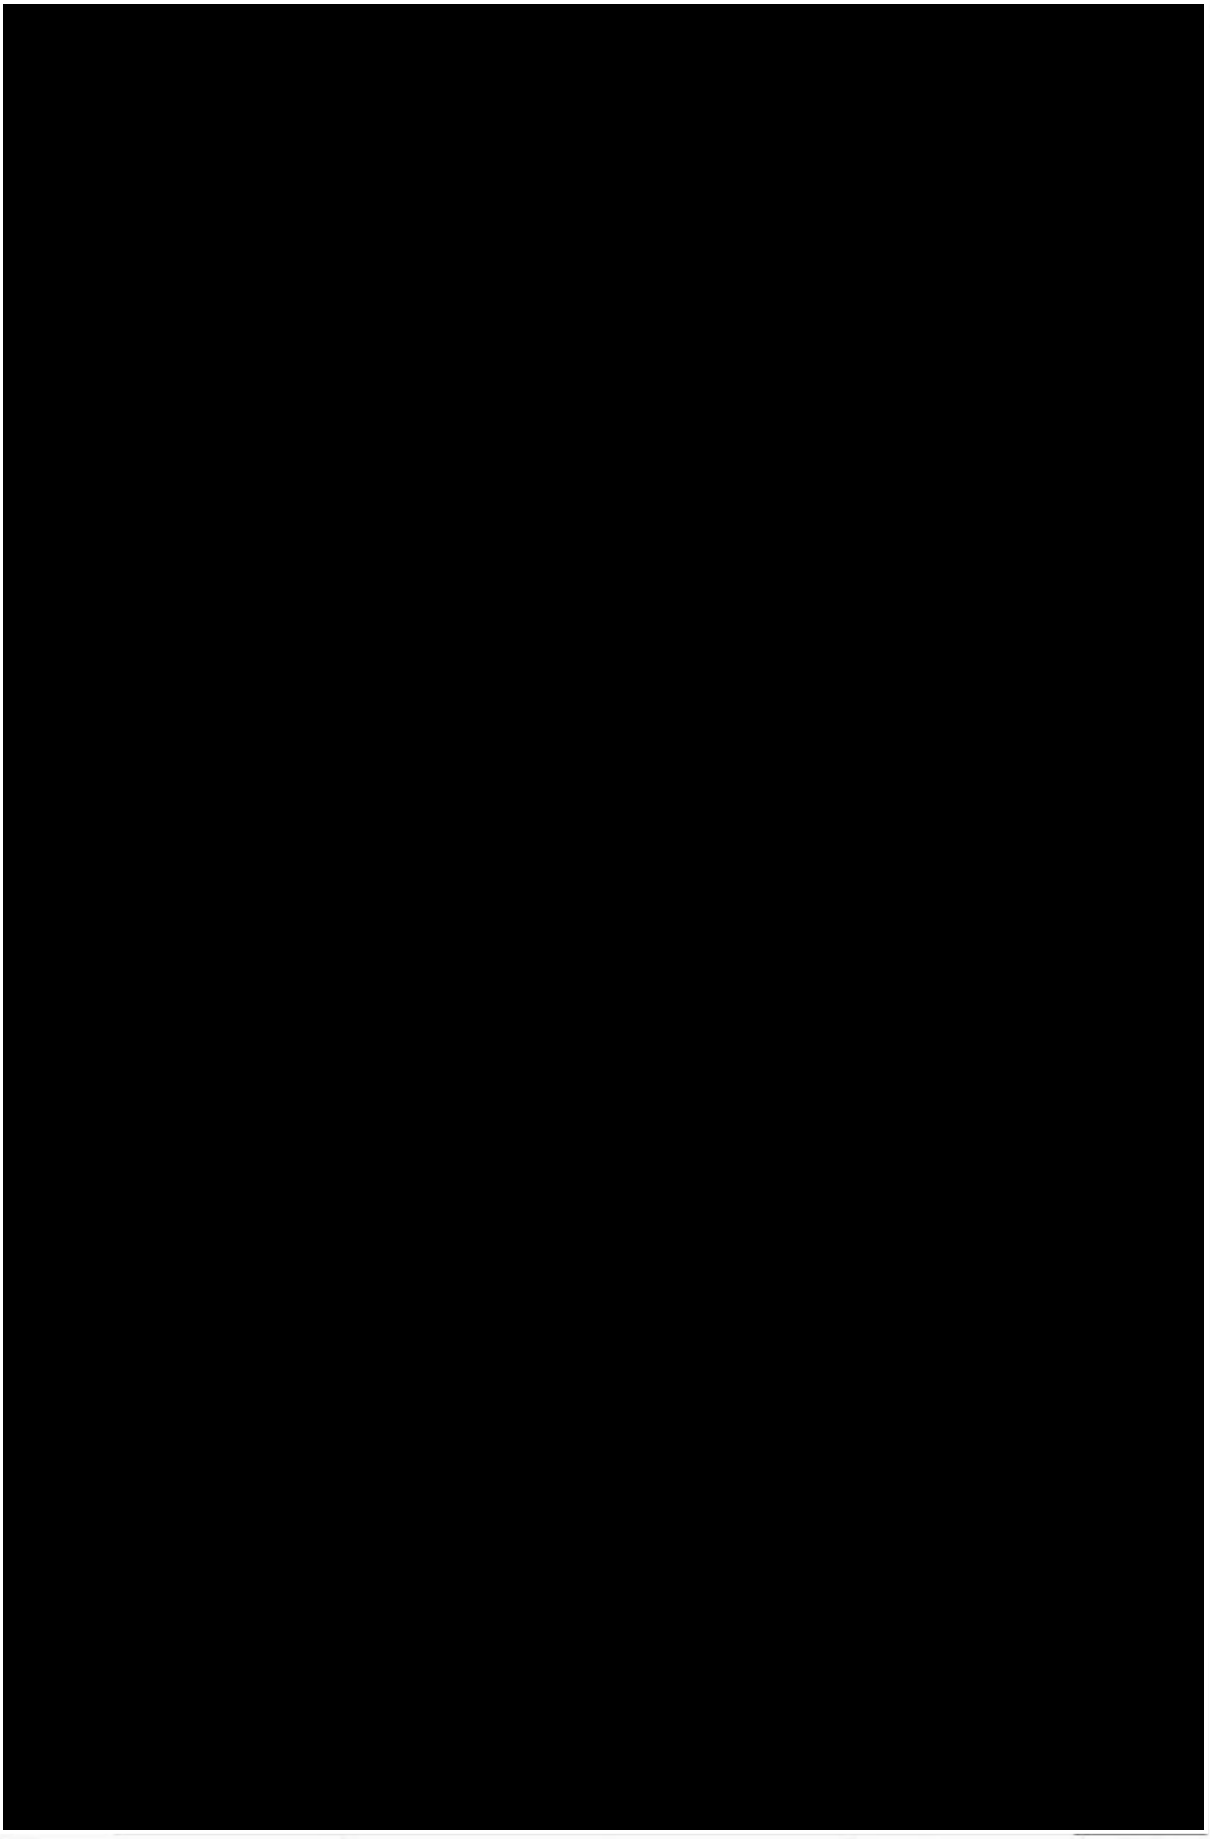
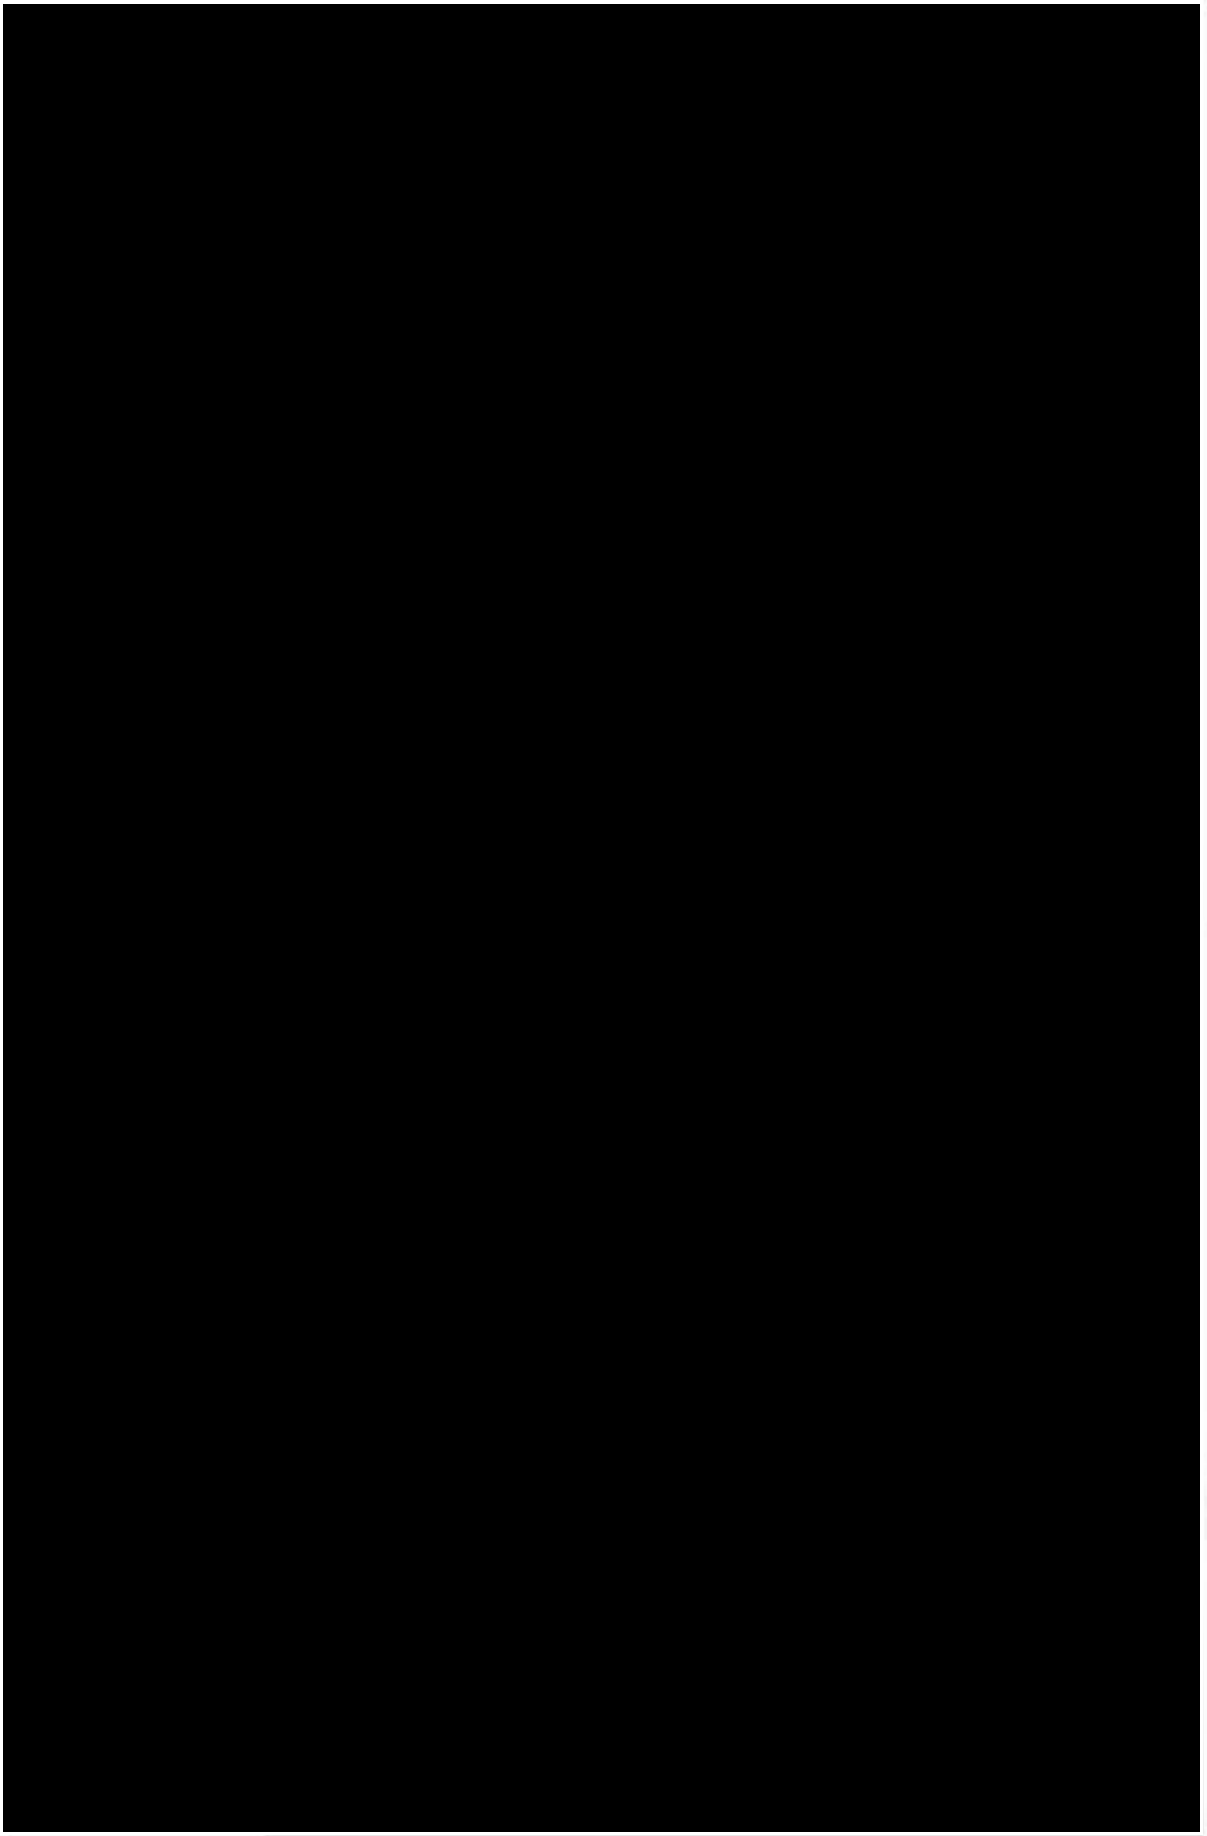
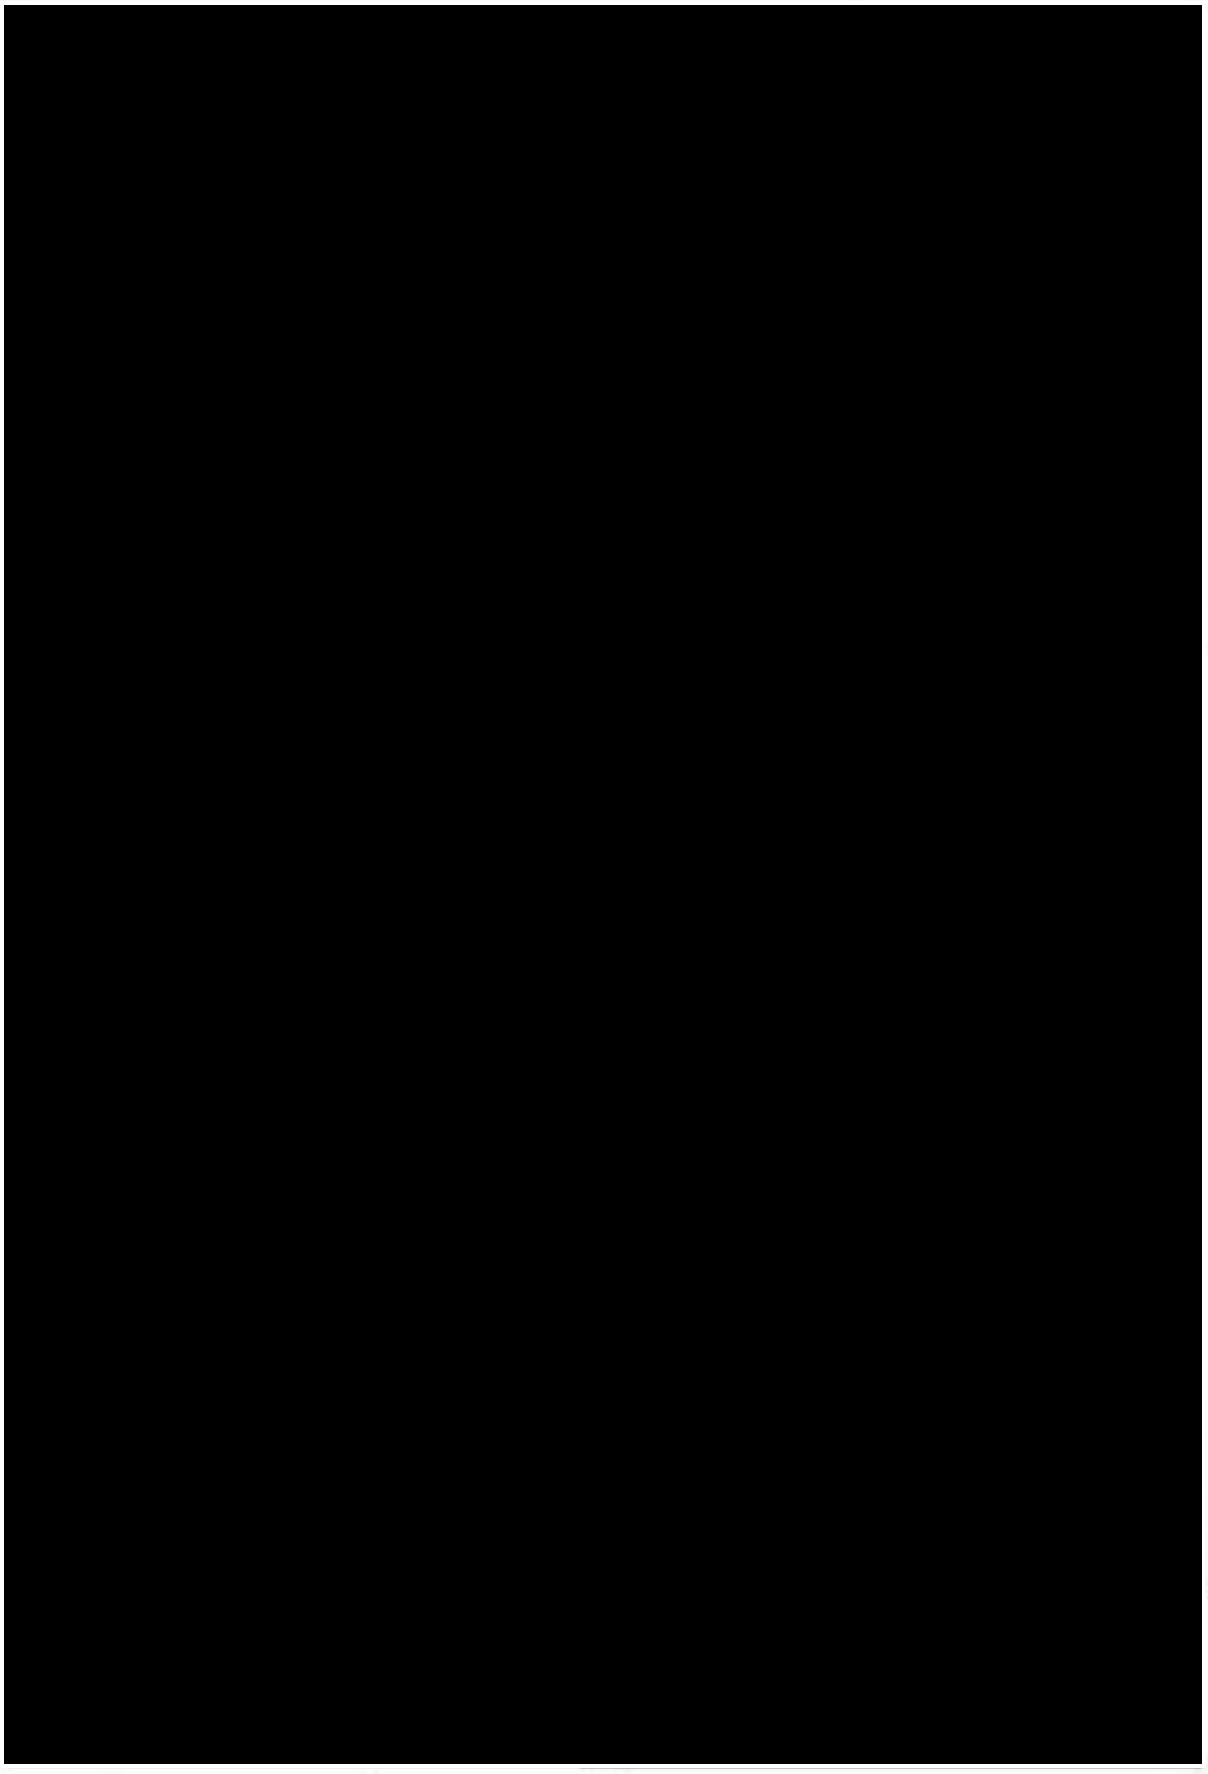
Ian McGrail & Neil Costa (former MoJ)

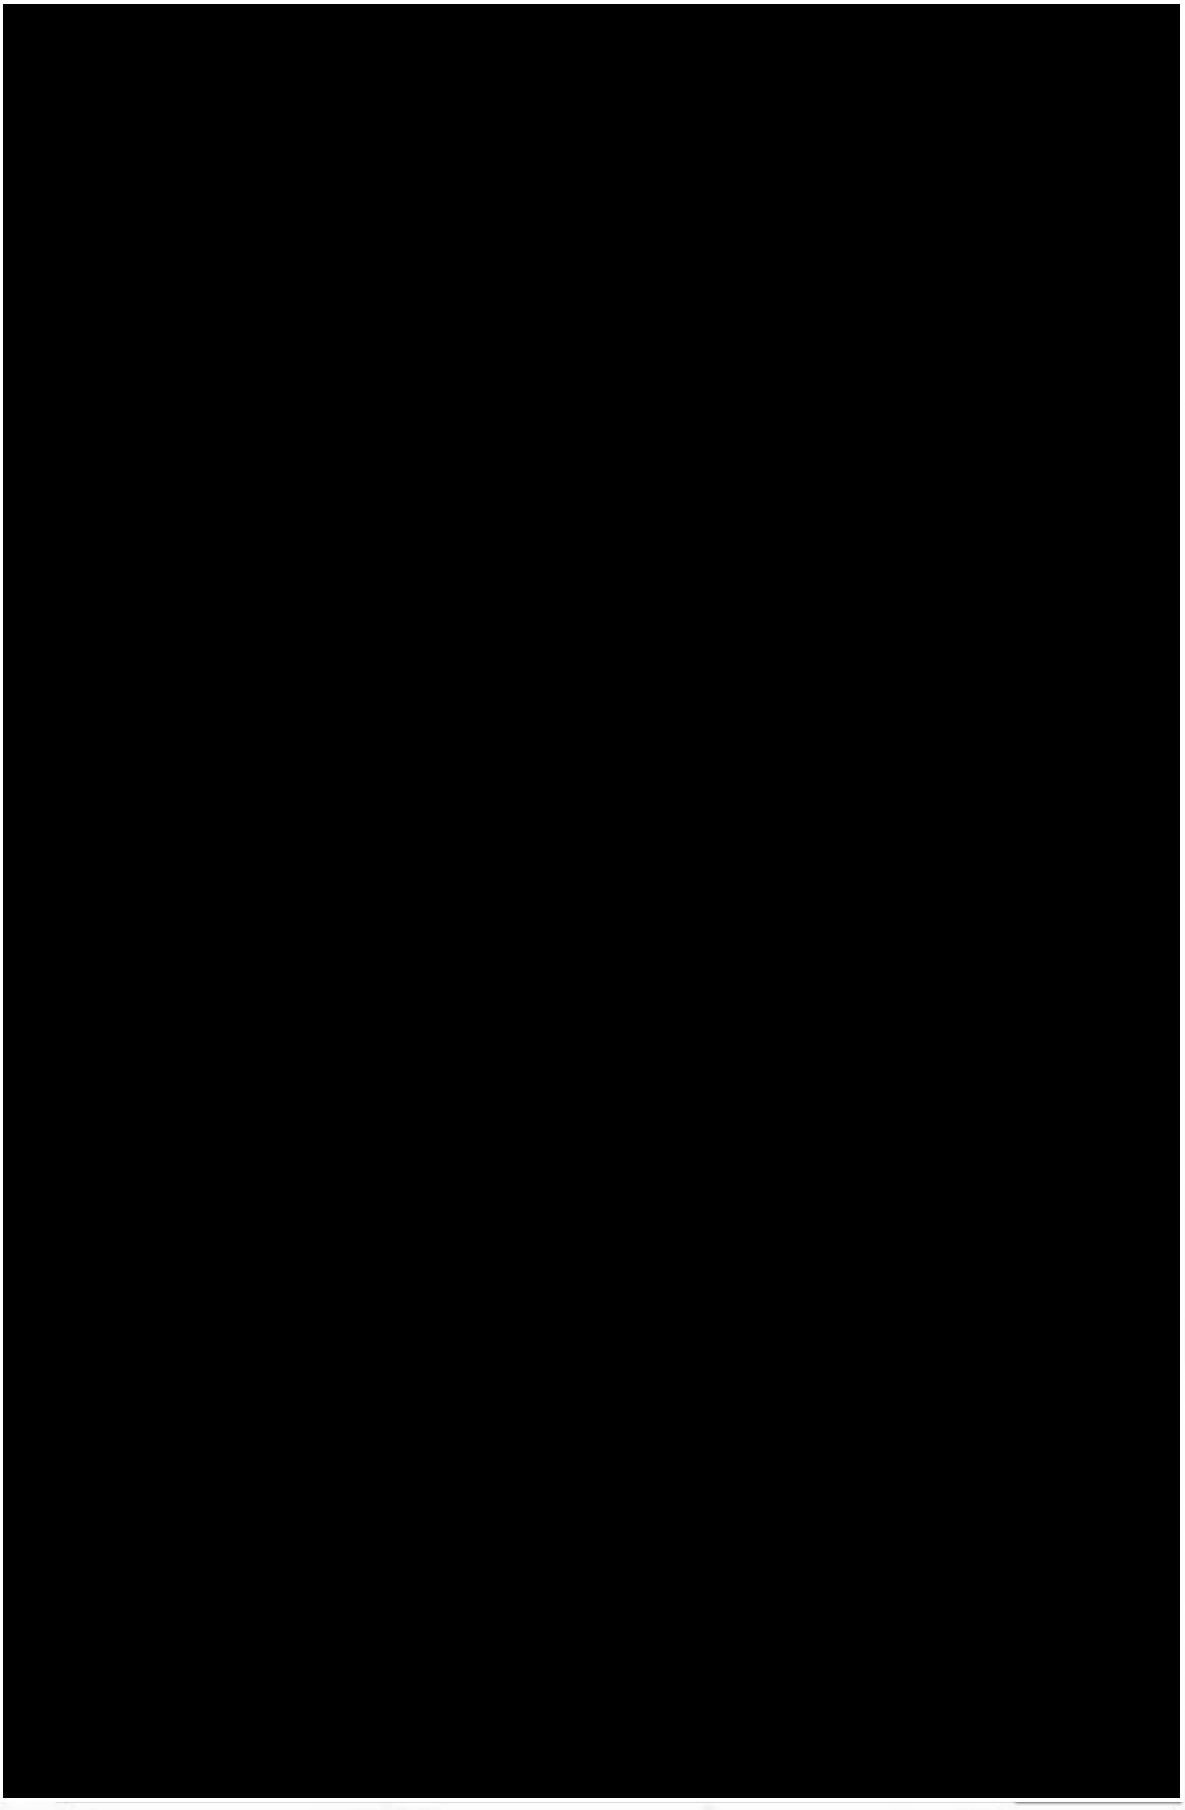


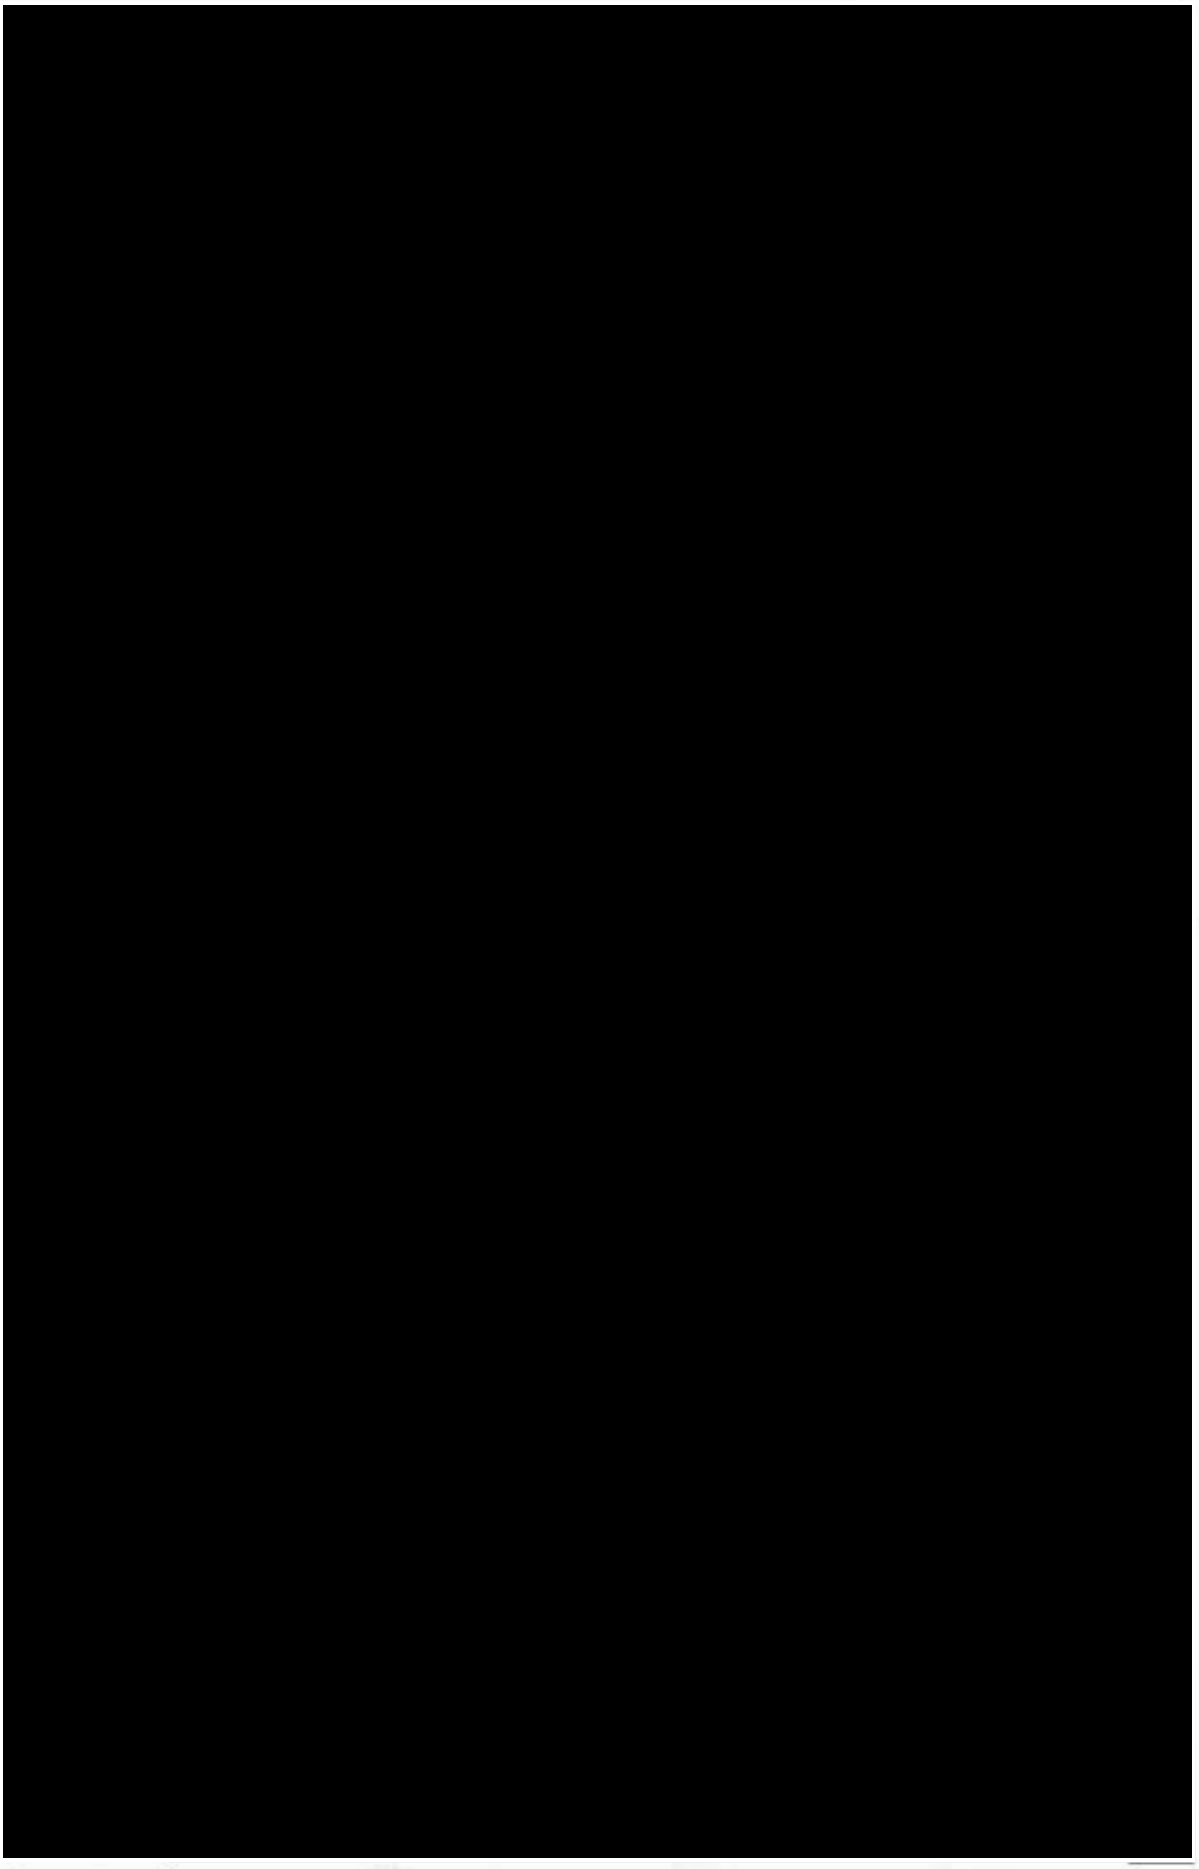


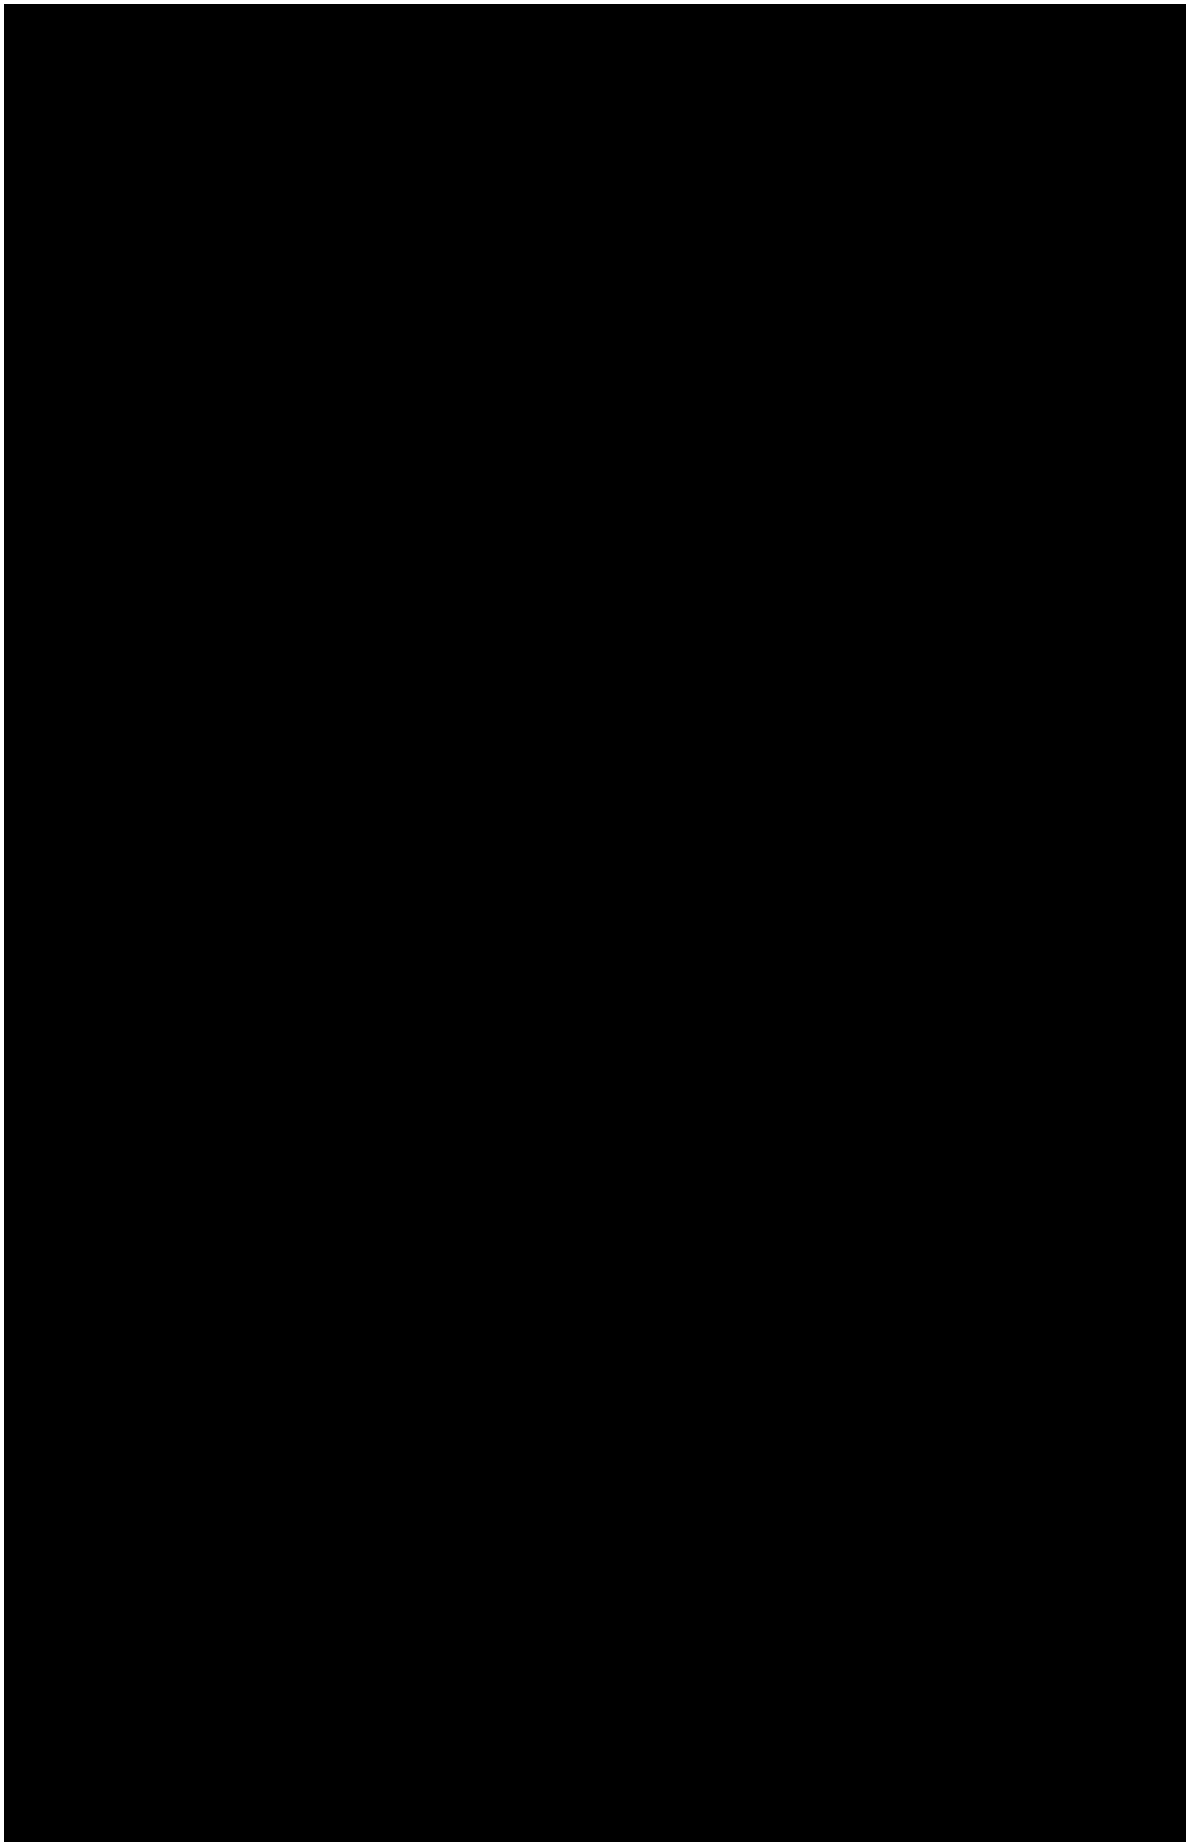


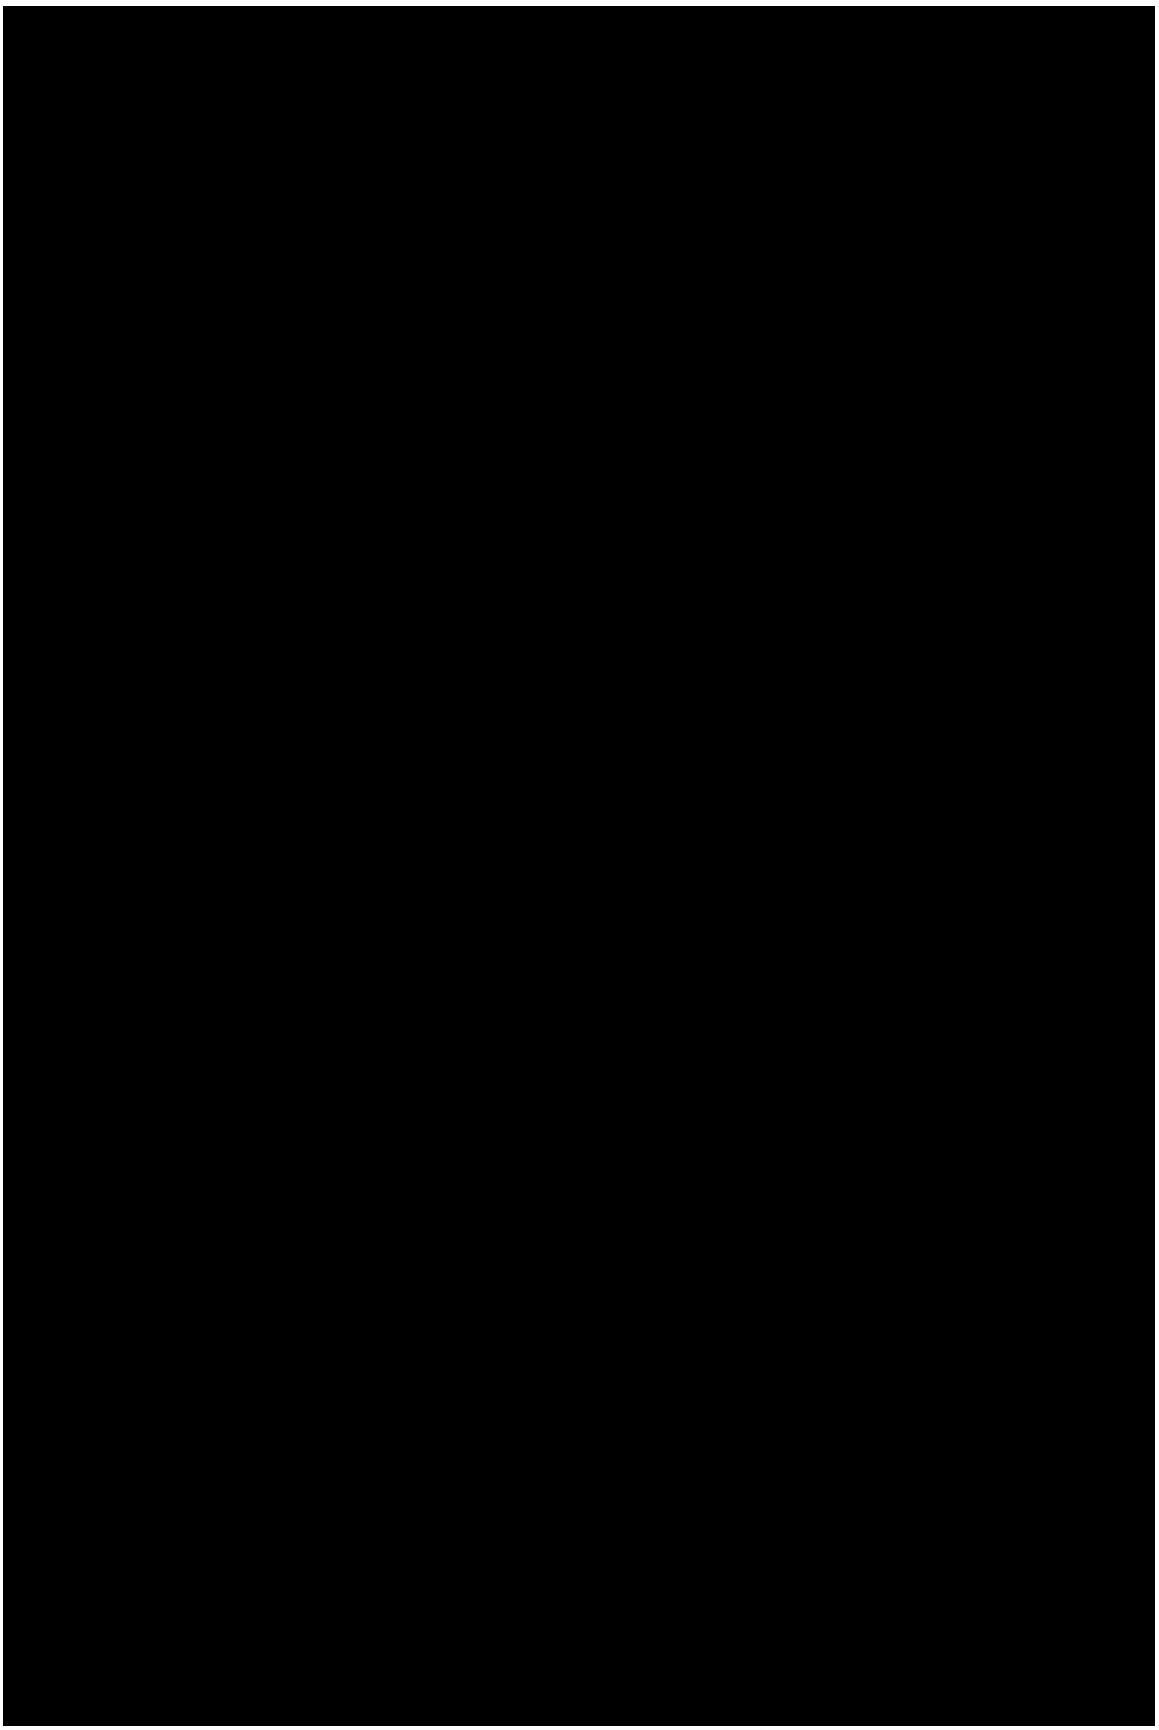


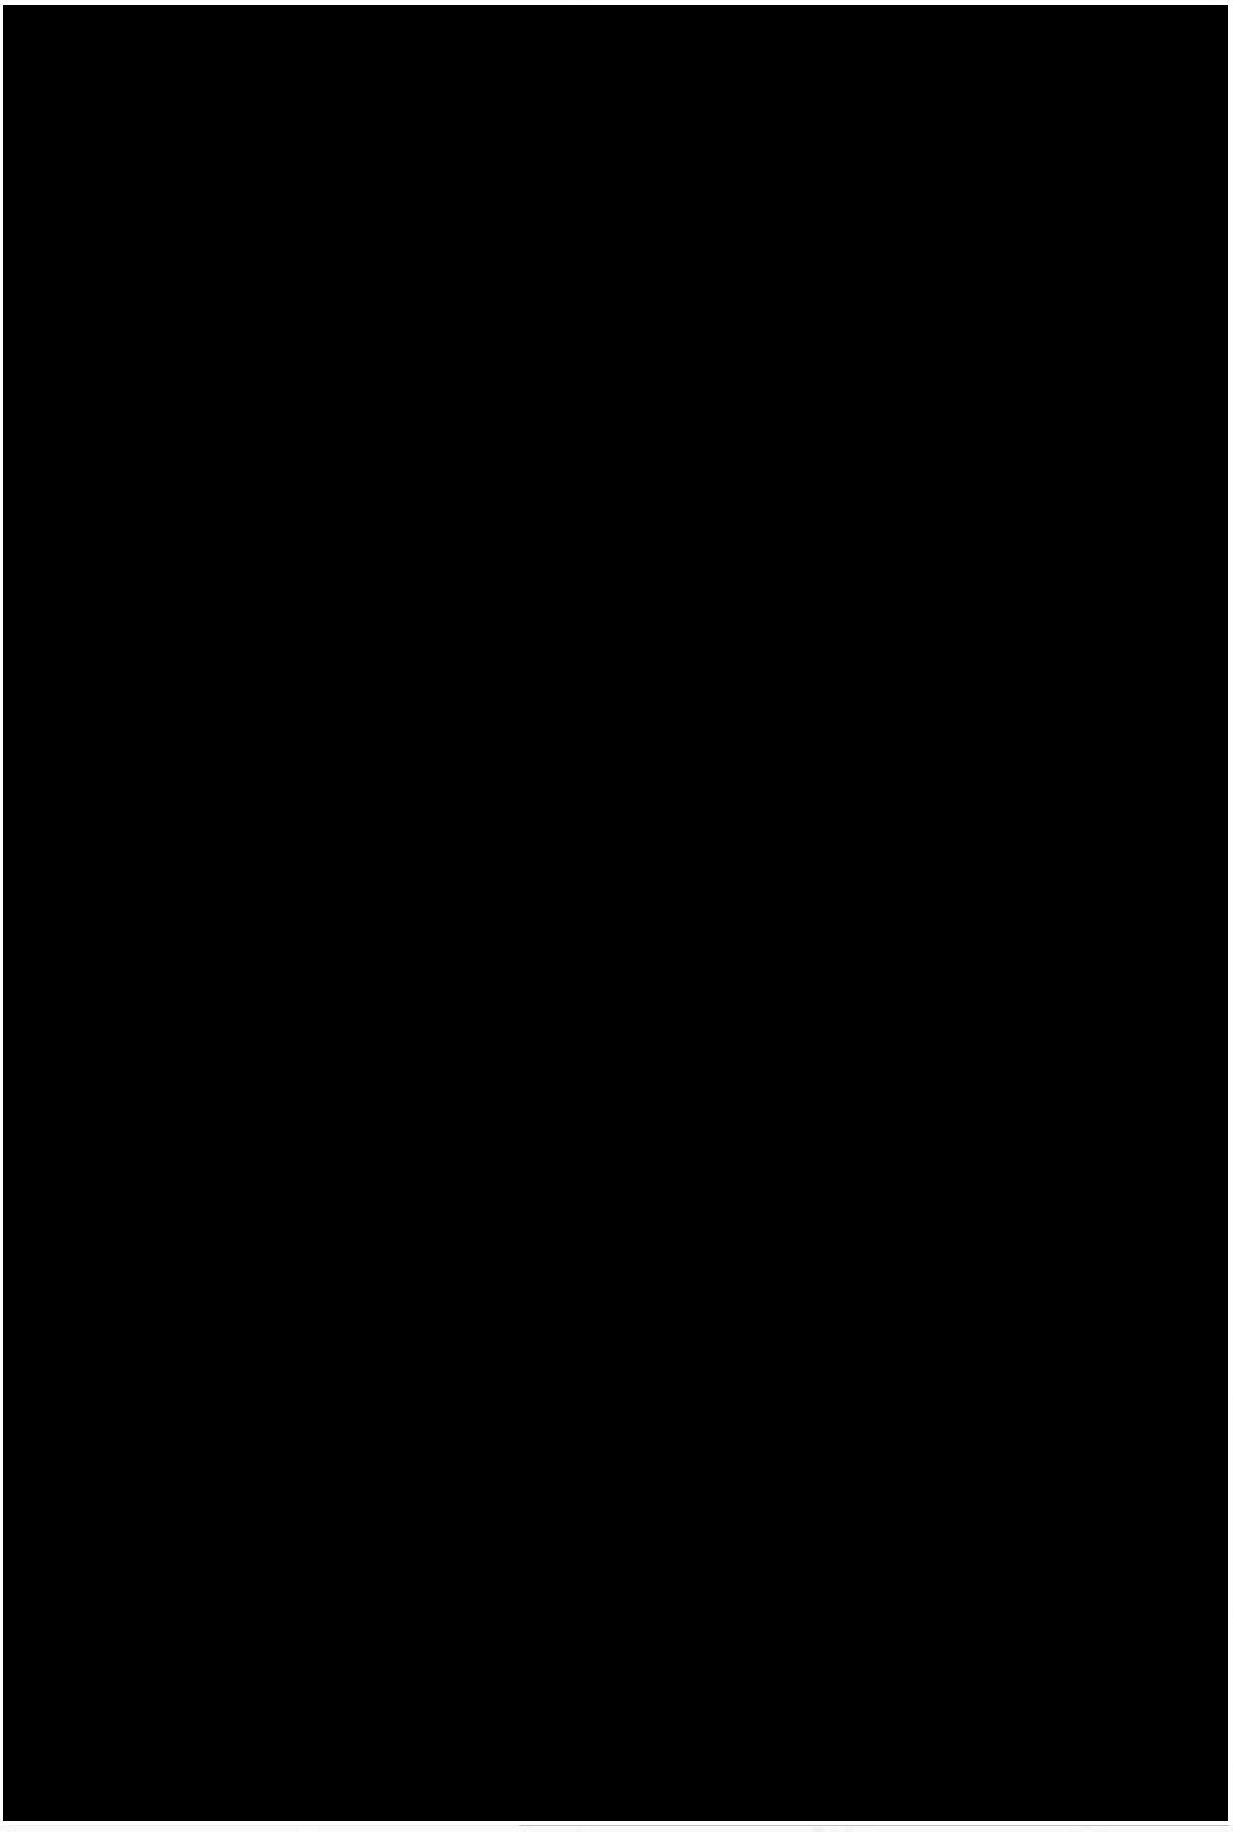


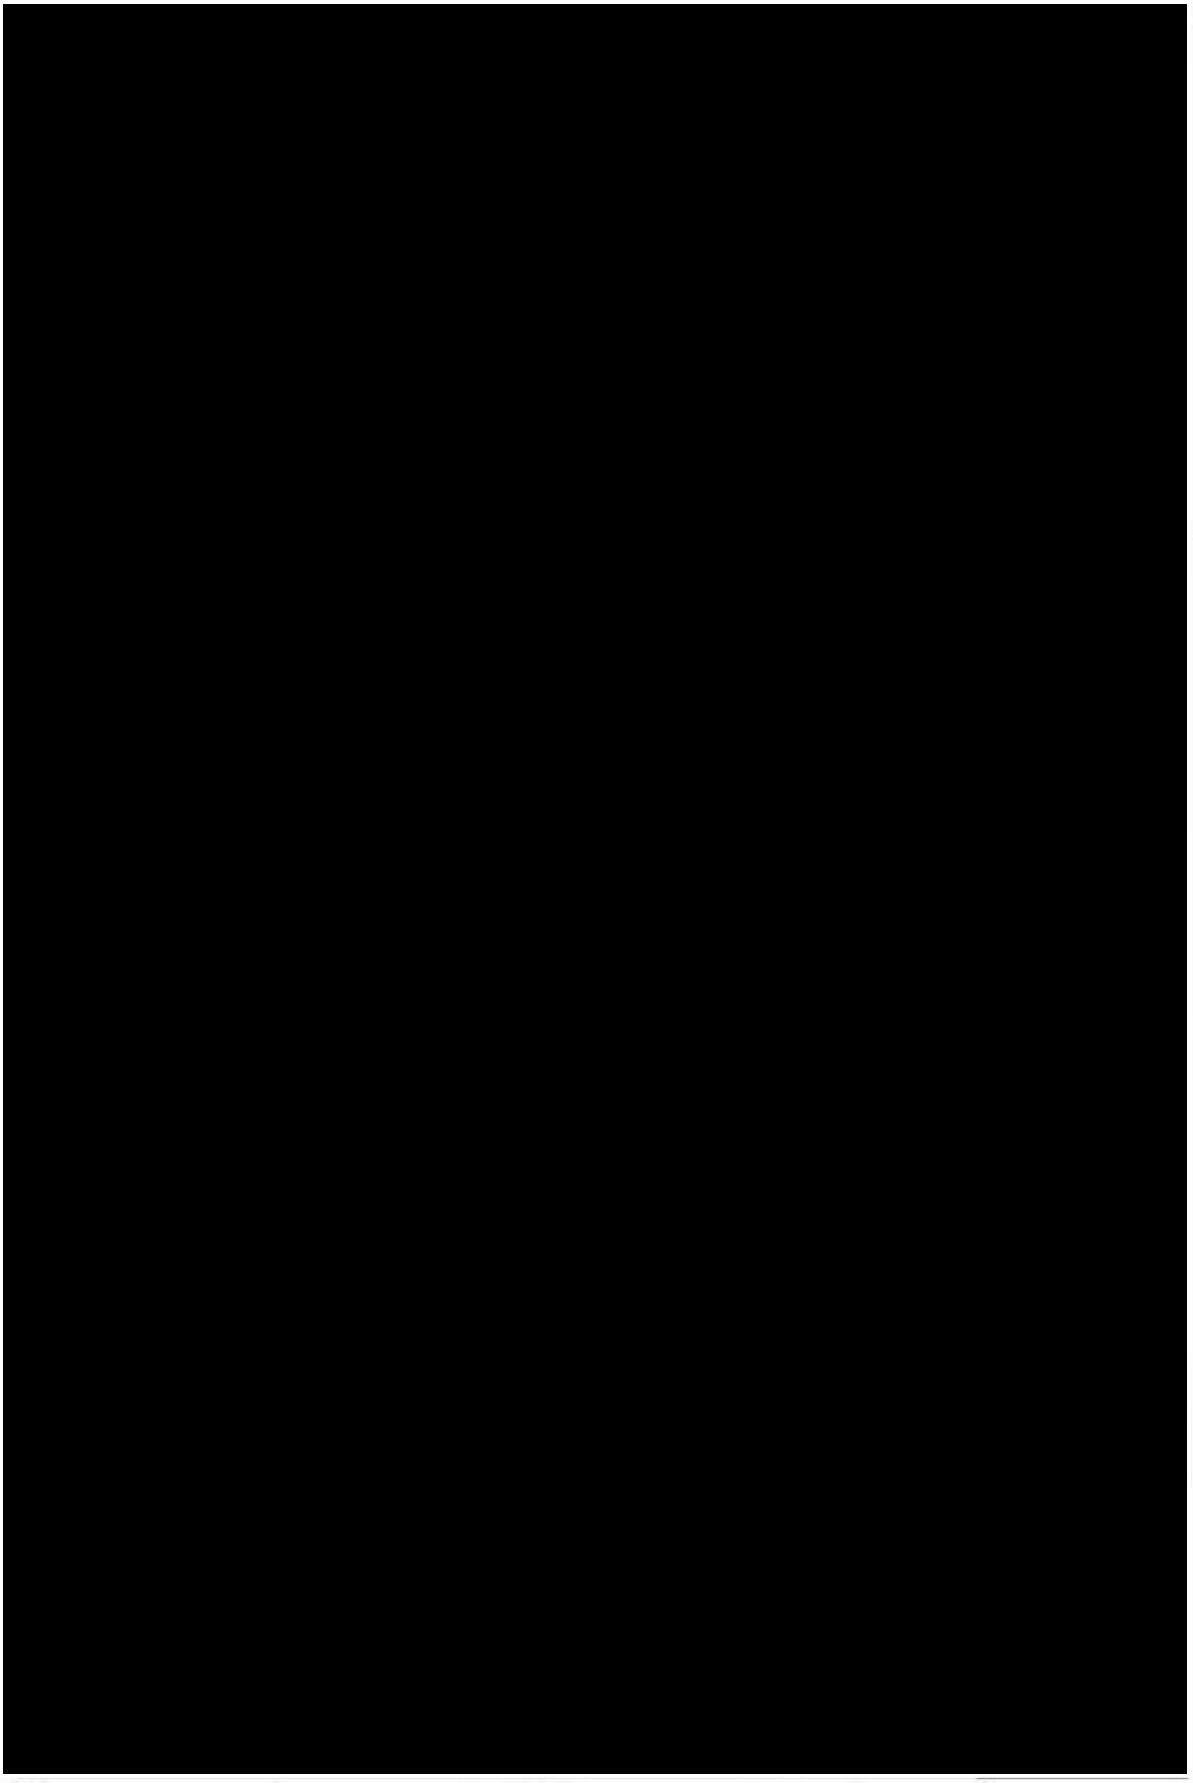


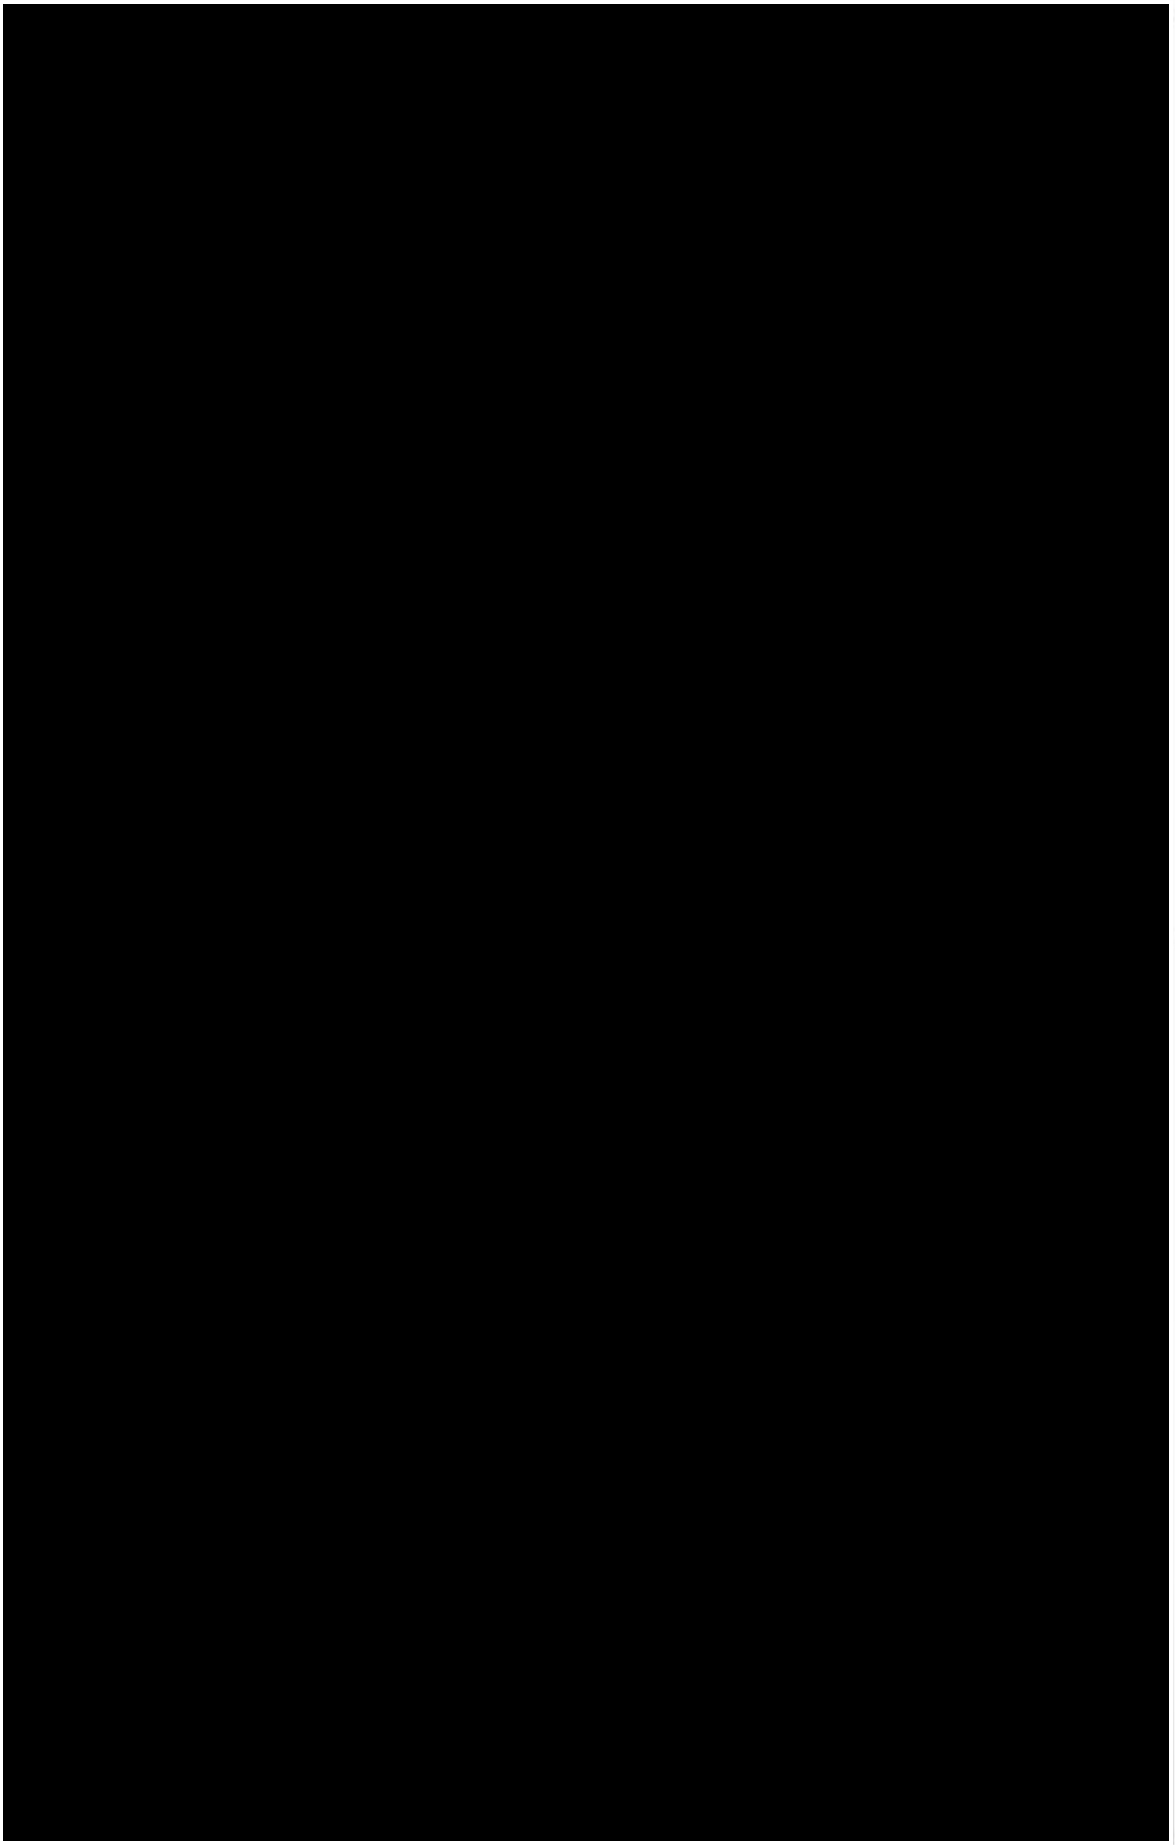


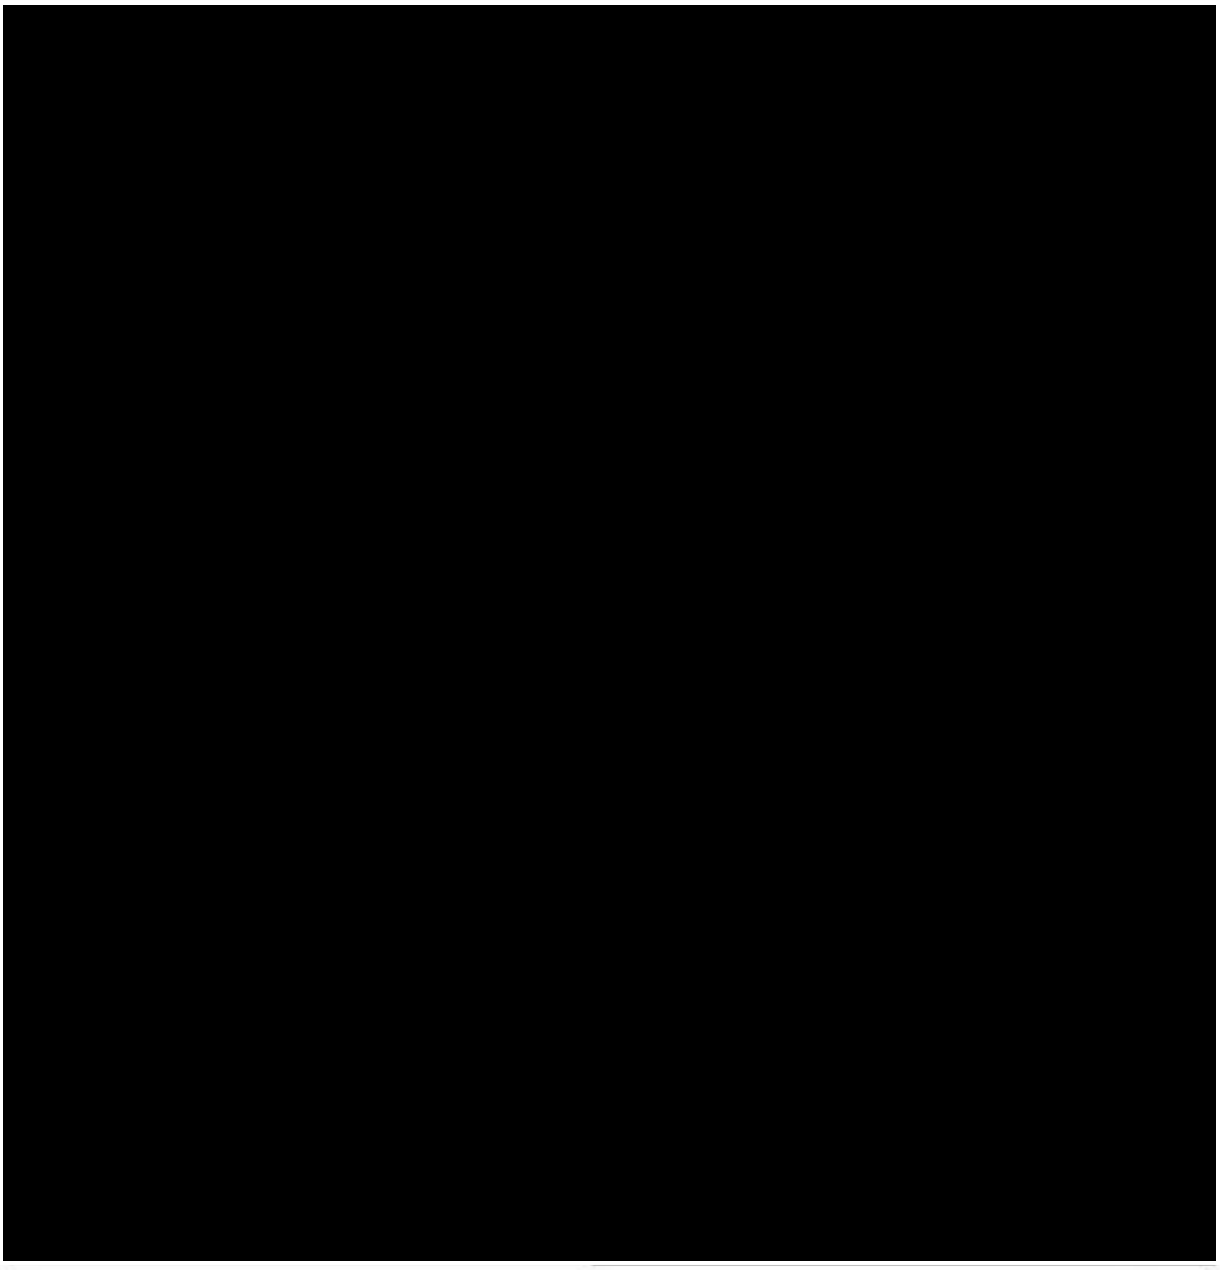












[20/12/2018, 15:48:39] Ian McGrail: Good afternoon Minister - many thanks for your attendance to my reception on Tuesday. I am looking forward to our next meeting as I need to explain, before it reaches you via other means, the incessant path of destruction that the GPF Henry Bautista et al is set on. The Fed Board are hell bent to cause grief and discontent with the latest now being that they are considering court action against me over our operational deployment of personnel for New Year's Eve policing operation. They have written to the whole of the work force in a really damning tone against management despite rationale being given & accepted by Bautista himself - but instead of transmitting this to the membership it is adversley twisted to pretend ill intention bad practice by management.

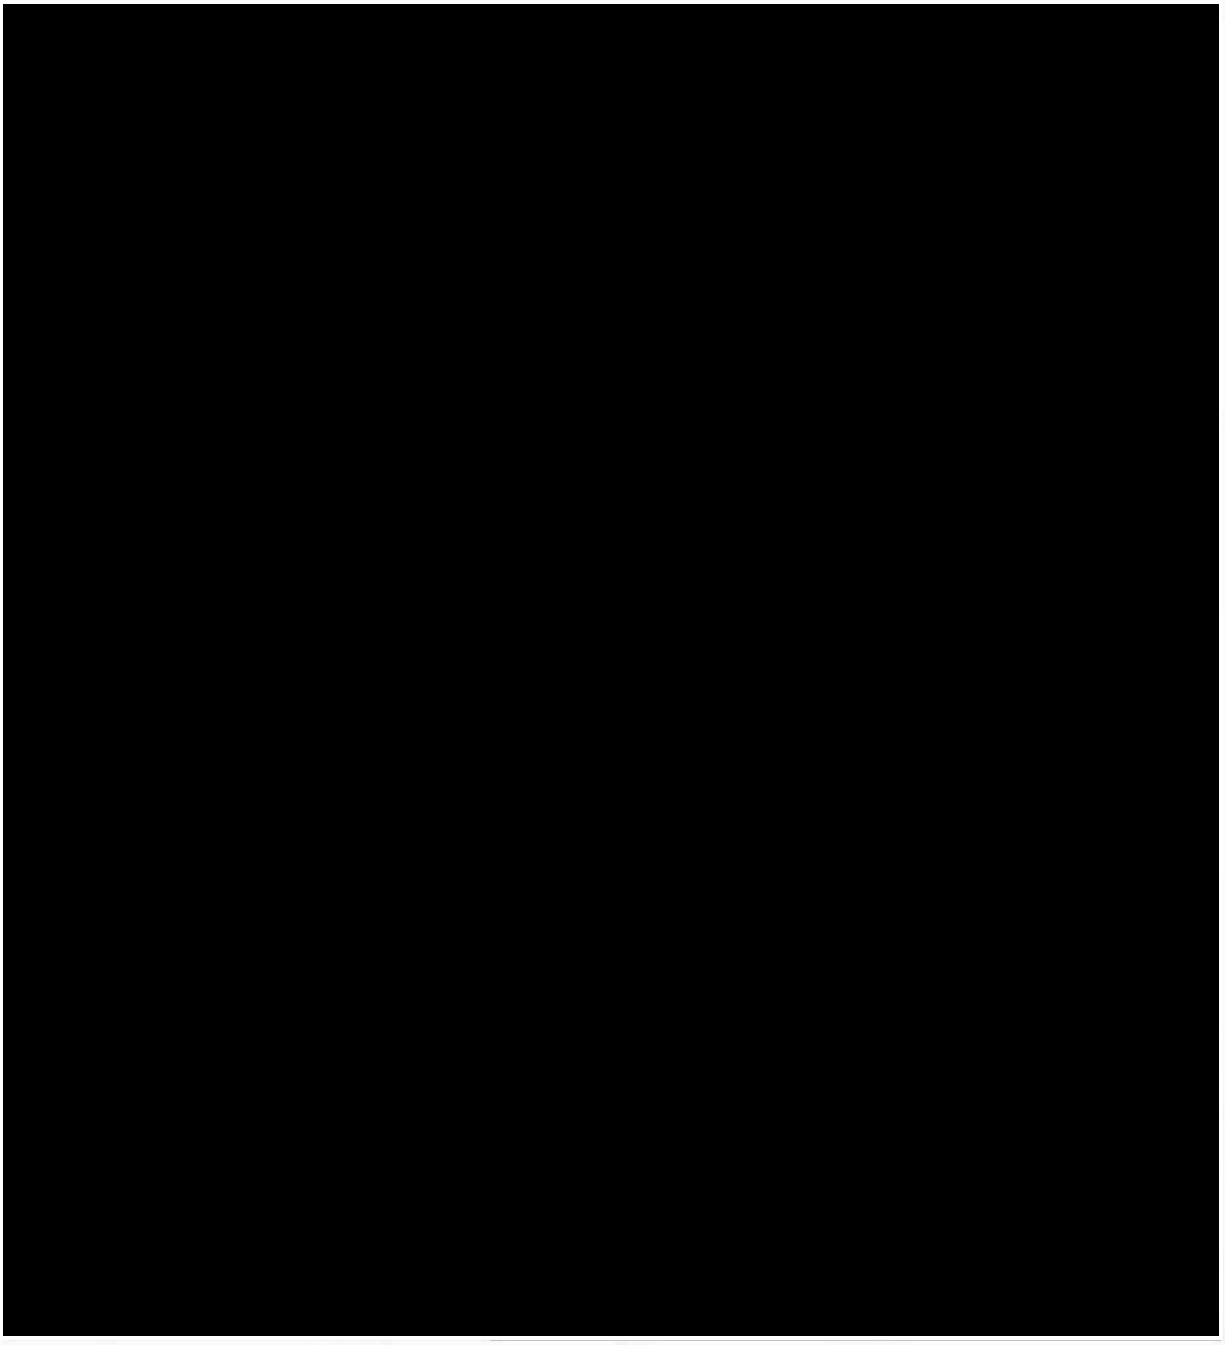
We need to seriously talk about these convenors and their roles/renumeration. They are doing a serious disservice to the organisation.

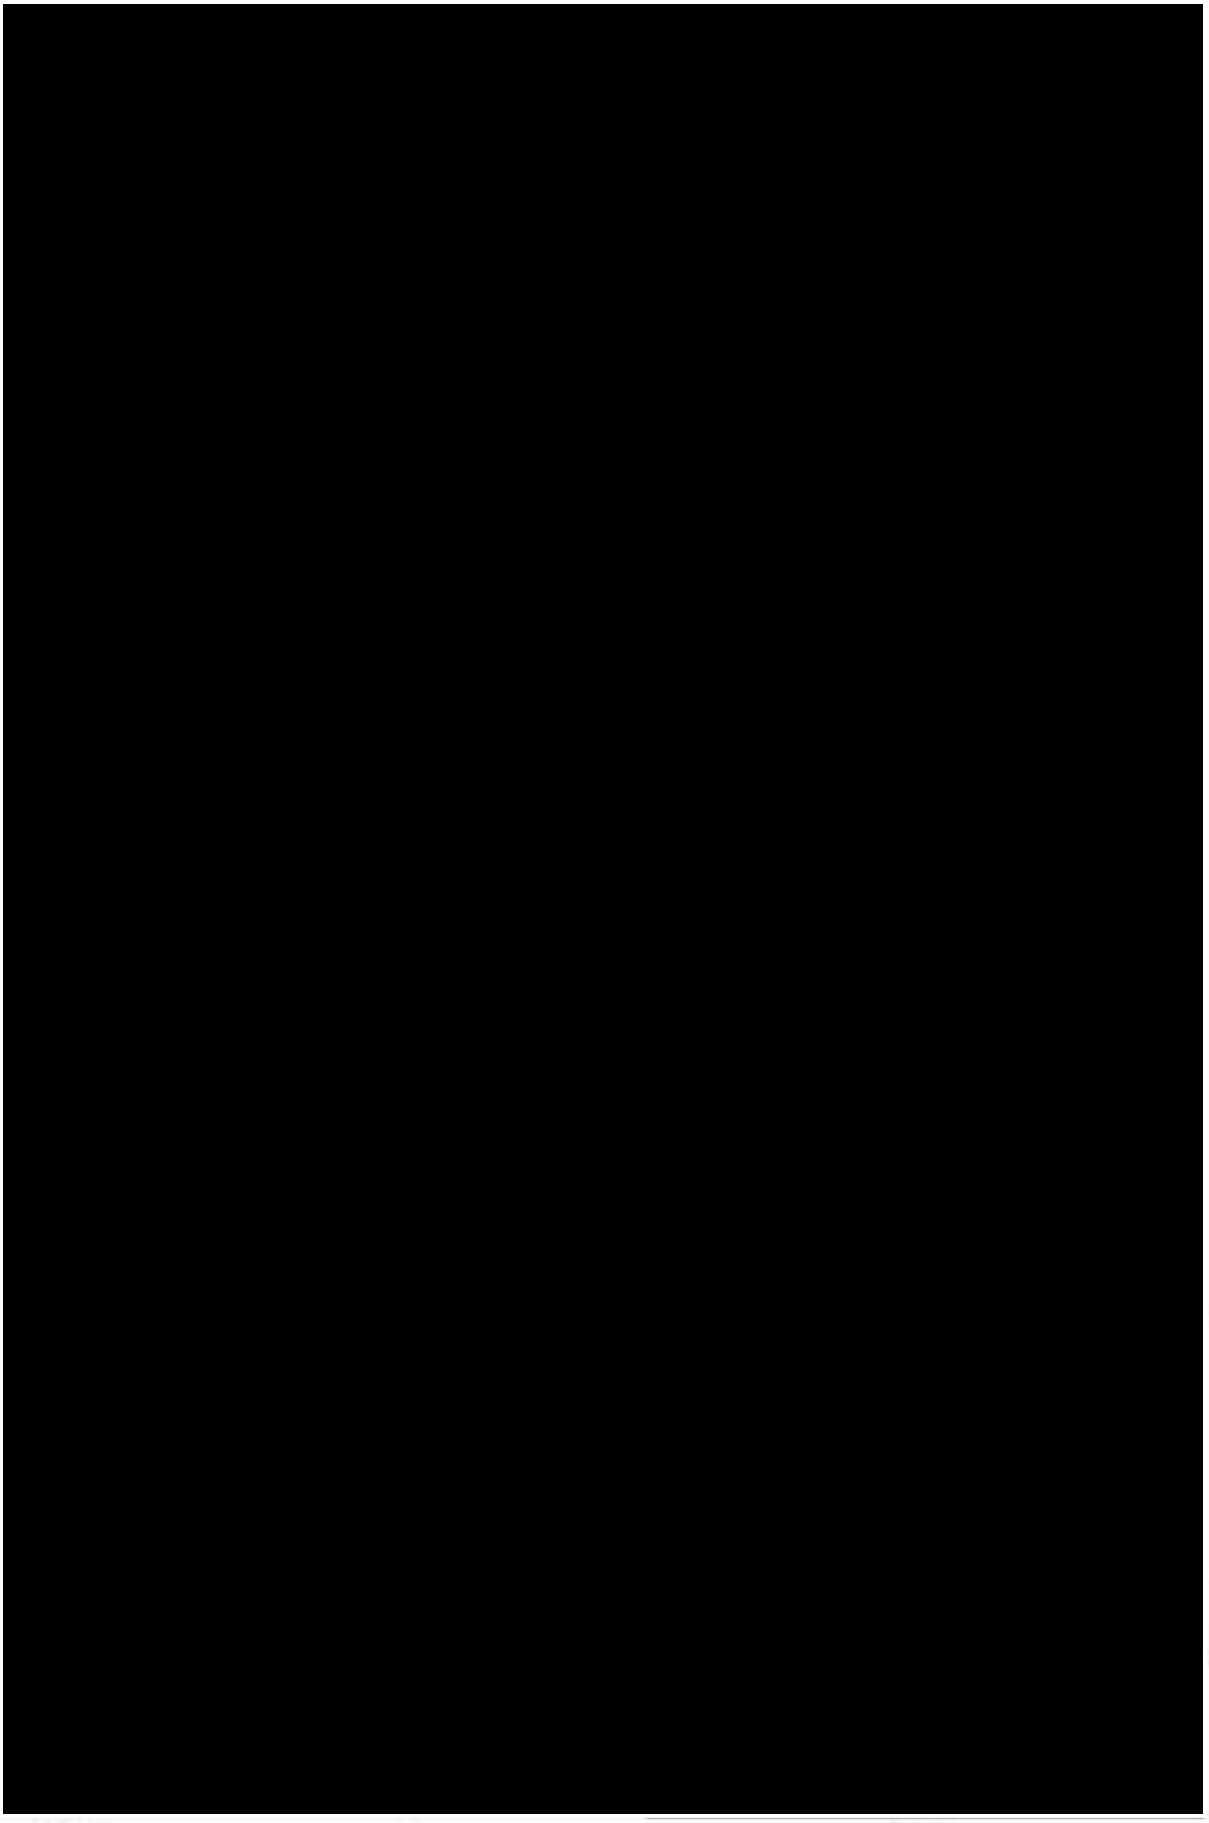
Other than that all is good.

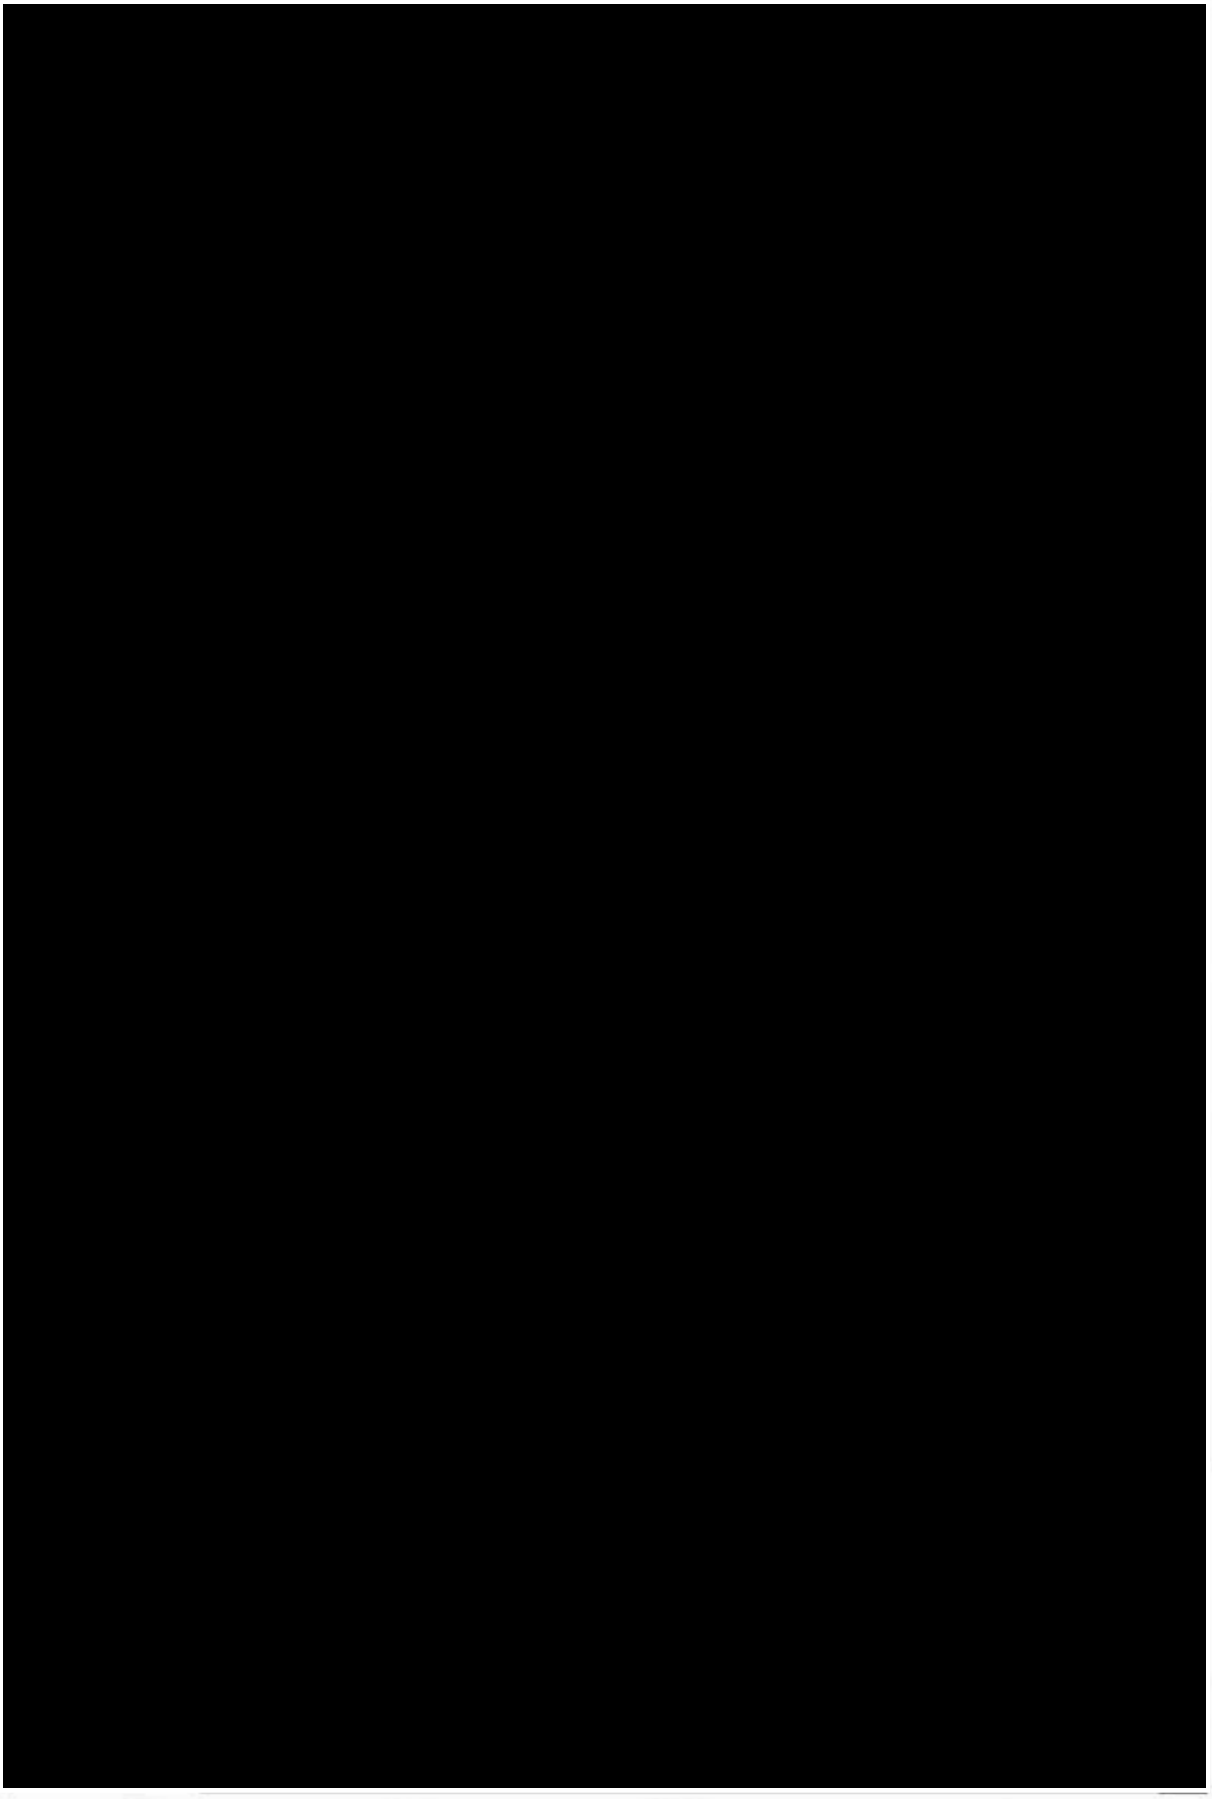
Best regards

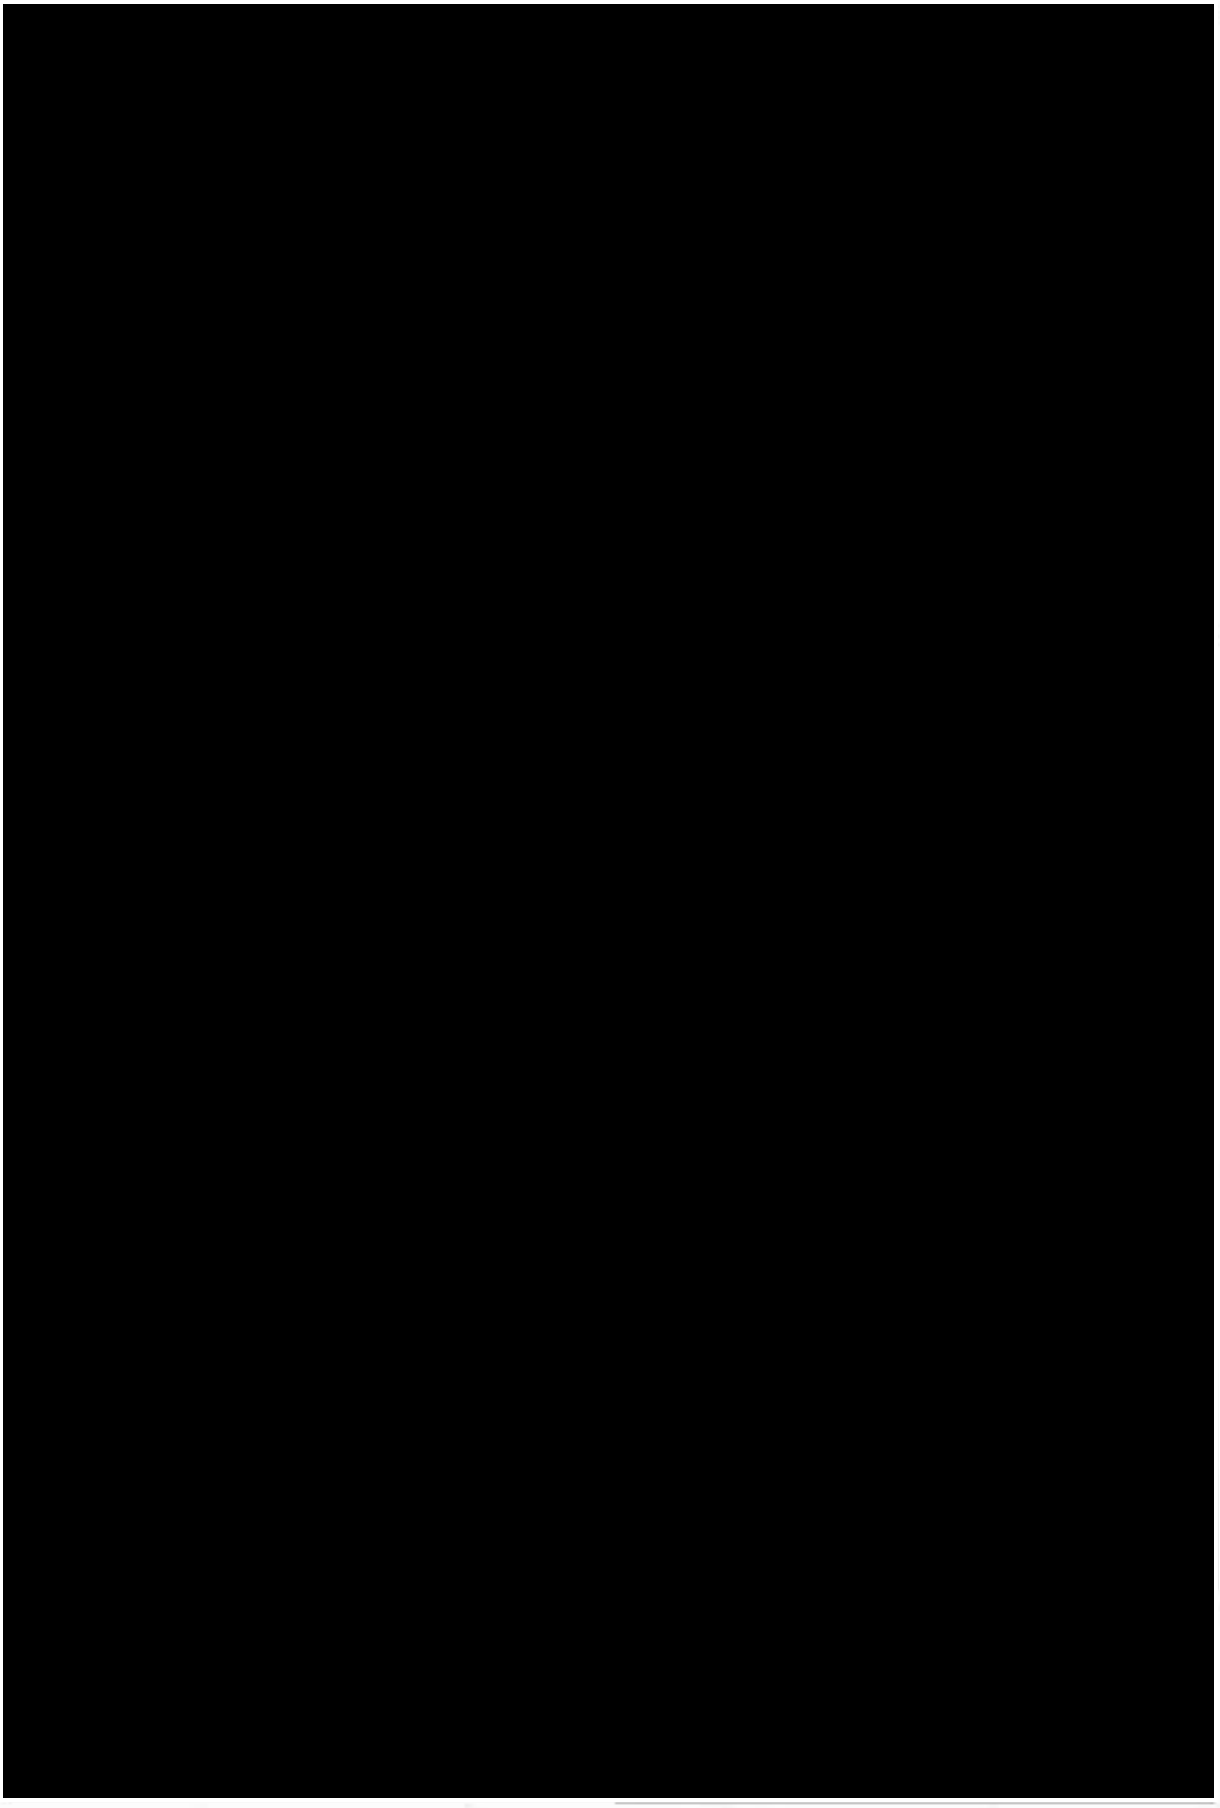
Ian

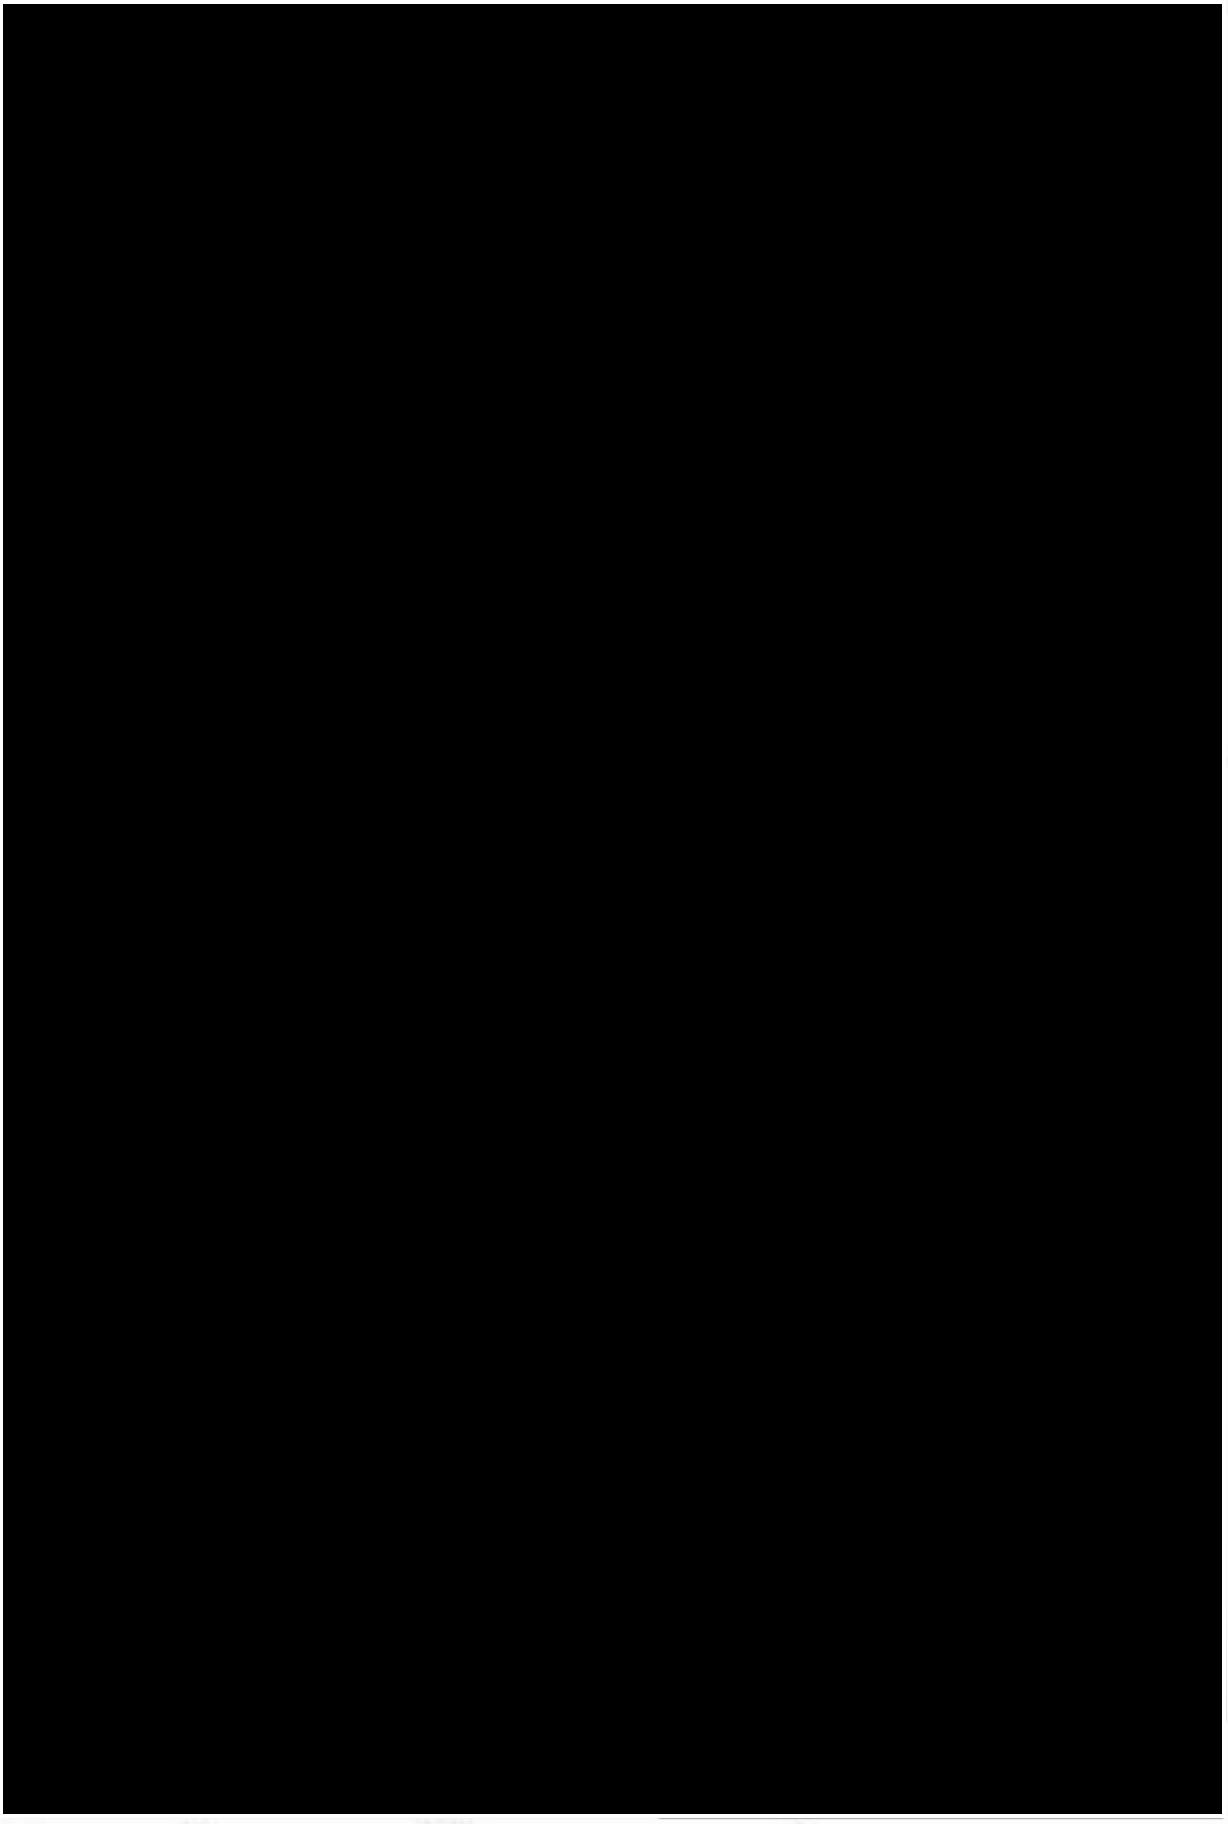
[20/12/2018, 19:11:56] Neil Costa: Dear Ian. This is quite concerning to hear. Do please let me know, if I can be of any assistance. The role of convenors is a CM responsibility, and I will discuss with him at our next bilateral. I look forward to our next meeting, but anything you need, please contact me - there is no need to wait for a formal meeting. With KR

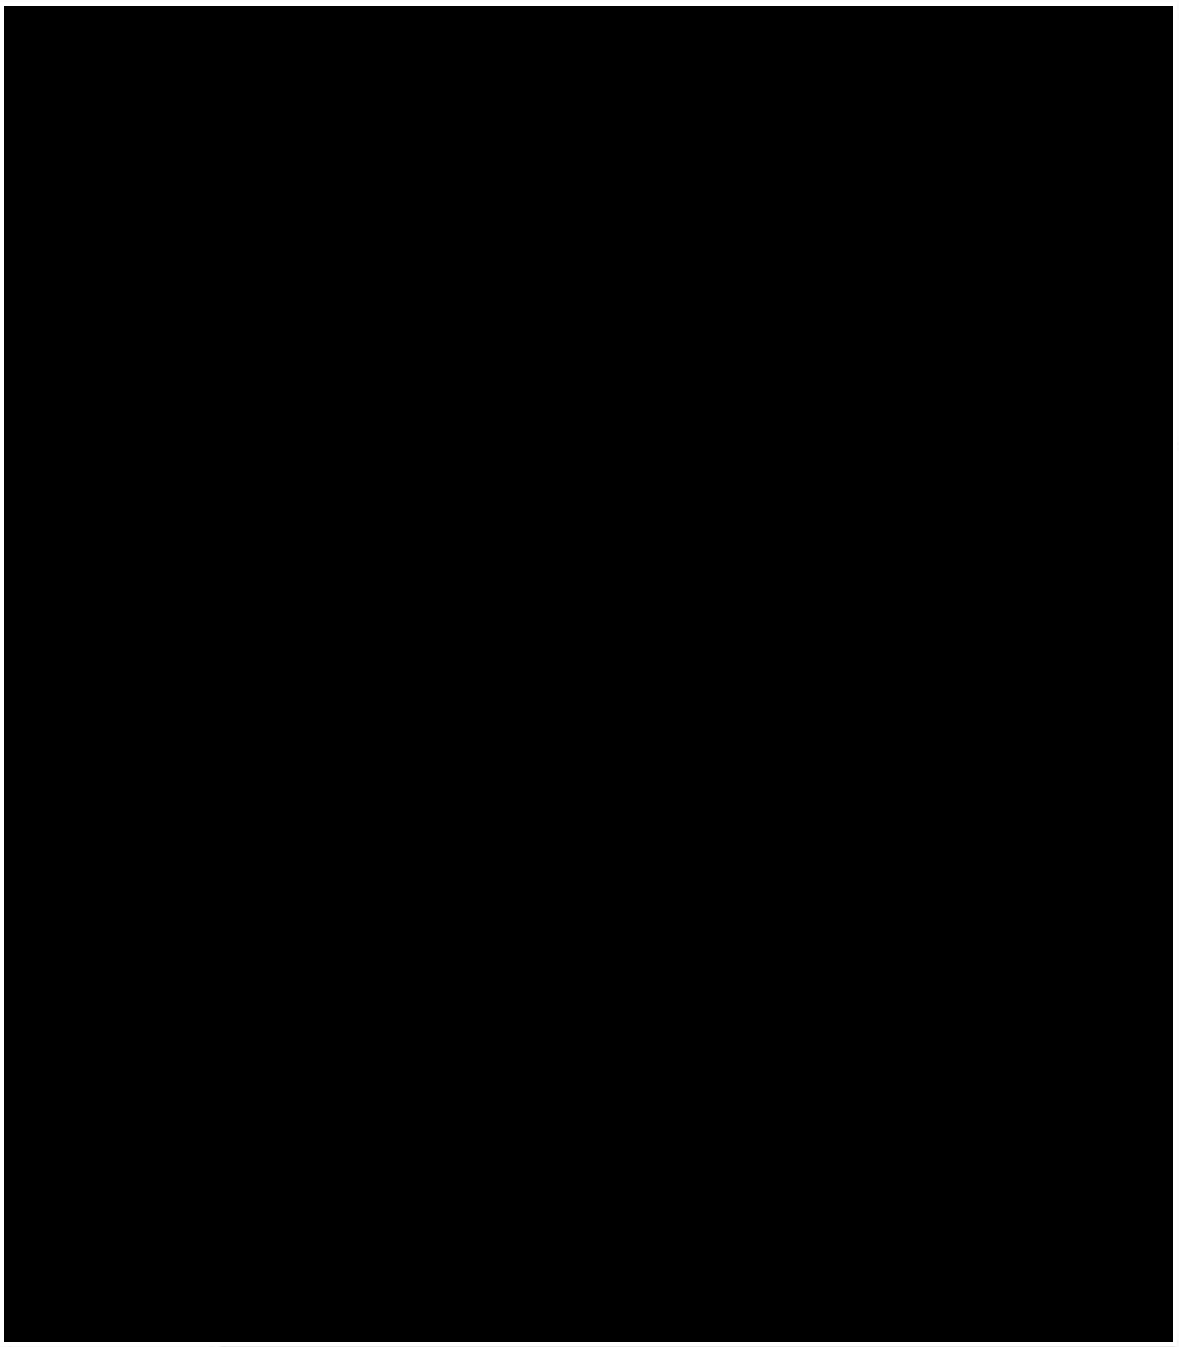












[09/05/2020, 10:45:58] Neil Costa: My dear Ian. I cannot imagine that with all of your hard work and untiring dedication that the report made for pleasant reading for you. For what it may be worth, I will forever vouch for your integrity, honesty, and professionalism. If ever I can be of any assistance to you, you know where I am. With kind regards, Neil

[09/05/2020, 10:52:32] Ian McGrail: Aww - that is ever so kind of you Neil. Indeed, it hurts to read a report with such negative content. HMIC se han pasado more so when Matt Parr told us that we didn't need to worry, that all was good. It makes me wonder what has changed from that conversation I had with him to the end product of the report. But hey, strong chin & broad back and I will turn this around. Thanks for your unstinting support.

Best,

Ian

[08/10/2019, 12:22:06] Ed Davis: Indeed. Very useful that Matt Parr is coming soon.

[08/10/2019, 12:30:23] Ian McGrail: Indeed

[08/10/2019, 17:21:54] Ed Davis: Commissioner, just sent some press lines on a long list of Qs from Panorama regarding the GPF survey to your office. Any comments gladly received by midday tomorrow. Assume you /RGP have been asked similar Qs?

Best, Ed

[08/10/2019, 17:26:45] Ian McGrail: You deleted this message.

[08/10/2019, 17:42:04] Ian McGrail: Sir, I am asking my press officer if anything has been fired our way. I did get questions from the Chronicle though and extracts of my response were published on last friday's edition. I'll share with you what I sent to the Chronicle. Rgds

[08/10/2019, 18:06:44] Ian McGrail: You deleted this message.

[08/10/2019, 18:07:21] Ian McGrail: Sir

My media officer has confirmed that we have not received any questions from Panorama. I have already responded to Matthew Bennet's email incorporating my statement to the Chronicle and an observation of a section of your press line which I would ask you to consider.

I note that you intend meeting with the GPF which to discuss the matter. Could I kindly ask whether I would be able to meet with you beforehand so I can provide you certain documentation and contextual insight from the RGP Command's perspective?

Rgds

Ian

[09/10/2019, 14:29:04] Ed Davis: Thanks for the comment - incorporated. Just forwarded to P. And of course I will chat to you before GPF. Also want to talk to Joey B - with you or separately? Happy either way.

[09/10/2019, 14:31:39] Ian McGrail: Happy either way myself - whatever is more convenient for yourself.

Rgds

[09/10/2019, 14:32:41] Ed Davis: Together, please. I'll get Yasmin to tee up sometime during next week.

[09/10/2019, 14:38:34] Ian McGrail: Ok Sir

[11/10/2019, 15:55:40] Ian McGrail: Sir, ref Panorama's front page today, the CM has said absolutely nothing to me on the subject. I have written to him and he has responded stating it all skewered by Panorama & that he will be responding later today.

Rgds

[11/10/2019, 19:07:58] Ed Davis: Good. As we discussed, we all need to be in lock-step on our messaging. I will tee up a 4-way (CM, you, Joey and me) to agree next collective moves. Have a great weekend.

[02/12/2019, 17:43:58] Ed Davis: Evening Ian, good work on Vox. Thanks.

Do you have an email for Dean Haydon - can't find mine.

Ed

[02/12/2019, 18:06:40] Ian McGrail: Wait one

[02/12/2019, 18:07:09] Ed Davis: Thanks

[09/05/2020, 14:35:15] Ed Davis: Dear Ian, just thought I'd touch base to, first and foremost, check you, Diane and the family are well given the scourge of CV - we'll done in managing it so well - and second, just to let you know I'm thinking of you and the Force as you lean into taking forward HMIC's report.

Given the resource / capability pressures of assuring such a small national Force, I judge the headlines are fundamentally positive being in step with the Force's innate and unique challenges. But never an easy read for the leadership and officers as such reports, purposely, focus on shortfalls not successes.

Corruption? Well, nothing wrong with tightening mitigation even it's not a problem today.

So, as I know you and RGP will, charge on by embracing-adapting-progressing. Rooting for you from afar, as always, as you walk that path with belief and pride.

Warmest best to you and Diane.

Ed

PS - really enjoying not having to read the Panorama any more!

[09/05/2020, 14:55:03] Ian McGrail: Sir, great to hear from you. All good here thanks. The force is responding very well to the rhythm & tone we set to deal with CV.

The HMICFRS report, well.....obviously disheartened, more so when Matt Parr stated there was nothing to worry about when he was over. But as you allude, I have embraced the recommendations with positivity and have commenced work to address them. Yes, the positives don't feature and in that sense the reading of the report makes it all the harder to swallow. And I agree, pride and belief in abundance !

Many thanks for your unstinting support which I really appreciate.

Diane & I send our best wishes to Lorraine and yourself.

Ian

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE
POLICE

31 January 2020

Dear Commissioner,

May I thank you for three things. First, my magnificent RGP officer figurine – I love it. Second, for the inspiration and pride the RGP has given me during my tenure as Governor. It has been a true privilege and immense pleasure to have been a champion for your outstanding Police officers for the last four years. And, finally, on a personal note, thank you for your friendship and support on a sometimes difficult journey. Together, whilst as ever, much remains to be done, I will be forever grateful for your comradeship in our endeavours to assure the future of the Rock's very special Police Force.

Very respectfully,

EJ

20.	08/03/2020	0329hrs	Facts established at a subsequent date by the SOLIS maritime accident investigator. The Sir John Chapple intercepts the Suspect RHIB at Coordinates 36° 11.7'N 005° 18.1'W. Blue beacons activated on PMB. Suspect RHIB performs evasive and dangerous manoeuvres and objects were thrown at Police Vessel by suspect RHIB crew members.	The coordinates and timing are provided are from the SOLIS draft report which has been obtained from the suspect RHIB's navigational equipment (Appendix 19). According to WHSS the intercept occurs at 0332hrs (Appendix 20, 30 & 74). According to officer 1, PMB commenced to follow the suspect RHIB after the suspect RHIB passed in front of the bow of the PMB at a distance of about 5-10metres (Appendices 15, 16 & 17). This contradicts the direction of the suspect RHIB as Meikle's report evidences. Officer one states the vessel is travelling south east and officer three states it was travelling south. WHSS also state that they can observe PMB blue beacon illuminated during the chase. This was also confirmed by the PMB officers and Bruno Miguel Gomes

				Sereno (one of the persons arrested) During the course of the pursuit crew members from the suspect RHIB began to throw objects at the PMB according to the statements from the PMB officers. It has also been noted in the officers' statements and the statements obtained from WHSS that the suspect RHIB carried out erratic and evasive manoeuvres. In the SOLIS report these movements are described as sharp turns.
21.	08/03/2020	0338hrs	According to the marine expert, the collision occurred at around 03:38:56, in position 36° 09.96' N 005° 12.51' W	Initially we are provided similar coordinates by the GC as a result of a telephone call made by DI Chipolina (DI Chipolina File note) Subsequently we photographed the suspect RHIB's radar signal last screen and this provides us with a suspected collision coordinate but we could not interpret this data as we did not have an understanding of the unit and had no expertise in this field. This was subsequently verified by Capt. Meikle in his SOLIS draft report. (Appendix 19). According to WHSS the pursuit ends at 0342hrs (Appendix 20, 30 & 74). Thermal imagery The officers' statements also make reference to the collision and end of the pursuit but they do not provide a time and location.
22.	08/03/2020		Immediately after the collision PMB turns to the suspect RHIB and comes alongside. Officers 1 & 2 jump onto the suspect RHIB and begin to offer medical assistance, after observing the fatality and the seriousness of the second casualty it was decided to convey the persons back to GGMS via towing the suspect RHIB where they could receive medical attention.	These are accounts are from officers 1, 2 & 3 (appendices 15, 16 & 17). The decision to not leave any officer on board the suspect RHIB was taken by officer one as he feared for their safety and also taking into account that he and his crew were suffering from shock. There is no mention of calling a May Day by the officers.

23.	08/03/2020	0339hrs	PMB call GC COS at 03:39 (duration 15 seconds)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23).
24.	08/03/2020	0343hrs	PMB calls WHSS and informs them of the collision with one fatality and a second person seriously injured. Duration 1:10	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23). None of the officer's mention calling a May day and this is evidenced in the Solis report. This is also reflected in Daniel Ferro and GDP PC Kilpatrick's Statements (Appendix 20 & 30).
25.	08/03/2020	0345hrs	PMB calls GC COS. The duration of this call is about 44 seconds however the contents of the conversation is unknown.	There is no Specific mention of this Call by officer 1 however it has been identified from the Gibtelecom call logs (Appendix 23). Officer 1 states in his statement that he receives a call (contrary to the telephone log) from the GC COS. He further states that he cannot recall the conversation, he just remembers this being about "something to do with "la Roca" or "enfrente la Roca" (Appendix 15).
26.	08/03/2020	0346hrs	Sir John Chapple heads back to Gibraltar with suspect RHIB on tow.	This time has been identified by the SOLIS Draft Report (Appendix 19). Officers one's statement makes mention to suffering engine failure following the collision (Appendix 15) along
27.	08/03/2020	0348hrs	PMB calls RGP NMH and informs the duty crown sergeant of the incident and one fatality with a second seriously injured and request ambu lance to await arrival at GGMS. Duration 2:24	Although the officer does not make mention of the time. The information in this section is obtained from officer 1's statement (Appendix 15). The time of the call has been retrieved from the Gibtelecom phone logs (Appendix 23). The Police CAD Logs and PC 117 Fortunato provide a time of 0345hrs (Appendix 64 & 27). PS Stone states that he was passed the phone call about 0400hrs (Appendix 28). Officer one explains to PS Stone that they had been involved in a chase of a smuggling RHIB approximately 3 miles off Europa Point. This is mentioned in the CAD log (Appendix 64). This is also explains Officer 1's rationale as to why he did not want to leave an officer aboard the suspect RHIB in case further medical attention was required.

28.	08/03/2020	0350hrs	PS 6 Stone contacts Duty Officer, (Insp Lutkin) and informs him of the incident. Inspector returning to duty and attending Marine Base.	PS Stone's (Appendix 28) statement does not provide a time that he informed the Duty Inspector, however the time presented is taken from the notes made in the CAD Log (Appendix 64). Inspector Lutkin's statement (Appendix 58) states that he received a call "at about" 0345hrs.
29.	08/03/2020	0353hrs	DCI Field (Gold Command on call) is called by Inspector Lutkin and informed of Incident	These details are from DCI Field's Notes

This is an MOD telephone number which although is suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers.
32.	08/03/2020	0355hrs	GPF Chairman is contacted by PMB over the incident.	DCI Field notes
33.	08/03/2020	0356hrs	Call made from PMB to WHSS the duration of this call was 1:11.	There are no details of this call in any officers statements but a call is reflected in Daniel Ferro & GDF PC Kilpatrick's Statements aroun 0350hrs (Appendices 20 & 30). This could also be reflected in serial number 22.
34.	08/03/2020	0357hrs	There are a total of four calls made from NMH to PMB: 03:57:55 (no duration) 03:59:06 (no duration)	There is no mention of these call on the CadLog (Appendix 64). W do not have any details of call bu In the statement of PS Stone

			03:59:45 (1:59) 04:00:56 (1:59)	(Appendix 28) The Crown Sgt contacts PMB, Officer 1 states that he was encountering engine failure and requests for assistance from HM Customs marine unit to deploy and help convey the injured back to GGMS to receive medical treatment. The details of these calls come from the Gibtelecom logs (Appendix 23).
35.	08/03/2020	0357hrs	PS Stone contacts DS Garratt (Crime on Call) and apprised of situation.	This is from the CAD Log (Appendix 64).
36.	08/03/2020	0400hrs	The Port VTS Supervisor on duty Iain Undery receives a call from Tarifa Traffic where he was informed that they had received a call from an unknown person reporting that there had been a serious incident at sea just off the port of Atunara. As a result of this, Undery contacted PMB and informed him of the report made to him. To this the PMB crew confirm that there had been an incident and they had the vessel on tow.	This is reflected in the statement of Iain Undery (Appendix 29). Officer 1 states that he receives a call from the Port Boarding officer but does not recall the conversation (Appendix 15). The Gibtelecom log (Appendix 23) does not reflect an incoming call from the Port Authority. It does show an outgoing call to Port Boarding officer from PMB at 0413hrs.

			coordinates for the collision. GC stated that an initial report had been prepared but needed to be referred/ discussed with the designated duty court/ judge. GC stated that the approximate coordinates supplied previously to DI Chipolina stood and that the SIVE technicians had yet to extract and validate such data. They confirmed the approximate collision location was 6 to 6.5 miles off Santa Barbara Beach. GC asked if we could provide initial incident report via Schengen channels and DI Chipolina informed he would refer the request and revert once back in Gibraltar. GC stated the previous convictions of the 4 occupants would be sent by email upon request and through Schengen channels. Prior to ending meeting there was a brief discussion where the structure and conduct of investigations were summarised. GC confirmed they would need to discuss with a judge, yet to be appointed.

183.	09/03/20	1433Hrs	CoP messages GPA Chair "Joey - been working through the weekend on this collision case. I am going to email you, (or if you want Elka), to formally notify you of the incident and refer you the fact that an investigation is underway. For purposes of transparency, this investigation should be independent & therefore I am trying to source out a team willing to take on the task. In UK the IOPC (our PCB) would decide whether the investigation would be wholly independent of managed by them with an external 3rd party (senior officer) overseeing on their behalf. If we applied that locally, it would mean the PCB would manage the investigation and we'd require a senior UK Officer to oversee it on the PCB's behalf. The field work though would be done by RGP Professional Standards. It may not be the best model as the independence element is not total. Then again for practicalities sake it may prove useful. I need to discuss the matter further with you & perhaps Frank too but I'm conscious that you're away. I have held meetings with the AG & HE (Nick Pyle) and they support my intent to secure the best model to use. Regards Ian"	CoP – GPA Chair Whatsapp chat log.

188.	09/03/2020	1439hrs	CoP messages GPA Chair The GPA/PCB (Police Complaints Board) should though retain some control similar to that when they receive a complaint against Police. Technically there isn't a complaint as no family member has yet filed one but it could happen. Even if it didn't happen, the fact that deaths have occurred we should treat this as an external complaint and not as internal one generated by the RGP itself. He briefs him as to the incident involving the fatal collision at sea and that PIP has been implemented with an SIO being provisionally appointed but highlights the importance for this type of matters being dealt with by an independent team. Goddard is informed that CoP reached out to the Small island Forum Police forces but what was offered was not the ideal scenario, being a 3rd party oversight for a managed type investigation on behalf of the PCB. He explains that the PCBs role in Gibraltar does not have capacity or the capability to carry out investigations. CoP also informs them that the services of the MDP in Gibraltar was sought but their senior management informed they did not have the skills required for such task. Therefore he has requested the assistance of Goddard. He explains that he is looking for an independent force investigation team to take on the task. Lastly, CoP also asked to see if assistance can also be provided by identifying a forensic pathologist who would be able to perform the PMs on both deceased prior to that which has already been arranged for the end of the week, explaining to him that the reasons are to mitigate any threats which might materialise by having the bodies within the hospital mortuary. 			"Michael - we have still not provided any official account to GC of the incident at sea and they have asked for a brief from us. I am now at a stage where I also require background details of those who were on-board the RHIB as this is being requested by the independent investigation team. I can hardly ask them for these details when we haven't released anything official to them. Its only prudent to do so I propose to send them the below details and on the back of this make our request to them. I would appreciate your views on what i propose to send. STARTS Ref: Initial Incident Report – Collision at Sea with fatalities At about 0300hrs on Sunday 8th March 2020, officers from the Royal Gibraltar Police Marine Interceptor Sir John Chapple (Bravo 4) communicated with the Guardia Civil COS in relation to the presence of a suspect susect vessel activity in waters off the Playa de Santa Barbara, near to the eastern side between Gibraltar and La Linea. Bravo 4 deployed and remained ready to engage at a point approximately 3 miles East of the runway. Soon afterwards a chase ensued with the suspect vessel and Bravo 4 challenging the vessel, a 14mt semi-rigid hulled inflatable vessel (RHIB) crewed by 4 occupants, powered by 4 x 300hp engines and fitted with Garmin radar. The said vessel was suspected to be involved in illicit drugs trafficking activity. During the course of a high-speed pursuit shortly afterwards, there was a collision between both vessels, and this resulted in the death 2 of the 4 RHIB's occupants, namely: [redacted]

[redacted]

The remaining 2 occupants sustained injuries of various types, and were conveyed to St Bernard's Hospital in Gibraltar where they received treatment for their injuries and later discharged.

[redacted]

[redacted]

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were arrested on suspicion of Importing a Prohibited Import (14mt RHIB), Dangerous Navigation and Obstructing Police. [redacted] gave a "No comment" interview at New Mole House Police station and [redacted] gave only a brief account of events stating that he had been 1 of the 4 RHIB's occupants and that they had been chased by Police between Gibraltar and Spanish waters prior to the collision between both vessels.

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were later bailed out in the sum of £2500.00 to return to New Mole House Police Headquarters at 1100hrs on the 4th June 2020 whilst enquiries continue.

A Coroner's investigation is already underway into the deaths of [redacted] and [redacted], and post-mortem examinations will be conducted by a Forensic Pathologist on Wednesday 11th March and Thursday 12th March 2020. The Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police has sought assistance of specialist investigators from the United Kingdom. ENDS"

Chris Finch is representing the families. The independent team from London will be arriving tomorrow morining. They are 5 in number, headed by a superintendent. The 3 officers are in a bad way psychologically and have not yet provided a full account of the incident though our procedures allow for upto 7 days for them to do so in certain circumstances. The Fed are bringing out a specialist lawyer from UK to advise the officers and they are being advised not to produce their respective accounts until then. An awkward situation indeed. In terms of the investigation proper the evidence points at the pursuit & collision occurring outside BGTW. Not the best news we wanted to hear. 			They were obviously cagey with our UK colleagues but it served well to demonstrate that we were totally transparent. The UK team were happy with the meeting. What I was able to elicit from GC is that a judge is still to be assigned the matter & it is likely that it'll be a judge from La Linea. Again because of their lock down there are delays in their courts. GC anticipate that when appointed, the judge will request information and accounts from us. What form this will take is not clear - the judge could potentially summons our officers to provide their statements in person or simply request their accounts via police to police channels. What mechanisms we should rely on to facilitate this, were we to oblige, is something we'll need to discuss. GC also expects the family of the deceased to file a complaint in their courts to seek compensation. This will no doubt complicate matters for us as the judge may be swayed to look at the matter from a different perspective in terms of where the collision took p lace. GC are requesting from us for photos of the vessels, post mortem reports & statements from those involved in the collision. We have to carefully study this request and weigh the pros and cons of withholding the data or provide it at some point. Speak soon."

341.	26/03/2020	1141hrs	Leigh Debono from Verralls, emailed DI Perera asking to be provided with the medical records o [redacted] as his doctor in Spain was asking for it.	DI Perera Emails

342.	26/03/2020	1256hrs	Mr Finch from Verralls, contacts CI Perez and informs him that he is acting for the families of the deceased and their respective estates in Gibraltar. He also states that he is liaising with Spanish lawyers who are working on this matter in Spain. He requires to be provided with information, if he is to discharge the legal onus in both a criminal and civil context. He looks for an insight into the incident, including whether the coxswain of the RGP vessel has been suspended pending inquiry and whether rye Police will be seeking the adjournment of the Coroner's investigation, as he claims to be normal practice where a criminal offence has been committed.	DI Perera Emails
343.	26/03/2020	1628hrs	Mr Debono from Verralls is informed by DI Perera that as part of the investigation the RGP had not obtained any medical evidence, as the survivors, had been arrested in relation to offences which would not be justified for the RGP to request such information as it would not prove or disprove any of the offences mentioned. He was anyhow informed that if he requires such information, a SAR would have to be submitted to the GHA, as it was were his client had been treated and examined.	DI Perera Emails
344.	26/03/2020	1652hrs	Supt Richardson emails DCI Gary Smith MPS and enquiries whether he wishes for Mr Finch to correspond with him directly or to be filtered by RGP PSD. Supt Richardson informs DCI Smith that given that we no longer have grounds to suspect that any part of the chase took place within BGTW, the RGP intends to recall the survivors and release them from arrest.	Supt Richardson emails
345.	26/03/2020	1713hrs	Mr Debono from Verralls emails DI Perera and informs him that the medical notes he was referring to was that which he had been shown by the Custody Sergeant whilst at NMH.	DI Perera Emails

346.	27/03/2020	1031hrs	CI Perez replied to Mr Finch and informed that COP has instructed that for the purpose of transparency an independent investigation will be carried out to determine the events that lead to the tragic incident. He informed that an approach has been made to UKs NPOC and a team of the MPS was deployed t Gibraltar. It was further added that due to the current pandemic the team had to return to the UK earlier than thought.	DI Perera Emails
347.	27/03/2020	1156hrs	After consultation with the RGP DPO, DI Perera informs Leigh Debono from Verralls, that that the doctor's note he is referring too as being shown in custody has been identified. Anyhow, his client (or through him with his expressed consent), should submit a SAR to the RGP for it to be considered.	DI Perera Emails
348.	01/04/2020	1140hrs	CI Field authorised the release of the two survivors arrested on the day of incident without any charges being preferred against him. This was done by the Custody Sgt through Verralls.	Email from DCI Field
349.	01/04/2020	1856hrs	Gary Smith from MPS team informs COP, Supt Richardson and DCI Field via email to tell the lawyer representing the families Mr Chris Finch to go through RGP PSD rather than link directly with MPS. DCI Gary Smith includes in his email that he is aware that the criminal case against the survivors has discontinued and the family of the deceased/ survivors and are considering legal action against the RGP/ those deployed in the vessel. The Spanish may also be considering a homicide investigation. So restriction/ suspension may occur.	Supt Richardson email
350.	03/04/2020	1123hrs	CI Perez informs Mr Finch that all future communication with the RGP should be channelled through him. In respect to requests made by Mr Finch for the disclosure of PM reports and the opportunity to inspect the vessels, CI informed that the Coroner has indicated that the PM reports will be disclosed once he has received the final report from the pathologist. AS to the vessels, he was told that the Coroner is yet to	DI Perera Emails

358.	21/04/2020	1430hrs	Meeting held by Supt Richardson, DCI Field, CI Perez and DI Perera. Roles of each of these officers discussed. DCI to act as liaison with Met Police Team. CI Perez to be SPOC for Chris Finch and DI Perera to resume role of Coroners officer. Supt Richardson requested 1. Find out if lawyer was called whilst in custody. 2. Ask GC if an allegation has been made in Spain 3. What is GC's Position	DI Perera Notes
359.	21/04/2020	1530hrs	DI Perera informs FLO that two 10x16 have been released from arrest. Requesting to ascertain from families if they still have the same legal counsel in Gibraltar in case RGP need to contact them.	FLO PC Passano notes

360.	21/04/2020	1540hrs	DI Perera contacts GC and ascertains GC's position to which they reply that they are not aware of any formal complaints made in Spain. Will enquire with authorities and will inform DI Perera. GC also stated that GC had submitted a report but had still not been taken over by any judge. GC currently untasked.	DI Perera Notes
361.	21/04/2020	1553hrs	FLO receives a message from [redacted] (family of [redacted]) to state that they still retain the same Gibraltar lawyers and he does not recall the details of the lawyer in Spain and would communicate this back to the officer (No further information received) Irene does not reply to message. 362.	21/04/2020	1600hrs	FLO tasked by DI Perera, (following meeting with Supt Richardson, to try and ascertain from families of deceased what lawyers they were instructing) and to provide families with an update of investigation.	DI Perera Notes
363.	21/04/2020	1850hrs	Update received from HTCU: Due to the current capabilities available to the RGP HTCU, out of the nine phones which were either in possession of the crewmembers of the suspect RHIB or found strewn on its deck, full extractions or unlocking of the devices to access its data have not been possible on four of the phones. In view of this, through HTCU, contact has been made with their counterparts abroad (Cellebrite, to see if they are able to access the phones in question and extract any relevant data held on them. Once a reply is returned and if in the positive, it will be forwarded to HM Coroner for approval in meeting the costs. Another option offered by HTCU with six of the phones, is to request information in respect of SIM cards and their PUK codes, from their service providers (all of which are from Spain). With this their might be a possibility of retrieving call data. However, it must be borne in mind that that requesting this through the official channels, such as EIOs, MLAs, etc, is not an option, as the investigation is not of a criminal nature and there is no	DC 106 Oton specific power under the Coroner's Act. . A formal letter could be sent to a foreign authority to seek such information but it is not known whether it will be replied too..

364.	22/04/2020	1200hrs	Meeting between AG, DPP and CoP ref communications from lawyers representing the deceased indicating that that they would be making a civil claim for damages.. CoP enquires about crown counsel representation and again the need to agree a strategy. DPP states, no civil claim has yet been filed so no immediate need to appoint counsel. AG would give thoughts whether to leave the matter to be discussed at [Brexit] law enforcement group meeting or privately with his Brexit negotiator counterpart.	CoP notes
365.	22/04/2020	1234hrs	DI Perera informs HM Coroner that he has once again resumed the role of Coroner's Officer (as previously told to him by RGP SMT). Mr Pitto is informed that in respect of the mobile phones held in relation to this investigation, due to the software / encryption issues faced by the HTCU, some of these cannot be accessed for the purposes of retrieving date. He has been informed that enquiries will carried out with HTCU counterparts in UK to see if they would be able to do this. The reason to continue pursuing their contents, is to try to establish where each of the crewmembers onboard the suspect RHIB were sat. There might also be a possibility that information may be held on the phones as to messages / location of the chase and / or recordings of the incident. He is also asked if he authorises for the return of personal property which are not of evidential value, to the families of the deceased and survivors. Mr Pitto is also informed of a request from Mr Finch, to be provided with copies of the photographs of both PMs and that that of both vessels involved in the incident. He is asked how to proceed.	DI Perera Emails

366.	22/04/2020	1246hrs	DI Perera instructs FLO not to contact families anymore ref lawyers info, only welfare checks and if they provide lawyer info, the DI Perera to be informed.	FLO PC Passano notes
367.	22/04/2020	1603hrs	HM Coroner is forwarded an email sent by Mr Finch to CI PEREZ. This is for him to be aware of the stance being taken by VERRALLS. In the email, Mr Finch complains of not being provided with information requested and other requests made, including the surveying of the vessels by his own marine expert. He also asks for the location of the vessels at the time of the incident, asking if it happened in Spanish waters. Mr Finch claims that he will be writing to the Coroner as it appears the intention of the RGP is to close down all important avenues of enquires. He also claims that failure to suspend the officers involved in the collision indicates a predetermination of the enquiry from the outset, indicating a partisan approach and not that of an independent approach.	DI Perera Emails
368.	24/04/2020	1245hrs	Mr Finch emails Maurice Turnock from the Magistrates Court. He forwards him an email thread with CI Perez and wants for the Coroner to be informed of what he describes as serious problems he is encountering with the RGP. He states that he considers this case to be of an unlawful killing. He mentions international implications, including ECHR.	DI Perera
369.	24/04/2020	1521hrs	In respect of the email sent to Mr Pitto as to the stance taken by Mr Finch and the complains he is making, the Coroner informs that Mr Finch has been dealt with by necessary implication in a reply sent to him from his Office.	DI Perera Emails

He was asked if he authorised for this to be sent over for examination.	DI Perera Emails
375.	05/05/2020	1503hrs	HM Coroner informs that in respect of the examination of mobile phones, he was inclined to say no but would go through the SOLIS report prior to taking a decision.	DI Perera Notes
376.	06/05/2020	1118hrs	Mr Finch emails CI Perez complaining that he is still awaiting for a date for his maritime surveyor to be able to inspect the vessels involved in the collision. He also complains that there is no obvious reasons for the CSI phots taken of the vessels not being supplied to him.	DI Perera Emails
377.	06/05/2020	1614hrs	HM Coroner emails DI PERERA and informs that Mr Finch will be supplied with all necessary reports and information, once the Coroner's investigation was complete. He informed that this reflect the inquisitorial nature of the coronial process and the fact that in an inquest, interested persons are not parties as they might be in atrial. He states that if Mr Finch is interested in pursuing the matter on behalf of his clients civilly or even criminally, he should institute proceedings and acquire the rights of a party at trial in that way. He also stated that he had no difficulty I returning the property (of deceased and survivors), even the phones.	DI Perera Emails to life, potential payment of huge amounts of damages, the potential extradition and liberty of serving police officers being at stake, the issue of Standard Operating Procedures which may be in place and the management thereof. All of that is in addition to the huge potential political exposure that arises for Gibraltar as a result thereof and the concomitant (and dangerous) issues of sovereignty and the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea. Indeed, it is difficult to think of an issue as fundamental as this affecting the RGP, certainly in the time I have been in office. There is no consideration in the email below of claims or offences going beyond "the officers crewing the vessel", which is also, in my view an issue that may also need further consideration. As you know, it comes against the backdrop of the very unflattering report from the HMICFRS. I am therefore surprised and greatly disappointed that these issues have not been the subject of a detailed submission to me by the Commissioner in respect of the events in question and the issues which now arise. I shall therefore be writing directly to the Commissioner on this and all other aspects of this matter. [11/07/2018, 08:36:55] Ian McGrail: CM - we have a situation developing at sea with a spanish fishing vessel. Dept of Environment have [11/07/2018, 08:37:44] Ian McGrail: Intercepted and boarded a fishing trawler. Its got physical. We have got involved and effected arrests.

[11/07/2018, 08:38:26] Ian McGrail: I am getting fed info as I text. Will provide a more accurate picture when I have it.

[11/07/2018, 08:38:51] Fabian Picardo: Ok. Thanks pls let me have the info as soon as possible.

[11/07/2018, 09:16:43] Ian McGrail: Situation addressed. We have taken executive action which I will explain in detail when we meet in your office at 1030 ahead of GCC. We've had the expected stand-off with 3 GC vessels, the trawler and 3 of ours.

[11/07/2018, 09:22:39] Fabian Picardo: An officer in the sea?

[11/07/2018, 09:25:03] Ian McGrail: Yes, no injuries. Still determining how he went over. My info suggests he fell in of his accord and not because of any aggression.

[22/08/2018, 19:42:53] Ian McGrail: CM - Been off line all day till now as I'm on holiday and spent the day at a secluded cove where there was no signal.

I have seen the Panorama 'Headlines - Top story' and that you have been tagged to their tweet. What a distortion of the truth !!! He has jumped on the back of an article responsibly written by the Chronicle, maliciously spinning it with a personal attack. Just for your information, the Chronicle interviewed me last week on my first 4 months in office - one of the subjects they asked on was the the murder enquiry. Brian has opted to run this part of the interview separate to the rest of the interview and Joe Garcia has thrown his toys out of the pram because he was not exposed to this interview.

I am not reacting to this because I would be giving him credit when he doesn't deserve it in the slightest on this matter.

[22/08/2018, 19:55:45] Fabian Picardo: Hi Ian. Not seen any of this as been away for my 48hrs holiday without the kids! Will see it when I get back in the office tomorrow. Anyway, they tag me every day to their headlines. Today I haven't even looked at Twitter! Whatever it is, you are right not to reply. That makes it worse! Enjoy your time off. Best wishes. Fabian

[22/08/2018, 19:59:19] Ian McGrail: You enjoy your break too. Rgds

[24/08/2018, 14:49:50] Fabian Picardo: Ian. Look at this and the various mentions of Gibraltarians and British Citizens. See what you can find out?

[18/02/2019, 17:59:27] Ian McGrail: CM - in light of the statement on behalf of the PM that it was not an incursion that of the P44 I need to brief you on a discussion I recently had with CBF which I reckon could be a developing posture by UK/MOD. I am at the Bunker tomorrow at 10am. It wouldn't take me more than 5mins. Rgds Ian.

[18/02/2019, 18:00:32] Fabian Picardo: Thanks Ian. Yes, pls come up then. Best wishes. Fabian.

[18/02/2019, 18:00:43] Ian McGrail: 👍

[01/03/2019, 17:07:21] Fabian Picardo: Ian Chronicle are asking me about an incident in the waters with the sva. Do you have any info?

[01/03/2019, 17:09:27] Ian McGrail: Yes - we are preparing a report to send to you. They stopped an american yacht after claiming it took a suspicious course. Both HMC and our vessels attended and asserted ourselves.

[01/03/2019, 17:16:55] Fabian Picardo: Great. Thanks. Were they very troublesome?

[01/03/2019, 17:18:04] Ian McGrail: No not apparently

[01/03/2019, 17:27:51] Fabian Picardo: 👍

[22/06/2019, 20:40:12] Ian McGrail: CM - a heads up - please see below text my senior officer on call has sent me

STARTS

There has been an in incident at sea, East side prob within BGTW when Spanish Law enforcement vessel had dealings with local pleasure boat. Details are very sketchy atm however included onboard local vessel. [redacted] apparently filmed the incident and says will forward to CM. I am waiting for a report with the facts and will update then. No persons detained or damage. Spanish vessel appears to have left as we arrived.

[26/06/2019, 16:43:27] Ian McGrail: CM - Been chatting to Stuart Green ref Panorama questions you have received regarding the Alcaidesa incident & your understanding of it having been dealt a civil matter? Could we have a quick chat about this. I am currently in the bunker with DCM in a brexit meeting.

[26/06/2019, 16:58:23] Fabian Picardo: Hi Ian. Happy to talk. Give me 5 mins. I didn't say it was a civil matter, I said it progressed as a private prosecution cos the victims insisted. But let's bottom that out.

[01/07/2019, 11:59:41] Ian McGrail: CM - could you extend a invite to John Rodriguez for GCC at 2pm?

[03/07/2019, 08:33:56] Ian McGrail: They are giving it a total different slant.

[03/07/2019, 08:34:35] Ian McGrail: Are we still on for this afternoon to meet.

[03/07/2019, 08:36:18] Fabian Picardo: Yes. Earlier is necessary.

[03/07/2019, 08:36:46] Ian McGrail: Indeed - what time is best for you?

[03/07/2019, 08:47:08] Fabian Picardo: I can shift everything else. Shall we go for 1115 if we need to? Others I think still aiming for 1430.

[03/07/2019, 08:51:55] Ian McGrail: We'll bring it forward to 1115.

[03/07/2019, 09:01:12] Fabian Picardo: Ok.

[03/07/2019, 09:01:44] Fabian Picardo: You think full gcc?

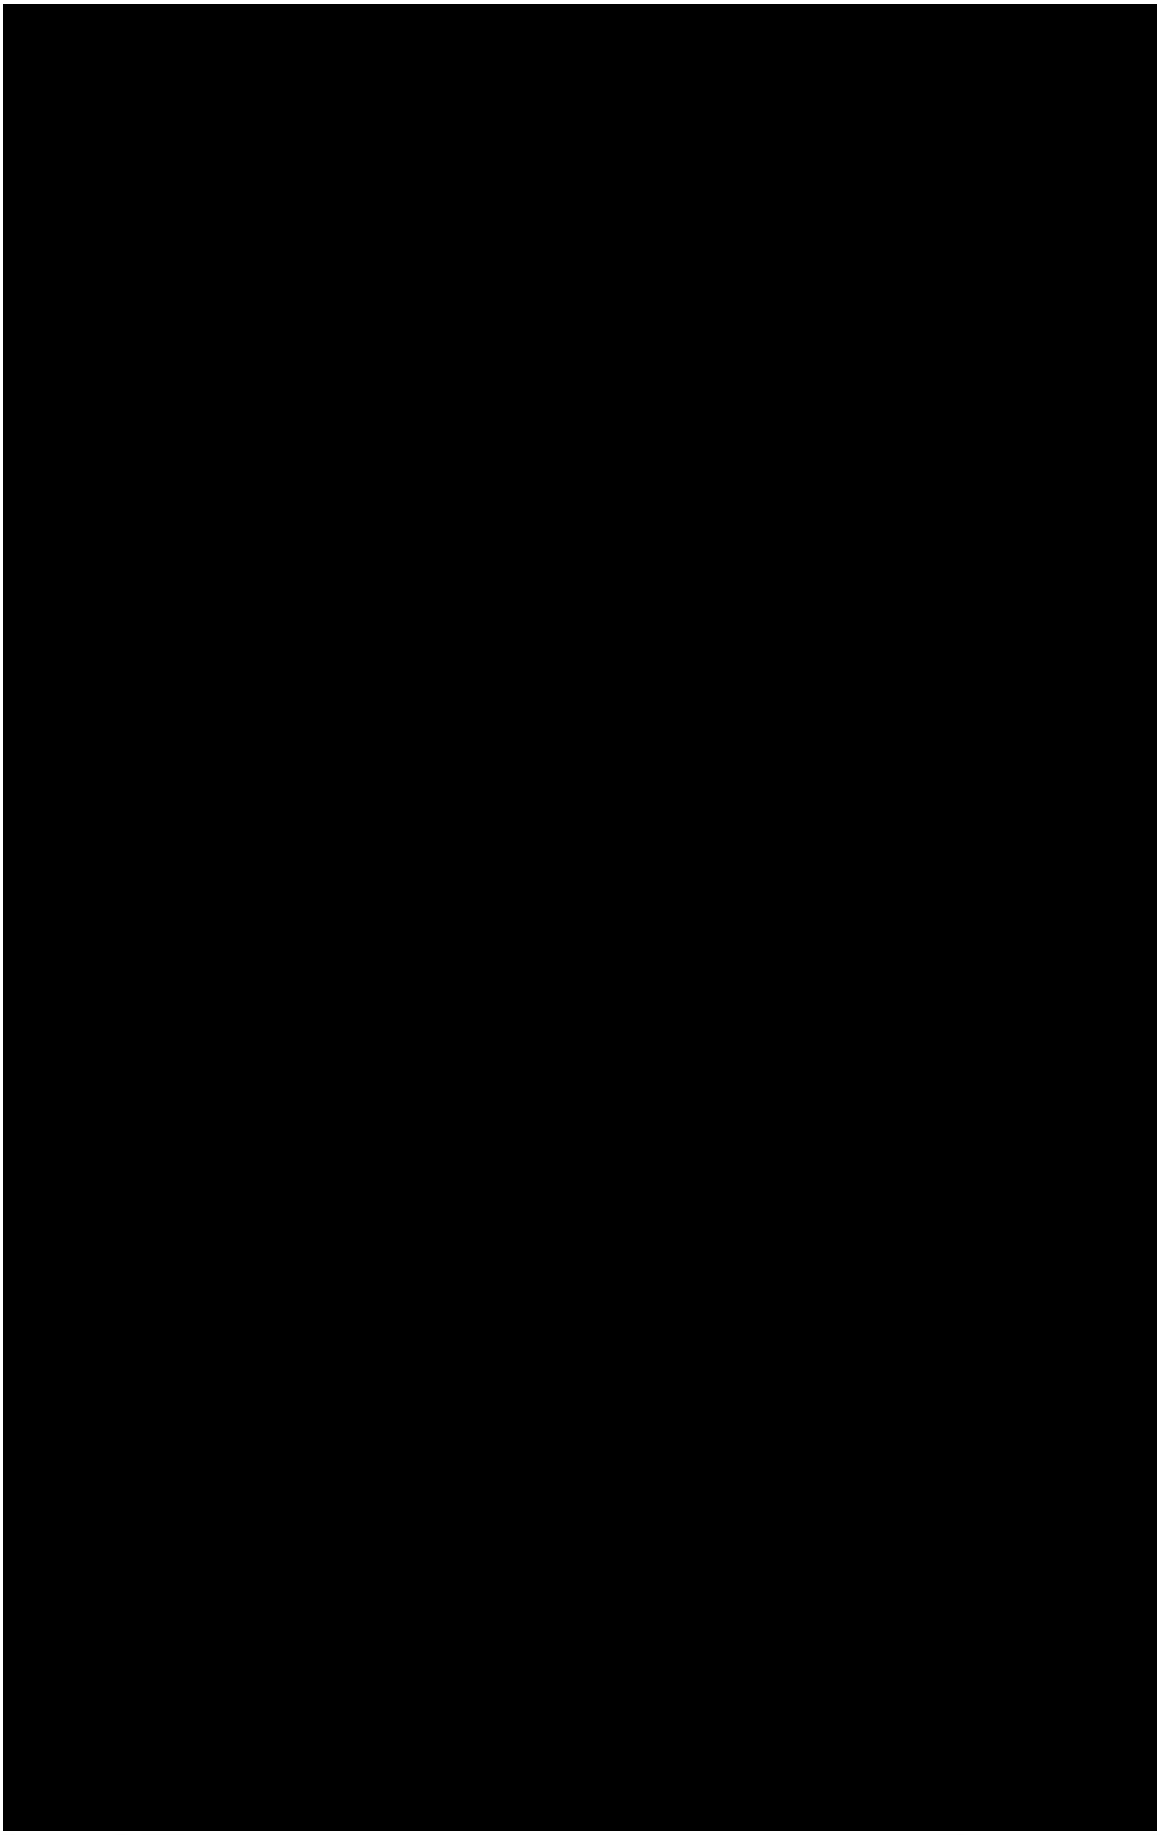
[03/07/2019, 09:05:40] Ian McGrail: It would keep everyone in the loop. Aside, the Chronicle was asking questions as they've sussed out something is up because of the increase in frequency of senior officials arriving at No6 of late. My officer who took the call played totally oblivious. [redacted] then said he was fishing! But if he latches on the Lloyds article he may link it up.

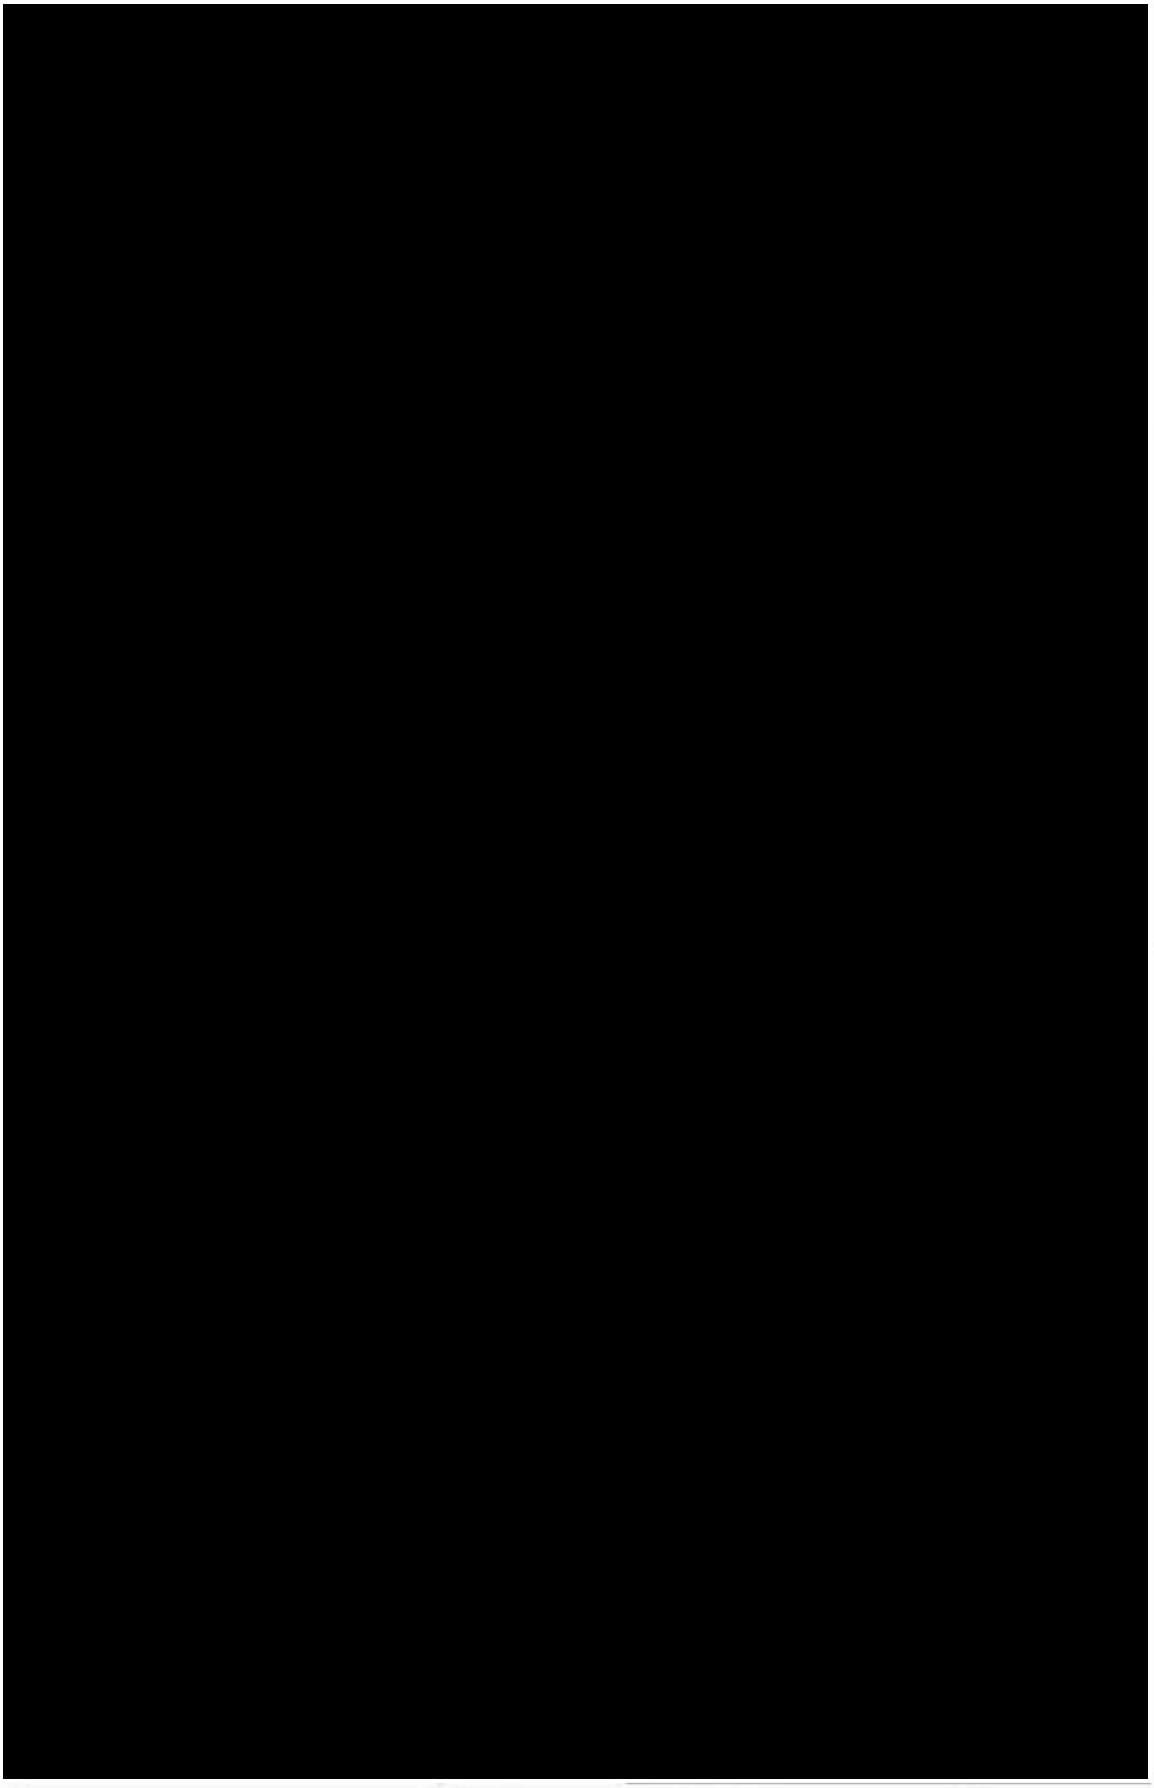
[03/07/2019, 09:06:11] Fabian Picardo: Ok. See you at 1115.

[03/07/2019, 09:06:26] Ian McGrail: HE & CBF can't make it at 1130.

[03/07/2019, 09:06:50] Fabian Picardo: Ok. So let's stick with 1430.

[03/07/2019, 09:07:01] Ian McGrail:





[11/07/2019, 09:29:57] Ian McGrail: Good morning CM - I would be extremely grateful for 5-10mins of your time to discuss what I foresee will become a very undesirable situation with regards to the relationship between the RGP and Gib Police Federation Board. Related to this I have tried seeking out information from Michael Crome on certain admin matters relating to the 2x full time convenors but he has referred me to you.

There is a clear pattern developing which is not heading in a good direction & which is why I feel it important that I explain how I am going to deal with the matter before it reaches you via the Fed Convenors themselves. Rgds Ian.

[11/07/2019, 09:42:16] Fabian Picardo: Hi. Sure. Lol better next week if possible?

[11/07/2019, 09:43:51] Ian McGrail: Yes that's ok. I will ask your office when its most convenient. Many thanks.

[11/07/2019, 09:48:40] Fabian Picardo: Ok. Great performance this week. Many challenges. Great success. F

[11/07/2019, 09:49:08] Ian McGrail: Indeed. Many thanks.

[14/07/2019, 14:32:24] Fabian Picardo: Me apuntan que una de las fuentes es el coronel de la Guardia Civil [14/07/2019, 14:32:38] Fabian Picardo: Ian this is what I am told by my sources in Spain.

[14/07/2019, 14:32:43] Fabian Picardo: The port tell me this/

[14/07/2019, 14:32:54] Fabian Picardo: 25/03/19 at 1500hrs as vessel was called to Gib pilot position master informs us that he has been contacted by Spanish customs who want to board the vessel to the east of the Traffic Separation Scheme (well outside bgtw)

[14/07/2019, 14:32:54] Fabian Picardo: VTS advise vessel to proceed accordingly - and at 1520hrs vessel advises that Spanish customs are onboard the vessel and the vessel is proceeding to ALGECIRAS

[14/07/2019, 14:32:55] Fabian Picardo: At 2200hrs, vessel advises it is released from ALGECIRAS and sails east - cancels call at Gibraltar

[14/07/2019, 14:33:11] Fabian Picardo: That is to say, nothing to do with you and nothing but cooperation from Gibraltar.

[14/07/2019, 14:33:22] Fabian Picardo: Do you think it is worth calling the colonel?

[14/07/2019, 14:36:08] Ian McGrail: Rather than call him, I will email him & ask if he has any notion it.

[14/07/2019, 14:52:54] Fabian Picardo: Thanks very much.

[14/07/2019, 14:54:39] Ian McGrail: I will also write to the SVA head in Algeciras.

[14/07/2019, 16:23:51] Ian McGrail: I haven't written off yet because information has been trickling in that there was some involvement from ourselves and indeed the Royal Navy. Below is a message from my people regarding the matter.

STARTS

We attended as we had been notified by Windy of an incident tak ng place in international waters. We were then requested by Windy to provide assistance to the RN (Who had two vessels) in shadowing the Spanish vessels out of BGTW. Windy nor RN knew what the incident was about. Neither did we.

It was only later on returning to base that on speaking to PS Stone that he remembered hearing something from HMC.

HMC were contacted and it appears they were aware of the Spanish Op but had not passed on the information to the RGP.

ENDS

I am informed that HMC were monitoring this vessel which was heading to Gib before it was boarded by SVA in international waters Unaware of this, the RN and RGP shadowed them as they transitted BGTW to Algeciras. They may have interpreted this as an interference which they are now captilising on. Under the circumstances it may be best not to respond to the article or enquire any further.

Rgds

Ian

[14/07/2019, 16:27:28] Ian McGrail: They have clearly exaggerated the issue though.

[14/07/2019, 19:30:27] Fabian Picardo: Not very de-escalatory...

[14/07/2019, 19:31:18] Fabian Picardo: Fyi. We need to be careful when we say things like "we are releasing the four" that we explain they are on bail, still under suspicion etc...

[14/07/2019, 19:32:17] Ian McGrail: Noted.

[13/09/2019, 09:26:22] Ian McGrail: Good morning CM - reading today's paper I note you are meeting with Juan Franco today. A quick heads up that in my contacts with 'el patron de la cofradia' Juan Morente, he mentioned that the fishermen had made representations to JF to raise the matter of commercial fishing with GoG. Thought I'd mention this to you in case it wasn't in the agenda and he springs it on to you.

[15/09/2019, 15:21:52] Fabian Picardo: Excellent!

[18/09/2019, 07:49:31] Fabian Picardo: Police lights in the bay? What's up?

[18/09/2019, 08:37:27] Ian McGrail: Morning CM - possible sighting of migrants trying to land. Rgds

[18/09/2019, 08:42:16] Ian McGrail: One migrant in custody having tried to land. There are another 30 on another vessel 6NM south.

[18/09/2019, 09:20:31] Fabian Picardo: Ok

[18/09/2019, 14:34:21] Ian McGrail: CM - I am informed that Maurice Morello of the Gib Pol Fed has sought a meeting with you. I respectfully ask that if he touches on the matter of his allowance as convenor, which is under review, that you take in to account my views and that of the Chief Sec. I had reason to make disciplinary intervention on him on Monday which is also why he may want to off load to you.

I am very disappointed with the way the GPF are conducting themselves - totally confrontational and toxic. Happy to discuss further if you feel the need to do so.

[18/09/2019, 15:09:24] Fabian Picardo: Thanks Ian. Will call you before I see him. Best wishes.

[18/09/2019, 15:10:00] Ian McGrail: Many thanks CM.

[20/09/2019, 10:36:04] Ian McGrail: Good morning CM - I need to brief you up on an operation we are going to strike on. I have spoken to MoJ who said it was best for me speak to you direct. I can do it over the phone or in person. Wouldn't take more than 5mins. However, I am due to fly out the afternoon on a job trip.

[20/09/2019, 10:44:12] Fabian Picardo: I will call you shortly.

[21/09/2019, 20:21:26] Fabian Picardo: Ian, fyi. Do we know what's up? Conscious you are out of Gibraltar.

[01/10/2019, 01:19:02] Fabian Picardo: Ian, do you know if all our people are ok?

[01/10/2019, 01:32:37] Ian McGrail: CM -

I have a team of my lot called down to look in to the circumstances of a collision at sea between a HMC patrol vessel crewed by 4 custom officers and a patera (number on board as yet unknown). Collision has resulted in a fatality of a man on board the patera. He is believed to be Spanish. No other casualties reported. This occurred at east side after Windy called in that they had seen small boat suspicious activity taking place. HMC attended and a chase of a patera ensued. How the collision occurred is still to be determined but an occupant on board the patera suffered fatal head injuries I am told. I have enquired whether HMC have post incident procedures for their personnel and this is being looked at. The body was brought to gunwharf marine base in HMC vessel where it currently remains until our forensic people do their business.

This is standard procedure in a sudden death.

[01/10/2019, 01:36:25] Fabian Picardo: Thank you Ian. I appreciate you letting me have this information. Now I am aware our people are all ok, I will await more information in the morning. If further information suggests and Gibraltarian is seriously injured or worse, especially if s/he were law enforcement, please let me know on [redacted]. Goodnight.

[01/10/2019, 13:04:33] Fabian Picardo: FYI, Customs officers concerned after incident last night and a worrying audio recording is going round. Have u heard it?

[01/10/2019, 13:04:34] Fabian Picardo: Not heard. RGP coordinating protection and reaching out. Am v concerned they should not try to do anything here or against our officers (primary concern) or assets (less concern but want to ensure we are secure). If he needs Protection etc, will be done. Does he want to see me?

[01/10/2019, 13:04:43] Fabian Picardo: Ian from Wendy Cumming and my reply.

[01/10/2019, 13:09:33] Ian McGrail: We are on it CM. I am maintaing very close contact with my CNP counterpart in La Linea. Also with HMC on an awareness regarding officer saftey. We are increasing our posture to safeguard assets and officer safety.

[01/10/2019, 13:11:06] Fabian Picardo: Excellent. I think this is a time for our guys to be very visible and armed at the frontier if you think.

[01/10/2019, 13:14:22] Ian McGrail: That is being arranged. Armed at sea too. I have closed down departments to have more boots on ground particulary at night.

Aside - the incident at Glacis is certainly not from today. It could be from yesterday or beyond.

[01/10/2019, 13:16:08] Fabian Picardo: Ok. Thank you. People were getting worried cos of the glacis video. WhatsApp is worse than Facebook! People believe it more.

[01/10/2019, 13:53:56] Ian McGrail: CM - For your info - the officer safety awareness notice we have sent to HMC, GDP & BCA has been irresponsibly shared on social media by one of the recipients, we do not know which of the agencies has put it out there.

[01/10/2019, 13:59:47] Fabian Picardo: Ffs. How can we help people if they won't help themselves!!! Where has it been shared?

[01/10/2019, 16:44:40] Fabian Picardo: Nose cuanta verdad ai en esto pero...

"Guys me han dichho ke alas 6 de la tarde se va a liar heavy en la frontera, a todo lo cars de Gib le van a hacer cosas y pegar tiro"

[01/10/2019, 16:44:48] Fabian Picardo: Ian, this is doing the rounds now...

[01/10/2019, 17:08:57] Ian McGrail: We know. We are in constant touch with CNP & GC. I have officers there now exchanging intel on this and other. If you can take a quick call I can explain a significant development.

[01/10/2019, 18:47:17] Fabian Picardo: Give me a minute.

[06/10/2019, 15:41:31] Ian McGrail: Aside, the post mortem of Alfredo Morodo has been completed. The body has been released by the coroner. Family content so far. We maintain close liaison with them via a family liaision officer. Hopefully repatriation will happen later today.

[06/10/2019, 15:46:40] Fabian Picardo: Ok thanks re both.

[06/10/2019, 15:47:40] Fabian Picardo: The assets off shore are ours or GC?

[06/10/2019, 15:49:13] Ian McGrail: Those on photos you've sent aren't ours. They look like SVA to me.

[06/10/2019, 15:59:34] Ian McGrail: The vessel towing the suspect vessel is our. Its being taken in to be forensically examined. We are trawling through CCTV to ID those who jumped ashore & those who picked them up.

[06/10/2019, 16:26:34] Ian McGrail: We've already identified the local who picked up

[09/10/2019, 16:29:42] Ian McGrail: CM - I am waiting to fly out from LGW in an hour or so. I have just received very disturbing news from Richard Ullger. He met with the GPF this afternoon and amongst other things the chairman has admitted meeting up with Leo Olivero for a coffee and making very damaging suggestions to him which brings absolute discredit on the RGP. You will be shocked when you hear it. I need to speak to you tomorrow to explain. I am seeing HE tomorrow together with Joey Britto and HE's request.

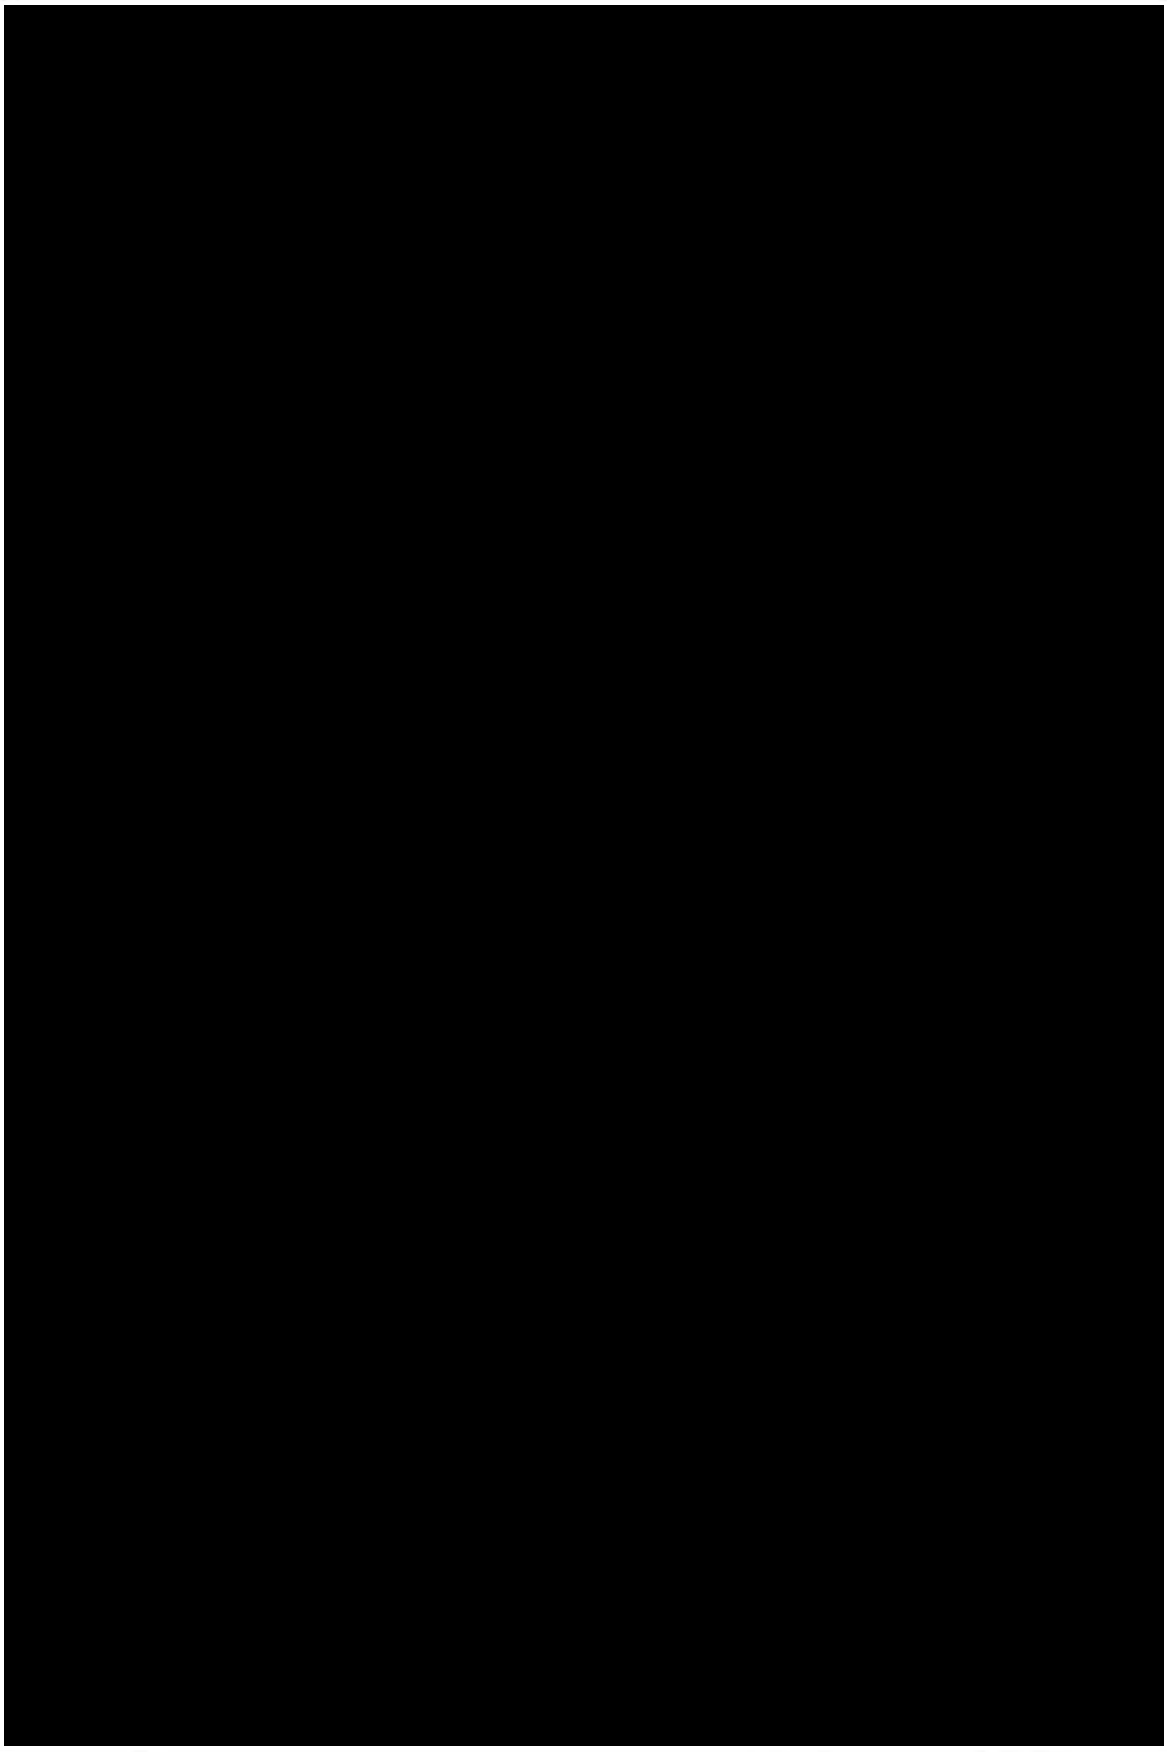
[10/10/2019, 12:37:00] Fabian Picardo: Noted. All we need.

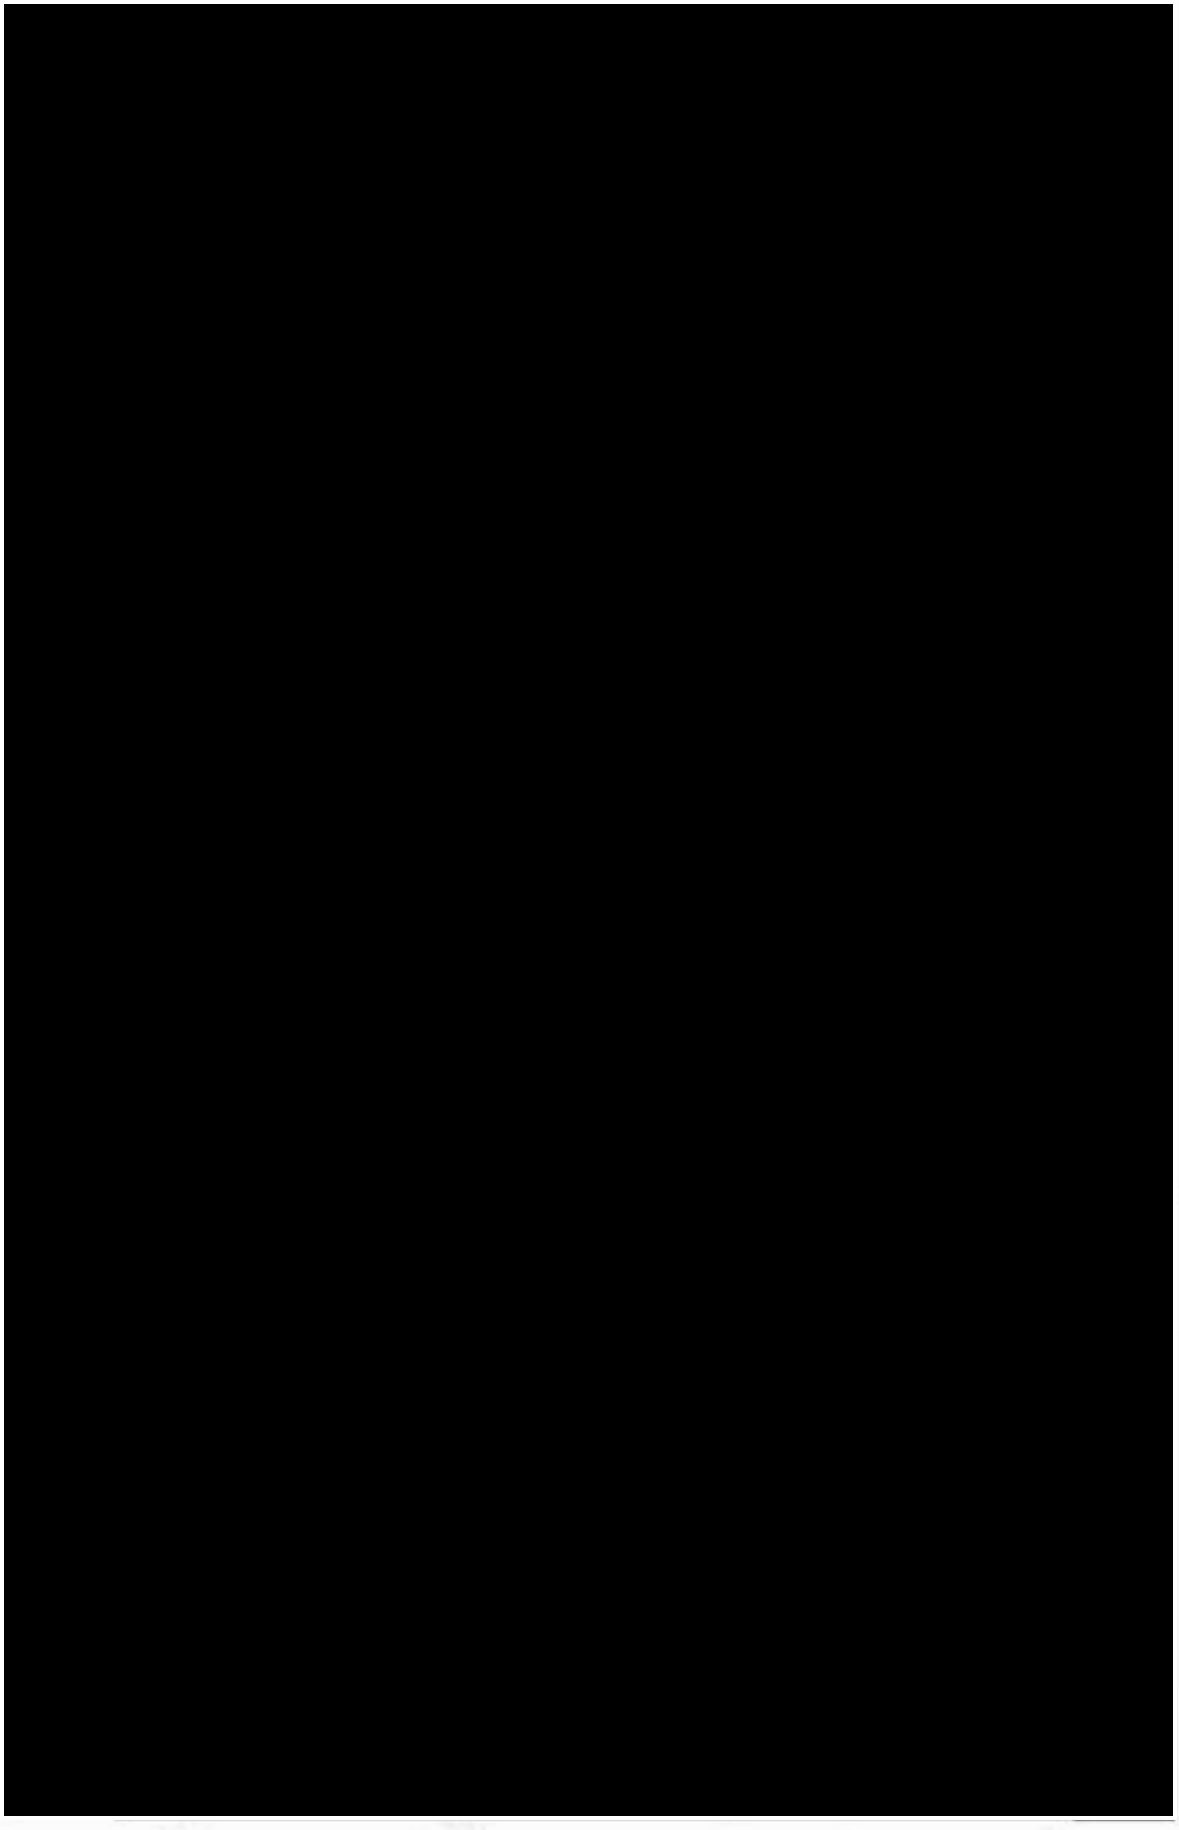
[10/10/2019, 12:41:11] Ian McGrail: I am dealing with Maurice Morello & Leif Simpson via discipline route but needed you to be aware in case you meet with them.

[11/10/2019, 13:24:46] Ian McGrail: CM - Have I missed a supposed communication from you ref not co-operating with Spanish Law Enforcement until they recognise our waters?

[11/10/2019, 13:37:42] Fabian Picardo: Completely skewered by Panorama of course. Utter nonsense. I will send you my full answer later.

[11/10/2019, 13:41:15] Ian McGrail: Many thanks. I do not intend to respond unless you think I should do so simply because as we know, it will just feed him to write further nonsense. It is so evident that they have a policy to try and discredit me at all costs and on all fronts.





[28/01/2020, 19:20:20] Ian McGrail: CM - I hope all is going well in London. I really feel tight bringing this matter up at this time when you are so tied up with Brexit matters but this issue is picking up considerable adverse traction - I am sure you aware of the latest diatribe viz the Gib Police Federation as exposed on Panorama & social media. I have today briefed Min Sacramento on my concerns, but post to this meeting I have been advised that you are favourably considering legislation to exclude the GPF conveners, who are warranted officers, from from Force discipline regulations. This has been said by the GPF Chair himself in quite an arrogant, defiant and confident tone earlier today. Surely this cannot be true & I sincerely hope this is 100% not the case. I seek your reassurance that this statement by Sgt Maurice Morello is incorrect. I, together with the senior command of the RGP are seriously concerned with the journey the GPF are on. Today Sgt Morello literally said that legislation is sitting on the CM's desk to exclude the conveners from any discipline regulations - you cannot imagine the adverse hype this is causing. Already I have notion of a very fractured GPF Board who are not all in agreement with the way the Chairman and Secretary are running business - this is not a healthy state of affairs at all. I trust we can meet on your return to Gib so that you can hear out the serious concerns we have with the latest developments.

Best rgds

Ian

[30/01/2020, 11:31:52] Fabian Picardo: Ian, as you can imagine, the last thing on my mind this week is the GPF. Things are not, in my view, as black and white as your SMT appear to see it or as the GPF see it. I have no legislation on my desk, but I am highly sympathetic to the principle that Union leaders should not be subject to the discipline of those who they represent their people against. I am happy to discuss this and consider with you how best to find a solution that works for all sides here. I also think that "an investigation into who has talked to Panorama" (which I am not saying is happening, but that newspaper has alleged under the pen of Leo Olivero), smacks of Zimbabwe. It's not a good look for a modern police force, in my view. Happy to tell you more when we meet.

[30/01/2020, 13:08:44] Ian McGrail: CM - Many thanks for your text. I strongly sense that you are not fully aware of the circumstances which has led to the assistant commissioner commencing an internal investigation. There has been a course of conduct developing during the past 2 years which we have, through subtle leadership, tried our very best to address. The principles of why the federation was created are being totally abused. Notwithstanding, I have certain suggestions to make when we meet & which can draw the line to all of this - I hope they will meet with your approval. CM, I have self reflected hard over the past few days. I can assure you that my intentions are in the best interests of the RGP and Gibraltar. If you accept my proposal on Wednesday when we meet I am confident that you will align yourself with my views on the matter.

Wishing you and the rest of the delegation a safe return home

Best regards

Ian

[30/01/2020, 13:11:28] Fabian Picardo: 👍

[07/02/2020, 17:25:14] Fabian Picardo: Thank you for the second letter to the GPA. Much appreciated.

[07/02/2020, 17:30:50] Ian McGrail: 👍 wishing you a good weekend.

[08/03/2020, 06:05:07] Ian McGrail: CM - We're dealing with a critical incident - one of our boats has been involved in a collision with a smuggling RHIB with 4 on board. 2 on the smuggling RHIB are fatalities. Our crew are uninjured but clearly shaken & shocked.

I am invoking Post Incident Procedures and planning for consequence management.

Once I have further updates I will let you know.

Rgds

Ian

[08/03/2020, 07:24:40] Fabian Picardo: Ian. Thank you. What are the nationalities of the deceased? Was it drugs or tobacco? Any GC or SVA involvement?

[08/03/2020, 07:33:49] Ian McGrail: So far we have 3 identified. 2 from Ceuta (moroccan decent) & a Portuguese. No Spanish law enforcement agency involved. RHIB suspected to be involved in drug smuggling. I have also informed The Convent. I have held a "Gold" command meeting in my office to address, welfare of the crew, the investigation that will now follow, security/safety to our law enforcement officers, community impact et al.

Also linked up with GC and CNP more so after the disturbances in La Linea after the other death involving the our customs patrol boat but given that those on the RHIB are not from this region it may not have an impact. I am still waiting for the 4th & (also deceased) to be identified.

[08/03/2020, 07:37:33] Ian McGrail: Just had the ID of the 4th one confirmed. He is also from Ceuta of Moroccan decent.

[08/03/2020, 07:40:51] Fabian Picardo: Thank you. Are our officers safely ashore and seen by med staff if necessary? Are their families informed they are ok, in case social media lets on there has been a fatal collision, so they don't worry?

[08/03/2020, 07:41:46] Fabian Picardo: Also, what time did it occur and was it firmly within BGTW or questionable?

[08/03/2020, 07:42:45] Fabian Picardo: I think we should announce if possible to avoid social media speculation. Have you prepared media release or do you want Stuart's help?

[08/03/2020, 07:42:57] Ian McGrail: Our crew are ok. Their welfare is being totally safeguarded. I am also circulating a notice to all staff to prevent speculation and social media reporting from within. I will issue a very brief press notice shortly.

[08/03/2020, 07:43:49] Fabian Picardo: Ok. Re the two who survived, captured? Hospital or cells?

[08/03/2020, 07:43:50] Ian McGrail: Collision occurred at approx 0340hrs. Location still to be confirmed.

[08/03/2020, 07:44:51] Ian McGrail: The two who survived are in hospital with non critical injuries as far as I am informed.

[08/03/2020, 08:13:44] Fabian Picardo: Arrested, correct?

[08/03/2020, 08:14:28] Ian McGrail: They will be if they haven't been already.

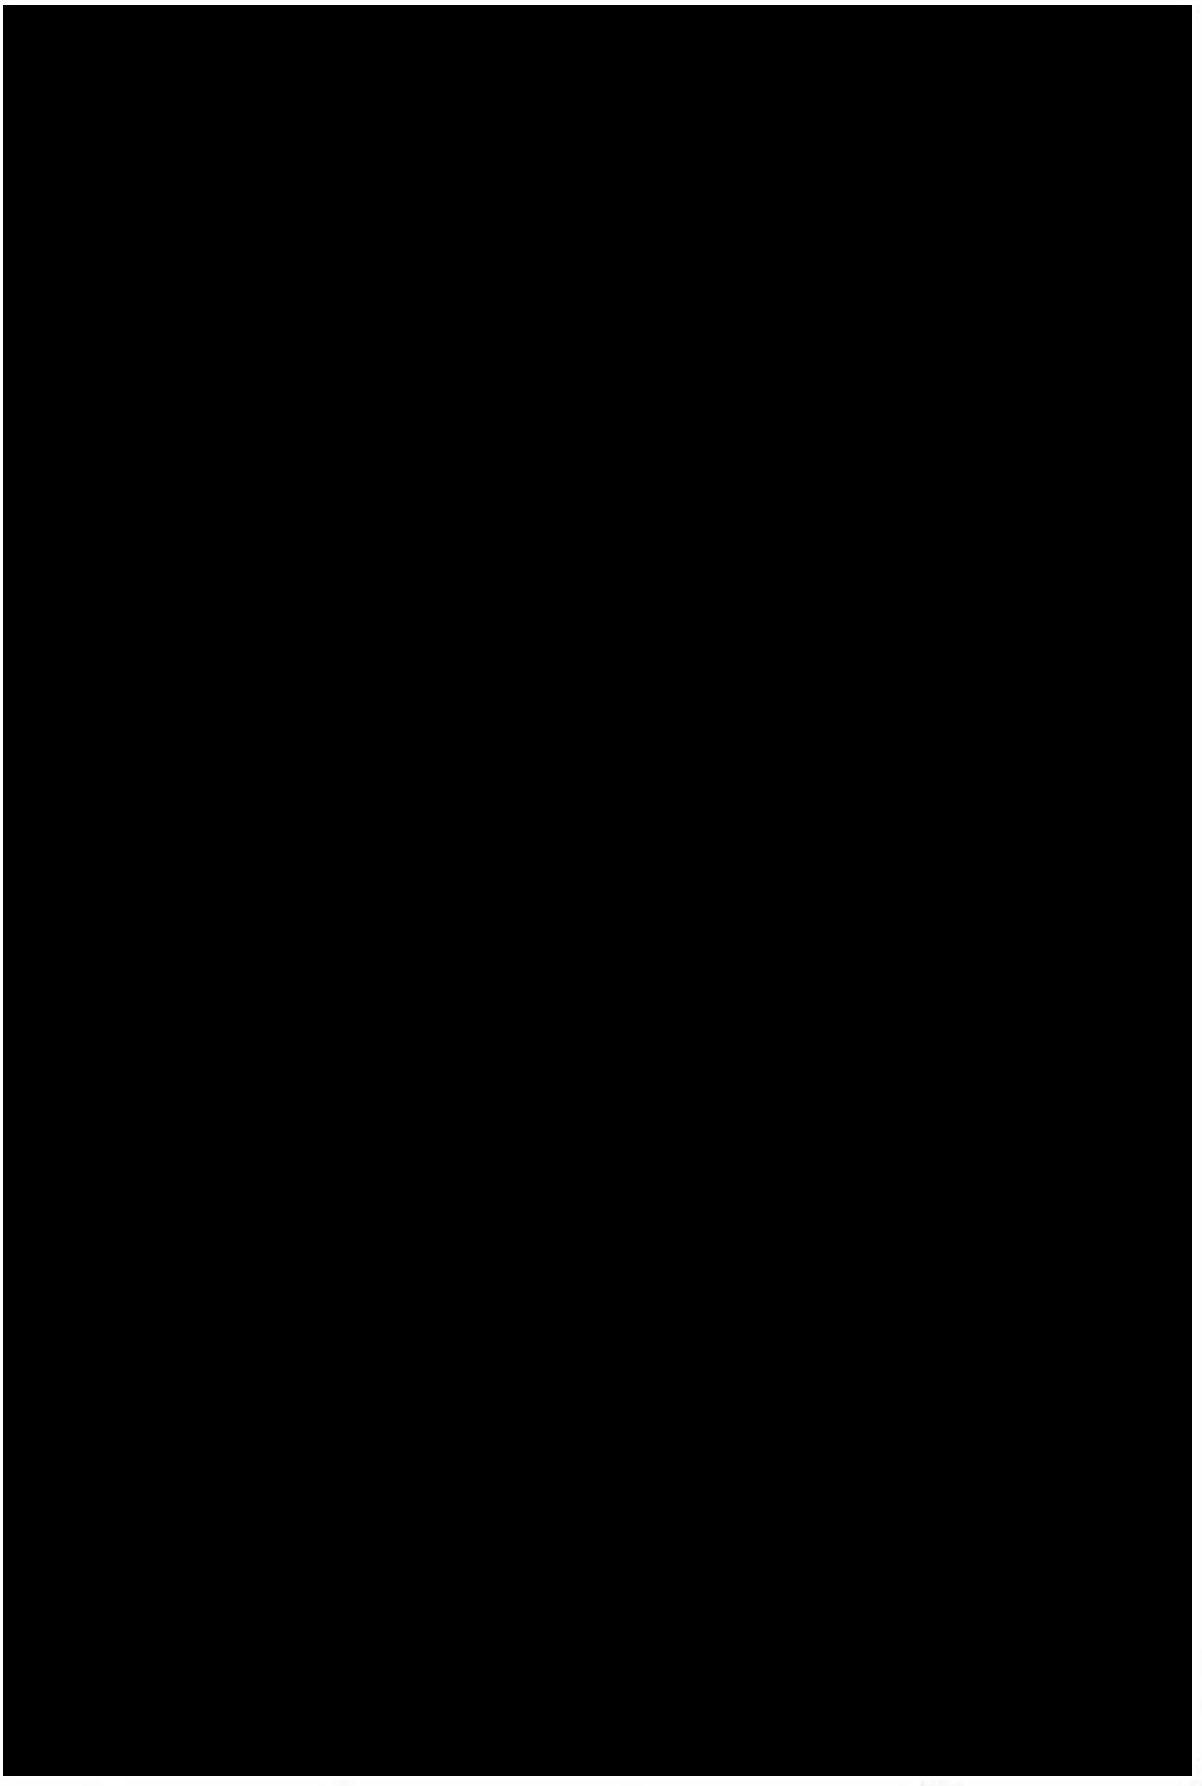
[08/03/2020, 09:49:55] Ian McGrail: CM - the information suggests that the collision took place outside BGTW - approx 6NM east off the runway/Santa Barbara beach.

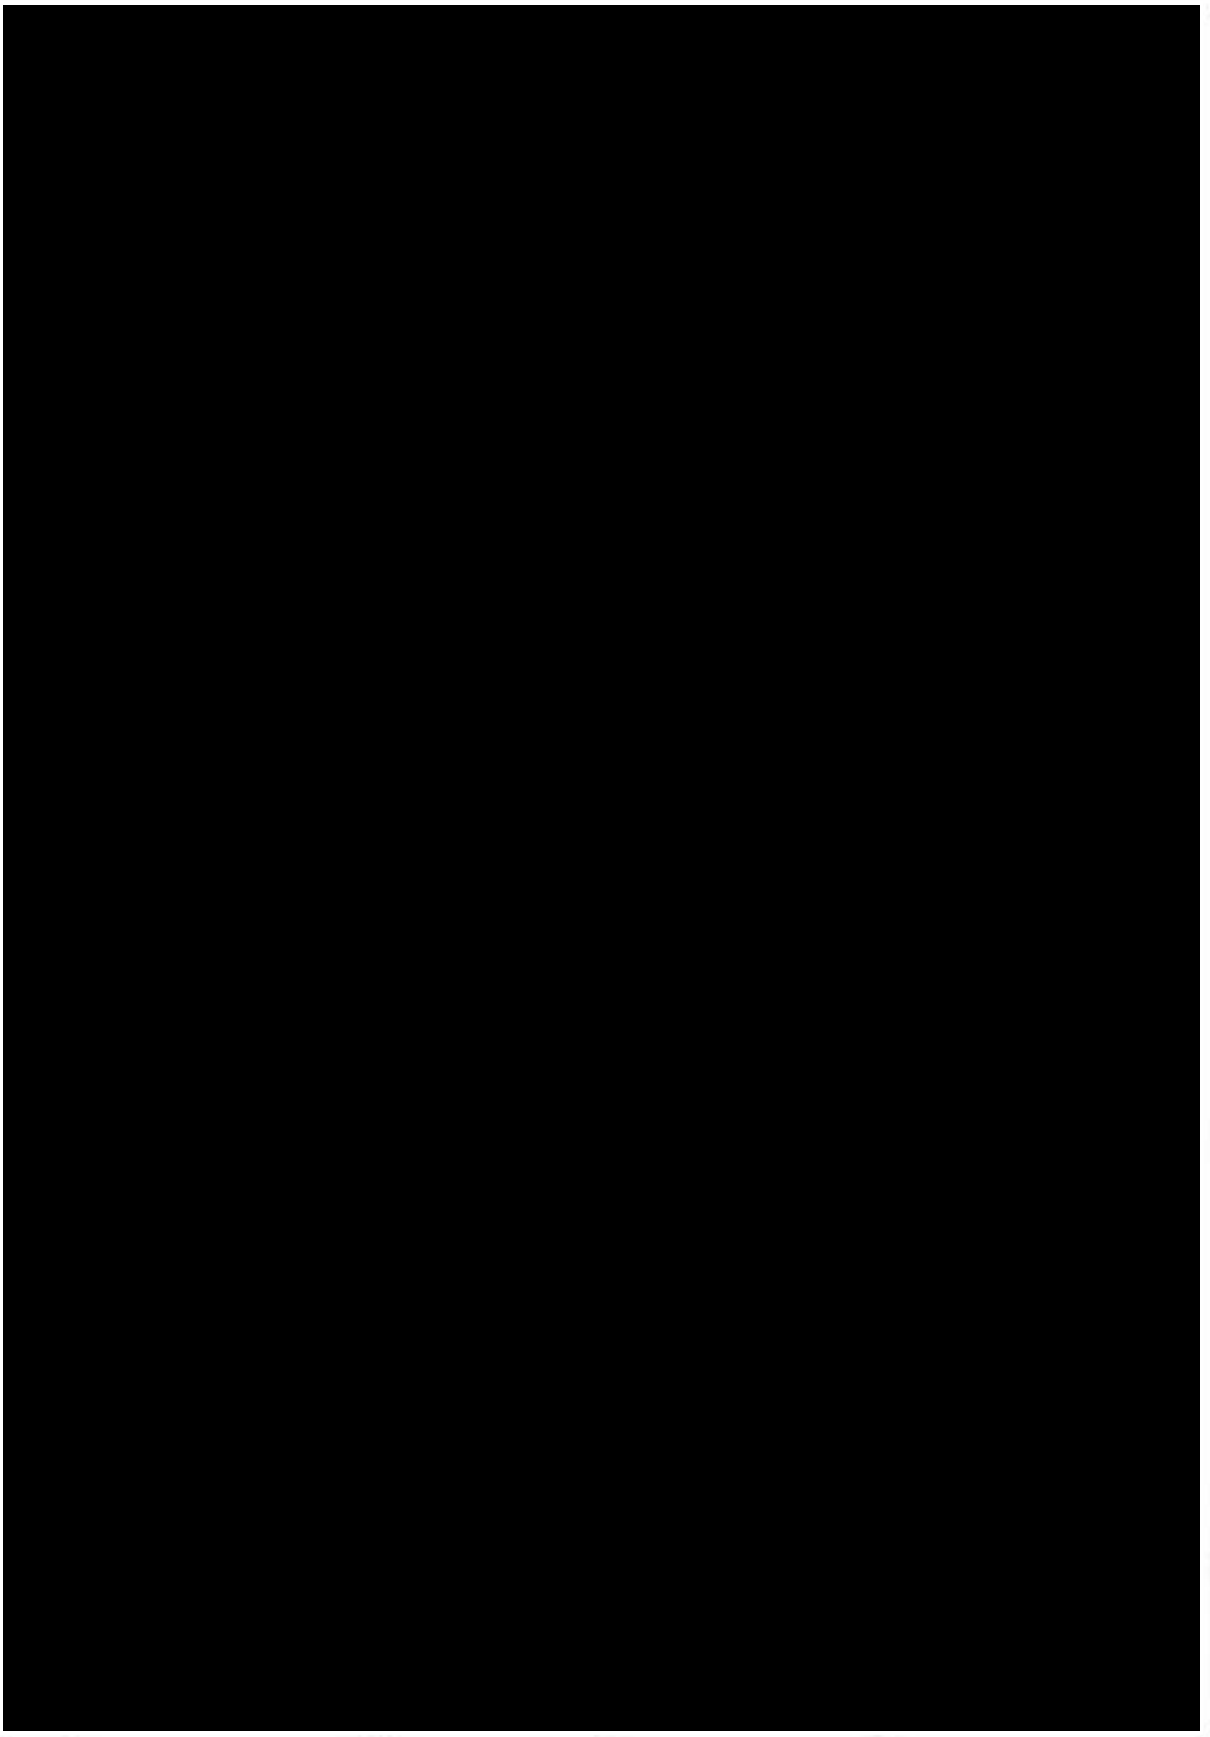
[08/03/2020, 09:53:23] Ian McGrail: When a death arises from police contact its best practice to engage with an independent investigating team & I am studying how to achieve this.

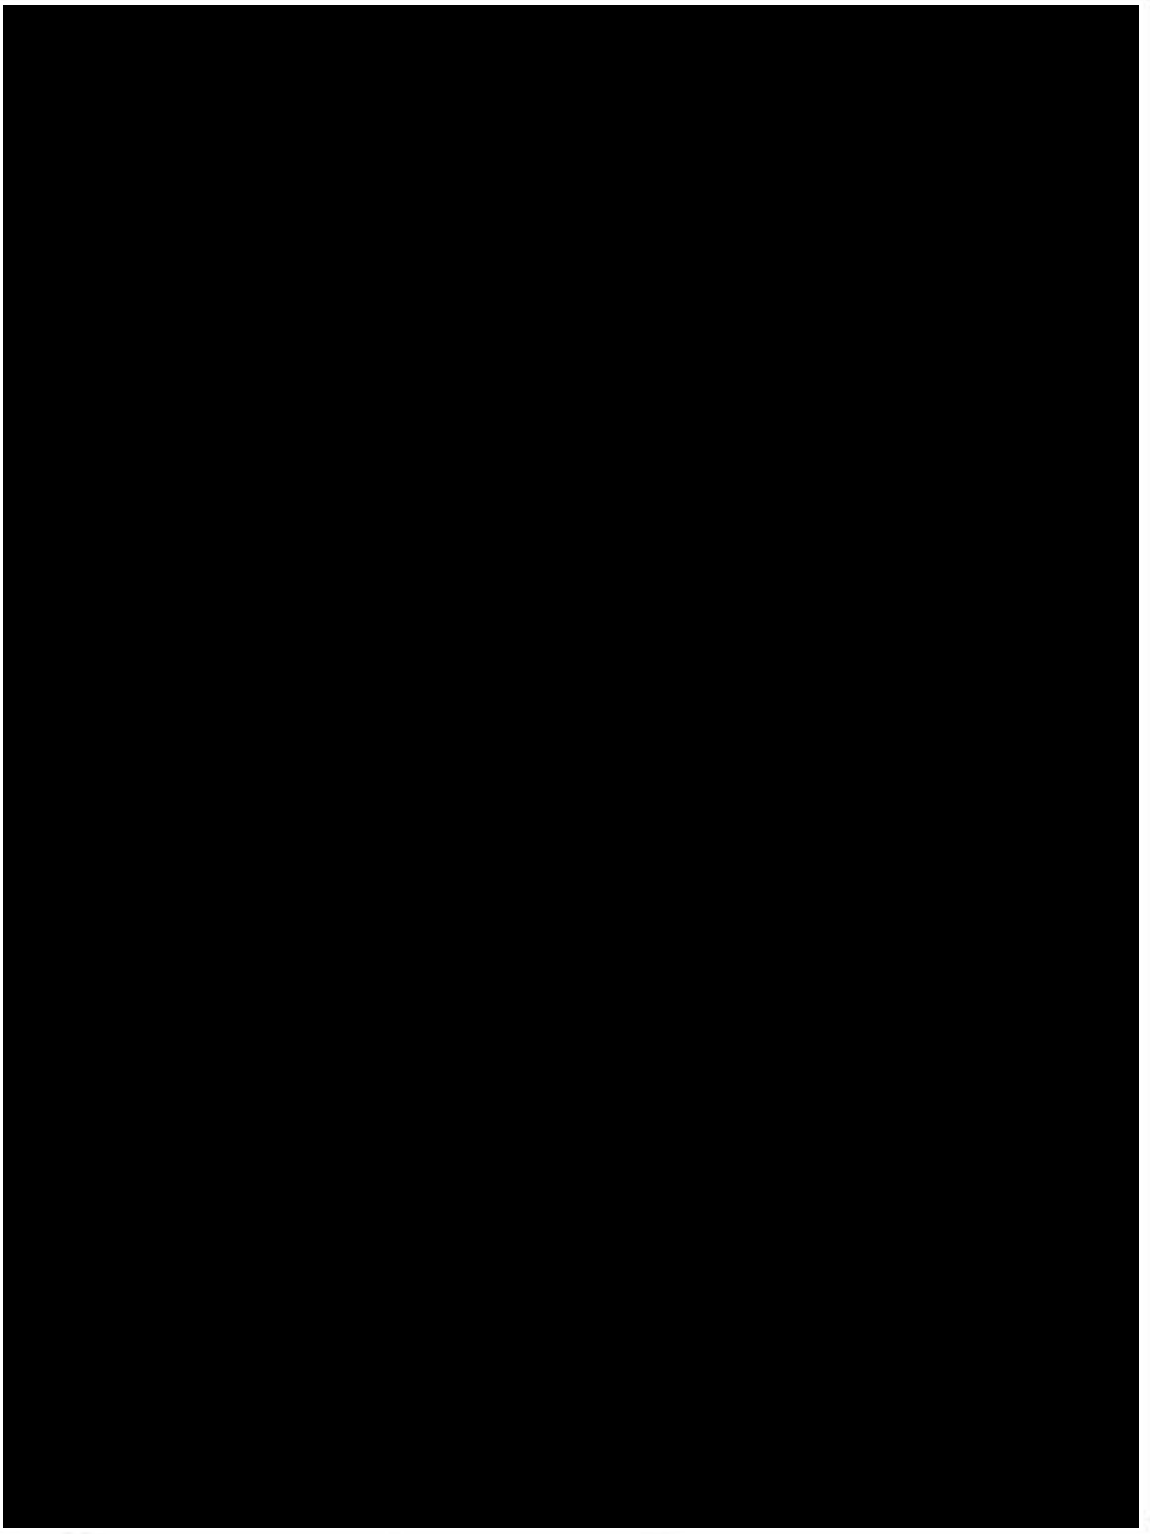
[08/03/2020, 09:53:35] Fabian Picardo: Ok. We need to liaise with AG on this and ensure we are transparent on this.

[08/03/2020, 09:54:02] Fabian Picardo: Yes, agreed. Any necessary additional expenditure will be approved.

[08/03/2020, 09:54:20] Ian McGrail: Many thanks.







[12/05/2020, 12:25:14] Ian McGrail: CM - before you hear it from anyone else I want to inform you that detectives are executing a search warrant at Hassans for (JL) in relation to the case against Perez, Cornelio & Sanchez. Its been done in the most discreet of ways and we're hoping there is co-operation.

Rgds

[12/05/2020, 12:34:21] Fabian Picardo: Ian, Thank you for the courtesy of this information. I think that is a bad decision. A search warrant should only have been sought if you believed that the person in question was not going to cooperate and will try destroy evidence. If, as you say, you are hoping for cooperation, especially in a case involving a senior Silk and head of Gibraltar's largest legal firm, you should, in my view, first have sought to contact that person and obtain cooperation. Given my close personal relationship with JL, I won't comment further.

[12/05/2020, 12:35:07] Ian McGrail: Noted CM.

[12/08/2019, 21:26:48] Ian McGrail: Port Authority on it. I will revert to you when they reply.

[12/08/2019, 21:27:19] [redacted]: Thanks.

[12/08/2019, 21:29:51] Ian McGrail: Vessel is not moving at all according to Port Authority.

[12/08/2019, 21:30:05] Ian McGrail: Security team is still on board.

[12/08/2019, 21:30:37] [redacted]: Thanks. Nick

[12/08/2019, 21:46:57] [redacted]: Ian. Can we quote you as above to UK media

[12/08/2019, 21:47:14] Ian McGrail: Indeed.

[12/08/2019, 21:47:42] [redacted]: Thann's. I'll simply

Forward your WhatsApp's to me

[12/08/2019, 21:48:01] Ian McGrail: 👍

[13/08/2019, 16:04:03] [redacted]: Commissioner. Do we know if yesterday's incident with grace was someone simply playing with the AIS transponder?

[13/08/2019, 16:06:52] Ian McGrail: I wouldn't know Nick. I can find out from Port Authority. Are you saying that G1's AIS indicated it was moving?

[13/08/2019, 16:14:07] [redacted] Thanks for your time. Nick

[13/08/2019, 16:15:03] [redacted] Well done. See you tomorrow. You have a suitcase allowance so you can bring stuff but don't put anything valuable in it.

[13/08/2019, 16:15:20] [redacted] Oops meant for my son!

[14/08/2019, 18:35:43] [redacted] Ian/Commissioner. Have those arrested now been released or will that happen tomorrow after court proceedings?

[14/08/2019, 18:52:13] Ian McGrail: They haven't been released yet. My plans are for tomorrow. Will you be advising HE?

[14/08/2019, 18:53:12] [redacted] Yes though I'm acting Governor from 11.00 tomorrow. So after the court hearing and CM statement.

[14/08/2019, 18:55:36] Ian McGrail: Noted. We'll be doing it in two lots as from 1030hrs. First the 2 who are land based followed by the other two who are on board the G1.

[14/08/2019, 18:58:18] [redacted] Thanks. Nick

[08/03/2020, 09:27:56] [redacted]: Ian. Thanks for letting me know. Sorry to hear this.

[08/03/2020, 09:29:38] [redacted]: And of course if ty need anything from us/HMG just ask. Hope your guys are ok.

[08/03/2020, 09:41:03] Ian McGrail: Thanks Nick.

[08/03/2020, 13:33:57] [redacted]: Thanks for the briefing. I'll do a quick note for London for when it hits the press. Line will be. Investigation ongoing. Spanish nationals from Cueta (did you say one person was Portuguese). Not sure in whose waters incident took place. RGP seeking assistance from UK police authorities. No assistance needed from FCO at this stage.

[08/03/2020, 13:46:59] Ian McGrail: Yes all correct. Indeed one was portuguese.

[08/03/2020, 13:47:23] Ian McGrail: Trying to clarify exact position of the collision.

[08/03/2020, 13:56:38] [redacted] Ok. Thanks.

[09/03/2020, 10:15:56] [redacted]: Morning. I was with the AG last night and we wondered whether it would be worth having an update at some stage later this morning. We are keen to reach ioutnto Spain given talks this week in London (please protect).

[09/03/2020, 10:16:15] [redacted] Michael and I are happy to come to NMH when convenient for you. Nick

[09/03/2020, 11:25:18] Ian McGrail: Happy for you to come to NMH. I am here now. Please feel free to come round.

[09/03/2020, 11:50:56] [redacted]: Ian thanks. Michael and I will come to you @ 12.05

[09/03/2020, 11:52:28] Ian McGrail: Let me know when you're downstairs and I will come down to meet you.

[09/03/2020, 11:52:58] [redacted]: Will do.

[09/03/2020, 12:05:30] [redacted] Just arrive in reception

[09/03/2020, 12:05:54] Ian McGrail: Coming down

[10/03/2020, 13:15:28] Ian McGrail: Nick - can you take a call?

[10/03/2020, 13:16:20] [redacted]: Happy to but in 10 minutes. Please call the mobile.

[10/03/2020, 13:17:01] Ian McGrail: 👍

[12/03/2020, 16:17:06] Ian McGrail: Nick - please let me know when you can take a call.

[12/03/2020, 16:30:44] [redacted]: I'll call now

[06/05/2020, 12:23:14] Ian McGrail: YE - could you take a quick call?

[06/05/2020, 13:03:05] [redacted]: I'm on a VTC until 13.30. I'll call as soon as I can afterwards.

[06/06/2020, 15:56:19] [redacted]: Ian. Just to let you know I have sent you a letter via email. I'd be grateful if you could acknowledge receipt. Regards Nick [06/06/2020, 17:36:44] Ian McGrail: Nick - I have just you sent an acknowledgement. Rgds.

[06/06/2020, 17:56:19] [redacted]: Many thanks.

[08/06/2020, 16:50:12] Ian McGrail: Nick, I look forward to receiving confirmation of agreement to the financial terms we discussed & the other terms you suggested in your intended letter. Thanks

Rgds

Ian

[08/06/2020, 18:30:56] Ian McGrail: Nick - I have just read the exchange of emails between Darren Grech & ourselves.

I don't think what I am being offered is what I deserve. There isn't even a mention of my untaken leave & days owed being paid to me. Could you revert to Darren and enquire whether at least one year's salary is honoured? Rgds.

[08/06/2020, 18:33:37] [redacted] Ian. I've forwarded this to Darren. As I said I can't get involved but would hope days leave/toil not a problem.

[08/06/2020, 18:34:05] Ian McGrail: You deleted this message.

[08/06/2020, 18:34:23] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[08/06/2020, 19:17:37] Ian McGrail: Nick - with all the uncertainty I am unable to sign my letter to you. Government are merely considering my pension and untaken leave etc. they haven't committed to agreeing to it. Its an awkward situation which I trust you understand. I have to safeguard my terms 100% whatever they end up being but certainly agree them before signing the letter.

Ian

[08/06/2020, 19:53:21] [redacted] Ian. Thanks for this. I'd be grateful therefore if you could see me at 09.00 tomorrow. Regards. Nick

[08/06/2020, 20:01:39] Ian McGrail: It isn't right Nick. For them to say that they are 'considering' my pension rights? What is the point of me retiring then. Darren is saying that he will revert as soon as he can - It is not me causing any delay to my intentions. Surely Darren can sort this out. I am not trying to be awkward at all.

[08/06/2020, 20:04:12] [redacted]: I gather Darren will be in touch shortly

[08/06/2020, 20:04:31] Ian McGrail: Lets hope so.

[08/06/2020, 20:19:57] Ian McGrail: Darren has informed me that he'll be working on it tonight and tomorrow morning. Shall we give it till midday before we meet again to allow him time to firm everything up?

[08/06/2020, 20:25:12] [redacted] I'll ask him to speed it up and conclude their reply to you terms tonight.

[08/06/2020, 20:26:14] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[08/06/2020, 21:28:57] Ian McGrail: Nick - you will have my letter with the agreed terms by 0830hrs tomorrow morning. Could you now send me the letter you had intended for me. I will relinquish command at 1800hrs tomorrow.

[08/06/2020, 21:34:02] Ian McGrail: Darren has reverted and I have agreed to the terms.

[08/06/2020, 21:34:28] [redacted]: Ian. Thanks. I believe that is the correct way forward. I'll go into the office and send the letter once I've finished dinner. Nick

[08/06/2020, 21:34:40] Ian McGrail: Ok

[08/06/2020, 21:35:21] [redacted] I'll tweak it to say you have agreed terms with the CS.

[08/06/2020, 21:46:00] Ian McGrail: Yes please. And that he will expedite the arrangements. Thanks.

[09/06/2020, 08:18:39] Ian McGrail: Morning Nick. Email with scanned letter has been sent. Original on its way to The Convent.

[09/06/2020, 08:28:19] [redacted] Morning. I'll get written confirmation to me re terms then revert accordingly.

[09/06/2020, 09:08:41] Ian McGrail: Are you ok with going out at midday with media release?

[09/06/2020, 09:26:58] [redacted] Maybe an hour or so later but let me check with CM who is in Spain. Can you share please what you will be saying.

[09/06/2020, 09:27:13] Ian McGrail: Yes certainly.

[09/06/2020, 10:11:45] Ian McGrail: I have emailed my press to you.

[09/06/2020, 10:34:39] [redacted] Wrapped up in meetings until @ 11.30. I'll get lines from the CM and share them with you.

[09/06/2020, 10:43:46] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[09/06/2020, 11:41:50] [redacted] Ian. Happy for your release to issue at 13.00. As soon as it has, I will issue mine. GoG will also issue a short statement wishing you well. I will be writing now to accept your retirement. Please do let me know when your statement has issued. Nick [09/06/2020, 11:47:41] Ian McGrail: Will do.

[09/06/2020, 12:59:08] Ian McGrail: Press statement has been pushed out.

[09/06/2020, 13:16:45] [redacted]: Thanks. I'll send mine now

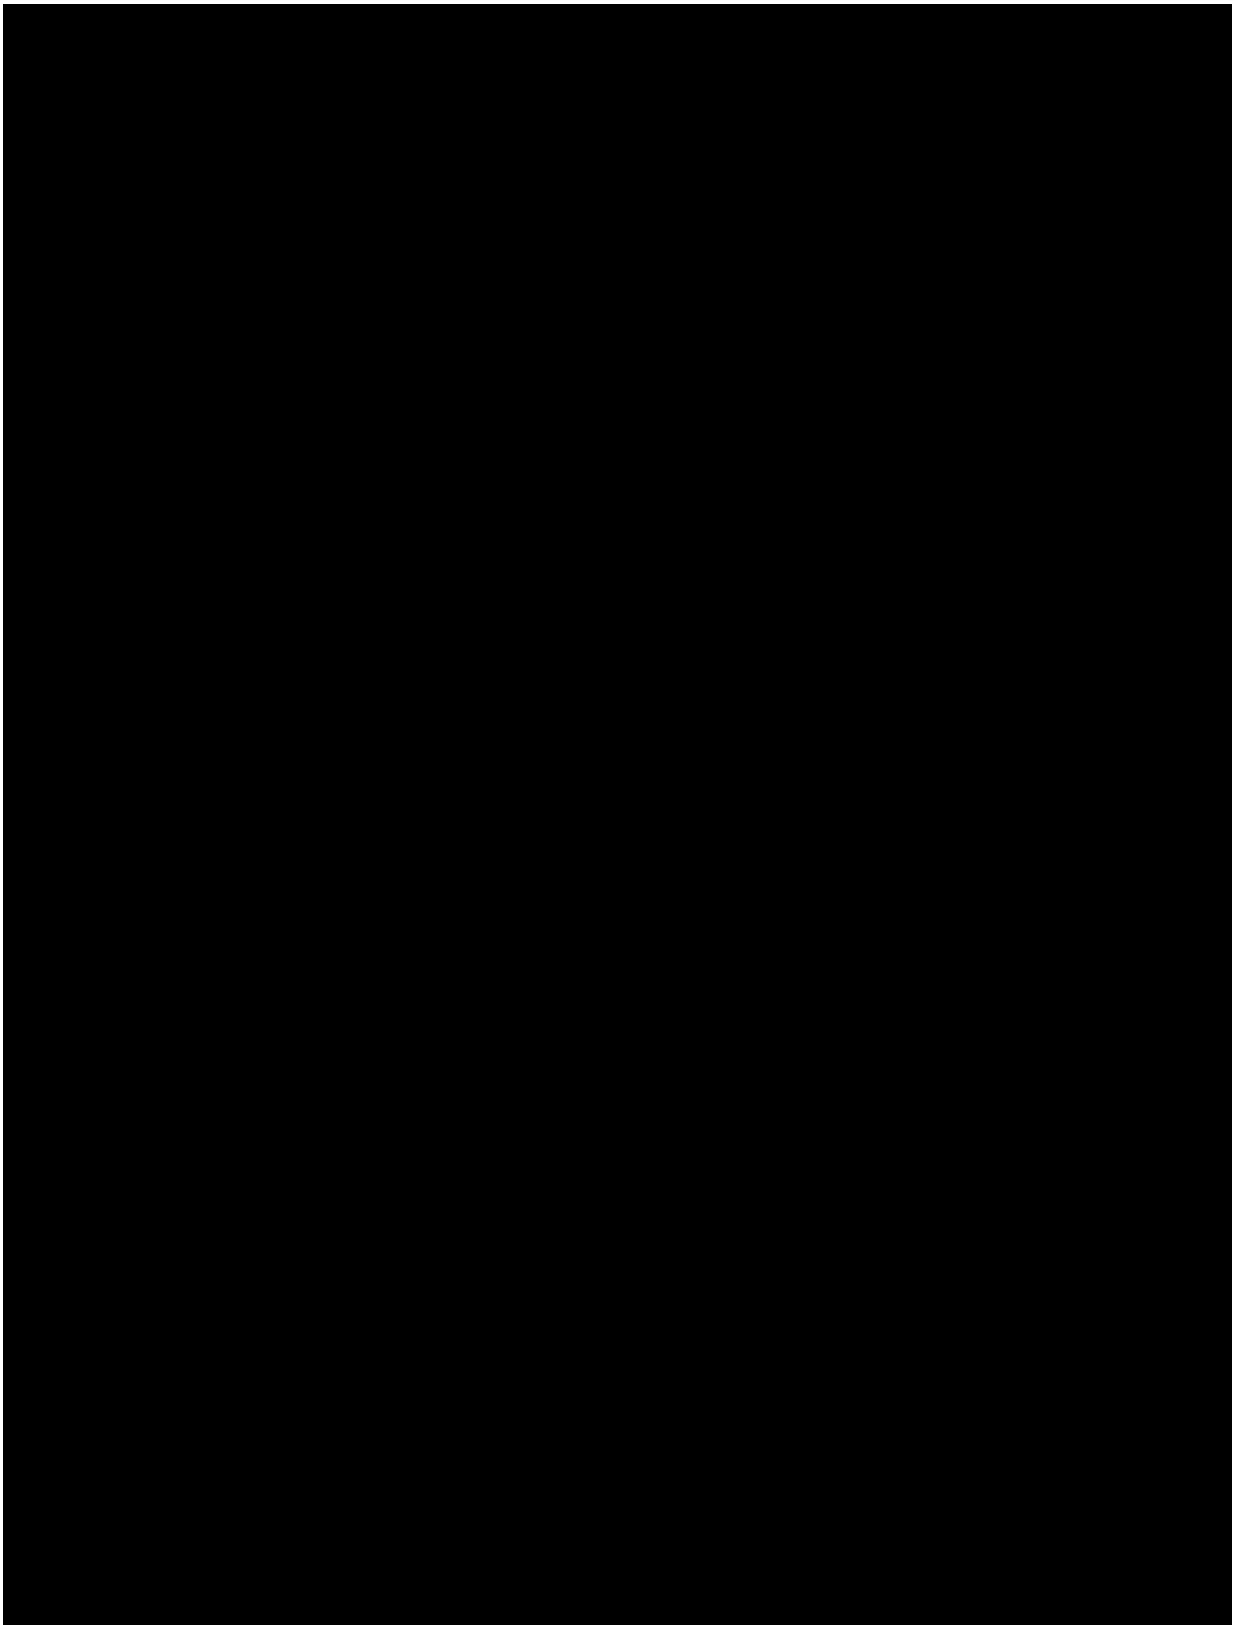
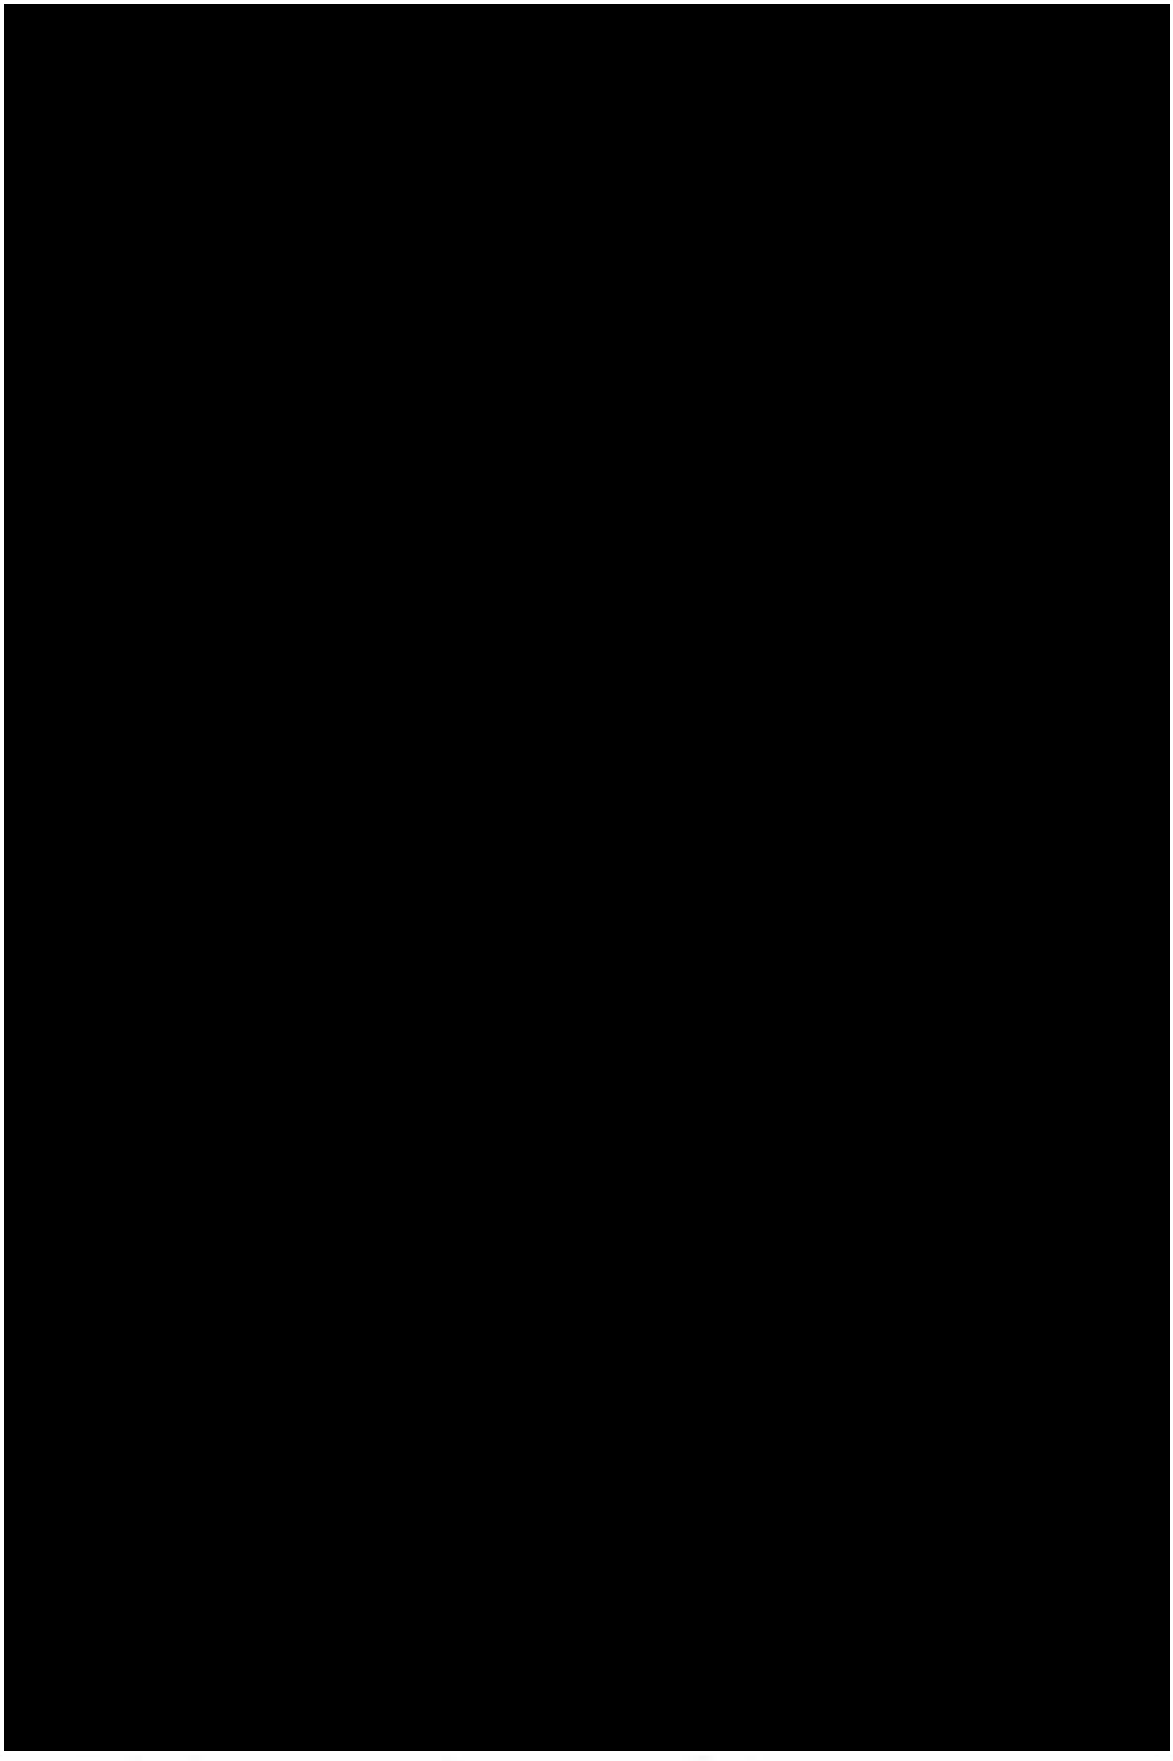
WHATSAPP CHAT LOGS

Ian McGrail & Michael LLamas





[05/10/2018, 15:31:36] Ian McGrail: Michael - I am in Uk with work. Cathal Yeats would like to have an urgent chat with you to seek some advice. The matter relates to the impending trial in Spain of two of my senior officers who were involved in the infamous Alcaidesa incident. They have met today with their Lawyers who in no uncertain terms have said that the insistence to proceed with the case is political on the part of the Algeciras fiscal (a guy called Cisneros, believed to be close to Landaluce). Cathal can explain better what the situation is - the complainants have made a statement withdrawing the complaint. Could he go round to see you for 15mins please?

[05/10/2018, 15:33:03] Michael Llamas: Ian I'm in Brussels. Finishing a meeting. Can he call me in 20 mins or so?

[05/10/2018, 15:33:16] Ian McGrail: Ofcourse. Many thanks.

[17/10/2018, 15:36:00] Michael Llamas: Ian can you speak?

[17/10/2018, 15:38:55] Ian McGrail: Yes

[21/10/2018, 10:54:53] Michael Llamas: Good morning Ian. Can you ask the Spanish lawyers acting for your guys to get you the name of the lady State Prosecutor in Cadiz. Thanks. M

[21/10/2018, 10:55:34] Ian McGrail: My God Michael - I was about to text you her name. Unreal.

[21/10/2018, 10:55:58] Michael Llamas: Gosh!!!!!

[21/10/2018, 10:56:19] Ian McGrail: maria angeles ayuso castillo.

[21/10/2018, 10:56:25] Michael Llamas: 👍

[21/10/2018, 10:57:02] Ian McGrail: She is provincial chief prosecutor. Cisnero's boss.

[21/10/2018, 10:57:31] Michael Llamas: Ok. We are trying something. Keep you posted [21/10/2018, 10:58:25] Ian McGrail: Brill. Thanks.

[22/10/2018, 12:05:37] Michael Llamas: Ian I have just spoken to Ángeles Ayuso (I tried calling you before I called her, in any event she wanted to speak just to me for now). She was friendly but firm. She said that to discontinue will be impossible but that she would see what she could do. She has asked for all the papers to be sent to her and that she will revert to me. I will call you later. M

[22/10/2018, 13:02:45] Ian McGrail: Sorry i was in a presentation. Spk later.

[22/10/2018, 14:17:15] Ian McGrail: Can i call you Michael?

[22/10/2018, 14:44:24] Michael Llamas: Ian call me on [redacted] in ten minutes

[22/10/2018, 14:44:39] Ian McGrail:

[25/10/2018, 22:59:16] Michael Llamas: Ian sorry I have not written earlier today with this information (it's been another of those days). Got a call from our contact who had spoken to the relevant woman. She said that even if this were to go ahead all they would face is a fine. In any event she's looking at the papers and may well be amenable to meeting us (for lunch perhaps). Keep you posted.

[26/10/2018, 07:44:25] Ian McGrail: Just read your text as I had an early night after one of those days you refer to. Very many thanks. Happy to meet for lunch or whatever with them. Rgds

[30/04/2019, 13:18:20] Ian McGrail: I will get Richard Ullger to see to it if you want.

[30/04/2019, 13:19:40] Michael Llamas: He's been asked to go to New Mole tomorrow and was very embarrassed about the visit to his workplace today

[30/04/2019, 13:19:54] Ian McGrail: Surely they could have called him to attend new mole house & not show up at place of work.

[30/04/2019, 13:20:04] Michael Llamas: Precisely

[30/04/2019, 13:20:21] Ian McGrail: I will get richard ullger to enquire

[17/07/2019, 17:18:07] Ian McGrail: I can confirm that non of Caine's devices or computers have been sent to the UK for interrogation. However, Caine was mistankenly told that we had. An officer of the investigating team actually confused him for Tommy Cornelio whose devices we have sent - so there is no cause for panic.

[17/01/2020, 16:59:09] Michael Llamas: Ian who will be going with you to Madrid?

[17/01/2020, 17:01:01] Ian McGrail: Cathal would. Did you get a chance to read my email ref the conversation I had the director generaL of the National Crime Agency?

[17/01/2020, 17:01:35] Michael Llamas: Yes. We need to discuss it

[17/01/2020, 17:01:52] Ian McGrail: 👍

[12/02/2020, 08:50:38] Ian McGrail: Out meeting is the bunker or your office?

[12/02/2020, 08:50:52] Michael Llamas: My office

[21/02/2020, 13:05:23] Ian McGrail: Michael - could you please email me the 3 RGP appendices that accompany the document for next week's meeting?

Thanks

[23/02/2020, 12:26:21] Ian McGrail: https://www.europasur.es/opinion/articulos/frontera-invisible_0_1440156068.html

[23/02/2020, 12:27:10] Michael Llamas: Thanks, Ian. Just read it. Unegotiable.

[23/02/2020, 12:27:32] Ian McGrail: I gathered

[08/03/2020, 11:40:50] Michael Llamas: Been in New Mole for the last hour or so. Cooperation RGP/Spanish LEAs very good. New RGP Press Release today will say good cooperation with ES, drug related activity, 2 deaths are Spanish nationals of North African descent. Investigation continues.

PR will not say where incident occurred but it is virtually certain it was outside BGTW eastern side opposite runway. It also seems that part of the chase was within BGTW.

[09/03/2020, 11:31:25] Ian McGrail: Morning Michael - Nick Pyle tells me you want to meet. I am here at my office.

[11/03/2020, 17:39:06] Ian McGrail: You deleted this message.

[11/03/2020, 18:02:19] Ian McGrail: Michael - we have still not provided any official account to GC of the incident at sea and they have asked for a brief from us. I am now at a stage where I also require background details of those who were on-board the RHIB as this is being requested by the independent investitagtion team. I can hardly ask them for these details when we haven't released anything official to them. Its only prudent to do so I propose to send them the below details and on the back of this make our request to them. I would appreciate your views on what i propose to send.

STARTS

Ref: Initial Incident Report – Collision at Sea with fatalities

At about 0300hrs on Sunday 8th March 2020, officers from the Royal Gibraltar Police Marine Interceptor Sir John Chapple (Bravo 4) communicated with the Guardia Civil COS in relation to the presence of a suspect susect vessel activity in waters off the Playa de Santa Barbara, near to the eastern side between Gibraltar and La Linea. Bravo 4 deployed and remained ready to engage at a point approximately 3 miles East of the runway. Soon afterwards a chase ensued with the suspect vessel and Bravo 4 challenging the vessel, a 14mt semi-rigid hulled inflatable vessel (RHIB) crewed by 4 occupants, powered by 4 x 300hp engines and fitted with Garmin radar. The said vessel was suspected to be involved in illicit drugs trafficking activity.

During the course of a high-speed pursuit shortly afterwards, there was a collision between both vessels, and this resulted in the death 2 of the 4 RHIB's occupants, namely:

[redacted]

The remaining 2 occupants sustained injuries of various types, and were conveyed to St Bernard's Hospital in Gibraltar where they received treatment for their injuries and later discharged.

[redacted]

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were arrested on suspicion of Importing a Prohibited Import (14mt RHIB), Dangerous Navigation and Obstructing Police. [redacted] gave a "No comment" interview at New Mole House Police station and [redacted] gave only a brief account of events stating that he had been 1 of the 4 RHIB's occupants and that they had been chased by Police between Gibraltar and Spanish waters prior to the collision between both vessels.

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were later bailed out in the sum of £2500.00 to return to New Mole House Police Headquarters at 1100hrs on the 4th June 2020 whilst enquiries continue.

A Coroner's investigation is already underway into the deaths of [redacted] and [redacted], and post-mortem examinations will be conducted by a Forensic Pathologist on Wednesday 11th March and Thursday 12th March 2020. The Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police has sought assistance of specialist investigators from the United Kingdom.

ENDS

[11/03/2020, 19:09:56] Ian McGrail: HE (Nick) is asking for confirmation of where collision took place as London are keen to know. I have informed him along the same lines that you advised CM ie that is highly probable that it happened outside BGTW.

[11/03/2020, 19:15:11] Michael Llamas: Ian that seems fine to me. Factual whilst being amenable to further precision once you o Tain further details

[11/03/2020, 19:33:05] Ian McGrail: 👍

[15/03/2020, 13:26:49] Ian McGrail: Michael - Can I come round to see you tomorrow for a quick discussion regarding issues with potential political connotations ref the collision at sea incident?

[15/03/2020, 13:27:19] Michael Llamas: Sure. Anytime

[15/03/2020, 13:28:20] Ian McGrail: Thanks. I know the CM wanted a face to face with me but given all that is happening it'll be difficult for me to reach him.

[16/03/2020, 10:49:27] Ian McGrail: Can i come round to see you Michael?

[16/03/2020, 10:49:52] Michael Llamas: In a virus crisis meeting

[16/03/2020, 10:52:34] Ian McGrail: Ok. Please let me know when I can come round. I am heading to the bunker too to catch up with Ivor.

[16/03/2020, 10:53:37] Michael Llamas: He's in same meeting as me

[16/03/2020, 10:53:55] Ian McGrail: 🤦

[17/03/2020, 12:31:41] Ian McGrail: Michael - can we meet briefly to discuss the progress of the collision at sea investigation.

[17/03/2020, 12:32:22] Michael Llamas: Yes Ian today is better. Come whenever you want I

[17/03/2020, 12:32:39] Ian McGrail: I'll be there by 1pm

[17/03/2020, 13:43:38] Michael Llamas: All good Ian. Proceed as we discussed

[17/03/2020, 13:43:56] Ian McGrail: Ta 👍

[18/03/2020, 15:30:21] Ian McGrail: Michael - Held video conference with GC as they wouldn't meet face to face because of the pandemic.

They were obviously cagey with our UK colleagues but it served well to demonstrate that we were totally transparent. The UK team were happy with the meeting. What I was able to elicit from GC is that a judge is still to be assigned the matter & it is likely that it'll be a judge from La Linea. Again because of their lock down there are delays in their courts.

GC anticipate that when appointed, the judge will request information and accounts from us. What form this will take is not clear - the judge could potentially summons our officers to provide their statements in person or simply request their accounts via police to police channels. What mechanisms we should rely on to facilitate this, were we to oblige, is something we'll need to discuss. GC also expects the family of the deceased to file a complaint in their courts to seek compensation. This will no doubt complicate matters for us as the judge may be swayed to look at the matter from a different perspective in terms of where the collision took place.

GC are requesting from us for photos of the vessels, post mortem reports & statements from those involved in the collision. We have to carefully study this request and weigh the pros and cons of withholding the data or provide it at some point.

Speak soon.

[22/03/2020, 09:36:09] Ian McGrail: Morning Michael - sorry for the bother on a Sunday. I have been called to attend Cabinet meeting at 1100hrs. In anticipation of what could be a lockdown I kindly ask you whether you were able to assign the MOU I emailed you between the RGP/GDP to one of your crown counsels to check for legal viability of what it sets out to acheive. I reckon I will very soon be needing more boots on the ground and this MOU can potentially achieve that by allowing GDP officers to act accordingly.

I was intending to raise this at Cabinet meeting today if there need arose but wanted to check with you beforehand.

Rgds

Ian

[22/03/2020, 09:47:58] Michael Llamas: I will be there too. I need to check with Yvette.

[22/03/2020, 09:51:17] Ian McGrail: Thanks.

[06/04/2020, 12:22:22] Ian McGrail: Michael - could I come round to meet and discuss the collision at sea matter. I am conscious this won't go away and would like to at least have the strategy in place for when the time comes to act.

[06/04/2020, 13:57:36] Michael Llamas: Now?

[06/04/2020, 14:03:42] Ian McGrail: No not now, during the course of the week or when you can.

[06/04/2020, 14:04:22] Michael Llamas: Ok. I can do now if it suits you

[06/04/2020, 14:15:48] Ian McGrail: I am at the bunker at a meeting. Will let you know when I'm out if you can still see me.

[06/04/2020, 14:16:03] Michael Llamas: Sure

[06/04/2020, 15:48:37] Ian McGrail: Just leaving the meeting at the bunker. Shall I come round or we leave it for another day this week?

[06/04/2020, 15:52:46] Michael Llamas: Another day better

[06/04/2020, 15:53:04] Ian McGrail: Ok. I will have my pa arrange with yours

[06/04/2020, 15:53:15] Michael Llamas: 👍

[08/04/2020, 14:29:09] Ian McGrail: Just sent Albert Mena the letter via email. I have copied you in.

[08/04/2020, 14:29:32] Michael Llamas: Thanks, Ian

[09/04/2020, 16:39:20] Michael Llamas: Ian on a more rudimentary point. A friend of mine has a kayak. Hes a well seasoned kayaker. He's just asked me whether he can go out. I'm pretty sure this is covered by "exercise" and almost certainly by "vessel" (2 separate grounds for exemption). Would u agree?

[09/04/2020, 16:51:34] Ian McGrail: I agree. No issues there.

[09/04/2020, 16:51:57] Michael Llamas: Thought so Ian. Many thanks

[21/04/2020, 14:04:55] Michael Llamas: Ian can you talk?

[21/04/2020, 14:07:28] Ian McGrail: Yes i can

[30/04/2020, 12:04:57] Ian McGrail: I am in a covid meeting at the bunker.

[redacted]

[12/05/2020, 12:26:51] Ian McGrail: Michael - before you hear it from anyone else I want to inform you that detectives are executing a search warrant at Hassans for (JL) in relation to the case against Perez, Cornelio & Sanchez. Its been done in the most discreet of ways and we're hoping there is co-operation. I have also advised CM.

Rgds

[12/05/2020, 12:28:20] Michael Llamas: Ian, we had agreed that you would come to me with a rationalisation of the charges before doing anything?

[12/05/2020, 12:29:42] Ian McGrail: We agreed we'd do that when all the loose ends were tied up and this included the enquiries with JL.

[12/05/2020, 12:30:24] Michael Llamas: No. that was not what we agreed.

[12/05/2020, 12:31:43] Ian McGrail: I am in the bunker. Will come round to your office as soon as I finish here.

[12/05/2020, 18:33:49] Ian McGrail: Michael - we both are disappointed but I just can't leave the matter as it is. I'd like to meet face to face. We have to work together & your wrong impressions about me need clearing up.

[12/05/2020, 18:41:41] Michael Llamas: Ian, it would not be constructive to meet, at least not for now. For me it was abundantly clear what we had agreed and there is therefore very little to discuss about that. All I have tried to do is to help you in all of this and to protect Gibraltar plc which is what I have spent all my life doing. I feel very, very let down. A serious breach of trust has occurred.

[12/05/2020, 18:43:21] Ian McGrail: I respect your view not to meet but totally refute any breach of trust. We'll agree to disagree.

[14/05/2020, 08:47:45] Michael Llamas: Ian can I call you? 2 questions one on Brexit the other on yesterday

[14/05/2020, 08:48:24] Ian McGrail: Yes please do so.

[14/05/2020, 10:03:46] Ian McGrail: Do want to see the reviewed version of the document?

[14/05/2020, 10:05:33] Michael Llamas: Sure

[15/05/2020, 12:14:56] Michael Llamas: Ian shall we meet in my office at 5.00pm?

[15/05/2020, 12:23:02] Ian McGrail: Ok. In relation to?

[15/05/2020, 12:24:02] Ian McGrail: Ah ok, just seen the email.

[15/05/2020, 12:24:16] Michael Llamas: Hassans letter today

[15/05/2020, 12:25:08] Ian McGrail: Yes yes, about to read it.

[16/05/2020, 19:47:08] Ian McGrail: Michael - can you call me when you can. Ta

[17/05/2020, 15:56:14] Ian McGrail: I sincerely hope he provides a robust enough account which does not compel us to revert to an interview under caution.

[20/05/2020, 10:48:32] Ian McGrail: I reckon we need to meet to discuss the latest letter from Lewis Baglietto.

[20/05/2020, 11:06:57] Michael Llamas: When do you want to meet? We should have Christian as well

[20/05/2020, 11:09:37] Ian McGrail: Indeed. My diary is flexible today. Shall we say 2.30pm?

[20/05/2020, 11:32:46] Michael Llamas: I can do today until 2.00pm. Otherwise Friday I can do anytime.

[20/05/2020, 11:33:49] Ian McGrail: Lets do midday then. Will you call Chris?

[20/05/2020, 11:34:10] Michael Llamas: Yes

[20/05/2020, 11:34:20] Ian McGrail: 👍

[20/05/2020, 11:35:39] Michael Llamas: 👍

[20/05/2020, 17:26:41] Ian McGrail: Michael, I have emailed you my proposed response to Lewis Baglietto. Let me know if you have any views.

[20/05/2020, 17:58:42] Michael Llamas: Sorry Ian been on a call. Will revert shortly

[20/05/2020, 17:59:02] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[20/05/2020, 18:34:01] Ian McGrail: Michael - aside from Delhi....the CM's response to our 'ask' for legal representation.... I honestly do not know why he has reacted like this. Have you briefed him of our meetings we've had on the matter?

[20/05/2020, 18:38:21] Michael Llamas: He is aware you and I have spoken about this. I forwarded to him Cathal's email to me today since it was necessary in view of the wider issues.

[20/05/2020, 18:39:34] Ian McGrail: Good. But the wobbler he's thrown is what I do not understand Anyway, something for me to take up with him. Thanks.

[21/05/2020, 10:15:17] Ian McGrail: I know you're busy all day today but there is something sensitive we need to discuss about Delhi. Could we come round tomorrow morning? Christian should be there too.

[21/05/2020, 10:18:50] Michael Llamas: Sure. Tomorrow morning is fine with me.

[21/05/2020, 10:19:30] Ian McGrail: Shall we say 10am? Will you let Christian know?

[21/05/2020, 10:19:43] Michael Llamas: Yes and yes

[21/05/2020, 10:19:56] Ian McGrail: Thanks

[11/04/2019, 20:55:42] Darrren Grech: Just trying to find out more from Fco channels

[13/05/2019, 15:06:05] Darrren Grech: Caine when you can it is very important you check your email; I will not be able to communicate with you henceforth by WhatsApp.

[14/05/2019, 21:24:23] Ian McGrail: Darren - he is being bailed out as I text. Obviously bailed out pending further enquires.

Rgds

[14/05/2019, 22:05:57] Darrren Grech: Thanks amigo

[15/05/2019, 10:39:46] Ian McGrail: Morning - Has CS been to see HRM? Has he been interdicted already? Rgds

[15/05/2019, 11:05:23] Darrren Grech: Ian he is seeing HRM this afternoon and will be provisionally interdicted at this point.

[15/05/2019, 11:05:52] Ian McGrail: 👍 👌

[15/05/2019, 11:06:07] Darrren Grech: 👍

[17/07/2019, 17:40:00] Ian McGrail: I can confirm that non of Caine's devices or computers have been sent to the UK for interrogation. However, Caine was mistankenly told that we had. An officer of the investigating team actually confused him for Tommy Cornelio whose devices we have sent - so there is no cause for panic.

[17/07/2019, 17:40:20] Ian McGrail: This is the whatsapp message I have sent the AG before you called.

[17/07/2019, 17:41:44] Darrren Grech: Excellent

[23/07/2019, 08:40:52] Ian McGrail: Morning Darren - my meeting with CM has been put back to 2.30pm. I will nip round to see you at 1.45 if ok with you.

[23/07/2019, 08:42:45] Darrren Grech: Not possible Ian as have to take out top brass FCO to lunch. I can do quick breakfast 9:15-9:45 if you want.

[23/07/2019, 08:43:37] Ian McGrail: Yes - we'll see you at Jury's?

[23/07/2019, 08:44:10] Darrren Grech: Corks

[23/07/2019, 08:44:19] Ian McGrail: Venga even better.

[23/07/2019, 08:44:39] Darrren Grech: 👍

[23/07/2019, 16:02:07] Ian McGrail: Darren - just out of meeting with CM. Quite positive. He agrees in principle with my stance. His suggestion is that you adjudicate the issue as he wants to be kept out of the loop (& rightly so). I will be writing to you with a set of options for consideration. Best, Ian

[23/07/2019, 17:29:21] Darrren Grech: Perfect and thanks for brekkie; next one on me

[23/07/2019, 17:30:07] Ian McGrail: 👌

[24/07/2019, 09:24:08] Ian McGrail: Morning Darren - I am about to press the send button for this email about the Fed to you. Shall I copy in Colin Yeo & Daniel Zammit from HRD too?

[24/07/2019, 09:42:54] Darrren Grech: Yes please

[24/07/2019, 09:48:23] Ian McGrail: 👍

[07/08/2019, 16:48:56] Darrren Grech: Ian without compromising you in any way, please advise if my email below is appropriate at this stage. Further, has he been arrested?

Dear Mark,

sensitive

I am just leaving St Petersburg and have still at least 10 days left of annual leave. Has Mr Sanchez therefore been officially arrested etc? The interdiction I issued was temporary pending further developments.

On the questions you raise I will certainly need to be in Gibraltar to address these properly as I would need to consult a number of people in this respect. If you can afford to wait, then I would happily do this for you as from late next week, when back in Gibraltar, even though still on leave. If not, I would have to delegate this sensitive issue to my acting Chief Secretary, Richard Montado, in copy.

Please revert at your earliest convenience; I do check emails daily but intermittently as I am cruising the Baltic States

Best,

Darren

Dear Mr Grech,

My name is Inspector Mark Wyan and I am the officer in charge of the investigation which has led to the arrest of Cain Sanchez. As part of my investigation I am interested in the following areas:

1) The role / responsibilities of Mr Sanchez (in particular with regards to the NSCIS system);

2) Who he reported to (in particular with regards to the NSCIS system);

3) His level of authority over the NSCIS system (i.e. Did he have complete autonomy?);

4) Whether he had the power to disregard instructions issued by the Chief Minister on the 4th October 2018 (via Peter Canessa) if he felt it necessary to do so;

5) A copy of the Official Secrets Act signed by Mr Sanchez.

I would be very grateful if you could provide me with a witness statement covering the above points. In the event that you are not able to answer particular questions, I would appreciate if you could direct me to someone who may be able to help.

I would be happy to meet at your convenience or alternatively to talk on the phone so that we can discuss further.

Kind Regards,

Mark Wyan

[07/08/2019, 16:56:16] Ian McGrail: Hi Darren - Your email to Insp Wyan is appropriate. Perhaps removing your question "has CS been arrested?" as he has indeed. CS is under arrest and on police bail.

I will engage with the investigators and tell them to wait for your return to deal with their requests.

Enjoy your hols.

Best Ian

[07/08/2019, 16:58:35] Darrren Grech: Sorry Ian , WiFi in Ship skimpy and my original email has already flown so apologies. Regarding CS, the arrest and bale is a new development which happened recently it was this always the case from the beginning? A bit of a Blonde moment; too much wine! D

[07/08/2019, 16:59:00] Darrren Grech: Meant or was it always the ....

[07/08/2019, 17:01:57] Ian McGrail: You interdicted CS on the back of his arrest. & he remains on police bail since then.

[07/08/2019, 17:03:59] Darrren Grech: Sorry this is fine; did not know if further developments.

[07/09/2019, 12:38:02] Darrren Grech: I agree my God

[18/09/2019, 22:12:49] Ian McGrail: Sorry I disturbed you today. I was doing promotion boards myself. Needed to chat about some info that reached me. I messaged the CM with the following text but wanted to give you a heads up too. Also spoke to Michael Crome so he was aware too. I am forwarding you my text to CM.....

[18/09/2019, 22:13:03] Ian McGrail: CM - I am informed that Maurice Morello of the Gib Pol Fed has sought a meeting with you. I respectfully ask that if he touches on the matter of his allowance as convenor, which is under review, that you take in to account my views and that of the Chief Sec. I had reason to make disciplinary intervention on him on Monday which is also why he may want to off load to you.

I am very disappointed with the way the GPF are conducting themselves - totally confrontational and toxic. Happy to discuss further if you feel the need to do so.

[18/09/2019, 22:14:32] Ian McGrail: CM replies saying he'd call me before meeting with Morello.

[18/09/2019, 22:28:07] Darrren Grech: I won't take any crap from any union or federation. Suspect CM will play their game until Oct 17 and then cut them loose!

[18/09/2019, 22:29:06] Ian McGrail: I hope he doesn't go soft with them.

[18/09/2019, 22:30:45] Darrren Grech: He won't, he will play the vote game and then leave me and my scalpel!

[18/09/2019, 22:31:21] Ian McGrail: And my axe in full support

[18/09/2019, 22:32:19] Darrren Grech: 😈😈 a surgical incision (death by a thousand cuts) and then you finish them off.

[18/09/2019, 22:32:36] Ian McGrail: 🤚🤚🤚

[18/09/2019, 22:34:41] Darrren Grech: Wait until Friday 18th October. We are going to change the shape of the public service. Diplomatic immunity will be removed instantly!

[18/09/2019, 22:35:11] Ian McGrail: You have my full backing.

[18/09/2019, 22:35:24] Darrren Grech: I know this Ian

[18/09/2019, 22:35:35] Darrren Grech: A few good men and women still remain

[18/09/2019, 22:35:48] Ian McGrail: Indeed.

[18/09/2019, 22:35:57] Darrren Grech: 👍

[24/09/2019, 16:34:39] Ian McGrail: Darren - Can I share the email thread with Wendy Cummings with my Supt Paul Richardson? In my view CS's reps for the investigation are Phillip's & Co and the GCCA sure cannot have a parallel interest in CS on matters concerning the investigation. She is taking a position suggesting wrongful arrest etc when she is not privvy to the evidence etc. How irresponsible or her. One thing is to argue his personal employment status viz interdiction v re-instatement, but to comment the way she is on the CS's conduct is meddling with defence lawyer matters - my view.

[24/09/2019, 20:55:53] Darrren Grech: And I agree and I am not happy and her time will come! Please do so.

[24/09/2019, 20:56:10] Darrren Grech: I am copying you my reply to her in a moment

[24/09/2019, 20:57:39] Ian McGrail: 👍

[01/10/2019, 01:06:21] Darrren Grech: F just in, am informing Stuart Green too. I have little to go on.

Dear Chief Secretary,

There has been an incident at sea on the eastern side with one of our launches having a collision with a patera, which has unfortunately resulted with the death of the occupant.

I have very little information as yet.Vessels are making their way to the police marine berth.

Thought you might want to inform the CM.

Paul

Sent from my Samsung Galaxy smartphone.

[01/10/2019, 01:32:55] Ian McGrail: CM -

I have a team of my lot called down to look in to the circumstances of a collision at sea between a HMC patrol vessel crewed by 4 custom officers and a patera (number on board as yet unknown). Collision has resulted in a fatality of a man on board the patera. He is believed to be Spanish. No other casualties reported. This occurred at east side after Windy called in that they had seen small boat suspicious activity taking place. HMC attended and a chase of a patera ensued. How the collision occurred is still to be determined but an occupant on board the patera suffered fatal head injuries I am told. I have enquired whether HMC have post incident procedures for their personnel and this is being looked at. The body was brought to gunwharf marine base in HMC vessel where it currently remains until our forensic people do their business.

This is standard procedure in a sudden death.

[01/10/2019, 01:35:42] Darrren Grech: Thanks Ian

[01/10/2019, 01:40:58] Darrren Grech: Its Paul V.

Spoke to Ian McGrail a moment ago. He was not aware of the incident.

Our Officers are ok physically, but one seems to be in shock, but have not spoken to them. We're trying to see whether we can get a welfare officer to speak to them.

Don't know if any counselling has been offered. Don't want to interfere with what the police might be doing right now as part of the investigation.

Initial report from one of our Officers was that there was about 7 to 9 pateras off eastern beach. We reacted to information from Windy.

Our launch was stationary off eastern beach and one of the pateras which was returning to Spain suspected with cigarettes with two persons, tried to get past the bow of our vessel and the groin at speed.

The vessel carried on and one of the occupants ended in the sea. They suspect he hit the bow of our vessel. One of our Officers dived to rescue the person.

Can't expand much more right now. The information might not be entirely correct. We have not spoken to the officers concerned.

[01/10/2019, 01:40:58] Darrren Grech: Thanks Paul, consistent with what Ian McGrail just told me. Have briefed the CM. We want to know if our guy is okay.

[01/10/2019, 01:58:39] Ian McGrail: I have offered my Post Incident Manager to Paul and he has accepted. This role helps the staff involved in terms of safeguarding interest etc. Say it had been a police launch involved in the collision I woukd be involving the PIP manager straight away.

[01/10/2019, 01:59:41] Darrren Grech: Thanks Ian. Going to try and grab a few hours of sleep.

[01/10/2019, 08:59:24] Ian McGrail: Been on the phone with my counterpart in La Linea. They had public disorder in La Linea arising from the incident. They needed to call on extra resources from Algeciras to quell it.

I can't let them get their way - its not good for the RGP and by default Gibraltar PLC. Can we meet on my return please. Don't think Crome [19/03/2020, 01:08:18] Darrren Grech: We could try.

[28/03/2020, 20:02:12] Ian McGrail: Good evening Darren - in a move to boost some morale - would you support the concept of allowing staff who are not able to take their A/L this year to be able to spread the leave over the next 2 years. The UK cops are doing this. Rgds Ian.

[28/03/2020, 22:15:04] Darrren Grech: Yes I would and will get a circular out

[28/03/2020, 22:16:25] Ian McGrail: Many thanks. We can discuss it further on Monday after cabinet meeting.

[22/04/2020, 14:30:38] Ian McGrail: We need your additional statement without further delay Darren.

[22/04/2020, 15:35:52] Darrren Grech: 👍 👍

[25/04/2020, 11:51:45] Ian McGrail: What a diatribe .....

I think that public servants & UNITE & GGCA should be aware that those on our salary sscale at present are actually doing more for less. Our predecessors were earning £25k more per annum and didn't have to deal with what we have on our plate. That is simple maths for you !!!!

[25/04/2020, 16:42:48] Darrren Grech: Amigo que te digo! Until the CM decides to show true power here this charades will continue. I said what I said because like you I am convinced. And then out they come pampering to their members who are either too thick or clever, the second being worse than the first. And of course as union officials by so doing they safeguard their own positions indefinitely. We have Wendy on 84k. Why does she not make herself useful and offer her services and experience as a lawyer or in treasury? But it is okay to comment on my salary and the "more for less" sound bite, and have my children witness the shambolic piss take on social media to what on balance was a message that needed to be put across. I would say it again and again. As to the "naughty children" reference, why should I sweeten the pill or dress it up? It is what it is and there are people out there taking the piss. Pero no, we give them pay rises, we work in partnership and so on. I won't change however and I know you won't either. A few good men and women ...

[25/04/2020, 16:47:47] Ian McGrail:

[27/04/2020, 14:44:28] Darrren Grech: In confidence and off the record looking for a 2015 document which might throw some light into the C. San. affair. Might even have to go to previous chief secs. I know you are under pressure but this is the reason for the delay because my team can't find it.

[27/04/2020, 14:46:37] Ian McGrail: Light in which direction?

[27/04/2020, 14:47:05] Darrren Grech: Off the record?

[27/04/2020, 14:47:14] Ian McGrail: Yes

[27/04/2020, 14:48:10] Darrren Grech: refers to a "Consultant Services Master Agreement between HMGoG and Bland Group effective 22 November 2015".

[27/04/2020, 14:48:20] Darrren Grech: Can't find it and need to [27/04/2020, 14:50:07] Ian McGrail: What do you expect this document to say? I ask because we may already have it if Bland ever had a copy of it.

[27/04/2020, 14:53:25] Darrren Grech: Again off the record AG said it would be helpful to establish ownership. Have a dig and see if you have it.

[27/04/2020, 14:53:32] Darrren Grech: Want to out this one to bed

[27/04/2020, 14:53:55] Ian McGrail: I will ask my lot to check.

[27/04/2020, 14:55:01] Darrren Grech: Please

[27/04/2020, 15:30:55] Ian McGrail: Call me when you can

[29/04/2020, 16:50:16] Ian McGrail: image omitted

[08/06/2020, 20:09:53] Ian McGrail: Darren - I want to end all this saga but I need the terms agreed before I sign my letter to the Governor. Could you please expedite whatever you can so I can firm up my exit? Thanks.

[08/06/2020, 20:11:26] Darrren Grech: Quite understandable. Let me work on it tonight and tomorrow morning Ian. I need to clear with Principal Auditor etc without giving these people details of what I am working on.

[08/06/2020, 20:12:42] Ian McGrail: I am worried when you say that my pension rights are being 'considered' when really I am entitled to it.

[08/06/2020, 20:16:56] Darrren Grech: Don't worry, trust me please.

[08/06/2020, 20:17:49] Ian McGrail: It wouldn't be fair. I wouldn't be able to retire.

[08/06/2020, 20:18:15] Darrren Grech: You will and trust me please

[08/06/2020, 20:18:27] Darrren Grech: Give me this evening and tomorrow morning.

[08/06/2020, 20:20:14] Ian McGrail: Ok.

[08/06/2020, 21:21:50] Darrren Grech: Check your email.

[08/06/2020, 21:23:02] Ian McGrail: Many thanks

[08/06/2020, 21:23:50] Darrren Grech: Thanks Ian

[22/06/2020, 15:32:54] Ian McGrail: Darren - hope you're keeping well. Sorry for the bother but as pay day is coming up this Friday I wanted to ensure the agreed terms of my retirement have been actioned & that I will be getting my pension/gratuity and untaken leave/TOIL on Friday as otherwise I will only be receiving 9 days of pay for this month. I have alot of financial commitments which I do not want to fall behind with. I am sure you will understand. Can I have your assurances that all will be sorted for Friday please ?

Regards

Ian

[22/06/2020, 16:07:31] Darrren Grech: Yes Ian, but notwithstanding will forward to both Charles Santos and Collin Yeo

[22/06/2020, 16:07:43] Darrren Grech: Hope all is well.

[22/06/2020, 16:15:56] Ian McGrail: Thanks. Adjusting to this change in my life, turning a new leaf & looking forward to enjoying my time with my friends & loved ones.

[22/06/2020, 16:26:24] Darrren Grech: Things which are most important like the ones you are now doing should never be at the mercy of those which are less important. One day we have a beer or three.

[25/06/2020, 09:10:37] Ian McGrail: Morning Darren - I haven't recieved my pay slip or confirmation about my pension/gratuity payment & pay day is as from midnight tonight. Could you kindly advise if I will be receiving this information today. Thanks.

[25/06/2020, 09:11:58] Ian McGrail: I signed all the relevant papers when we agreed on the terms of my retirement.

[25/06/2020, 09:14:39] Darrren Grech: Ian I authorized everything. Will check up on you today. I promise you there are no hiccups.

[25/06/2020, 09:22:07] Ian McGrail: Many thanks. Me quedo tranquilo.

[25/06/2020, 09:22:45] Darrren Grech: 👍

[13/09/2021, 19:49:34] Darrren Grech: Ian, I have just been with CM and understand he is talking to you and he asked me for you to raise this with him. Thanks D

Subject: OFFICIAL - Message

Dear all –

In nearly 36 years of service I have seen very many changes in the way we, the RGP, have provided policing for Gibraltar. From the analogue era to the digital and virtual world; from revolvers to semi-automatic weapons; from slow patrol boats to high speed interceptors; from patrolling sat on a wooden box in the patrol van to driving properly kitted out vehicles.

I have also seen many changes in the way we investigate crime, the evolution of forensic science, more accountability of how we deal with suspects and more transparency in practically everything we do.

I suppose that most of the changes could be regarded as materialistic. Throughout these three and a half decades I have adapted to the changes ensuring the purpose of why I joined to police service remained at the forefront of how I performed as a police officer.

What certainly has not changed during all this time have been my ethics, morals and principles. They remain etched in my soul and have got me through thick and thin during my career. I have worn my uniform and badge with immense pride. Doing the "right thing" even when it is not popular or comfortable is tough. It becomes tougher at senior management level.

My time has come to call an end to my service to the RGP and Gibraltar for the sake of my health and well-being. It has been a very difficult decision to make but one which I think is for the better. My principles remain intact and this is extremely important to me as a police officer and a human being.

It has been an honour and privilege to lead you men and women of such an exceptional organisation through very challenging periods.

I want to thank each and every one of you for the contribution you make to ensure Gibraltar remains the safe place that it is. Too often our work is taken for granted, but we do know that we certainly make a key difference.

I wish you and your families and the RGP the very best for the future.

My Thin Blue Line Family carries on !

Best wishes

Dear Commissioner

Thank you for your letter of 9 June submitting an application for early retirement from the Royal Gibraltar Police on the following terms as outlined in your letter, namely:

1. Untaken leave will be paid
2. Days off in lieu which have not been taken as leave will be paid
3. Pension will be calculated at current salary. Payments to begin on 1 July 2020
4. A contribution of £2500 towards my legal fees

I approve your application and agree to the terms as listed in full and final settlement of all claims what so ever and how so ever arising.

I therefore note that you will be relinquishing command of the Royal Gibraltar Police at 18.00 hrs this evening.

Yours sincerely

Nick Pyle

Importance: High

Dear Attorney General,

The ex-commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police, Mr. Ian McGrail has asked me to reply to the email below directly to you.

Your draft does not reflect Mr. McGrail's position.

Mr. McGrail considers that the matter of the termination of his appointment is a matter of major public importance and agrees that all parliamentary questions should be answered candidly and fully so that the people of Gibraltar have the full information that they deserve and as befits a mature Parliamentary democracy.

To the extent that there may be any Data Protection issues Mr. McGrail hereby waives them in the confidence that Parliament will be given with full, frank, fair and candid answers and that the misguided behaviour of the Gibraltar Police Authority which led to his agreement to retirement should be clearly stated, if reference has to be made to the huge personal stress which Mr. McGrail was put under.

Mr. McGrail believes and has been advised that any complaints against him of not having provided information in relation to the accident at sea which the GPA tried to rely on to force his retirement have no merit. You know this because you were party to emails and WhatsApp messages where Mr. McGrail provided timely and full information in relation to that unfortunate accident.

Similarly as Her Majesty' Inspectorate of Constabulary and Fire and Rescue services will confirm to you their criticisms of the incomplete implementation of the previous year's recommendations were not of a level of seriousness to merit the GPA's conduct in issuing a section 34 notice. You yourself are aware of the extraordinary demands put on the RGP in 2019 including, but not limited to the well-known arrest of the "Grace 1".

Please therefore reassure the Chief Minister that he is free to answer the questions in Parliament fairly and in full.

Having seen his career end in such an unfortunate manner Mr. McGrail wishes to get on with his life but does not want to interfere with the democratic process of the City at whose service he has spent an entire life working.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Gomez

Answer: The Chief Minister

Mr Speaker, the honourable gentleman has asked 20 questions about the retirement, performance or other aspects of a contract of employment an individual.

It is not appropriate for the House to be considering any matter related to the personal circumstances of an individual, especially an individual who data the government holds as a Data Controller.

This is not a question of not wanting to answer, but a case of what it is appropriate to address in this House.

In preparing this answer, the government has confirmed with the former Commissioner, Mr McGrail, as a relevant Data Subject, that he does not wish matters related to his retirement to form the subject of Government statements or answers in this house.

For the avoidance of doubt, however, Mr McGrail has authorised the Government to disclose that there are no compromise or confidentiality agreements entered into by him and the government other than the usual arrangement for early retirement of any government officer.

Additionally, some of the questions the Honourable Gentleman has asked are out of order as they relate to matters which are public or matters for which the government is not answerable.

For example, the Government is not answerable for the actions of the Governor or the Police Authority.

Another example relates to the Honourable Member's question about whether or not the Chief Minister has exercised any power under section 15 of the Police Act. This is entirely contrary to the rules given that I have already answered - in question xx - that I exercised the power in section 15 of the Police Act.

I refer the honourable gentleman to that answer

Finally, Mr Speaker, I would refer to the House and commend the recent statement from His Excellency the Governor appointing Mr Richard Ullger as Commissioner of Police.

I very much look forward to working with Commissioner Ullger, as I have with all Commissioners of Police with whom I have coincided in office, in the areas on which we will constitutionally jointly endeavour to apply the responsibilities of our respective offices to delivering the safety, security and prosperity of our people.

Presented by Charles Gomez & Co, of 5 Secretary's Lane, Gibraltar. Solicitors for Ian McGrail

CHARLES GOMEZ& COMPANY

We are instructed by Mr. Ian McGrail OTM, MSc, the ex-Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police.

Mr. McGrail is deeply concerned by the public confusion as to the reasons for his premature retirement on the 9th June 2020.

The matter has been the subject of Parliamentary questions, press articles and social media commentary.

In light of the public attention which this matter has naturally aroused, Mr. McGrail now firmly believes that the circumstances leading up to the early retirement of the principal law enforcement officer of the Crown in Gibraltar requires a definitive, well informed and detailed assessment.

Just as an example, neither Parliament nor the public via the news media have been told that the notice issued under section 34 of the Police Act by the Gibraltar Police Authority which triggered the entire process was withdrawn by the Gibraltar Police Authority following strong legal representations and the Government paid a contribution to Mr. McGrail's legal costs.

Without an independent judicial assessment there is a real risk to the reputation of Gibraltar as an advanced Parliamentary democracy under the rule of law.

As a loyal servant of the Crown these past 36 years and a loyal Gibraltarian, Mr. McGrail cannot stand by and watch this potential tarnishing of our City.

The matter of the early retirement of a constitutional office holder requires to be taken seriously. Mr. McGrail calls for an independent judicial inquiry by a High Court judge from the United Kingdom to be convened without delay.

He is sure that there can be no reasonable or rational objection to this.

The standing and reputation of our dear Gibraltar requires it.

Subject:	Chief Minister's Parliamentary Statement 31 07 2020

Dear Mr. Pyle,

We continue to be instructed by Mr. Ian McGrail.

In view of the public confusion relating to the circumstances of Mr. McGrail's retirement as Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police, he has called for a high level judicial inquiry at which we are sure you will be called to give evidence.

Meanwhile, the matter is the subject of continuing Parliamentary scrutiny and the Chief Minister has given notice that he will be making a statement in Parliament tomorrow.

Although we cannot know what the Chief Minister is going to say, the indications from his replies to questions from the leader of the opposition on Monday indicate that he will be placing principal responsibility for this affair upon your good self.

I trust that you will agree that it is the obligation of us all to ensure that the Chief Minister is fully acquainted with all issues so that he provides absolutely accurate information to Parliament.

For this reason we will proceed to set out what we consider to be the incontrovertible background of your involvement in order to give you the opportunity to comment so as to ensure that the Chief Minister does not inadvertently mislead Parliament.

Background

1. At no time prior to your communications with the Gibraltar Police Authority did you ever express to Mr. McGrail any reservations regarding his performance as the head of the Royal Gibraltar Police in either of your capacities as a member of the Authority or, later, as interim Governor.

2. In your letter of the 3rd June 2020 to the Chairman of the Gibraltar Police Authority you refer to "already existing concerns that I have had with the CoP" (see second paragraph on the second page).

3. To Mr. McGrail's knowledge, you have never articulated what those "existing concerns" were to either Mr. McGrail or anybody else.

4. The high-water mark of your "complaint" to the Gibraltar Police Authority is to be found in the fourth paragraph on the second page of that letter:

> "Furthermore, I suspected at the time of the immediate aftermath of the incident that the CoP's disclosure of information to me was evasive in particular in relation to the critical issue of whether or not the incident had occurred within BGTW. I know that when the CoP was telling me that it was not clear where the incident had occurred, he was informing the Chief Minister that the incident had indeed occurred outside BGTW. Indeed, it occurred some 7.5 nautical miles beyond Gibraltar's baseline and therefore well outside BGTW. I find this evasiveness on a key issue to demonstrate a total lack of respect to the office of Governor particularly since the CoP knew that this was the crucial issue for me and both the UK and Gibraltar Governments as far as diplomatic relations with Spain were concerned."

5. You provide no particulars of the alleged "evasiveness" but the record shows that in fact you were kept informed in great detail from the very first moment in person at meetings with Mr. McGrail which you attended together with the Attorney General and later via the information which Mr. McGrail was passing to the Attorney General in real time throughout.

6. As the Attorney General confirmed in his own letter to the Gibraltar Police Authority of the 5th June 2020 he is "...the Crown's (in all of its facets, including the RGP) principal legal advisor in Gibraltar..."

7. The self-description of the Attorney General's multifaceted responsibilities to provide legal advice is well known.

8. You yourself confirmed in your email to Mr. McGrail of the 8th June 2020 that even when the dispute arose you would continue to rely on the advice of the Attorney General. ("To be clear, the AG is my Hon Legal Advisor so yes it is he who a Governor would take legal advice from")

9. Certainly at all material times Mr. McGrail understood the position to be that all information which he was passing on to the Attorney General was being communicated to you.

10. Mr. McGrail fully briefed you on the information and evidence then available on the very day of the accident, i.e. 8th March 2020 and subsequently provided you with an update in person on the 9th March which you acknowledged and thanked Mr. McGrail for.

11. There is a wealth of communications in the form of e-mails, and text messages to show the extent and detail of the information which Mr. McGrail was passing on to you directly and via the Attorney General. You should have all of this traffic to hand as does the Attorney General and we invite you to provide it all to the Chief Minister so that he is better able to inform Parliament tomorrow.

12. An instructive WhatsApp message which shows that you were at all times working closely with the Attorney General is that which you sent to Mr. McGrail at 10:15 on the 9th March 2020:

> "Morning. I was with the AG last night and we wondered whether it would be worth having an update at some stage later this morning. We are keen to reach (out) to Spain given talks this week in London (please protect)."

13. A meeting duly took place that same day.

14. You will not be able to point out to any substantive and confirmed information which Mr. McGrail gave to the Chief Minister which he did not provide at the same time to either you or your lawyer, the Attorney General. This is because no such evidence exists and because far from being evasive Mr. McGrail was careful to keep you informed directly and via the Attorney General at all times.

15. Moreover it is also on the record that the Chief Minister who was working with the Attorney General was keeping the British Ambassador to Spain fully informed of all of the information that the Chief Minister and Attorney General were aware of. All of this in anticipation of a luncheon set to take place between the Ambassador and the Spanish Foreign Minister of the 9th March 2020. It is therefore demonstrably false to suggest that the Chief Minister had any information which your own legal representative did not have.

16. For the sake of completeness we must add that the formula which you use of suspicion of evasiveness is a loose one which ill befits the actions which you then proceeded to take by calling on the Gibraltar Police Authority to issue their ill-fated section 34 Notice. Basic principles of natural justice and due process require at the very least an explicit articulation of what your concerns were and how and what evidence you had to support them. Yet as late as the 3rd June 2020 after the section 34 Notice had been given you were still unable to provide anything more than a subjective "suspicion" and no evidence to support it.

17. We were, moreover deeply troubled to hear the Chief Minister tell Parliament that you had told him that you would be exercising your power under section 13 (1) f "To suspend from duty, or call for the resignation of the Commissioner". You appear to have come to the view that Mr. McGrail should be suspended or asked to resign before any of your concerns were put to Mr McGrail so he had the opportunity to answer them and before Mr. McGrail replied (within the time limits given) to the Chief Minister's request for factual information under section 15 of the Act. In any event the matter of the accident at sea was still being investigated by the Independent Team of the Metropolitan Police. By any measure your decision to call for Mr. McGrail's resignation or suspension was grossly premature and therefore fundamentally flawed and illegal.

18. Since the Metropolitan Police investigation is important to the issues which you say caused you concern, I would remind you that in a Situation Report by the Metropolitan Police dated the 23rd May 2020 which was received by the RGP on 27th March 2020 the Senior Investigating Officer reports having been "in liaison with FCO regarding the political situation" during their enquiries in Gibraltar.

    The Metropolitan Police was of course aware of all known circumstances regarding the accident including, by then, its location.

19. Our main concern at the moment is to ensure that the Chief Minister is fully briefed for tomorrow's Parliamentary session. However, since this correspondence will inevitably come before the Inquiry we think it proper to give you the opportunity to clarify the following matters:

    a. What were the "existing deep concerns" which you referred to in your letter to the Gibraltar Police Authority?

    b. Why were these "deep concerns" not raised with Mr. McGrail?
    + when ?

    c. Who did you raise your alleged "deep concerns" with?

    d. Did you raise the "deep concerns" with any of the Gibraltar Police Authority, the Attorney General or the Chief Minister?

    e. If you did raise the alleged "deep concerns" with any of those parties or anyone else at all, what did you tell them?

    f. Has the Metropolitan Police Investigating Team expressed any concerns about Mr. McGrail's handling of the incident? As you know Mr. McGrail asked for UK assistance immediately that the accident occurred and within 48 hours of the accident, confirmation had been obtained that the Metropolitan Police was willing to assist. Your suggestion therefore that Mr. McGrail seemed to you to have been "evasive" is misconceived and we invite you to review your email exchanges with Mr. McGrail of the 10th March 2020 in which you facilitated the engagement of the police in London.

    g. Having heard the Chief Minister's intervention in Parliament on Monday, it is wholly unclear who triggered the Gibraltar Police Authority section 34 procedure?

    h. The Chief Minister appears to say that the Gibraltar Police Authority initiated the process of its own volition; this is of course not correct. The Gibraltar Police Authority's curt letter of the 22nd May 2020 refers to "grave concerns expressed by both the Governor and the Chief Minister". The Chief Minister will no doubt answer to Parliament but we call on you to articulate what you told the Gibraltar Police Authority as to your "grave concerns". The Inquiry will no doubt require you to provide full details as to what you said and to whom.

    i. For the sake of good order Mr. McGrail will give evidence which we are sure will not be contradicted by the Chairman of the Gibraltar Police Authority that Mr. Britto told Mr. McGrail that he and all of the members of the Authority had been "surprised" by the manner in which you demanded the invoking of section 34.

j. We are forced to speculate that in fact the triggering of the section 34 procedure was not your idea but one which the Chief Minister and/or the Attorney General insinuated to you. We approach this particular point gingerly because the Chief Minister appears to have said in Parliament that it was you who was principally behind the ill-fated section 34 procedure and do not want to cast any doubt on the Chief Minister's word uttered as it was in Parliament. However, it does appear from the confused narrative which you and the Chief Minister have provided separately, that in fact you might have been moved to act as you did by complaints by the Chief Minister and/or the Attorney General. This being the case we urge you to ask the Chief Minister and the Attorney General for their entire files of communications with Mr. McGrail which will show you that far from being critical of Mr. McGrail's performance they were supportive and grateful to him. In particular you should you should ask for copies of the "group chat" opened by the Chief Minister himself under the title "Maritime Incident".

In due course there will inevitably be very many more questions which you will be called upon to answer in the proper forum and what appears above should not be treated as a comprehensive and full description of the matters which greatly concern us and will concern the independent inquiry as to your behaviour in this matter.

We note that in your letter to Mr. McGrail of the 8th June 2020 you undertook "to ensure (that Mr McGrail is) treated fairly and with respect at all times". You reiterated that in your email to Mr McGrail on 9th June 2020. We count on that commitment which you gave as Governor of Gibraltar to remain the same.

We are copying this email to the Chief Minister's office and the Attorney General.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Gomez

Subject: Press briefings - Commission of Inquiry - Ian McGrail

Importance: High

Dear Mr. Attorney General,

Please find a link to an article which appeared in the Spanish national newspaper, "El País" https://elpais.com/espana/2020-08-03/gibraltar-inicia-una-investigacion-tras-el-choque-mortal-de-una-patrullera-policial-con-una-lancha-espanola.html

We would highlight the following paragraph:

"El accidente motivó además la jubilación anticipada del entonces comisario de la Royal Gibraltar Police, Ian McGrail, después de las "aparentes contradicciones" en su versión de lo ocurrido, según aseguran fuentes cercanas al Gobierno de Fabian Picardo."

Since you were intimately involved with every single exchange relating to the accident at sea from the very day in which the unfortunate event occurred, you will be able to confirm that it is not true that there were any "contradictions" in Mr. McGrail's version of the events.

Although we do not suggest that you have any power or responsibility in relation to what the press publishes, the article clearly indicates that someone close to the Chief Minister or the Government of Gibraltar is briefing against Mr. McGrail.

This is, of course, reprehensible per se, but particularly serious given that there is a Commission of Inquiry about to be convened and as the Chief Minister himself said in Parliament in more general terms, the matter is sub judice for other reasons.

If the source of the information reflected in El País is a public servant, then there is at least a possibility of breaches of the Official Secrets Act and / or General Orders.

We would therefore ask that you convene an investigation into this "briefing".

Mindful of the fact that you clearly have a conflict of interests in this matter, we are copying this letter to the Director of Public Prosecutions, since you might both consider it appropriate that he should take control of the situation.

Certainly from our client's perspective, it is essential that there should be no further "briefings" against him.

The whole rationale of the calling of the inquiry was to ensure that relevant matters are dealt with thoroughly and in a judicial context, and not by way of trial by the press or social media which was the situation that prevailed before Mr. McGrail was forced to demand a Public Inquiry.

We expect that the Chief Minister will also have taken a very dim view of anyone associated with him indulging in this reprehensible and cowardly behaviour.

We look forward to hearing from you and Mr. Christian Rocca QC and reserve all our client's rights.

Needless to say, we will want this exchange of correspondence to be brought to the attention of the Commissioner of Inquiry.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Gomez

For the attention of Mr Charles Gomez

5th August 2020

Dear Sirs,

Retirement of Ian McGrail as Commissioner of Police

We represent HM Government of Gibraltar, the Chief Minister, the Hon Fabian Picardo MP, QC and HM Attorney General for Gibraltar, the Hon Michael Llamas QC in relation to the forthcoming inquiry announced by the Chief Minister into the circumstances leading to the early retirement of your client, Mr McGrail as Commissioner of Police.

We acknowledge receipt of your email dated 4 August 2020 timed at 12:49:15 GMT addressed to HM Attorney General, Michael Llamas to which we are instructed to reply on his behalf.

All of our clients deny that they, or anyone on their behalf, is engaged in what you call "briefing against Mr. McGrail". Having announced an inquiry for that very purpose, it is our clients' position that all relevant aspects of the matter (save those on which they may have a public duty to comment) be dealt with in the context of the inquiry, and not in the press. That said, our clients deny that the latter "was the situation that prevailed before Mr. McGrail was forced to demand a Public Inquiry".

The Attorney General does not consider that it is within his functions or powers, or those of the Director of Public Prosecutions, to convene the investigation that you request. Nor does the Attorney General consider that he has a conflict of interests in that respect. Accordingly, the Attorney General does not consider that it is appropriate that the Director of Public Prosecutions "should take control of the situation", whatever you may understand by that.

For its part, HMGOG considers that it is disproportionate to "convene an investigation into the "briefings"", as you request.

The Hon. Sir Peter Caruana K.C.M.G., Q.C

It is entirely a matter for your client whether he seeks to bring this exchange of correspondence to the attention of the Inquiry, and for the Inquiry to decide, in the light of the scope of its terms of reference, whether it is appropriate for him to do so.

Finally, and for your client's information, HMGOG will shortly be consulting with your client (through you) in relation to the Inquiries' terms of reference, which will reflect the statements made in that regard by the Chief Minister in Parliament on 31st July 2020.

Yours faithfully,

I replied that I was not aware and enquired where this had occurred to which I was told it was the upper rock.
The ~~[illegible]~~ graffiti was at two different locations in the upper rock. One post had written, in an effort to disguise proper spelling and grammar, "corupted (two stops of paud) Tews XX Comimisoner MAGRAIL THE £TEWS R M coming £4 V" with a carton face at the end. The second graffiti ~~[illegible]~~ stated "COMMISIONER

It is my understanding that this graffiti was written in the upper rock at a lane branching off Queens Rd.
I FIND THE GRAFFITI to be obscene and whoever the culprit is, is playing dirty and malicious games. i can only link or attribute these comments to my previous role as commissioner of Police, I have never had any issues whatsoever during my personal or professional life with any member of the Jewish faith, moreover, my paternal grandmother was Jewish herself. Notwithstanding, Just before my retirement officers of the RGP were investigating a very complex and in my view serious criminal matter. which drew them to conduct some lines of enquiry, with a prominent Local lawyer and member of local Jewish community. This intervention by RGP officers was received with great resentment as police records on the particular case show. This is the only contentious in their view, issue connected to the Jewish community during my tenure as commissioner. whilst i can not pin point or identify who is behind this obscenity, i can only think of this mentioned matter as the precursor to the graffiti. It causes me grief to the extent where i am concerned about any possible repercussions on myself or members of my family in whatever form this may manifest itself, for simply discharging my role in Law enforcement. Dear Darren –

I hope this e-mail finds you well.

Time flies and it is practically coming up to a year since I left the RGP. Now that I am 55 years old I have been doing the rounds with the Income Tax Department viz my social insurance contributions and tax status in accordance with the instructions I received from the DSS in the pension forecast they provided me. It is for this reason that I am writing to you.

I have been informed by the Social Insurance Contributions Section at the Tax Office that I do not qualify for Essential Credits because I was a head of department and I retired before the compulsory retirement age of 60. This is technically incorrect as in my case I was serving under a Governor's warrant for a term of 4 years [my contract] and therefore my compulsory retirement age would not have been 60 but rather 56. You will agree that my situation as commissioner of police under a specific contract is completely different to that of another head of department and you will be aware that there is precedent for this.

With regards to my tax status I have been informed by PAYE that my code will be amended so that I do not pay tax on my occupational pension. However, the very kind lady attending to me mentioned this would still need approval from SI contributions section and Treasury. Given the position of SI contributions section mentioned above I am concerned that the same interpretation of the compulsory retirement age will be applied to me on this matter too.

You will recall during my final e-mail exchanges with you on 8th June 2020 that I made certain requests on the conditions for my early retirement. These conditions I had also discussed with Nick Pyle who was the interim Governor at the time. He relayed these conditions to you and an exchange of emails between you and I ensued. Of the 5 conditions I put forward you did not accept one and partially accepted another one, i.e. the claim for payment until end of contract and my legal fees. The other conditions were accepted. One of these related to my pension where I asked that this be worked out based on my salary at the time. Under this condition I also expressed my understanding that my pension would be taxable until I attained the age of 55. There was tacit approval from you on this and based of this agreement I worked out my pension/gratuity package for my future income.

It is evident that the compulsory retirement age being referred to by SI contributions section is not applicable to my case for the reasons already alluded to above. I respectfully ask that you impart the conditions of my early retirement to the SI contributions and PAYE sections respectively so that they can action accordingly.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes

Ian

Dear Darren –

By way of update I attach a letter from the Income Tax Office dated 11t May which I have only received in the mail today informing me that my application for Essential Credits has not been approved. As you know, the implications of this non approval is that my pension will remain taxable until I attain the age of 60 which is contrary to what we agreed on my retirement.

I know you are waiting for the Director of Social Insurance, Nicholas Richardson, to return from leave next week to action the conditions we agreed for my retirement but I nonetheless wanted to share with you the correspondence I have received from the Tax Office. Evidently the matter will not be resolved in time for the payment of this month's pension but I trust it will be resolved as soon as possible when Mr Richardson returns to work.

For your information I have also attached a copy of my warrant of appointment, issued by HE The Governor under section 3.2 of the Police Act 2006 (itself a statutory instrument) which highlights the term of office as four years and which by default confirms that my compulsory retirement age was not 60 years as is being interpreted by the Tax Office.

As you copied Nicholas Richardson in our last exchange I have done likewise in the hope that the matter is expedited on his return to the office.

11th October 2021

Dear Chief Secretary,

Re:- My personal tax and social insurance status

Our e-mail exchanges of diverse dates between 11th May and 13th September 2021 refer.

Throughout this correspondence you have repeatedly given me assurances that the matter that I raised with you regarding my tax and social insurance status would be resolved. In our last exchange on the 13th September, following my request to meet you face to face, you advised me that you had spoken to the Chief Minister and that he had asked that I refer this matter to him. Under the circumstances I do not consider it appropriate to re-open discussion and agreements which had already been reached between you and I with the Chief Minister.

Aside from my misgivings as explained above, the Chief Minister has given public notice that he is currently fully focussed on the Brexit discussions and this is another reason why I think it would be inappropriate to try and engage with Mr Picardo. As Chief Secretary of the Government of Gibraltar, I am sure that you will want to avoid involving the political government in a matter which relates to arrangements/entitlements which you have acknowledged. Your asked me to pledge my trust in you and I did.

I look forward to receiving closure on this matter which as you too have acknowledged is taking an inordinate amount of time to resolve. You will no doubt appreciate the obvious implications viz-a-viz my Old Age Pension, when the time comes, if this is not resolved as per our agreement.

With anticipated thanks.

Yours faithfully,

Ian McGrail

2nd November2021

Dear Chief Secretary,

Re:- My personal tax and social insurance status

I refer to my letter to you dated 11th October 2021 a copy of which I attach for ease of reference.

21 days have elapsed and I have not had a response to the letter other than a one worded acknowledgement that you had received it on the same day I sent it to you.

As Chief Secretary you are no doubt dealing with many things simultaneously and I would like to think that your non response to my letter is not intentional. Throughout my correspondence with you over the past 6 months I have always been courteous and patient. Similarly, you have always been very prompt with your responses providing me with much needed reassurances which as you know I have greatly appreciated. It is because of this change in your approach that I regret to say that I cannot help but feel totally disregarded and disrespected. I have been a loyal servant of the Crown and Gibraltar for 36 years and I question what is it that I have done not to merit a response from you to my letter or indeed not be treated fairly as I was assured I would be by HE the Governor back in June 2020.

Given that you non response coincides with you speaking to the Chief Minister about my matter, I am respectfully asking you to please let me know the nature and content of your exchange with Mr Picardo in this regard so that I am aware of where I stand.

Keeping my hopes up and trusting you to respond.

Yours faithfully,

Ian McGrail

Dear Darren -

A further 21 days have now gone by since my last correspondence to you on 2nd November 2021 which was in response to your consistently very short apologetic stance to excuse the lack of progress in resolving my personal tax and social insurance matter dated the same day.

Your response on this day was "Dear Ian, I hope you are well; I am truly sorry for the delay. We should revert shortly". I responded to your email a few moments later expressing my discontent with the manner I was being treated, more so when what I am chasing you about is something you had acknowledged months back. I also enquired from you whether your position in this regard had changed and if it had I was respectfully asking you why this was the case - Conversely, I asked you t confirm what we had discussed back in June 2020 if this was not the case.

Not only have you not responded to my last email, the fact that you stated you would revert shortl but still haven't after 21 days worries me a great deal.

I reiterate my pledge to you as Chief Secretary of HM Government of Gibraltar: What have I done not to be treated fairly in terms of the arrangements reached with you at the time of my retirement? Why can't I get straight forward and clear answers to the questions I am posing you? Do I merit this disdain after 36 loyal years of public service? Surely you will have to agree that it is not me who is being the unreasonable one here.

I look forward to hearing from you and receiving closure once and for all.

Dear Darren –

Our numerous exchanges of communication on this subject refers.

It is now 10 months since I first raised the matter with you and it still remains unresolved despite the repeated assurances that you have given me that you would indeed ensure to abide to the agreement we reached on my retirement in June 2020.

In previous emails you have told me that the matter was practically resolved but then all went cold. You kept telling me not to worry and to trust you - that you were still on my case. 10 months down the road and I am still in limbo. Surely, this is not such an administrative burden on you not to be able to resolve it after so many months!

I look forward to hearing from you.

Conversely, please confirm if your position and assurances over the past 10 months have changed, and if so, what has driven you to that change. I know that I have mentioned this before in previous emails, but I take this opportunity to remind you again that on two occasions, at the point of my retirement, the Governor told me that he would ensure that I was treated fairly and with respect at all times. I sincerely feel that I am not being treated fairly on this matter which as you wel know preceded any other issue relating to my early retirement.

I look forward to your response.

It is now practically 11 months since I first raised the matter of my personal tax and social insurance status with you. During all this time you have assured me that you would be resolving the matter as per our agreement in June 2020. In fact, you assured me that when you sorted it all out you would apply the change retrospective to May 2021.

You must be fully aware of the financial shortfall I am carrying monthly because of the agreement not being fulfilled. You also acknowledged the implications this would have on my (Old Age Pension) if the matter was not resolved. I continue to be anxious with this void of uncertainty.

You have also not responded to my two last emails I sent you on the 1st and 8th March 2022 where I ask very simple and straight forward questions of you.

During one point in our numerous exchanges in the past 11 months, you asked me not to despair; that you were at the point of having my matter sorted out. I respectfully ask that you give my matter the attention it merits and that you respond to this communication with the news that it has been finally sorted. Any other response that you provide would be unsatisfactory given the inordinate amount of time that you have been dealing with this. I remain extremely worried with the way I am being treated by you.

Dear Darren,

I hope this email finds you well.

It is regarding my family's get together last night, which you attended, and the fact that you blanked me out as if I was invisible, that I write to enquire why you have behaved like that towards me. I can only assume that it has to do with the fact that the matter of my personal and social security status which you undertook to resolve over a year ago actually remains unresolved - that you have not responded to my latest emails of 1st & 8th March 2022 and 8th April 2022 - and that out of a sense of embarrassment/shame you felt it best to blank me out completely. It even caught the attention of my uncle, who is like a father to me, and who you effusively said good night to whilst I was sitting next to him.

I remind you of the many assurances you provided me that you would arrange for my tax and social security issue to be sorted as per our agreement in June 2020, pledging me to trust you and asking me not to despair as you would indeed deal with it. I suppose that trust has to be earned and the fact that you have still not resolved my situation after over 12 months has indeed caused me to despair. Neither have you answered the very simple and straightforward questions I have put to you concerning this same matter. It is for this reason that I urge you to do the right and honourable thing; keep to your word and to the agreement we reached on the day before I applied to retire from the RGP.

I look forward to hearing from you .

  Let me please make one thing clear: when I said goodbye to your uncle I honestly did not see you next to him. This is the gospel truth. I have the utmost respect and yes even love for your family. We go back a long time when Kenneth (Junior) and I went to the same Uni and your uncle and lovely auntie invited us to a slap up meal, which after months of hall dining felt like heaven.

  Again with the same honesty, I did see you earlier by the bar and wanted to somehow engage. Embarrassment about what to say took over me given I have not answered your email(s) beyond my original replies, and for this I can only but apologise, because it is certainly not my style, and you must know this as a judge of character and from those who know me well. Dear Richard,

I write to you with a sincere sense of apprehension but feel it necessary to raise very serious concerns I am experiencing.

To provide you with some context I want to inform you that shortly after I retired in June 2020, I had reason to deposit, with several high profile personalities locally and abroad, a confidential document I had written which highlighted what at the time I felt was a potential threat to my good reputation and/or personal safety and that of my family – all this borne out from very credible information that I had received.

I wanted my concerns to be on record, albeit confidentially, should anything untoward were to occur to me or my family. Many things crossed my mind not least the murder in 2017, in Malta, of the journalist Daphne Caruana Galizia, who reported on corruption and nepotism in the Maltese Government. Whilst there will be those who will think my thoughts are somewhat sensationalist, I ask that you believe me when I say that it was the information that reached me back then which sowed these concerns in my mind.

You will be aware of the several instances were offensive and threatening graffiti directed at me has appeared in the upper rock and city centre. I have reported these instances to the RGP but unfortunately the culprit(s) have not been detected.

I am also in possession of further very reliable information regarding a conspiracy to tarnish and crush my reputation at the forthcoming public inquiry. Whilst this conspiracy may not be a criminal one, it can certainly become a perjury issue if indeed those involved take to the stand to give evidence. In this regard I am totally at ease and not particularly worried but what I want to put across is that there seems to be a catalogue of issues which appear to focus on causing me harm.

Having provided you with some context to my concerns please allow me to take you to the most serious of issues I want to raise with you.

This relates to increasing reports that my lawyer and I are being "bugged". Those behind this illegal activity are likely to be foreign actors and so issues of national integrity arise aside from all the obvious criminal offences this may disclose.

We have known each other personally and professionally for over 30 years and we know "the Job" made us grow thick skins, but I am being very honest with you when I say that I am very worried about the extremes others are going to in order to try and bring me down. I am taking personal protective measures and safeguarding myself as much as I realistically can but when we are dealing with interception of communications, invasion of privacy and the likes, it is evident that I may be dealing with too big a beast.

I would welcome the opportunity to meet face to face with you and any other senior officer if you feel it necessary so I can elaborate on this further.

I reiterate that I have given this move I am making very serious thought before communicating it to you, but I feel really vulnerable and worried. You know too well that otherwise I would not be bothering you with such a matter.

Yours,

Ian McGrail

Here again it is showing that we are the colonists and if this woman can do this to our population and to workers and visitors alike God help us when the Prime Minister signs the dotted line. God help Gibraltar.

Just had a call from chris collins (suave as he's ever been) saying cbf has asked him to call me for the following;
That a female service rating has gone to jpsu to report a theft of clothing from within camp. That given the issues of jurisdiction he wanted to know how it would be best handled. I have referred him to GDP & if by any chance the matter spills out of the wire then GDP would consult with us on how to proceed. He was happy with this and would

From reading your email, it would appear that this failure to understand the law of applicable in Gibraltar has not yet been corrected in your mind. I will therefore set out the position as clearly for you as our AG has been required to do with the senior lawyers at the MOD who, I understand from Mr Llamas, fully appreciated the position. It is therefore surprising that the law still appears to be unclear for you.

ONLY the Royal Gibraltar Police has jurisdiction at present in Gibraltar in respect of crimes committed in Gibraltar. The Gibraltar Defence Police has a jurisdiction created by statute which is not relevant to this matter and HM Customs has concurrent jurisdiction with us in respect of matters related to their responsibilities. Other military agencies have no criminal jurisdiction whatsoever within Gibraltar in cases such as the one with which we are dealing. You should perhaps seek to liaise directly with [redacted] or [redacted] from MOD in respect of this as their position seemed to be clear and entirely in keeping with the understanding of our AG.

What has been agreed between the Chief Minister and the AG and the MOD in the UK is to continue the work that was being done to create an MOU and legislation which will in some ways carve out jurisdiction in future cases based on the Armed Forces Act 2006, but with caveats appropriate to the circumstances of Gibraltar. That will be achieved before the summer.

I set this out because it is no concession by you or the MOD that we will "retain" jurisdiction over the RAF SP. We are the only agency in Gibraltar that has ANY jurisdiction over him. Now that this individual has a lawyer, you may find that once he is dealt with by us, he will

That will have to follow Gibraltar law procedures if he does not wish to surrender himself to the UK authorities. He may also have potential legal actions available to him for the way in which he has been dealt with by the MOD in Gibraltar.
In the circumstances, those of your three officers who have been arrested are facing very serious charges. A long bail is required for now as we assess the information at our disposal. All of it points clearly towards the RGP - which is the only law enforcement agency with jurisdiction for the reasons I have outlined above - having been lied to and having been obstructed in the course of their lawful discharge of their duties. The clear evidence also seems to suggest that, in a conspiracy amongst themselves and, potentially, others, the three in question have three in question have attempted to pervert the course of justice.

As a result of the seriousness of this offence and the evidence which suggests that it is likely that all the relevant ingredients are made out, a long bail has been necessary.
Should the three in question provide statements that satisfy my officers that the offences are not made out or, alternatively, should they accept the facts and accept the facts and express genuine contrition in respect of the facts, a decision may be reached which does not require immediate or any prosecution or further action.

The timing of that is not something that we can be asked to commit to in any way which might compromise our investigation and I am surprised that a senior officer like you should have written seeking to pressure us to reach a decision in a defined time.

That is not helpful at all.
You should also be clear that I am not likely, in the circumstances, to reach a conclusion that there is no evidence to support the charges of obstruction or attempting to pervert the course of justice.
Indeed, quite the opposite is true and the fact is that others might actually fall too be included in further charges as further evidence as to the conspiracy that ensued is uncovered.

I do not understand how you could have reached the contrary conclusion from anything that I have said.
Let me be clear enough so that any misunderstanding will be impossible: the evidence would appear to be conclusive that your officers HAVE obstructed and HAVE attempted to pervert the course of justice.
The only way in which we may consider not charging (and this is subject to further consideration of the evidence and of the relevant law) is if we are satisfied that there is a GENUINE acceptance of guilt by the individuals in question, of the gravity of the situation and an unequivocal expression of remorse and apology. That can affect an officers discretion in making the decision of whether or not to charge an offender.

In addition you should note that the any expression of contrition which is couched in which is couched in language which is equivocal, that is to say, which relies on an insistence that the law reflects anything other than absolute jurisdiction to the RGP, would not be satisfactory as it would not amount to genuine regret or remorse.

You should by now appreciate that the chronology set out in your email is entirely wrong and untenable as it is is based on unacceptable notion of a decision being made by

For now, I am able to confirm that we will not be carrying out any investigations involving MOD assets taken in the execution of the search warrants. We have no alternative but reserve our rights in respect of this material which has been lawfully seized but which we will be able to return without having had to carry out any further investigations into it if matters can be resolved without the need to

As far as the Provost Marshall's note books are concerned, I am making arrangements to have these returned so that the MOD's enquiry can also progress.

wanted to make upfront.
The first is that I value, admire, and wish to enhance the very important strategic relationship between HMG and HMGoG and the very special contributing role that HM Forces provides in assisting to nurture this relationship. Indeed, I think you and I have done good work together in the period running up to the 8th of February and it would be a pity if we were unable to continue to build on that work going forward. I have had sight of a letter that the Chief of Staff Joint Forces Command, Rear Admiral Anthony Radakin, has sent to you dated 8 March 2017.
I note that the communication from Rear Admiral Radakin serves to clarify the position of the Ministry of Defence as to jurisdiction in respect of the above captioned. The letter also makes clear that, at all times, I was acting in the fulfilment of my duties as directed by

It now transpires that the advice on jurisdiction, which formed the basis for my directed actions, was not correct. I clearly did not know this at the time of the events and was, indeed, led to believe the opposite.
In light of the above, it will be evident to you that my actions on the dates in

In particular, it was evidently not my intention to obstruct any officer of the RGP in the lawful performance of their duties, nor to obstruct their investigation, even less to have attempted to pervert, or to conspire to pervert, the course of

You will therefore not be surprised to know that I

I agree that this is sufficient in terms of contrition as far as the three individuals are concerned. It i an apology. My only reservation, as we discussed earlier, and as Richard points out, is that they are not saying they do not have jurisdiction, but rather recognise ours and our primacy. However if AG is content with what Radakin says then that's fine by me.

Echo everything that has been said. I guess a step in the right direction. Certainly most notably what Ian suggests, they even tried to pull the wool over JFC eyes. Pero Mira, plenty of apologies which we should recognise.

Hi good afternoon.

First of all I wanted to thank you for the support that you and your staff have given us throughout this unsavoury situation. I don't find any satisfaction for having arrested 3 Top Senior Military Officials. I'm afraid that we are not out of the woods yet for the reason that I will explain now, but I believe it can be easily resolved.

From our recent conversations with the Chief Minister and indeed yourself, it is evident that Gibraltar (I will not say the RGP) has been vindicated in the way we have reacted to this.

I would now ask that we receive official notification in writing of the robust legal position both in the Jurisdiction and of the Primacy of the RGP in the whole of Gibraltar.

This should be disseminated to all concerned including the MOD here in Gibraltar.

We have heard from close Gibraltarian sources (who are in CBF's Command Briefings and must be treated in the strictest of confidence) that this position has not been promulgated to MOD personnel. On the contrary they are behaving with a very bravado attitude still claiming that they have jurisdiction and that the Naval Provost will have full jurisdiction on MOD land.

The attitude stems from the top when it is said that CBF entered the meeting and jokingly said, and I quote, 'Any Police Here' sticking his head through the door and then went onto 'chuckle, chuckle'.

All this is getting back to our officers and tells me that they have not taken the seriousness of the matter in the way they should as a professional body they claim to be.

At the very least in my organisation these officers who have been arrested would have been either Interdicted or Suspended until the matter is resolved. I would have accepted if they had been relieved of their current roles so that business can continue I am informed that as an example COS is still in his office chairing his daily meetings and is business as usual.

For your information, I have instructed that these three individuals are Not to be allowed into New Mole House to any meetings and my officers will Not attend any meetings where any of these three are participating.

I have concerns that my officers will come to a confrontation because such demeanour and attitudes.

To say that I am very disappointed is an understatement and I will not confront CBF on it Now because I will give away the trust that our Gibraltarian colleagues have shown in calling us up.

I trust that this makes sense and by disseminating the outcome of the meetings in London and which have been accepted by their top MOD Legal representatives, will hopefully put them in their place.

This attitude goes against what we are trying to achieve in resolving this particular issue and our future with British Forces Gibraltar.

Kind regards

Eddie

> My understanding of what has been a difficult situation for us both, as of lunch-time today is that:
> Following their arrest on Weds by RGP, three of my officers have been interviewed and released without charge, but on bail until 6 Jun 17. The conditions of bail with respect to none of them having any contact with the RAF SP under 'suspicion' and his wife and young son, will be difficult to meet operationally, but achievable in the short-term. If the situation continues beyond the middle of next week, please can we discuss the bail terms?
> My three will (may already have done so) submit written statements to RGP to (1) answer the comprehensive set of questions put to them at interview, (2) explain their actions and (3) offer a counter to all the allegations laid at their door including that of perverting the course of justice.
> Once you have had time to review the statements and take stock, is it possible for you to reach a decision by the middle of next week as to the future plan? As we discussed, I very much hope that you will be in a position to drop all charges against all three, lift the conditions of bail, and inform them that the Investigation has been formally terminated because there is no evidence to support the charges of perverting the course of justice.
> If this is achieved, all three will speak personally with you, to express contrition.
> Turning to the items seized on Wednesday as evidence, AG Gibraltar confirmed to MoD / FCO officials on Thursday that it had (1) all been sealed, (2) would not form part of the Investigation and (3) would be returned to MoD. Has this happened yet? Please can you ensure that the return includes those personal items that were taken from a Married Quarter, and accommodation at Devil's Tower Camp?
> Following on from Chief Superintendent Allen's email to you on Thursday, please could you also return the notebooks taken from the Provost Martial, to allow a separate un-related internal

MoD Inquiry to continue in accordance with mandated dead-lines?

With respect to the on-going investigation into the RAF SP, the same meeting (Thursday, in London) agreed that RGP would retain jurisdiction and - should the evidence support it - interview the individual under caution and arrest him. I think the arrest and interview may already have happened? Are you happy to liaise directly with the appropriate authorities (MoD or UK Civil Police?) to take this case forward to an appropriate legal finish. Do you need anything more from me on this?

I very much hope that my understanding of the situation is similar to yours. I am very happy to discuss it further.

Dear COP and CBF,

As I prepare to return to the UK this PM on associated business (returning PM Thursday), and to visit the RG in Folkestone, I wanted to check that we are all of the same mind regarding the way ahead for the ongoing investigations. But, first, may I take this opportunity to thank you both for your endeavours to date regarding the investigations.

As we discussed last Wednesday evening , once you, Eddie, have decided how the investigations are to progress, the next step is for a discussion to take place between you and Mike as to how the way ahead can best be achieved from both an RGP and MoD perspective.

If, at anytime, there are any points of contention please do not hesitate to get in touch if you believe I can be of assistance. Meanwhile, Nick, in my absence, also stands ready to assist if deemed helpful.

Very happy to chat through the above if useful.

Thank you.

Subject: Re: Investigations

Dear
Commander British Forces

I am very disappointed by your email of Saturday which, in my view, simply further exacerbates matters and betrays a deep misunderstanding of the gravity of the situation facing those three of your officers who are presently under arrest and others who may become persons of interest as the investigation unfolds.

The offence of perverting the course of justice is a very serious one - the issues that have arisen in this case are not child's play or a matter for simple inter-agency negotiation. The very difficult situation that has manifested itself has arisen from a complete misunderstanding of the law by your officers and those who were purporting to instruct, command or advise them and you.

From reading your email, it would appear that this failure to understand the law applicable in Gibraltar has not yet been corrected in your mind. I will therefore set out the position as clearly for you as our AG has been required to do with the senior lawyers at the MOD who, I understand from Mr Llamas, fully appreciated the position and agreed with it. It is therefore surprising that the law still appears to be unclear for you.

ONLY the Royal Gibraltar Police has jurisdiction and primacy at present in Gibraltar in respect of crimes committed in Gibraltar. The Gibraltar Defence Police has a jurisdiction created by statute which is not relevant to this matter and HM Customs has concurrent jurisdiction with us in respect of matters related to their responsibilities. There is no military unit that enjoys any jurisdiction on criminal matters whatsoever within Gibraltar and this includes cases such as the one with which we are dealing. Perhaps it would be best that you liaised directly with those from the MOD who I understand are Andy Halliwell and/or Isabel Letwin in respect of this as their position seemed to be clear and entirely in keeping with the understanding of HM Attorney General for Gibraltar.

I do also understand that at the recent meeting in London what has been agreed between the Chief Minister and the AG and the MOD in the UK is to continue the work that was being done to create an MOU and legislation which will in some ways carve out jurisdiction in future cases based on the Armed Forces Act 2006, but with caveats appropriate to the circumstances of Gibraltar. I am informed that this will be achieved before the summer.

I feel the need to set this out because it is no concession by you or indeed the MOD that we will "retain" jurisdiction over the RAF SP as you allude to in your email. We are the only agency in Gibraltar that has ANY [criminal] jurisdiction over him. Obviously, the RAF SP in question will have to consider his options with his legal advisers after he has been dealt with by us in terms of any pending matter with the UK authorities. Equally, he may also have scope for potential legal action against the MOD for the ultra vires activity he was subjected to here in Gibraltar by the MOD and JPSU in particular.

In the circumstances, your three officers who have been arrested are subject of a very serious investigation which may or may not end up with charges being-proffered against them - obviously this will be determined once the investigation is concluded as is the norm in all criminal investigation my organisation undertakes. A long bail is required for now as we assess the information at our disposal and the investigating team trawls through the copious amounts of documentation and other material seized. I can tell you that so far all of it points clearly towards the RGP - which is the only law enforcement agency with jurisdiction for the reasons I have outlined above - having been lied to and having been obstructed in the course of our lawful discharge of our duties. The clear evidence also seems to suggest that, in a conspiracy amongst themselves and, potentially, others, the three military officers in question have attempted to pervert the course of justice. As a result of the seriousness of this offence and the evidence which suggests that it is likely that all the relevant ingredients are made out, a long bail has been necessary.

Should the three in question provide statements that satisfy my officers that the offences are not made out or, alternatively, should they accept the facts and express genuine contrition in respect of the facts, a decision may be reached which does not require any prosecution or further action. The timing of that is not something that we can be asked to commit to in any way which might compromise our investigation and I am surprised that a senior officer like you should have written seeking to pressure us to reach a decision in a defined time. That is not helpful at all. You should also be clear that I am not likely, in the circumstances, to reach a conclusion that there is no evidence to support the charges of obstruction or attempting to pervert the course of justice. Indeed, quite the opposite is true and the fact is that others might actually fall to be included in further charges as further evidence as to the conspiracy that ensued is uncovered.

I am quite fazed and quite frankly do not understand how you could have already reached the contrary conclusion from anything that I have said when the investigation has not been completed. Let me be clear enough so that any misunderstanding will be impossible; the evidence would appear to be conclusive that your officers HAVE obstructed and HAVE attempted to pervert the course of justice.

The only way in which we may consider not charging (and this is subject to further consideration of the evidence and of the relevant law) is if we are satisfied that there is a GENUINE acceptance of guilt by the individuals in question,recognition of the gravity of the situation and an unequivocal expression of remorse and apology. That can affect my police powers [of discretion] in making the decision of whether or not to charge an offender.

In addition you should note that any expression of contrition which is couched in language which is equivocal, that is to say, which relies on an insistence that the law reflects anything other than absolute jurisdiction to the RGP, would not be satisfactory as it would not amount to genuine regret or remorse.

You should by now appreciate that the chronology set out in your email is entirely wrong and untenable as it is is based on the unacceptable notion of a decision being made by us not to prosecute actually happening BEFORE an acceptance of guilt and an expression of genuine and unequivocal remorse is made by the MOD officers in question. That is not going to happen.

For now, I am able to confirm that we will not be carrying out any forensic interrogation of the computers taken in the execution of the search warrants. We have no alternative but to reserve our rights in respect of this material which has been lawfully seized but which we will be able to return without having had to carry out any further investigations into them if matters can be resolved without the need to charge. Your email, however, does not fill me with hope in that respect.

As far as the Provost Marshall’s note book is concerned, this will be perused for any evidence pertinent to our investigation and once it is determined that the contents hold no bearing it will be returned so that the MOD’s enquiry can also progress. Alternatively, I can arrange for photocopies to be made of the pages of the PM's book pertinent to the MOD enquiry so that he can continue with this enquiry.

In sum, you will see that my understanding of the legal and factual position is regrettably very different to yours. I am comforted by the fact the understanding I have set out above accords to that of the AG, who attended the relevant meetings with MOD legal advisers and, more importantly, with the Chief Minister and the UK's Minister for Europe, Rt Hon Sir Alan Duncan MP

> As previously reported, the RGP launched an investigation following the actions taken by senior military officers that precipitated the events of the 8th February 2017 at the airport, which also resulted in lengthy delays for traffic and pedestrians. Pursuant to this investigation, on the 1st March 2017 the RGP arrested three senior military officers currently deployed to British Forces Gibraltar. All three were subsequently granted bail whilst investigations continued.
> These investigations have revealed that the actions taken by the three military officers were due to a misconception about jurisdiction which they had received from superiors in their chain of command. In view of that, the three officers have written to the Commissioner of Police apologising for their actions and expressing their regrets, including for the disruption caused to the public on the day. On the basis of all the information now at the RGP's disposal, and in close consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, it has been determined by the Commissioner, in his discretion, that no further action is required. As a consequence all three senior military officers have been recalled from their bail and released from arrest with no charges being proffered against them.
> The RGP wishes to reiterate the excellent working relationship that it has always enjoyed with the MOD in Gibraltar and is confident that the events of the last weeks will serve as a platform to grow an even better understanding between our respective organisations and to build an even stronger and mutually respectful and beneficial future together.

Gentlemen,

Please find attached Wing Commander Hutchison's statement (we will deliver the original to New Mole House on Monday).

We hope that it will assist you in your inquiries.

Meanwhile the RAF intend for Sgt. Watterson to return to work next week. This would inevitably put him in contact with the Wing Commander and I would like to discuss with you the possibility of a variation of the bail conditions to allow for contact subject to there being no mention or discussion, directly or otherwise of any of the ongoing enquiries / investigations.

If you want to contact me during the week-end please feel free to phone me on 57483000.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Gomez.

Clearly there is a difference in what she is saying to what I was told on the day.
Can I have a clarification of this account before I share it.
She claims to have assisted and not obstructed so a letter of contrition and apology will be unlikely.

Sir first stab at it please see below:

BEGINS

As previously reported, following the actions taken by senior military officers that precipitated the events of the 8th February 2017 at the airport, which also resulted in lengthy delays for traffic and pedestrians, the RGP launched a criminal investigation. Pursuant to this investigation, on the 1st March 2017 the RGP arrested three senior military officers currently deployed to British Forces Gibraltar for the offences of Attempting to Pervert the Course of Justice and Conspiracy to Pervert the Course of Justice. All three were subsequently granted bail whilst investigations continued.

These investigations have now reached a stage where it has been assessed that the actions taken by the three military officers whilst ostensibly illegal in nature were in fact based on an incorrectly held assumption of jurisdiction, which was pursuant to erroneous legal advice and flawed instructions from their superiors. On the basis of all the information now at the RGP's disposal and in close consultation with the Office of the Attorney General it has been determined that the military officers' actions did not meet the threshold required to progress this prosecution further. As a consequence all three senior military officers have been recalled from their bail and released from arrest with no charges being preferred against them.

The jurisdictional position is now clear to all parties concerned.

Sir

Second stab:

BEGINS

Pursuant to the investigation into the events of the 8th February, on the 1st March 2017 the RGP arrested three senior military officers currently deployed to British Forces Gibraltar for the offences of Attempting to Pervert the Course of Justice and Conspiracy to Pervert the Course of Justice. All three were subsequently granted bail whilst investigations continued. These investigations have now reached a stage where it has been assessed that the actions taken by the three military officers whilst ostensibly illegal in nature were in fact based on flawed legal advice and instructions from their superiors.

On the basis of all the information now at the RGP's disposal and in close consultation with the Office of the Attorney General it has been determined that the military officers' actions, for which they have issued a full, contrite and unreserved apology, did not meet the threshold required to progress this prosecution further. As a consequence all three senior military officers have been recalled from their bail and released from arrest with no charges being preferred against them.

The jurisdictional position is now clear to all parties concerned and the RGP looks forward to continuing its excellent working relationship with the Ministry of Defence.

Sir,
Furthermore, I note that HE is copied in to CBF's response. I feel that HE should be forthcoming in advising CBF that he has to take a step back now on what is solely an operational police matter and that CBF should be made to understand that HE cannot be further involved in this matter.

Subject: RE: Investigations

Dear Commissioner,

My understanding of what has been a difficult situation for us both, as of lunch-time today is that:

Following their arrest on Weds by RGP, three of my officers have been interviewed and released without charge, but on bail until 6 Jun 17. The conditions of bail with respect to none of them having any contact with the RAF SP under 'suspicion' and his wife and young son, will be difficult to meet operationally, but achievable in the short-term. If the situation continues beyond the middle of next week, please can we discuss the bail terms?

My three will (may already have done so) submit written statements to RGP to (1) answer the comprehensive set of questions put to them at interview, (2) explain their actions and (3) offer a counter to all the allegations laid at their door including that of perverting the course of justice.

Once you have had time to review the statements and take stock, is it possible for you to reach a decision by the middle of next week as to the future plan? As we discussed, I very much hope that you will be in a position to drop all charges against all three, lift the conditions of bail, and inform them that the Investigation has been formally terminated because there is no evidence to support the charges of perverting the course of justice.

If this is achieved, all three will speak personally with you, to express contrition.

Turning to the items seized on Wednesday as evidence, AG Gibraltar confirmed to MoD / FCO officials on Thursday that it had (1) all been sealed, (2) would not form part of the Investigation and (3) would be returned to MoD. Has this happened yet? Please can you ensure that the return includes those personal items that were taken from a Married Quarter, and accommodation at Devil's Tower Camp?

Following on from Chief Superintendent Allen's email to you on Thursday, please could you also return the notebooks taken from the Provost Martial, to allow a separate un-related internal MoD Inquiry to continue in accordance with mandated dead-lines?

With respect to the on-going investigation into the RAF SP, the same meeting (Thursday, in London) agreed that RGP would retain jurisdiction and - should the evidence support it - interview the individual under caution and arrest him. I think the arrest and interview may already have happened? Are you happy to liaise directly with the appropriate authorities (MoD or UK Civil Police?) to take this case forward to an appropriate legal finish. Do you need anything more from me on this?

I very much hope that my understanding of the situation is similar to yours. I am very happy to discuss it further.

Dear COP and CBF,

As I prepare to return to the UK this PM on associated business (returning PM Thursday), and to visit the RG in Folkestone, I wanted to check that we are all of the same mind regarding the way ahead for the ongoing investigations. But, first, may I take this opportunity to thank you both for your endeavours to date regarding the investigations.

As we discussed last Wednesday evening , once you, Eddie, have decided how the investigations are to progress, the next step is for a discussion to take place between you and Mike as to how the way ahead can best be achieved from both an RGP and MoD perspective.

If, at anytime, there are any points of contention please do not hesitate to get in touch if you believe I can be of assistance. Meanwhile, Nick, in my absence, also stands ready to assist if deemed helpful.

Very happy to chat through the above if useful.

Thank you.

I think it is adding insult to injury for CBF to be passing judgement on the criminal investigation & even putting time lines as to when the investigation should be concluded when even he may become subject if this investigation.

There is some contradictory stance on his part - on the one hand he is saying his personnel have not done anything wrong & on the other they are willing to express contrition.

They are seriously thinking we are dumb or what?

Any account the 3 officials provide is already well tainted - hardly the way an innocent party would comport themselves when they had opportunity to explain matters. Mind you, their accounts could well perhaps even contradict themselves even more when we sift through all the evidence gathered.

Sir, with respect, I do not accept CBF pressuring for an early resolution on their terms at all.

Dear
Commander British Forces

I am very disappointed by your email of Saturday which, in my view, simply further exacerbates matters and betrays a deep misunderstanding of the gravity of the situation facing those three of your officers who are presently under arrest and others who may become persons of interest as the investigation unfolds.

The offence of perverting the course of justice is a very serious one - the issues that have arisen in this case are not child's play or a matter for simple inter-agency negotiation. The very difficult situation that has manifested itself has arisen from a complete misunderstanding of the law by your officers and those who were purporting to instruct, command or advise them and you.

From reading your email, it would appear that this failure to understand the law applicable in Gibraltar has not yet been corrected in your mind. I will therefore set out the position as clearly for you as our AG has been required to do with the senior lawyers at the MOD who, I understand from Mr Llamas, fully appreciated the position and agreed with it. It is therefore surprising that the law still appears to be unclear for you.

ONLY the Royal Gibraltar Police has jurisdiction and primacy at present in Gibraltar in respect of crimes committed in Gibraltar. The Gibraltar Defence Police has a jurisdiction created by statute which is not relevant to this matter and HM Customs has concurrent jurisdiction with us in respect of matters related to their responsibilities. There is no military unit that enjoys any jurisdiction on criminal matters whatsoever within Gibraltar and this includes cases such as the one with which we are dealing. Perhaps it would be best that you liaised directly with those from the MOD who I understand are Andy Halliwell and/or Isabel Letwin in respect of this as their position seemed to be clear and entirely in keeping with the understanding of HM Attorney General for Gibraltar.

I do also understand that at the recent meeting in London what has been agreed between the Chief Minister and the AG and the MOD in the UK is to continue the work that was being done to create an MOU and legislation which will in some ways carve out jurisdiction in future cases based on the Armed Forces Act 2006, but with caveats appropriate to the circumstances of Gibraltar. I am informed that this will be achieved before the summer.

I feel the need to set this out because it is no concession by you or indeed the MOD that we will "retain" jurisdiction over the RAF SP as you allude to in your email. We are the only agency in Gibraltar that has ANY [criminal] jurisdiction over him. Obviously, the RAF SP in question will have to consider his options with his legal advisers after he has been dealt with by us in terms of any pending matter with the UK authorities. Equally, he may also have scope for potential legal action against the MOD for the ultra vires activity he was subjected to here in Gibraltar by the MOD and JPSU in particular.

In the circumstances, your three officers who have been arrested are subject of a very serious investigation which may or may not end up with charges being-proffered against them - obviously this will be determined once the investigation is concluded as is the norm in all criminal investigation my organisation undertakes. A long bail is required for now as we assess the information at our disposal and the investigating team trawls through the copious amounts of documentation and other material seized. I can tell you that so far all of it points clearly towards the RGP - which is the only law enforcement agency with jurisdiction for the reasons I have outlined above - having been lied to and having been obstructed in the course of our lawful discharge of our duties. The clear evidence also seems to suggest that, in a conspiracy amongst themselves and, potentially, others, the three military officers in question have attempted to pervert the course of justice. As a result of the seriousness of this offence and the evidence which suggests that it is likely that all the relevant ingredients are made out, a long bail has been necessary.

Should the three in question provide statements that satisfy my officers that the offences are not made out or, alternatively, should they accept the facts and express genuine contrition in respect of the facts, a decision may be reached which does not require any prosecution or further action. The timing of that is not something that we can be asked to commit to in any way which might compromise our investigation and I am surprised that a senior officer like you should have written seeking to pressure us to reach a decision in a defined time. That is not helpful at all. You should also be clear that I am not likely, in the circumstances, to reach a conclusion that there is no evidence to support the charges of obstruction or attempting to pervert the course of justice. Indeed, quite the opposite is true and the fact is that others might actually fall to be included in further charges as further evidence as to the conspiracy that ensued is uncovered.

I am quite fazed and quite frankly do not understand how you could have already reached the contrary conclusion from anything that I have said when the investigation has not been completed. Let me be clear enough so that any misunderstanding will be impossible; the evidence would appear to be conclusive that your officers HAVE obstructed and HAVE attempted to pervert the course of justice.

The only way in which we may consider not charging (and this is subject to further consideration of the evidence and of the relevant law) is if we are satisfied that there is a GENUINE acceptance of guilt by the individuals in question,recognition of the gravity of the situation and an unequivocal expression of remorse and apology. That can affect my police powers [of discretion] in making the decision of whether or not to charge an offender.

In addition you should note that any expression of contrition which is couched in language which is equivocal, that is to say, which relies on an insistence that the law reflects anything other than absolute jurisdiction to the RGP, would not be satisfactory as it would not amount to genuine regret or remorse.

You should by now appreciate that the chronology set out in your email is entirely wrong and untenable as it is is based on the unacceptable notion of a decision being made by us not to prosecute actually happening BEFORE an acceptance of guilt and an expression of genuine and unequivocal remorse is made by the MOD officers in question. That is not going to happen.

For now, I am able to confirm that we will not be carrying out any forensic interrogation of the computers taken in the execution of the search warrants. We have no alternative but to reserve our rights in respect of this material which has been lawfully seized but which we will be able to return without having had to carry out any further investigations into them if matters can be resolved without the need to charge. Your email, however, does not fill me with hope in that respect.

As far as the Provost Marshall’s note book is concerned, this will be perused for any evidence pertinent to our investigation and once it is determined that the contents hold no bearing it will be returned so that the MOD’s enquiry can also progress. Alternatively, I can arrange for photocopies to be made of the pages of the PM's book pertinent to the MOD enquiry so that he can continue with this enquiry.

In sum, you will see that my understanding of the legal and factual position is regrettably very different to yours. I am comforted by the fact the understanding I have set out above accords to that of the AG, who attended the relevant meetings with MOD legal advisers and, more importantly, with the Chief Minister and the UK's Minister for Europe, Rt Hon Sir Alan Duncan MP

Subject: RE: Investigations

Dear Commodore

Thank you for your email of yesterday afternoon. I am greatly reassured by it. I too value the strategic relationship between HMG and HMGoG and how both the Ministry of Defence and the RGP contribute to this relationship. I am therefore as keen as you are to bring these matters to a close and look positively towards the future, building on the lessons learnt in the past few weeks.

These few weeks have been difficult for both our organisations and my officers have displayed professionalism in the difficult tasks they performed but still affording both the officers concerned and the Ministry of Defence the respect they deserve. I am sure our respective leadership will see our teams continue to act in this way.

I accept that that there has been no doubt in your own mind about the RGP's jurisdiction. And whilst I am reassured by this I remain concerned by the implication that you may think that the MoD has concurrent jurisdiction. I am clear that it does not. Resolving this is a matter for others, but I too am encouraged by HMGoG's plans to legislate in order to reflect Armed Forces Act responsibilities in local law. Building on those legislative arrangements with an MoU will serve to further clarify jurisdiction, roles and responsibilities, and avoid repetition of the events of the last few weeks. Notwithstanding this I am obliged to seek, precisely to avoid finding ourselves in the same situation, assurances that the Provost Marshall and his staff will not seek to enforce the Armed Forces Act as they sought to do so in this case, until empowered to do so by local law.

With regard to the investigation, this must be seen to follow due process. Without prejudice to my and their respective positions I am of the view that were I to be provided, by the three officers concerned, with letters of apology and contrition, I would be favourably inclined to offer them a written reprimand for their actions of the 7th and 8th of February 2017. This matter would then be placed on file. This would also serve to reassure me that due process has occurred. I will then be in a position to instruct that they are released from arrest and all equipment seized returned to them.

All that said, I am concerned at how the position of these three officers will impact on the rebuilding of the relationship between our respective organisations, in particular our senior teams. Their continued presence in their current roles will make that difficult as we work to re-establish the confidence that must exist between our two organisations. In the interim I will deal with you on all matters, even when, as I will, you will be obliged to leave the jurisdiction on occasion. This will include the arrangement of any meeting that we may attend in our respective capacities.

Finally these unfortunate events have been a matter of great public interest. I will need to satisfy the community that due process has occurred, and should what I describe above be accepted, I intend to do so. In the interests of our future relationship I will share any statement with you prior to issue.

Let me reassure you that I too am keen to put this matter behind us to focus on the future.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Kind regards

Eddie

Subject: RE: Investigations

Dear Commissioner,

I thought it might be helpful to provide some explanatory commentary following my email of Saturday afternoon and your response yesterday. In doing so, there are a couple of points that I wanted to make upfront.

The first is that I value, admire, and wish to enhance the very important strategic relationship between HMG and HMGoG and the very special contributing role that HM Forces provides in assisting to nurture this relationship. Indeed, I think you and I have done good work together in the period running up to the 8th of February and it would be a pity if we were unable to continue to build on that work going forward. Consequently, the events of 8th February and the manner in which they have continued to unfold are a source of deep regret to me, my team, and I know that is also reflected by my higher HQ and the MOD. It is with this backdrop in mind that I sought the exchange over the weekend to be helpful. It was never my intention to inflame matters or to cause you further unease.

There are a number of points which I think merit drawing to your attention and I hope offer you some reassurance of both my position and that of the MOD and which we might be able to draw upon as we look to build towards the future and return as quickly as possible to the strong relationship which we have both enjoyed, personally and professionally, in the past. These are as follows:

- There is not, nor has there ever been, any doubt in my mind about the RGP's jurisdiction in this case This incident has served to assist an even clearer understanding of our mutual positions.
- I am confident that with our shared leadership, we can build for the future. This is enhanced by the shock that the last few weeks have borne us; and the need to, where necessary, increase our communications and working together. And I also think it is significant that Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar intends to accelerate legislative plans this summer which will better define the legal responsibilities that are normally reflected in an Armed Forces Act and that you will be looking at an MoU between our respective organisations to address logistics in that respect.
- Importantly, this will act as a platform to allow us to take forward the significant work on CT, MACA and Gibraltar's security – which we both understand is an enormous priority for both the Chief Minister and the Governor, and which will rely on you and me to ensure our teams work successfully and effectively together.

I hope this reassures you of my intent and my sincerity in trying to address our current difficulties.

I sincerely apologise if my e-mail on Saturday caused you any alarm or offence. It was absolutely never my intention and, indeed, quite the opposite.

With genuine best wishes, and sincerely hoping that we will soon be working as well together as we have,

Mike

Sir,

Brian did yesterday. We were provided with numbers and have arranged for additional RGP resources next week. We didn't believe it necessary with Monmouth, they are less than 200 POB.

To be honest I'm not sure what to make of the request. It is either cheeky, we are being misled, or they are not the brightest.

I will reply along the lines of them joining our patrol as observers only.

Regards,

Cathal.

Dear Commissioner,

Welcome news, indeed. Thank you.

At the conclusion of a most challenging four weeks, may I offer my deep gratitude to you and your Police Officers for the efficacy and manner in which the RGP has conducted this investigation. I do not underestimate how difficult this period has been, both professionally and personally, for all involved. In short, a very tough job, very well done. Thank you.

Looking forward to visiting Morocco with you next week.

Sir,

Fine by me. I think the point about the deceit needs to be made regardless of their expressed justification based on ill advice.

I'm not sure about the last sentence. Are we saying there could be a second or parallel investigation in the UK?

Best regards.

Subject: OFFICIAL POLICE - Media Strategy

Sir first stab at it please see below:

BEGINS

As previously reported, following the actions taken by senior military officers that precipitated the events of the 8th February 2017 at the airport, which also resulted in lengthy delays for traffic and pedestrians, the RGP launched a criminal investigation. Pursuant to this investigation, on the 1st March 2017 the RGP arrested three senior military officers currently deployed to British Forces Gibraltar for the offences of Attempting to Pervert the Course of Justice and Conspiracy to Pervert the Course of Justice. All three were subsequently granted bail whilst investigations continued.

These investigations have now reached a stage where it has been assessed that the actions taken by the three military officers whilst ostensibly illegal in nature were in fact based on an incorrectly held assumption of jurisdiction, which was pursuant to erroneous legal advice and flawed instructions from their superiors. On the basis of all the information now at the RGP's disposal and in close consultation with the Office of the Attorney General it has been determined that the military officers' actions did not meet the threshold required to progress this prosecution further. As a consequence all three senior military officers have been recalled from their bail and released from arrest with no charges being preferred against them.

The jurisdictional position is now clear to all parties concerned.

Sir,

I would agree. Although Richard includes many salient points, it is maybe in too much detail. I would concentrate on the lessons learnt and the need to move on, seeking Gibraltar's interest at the forefront of everything we have done.

Robert,
I am currently in the UK returning to the office most probably on Friday.
We can arrange to meet then and we can brief you accordingly.

It is still early to decide on whether there is evidence to proffer any charge. The investigating team has to sift through plenty of documents seized & piece everything together. Additionally there are many witnesses we need to see. What I can say at this stage is that we have secured some very interesting data which supports our suspicions. As far as their interviews go, well, they were advised to make no comment but they chose to respond to some questions remaining silent on others.

Let me know if Friday morning works for you. The 3 have been bailed until June.

Regards
Ian.

Gentlemen,

Please find attached Wing Commander Hutchison's statement (we will deliver the original to New Mole House on Monday).

We hope that it will assist you in your inquiries.

Meanwhile the RAF intend for Sgt. Watterson to return to work next week. This would inevitably put him in contact with the Wing Commander and I would like to discuss with you the possibility of a variation of the bail conditions to allow for contact subject to there being no mention or discussion, directly or otherwise of any of the ongoing enquiries / investigations.

If you want to contact me during the week-end please feel free to phone me on 57483000.

Sir,
Please see below my attempt to edit the letter to CBF.

"Dear Mike

I am very disappointed by your email of Saturday which, in my view, simply further exacerbates matters and betrays a deep misunderstanding of the gravity of the situation facing those three of your officers who are presently under arrest and others who may become persons of interest as the investigation unfolds.

The offence of perverting the course of justice is a very serious one - the issues that have arisen in this case are not child's play or a matter for simple inter-agency negotiation. The very difficult situation that has manifested itself has arisen from a complete misunderstanding of the law by your officers and those who were purporting to instruct, command or advise them and you.

From reading your email, it would appear that this failure to understand the law applicable in Gibraltar has not yet been corrected in your mind. I will therefore set out the position as clearly for you as our AG has been required to do with the senior lawyers at the MOD who, I understand from Mr Llamas, fully appreciated the position. It is therefore surprising that the law still appears to be unclear for you.

ONLY the Royal Gibraltar Police has jurisdiction and primacy at present in Gibraltar in respect of crimes committed in Gibraltar. The Gibraltar Defence Police has a jurisdiction created by statute which is not relevant to this matter and HM Customs has concurrent jurisdiction with us in respect of matters related to their responsibilities. There is no military unit that enjoys any jurisdiction on criminal matters whatsoever within Gibraltar and this includes cases such as the one with which we are dealing. Perhaps it would be best that you liaised directly with those from the MOD who I understand are Andy Halliwell and/or Isabel Letwin in respect of this as their position seemed to be clear and entirely in keeping with the understanding of HM Attorney General for Gibraltar.

I do also understand that at the recent meeting in London what has been agreed between the Chief Minister and the AG and the MOD in the UK is to continue the work that was being done to create an MOU and legislation which will in some ways carve out jurisdiction in future cases based on the Armed Forces Act 2006, but with caveats appropriate to the circumstances of Gibraltar. I am informed that this will be achieved before the summer.

I feel the need to set this out because it is no concession by you or indeed the MOD that we will "retain" jurisdiction over the RAF SP as you allude to in your email. We are the only agency in Gibraltar that has ANY [criminal] jurisdiction over him. Obviously, the RAF SP in question will have to consider his options with his legal advisers after he has been dealt with by us in terms of any pending matter with the UK authorities. Equally, he may also have scope for potential legal action against the MOD for the ultra vires activity he was subjected to here in Gibraltar by the MOD and JPSU in particular.

In the circumstances, your three officers who have been arrested are subject of a very serious investigation which may or may not end up with charges being preferred against them - obviously this will be determined once the investigation is concluded as is the norm in all criminal investigation my organisation undertakes. A long bail is required for now as we assess the information at our disposal and the investigating team trawls through the copious amounts of documentation and other material seized. I can tell you that so far all of it points clearly towards the RGP - which is the only law enforcement agency with jurisdiction for the reasons I have outlined above - having been lied to and having been obstructed in the course of our lawful discharge of our duties. The clear evidence also seems to suggest that, in a conspiracy amongst themselves and, potentially, others, the three military officers in question have attempted to pervert the course of justice. As a result of the seriousness of this offence and the evidence which suggests that it is likely that all the relevant ingredients are made out, a long bail has been necessary.

Should the three in question provide statements that satisfy my officers that the offences are not made out or, alternatively, should they accept the facts and express genuine contrition in respect of the facts, a decision may be reached which does not require any prosecution or further action. The timing of that is not something that we can be asked to commit to in any way which might compromise our investigation and I am surprised that a senior officer like you should have written seeking to pressure us to reach a decision in a defined time. That is not helpful at all. You should also be clear that I am not likely, in the circumstances, to reach a conclusion that there is no evidence to support the charges of obstruction or attempting to pervert the course of justice. Indeed, quite the opposite is true and the fact is that others might actually fall too be included in further charges as further evidence as to the conspiracy that ensued is uncovered.

I am quite fazed and quite frankly do not understand how you could have already reached the contrary conclusion from anything that I have said when the investigation has not been completed. Let me be clear enough so that any misunderstanding will be impossible; the evidence would appear to be conclusive that your officers HAVE obstructed and HAVE attempted to pervert the course of justice.

The only way in which we may consider not charging (and this is subject to further consideration of the evidence and of the relevant law) is if we are satisfied that there is a GENUINE acceptance of guilt by the individuals in question, of the gravity of the situation and an unequivocal expression of remorse and apology. That can affect my police powers [of discretion] in making the decision of whether or not to charge an offender.

In addition you should note that the any expression of contrition which is couched in language which is equivocal, that is to say, which relies on an insistence that the law reflects anything other than absolute jurisdiction to the RGP, would not be satisfactory as it would not amount to genuine regret or remorse.

You should by now appreciate that the chronology set out in your email is entirely wrong and untenable as it is is based on the unacceptable notion of a decision being made by us not to prosecute actually happening BEFORE an acceptance of guilt and an expression of genuine and unequivocal remorse is made by the MOD officers in question. That is not going to happen.

For now, I am able to confirm that we will not be carrying out any forensic interrogation of the computers taken in the execution of the search warrants. We have no alternative but to reserve our rights in respect of this material which has been lawfully seized but which we will be able to return without having had to carry out any further investigations into them if matters can be resolved without the need to charge. Your email, however, does not fill me with hope in that respect.

As far as the Provost Marshall’s note book is concerned, this will be perused for any evidence pertinent to our investigation and once it is determined that the contents hold no bearing it will be retuned so that the MOD’s enquiry can also progress. Alternatively, I can arrange for photocopies to be made of the pages of the PM's book pertinent to the MOD enquiry so that he can continue with this enquiry.

In sum, you will see that my understanding of the legal and factual position is regrettably very different to yours. I am comforted by the fact the understanding I have set out above accords to that of the AG, who attended the relevant meetings with MOD legal advisers and, more importantly, with the Chief Minister and the UK's Minister for Europe, Rt Hon Sir Alan Duncan MP.

I just want to say as a Gibraltarian, how proud I am of the work you have properly done today. Asserting our jurisdiction properly and reasonably, for all the right reasons and within the law, is what future generations would have expected us to do. It is a pity the MoD have not been more elegant in the way they approached this. We have taught them a number of lessons today. You have done Gibraltar proud.

There are a number of obvious questions arising as to how some people behaved today; whether people lied to you or were lied to themselves is going to be a relevant question in coming days. We must not exacerbate matters but we cannot allow people to get away with having misled the RGP or having obstructed you. The law is the law for all of us, and an armed forced uniform does not suspend application of the law to an individual, of whatever rank. That is what the UK taught us and we are not going to allow them to talk us out of it when it applies to some. But those are issues for tomorrow.

You have enjoyed my full support today at every stage of the way. Excellence work. Please pass my sentiments, if not my email, to those who have been on the front line today.

With best wishes

I can also tell you that Gibraltar will not be home for the people in question for long and we won't be blocking the tarmac for a moment to delay the plane when the time soon comes for them to wave goodbye to the best place these idiots have ever had the good fortune to live in their petty lives. Good riddance. And goodbye won't come soon enough.

I can tell you one thing Eddie: Gibraltar, it's Chief Minister, it's Government and it's people are proud of their police and the SMT, Commissioner and their Attorney General. The UK as a whole, conversely, has been embarrassed by its senior ranks on the Rock, as can be seen by the reports in the newspapers of the actions taken here.

I would rather be in your shoes than theirs.

Michael

Hi good afternoon.

First of all I wanted to thank you for the support that you and your staff have given us throughout this unsavoury situation. I don't find any satisfaction for having arrested 3 Top Senior Military Officials. I'm afraid that we are not out of the woods yet for the reason that I will explain now, but I believe it can be easily resolved.

From our recent conversations with the Chief Minister and indeed yourself, it is evident that Gibraltar (I will not say the RGP) has been vindicated in the way we have reacted to this.

I would now ask that we receive official notification in writing of the robust legal position both in the Jurisdiction and of the Primacy of the RGP in the whole of Gibraltar.

This should be disseminated to all concerned including the MOD here in Gibraltar.

We have heard from close Gibraltarian sources (who are in CBF's Command Briefings and must be treated in the strictest of confidence) that this position has not been promulgated to MOD personnel. On the contrary they are behaving with a very bravado attitude still claiming that they have jurisdiction and that the Naval Provost will have full jurisdiction on MOD land.

The attitude stems from the top when it is said that CBF entered the meeting and jokingly said, and I quote, 'Any Police Here' sticking his head through the door and then went onto 'chuckle, chuckle'.

All this is getting back to our officers and tells me that they have not taken the seriousness of the matter in the way they should as a professional body they claim to be.

At the very least in my organisation these officers who have been arrested would have been either Interdicted or Suspended until the matter is resolved. I would have accepted if they had been relieved of their current roles so that business can continue I am informed that as an example COS is still in his office chairing his daily meetings and is business as usual.

For your information, I have instructed that these three individuals are Not to be allowed into New Mole House to any meetings and my officers will Not attend any meetings where any of these three are participating.

I have concerns that my officers will come to a confrontation because such demeanour and attitudes.

To say that I am very disappointed is an understatement and I will not confront CBF on it Now because I will give away the trust that our Gibraltarian colleagues have shown in calling us up.

I trust that this makes sense and by disseminating the outcome of the meetings in London and which have been accepted by their top MOD Legal representatives, will hopefully put them in their place.

This attitude goes against what we are trying to achieve in resolving this particular issue and our future with British Forces Gibraltar.

Kind regards

Eddie

Dear
Commander British Forces

I am very disappointed by your email of Saturday which, in my view, simply further exacerbates matters and betrays a deep misunderstanding of the gravity of the situation facing those three of your officers who are presently under arrest and others who may become persons of interest as the investigation unfolds.

The offence of perverting the course of justice is a very serious one - the issues that have arisen in this case are not child's play or a matter for simple inter-agency negotiation. The very difficult situation that has manifested itself has arisen from a complete misunderstanding of the law by your officers and those who were purporting to instruct, command or advise them and you.

From reading your email, it would appear that this failure to understand the law applicable in Gibraltar has not yet been corrected in your mind. I will therefore set out the position as clearly for you as our AG has been required to do with the senior lawyers at the MOD who, I understand from Mr Llamas, fully appreciated the position and agreed with it. It is therefore surprising that the law still appears to be unclear for you.

ONLY the Royal Gibraltar Police has jurisdiction and primacy at present in Gibraltar in respect of crimes committed in Gibraltar. Should the three in question provide statements that satisfy my officers that the offences are not made out or, alternatively, should they accept the facts and express genuine contrition in respect of the facts, a decision may be reached which does not require any prosecution or further action. The timing of that is not something that we can be asked to commit to in any way which might compromise our investigation and I am surprised that a senior officer like you should have written seeking to pressure us to reach a decision in a defined time. GSD COMMENT ILL INFORMED. INAPPROPRIATE & WRONG - 687/2022

SEPTEMBER 21, 2022

His Majesty's Government of Gibraltar is surprised that the GSD considers it appropriate to comment on a matter which is the subject of a live Statutory Inquiry by a senior retired High Court Judge from the United Kingdom.

The Government considers that all aspects of the independence of policing have been respected and enhanced in its term of office to date and that the findings of the inquiry will vindicate the actions of the then Governor, Chief Minister, Attorney General and other officers whose actions are called into question.

Indeed, the GSD's statement in respect of alleged interference appears to have been made without knowledge that the meeting they refer to was AFTER and NOT BEFORE the execution of the relevant search warrant and therefore DID NOT AND COULD NOT LOGICALLY have been an interference with the execution of it.

It had already happened by the time the meeting in question took place.

The Government will not comment further at this stage in response to GSD's ill informed statement beyond the statement delivered for the Government parties by Sir Peter Caruana KC KCMG, out of respect for the Commissioner of the Inquiry and the job that he has been appointed to do.

The Government would call for others, in particular the elected Opposition, to show the same respect for the Inquiry and not give a running commentary on untested and unproven submissions made by parties represented before the Inquiry.

Finally, the GSD may wish to recall that it is the Government itself that has called this Inquiry. The Government, the then Governor, the Chief Minister, the Attorney General and other officers have absolutely nothing to hide and look forward to all pertinent facts being considered by the Inquiry.

MULTI-AGENCY FINANCIAL INVESTIGATION TASK FORCE

The Economic Crime Unit of the Royal Gibraltar Police are in the process of a complex money laundering investigation involving organized criminality of a cross-border nature, and we suspect, encompassing several other nations, which would impinge on many of our respective competences and potentially prove to be extremely damaging to the reputation of Gibraltar as a jurisdiction.

We now have sufficient evidence to justify prompt executive action but lack depth in resources and skill sets to sustain what would be an elaborate and lengthy investigation of this sort, with countless ramifications in the entire financial fabric of the community.

It is therefore my proposal to set up a multi-disciplinary combined taskforce consisting of personnel from Gibraltar's law enforcement community, Office of the Criminal Prosecution and Litigation, Income Tax, Gibraltar Financial Services Commission, Treasury Department accountants, and high-tech crime experts to plough through all the evidence and ensure that the follow-up investigation processes can be carried out in a diligent and timely manner.

Although this may appear as a grim scenario, it is my belief that we can turn this round into an opportunity to show the rest of Europe and the world that Gibraltar can respond with efficient and authoritative countermeasures to the threat of organized crime, and muster capability to mobilize sufficient resources to take decisive action to combat money laundering. It is already recognized good practice that a multi-disciplinary task force reaps better results and is regarded as a powerful tool in situations such as this.

It will also give us the opportunity to send a signal to would be rogues operating in the fields of finance, that Gibraltar is a tough jurisdiction that acts in a steadfast manner in the detection and suppression of criminal activity.

Such a taskforce would also confirm our disposition for law enforcement cooperation, one of the key areas of the Brexit deal for Gibraltar, and also underscore our determination to protect the Rock's hard earned reputation, casting us in a positive light ahead of the Moneyval inspection scheduled for next year.

I would like to invite you to meet and discuss the above in finer details and instruct our PAs to coordinate a meeting.

In concluding, I await with anticipation to receive your support.

Dear Chairman,

RE – GIBRALTAR POLICE FEDERATION

In light of recent developments and particularly the involvement of the trade unions regarding our ongoing difficulties with the Chair and Secretary of the Gibraltar Police Federation, I feel it is imperative that I set out the official position of the Royal Gibraltar Police, and the reasoning behind it.

The Commissioner of Police and the command team recognise the importance and value of the RGP having a body like the Gibraltar Police Federation to represent the interests of members and address issues concerning officers' pay, allowances, hours of duty, annual leave, working conditions and other conditions of service. We are keen for the Federation to pursue a policing environment where officers can speak and raise concerns through an open and accountable system that demonstrates fairness, by means of a transparent conduct which is independent of other union organisations.

To provide some historical context, police officers have been banned from striking in UK since 1919 and do not have the same employment prerogatives enjoyed by other workers because of the nature of the work we do on behalf of the public. Following a spate of strikes in London and Liverpool when constables and sergeants refused to go on duty, it was the then Prime Minister Lloyd George who established the Federation, not as a union but as a statutory grouping with responsibility to represent its members in matters affecting their welfare and efficiency.

It is clearly stated in the 2014 Normington Report, an independent review into the workings of the Police Federation of England and Wales commissioned by the latter, that its members remain under the discipline of and answerable to their respective Chief Constables. Page 27 of the report states: "(Federation) Representatives are employees of their local force and subject to force discipline. They can be subject to IPCC investigations and indeed to criminal prosecution."

In terms of the local context, to remove some of the elected Federation members from the RGPs discipline structure, would endanger the operational independence of the police and risk giving life to all issues for which police officers are prevented from taking industrial action. A GPF board of eight serving officers, where two are temporarily removed from discipline leads to an inequality of how justice would be served and seen to be served. The board could decide to embark on a course of action which could place six of them within reach of a disciplinary process and two without, meaning six would be liable for conduct amounting to an offence in law and the other two would be impervious to legal process.

This raises numerous concerns:

1. Different disciplinary mechanisms and to different standards for essentially the same behaviour.
2. Conduct or behaviour contrary to discipline and incompatible with the office of constables, could occur during the 'disciplinary hiatus' which could undermine the ability to continue to exercise the office of constable on returning to operational duties.
3. A situation could occur where support could be sought from organisations such as trade unions which are able to strike, bringing indirect pressure on the Office of Commissioner, therefore undermining operational independence etc.
4. The situation in point 3 is precisely why there is a statutory provision in the Police Act requiring the Federation to be independent from any similar body without specific authority, and preventing officers from trade union membership. S52 and S55 of the Act.

Furthermore the intent of Section 79 of the Police Act, is that it is the Commissioner who retains responsibility for matters of discipline.

Since the Gibraltar Police Federation was created with the introduction of the Police Federation Regulations 2018, its Chairman and Secretary have erroneously interpreted the nature of the GPF, claiming that they are a completely independent institution which does not come under the control of the Commissioner of Police. There are no legal provisions to support this stance with the contrary actually being the case as stated in s 52(1) of the Police Act 2006; "……the Police Federation shall be entirely independent of and unassociated with any body or person outside the Force." Furthermore, Reg5(3) of the Police Federation Regulations 2018 states that "the chairman and secretary of the Board shall be full time convenors of the Federation and shall continue to have and enjoy all the rights, powers, authorities, privileges and immunities of a constable."

This means that these two post holders remain warranted officers of the RGP – first and foremost they are police officers, and their second function is to represent members of the GPF. All police officers have to abide by the code of ethics & values, and Discipline Code including the two mentioned posts.

Section 5 (1) of the Police Federation 2018 Regulations, further reinforces that the Chairman and Secretary of the Federation remain as police officers during their tenure.

The correlation drawn by the trade unions describing the GPF conveners as engaged in "activism," is incompatible in terms of law enforcement or the traditional British model of policing and its principles which the RGP has applied for the past 190 years.

We would like to reiterate that it is desirable that a good and productive relationship exists with the GPF towards the realisation of common objectives including the Command Team are seriously and genuinely concerned at the unfolding situation, and how this can gather further momentum in a direction which can potentially change established principles underpinning Gibraltar's policing model. Changes which could totally compromise the RGPs operational independence.

Notwithstanding, I remain willing to hold discussions with the Gibraltar Police Authority to clarify key areas concerning the Federation.

1. The GPF's status of perceived independence
2. The terms of reference/facility arrangements for convenors
3. Their respective position with regard to the office of constable.

I remain hopeful that this whole saga will be resolved in accordance with the principles expounded in this letter.

Yours,

Ian McGrail OTM MSc

Dear Mr Chairman,

RE- Gibraltar Police Federation

I refer to my letter of the 5th February concerning the above captioned and our subsequent discussions with the GPA members.

Firstly, I would like thank you for allowing me the opportunity to answer and/or address any issues the GPA had on the subject matter. Secondly, it is important that I clarify the intention of the letter was certainly not to suggest a curtailment of the prerogative of HMGOG to create new legislation or amend existing ones on matters of the Gibraltar Police Federation (GPF) but rather to inform you of concerns if indeed any changes were being contemplated as intimated in the letter.

As discussed at yesterday's meeting with the GPA, I propose a course of action which will hopefully draw the line under the past two years of what has been a difficult working relationship between the GPF and RGP senior management – all borne out from conflicting standpoints. I am strongly of the opinion that an independent review of the functions of the GPF and their relationship with the RGP is an appropriate vehicle to address the issues concerned. I am glad that the GPA support this approach as indeed HE the Governor and the Chief Minister.

I will be meeting with the full GPF Board to advise them of these intentions and hopefully enlist their support. I would ask that we meet at a mutually convenient time/date for the GPA, GPF and RGP to discuss the terms of reference for this review and intricacies of who is best placed to conduct it. My first thoughts are that the review team should be subject matter experts in policing, preferably serving officers (a Police Federation of England & Wales chairperson of a UK police force and an officer of chief officer rank, ACC or above, who is well acquainted with federation/management matters, protocols, arrangements etc). I mention these two categories of personalities because they will no doubt have mediatory abilities to assist us all in this journey. To keep the review impartial I further recommend that these individuals should not have had any previous relationship with either RGP senior management or GPF Board members and a declaration should be made to this effect.

I look forward to this process commencing the sooner the better.

Yours,

Ian McGrail OTM MSc

CONFIDENTIAL

1st November 2017

Gibraltar Police Authority
25B Casemates Barracks
Casemates Square
Gibraltar

Dear Sirs,

Re:- Application for appointment as Commissioner of The Royal Gibraltar Police

I refer to your recent invitation to apply for the appointment as Commissioner of the Royal Gibraltar Police (RGP) and would respectfully ask that you accept this letter as my intention to apply for the said appointment.

I feel totally honoured and privileged to be in this position where after over 33 years of public service as a police officer the opportunity arises where I can be considered for the top policing post in Gibraltar. Way back in 1996, when I was competing for promotion to Sergeant, I vividly recall the then Commissioner of Police, the late Joe Canepa QPM, asking where I saw myself in the police service two decades from thereon: I distinctly remember responding bluntly but very focused and saying "right where you are sitting Sir.....and serving as Commissioner of Police!". That desire I expressed at that time is still very much alive now, in fact more alive than ever before because of the splendid career I am enjoying and the vacancy arising.

The role of Commissioner of the RGP, a Constitutional appointment, is enshrined in the Police Act 2006 s.33 which explains that the post holder will have overall command, superintendence, direction and control of the Force together with responsibility for the efficient administration and government of the Force including the proper expenditure of public funds used for the provision of policing services. To be able to properly discharge these legal requirements the post holder needs to meet certain criteria; the following list of competences are what I feel are the necessary personal qualities the post holder should possess. I have included some examples as evidence of key personal achievements aligned with the said list of competences to demonstrate my own qualities for your esteemed consideration and evaluation.

1. Serving the public

The Commissioner of the RGP must be an individual who is already well known and respected in the community and not necessarily only known because of his police career; known and respected in other social circles too. He must be engaging and work to serve the public's interests with all the diversity a modern Gibraltarian community presents. The Commissioner must also work to build public confidence in the RGP and work with Government, the GPA and other partners to build on an overall better service to the public.

Personal evidence
My past involvement in the local sporting scene and scouting movement has cemented lifelong relationships outside my professional life. Similarly, my membership of the Royal Gibraltar Regiment which I only recently suspended and the St John's Ambulance Association has expanded my outreach to the community outside the police environment. I have no doubt that this has aided my ability to engage with the public as I have been seen not only as a police officer but also as an inclusive member of wider society.

As a senior police officer and particularly in my incumbent post as commander of the Crime and Protective Service Division I lead a very dedicated team of detectives dealing with a myriad of disciplines in the crime domain. I have on many occasions been the RGP's 'talking head' reporting on matters of concern to the public as well as offering reassurance when this has been necessary.

I sit in multi-agency committees/groups such as (i) the legally constituted Child Protection Committee, (ii) the Strategic Management Board for Sex Offender Management (soon to also incorporate violent offenders) and the Executive Committee of the Gibraltar Contingencies Council (GCC) which is the tier below the GCC proper. I chair the Joint Operating Working Group [Land] which works towards optimising Gibraltar's security posture in the land environment with a view of identifying existing and emerging threats to this posture. I have stimulated multi-agency debate to develop contingency responses for a marauding terrorist attack and designed, co-ordinated and directed both multi-agency table-tops and live exercises to test these responses.

1. Leading strategic change

It is necessary for the Commissioner to have a convincing vision and that this vision is well aligned to the values of the police service and it that provides clear direction. It is not healthy for a police force to remain static in terms of innovation and change. Whilst I am not an advocate of introducing change simply for the sake of it, I equally recognise that the ever shifting landscape requires constant reviews of how policing is conducted and how resources are allocated. Whilst austerity has not [yet] reached Gibraltar, I irrespectively feel it is good management and business practice to always seek to deliver value for money services and save unnecessary public expenditure. My personal vision for the next 5 years is contained in a separate paper and therefore I do not intend to rehearse it in this letter.

Personal evidence
I would refer you to the accompanying vision paper entitled 'Delivering a safer Gibraltar, through excellence in the provision of policing services'.

For the past 6 years I have been a member of the senior management team which has embedded Commissioner Yome's culture change from a previously micro-managed styled organisation to one that encourages empowerment and inclusion.

During my time as Superintendent in the headquarters and support function and with a view of uplifting our firearms capability, I was able to negotiate with South Wales Police the procurement of (43) firearms making a saving to the RGP of circa £75,000. I also prepared a business case to argue with Government for extra funding for armed policing requirements.

I also acted as the RGP's senior point of contact for the construction project of new the Marine Base at Gun Wharf. From planning/design to physical construction, the project required constant liaison with architects, developers, builders etc - the end result being a modern fit for purpose facility which instils a host of positives in terms of working environment and staff morale.

Following a period of consultation with the rank and file over concerns regarding personal safety and comfort of uniforms for the front line officer I embarked on a process of researching and procuring protective body armour for Force wide issue together with a more comfortable and practical uniform attire. The outcome was well received by the rank and file as indeed the staff association – the workforce now boast stab and ballistic protection vests purpose made for Gibraltar's requirements and climate together with far more practical and comfortable uniform shirts and trousers.

An EU Directive transposed to local legislation placed an extremely administrative cumbersome responsibility on the RGP to do with the provision of case dockets in the native language of the accused person. To overcome this I researched various options and entered in to a contractual arrangement with a translator and interpreter provider in the UK and we now have a 24/7 service to meet all the requirements imposed by law in this regard. Not only does this save significant officer time, the additional enhancement of having translator and interpreter services for most languages spoken in the world is something which in any case would surpass the RGP's or Gibraltar PLC's ability to provide.

Because of the demand and workload carried by certain units currently under my command, I have held consultations with line managers to seek out solutions and have aligned our resources accordingly. This is very evident in the field of Economic Crime where because of new legislations and expectations we have had to restructure the unit to cater for (i) fraud and (ii) money laundering, counter terrorist financing and asset recovery.

I conducted a gap analysis of our existing terrorism laws and provided rationale to Government for their modernisation, a draft of which together with accompanying codes of practice are being considered for enactment. I am also currently engaged with rolling out a programme of capability/capacity uplifting in Counter Terrorism Policing an area which the RGP dearly requires development.

2. Leading the workforce

During my long law enforcement career I have had the privilege of working with and judging different styles of leadership. To a certain extent this experience has allowed for the development of my personal style. Strong leadership is the bedrock of a police service. The Commissioner has to have sufficient character to inspire staff to meet challenges and targets whilst creating an environment of enthusiasm, rewarding good doers and recognising the efforts of staff. Strong leadership is also necessary during challenging/difficult times in order to instil morale. In my view it is important that the Commissioner is visible and connected within the workplace and whilst keeping a strategic outlook, remains sufficiently savvy about the detail and has the ability to dip into it if required.

Personal evidence
A leadership quote which resonates very closely to my thinking is that of the late US General Schwarzkopf, who led a 750,000 strong coalition force to liberate Kuwait when invaded by Iraq in 1991 – the infamous Op Desert Storm. He said, "Leadership is a potent combination of strategy and character. But if you must be without one, be without the strategy". It is sometimes the most simple and overseen actions that can display good leadership. I make it a point of recognising good work by dropping an email to individual officers and when possible I have face to face contact with them, even if these officers are not directly under my command. I have also recommended officers for more formal recognition under the RGP Honours and Awards Policy. Having been a front line officer for most of my career, I know how important it is for senior management to support and be seen to support the front line. To this end and because of the challenges front line officers were facing, I proposed that senior officers made it a point to patrol alongside junior ranks during the most busy periods of the week and this was unanimously accepted and very well received by the staff.

I am the only serving superintendent to have commanded all three divisions in the RGP (Operations – Crime – Support) and can therefore relate to the challenges faced in them together with the different personnel dynamics and leadership traits that have to be applied respectively.

3. Managing performance

A policing vision requires a tactical plan to convert the vision to a reality. The Commissioner should in consultation with his senior team establish a clear strategy with SMART objectives. It is important to navigate through obstacles to performance by removing these obstacles and managing resources to ensure best delivery and value for money. Under-performing officers and the reasons for their poor performance also require attention and intervention in order to redress.

Personal evidence
It is a recognised notion that a happy team reaps better results, so in this regard junior and middle line managers are key to motivating officers – I am a strong promoter of this. In order to better prepare Sergeants and Inspectors as managers/leaders and indeed those constables showing potential as future Sergeants, I organised a series of courses under the auspices of Institute of Leadership and Management which were successfully delivered and completed by 50 officers. The said courses covered personal responsibility in working towards organisational goals – making our managers realise that they are accountable for performance of their teams.

I am a firm believer of turning up for work and putting in an effort for honest day's living and I promulgate this 'philosophy' to my colleagues. Understandingly so, not everyone can produce the same levels of output so I play to the strengths of each individual to extract the best in them.

I am extremely fortunate that Crime and Protective Services Division officers are probably the most self-motivated officers in the organisation and therefore there is very little need for direct intervention on my part. I am, however, very conscious of their welfare as they can become overly engrossed in their tasks to the detriment a reasonable work/life balance. They work in the higher of risk areas and carry the most serious of crime work pulling off great results which significantly contribute to the detection rates published in the annual report.

I have had occasion to address poor performances and lack of commitment to the job, acting to address each instance accordingly with varied levels of success.

4. Professionalism

Honesty, integrity, high values and the best ethical standards depicts the qualities a Commissioner should portray coupled with determination and drive to ensure things get done. Unlike previous eras where it would be unheard of for a Commissioner to acknowledge shortcomings in the service, in my view it is good practice to openly accept any shortcomings and commit to putting them right. During turbulent times, the Commissioner must remain calm and collected when under pressure. He must also take personal responsibility for difficult, contentious or unpopular decisions.

Personal evidence
I have an unblemished discipline record. I was the pioneer in 2001, setting the tone for a wave of senior officers to undertake Higher Education academic studies on police related subjects. In essence, I am of the view that this has enriched the RGP with the setting of higher benchmarks of professionalism and academia to compliment already acquired experience and skill sets.

I encourage the Detective Inspectors in my Division to share their concerns and pressures with me so that [some] of the risk burden is lifted off themselves – this gives them a sense of security whilst I campaign for solutions behind the scenes. They are fully aware that I cannot wave a magic wand and make things happen straight away but they take comfort that senior management have their backs whilst they plough on with criminal case work.

There have been very testing times and situations where the reputation of both the RGP and personal reputation have been at stake. During these times I have always operated with common sense and within the confines of the law, with certainty and conviction and without fear or favour. Similarly, I have managed very sensitive matters keeping operational security in tact.

5. Decision making

The ability to assimilate copious amounts of information and make quick and spontaneous decisions is a competency that a Commissioner must command. There is also a requirement for the decision making process to be justified and rationalised. In assuming responsibility for ultimate decisions, even when these have been made on the back of unclear circumstances, the Commissioner must consider the wider impact and implications that fall out from the decision(s) in question. It is also important that a process is invoked that allows for a review of these critical decisions to ensure that they remain fit for purpose.

Personal evidence
The National Decision Model is the recognised model to follow in the UK police service. The RGP have followed suit and I was the first RGP officer to be exposed to this model in 2011-12 and commence its local application. It is a model that if applied properly can withstand scrutiny at different levels.

I readily accept where my levels of knowledge and experience can take me when it comes to decision making, more so in critical circumstances. Consequently, I have had to rely on advice of more experienced and/or skilled individuals, always retaining the responsibility for the outcome of the decision taken. An example of this was during the recent intervention of a bulk carrier following information disclosed to me by the US Drugs Enforcement Administration that it was laden with a large consignment of Cocaine – the situation warranting an armed intervention to ensure safety of officers.

6. Working with others

The Commissioner must be able to consult and involve others in the decision making process, showing tact, respect and understanding to the views of others. The private sector has a lot to offer in terms of contributions to maintain the jurisdiction safe from crime and enhance security. It is therefore key that the Commissioner is able to work with any sector whose intentions are in the overall interests of Gibraltar's safety, always negotiating effectively, representing the interests of the RGP.

Personal evidence
Cyber dependant and cyber enabled crime is very much under reported in Gibraltar. This phenomenon is not exclusive to Gibraltar and the RGP has a role to raise awareness, reduce and prevent this type of crime from affecting so many victims. In June 2017, the RGP partnered with the private sector to bring to Gibraltar a world class cyber security event. I undertook to be the RGP point of contact with the partnering firm to present this event. 245 delegates from public and private sector attended with the Chief Minister and HE the Governor hailing it as a success and worthwhile project.

The policing of major events requires close co-operation with other essential services, public agencies, organisers and private entities. During my service as Superintendent Operations, I planned and oversaw the execution of the policing arrangements in major events such as the Royal visit of HRH Prince Andrew and the Countess of Wessex, Gibraltar National Week including the Gib Music Festival, National Day rally, general elections, Queen's birthday parades, the 3 Kings Calvacade and Guy Fawkes (when this was renowned for acute anti-social behaviour and violence).

In my present post, I have been assigned responsibility for building relationships with international partners. I have been able to negotiate the reinstatement of the RGP in the very important forum as is the National Counter Terrorism Policing HQ Business Area Meetings where regional UK police chiefs periodically meet with the CT National Co-coordinator, DAC Neil Basu, Assistant Commissioner Mark Rowley who is the most senior CT police officer in UK and SyS and SIS. RGP attendance at this forum had been discontinued over 6 years ago for reasons unknown to me. Closer contact with SO15 Counter Terrorism Command, New Scotland Yard, has also been enhanced. I also keep alive relationships with the USA's FBI and DEA via the US Embassy in Madrid. I am responsible for flourishing Spanish law enforcement relationships and I am very pleased with the progress, particularly with the Servicio Vigilancia Aduanera who on occasions have been rather conflicting and hostile on operations at sea. A very good relationship is also maintained with the Guardia Civil's UC2 responsible for international terrorism as indeed the Cuerpo Nacional de Policia, Comisaria de Informacion in Canillas, their HQ in Madrid. Despite the already known political influences which unfortunately hinders full operational co-operation, I can sincerely state that working with the stated Spanish law enforcement agencies has been very productive. Further work to attempt to formalise these relationships continues with the very kind assistance of the British Embassy in Madrid.

I developed a close working relationship with the police embed in the National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) and successfully negotiated for the UK's 'Cyber Information Sharing Partnership' to be extended to Gibraltar for the benefit of our business community. I am pleased to report that numerous business entities have already signed up to this initiative and enrolled as members of this platform.

7. Effective communication

As previously alluded to in the 1st of the competencies, the Commissioner has to be visible and ensure that corporate communications are effective both internal and external to organisation. He must be an articulate communicator who is confident is public speaking. Very often, the RGP is fairly criticised in the media – there has to be courage to readily accept this criticism and efforts to put things right. Conversely, it is a known fact that certain media outlets seem to have an unjustified gripe against the Force. With this type of reporting it is my submission that focusing on improving public confidence in the RGP through effective communications and positive actions will by default rebut any adverse media reporting.

Personal evidence
Being one of the trained media officers in the RGP I have had the experience of engagement with all local media outlets, those in the campo region and even some major UK tabloids. I have received letters of appreciation from local media praising my style of communications and my relationship with them during difficult times.

I have formed part of debate panels on live TV programmes such as Viewpoint. Promoting the RGP's good work and particularly in the crime domain, I have given numerous interviews to both radio and TV.

In 2013, I successfully argued for personalisation of social media communications for senior officers and some departments within the Force. In addition to the RGP corporate Twitter account, each senior officer is able to push out information on this very popular social media channel thereby enhancing our contact with the community.

8. Respect for Diversity

The police service is inherently still regarded by many as a male chauvinistic dominated institution. The RGP should aspire for our workforce to be representative, as far as possible, of the make-up of our community and therefore the Commissioner must show commitment to this aspiration, the outreach of which can be enhanced by ensuring that the RGP respects all sections of society and make them feel included.

Internal culture within the Force has to demonstrate similar vein in terms of fair treatment and respect for all officers and staff in the context of a custom that values diversity and individuality.

Personal evidence
I have formed part of the senior management team that has driven a culture change which has taken the RGP forwards as an organisation with a high ethos of equality and diversity. Perceived barriers to equality are not as blatant as they used to be. As a team we discuss where reasonable adjustments can be made to find ways to help staff members who need particular attention. There is a long way to go and I take this opportunity to express total commitment to continue in this journey in support of equality and diversity both internal and external to the organisation.

In closing this letter in support of my application, I offer the GPA my availability to answer any questions arising or elaborate on any of the points stated above.

Yours faithfully,

"DELIVERING A SAFER GIBRALTAR THROUGH EXCELLENCE IN THE PROVISION OF POLICING SERVICES"

Like with so many aspects of life today, Gibraltar is vastly different from the way it was when the then Gibraltar Police Force was formed 177 years ago. Even in the last 10 years a lot has changed. The trends we see today will have a big impact on the Royal Gibraltar Police (RGP) over the next 5 years and the organisation must respond to them to continue to ensure the jurisdiction remains a safe one.

A strategic analysis of the risks and challenges that the RGP will face in the forthcoming years recognises that our operating environment is changing at quite a pace. Increasing community expectations, population growth, the continued development of Gibraltar as a nation, changes in crime and upholding national security present both challenges and opportunities.

To build on successes of how Gibraltar has been and continues to be the safe place it is for residents to live in, for our visitors and those who venture here to do business, the RGP also needs to move with the times. Any transformation over the next 5 years must involve the way we deliver our services, the way we utilise our officers, how we exploit the use of available technology and very importantly, the way we engage with partners and stakeholders.

This paper sets out my vision for the RGP for the next 5 years – a vision which I truly believe will pave a very positive path for the Force to meet the challenges ahead. The notion behind my vision being that through the provision of excellence in service delivery, Gibraltar will continue to be safe and prosper for existing and future generations. Against the backdrop of my vision I will be alluding to the areas where I view the Force to be strong in, those requiring attention of some sort, the risk areas and challenges/opportunities arising. I will also incorporate key actions to address the main issues, as I see them, which affect the Force

Excellence in policing is not simply acquired off the shelf. Good reputation, good results, continuous organisational improvement and development, wellbeing of the workforce, commitment and a genuine belief in what we stand for are some of the key factors that can drive the Force towards excellence in service delivery. Our organisational Values and Code of Ethics are at the core of the RGP (see Appendix - A). They underpin our policies, procedures and practices and how we interact with the community. There is therefore the need to constantly align all our daily activities to these values. Strong leadership is required to ensure consistency around the Force towards abidance and promulgation of the values with the reasonable expectation that by improving on existing behaviours, professional service delivery in the key areas referred to in this paper will by default be enhanced – the aim being that of optimisation of overall service provision.

STRATEGIC CONTEXT

To support and achieve my vision there are 5 areas of focus the RGP would need to work towards as follows;-

- Effective service delivery – by providing responsive, personal and visible policing services
- Improving community safety – by minimising crime and improving safety
- Working with others – by developing strong partnerships with stakeholders
- People development – by creating a capable, flexible and professional workforce
- Workplace development – by improving systems to make our functions more efficient and effective. By improvements in the physical workplace (real estate).

In order to provide an easy to follow perspective on what I deem to be the main issues affecting the RGP and which indeed are aligned to the above 5 areas, I will split these between Operational and Organisational issues.

An action plan to address each of these issues can be found in Appendix – B

OPERATIONAL THREATS

(i) National Security

The existing threat of terrorism to western Europe originating from the conflict in Iraq and Syria neither recognises or respects any borders. Gibraltar sits between two countries that are on high alert because of this threat. Incidentally, this threat is also seriously perceived by the UK, who acting to protect British interests offer advice, via the FCO, to British citizens travelling to or living in Spain and Morocco. Whilst there is no specific intelligence of any terrorist activity in or aimed at Gibraltar, the mere proximity to these two nations together with a host of other reasons puts Gibraltar in a vulnerable position. The re-emergence of Northern Ireland related terrorism (NIRT) has also got be kept in mind as indeed the phenomena of cyber terrorism, for which a Gibraltar strategy is required.

Gibraltar's security apparatus has never been clearer defined as is it now with strategic, tactical and operational tiers established in multi-agency forums. Interoperability amongst the blue light agencies has been subject of praise by staff from the UK's Joint Emergency Services Interoperability Programme who have recognised the great advantage we enjoy because of our personal and close working arrangements, hailing this as a great asset to local critical/major incident management. Regular multi-agency training has strengthened our ability to deal with a terrorist incident – we are now at the stage where emergency service heads should commit to signing the 'Joint Operating Principles' to formalise interoperability in the counter terrorism domain.

A programme to uplift our counter terrorism policing efforts is under way, however, this will take its time to roll out and get officers trained with the necessary skills. Because of the close liaison we enjoy with SO15 Counter Terrorism Command of the Metropolitan Police, opportunities are arising to enhance the RGP's connectivity with the UK's CT network.

Despite all the practical work achieved in enhancing our security posture, we are still lacking in modern and updated terrorism legislation and this places our practitioners at a disadvantage without the tools to carry out their duties.

Arrangements for Military Aid to the Civil Authorities (MACA) need to be firmed up so that our response plans have clarity to what extent the locally based military can be deployed and employed in a CT incident/operation. These arrangements should also incorporate and extend to any UK based military assistance that would be required.

Defusing any identified vulnerabilities whether these are physical, structural or cultural will make Gibraltar a lesser attractive target for potential terrorists which reinforces the need to work towards a tailor made counter terrorism strategy for Gibraltar.

(ii) Child Safeguarding & Sex Offender Risk Management

When attempting to analyse the extent of child sexual exploitation in our jurisdiction we realise that the true picture of any exploitation is unclear. Significant anecdotal information exists which indicates that sharing of sexually explicit photographs occurs frequently between young people and we have dealt with reports in this regard. The ever increasing reliance of social media by young people also uncovers a ready-made platform for grooming activity by sexual predators. Pro-active community engagement to raise awareness is underway sanctioned by the Child Protection Committee.

The successes of our Safeguarding Unit in bringing sex offenders to justice and the numerous convictions secured in court demonstrates the Force's capability to deal with cases of historic abuse. Our efforts should by no means rest with these convictions. Many victims of sexual exploitation tend to suffer in silence and withhold themselves from reporting their ordeals. It is our duty to pro-actively reach out to those silent victims and offer them the reassurance that they will heard and believed.

Our relationship with the National Crime Agency's Child Exploitation and Online Protection Command (CEOP) is outstanding and an established channel for referrals is in place to investigate peer to peer sharing of indecent imagery of children online. The RGP sits as a full member of the UK forum MOSOVO (Management of Sex Offender & Violent Offenders) and has presented case studies on the challenges of cross border management of sex offenders.

The well being of staff who deal with child safeguarding and sex offender management has to remain constantly under review. At present there are no systems in place to ensure these officers remain psychologically fit to continue discharging their duties.

The RGP were the pioneers and stimulators for the creation of Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA) and we have developed a specialist niche in this field. The RGP is in fact exporting the Gibraltar model to other overseas territories which is testament of the effectiveness of our practices.

(iii) Economic & Cyber Crime

It is now an accepted notion that Economic Crime is causing an overwhelming effect on police services not only because of the devastating effects it has on victims, but also because of the investigation complexities these crimes present and the drain in police resources required to investigate them – Gibraltar does not escape this problem. The RGP has limited but very competent resources in this field as has been proved in recent very high profile cases which in the United Kingdom would have been handled by a national unit such as the Serious Fraud Office.

As a finance centre, Gibraltar will no doubt attract financial criminality, whether it is locally based or from abroad by making use of banking and other financial institutions here. Cyber fraudsters also avail themselves of a borderless landscape to rip off their victims via a myriad of methods which they keep innovating to outwit law enforcement efforts. The risk therefore amplifies when enforcement capabilities are insufficient to meet the demand with the consequences of reputational damage to the jurisdiction.

The Government's intention to become a member of MONEYVAL is presenting the RGP with unprecedented challenges. MONEYVAL is a Council of Europe committee of experts on the evaluation of anti money laundering and the financing of terrorism. Their evaluation process is ruthless and if aspiring members do not meet their set criteria, they run the risk of becoming blacklisted as an unreliable country to do business with.

It is evident that with our existing resources, the RGP will not be able to meet all the requirements set out by MONEYVAL. A possible solution to this situation is to create a Joint working team comprising of HM Customs, FSC personnel, AG's Chambers, accountants, tax specialists and Police – a sort of Gibraltar Crime Agency. Expertise can also be sought by entering in to formal collaborative arrangements with the City of London Police, the UK's lead force for economic crime.

The RGP has to keep driving forward in raising awareness on cyber crime. Experts predict that this type of crime will soon override traditional crime statistics and this will clearly place extra demand on the RGP. Though known to sometimes be perpetrated by lone actors, cyber crime is now very much being exploited by organised crime groups who because of the anonymity the internet affords, no longer have to expose themselves physically when committing their criminal acts.

(iv) External Affairs

Foreign Affairs have always had an impact on policing in Gibraltar and the current situation with Brexit looming is no exception together Spain's incessant claim over our territory's sovereignty. The Spanish Government's posture is unfortunately one that cannot be trusted even though the incumbent Foreign Secretary has assured that its Spain's intention not to disrupt fluidity at the border because of Brexit. Realistically, Spain has not got to rely on Brexit to make our border a 'hard' one – they can resort to strict compliance with Schengen processes to create the same negative effects. Irrespectively of the stated, a 'hard' border will present challenges to the RGP in terms public order, traffic management, internal security and possibly even increased crime levels.

(v) Drugs Misuse

I think there can hardly be any disagreement with the fact that drugs misuse in Gibraltar is a social problem and not solely a police related issue as if often perceived by the community. Police enforcement in interrupting the supply chain is only one of the strands of what should constitute a holistic drugs strategy – including that of reducing the demand through education and awareness and providing supporting rehabilitation services. It is therefore evident that partnership working is essential. Notwithstanding this, police enforcement efforts need to be consistent and effective. For this to happen in this day and age, officers must be supported by investigatory tools within their corresponding legal framework. Our contributions to disrupt international drug trafficking have to continue and in fact we will aim for more detections and disruptions in this regard. This intent is necessary as otherwise organised criminal networks can perceive the RGP as weak in this area to the detriment of good social order as has been experienced of late in the Campo area.

(vi) Anti-Social Behaviour & Domestic Violence

Anti-social behaviour is often associated to, or is the indicator of, other criminal activity or social problem. It creates a state of insecurity particularly so in residential areas where the peace and tranquillity of law abiding citizens is hampered. Inaction or ineffective action on the part of the RGP diminishes public confidence in the police. A particular challenge for the RGP and its partnership agencies (Housing Dept, Education etc) is that of the inability to relocate offenders because of the limited housing stock in the jurisdiction. Consistent, intelligence led, focused and high visible patrols of problem areas is a tried and tested policing response that addresses this issue and one that should not be compromised because of other competing demands.

An increase in instances of domestic abuse with calls for our service has been noted. The Force operates a positive action policy in support of victims, however, re-active work needs to run in tandem with pro-activity. In this regard, engagement with Social Services and embarking on a DV awareness/prevention campaign will complement enforcement efforts.

ORGANISATIONAL THREATS

(vii) Human Resources – Recruitment – Retention – Composition – Training

It is an accepted fact that the RGP is a very young service in terms of the average age of its officers. This observation has got to be considered alongside the projected retirements for the RGP which show that a significant proportion of the Senior Management Team could actually retire forthwith, with additional turnover at various other ranks across the Force. Similarly, there are several officers at Constable and Sergeant ranks who are also eligible to retire having the appropriate age in specialist areas such as Special Branch, Crime Scene Investigation Unit, Marine Section and Force Intel Unit.

According to the last HMIC report, 3 Superintendents, 3 Chief Inspectors, 6 Inspectors, 9 Sergeants and 35 Constables are all eligible to retire within the next five years. Annual training bids are assessed by the training prioritisation board, comprising senior officers. In the recent staff survey, only 44 percent of the workforce was satisfied with their current level of training and development. There is a need to seriously discuss succession planning as soon as possible and invest in the continuous development of our people.

A force restructure recently carried out in consultation with the staff association was designed to align our resources to demand also taking in to account the work-life balance of the staff. This also uncovered the need to increase the establishment of the Force and consequently a business case was prepared for due consideration by Government. I am concerned that the Force will seriously struggle to cope with the existing demand unless extra human resources are hired. The pace at which the Force operates has been the catalyst for dips in retention – this exposes the need to delve deeper in to the abilities and qualities of a new applicant to join the Force so that the recruitment process weeds out those who may be unable to cope with the occupational needs and pressures.

(viii) Legislation

A wave of new pieces of legislation such as the Crimes Act, Criminal Procedure & Evidence Act, and Proceeds of Crime Act has caused the Force to re-adjust its resources to ensure the service delivery arising from them is met. These changes have caused considerable challenges and strains – challenges because officers have had to be re-deployed from the front line and upskilled to cover other duties imposed by the new laws – strains because even though the redeployments have been effected we suffer from resilience issues in these sub-units which incidentally are also under-resourced.

In the pipeline there are other new laws (Terrorism Act, Immigration Act, Regulatory of Investigatory Powers Act) that will challenge the Force even further. Training in the application of these laws will require more instructors who they themselves will require induction in order to teach the subject matter. These challenges will be affronted with positivity and zeal. There will have to be an element of prioritization and delivery programme designed.

(ix) Technology & Workplace

The RGP has historically struggled with challenges arising out of complexity and cost of IT infrastructure, inadequate databases and paper based systems. With the enviable support of the Government together with sheer drive and in-house talent we have managed to revolutionise a crucial part of the criminal justice system. Managing a culture change from antiquated systems to a modern purpose designed platform will have to take its course and already, obstacles and resistance from some quarters is being addressed and overcome.

Technical support is an important cog in the fight against crime and indeed terrorism. Serious consideration will be given to acquiring the necessary equipment which is used by law enforcement agencies worldwide and once the legislation which governs its deployment is passed.

The RGP of today has totally outgrown its headquarters at New Mole House. Despite not being a purpose built facility it was an improvement to the old Central Police Station in Irish Town. New Mole House is an extremely tired building – the environment is not ideal for such a fast moving organisation. It is welcoming that Government acknowledges this and are committed to a new purpose built building which not necessarily should be wholly RGP occupied. There is scope for conducting a value for money exercise to collaborate with the other emergency services for a joint command and despatch unit, fleet management and other building space.

(x) HMIC recommendations

The inspection of the RGP by HMIC in 2015 revealed various areas for improvement. Whilst some of these recommendations have already been addressed there still remains some requiring further action. It is imperative that a working group is created to see this project through. In my view the most pressing area for improvement, as highlighted in one of the recommendations, is that of the creation of manual of guidance which should represent Force policy in crime investigation standards. This will inherently make officers better at conducting investigations and is positive for their all-round personal development.

(xi) Gibraltar Defence Police

The announcement in the Government's manifesto that the GDP would be transferred directly to Government or into a wholly owned company of the Government raised a number of issues which have been debated at length amongst the RGP's SMT. It is fair to say that the possibility is also being mooted of an eventual full amalgamation of the GDP with the RGP.

I am a strong advocate that if any transfer of the GDP were to materialise that this should take the form of a full amalgamation with the RGP – the opportunities arising far outweighing any disadvantages. My argument rebutting other arrangements such as the GDP forming itself into a [GoG] agency to provide services to the MOD have been documented.

(xii) BREXIT – implications to policing

The uncertainty that BREXIT has unearthed in the UK is to a large extent transferrable to us in Gibraltar. Aside from the issues in the socio-political space, Brexit presents challenges to policing if the UK fail to secure a good exit deal. Key themes that will have a direct impact on policing are listed below in no particular order;

- Schengen (incl SIS, SISII & RGP liaison with Cuerpo Nacional de Policia, Guardia Civil and SVA.
- Prüm (incl Prüm decisions)
- European Criminal Records System (ECRIS)
- European Counter Terrorism Strategy
- Europol engagement
- European Police College
- European Arrest Warrant arrangements
- European Investigation Order (Incl Joint Investigation Teams)

Whilst expectant that the UK's exit deal will not undermine any of the above subject areas, we have to be ready to react if it does. Equally, the situation discloses opportunities for joining up further with the UK on law enforcement matters.

THE RGP RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GPA

The functions and responsibilities of both the RGP and GPA are clearly articulated and enshrined in statute. However, in practice and for the past 8 years or so, the relationship between both has only been limited to consultations and progress reporting on the objectives set out in annual policing plan/annual reports, recruitment and promotion boards. Whilst these activities fall squarely within the statutory responsibilities, there is ample room for the building of a more solid and productive relationship.

Being the independent body that it is, the GPA has to ensure RGP operates to a high standard and as efficiently/effectively as it can within its scope of resourcing. In order to discharge its function fully the GPA has to provide information on police matters to the community. To deliver on this the GPA needs to be kept abreast of policing issues which matter to the community and not solely rely on annual reporting. It is therefore necessary that periodic and prearranged briefs are delivered to the GPA by the RGP's Commissioner. Subject to mutual agreement, the briefing could be delivered on a monthly basis to either the full Authority, or to a sub-group of its members. A proposed structure of topics for these briefings would include;

- an element of operational content
- trends in performance and incidence of crime that may impact on policing plan priorities
- strategic projects/proposals of the commissioner not considered in other forums
- strategic finance
- human resource issues
- strategic policing initiatives
- complaints and matters of discipline

The outcomes of these briefings will very much serve as indicators of approval or conversely, disapproval by the Authority of the manner the RGP is conducting its business.

CONCLUSION

As can be appreciated from the contents of this brief paper, the next 5 years will undoubtedly bring considerable challenges on the RGP. I have distinctly kept to highlighting what I perceive are to be the main issues affecting the Force together with a delivery plan that is synced with my Vision. There are a host of other issues which require attention but not to the same degree as the ones referred to in this paper. In policing, things change very quickly and therefore whilst the intention is to deliver on the stipulated actions, unexpected exigencies may warrant a review of these actions.

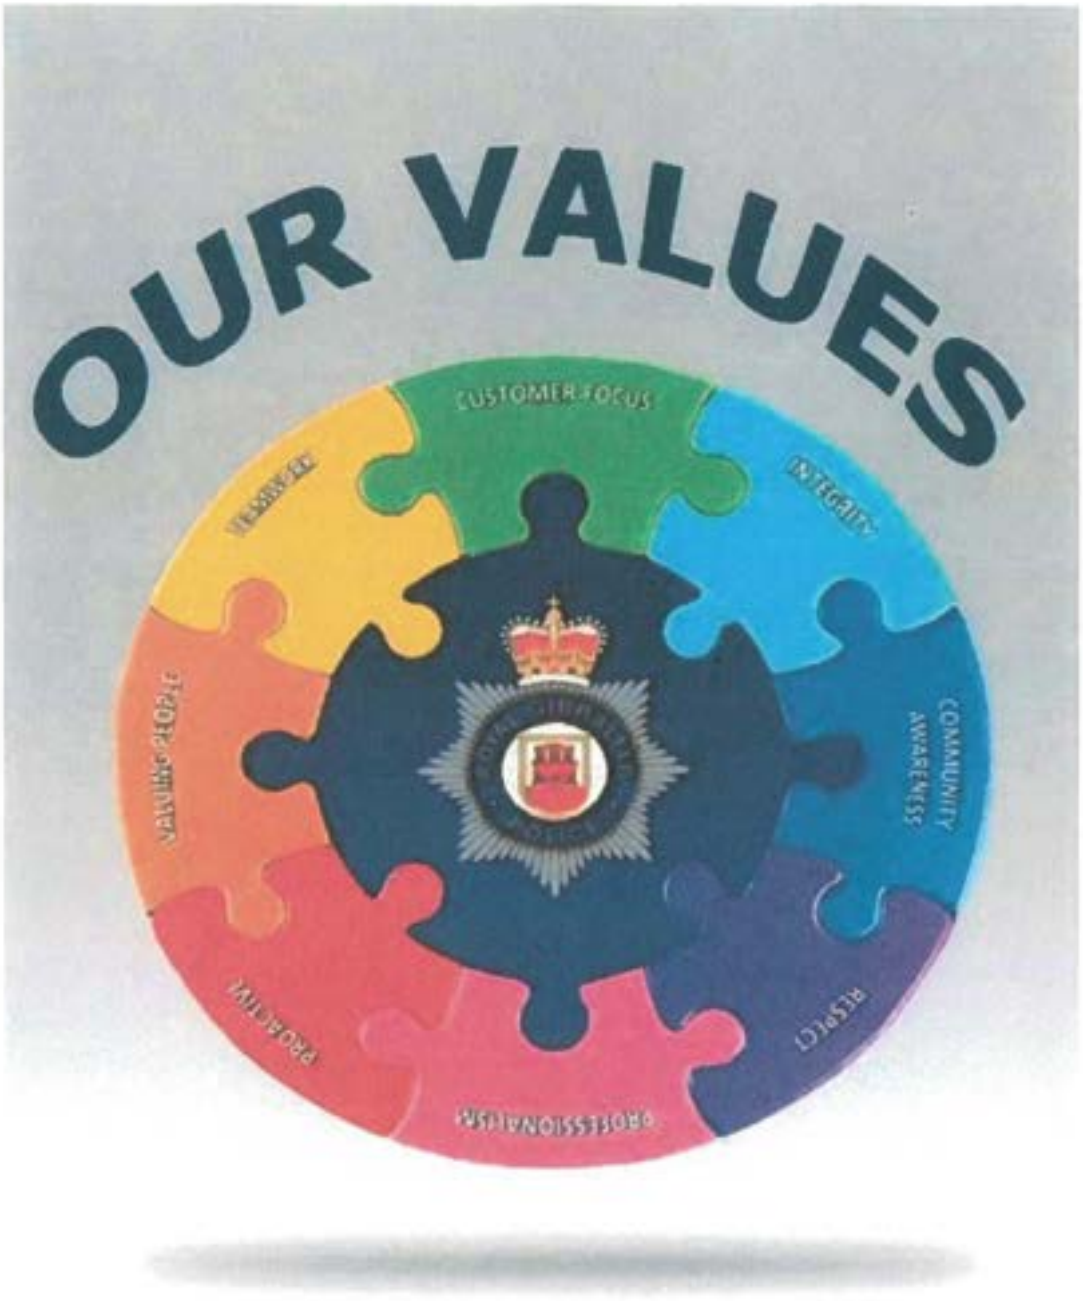
Simplicity is my Vision's forte – the RGP gets its act right in all its areas of responsibility, and by default, Gibraltar will be an even safer place than it has been in the past ..... to live, to visit and to do business in.

APPENDIX – 'A'

RGP Values & Code of Ethics

FP1/31

APPENDIX – A
RGP VALUES & CODE OF ETHICS



Working Together To Make Our Community Safer

CODE OF ETHICS

Integrity
I recognise my role in policing as being a symbol of public faith and trust and the obligation this places upon me to act with integrity, fairness and respect. I shall behave in a way which reflects the values of policing in Gibraltar. I understand I am personally responsible for my own actions and will appropriately exercise my discretion.

I shall act as a positive role model in delivering a professional, impartial service, placing service to communities before my personal aims. I will not accept any gift or gratuity that could, or could be perceived to, compromise my impartiality. I shall avoid all behaviour, which is or may be reasonably considered as abusive, bullying, harassing or victimising.

I will demonstrate and promote good conduct and I will challenge the conduct of colleagues where I reasonably believe they have fallen below the standards set out in this Code.

Fairness
I will act with courage and composure and shall face all challenges with self-control, tolerance and impartiality. I will promote a positive well-being within the community and service and ensure that all people have fair and equal access to police services according to their needs.

I shall maintain an open attitude and continue to improve my understanding and awareness of cultural, social and community issues. I will carry out my duties in a fair manner, guided by the principles of impartiality and non- discrimination.

Respect
I take pride in working as part of a team dedicated to protecting people. I will show respect for all people and their beliefs, values, cultures and individual needs. I will have respect for all human dignity as I understand that my attitude and the way I behave contributes to the consent communities have for policing. I will respect and uphold the law in order to maintain public confidence and, by enhancing my personal knowledge and experience, contributing to the professional development of policing.

I shall treat all people, including detained people, in a humane and dignified manner. I shall ensure that my relationships with colleagues is based on mutual respect and understanding and shall, therefore, conduct all communications on that basis.

Human Rights
I shall ensure my actions and policing operations respect the human rights of all people and officers whilst understanding that I will also enjoy these same human rights. I will not undertake high-risk activities or use force other than where strictly necessary in order to attain a legitimate objective and only after I have balanced all the competing priorities I am aware of. (Article 2, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006 & Section 5, Subsection 1 of the Crimes Act 2011)

I will not encourage, instigate or tolerate any act of torture or inhuman or degrading treatment under any circumstance nor will I stand by and allow others to do the same. I understand that the humane treatment of prisoners is an essential element of policing and that the dignity of all those I am trusted to care for remains my responsibility. (Article 5, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

I understand that people have an equal right to liberty and security. Accordingly, I will not deprive any person of that liberty, except in accordance with the law. (Article 1, Gibraltar Constitution 2006) I will investigate crimes objectively and be sensitive to the particular needs of affected individuals whilst following the principle that everyone who is the subject of criminal investigation is innocent until found guilty by a court. (Article 8, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

In carrying out my duties I shall respect everyone's fundamental rights. I will only interfere with privacy or family life when I am legally authorized to do so. (Article 3, Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006) I will respect individual freedoms of thought, conscience or religion, expression, peaceful assembly, movement and the peaceful enjoyment of possessions. (Articles 9, 10, 11 Gibraltar Constitution Order 2006)

Police Optimisation Project – Vision and Mandate

Vision

Optimised policing arrangements designed to best meet all of Gibraltar's civil policing needs, set within an assured law enforcement framework and including the consideration of the transfer / amalgamation of GDP within RGP.

Programme Objective

To Identify and implement the programme of change necessary to achieve the vision.

Supporting / Enabling Objectives

- establishment of a single statement of policing requirements for Gibraltar.
- development of a blueprint to meet those requirements; the capabilities, capacity, readiness, standards, equipment and facilities that will be needed.
- development of the proposals for the enduring governance architecture necessary to assure HMGoG and HMG.
- identification of any necessary legislative requirements.
- identification of significant risks, along with proposals to manage them.

Informed by the objectives above, the:

- identification of a realistic timetable for implementation.
- identification of the key project milestones necessary to achieve that.
- creation of a shared communications strategy.
- development of proposals for consultation and wider stakeholder engagement.

Responsibilities

Sponsoring Group – HE / CM / CoP / CBF / COS JFC

Project Team – to be confirmed by Sponsoring Group.

Stakeholders – to be confirmed, but a broad 'parish' of all interested parties.

Subject: 20171020 Draft Police Mandate

Eddie,

Of the 44 recommendations in "The Hewitt Review," the first (and arguably the single most important) one is to progress the work to optimise policing on The Rock. I am charged by the Minister for the Armed Forces with delivering the recommendations, and I am already cracking on with a number of them, and especially those that require internal management action only. The attachment is self-explanatory but it does require the 'buy-in' of a number of organisations external to MoD, and principally RGP. Both HE and CM are happy that the direction and guidance contained in the attachment is 'good enough' to crack on and establish a Project Team as well as start to bring on board the various stakeholders.

If you are happy with the attachment (noting that both HE and CM have already tweaked the "Vision"), then the next stage is for the two of us to nominate our SME for the Project Team. For my part, it will most likely be Rob Allen. I realise that you may need some time to decide who is best-placed to fulfil the various roles within this project, given the changes at the top of RGP over the next few weeks, but I do know that both CM and HE are keen to demonstrate some early progress.

Turning to the Stakeholders, it would be presentationally very difficult for me if GDPF were not part of that group, and I would expect GPA to wish to be involved, but I have no real feel for who the other stakeholders might be from your perspective. I would also expect to define with clarity the roles and responsibilities of the Project Team, and I would expect to put something similar together when considering who should be formally acknowledged as a stakeholder, rather than just those with an opinion.

I hope you had a good weekend!

Mike

This statement (consisting of 19 pages each signed by me) is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I make it knowing that if it is tendered in evidence I shall be liable to prosecution if I have wilfully stated in it anything which I know to be false or do not believe to be true.

Dated the 25th day of June 2021

I am the Chief Minister of Gibraltar and one of Her Majesty's Counsel for Gibraltar.

I have been a member of the Bar in Gibraltar, in private practice with Hassans International Law Firm Ltd, since November 1994 until my election as Chief Minister of Gibraltar on the 9th December 2011.

I make this witness statement following an email sent to me by the Commissioner of Police, Mr Ullger, on the 27th November 2020 through which the investigating team in this matter posed a number of questions that they considered relevant to the ongoing criminal investigation in this matter and on which they believed I might be able to assist.

(In that period, in the run up to the 31st December 2020, my time was, however, entirely taken up by the negotiation of the New Year's Eve Framework Agreement with the UK and Spanish governments, making it impossible for me to finalise a statement at that time. Future arrangements in respect of the EU and other matters have continued to make it impossible for me to provide this statement sooner).

I subsequently met members of the investigating team on the 7th April 2021 to provide my initial responses and for an initial discussion on the issues on which my evidence might be of assistace to the Court and the parties.

Although it is unusual to prepare a statement in this way, for ease of reference I have been asked by the officers in the investigating team to set out the questions they posed (which I do in bold below) followed by my answers to each of the questions. I appreciate this is designed to make it easier for me, given the myriad demands on my time, to be able to assist the Court in the most efficient manner. I will therefore set out these answers to questions in the first part of my statement.

Additionally, I will also set out facts and matters which I consider to be relevant and of which the parties should be aware. I will address these issues in the second part of my statement.

PART I : ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

1. The defence assert that you expected and communicated that Mr Cornelio should continue running all HMGoG Platforms (including the NSCIS platform) after the 31st August 2018. Could you please clarify:

a. Whether this is correct; and
b. If correct, what precise instruction was given?

ANSWER: In order to fully answer this question and set out the factual matrix for the purposes of answering all others questions, I will start by providing some background. I first came to know of Mr Thomas Cornelio when, during the development of the frontier monitoring programme, he was referred to me as a 'computer genuis' by both John Perez (who I knew from his time at the Royal Gibraltar Regiment) and James Gaggero (who I knew from my time in public life generally and from various matters on which I had acted against Bland Ltd, most recently in an Industrial Tribunal matter). Both of these referred to Mr Cornelio at different times in 'selling' to me the skills which Bland

Ltd could bring to bear on the development of different aspects of the software that we required for different government departments. It was Mr Gaggero who had initially and consistently referred to Mr Cornelio as a 'computer genius' in his discussions with me.

I, nonetheless, do not believe that I ever gave any express authority for Mr Cornelio to access the NSCIS platform after he terminated his consultancy period with Bland Ltd. In fact, I would not have been involved in the operational day to day of a technological platform such as NSCIS and would not be the person giving authority for access. The NSCIS platform was in the control of Mr Caine Sanchez, the Principal Private Secretary of the Deputy Chief Minister, who had been overseeing the creation, development and running of the frontier monitoring progamme since its inception. In that respect, it is important to note that the genesis of the NSCIS was the decision by my Government to develop an electronic system to enable us to quantify the queuing time into Spain as we reported these matters to the European Commission for alleged breach of the Schengen Border Code by the then Spanish government of the Partido Popular. It was the Government's brainchild and we employed Bland Ltd in the development of this software – which then expanded and grew to the NSCIS – at the instance of my government. It is for this reason that the Government believes that we own the NSCIS software programme and all the relevant intellectual property therein, as the taxpayer has funded its development by Bland Ltd at the bespoke request and instruction of the Government.

By spring or early summer 2018, I knew that there were negotiations between Bland Ltd and 36 North Ltd to take over the running of the platform after the resignations of Mr Cornelio and Mr Perez from Bland Ltd. Mr John Perez had repeatedly advised me that he and Mr Cornelio wanted to establish themselves to provide advanced technological services of the type being offered by Bland Ltd. I was asked by him whether I would support them branching out in this way. I had replied that I was supportive of them setting themselves up on their own but that in doing so they should regularise their position with Mr Gaggero. (Subsequently, I had conversations with both Mr Perez and Mr James Levy QC about Hassans Ltd, of which I am a partner on sabbatical, supporting Mr Perez and Mr Cornelio through an investment in their venture, 36 North Ltd. I was asked by Mr Levy QC whether or not I would object to this. I had confirmed I would not object to such an investment by the partners of Hassans Ltd, but that this would not affect Government's attitude to 36 North in any positive or negative manner).

I subsequently had a conversation with James Gaggero in respect of the departure of Mr Perez and Mr Cornelio from Bland Ltd on 21st July 2018. That was a Saturday and I recall Mr Gaggero calling me in the morning. It was unusual for him to call me on a Saturday when I was with my family. I therefore decided to make a cursory note of that conversation, which I did not susquently fair into a full file note, at the time that I was talking to Mr Gaggero that morning. I was literally typing whilst holding the telephone to my ear. I now provide a screen shot copy of that note, which I typed on my ipad 'Notes' App and which can be seen not to have been touched since that date, as EXHIBIT FP1.

As can be seen from that note, and as more particularly set out in it, during this conversation, Mr Gaggero informed me that, despite seeking to persuade them to stay, Mr Cornelio and Mr Perez had decided to resign from Bland Ltd, which I told Mr Gaggero I was already aware of. Mr Gaggero further articulated that Bland Ltd had invested 8 years into developing software, and it had become a significant part of the business. (In fact, it could not be 8 years, as at that time in 2018 we had not yet been in Government for 6 years). He explained that his main concern was that this would not impact on the Government and asked for time to transition to the new team of Messrs Perez and Cornelio. I made clear to Mr Gaggero that I would be happy to work with both Bland Ltd and the new entity to assist in the 'transition' between them given that although Government's unequivocal position was – and is - that we owned the NSCIS software, (despite Mr Gaggero's assertions to the contrary and his reference to us potentially, 'buying' the software from Bland Ltd), we nonetheless undoubtedly agreed that we had an amount outstanding from the Government to Bland Ltd at that stage.

I considered that the issues between Bland Ltd and Messrs Perez and Cornelio were a matter for them and should not involve me or my colleagues. Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar had no reason to involve itself in these discussions, in part because there was already an ongoing and developing dispute with Bland Ltd over the ownership of the NSCIS platform. Additionally, as I set out above, given that the new entity that had been established by Messrs Perez and Cornelio, included an investment by the partners of Hassans Ltd (of which I am a partner on sabbatical) and of which I was aware. I therefore did not want to become involved in any aspects of the relationship between Bland Ltd and 36 North which were contentious.

After that date I continued to receive communications from Mr Gaggero and Mr Perez. I repeatedly emphasised to both my desire to assist both sides, on the basis that Mr Gaggero had himself set out to me on the 21st July 2018.

Nonetheless, for reasons that become apparent in the meetings and in correspondence in the period from the middle to the end of August 2018, I did not give any instructions for Mr Cornelio to 'take over' or 'continue' running what is referred to in the question as "HMGOG Platforms (including the NSCIS platform)'. I had an exchange of emails and WhatsApp messages with Mr Sanchez where I instructed him to seek legal advice on how to 'transition' from Bland Ltd to 36 North at that time and I give more details of these exchanges, and I exhibit the correspondence, in answer to further questions below.

I wish to add that, to my knowledge, however, I have not ever met Mr Cornelio. I do know that his wife is also a lawyer, who I have met and who has been instructed by the Government at different times, and that she has practiced with Messrs Triay, Stagnetto, Neish. Indeed, I have checked my emails and can confirm that on the 4th April 2019, some eight months after the date referenced in this first question, Mr Cornelio wrote to me directly seeking a meeting. Given how matters had developed by then, and after consideration with the Financial Secretary, Albert Mena, I did not respond to his request for a meeting.

2. To your knowledge, did any other member of HMGoG instruct / request that Mr Cornelio maintain the NSCIS platform following the termination of his consultancy period with Bland Ltd on the 31st August 2018?

ANSWER: I had no express knowledge of any other member of Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar (meaning Ministers) giving such an instruction or making a request of Mr Cornelio.

I had numerous email communications from Mr Caine Sanchez to the effect that he believed that the management of the system should be migrated to the control of Mr

Cornelio, but I did not reply to these emails as I was aware, principally from Blands Ltd Chairman, Mr James Gaggero, of the developing dispute between Bland Ltd and Messrs Perez and Cornelio and I was leaving matters related to the relationship with Bland Ltd, the functionality of the NSCIS and the dispute as to ownership and payments due to Bland Ltd to the Financial Secretary, Albert Mena, with whom I was in constant contact throughout in respect of the software ownership issue.

An exchange of emails between me and Mr Sanchez reflects a reference, by Mr Sanchez, to a potential claim by Bland Ltd against Government. I made clear in my reply that the tenor of my conversation with Mr Gaggero, on the 21st July, had not been about a claim from Bland Ltd against the Government, but of the need, from his point of view, for us to buy the software from Bland Ltd, arising from the difference between us about the ownership of the software. This exchange also reflects the language of an agreed 'transition' from Bland Ltd to 36 North, which was in keeping with the things that Mr Gaggero had said to me during the course of our telephone conversation on Saturday 21st July 2018.

Further emails from Mr Sanchez followed on 10th and 13th August 2018 about the meeting I was to have that day with Mr Gaggero and others of his Bland Ltd team at which Mr Sanchez wanted to be present given his responsibility for the operation of the system within Government. I agreed to that, I believe through one of my secretaries. Subsequently, I received a number of emails on this subject from Mr Sanchez which I believe I did not access at the time or reply to.

All of the relevant emails from Mr Sanchez in this period and any replies are provided as EXHIBIT FP2 hereto. I believe these exchanges are self evident in illustrating the gradual breakdown of the relationship between Bland Ltd and Messrs Perez and Cornelio after our meeting of the 13th August 2018. The emails include a draft letter for Senior Crown Counsel to advise on and a proposal from 36 North for their future operation of the NSCIS system. This is what I had suggested to Mr Sanchez in a parallel WhatsApp exchange of 13th August 2018 also should be the result of any complaint as to operability from the relevant departments, including the RGP, the BCA and HM Customs, who were the principal users of this facility. I now provide a copy of this WhatApp exchange between me and Mr Sanchez as EXHIBIT FP3.

Additionally, I also now provide as EXHIBIT FP4 copies of emails involving the inoperability of passport scanners in use by the Borders and Coastguard Agency in mid October. These also include references from Bland Ltd as to the reasons for these operational failures.

I should add that I have never seen the NSCIS platform in operation. We were to have an exercise on one occasion when the system, embarrassingly was not working and I have repeatedly been asked to view the platform, but have never had an opportunity to do so. It was the subject of work by individuals when I once visisted OSG's offices at Line Wall Road. I have never, however had a chance to see it working.

3. The defence have drawn our attention to a text message sent from Mr Haim Levy QC to yourself, dated 30th August 2018, in which he stated:

"You should know that I have spoken to Tommy and despite his letter to James G he will continue ensuring that the system is kept going until a solution is found acceptable the government"

The defence rely upon this text as evidence that you were aware of and /or gave authority for Mr Cornelio to access the NSCIS platform after 1st September 2018. However, Bland were not informed of any such arrangement. Can you please comment on your understanding of this text message?

ANSWER: Mr James Levy QC CBE is the senior partner of Hassans Ltd. He has been a legal mentor to me from a young age and a person who I consider a friend as well as a professional colleague and political supporter. Mr Levy has been known to my family since before my birth. He was very much loved and admired by my mother, who knew him, in her capacity as personal secretary to his uncle, Sir Joshua Hassan GBE KCMG LVO QC JP, since he was a young boy. As a result of this deep relationship, I am regularly in contact with Mr Levy QC on matters related to politics and to his attraction to Gibraltar of persons who would establish themselves or their businesses here and on personal matters as a close friend. Mr Levy QC is considered by most individuals at the Bar and in the financial services sector, to be one of the persons principally responsible for the attraction of new business to Gibraltar.

The part of the message quoted in the question is only a partial extract of the text of the WhatsApp sent to me by Mr Levy. The full message from Mr Levy and my reply reads as follows:

The contents of this document will be processed in strict compliance with the Royal Gibraltar Police's policy on Data Protection, which has been compiled in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2004

30th August 2018

JAMES LEVY : You should know that I have spoken to Tommy and despite his letter to James G he will continue ensuring that the system is kept going until a solution is found acceptable to the government. He says that when he meets you and explains to you his solution you will find it easier to make a decision because you will have the right information. He believes that the right information is not getting through to you as he is aware that you are very knowledgeable on technology. He is a sweet boffin Straight out of the movies speaks very fast and with a monotonous voice but he is very honest hard-working and competent. Really got to like him

FP : Will look forward to meeting him. [Albert] Mena and me are the people who will understand him.

I now exhibit screenshots showing this exchange as EXHIBIT FP5. The redactions are in respect of text that refers to other matters and which are entirely unrelated to this case.

The reference here to a 'decision' was interpreted by me as a reference to the request that the Government should migrate the operation of the NSCIS system from Bland Ltd to the control and operation of 36 North Ltd. In this respect, I had wanted to ensure that any change of control or transition was handled in keeping with our legal advice given that we had a dispute with Bland Ltd as to ownership of the software in question. For that reason I had asked that Mr Caine Sanchez should ensure that each of our relevant departments (the Royal Gibraltar Police, Her Majesty's Customs and the Borders and Coastguard Agency) should refer to Mr Sanchez any necessary request for a transition or transfer from Bland Ltd to 36 North. I asked that those requests should then be sent to Mr Lloyd De Vicenzi or Mr John Paul Fa, both Senior Crown Counsel in the Government, to look at these. I wanted to ensure that any notices were phrased and sent properly and activtated in a manner that did not in any way vitiate our claim to ownership of the NSCIS software. This is reflected in the exchange of WhatsApps on 13th July 2018.

The contents of this document will be processed in strict compliance with the Royal Gibraltar Police's policy on Data Protection, which has been compiled in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2004

As will be evident from the material provided in the exhibits I have already referred to, at different times this 'transition' had been a matter which had appeared to have been agreed between Mr Gaggero for Bland Ltd and Messrs Perez and Cornelio for 36 North. This is the 'transition' that was being referred to by Mr Gaggero in his conversation with me on the morning of the 21st July 2018, which was to take place between Bland Ltd and 36 North in a manner that should not in any way prejudice the Government in the functionality of the operation of the systems should not be in any way compromised as the systems transferred.

Despite the fact that the relationship between Bland Ltd and Mr Gaggero, on the one hand, and 36 North and Messrs Perez and Cornelio, of the other hand, deteriorated (as they negotiated the commercial terms between them (vide Mr Gaggero's reference to Bland Ltd's investment in the software over 8(sic) years in my note of our conversation of the 21st July)), the decision to transfer from Bland Ltd to 36 North was still being put to the Government and as something that was apparently agreed between them. I could sense this was an attempt by both sides to get the Government to act in a manner that helped determine the commercial dispute developing between them. Given – in particular the interest that Hassans Ltd had in 36 North – I was not prepared to enter the fray of that commercial dispute as it was becoming more and more acrimonious. Additionally, and for the reasons referred to relating to the then ongoing negotiations of the Withdrawal Agreement, I was genuinely completely taken up by a matter of much greater importance to the public interest of Gibraltar than the apparently petty commercial dispute emerging between Mr Gaggero and Messrs Perez and Cornelio.

Given that there was no further communication between me and Mr Levy on this matter after the text in the question, Mr Levy sent me a further WhatsApp message on the 4th September. That text provided as follows:

> 4th September 2018
> JAMES LEVY: Have you been able to find a solution with James G?
>
> FP: Hi. Saw him yesterday. Asked him to give me a bit of time and not to have a row. He is pissed off. ... F
> JAMES LEVY: That is the attitude of la derecha ...

(NOTE: FILL IN PAGE OVERLEAF)

The contents of this document will be processed in strict compliance with the Royal Gibraltar Police's policy on Data Protection, which has been compiled in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2004

I now also exhibit screenshots showing this exchange as EXHIBIT FP6.

I recall that the meeting I had with Mr Gaggero at that time had been an opportunity, at his request, for him to tell me how disappointed he was with Messrs Perez and Cornelio and at the manner in which they were handling their departure from Bland Ltd. He told me – I believe at this time, but it may have been at a subsequent or earlier meeting – that he had found that Mr Perez or Mr Cornelio (I cannot recall which or whether it was both) had been using Bland Ltd's resources for the purposes of setting up their new company. This included the purchase of a book purchased from the online retailer Amazon on entrepreneurship. This was in addition to other minor items of apparently inappropriate expenditure which clearly had annoyed and incensed Mr Gaggero greatly. At this or another meeting, Mr Gaggero also referred me to a report allegedly compiled by PWC which he said suggested that Messrs Perez and Cornelio had acted improperly in some way. I did not seek nor receive a copy of this report to which Mr Gaggero spoke without showing any part of the document.

Subsequently, and given that there were again no further communications between me and Mr Levy on this subject in the interim, Mr Levy sent me a further WhatsApp message on the 12th September 2018. It provides as follows:

> 12th September 2018
> JAMES LEVY: I assume the Gaggero issue is more complicated since I see you are reluctant to discuss it
> FP: No. Just in the thick of the biggest issue in Europe right now.

I now also exhibit screenshots showing this exchange as EXHIBIT FP7. The redactions are in respect of text that refers to other matters.

My reference to 'the biggest issue in Europe right now' was to the state of the Brexit Withdrawal Agreement negotiation, which was then reaching its zenith. At that time we were still negotiating with the UK Government, the Spanish Government and the European Commission the application to Gibraltar of the Withdrawal Agreement, the Gibraltar Protocol etc. For that reason, I was therefore not concentrating on matters such as the commercial dispute between Bland Ltd and its former employees, Messrs Perez and Cornelio.

4. The defence have drawn our attention to a text message sent from Mr Cornelio to Mr Levy QC (and which refers to the CM), dated 30th August 2018, in which he stated:

"Yep. Please tell him that if we meet I will be able to discuss in person as I feel sometimes the information he is getting is not correct ... if he knew my solution in detail it would make any decision he makes easier also."

In the context of the police investigation, are you able to comment on the 'decision' that is referred to by Mr Cornelio?

ANSWER: I was not aware of any decision that required my input on or around the 30th August 2018 in respect of the NSCIS platform. The issue that was 'live' was that of who was to take the platform forward following the resignations of Mr Perez and Mr Cornelio, which was a matter for Bland Ltd and 36 North Ltd to determine. I had already set out my position to Mr Caine Sanchez in July for the RGP, Customs and BCA to refer matters to Senior Crown Counsel when the matter was billed as an agreed 'transition'. At that stage, I had no difficulty with either of the two companies maintaining the platform. Also as stated previously, I did not want to become involved in a commercial dispute. During that period there had been terrorist attacks throughout Europe and I was dealing with Brexit. These were the matters that were taking up a considerable amount of my time. Subsequently, in a meeting in my office in the presence of my Principal Private Secretary, Mr Peter Canessa and, I believe, the Financial Secretary, Mr Albert Mena, Mr Gaggero alleged that 36 North had somehow sabotaged / planned to sabotage the operation of the NSCIS system in order to persuade the Government that we should migrate from Bland Ltd to them. I am unable to provide the exact date of that meeting from memory or from my own email records but I am aware that Mr Canessa has provided a statement which reflects the emails I instructed that he should send as a result of those meetings. Faced with this unverified information (the reliability of which I was unable to comment on or assess), I was not prepared to take any risk in respect of the operation of this critical national infrastructure. I gave instructions to ensure that 36 North and Mr Cornelio in particular were not to have access to the system, such as it might have been, if they had, indeed, retained any such access of which I had not previously been aware. I rely on the dates and material provided in Mr Canessa's statement as a reliable record of the timeline in respect of the facts and matters deposed to in therein.

5. The defence have argued that you authorised Mr Cornelio to access the NSCIS platform after August 2018. Did you authorise Mr Cornelio to access the NSCIS platform at any time between 31/08/2018 and 04/10/2018?

ANSWER: No express authority was given by me, at least that I can recall or that I can find recorded in writing, for Mr Cornelio to access the NSCIS platform at any time after the termination of his arranagement for access with or through Bland Ltd. I do not believe that any other communication from me can be considered to be ostensible authority from me for anyone to access the system, although I am unable to comment on whether a communication from me could legitimately be interpreted in a manner that could be considered to convey such ostensible or implied authority.

I should add, however, that I did not consider myself the 'gate keeper' of the system from whom access to the system would be sought. As far as I was concerned the NSCIS system was run by Mr Caine Sachez, having grown organically from a frontier monitoring system implemented at the time of lengthy frontier queues prior to 2015 and I have already exhibited and commented on my communications with him in respect of this matter in the relevant period in question. It is likely that Mr Sanchez would have approached me for any seminal changes that might have been necessary and which would involve incurring any expensé (in my capacity as Minister for Finance), together with the Financial Secretary, Albert Mena, who was involved in the settlement of the financial issues arising from the dispute with Bland Ltd on the functionality of the NSCIS system, as can be seen from the exchanges of emails exhibited.

Additionally, as is evident from my note of the conversation with Mr Gaggero on the 21st July 2018, there was, apparently, an agreement at that stage between Bland Ltd and 36 North that there would be a transition in the control of the NSCIS between them. This would appear to have provided for access to be provided to Mr Cornelio for this purpose by Bland Ltd. I am unaware, however, of the route to access to the NSCIS which Mr Cornelio had at different times. Indeed, as I have previously set out, I have not even consciously seen the NSCIS system in operation in any detail.

6. To your knowledge, did any representative of HMGoG instruct / authorise Mr Cornelio to extract a copy of the NSCIS data for the purpose of ensuring services could run independently of Bland?

ANSWER: I did not authorise, nor was I aware of authority being provided to extract NSCIS data outside the knowledge of Bland Ltd. I only found out about the mirror platform following information being provided to me by Mr Gaggero in October 2018. I would, nonetheless add that I was at some stage advised, I believe by Mr Caine Sanchez (but I am unable to recall exactly whether it was, in fact, him or when it was said to me) that 36 North were preparing a mirror of the server of the NSCIS in the course of the apparently agreed (as per Mr Gaggero's statements to me of the 21st July 2018) transition of the control of the NSCIS from Bland Ltd to 36 North. I do not know if the establishment of such a parallel server would involve the download of data or not. I am, similarly, unaware and unqualified to opine on the technical need or desirability of such a mirror server or data being established.

7. The defence assert that on or around 30th August 2018 HMGoG asked Mr Cornelio / 36 North Ltd to ensure 'Phoenix' (the NSCIS alternative platform) was ready to take over the NSCIS platform at short notice. Do you have any knowledge of these discussions?

I have no knowledge of any such 'discussions'. Indeed, the first time I recall being referred to the name 'Phoenix' in this context was as a result of the questions posed by the RGP. I was, however, aware from Mr Gaggero himself (vide my notes of the conversation with him on the 21st July 2018) that he (for Bland Ltd) and Messrs Perez and Cornelio (for 36 North) had, apparently, agreed to a transition between them of the management of the NSCIS system, subject to the agreement of the Government. This transition, for the reasons I set out above, would, I assume (as I am not qualified to opine), likely have involved a new 'system', 'platform' or 'server' being deployed for this purpose or the wholesale takeover of the Bland Ltd 'system', 'platform' or 'server'.

[I do not know with certainty the technical definitions of the terms 'system', 'platform' or 'server' and for that reason I put them in quotation.]

8. The defence assert that you met with James Gaggero on a number of occasions between the 9th July 2018 and 4th October 2018 to discuss the NSCIS platform. We understand that meetings took place on the following dates:

a. August 2018
b. 3rd September 2018
c. 27th September 2018

Could you please confirm what was agreed during those meetings in relation to the NSCIS platform?

Unfortunately I cannot confirm all the dates of all the meetings with Mr Gaggero beyond those for which I can find a record in my diary. There may have been meetings which are not recorded in my diary and there may, more likely, have been a number of telephone conversations which would not feature in diary entries.

In terms of dates, I can confirm, as set out in more detail in EXHIBIT FP1, that I spoke extensively to Mr Gaggero on the morning of Saturday the 21st July. I recall that the conversation was after I had met with him in the weeks leading up to that date but I cannot recall the details of that meeting. I also cannot find any other entry for a meeting with Mr Gaggero in my diary after the 9th July and before the 21st July. An entry for the 19th July for 'J and G Gaggero' was, I believe, for a meeting with John and George Gaggero of M H Bland Ltd.

A further meeting with Mr Gaggero was held on the 13th August 2018 with me at No 6 Convent Place. Also in attendance were Mr Philip Navas and Mr Jonathan Galliano for Bland Ltd. I believe that Mr John Paul Payas was also present at that meeting.

I subsequently met with Mr Gaggero on the 3rd September at 1000hrs for 30 minutes. This meeting is recorded in my electronic diary and is referred to in the WhatsApp exchanges with Mr Levy of 4th September and a screenshot of which I have already exhibited at EXHIBIT FP6.

I further met with Mr Gaggero on the 27th September at 1600hrs for one hour.

I am unable to point to specific conclusions of each meeting but I can recall that I had asked that the facts and matters referred to in those meetings should not be divulged to third parties by the persons attending with me. I subsequently received information from Mr Gaggero that matters discussed with me in private in those meetings had been referred by Mr Perez to Mr Guy Stagnetto QC of Messrs Triay Stagnetto Neish. I had been attended at that meeting only by Mr Peter Canessa, my Principal Private Secretary and Mr Caine Sanchez. I do not believe that it was Mr Canessa who disclosed the information relating to that meeting to Mr Perez.

It was also during one of the meetings that I recall Mr Gaggero informed me that he had discovered that Mr Perez and Mr Cornelio had been using the resources of Bland Ltd (ie the company credit card) for the purposes of the establishment of 36 North. This seemed to have annoyed Mr Gaggero greatly. I pointed out to him that, although this was clearly not appropriate, it seemed to me be a minor point, especially given the amounts that the Gaggero Foundation invested at that time in 'Young Enterprise' which was a scheme designed to promote young Gibraltarian entrepreneurs. I told Mr Gaggero he should seek return of the funds misapplied by Messrs Perez and Cornelio but not to make a mountain out of that molehill. Mr Gaggero also told me that he had caused a review of the Bland Ltd email accounts to be counducted and that he had found communication indicating that Messrs Perez and Cornelio had long planned to leave the employment of Bland and set up their own company.

9. "On 4th October 2018, you instructed Caine Sanchez (via Peter Canessa) to provide Bland with full control of the management, maintenance and support of the NSCIS Platform. In an two emails from Mr Peter Canessa to Mr Caine Sanchez, dated 04/10/28 he wrote:

"The Chief Minister has instructed that access to our "Azure" system be given to Jonathan Galliano at Bland/OSG immediately. He has also instructed that arrangements be made for any member of that company who will be dealing with HMGoG matters relating to security to sign the Official Secrets Act, if they haven't already done so, without delay."

"Further to my email below, and following further discussion with the CM, and to avoid any ambiguity, the instructions from the CM are that Bland Ltd is to be provided full control of the management, maintenance and support of the NSCIS platform. Please do all the necessary to ensure that Tommy Cornelio fully cooperates in handing over to Jonathan Galliano of Bland Ltd access and control to all services and systems that make up the NSCIS platform immediately. Once the handover process is completed Tommy Cornelio nor any 3rd party are to have access to the platform."

Could you please clarify:

a. The reason why this instruction was necessary;
b. The basis on which this decision was made; and
c. Why it was made at that time?"

ANSWER: I gave this instruction as a result of information, provided by Mr Gaggero, that Mr Cornelio had continued to access the NSCIS platform despite his consultancy arrangements having ended with Bland Ltd. At some stage, then or thereafter, we were also told by Mr Gaggero that, in enjoying continued access to the NSCIS system, Mr Cornelio might have sought to sabotage the operation of the system for short periods in order to demonstrate that Bland Ltd were unable to properly operate it. As I have already stated, I am not competent to opine on whether that information was accurate or not, but I could not take a risk that it might be as I considered the NSCIS to be critical national infrastructure. This system was too sensitive to risk allowing Mr Cornelio access in these circumstances, whether or not what we were being told was true. I informed Mr Canessa to send a second email to Mr Sanchez in order to eliminate any ambiguity about my instruction.

PART II : OTHER MATTERS

I think it would be useful for the Court to have available other information which may be relevant to both the Crown and the Defendants. I set out that information in this second part of my statement as follows hereafter.

A: The Complaint.

I want to make it clear that the Government is not a complainant in this matter against any of the Defendants.

When this matter was first presented to me as Chief Minister, by the former Commissioner of Police, Mr Ian McGrail, he told me and the Royal Gibraltar Police were acting on information provided by Bland Ltd. He told me that the allegations included allegations of potential corruption by Government officials and that Mr Caine Sanchez was to be arrested as a result in order that he might assist the police with their inquiries. Also present at that meeting, amongst others, was the Chief Secretary, Darren Grech. I responded to that statement by the Commissioner by saying that if such evidence was presented to the Government, it would be the Government that would be the complainant against such an officer as the damage would have equally been suffered by the Government as by any third party.

The RGP has subsequently caused statements to be published that suggested that the Government was a complainant in this matter.

In fact, however, I want to clarify that the Government, that is to say the elected members of the Parliament of Gibraltar who make up the Council of Ministers, are not complainants in this matter against any of the Defendants in this case.

When the said statements by the RGP were issued, I inquired on what basis they had been made. I was informed that the Chief Secretary had been told by the Commissioner of Police that there was evidence of corruption or misfeasance in public office by Mr Sanchez. As that matter had arisen in August and I was away from the office on annual leave, the Chief Secretary made the decision to agree that the Government was a complainant without referring the matter to me or checking with me or any other Minister. The Cabinet did not have an opportunity to consider whether or not the Government should be a complainant. When I became aware of the fact that the Government was being referred to as a complainant, I sought that the Chief Secretary should provide me with the details of the evidence available to support the complaint. The Chief Secretary referred me to the assertions made to him by the Commissioner, but he was unable to provide me with any detail of any evidence in support of the complaint. I consider this to be unsatisfactory and not a basis on which the Government can agree that it should be a complainant in this matter against any of the Defendants. The Cabinet considered this matter and agreed that I should clarify that any complaint advanced is therefore not advanced on behalf of the Government but on behalf of the Chief Secretary. I further understand that the Chief Secretary, of his own motion and without any further referral or discussion with me, has since withdrawn his own complaint.

An allegation of corruption or of misfeasance in public office is extraordinarily serious. Given the allegation that such corruption or misfeasance arises in the context of critical national infrastructure, which is how I regard the NSCIS, I believe that the Government has an obligation to satisfy itself that there is evidence of such activity before it can lend itself to any such complaint being advanced in its name. This is especially so, in my view, in respect of a Government which, at the time, included two QCs, a total of five lawyers, a Justice of the Peace and, obviously, also a Minister for Justice as well as a former Chief Minister who has been a Parliamentarian for almost fifty years and is the longest serving government minister in our history since the 1969 Constitution was granted to Gibraltar.

The Director of Public Prosecutions and the Royal Gibraltar Police, no doubt on advice which I do not challenge, responded to requests for such information or prima facie evidence by saying that they were unable to share any information that would show us – the alleged victim of the corruption or misfeasance (given we were being asked to be a complainant) - that these alleged offences would appear to have been carried out. Clearly, we were not asking for anything to be proven to us beyond a reasonable doubt, but that at least the prima facie evidence should be shared with us so that we could consider becoming a complainant.

Given that no such information or evidence has been forthcoming, the Government is not prepared to be considered a complainant in this matter in respect of any of the Defendants. The Crown is, nonetheless, of course able to continue its prosecution if it considers that it has evidence to the standard required to advance its case.

B: The Ownership of 36 North Ltd

I want to ensure that the Court is aware that Hassans Ltd held a share in 36 North. As a partner on sabbatical at Hassans Ltd, I would have had a very small, indirect interest in 36 North. I have routinely disclosed this interest in all the parliamentary questions I have answered in respect of 36 North.

As I think is transparently obvious from the information and documentation I provide, I did not act at any time in a manner that benefitted 36 North. At every stage I acted in keeping with my view of what was in the public interest of Gibraltar, even giving instructions to exclude 36 North from access to the NSCIS platform on the basis set out in my answers to the questions above.

C: The Contractual Arrangement with Bland Ltd

On the 7th April 2021 I was additionally asked by the Royal Gibraltar Police to comment on whether there was a contractual arrangement in place between HMGoG and Bland Ltd in respect of the NSCIS platform.

Though not reduced to writing, there was clearly an arrangement in place between HMGoG and Bland Ltd.

Whilst the terms of the agreement are disputed – and it is for that reason that we have not executed the agreement - the arrangement is reflected in payments made by the Government to Bland Ltd (adjusted to reflect the functionality problems inherent in the system) but there is no signed contract between us.

As a result of the fact that the said contract has not been signed, because agreement cannot be reached between us on the issue of the ownership of the software, the arrangements were and continue on the basis of a continuing monthly renewal and were and are determinable, in my view (and on the basis of the legal advice received by the Government), by either side without notice.

D: Continued Assistance to the Court.

Despite the fact that I am not presently in practice whilst I hold the office of Chief Minister of Gibraltar, I consider myself to continue to hold the duties of an officer of the Court. I therefore stand ready to assist the Court in any way that it may be determined that I could usefully provide any further information at my disposal or in my recollection.

Subject: Brief on platforms re: meeting with JG

Dear Chief Minister

As per our meeting today, with regards to the platforms for Employment, Education and DSS I believe that we need to go ahead with Mr Gaggero's advice and subcontract the new company to maintain initially the Employment and Education systems and to finalise the DSS. We can then liaise with our ITLD to see if this is something they can take over.

I will non the less get information for you with regards to the capabilities of each system as well as the pending works for the DSS.

With regards to the Security platform the cleanest way to get out of this is to source another programme that will interact with our hardware. I am afraid that we have little options left as we do not want to prolong this too much due to the sensitivities of the system as well as to the liability. The transition would be seamless with zero downtime.

Only last year the system made us over £1m with regards to truck movements that tried to come through undeclared. So if only for value it is well worth it. It is classified by Interpol as one of the top ten security platforms around.

I will have the information on the DSS platform and the new security system by end of play tomorrow. Will sent it through as and when received.

Please let me know how to proceed.

Dear James

RE: Blands maintenance fees for HMGOG Platforms

Thank you for your meeting on the 13th August with the Chief Minister, which was eye opening. In view of the urgency to resolve the maintenance and liability matters, the HM Government of Gibraltar has taken the following position with respect of each of the platforms:

1. Employment and Education platforms - Maintenance of the platform to be contracted directly with the new company with any liability of the work that has been done or going forward to be absorbed by the new company

2. DSS platform - We had several options, as discussed in our meeting, of which the Government will pursue the following:

    a. The new company to assume full responsibility of our platform and we would pay them the outstanding circa £70k to finalise it. The new company will assume ongoing maintenance and full liability for the platform. This would be subject to the new company agreeing to this. If not, full responsibility and liability would lie with Blands.

3. National Security platform - HM Government of Gibraltar has taken the decision to move away from the current platform and go with a new platform, with greater capabilities for our law Enforcement Agencies.

With regards to the transition from Blands to the new provider, this will occur on Monday 20th August. We will then agree to settle all outstanding payments pro-rata.

We would like to thank the Blands group for their services with regards to the above-mentioned platforms and for the ongoing services you provide HM Government of Gibraltar in all other fields.

Dear Mr Sanchez,

I attach for your consideration the HM GOG Border Management System proposal, which includes a breakdown of costs by capability.

36 North are delighted to be extended the opportunity to submit this proposal and remain confident that our system will meet all your requirements.

With regards to its operational status, it is available and ready to be deployed at short notice. This would be subject to being provided with the relevant access by the Government of Gibraltar.

Maintenance fees attached include the ownership of the code and intellectual property rights of the border management system by HM Government of Gibraltar.

Please let us know if you require any further information and we very much look forward to hearing from you soon.

CTO & Founding member of 36 North, Thomas was a young entrepreneur, successfully running online businesses since the age of 17. His work ethic was recognised by the largest tech company in the region and was awarded a scholarship to work with them and further his studies.

With this scholarship Tommy studied Computer Science at Cardiff University, graduating with a 1st Class Honors degree, he was also selected on various occasions to represent the University and winning an IBM award for the best project.

In 2009 he joined Gibtelecom, the largest telecoms operator in the region. Here he went on to build complete billing and data management platforms for mobile devices, with his works then incorporated by industry giants such as Ericsson. He also developed a country wide Wi-Fi billing platform with Cisco technologies.

His success led to an offer to join Bland Group International in 2012 as a senior software architect. During his time there Tommy engineered complex artificial intelligence platforms and industry leading solutions, most notably in the field of security.

In 2018 Tommy setup 36 North Limited with the aim of designing innovative software solutions to solve sophisticated real world problems.

Access to several servers that was available externally to me was removed by Bland Limited. In order to support NSCIS effectively I re-enabled this access, to the extent that i spent all of last night working on a case with the Borders & Coastguard department in order to assist them in their duties. The server was rebooted to ensure that access was available after a reboot as Bland Ltd had tampered with the settings to ensure that access would not be available to me remotely after a server reboot. Note that 36 North is the computer name of my workstation.

Should you need any further clarification on this matter please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Caine,

There have been a series of server reboots and service restarts at Four Corners and the Port during the course of the afternoon that is cause for concern given the understanding we have that no changes to access or otherwise be carried out on NSCIS services and systems without your consent.

Whilst investigating these events it has become evident that external access to NSCIS hardware has now been enabled through other remote management software to a third party by the name of 36 North. Having access to these servers by default also grants access to all other NSCIS hardware within their respective sites/locations. The result of these actions is that Blands going forward can't guarantee (1) from where these systems will be accessed and by whom and (2) there is now no longer a dependency to have Tommy's workstation running in our offices to be able to access any NSCIS hardware as agreed.

Dear Chief Minister

Please see the chain of emails below. The situation is getting now personal. I have drafted this response but won't send it without your approval.

'Dear James

My sole responsibility is for the functionality of the system that enhances the security capabilities of our law enforcement agencies. As you can imagine the professional relationship that I have with Tommy goes back 6-7years and as such have complete trust in his capabilities. Only last night he worked tirelessly with our law enforcement agencies to assist in an ongoing investigation which was resolved by him. On Friday he managed to solve an issue which you we aware of, that your team could not identify.

I would definitely change your stance on this because he has managed to solve a liability issue for your company.

Seeing that you will no longer be taking responsibility for the platform I will be taking this matter forward immediately so that the necessary changes can be done so that the resilience of our system continues."

Dear Chief Minister

I spoke to the Deputy Chief Minister this morning and he informed me of the accusations that Mr Gaggero's lawyer made against me with regards to leaking information to Mr Perez. I can categorically deny this. Specifically you instructed me not to relay any information to Mr Perez and that I did. It is the second time this week that he has questioned my professional integrity. Frankly he should be looking at the leak from inside his organisation as I knew more that 80% of the vile accusations that he was going to make before the meeting.

My number one priority is looking after the interest of the Government and this I have done so throughout my 22 years career in the civil service without ever compromising the Government. It is therefore sad to hear these demeaning accusations from someone who does not know me at all.

Moving on to the important factor, which clearly is not in his agenda, is the predicament we are currently in with our software platforms where he has now stated that his company will take no liability on this. We are currently dependent on the good will of an external source to maintain this at no cost.

I therefore urge that a decision is taken to minimise the risks we can have on the four platforms that we currently are paying Blands to maintain.

Dear Chief Minister

I need to take a decision on whom do I need to make the maintenance payments to with regards to the system. Blands have made themselves no longer liable for the system yet still claim that itbis theirs. Currently it is 90% maintained by Tommy.

Grateful for your advice on how to proceed.

Dear Caine,

Thank you for your text.
I wanted to bring this development to your attention without delay.
The following exchange of email is self explanatory.

I am available to speak this evening if this would be helpful or all day tomorrow.

I undertake to do all possible to assist but as you know and accepted, your decision to enable TC to cut Blands out of the loop has seriously set back our ability to help and we now have no idea what actions have been carried out during the last 3 weeks which could be detrimental to or even undermined the platform.

I am truly sorry we find ourselves in this situation

Kind regards

Dear Tommy,

Thank you for your email.
I fully understand your disappointment that the issues we face have not been resolved by now.
I share your frustration.
Like you I find myself awaiting the outcome of HMGoG's decision as to how they wish to proceed. I can only imagine Brexit is consuming their available time.
On a more positive note the Peter Canessa has only just this afternoon confirmed that the CM is ready to meet me and a date has been set immediately following his return to Gib next week. More anon.

In the meantime I reiterate my appreciation for all you have done to ensure that the NSCIS platform has operated without a single discernible problem since you left the company. Thank you. I will make it plain to the CM the extent of your unfailing commitment during this period.

In return I will of course honour my commitment to you to settle your fees for carrying out these services. And will ensure prompt payment the moment you submit your invoice.

I am sorry you feel you are no longer able to support the platform with effect from 00:00 on the 1st September in any capacity. All the more so when one considers all that is at stake. Naturally I will communicate your decision to Caine Sanchez immediately and the CM when we meet next week.

Regarding your point that you have not heard from me recently: I can only apologise for this but I was led to believe you were away for two weeks. As the platform seemed to be running without problems I did not feel my intervention was required.

I know Bethan has communicated with you re your request under GDPR and that this matter is of course in hand.

Again with many thanks for all you have done to assist the Government and ourselves during this difficult period.

Kind regards

James

Dear James,

As you are aware, I have been running and maintaining the NSCIS platform on behalf of Bland Limited as from 00:00 on 11th August 2018. I have done this in good faith in order to allow you time to resolve the issue with the Government and, of course, to ensure that Gibraltar's national security measures are not affected. I have proceeded on the basis that I will be fairly remunerated for this work.

I have done my best to maintain the platform during these difficult times, especially in circumstances where our working relationship has ended and at the same time as setting up my own company. I have to date received no communication from either Bland Limited or the Government of Gibraltar with regard to a possible solution to the problems faced by Bland Limited.

Unfortunately, circumstances are such that it is not possible for me to continue working under the current conditions. Please let this email serve as official notice that as of 00:00 on 1st September 2018 I will no longer be supporting the NSCIS platform in any capacity. Please also note that I will shortly be invoicing Bland Limited in respect of my fees for the period 11 August 2018 to 31 August 2018.

Kind Regards

Tommy

Please see the chain of emails below. The situation is getting now personal. I have drafted this response but won't send it without your approval.

'Dear James

My sole responsibility is for the functionality of the system that enhances the security capabilities of our law enforcement agencies. As you can imagine the professional relationship that I have with Tommy goes back 6-7years and as such have complete trust in his capabilities. Only last night he worked tirelessly with our law enforcement agencies to assist in an ongoing investigation which was resolved by him. On Friday he managed to solve an issue which you we aware of, that your team could not identify.

I would definitely change your stance on this because he has managed to solve a liability issue for your company.

Seeing that you will no longer be taking responsibility for the platform I will be taking this matter forward immediately so that the necessary changes can be done so that the resilience of our system continues."

Subject: NSCIS Server and Services Events this afternoon

Dear Caine,

There have been a series of server reboots and service restarts at Four Corners and the Port during the course of the afternoon that is cause for concern given the understanding we have that no changes to access or otherwise be carried out on NSCIS services and systems without your consent.

Whilst investigating these events it has become evident that external access to NSCIS hardware has now been enabled through other remote management software to a third party by the name of 36 North. Having access to these servers by default also grants access to all other NSCIS hardware within their respective sites/locations. The result of these actions is that Blands going forward can't guarantee (1) from where these systems will be accessed and by whom and (2) there is now no longer a dependency to have Tommy's workstation running in our offices to be able to access any NSCIS hardware as agreed.

Bland Ltd will not be able to agree on the below arrangement in relation to the ETB & Education Systems until we have resolution on the following 2 points:

1. Following the meeting this morning with the CM on all four GoG department systems, CM will be reviewing the matter internally and reverting with an appropriate course of action.

2. Bland Ltd will require a document signed by the relevant GoG departments confirming that if support/maintenance of a system developed by Bland Ltd is outsourced to a new company, Bland Ltd is no longer liable for any damages caused by system failures.

As regards point 1, Bland Ltd will await a response from the CM before any further steps are taken.

As regards point 1, Bland Ltd will await a response from the CM before any further steps are taken.

As regards point 2 we shall proceed to draft an appropriate document so that we can have this ready for signature by the relevant department heads should we be in a position to proceed.

Should you require any further clarification in relation to our position on the matter please do not hesitate to let me know.

They denounce for the crime of reckless homicide to the Gibraltar Police after the death of two ceutíes

The family of one of the deceased of Ceuta is person as a Private Accusation and asks that the Civil Guard can examine the boat that was run over "in Spanish waters"

They want justice and they are not going to stop until they get it. The family of one of the deceased from Ceuta after his boat was hit by a Gibraltar patrol boat, on March 8, is going all out as long as the facts are clarified and all the details of the event in which Mustafa and Mohamed lost their lives are investigated to the end, two neighbors of Ceuta who have left behind shattered families.
Before the Court of Instruction number 4 of La Línea de la Concepción, competent in the investigation already judicialized, the family of Mustafa Dris has appeared as a Private Accusation and has requested that four investigative measures be carried out, as confirmed by judicial sources to El Faro de Ceuta, requesting that the European Investigation Order (OEI) be sent to the competent judicial authority of the United Kingdom or through a liaison magistrate. The family has denounced the facts and requests, through the lawyer who defends their interests, to identify the agents of the Royal Gibraltar Police who in the early morning of that March 8 were in the patrol boat that was involved in the event "occurred in Spanish waters" and that ran over the boat occupied by three Ceutis and a Portuguese, two of them died from their injuries and the other two were injured.

They also demand that full testimony be sent of the proceedings processed by the Court of Gibraltar on the facts related to the event "consisting of police reports.

FP1/137

hospitals, forensic report of the autopsies of the deceased, expert reports of the boat run over or those that were made on the effects carried by the victims and other proceedings that appear on the facts".

It has also been requested that the agents of the Civil Guard who have instructed the proceedings, commissioned by the Court for its transfer to Gibraltar, be authorized to examine the boat run over and prepare the corresponding expert report, as well as to be delivered the effects of the victims. To facilitate this expert report, it has been requested in court that the necessary precautionary measures be adopted for the conservation of the boat that is in the port of Gibraltar.

The Private Prosecution has also requested that the only two survivors, witnesses of what happened, be heard to provide clear details of what happened. They consider that the facts constitute an alleged crime of homicide that they attribute to the "agents of the Royal Gibraltar Police" who that morning of March 8 "caused the death" of the two Ceutis "when, violently, disproportionately and without warning, they rammed and ran over with the patrol boat that captained the boat in which they traveled" the deceased and two companions.

These facts that, they insist, occurred "in Spanish waters" as evidenced by the inquiries carried out, are being investigated by the Organic Unit of the Judicial Police, Criminal Investigation Section, People area, of the Command of the Civil Guard of Algeciras.

The latest official version given by the Government of Gibraltar on these events alluded to its intention to approach the investigation "with transparency" by requesting the mediation of an independent investigation team.

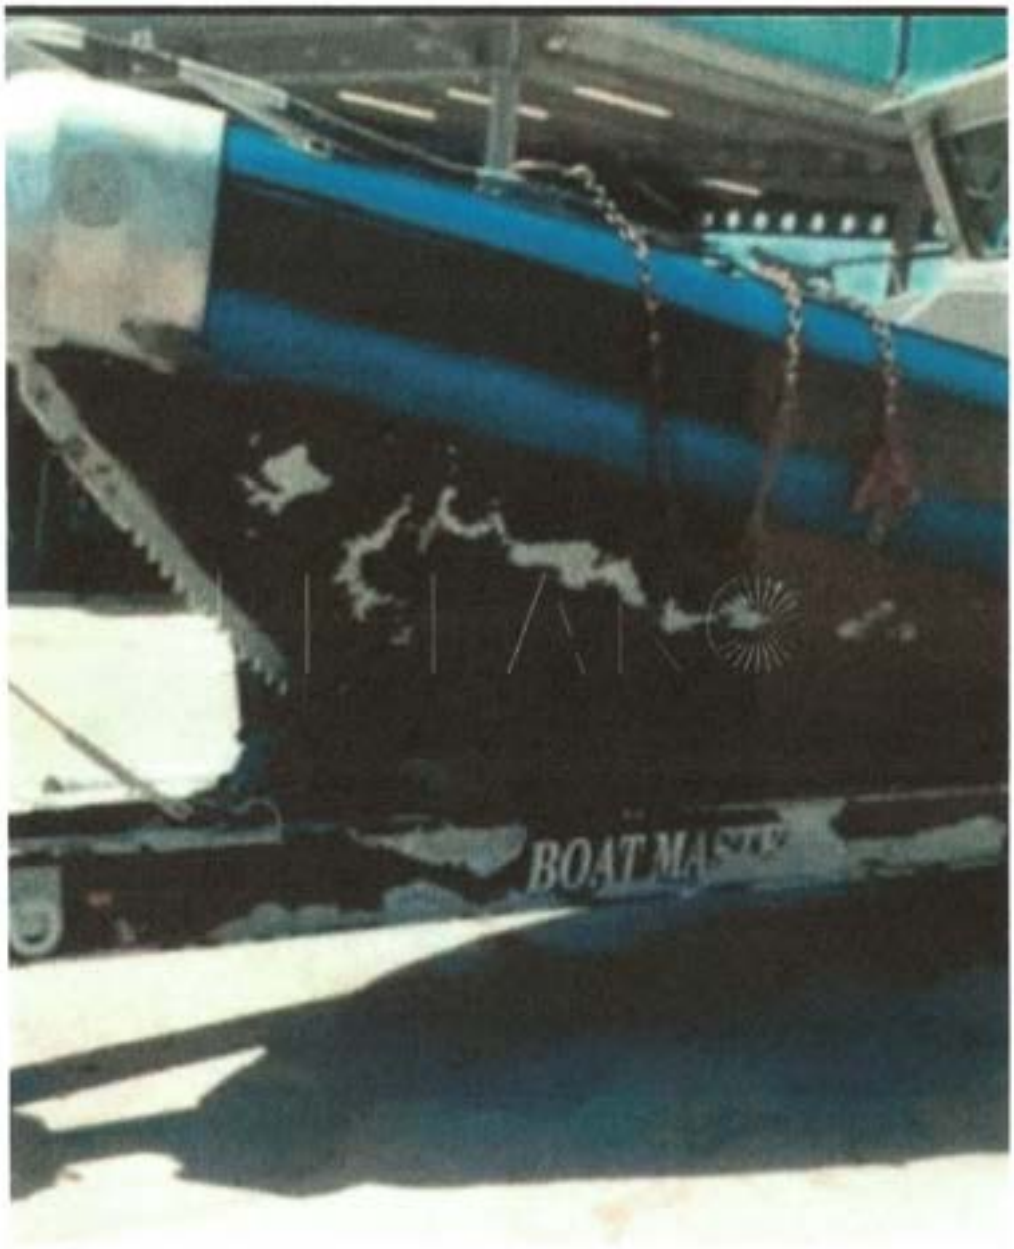
The keys

Investigation: The family wants the truth to be known
The facts that are being investigated seek to clarify what happened in the early morning of March 8 and, therefore, to bring to light all details about the death of these two Ceutis. The family of one of them has already appeared as a Private Prosecutor in the Court of La Linea that carries out the investigation. The facts are denounced in Spain and Gibraltar.

Data: Deceased and patrol boat, in Gibraltar
Both the bodies of the two Ceutis and the bodies of the injured were taken by the Gibraltar Police patrol boat to their port. Now it is requested that investigative proceedings be carried out that allow the Civil Guard, for example, to analyze the boat run over as well as access all the reports that were carried out, including those of the bodies.

March 2020: Two months
Two months after these deaths, no new information has been known about what happened or, officially, progress in the investigation.

The violence of an event in Spanish waters



The version offered by the Government of Gibraltar clashed from the beginning with the one provided by relatives of the deceased to El Faro and with which one of the survivors of this tragedy facilitated that he spoke clearly to specify that the approach did not occur in Gibraltarian waters but in Spanish waters and claim the reports of the SIVE that supported his version.

The nephew of one of the deceased and a Portuguese subject were the only survivors of this event. In conversation with El Faro, he recalled that they were sailing about two miles from land, in Spanish waters when they were warned that the Gibraltar patrol boat was approaching. "We were empty." When we "had it on top" they tried to dodge it but then they were "stopped". "The patrol car positioned itself and 'put us in' at full speed. I felt the blow on my back and the Portuguese and I fell to the ground. My uncle and the other pilot stayed there and the patrol car cut them in half," the survivor explained.

"When they hit us at no time did they light the pirulos or stop us," he added. The Private Prosecution wants the survivors to be able to testify before the court that is investigating the case in Spain, providing data that leads to the identification of the Gibraltarian agents who occupied the patrol boat. According to the testimony of Mustafa Dris' nephew, he was still alive during the journey of up to 45 minutes that ended in the port of Gibraltar. They never wanted to escape, something they would have achieved given the characteristics of their boat, equipped with 4 engines.

The violent connotations that marked this event are now trying to be clarified. Those affected highlight other events in which there have been fatalities and Gibraltar patrol boats have also been involved. Events in which not only civilians but components of the security forces have been affected, with arrests even of agents of the Civil Guard by linking them with maritime occupation of their spaces.

The last mass burial before the state of alarm was decreed

Thousands of people attended the burial of the two Ceutis run over by the Gibraltar Police patrol car. It was one of the burials with the highest attendance and precisely the last mass that was allowed before the state of alarm was decreed. The two bodies were transferred to Ceuta after the Gibraltar authorities allowed their burial in our city, following the practice of autopsies. The families claim to know the results in detail as well as the content of the police reports that were carried out. They also want the Court of La Línea that carries out the investigation of the case to allow the entry of the investigators of the Civil Guard to, among other needs, be able to analyze the 4-engine boat in which the deceased were traveling, as well as access the internal reports that were carried out.

The complaint, filed in Spain, was also filed in Gibraltar. Now it only remains to know the judicial response that will be given to the requests for the practice of investigative measures that have already been

Dear CM

As promised, herewith my thoughts ahead of our meeting tomorrow with the Chair of the GPA, Joey Britto. Joey has confirmed his attendance (09.30 at the Convent) but I have not briefed him as to why we are meeting. I'm quite happy to do so and can ask him to come in 15 minutes beforehand to give him the sense of issue (without mentioning any details of the ongoing cases). Or I could prime him by email tonight. Thoughts welcome on that point.

As to the issue, and without getting ahead of myself, Section 34 of the Police Act allows for the GPA, after consultation with us, to call upon the Commissioner to retire. Within this, Section 13.(1) (f) of the Police Act gives me the authority to call for the resignation of the Commissioner where the Authority has failed to discharge its responsibility. But you know all that!

So, as I see it and to my untrained eye, it is for the GPA to take this forward in the first instance. I agree with you that it is important we follow the process to the letter, not look to pre-judge and allow the Commissioner to put forward a defence etc - the last thing we want is to face a charge of constructive dismissal. I suggest we therefore say to Joey tomorrow that we have lost confidence in the Commissioner, set out why, and task him to consider options as to the way forward.

I've spoken to the Met Police re their investigation into the recent incident that resulted in the unfortunate deaths of two Spanish Nationals and told that a claim has been filed. Their report, for various reasons, has unfortunately not been finalised. They will also not be issuing an interim report. Having stressed the urgency, I have however been promised an update by email, including emerging conclusions, in the next few days. This of course also has to be handled sensitively.

I've also spoken to the FCO OT Police Advisor, [redacted], who is based in Miami. Andrew has offered thoughts on how best to recruit a replacement should we end up in that space. There are various options via the College of Policing, National Police Chiefs Council and the Police Superintendents Association. It is also possible to recruit via a specialist recruitment agency which whilst expensive, has been used very successfully recently including by TCI. A secondment of a serving senior office may also be possible but that would be on a full cost recovery basis.

Andrew has offered to help in drawing up a job requirements/description, suggesting it focusses on the need for transformational change management and leadership skills rather than policing skills per se. Andrew believes there would be no shortage of applicants. He recommended keeping within the UK police system rather than go for an "external" recruitment, not least given the already established synergies and links.

Much to consider and discuss tomorrow. In the meantime, I hope this helps.

Dear Governor

Thanks for the below note of your thinking. I have read papers again over the weekend.

In order to expedite my response, I have commented in red below each relevant paragraph of your email.

I am also sending you, attached, the transcript of the Commission's interview on Viewpoint on the HMICFRS Report.

Very best wishes.

Subject: THE RGP

Dear CM

As promised, herewith my thoughts ahead of our meeting tomorrow with the Chair of the GPA, Joey Britto. Joey has confirmed his attendance (09.30 at the Convent) but I have not briefed him as to why we are meeting. I'm quite happy to do so and can ask him to come in 15 minutes beforehand to give him the sense of issue (without mentioning any details of the ongoing cases). Or I could prime him by email tonight. Thoughts welcome on that point.

The sequence of events that we need to relay and the consequences for our confidence in the RGP and, in particular, in the Commissioner, are - in my respectful submission - best addressed directly in person by both of us together with Joey. The first thing I want to avoid is any suggestion that this issue is somehow a product of by-gone colonialism returning in disguise. It clearly is not and we must not allow any suggestion of that by acting other than very closely together, and being seen to act closely together.

As to the issue, and without getting ahead of myself, Section 34 of the Police Act allows for the GPA, after consultation with us, to call upon the Commissioner to retire. Within this, Section 13.(1) (f) of the Police Act gives me the authority to call for the resignation of the Commissioner where the Authority has failed to discharge its responsibility. But you know all that!

Important that we are particularly alive to the not so subtle differences between a 'retirement' and a 'resignation'. The effect may be the same but the route and signposting is markedly different. So we need to understand that the power of the Governor is much more explicit, for good reason.

The GPA "remove" (as per the heading, which is not relevant to interpretation) by inviting "retirement". They do so in the interests of policing in Gibraltar when seen through the prism of 5 key elements. We need to consider whether in our consultation with the GPA we and they believe that all OR any (note it is a disjunctive, not a conjunctive list) of the following 5 have been impacted. Additionally, then it will also be necessary to consider whether any representation the Commissioner might make after the opportunity provided for in S 34(2) for him to make representations to the GPA has kicked in.

This is my preliminary view on the five criteria on an individual (where possible) basis:

1. Efficiency: The HMICFRS Report ('the Report') could not be clearer in my view in respect of the efficiency of the RGP. A large number of the findings of the Report go directly to efficiency. I am happy to go through them with you and the Chairman of the GPA tomorrow or later as appropriate. It is, however, shocking to see the explicit reference in the first sentence of the second paragraph of the 'Overview' on page 7 of the Report to both 'efficiency' and 'effectiveness' (see 2). This makes out a clear basis for serious concern on this issue (and 2) given the rank the Commissioner held in 2016 and the fact that he has held the helm at the police since 2018.

2. Effectiveness: On this limb of the considerations, the points in re 1 above are linked, in particular in the sentence at the begining of paragraph 2 of the 'Overview'. The report is similarly laced with matters referring to this aspect of the interest of policing in Gibraltar.

3. Probity: This is best considered with 4, in my view, as it is inextricably linked to integrity.

4. Integrity: In the context of the Report (in particular its references to a failure to even understand the potential for, let alone the actual instances of, corruption) and the matters relating to the reporting to us of the events at sea involving the death of two Spanish nationals, this is an area of huge concern. I have shared with you also the reasons this week why I have lost confidence in the probity and integrity of the Commissioner himself (re James Levy QC warrants). As I told you, I believe that view is shared also by the Attorney General but with whom I have not yet discussed my Police Act concerns. (On the latter, I think we should also find time to seek Michael's advice - if he is able to carve out time given the other demands on his time (vide Brexit) - to us on this subject). This is possibly the issue of deepest concern to me as it goes to the integrity and probity of a key individual in the maintenance of the respect for the Rule of Law. Additionally, that individual, as Commissioner is at the head of the organisation that is institutionally one of the guardians of the Rule of Law alongside the Executive and the Judiciary. To an extent the police becomes a fourth branch of government in the maintenance and preservation of the Rule of Law. Without the Rule of Law we are unrecognisable as a nation. I can imagine no greater concern than this in the context of my ability to discharge my oath to the Crown and to the People as Chief Minister.

5. Independence: This area of concern is highlighted in the parts of the report that deal with the potential for corruption and, consequently, influence, which, given the answers set out in the Report, is clearly not even understood in the RGP. Again, these concerns can cut across the Rule of Law in a meaningful way.

So, as I see it and to my untrained eye, it is for the GPA to take this forward in the first instance. I agree with you that it is important we follow the process to the letter, not look to pre-judge and allow the Commissioner to put forward a defence etc - the last thing we want is to face a charge of constructive dismissal. I suggest we therefore say to Joey tomorrow that we have lost confidence in the Commissioner, set out why, and task him to consider options as to the way forward.

Yes, chronologically that is exactly right. Section 34 specifically provides that the GPA's action to "call upon" the Commissioner to retire cannot be commenced until we have BOTH been consulted and ONE of us has agreed. (The part of the clause that relates to consultation is conjunctive and the part that relates to agreement is disjunctive)

We should, however, at this stage limit ourselves to setting out our concerns. We should also seek to understanding the concerns of the GPA also, as I understand that the Chairman has been trying to speak to me about the Report in the past two weeks, but I have simply been unable to speak to him. It will then be a matter for the the GPA to decide how to act and if they were - acting independently and in their own discretion and on proper advice - to decide that they want to engage the S.34(1) power, then that is when they would need to consult BOTH of us and then seek the agreement of ONE of us. We would then also have the benefit of any representation that the Commissioner might have made under S.34(2). That would mean that any decision you might make to engage your own powers, if the GPA were not to discharge their functions properly (which I have no reason to doubt they will certainly see to do), would be better informed and would enjoy the benefit of explanations / information provided by the Commissioner in the course of his representations under S.34(2).

I've spoken to the Met Police re their investigation into the recent incident that resulted in the unfortunate deaths of two Spanish Nationals and told that a claim has been filed. Their report, for various reasons, has unfortunately not been finalised. They will also not be issuing an interim report. Having stressed the urgency, I have however been promised an update by email, including emerging conclusions, in the next few days. This of course also has to be handled sensitively.

This is concerning. The issue is a pressing one. They delay suggests we should consider progressing with the exercise of my S.15(1)(a) powers to seek a factual report or assessment. Let's discuss. I do want to see the note verbal as soon as possible. I am, in any event, required, to keep you informed of my exercise of this power. Hence my discussing with you my consideration of this upon news of the filing of the legal papers in Spain on behalf of the families of the deceased and what this can mean for the officers involved, what it says about SOPs, management and the risk of loss to the public purse and the political and sovereignty implications.

I've also spoken to the FCO OT Police Advisor, [redacted], who is based in Miami. Andrew has offered thoughts on how best to recruit a replacement should we end up in that space. There are various options via the College of Policing, National Police Chiefs Council and the Police Superintendents Association. It is also possible to recruit via a specialist recruitment agency which whilst expensive, has been used very successfully recently including by TCI. A secondment of a serving senior office may also be possible but that would be on a full cost recovery basis.

Andrew has offered to help in drawing up a job requirements/description, suggesting it focusses on the need for transformational change management and leadership skills rather than policing skills per se. Andrew believes there would be no shortage of applicants. He recommended keeping within the UK police system rather than go for an "external" recruitment, not least given the already established synergies and links.

These two final paragraphs are helpful in understanding that we can put in place a mechanism to quickly recover from this crisis if it reaches a final decision to move as we are unfortunately having to consider, subject of course to substance of the representations the GPA may receive from the Commissioner which they - and if appropriate, we - will have to fully consider and give due regard to. Much appreciated.

Much to consider and discuss tomorrow. In the meantime, I hope this helps.

Viewpoint 14.5.20 Interview with Ian McGrail

IM – Ian McGrail

JS: Jonathan Scott

IM We welcome the report in its entirety and the recommendations in a very constructive way, because we see it as a platform that will allow us to improve and develop from our current position.

IM The RGP's ever evolving. Yes, the report says that they would have expected more change and more advancement since the last time. I accept that. But it also qualifies why that hasn't been able to be carried out. Some of the reasons they offer is that of resourcing, I.T. infrastructure and other issues. So in the main, it's a report that identifies areas where both in consultation with the police authority and myself. We provided terms to Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabularies for them to look at those particular issues that we felt required looking into. You'll see that there's very few references, if any, to successes. And therefore, that is the type of inspection that we submitted ourselves to. There's no point in asking them to come and inspect our detection rates for argument's sake, because we are more than satisfied and they are too, that our detection of crime is quite high. So I've taken it in as indeed my command team colleagues have taken it in a very constructive way.

JS OK. So you mentioned resources and improving your information, communications technology or that that would be a reason for these suggested areas of improvement from the previous report not having been advanced as much as the auditors would have liked and I'm sure as you would have liked. Are you going to use this report to try to lobby for more resource, better resources, more finances from the Gibraltar Government?

IM The government has been very supportive towards us. And in fact, at the time when the inspectors were here in October, we were already in the middle of that uplift that the business case that we submitted to government had produced. So we are we've already assumed the first tranche of that uplift and there's another two, it was going to be rolled out over a three year phased out period. And we are now in the second year. But obviously understanding that we live in the real world and that COVID has slowed everything down. So we are looking at ways of means to readjusting our intent of boosting those resources in accordance with the agreed principles of the business case that government agreed to.

JS So does that mean that you're not necessarily counting on getting those resources?

IM I do not know yet. I mean, all our own energy and time is now dedicated to coming out of this lockdown and returning to some form of normality. I'm sure that I'm going to be engaging with the police authority and the Minister for Justice and government and to see where we can pick up where we were.

JS But can you confirm that you are now counting crime in the same way as it would be counted in the UK?

IM Indeed, indeed. That was one of the recommendations that we took on board from the previous inspection. And we are now compliant to the hilt with that in terms of counting rules, Home Office counting rules. And again, I have to harp on the fact that even with those new counting rules in place, our efforts and the efforts of the rank and file of the RGP are sort of showing way above any of the levels of detection in the United Kingdom. So when we are being compared apples with apples, even though the report says that there's not being much comparison drawn, you will read that many of it is based on UK, England and Wales practice. At this point, I want to also without meaning to sound defensive by all means but sounding the fact that blowing our own trumpet, that we excel and we have admirable detection rates compared to the UK.

JS The inspectors said they had reservations about the police's budgeting.

IM The inspectors find it difficult to understand or not difficult to understand but finding it not the most appropriate model of funding for a modern day police service as they apply a devolved budget to all the 42 different Home County forces in the United Kingdom, they would want to see something similar to that happening in Gibraltar. It's got, it's got its advantages. But look, at this moment in time, the RGP is well-funded. The government has always, both this one and in previous administrations has always supported the RGP in the funding of, even when we go over and above our budget for exigencies. So they do not see that as good business sense. They would want to see us managing through the police authority, the budget ourselves. So in effect would have devolved budget would do, for argument's sake, is not commit us to a year's planning beforehand. Although you forecast so much of your intended expenditure and recurrent expenditure, the devolved budget would allow the chief officer in my case, in this case myself here, to decide on a yearly basis where that money is going to be spent. So if I have a crisis with regards to recruitment and I want to invest in the recruiting 10 bodies rather than buying five patrol cars or six patrol cars or vice versa, that autonomy is allowed with the devolved budget system. Whilst the current structures which are applied to all the public sector, I might say, it's that it's regulated in law in Gibraltar of how public sector is funded through government and that is not so flexible. And that's the difference between them. That is where the HMIC inspectorate feels that there could be more scope for devolved financing.

JS So I am sure that you would be keen to point out the police's independence, but effectively the devolution of that budget to you would give you even greater autonomy and independence.

IM It does in a way, but it doesn't come with a devolved budget on its own because it could vary. The government could very easily in the same way as they apply to the UK, allow their budget for the police service and that the police service have already built up reserves and so forth. They can do a good sort of account of themselves for and take stock and take hits. We are not here for a profit. We cannot make any profit and therefore what we make, any efficiency that we make along the year return to government coffers so-to-speak. So it's a different model. But having said that, look, whenever myself or in previous years, other commissioners, have made bids for supplementary funding for projects, for exigencies that have appeared government has also always been very supportive. So they don't see that, the HMIC does not see that feature as encouraging us to be more efficient simply because we knock on government's door and they respond. It's say a positive for us which has been turned into a negative by HMIC and I can understand their reasoning, don't get me wrong, it's not that I'm knocking it, but it's a situation where they feel that efficiencies could be made in a different way.

JS It would give you that a little bit more incentive to do so if you're self-managing. The inspectors thought that you're doing a lot of work that arguably could or maybe should be done by other organisations and that you're doing work which is not, strictly speaking, within your remit.

IM We don't sit comfortable that expensive and expensive resources and commodities like our police officers are not exploited to their limits. So having an officer directing traffic on a frontier queue for me, is not money's worth, while spending in that regard, if you know what I mean. I'm not saying that the job is not important but he could be allocated, he or she could be allocated a core policing task as opposed to a more traffic management task. The same applies with our detention officers. We have officers in our custody suites who are fully sworn, fully empowered to act as police officers but that role does not necessarily have to be carried out by a police officer as long as there is a custody sergeant, which is what is required in law there, his assistant, the jailer, can also be a unsworn, non-police officer. And there are other rules within the service which are lobbying continuously to have changed. They pick it up and that didn't concern me too much in the reports.

JS Among the six areas of improvement in which the RGP has fallen short of the mark, according to the inspectors. They talk about the treatment of vulnerable and repeat victims. And they suggest that perhaps you might want to try to implement locally the domestic violence prevention orders.

IM Domestic violence featured as probably one of our highest risk areas in the last policing year. The Minister for Justice is the lead. She's taking a very leading role in this and I'm meeting her to complement her strategy on domestic violence. Certainly we want to improve our, all our abilities and capabilities to ensure that domestic violence doesn't show the level that it is showing now and has shown in the past where, just to give you an example, at least two or three or the most serious of cases that we've dealt with have arisen from domestic violence incidents. So we are very aware of that and so any measures that can assist us and by default has an impact in the community, we will follow through.

JS In respect of adopting the UK's code of practice for victims of crime. Is that something that you think is possible, likely?

IM That requires a sort of key stakeholder approach? It is not only in position on the RGP, the law suggests that it involves the Courts, the Care Agency, the Office of the Attorney-General's Chambers and so forth, and the RGP is and other partner in that framework. We are lobbying for that to happen but irrespective of whether that progresses with the other stakeholders or not, the RGP will proceed on its own until such time as the others can join up and keep on that journey.

JS So you will adopt the UK code of practice?

IM We will adopt the principles of it and adapt it to Gibraltar's needs. We haven't got all the mechanisms that the UK public service have in that regard, so we will adopt the principles of it adopting it for local needs.

JS Most of the interview, I think all of it so far has focussed on part 1 of the report. Part two arguably might give you an even bigger headache because it is, I think, internal and looking at things which are within your control. I mean, you can only do so much to try to get more financing from the government. But let's put some of the issues that I think the inspectors think the commissioner could bring, bring about improvements in. Let's talk about corruption, the risk of countering corruption inside the force. The inspectors express concern that not enough is being done and that perhaps your officers and your senior team are not alive enough to the possibility of corruption existing in your force.

IM I accept that perhaps there is like in all the other areas, room for improvement in that regard. What the report doesn't say is that they've identified any issues or they've asked is about systems and processes in place. Look, the RGP has never had an anti-corruption capability. That we are getting inspected through these with a fine tooth comb and highlight areas where you can mitigate the small pockets that could arise, of course, I welcome that because it'll give us more awareness. It will give us more focus on what things to look out for.

JS It says that it doesn't really appear to be a concern for the RGP, despite an environment that, according to the inspectors, might permit or even promote corruption.

IM Well, there was some from what I understand, there were some views expressed by other officers that the small topography and the demographics of Gibraltar and the population, the dense population, that would expose any potential corruption far in an easier way than if it was a bigger jurisdiction. The team did not agree with that. We respect that but the fact that we are complacent is not something that we take kindly to because we know that we are not ...

JS You disagree with that?

IM I'm not going to say I disagree because I respect the findings but we have to give a lot of context to this, because the history speaks for itself. And we've had numerous anti-corruption interventions of serving police officers that are no longer in service, way back to over 20, 30 years, at least since I've known it. And never, ever has corruption been swept under the carpet here or any indication of any corrupt activity swept, on the country. If I can reassure the public is that when there is a whiff in the New Mole House of any potential corrupt officer, we ourselves go to town more on that then what we would on a normal criminal because we know the impact this would have, the adverse impact this would have on public respect towards the police and public opinion towards police.

JS They're asking you to make recommendations by November. Are you satisfied with that timeline?

IM To set ourselves up in that way, as they are suggesting, requires training and we are looking at sending our officers to commander's courses for anti-corruption. It requires resources and therefore we will have to readjust ourselves to accommodate for that. It will also require buy in from the frontline itself, from the officers themselves. They will have to understand that what we are doing is for the better of policing in Gibraltar, for the better of the organisation.

JS OK, so so you're going to take action, but you're not sure whether it's going to be by November?

IM Well, we've got a timeline which has now set a roadmap for the recommendations to kick into place. The seed has been sort of planted. We are living with this every day. So we are under sort of a commitment to the Police Authority to Gibraltar. We are committed to the service and to Gibraltar, that we will deliver.

JS You mentioned the blame culture, perceived blame culture. There is a perception the report highlighted among junior officers that sometimes senior officers were too quick to apportion blame when things go wrong. How do you feel about that?

IM It's a perception that we are keen to address and it's that, it is a perception because the report says that they did not find evidence of that but perceptions are equally important. So that's one of the recommendations that we have completed even before the report came out, because we had an idea that it was heading this way and therefore, we've put the systems in place, new systems in place after extensive consultation to ensure that people have their say, their workforce have their say in an environment where they feel protected. We all make mistakes and we will make mistakes. It's the type of mistake and the level of those mistakes or whether there is negligence involved or malice involved that will have to be dealt with accordingly. And therefore, that's why discipline regulations exist, disciplinary processes exist. So the systems that we are now putting in place are designed to distinguish between firm leadership and this blame culture, bullying, sort of that attracts bullying connotations.

JS In respect of managing risk, the inspectors seem to think that the RGP hadn't recognised the potential that exists for your own employees. You've got a large workforce, for them to perpetrate sexual violence. That's worrying.

IM This subject area arises from problems that the UK police service encountered a few years ago. The RGP has never been inspected or even considered for this matter. Neither had the UK police until there was a cause for it to be reviewed when officers were engaging in inappropriate behaviour with informants and witnesses or victims and they thought that that was not proper practice. In Gibraltar what it says, the report says, is that officers are aware that it is unethical to engage in that type of behaviour, to abuse your position for such and purposes. They are aware what they couldn't articulate to the officers is what they need to be looking out for. Now, look, I understand that inspectors can be, seem somewhat overbearing when you're asking questions or that you don't really expect them along the lines of this sort but if an officer knows that this is unethical, how does he know that it is unethical? He knows it is unethical because he is feeling the vibes and he can see what's happening, he's unethical. Otherwise, he wouldn't see it as unethical. But there is a checklist that we will be applying and there will be training that we will be applying.

JS They've asked you to improve your vetting process for new recruits and also for officers seeking promotion. Is that something you think you can do?

IM There is already a level of vetting which we carry out and we are going to develop on that. We are going to be more intrusive.

JS There are positive findings. The inspectors feel that the workforce is professional, committed, enthusiastic about the police work and I suppose that must be gratifying for you to hear that the officers are proud to serve.

IM Not only do they say that the service is professional, the officers are professional, that they are enthusiastic and committed. They also say that the RGP provide a good service to Gibraltar. Now, that has to be the counterbalance to all this ineffectivity that is been raised from the points that we've asked to be inspected on. Just to reinforce that point is that you don't have any ineffective police service that, as I said, initially detects crime at 54 percent. You don't have an ineffective police service that reduces overall crime, reduces overall crime at 8.5 percent per year. You don't have a police service, an ineffective police service that reduces repeat victimization by 33 percent. And you don't have an ineffective police service that reduces repeat offending by 33 percent. And finally, as another example, you don't have an ineffective police service that enjoys the high levels of public satisfaction.

JS You don't want to challenge the finding of the inspectorate, but you think that people need to look at those statistics as well as the report?

IM Absolutely. I think the report has to be correlated with the outcomes that the service delivers. And when you read that, that is the objective picture that you get, the objective reality that you get out of it all. Look, we are going to embrace as I've said, we are going to embrace all the recommendations because I am confident that as soon as we address them, we are going to come out better at the other side and hopefully then the service will be even better delivered to the community and to our own officers.

JS Commissioner, we've spent quite a lot of time talking about areas that the RGP could improve. But I guess out of fairness to you, it must be said that you're quite an exceptional organisation and that you invite HMIC to come in and review areas that you think need improving and you ask them for their suggestions as to as to how you could improve.

IM Absolutely. I think we value that we submit ourselves to this external audit for the benefits of progression and development. It would be very easy not to call them in and to remain in a plateau but why do that if we are aspiring to develop and improve? Why? Why hide away from submitting yourself to that type of audit.

Dear Chief Minister

Thank you for such a comprehensive response and for attaching a transcript of the Commissioner's Viewpoint interview which I have now read. I have also just watched the interview on television.

I agree fully with your detailed responses to my remarks and in particular on the importance of a joint approach which, as you state, we must demonstrate at all times. As I hope I have evidenced during my 3 1/2 years here, working cooperatively and collegiately are two of my guiding principles.

Thank you also for your preliminary views on the five criteria with I concur and in particular on the issue of integrity.

I also agree that we should take the AG's advice at the appropriate time.

I will impress again upon the Met Police the importance of their report which we need to see as quickly as possible.

I will also dig out the 2015 HMIC inspection report not least for comparative reasons but also in view of the position the Commissioner held at the time.

As agreed, much to talk through and consider.

Dear Governor

Thanks for the below note of your thinking. I have read papers again over the weekend.

In order to expedite my response, I have commented in red below each relevant paragraph of your email.

I am also sending you, attached, the transcript of the Commission's interview on Viewpoint on the HMICFRS Report.

Very best wishes.

Subject: THE RGP

Dear CM

As promised, herewith my thoughts ahead of our meeting tomorrow with the Chair of the GPA, Joey Britto. Joey has confirmed his attendance (09.30 at the Convent) but I have not briefed him as to why we are meeting. I'm quite happy to do so and can ask him to come in 15 minutes beforehand to give him the sense of issue (without mentioning any details of the ongoing cases). Or I could prime him by email tonight. Thoughts welcome on that point.

The sequence of events that we need to relay and the consequences for our confidence in the RGP and, in particular, in the Commissioner, are - in my respectful submission - best addressed directly in person by both of us together with Joey. The first thing I want to avoid is any suggestion that this issue is somehow a product of by-gone colonialism returning in disguise. It clearly is not and we must not allow any suggestion of that by acting other than very closely together, and being seen to act closely together.

As to the issue, and without getting ahead of myself, Section 34 of the Police Act allows for the GPA, after consultation with us, to call upon the Commissioner to retire. Within this, Section 13.(1) (f) of the Police Act gives me the authority to call for the resignation of the Commissioner where the Authority has failed to discharge its responsibility. But you know all that!

Important that we are particularly alive to the not so subtle differences between a 'retirement' and a 'resignation'. The effect may be the same but the route and signposting is markedly different. So we need to understand that the power of the Governor is much more explicit, for good reason.

The GPA "remove" (as per the heading, which is not relevant to interpretation) by inviting "retirement". They do so in the interests of policing in Gibraltar when seen through the prism of 5 key elements. We need to consider whether in our consultation with the GPA we and they believe that all OR any (note it is a disjunctive, not a conjunctive list) of the following 5 have been impacted. Additionally, then it will also be necessary to consider whether any representation the Commissioner might make after the opportunity provided for in S.34(2) for him to make representations to the GPA has kicked in.

This is my preliminary view on the five criteria on an individual (where possible) basis:

1. Efficiency: The HMICFRS Report ('the Report') could not be clearer in my view in respect of the efficiency of the RGP. A large number of the findings of the Report go directly to efficiency. I am happy to go through them with you and the Chairman of the GPA tomorrow or later as appropriate. It is, however, shocking to see the explicit reference in the first sentence of the second paragraph of the 'Overview' on page 7 of the Report to both 'efficiency' and 'effectiveness' (see 2). This makes out a clear basis for serious concern on this issue (and 2) given the rank the Commissioner held in 2016 and the fact that he has held the helm at the police since 2018.

2. Effectiveness: On this limb of the considerations, the points in re 1 above are linked, in particular in the sentence at the begining of paragraph 2 of the 'Overview'. The report is similarly laced with matters referring to this aspect of the interest of policing in Gibraltar.

3. Probity: This is best considered with 4, in my view, as it is inextricably linked to integrity.

4. Integrity: In the context of the Report (in particular its references to a failure to even understand the potential for, let alone the actual instances of, corruption) and the matters relating to the reporting to us of the events at sea involving the death of two Spanish nationals, this is an area of huge concern. I have shared with you also the reasons this week why I have lost confidence in the probity and integrity of the Commissioner himself (re James Levy QC warrants). As I told you, I believe that view is shared also by the Attorney General but with whom I have not yet discussed my Police Act concerns. (On the latter, I think we should also find time to seek Michael's advice - if he is able to carve out time given the other demands on his time (vide Brexit) - to us on this subject). This is possibly the issue of deepest concern to me as it goes to the integrity and probity of a key individual in the maintenance of the respect for the Rule of Law. Additionally, that individual, as Commissioner is at the head of the organisation that is institutionally one of the guardians of the Rule of Law alongside the Executive and the Judiciary. To an extent the police becomes a fourth branch of government in the maintenance and preservation of the Rule of Law. Without the Rule of Law we are unrecognisable as a nation. I can imagine no greater concern than this in the context of my ability to discharge my oath to the Crown and to the People as Chief Minister.

5. Independence: This area of concern is highlighted in the parts of the report that deal with the potential for corruption and, consequently, influence, which, given the answers set out in the Report, is clearly not even understood in the RGP. Again, these concerns can cut across the Rule of Law in a meaningful way.

So, as I see it and to my untrained eye, it is for the GPA to take this forward in the first instance. I agree with you that it is important we follow the process to the letter, not look to pre-judge and allow the Commissioner to put forward a defence etc - the last thing we want is to face a charge of constructive dismissal. I suggest we therefore say to Joey tomorrow that we have lost confidence in the Commissioner, set out why, and task him to consider options as to the way forward.

Yes, chronologically that is exactly right. Section 34 specifically provides that the GPA's action to "call upon" the Commissioner to retire cannot be commenced until we have BOTH been consulted and ONE of us has agreed. (The part of the clause that relates to consultation is conjunctive and the part that relates to agreement is disjunctive)

We should, however, at this stage limit ourselves to setting out our concerns. We should also seek to understanding the concerns of the GPA also, as I understand that the Chairman has been trying to speak to me about the Report in the past two weeks, but I have simply been unable to speak to him. It will then be a matter for the the GPA to decide how to act and if they were - acting independently and in their own discretion and on proper advice - to decide that they want to engage the S.34(1) power, then that is when they would need to consult BOTH of us and then seek the agreement of ONE of us. We would then also have the benefit of any representation that the Commissioner might have made under S.34(2). That would mean that any decision you might make to engage your own powers, if the GPA were not to discharge their functions properly (which I have no reason to doubt they will certainly see to do), would be better informed and would enjoy the benefit of explanations / information provided by the Commissioner in the course of his representations under S.34(2).

I've spoken to the Met Police re their investigation into the recent incident that resulted in the unfortunate deaths of two Spanish Nationals and told that a claim has been filed. Their report, for various reasons, has unfortunately not been finalised. They will also not be issuing an interim report. Having stressed the urgency, I have however been promised an update by email, including emerging conclusions, in the next few days. This of course also has to be handled sensitively.

This is concerning. The issue is a pressing one. They delay suggests we should consider progressing with the exercise of my S.15(1)(a) powers to seek a factual report or assessment. Let's discuss. I do want to see the note verbal as soon as possible. I am, in any event, required, to keep you informed of my exercise of this power. Hence my discussing with you my consideration of this upon news of the filing of the legal papers in Spain on behalf of the families of the deceased and what this can mean for the officers involved, what it says about SOPs, management and the risk of loss to the public purse and the political and sovereignty implications.

I've also spoken to the FCO OT Police Advisor [redacted], who is based in Miami. Andrew has offered thoughts on how best to recruit a replacement should we end up in that space. There are various options via the College of Policing, National Police Chiefs Council and the Police Superintendents Association. It is also possible to recruit via a specialist recruitment agency which whilst expensive, has been used very successfully recently including by TCI. A secondment of a serving senior office may also be possible but that would be on a full cost recovery basis.

Andrew has offered to help in drawing up a job requirements/description, suggesting it focusses on the need for transformational change management and leadership skills rather than policing skills per se. Andrew believes there would be no shortage of applicants. He recommended keeping within the UK police system rather than go for an "external" recruitment, not least given the already established synergies and links.

These two final paragraphs are helpful in understanding that we can put in place a mechanism to quickly recover from this crisis if it reaches a final decision to move as we are unfortunately having to consider, subject of course to substance of the representations the GPA may receive from the Commissioner which they - and if appropriate, we - will have to fully consider and give due regard to. Much appreciated.

Much to consider and discuss tomorrow. In the meantime, I hope this helps.

Regards

Nick

Dear Attorney General,

The Commissioner of Police is in receipt of correspondence with regard to a claim for damages following a collision at sea on the 8th of March this year. I understand that the Director of Public Prosecutions has raised the issue of who should represent the RGP to defend the claim. The DPP and I met yesterday to discuss whether it would be appropriate for the Office of Criminal Prosecution and Litigation to do so. We concluded it would not for the following reasons which potentially apply:

1) Prosecuting European Arrest Warrants issued by Spain to extradite the officers crewing the vessel.
2) Prosecuting criminal charges against the officers crewing the vessel.
3) Prosecuting disciplinary charges against the officers crewing the vessel.
4) Defending civil actions against the organisation or the individual officers in Spain.

Should you agree with our views I would be grateful for your authority to appoint counsel and your advice on who would be best placed to represent the RGP. Finally our experience is that claims made against the RGP have been generally handled by Government. Do you wish this to be the case in this instance or should we manage it ourselves together with appointed counsel?

Dear Michael

Thank you for copying me into the below.

I think it is entirely inappropriate for this matter not to have been raised with me in the first instance by the Commissioner.

This matter raises issues of fundamental human rights, the right to life, potential payment of huge amounts of damages, the potential extradition and liberty of serving police officers being at stake, the issue of Standard Operating Procedures which may be in place and the management thereof. All of that is in addition to the huge potential political exposure that arises for Gibraltar as a result thereof and the concomitant (and dangerous) issues of sovereignty and the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea.

Indeed, it is difficult to think of an issue as fundamental as this affecting the RGP, certainly in the time I have been in office. There is no consideration in the email below of claims or offences going beyond "the officers crewing the vessel", which is also, in my view an issue that may also need further consideration.

As you know, it comes against the backdrop of the very unflattering report from the HMICFRS.

I am therefore surprised and greatly disappointed that these issues have not been the subject of a detailed submission to me by the Commissioner in respect of the events in question and the issues which now arise.

I shall therefore be writing directly to the Commissioner on this and all other aspects of this matter. In the interim, I do not authorise the incurring of any expenditure in briefing out of this matter at this stage.

Dear CM –
I refer to the below thread which includes you response to the AG and which has been forwarded to me.

You are evidently very disappointed but I want to reassure you that it has never been my intention to withhold anything from you concerning this very serious matter. I provided you with an overview on the day of the incident, then engaged with the AG as per your suggestion and have been doing so ever since. I will hopefully be in a better position to brief you on the full details of the incident once I receive the report of the findings of independent investigation team we called in. This team had to return early to the UK because of the COVID-19 crisis and because of the lockdown in UK, they have been unable to progress the matter as expeditiously as we all would have wanted.

The letter from local counsel representing the families and suggesting a future claim for damages was only received a few days ago which is what triggered our enquiry with the DPP only yesterday concerning legal representation.

I am of course available to discuss all the points you allude to at your earliest convenience.

Dear Governor

Please see below which I have just received from the CoP. Given the seriousness of the matter, I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss with you my intended response. I consider this is a trigger the only appropriate response to which will be the exercise of my powers under s.15(1)(a).

Happy to speaker later or tomorrow (after I have recorded my ministerial statement).

Best wishes

Dear CM –

I refer to the below thread which includes you response to the AG and which has been forwarded to me.

You are evidently very disappointed but I want to reassure you that it has never been my intention to withhold anything from you concerning this very serious matter. I provided you with an overview on the day of the incident, then engaged with the AG as per your suggestion and have been doing so ever since. I will hopefully be in a better position to brief you on the full details of the incident once I receive the report of the findings of independent investigation team we called in. This team had to return early to the UK because of the COVID-19 crisis and because of the lockdown in UK, they have been unable to progress the matter as expeditiously as we all would have wanted.

The letter from local counsel representing the families and suggesting a future claim for damages was only received a few days ago which is what triggered our enquiry with the DPP only yesterday concerning legal representation.

I am of course available to discuss all the points you allude to at your earliest convenience.

Best wishes

Ian

Dear Michael

Thank you for copying me into the below.

I think it is entirely inappropriate for this matter not to have been raised with me in the first instance by the Commissioner.

This matter raises issues of fundamental human rights, the right to life, potential payment of huge amounts of damages, the potential extradition and liberty of serving police officers being at stake, the issue of Standard Operating Procedures which may be in place and the management thereof. All of that is in addition to the huge potential political exposure that arises for Gibraltar as a result thereof and the concomitant (and dangerous) issues of sovereignty and the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea.

Indeed, it is difficult to think of an issue as fundamental as this affecting the RGP, certainly in the time I have been in office. There is no consideration in the email below of claims or offences going beyond "the officers crewing the vessel", which is also, in my view an issue that may also need further consideration.

As you know, it comes against the backdrop of the very unflattering report from the HMICFRS.

I am therefore surprised and greatly disappointed that these issues have not been the subject of a detailed submission to me by the Commissioner in respect of the events in question and the issues which now arise.

I shall therefore be writing directly to the Commissioner on this and all other aspects of this matter. In the interim, I do not authorise the incurring of any expenditure in briefing out of this matter at this stage.

Please refer both the DPP and Superintendent Yeats to my response.

Best wishes

Dear Attorney General,

The Commissioner of Police is in receipt of correspondence with regard to a claim for damages following a collision at sea on the 8th of March this year. I understand that the Director of Public Prosecutions has raised the issue of who should represent the RGP to defend the claim. The DPP and I met yesterday to discuss whether it would be appropriate for the Office of Criminal Prosecution and Litigation to do so. We concluded it would not for the following reasons which potentially apply:

1) Prosecuting European Arrest Warrants issued by Spain to extradite the officers crewing the vessel.

2) Prosecuting criminal charges against the officers crewing the vessel.

3) Prosecuting disciplinary charges against the officers crewing the vessel.

4) Defending civil actions against the organisation or the individual officers in Spain.

Should you agree with our views I would be grateful for your authority to appoint counsel and your advice on who would be best placed to represent the RGP. Finally our experience is that claims made against the RGP have been generally handled by Government. Do you wish this to be the case in this instance or should we manage it ourselves together with appointed counsel?

Best regards,

Cathal

THE CHIEF MINISTER

The Commissioner of Police
The Royal Gibraltar Police
New Mole House
Gibraltar

21st May 2020

By email: Ian.McGrail@royalgib.police.gi

Dear Commissioner

REQUIREMENT TO PROVIDE A FACTUAL REPORT THE POLICE ACT 2006, Section.15 (1)(a)

I write in respect of the incident at sea which occurred in the early hours of 8th March 2020 and your subsequent email of yesterday's date.

I. THE FACTS

The incident in question involved marine assets and officers of the Royal Gibraltar Police ('RGP') and resulted in the death of two Spanish nationals and the injury of another two individuals, one of whom is also a Spanish national and the fourth of Portuguese nationality ('the Incident').

The vessel in which the deceased and injured were travelling was not loaded with narcotics. The vessel was a 14 metre Semi Rigid Hull Inflatable Boat (or RHIB) of the type commonly employed in drugs trafficking activity, powered by four 300hp outboard engines and fitted with radar equipment. This type of vessel is a prohibited import in Gibraltar.

The initial reporting of the Incident would appear to show that it occurred outside of British Gibraltar Territorial Waters ('BGTW'). Your own initial report to me suggested that the events may indeed have occurred as far as 6 nautical miles to the East of Gibraltar (at the height of the runway). I understand that reports now suggest that the location of the incident may be different and, notably, further away from BGTW. It is not clear if the RHIB and its occupants were ever in BGTW and, if so, for how long and in what location/s.

II. THE POWERS OF THE GOVERNMENT

In writing this letter in response to your emails I am conscious of the powers set out in Section 15 of the Act.

Section 15 (1) provides that the Chief Minister may exercise the following powers on behalf of the Government, namely:

> '(a) to require factual or assessment reports from the Force or the Authority on any policing matter.'

Section 15 (2) provides that:

> 'the Chief Minister will keep the Governor informed of any exercise by him of a power under the section and shall provide to the Governor a copy of any report produced as a consequence of thereof.'.

For that reason I am copying this letter to His Excellency the Governor, Nick Pyle, and also to the Chairman of the Gibraltar Police Authority, Joseph Britto. I have already discussed with both of them that I will be sending you this letter.

III. REASONS FOR EXERCISE OF SECTION 15 POWERS

This REQUIREMENT to provide a factual report is addressed by me to the Royal Gibraltar Police under the provisions of Section 15(1)(a) of the Police Act 2006 as a result of:

(a) reports in the Spanish and Gibraltar media to the effect that a civil claim for damages arising from illegal homicide has been commenced against the Royal Gibraltar Police in the Spanish Courts (filed in the autonomous region of Ceuta) by relatives of the 2 Spanish citizens who were killed in a chase recently 'off Gibraltar' involving officers and marine assets of the RGP;

(b) questions (see attached, Annex 1) posed in the Spanish Congress of Deputies in which the Parliamentary Group 'Vox' ask about a number of aspects of the Incident;

(c) an answer (see attached, Annex 2) provided in the Spanish Congress of Deputies in which the Spanish Government responds to the questions referred to at (b) above;

(d) a diplomatic Note Verbale transmitted by the Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs, the European Union and Co-operation to the Embassy of the United Kingdom in Madrid on the 9th March 2020 which sets out a protest in respect of the actions of the RGP in relation to the Incident, reserves the possibility of the adoption of such measures as the seriousness of the Incident merit and calls on the British authorities to take such necessary precautions to ensure that incidents of this nature do not recur; and

(e) email communications, culminating in an email from you addressed to me dated 20th May 2020 (see attached, Annex 3), in which it has been brought to my attention – initially by the Attorney General - that you are seeking funding for legal representation in a potential plethora of multi-jurisdictional legal proceedings, both civil and potentially also criminal, arising out the Incident. This funding was initially requested from the Director of Public Prosecutions, and subsequently the Attorney General, neither of whose roles involve the making of such decisions in respect of the commitment of public funds.

As a result, in light of the above, I have no confidence that you have expeditiously provided me with all the information and documentation that I should have been provided with in the context of the seriousness of the events in question.

In particular, I have no confidence that either the Government or the office of the Governor (with whom I have discussed this matter at length) have had the timely candor and transparency we would have expected from you in the circumstances arising in respect of the Incident.

Therefore, in exercise of my power under Section 15(1) (a) of the Act, I hereby on behalf of the Government require the RGP to provide a Factual Report in respect of the events in question as provided for in Part VI below.

IV. THE TERRITORIAL & JURISDICTIONAL ISSUE

In particular, I wish to record that the Government is concerned about the fact that the Incident has occurred outside of the BGTW. In this respect, I refer you to Part 4 of the Police Act 2006 ('the Act'), 'Constitution and Employment of the Force'.

Section 29 of the Act sets out that '[t]he force shall be employed in and throughout Gibraltar...'.

It is in the nature of laws made by the Gibraltar Parliament that they cannot be extraterritorial, although that rule is subject to the principle that any such laws which purport to have an extraterritorial operation, application or effect will be valid if they bear a substantial relationship to the peace, order and good government of the territory concerned, whether generally or in respect of particular subjects[1].

As a result the establishment of the force and the composition of its officers[2] has, in principle, effect only in and in respect of the territory of Gibraltar, although it may be arguable that the extraterritoriality extends in the limited way set out in the preceding paragraph.

Under public international law, in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, the United Kingdom, as the administering power in Gibraltar, has claimed 3 nm of territorial sea for Gibraltar. The territory

---

[1] Policing may come into this ambit. In Croft v Dunphy [1933] AC 156, 162 the Court decided that: '[W]hatever be the limits of territorial waters in the international sense, it has long been recognised that for certain purposes, notably those of police, revenue, public health and fisheries, a state may enact laws affecting the seas surrounding its coasts to a distance seaward which exceeds the ordinary limits of its territory.' The principle was further considered and applied in Australian authorities such as Bonser v La Macchia (1969) 122 CLR 177, 189 and 224–5; New South Wales v The Commonwealth of Australia (1975) 135 CLR 337; Robinson v Western Australian Museum (1977) 138 CLR 283, although the Court of Appeal erred in the present case in thinking that the legislation was upheld in the last case. Broadly, a subordinate legislature may legislate with extraterritorial effect where the legislation has in nature and effect a sufficiently substantial relationship with the peace, order and good government of the relevant territory and is for a purpose for which the subordinate legislature has power to legislate.

[2] Provided for in Section 30(1).

of Gibraltar, therefore, does not extend beyond 3 nm East of the runway. It is, therefore, apparent that the ostensible jurisdiction of the RGP does not extend to the area in which the Incident occurred.

For that reason, it is important for the Government to determine on what basis the RGP were operating beyond that distance from Gibraltar, especially when the equipment now provided by Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar enables officers to know their exact location whilst out on operations at sea.

Additionally, it will be important to determine whether or not the RGP were operating inside the Spanish Territorial Sea, as alleged by the response of the Spanish Government at Annex 2, at the invitation of, or with the express or tacit consent (or both, or neither) of the Spanish law enforcement agencies (and if so which and how was this communicated to the RGP). Please note that the position set out in the answer to the question in the Spanish Parliament states that there was no such tacit or express invitation.

V. THE CONCERNS OF THE GOVERNMENT

In all of the circumstances set out above the Incident raises many concerns for the Government and for me as Chief Minister and as Minister for Finance.

First and foremost I am concerned about the physical and mental welfare of the officers of the RGP in question that night and of the potential for multi-jurisdictional legal action against them. The Government will agree to fund the legal advice and representation that the individual officers may require on a 'without prejudice' basis and on such other basis or conditions which the Attorney General may consider and advise may be appropriate. The Government will also assist with any support required in respect of the mental or physical health of the officers in question.

I want to specifically record that the Government fully supports our frontline police officers, especially those who risk their own lives at sea in keeping Gibraltar safe and keeping drug traffickers from using our waters to transship narcotics.

In particular, however, the Incident:

(a) may give rise to breaches of the Act and to very large potential claims in damages against HMGoG which will be funded by the tax payers of Gibraltar;

(b) raises serious issues as to the operational welfare of officers of the RGP at sea;

(c) additionally given the sensitivities of the relationship between Gibraltar, Spain and the United Kingdom, I am concerned that the events in question can provide grounds for a serious setback for Gibraltar in the context of the relationship with our Spanish counterparts at a political level – as evidenced in the answer provided in by the Spanish Government to the Vox parliamentary question and the note verbale presented to the United Kingdom by the Spanish government;

(d) moreover, given the contents of the paragraphs on territoriality above, the Government is concerned that officers of the RGP who find themselves operating outside of the territory of Gibraltar may in fact not have the powers or protections provided for them in the Act; and

(e) finally, the Government is concerned about the sovereignty implications for Gibraltar and the United Kingdom. I will not further detail the nature of those concerns here as they are particularly sensitive.

VI. THE FACTUAL REPORT REQUIRED

In light of all the above, I therefore require the RGP to provide me with a Factual Report as to each of the following:

(i) a statement on the current status of the officers in question (i.e. whether they continue to be on active duty or are suspended or stood down pending finalization of any inquiries into this matter);

(ii) the exact location where the incident happened;

(iii) confirmation, therefore, of whether the incident happened inside or outside of BGTW;

(iv) a full report of the facts of the Incident, including details of whether the RHIB in question entered BGTW and if so where and when and how long it was in BGTW;

(v) copies of any report or reports provided by the Metropolitan Police in respect of this incident as a result of the investigation sanctioned by the Government in relation to the Incident;

(vi) copies of any internal reports or documentation produced to date in respect of the Incident;

(vii) copies of any incident logs that may have been kept of the actions relating to the Incident;

(viii) copies of any call logs that may have been kept of the actions relating to the Incident;

(ix) details of any conversations or other operational communications with Spanish law enforcement or other agencies and whether that led to any actual or tacit invitation to enter the Spanish Territorial Sea, providing exact details of any such actual or tacit invitation, or the absence thereof;

(x) a statement (or copy if they are in printed or printable form) of what standing instructions are given to officers in respect of operations outside of BGTW;

(xi) copies of any such or any other relevant instructions or other standard operating procedures;

(xii) documentation or confirmation in writing of the instructions provided to officers of the Marine Section by senior management as to the procedures to be followed when suspects who are being chased inside BGTW fail to stop and exit BGTW and what position the RGP take or have taken (until the time of the Incident) in respect of 'hot pursuit' from BGTW into International Water, Spanish Territorial Waters and / or Moroccan Territorial Waters and on what basis and on what advice such a position, if any, has been taken. (It is essential for the Government to understand what training was provided to the officers in question in respect of their ensuring that they operated solely within the territorial limits of Gibraltar. I want to know what the RGP's standard operating procedures are in such instances);

(xiii) alternatively, an explanation of why no such position has been taken, given the prevalence of such activities;

(xiv) what assessment senior management have made of such operations occurring, in particular where there is not an express invitation from another police force (whether that is the Spanish police force or the Moroccan police force) for operations to continue outside of BGTW in Spanish Territorial Waters, International Waters or Moroccan Territorial Waters. (The Government is very concerned to understand what the Senior Management Team of the RGP has done in respect of continued incidents of operations outside of BGTW before the events in question and thereafter, in particular if there has been any change in standing instructions or posture as a result); and

(xv) any other relevant information, reports or documents (whether existing in documentary, printed or digital form) which the RGP consider the Government should have available in considering the facts and matters which arise from the Incident and planning to address the same in the Public Interest of Gibraltar.

The Government views the events in question with the utmost seriousness. We will not allow deaths of individuals in circumstances involving the RGP not to be accounted for entirely properly and timeously, even if that means that the Government of Gibraltar and the Gibraltar tax payer is exposed to damages and costs as a result thereof. Such matters go to the very foundation of the Rule of Law and the protection of the right to life, whether inside or outside the territory of Gibraltar. It is for that reason that, as a start, I have approved the expenditure of the preparation of the Independent Report by the Metropolitan Police and the additional expenditure that I will authorise to properly deal with this matter.

The Government considers that this is the only way to properly deal with the issues that arise. Once in receipt of the RGP's Factual Report, as required by this letter, I will be in a better position as Minister for Finance to assess whether and if so what funding is required for independent representation of the RGP and or any of its officers in respect of the incident.

To date I have already confirmed funding for the external investigation from the Metropolitan Police as initially requested by you. It may be that there is also a coroner's investigation presently on foot. Both of these must also run their course. The fact that those are running their course should not, however, in any way interfere with or delay the RGP's ability to urgently provide the Factual Report I require in the exercise of my powers under the Act in the time that I have set out below.

VII. TIMING FOR A RESPONSE

I shall look forward to hearing from you and I would expect to have:

(a) formal confirmation of receipt of this REQUIRMENT within the next twenty four hours; and

(b) within 7 days of the date of this letter a detailed response containing the factual report from the RGP in respect of this matter.

If more time is required in respect of any aspect of this Factual Report sought from the RGP, please write to me to seek such an extension of time setting out the reasons why it is not possible to provide the information requested in the time allotted.

In the interim, I shall look forward to hearing from you in the time allotted.

Sincerely,

FABIAN PICARDO QC MP

EXPOSICIÓN DE MOTIVOS

Según informaciones de prensa, durante la noche del 7 al 8 de marzo, un patrullero de la Policía de Gibraltar ha abordado una embarcación semirrígida, de las conocidas como narcolanchas, a levante del Peñón, frente al puerto linense de La Atunara. El abordaje se ha saldado con dos muertos y dos heridos. Apresada la embarcación por el patrullero británico, fue conducida junto con los supervivientes y los cadáveres a Gibraltar.

En virtud del Tratado de Utretch, España no reconoce mar territorial alguno al Reino Unido en el litoral de la colonia. Aun así, dada la proximidad a la Atunara, el incidente ha debido tener lugar necesariamente fuera de las tres millas náuticas que el Reino Unido, aunque sin título alguno, viene reivindicando.

Ante esta evidencia de una flagrante violación de la soberanía nacional de España, con resultado de muerte, cometida en su mar territorial por la Policía de Gibraltar, presentamos las siguientes

PREGUNTAS

1. ¿En qué posición tuvo lugar el abordaje?

2. ¿Existe acaso algún convenio de colaboración entre España y el Reino Unido que pueda amparar actuaciones como la referida?

3. En cualquier caso, ¿solicitaron las autoridades británicas autorización para emprender una persecución en aguas españolas?

4. De no ser así, ¿ha presentado el Gobierno, en reivindicación de la soberanía nacional de España, la oportuna protesta ante el Reino Unido?

RESPUESTA:

En relación con la pregunta formulada, se señala que de acuerdo con la información recibida en el Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores Unión Europea y Cooperación (MAUC), la colisión se produjo en las coordenadas 36° 09' N – 5° 12' W.

Respecto a los convenios de colaboración mencionados, cabe indicar que no hay suscrito ningún acuerdo entre España y el Reino Unido que permita la actuación de la policía gibraltareña en aguas territoriales españolas.

Respecto a la información recabada por el MAUC no hubo requerimiento previo alguno de apoyo a la Guardia Civil.

Dada la gravedad de los hechos acaecidos, el Ministerio presentó con fecha 9 de marzo ante la Embajada del Reino Unido una nota verbal protestando en los términos más enérgicos por la inaceptable actuación de la policía gibraltareña, reservándose la adopción de las medidas oportunas si fuera necesario y requiriendo que las autoridades británicas relevantes tomen las medidas adecuadas para que comportamientos de este tipo no vuelvan a tener lugar.

Dear CM –
I refer to the below thread which includes you response to the AG and which has been forwarded to me.

You are evidently very disappointed but I want to reassure you that it has never been my intention to withhold anything from you concerning this very serious matter. I provided you with an overview on the day of the incident, then engaged with the AG as per your suggestion and have been doing so ever since. I will hopefully be in a better position to brief you on the full details of the incident once I receive the report of the findings of independent investigation team we called in. This team had to return early to the UK because of the COVID-19 crisis and because of the lockdown in UK, they have been unable to progress the matter as expeditiously as we all would have wanted.

The letter from local counsel representing the families and suggesting a future claim for damages was only received a few days ago which is what triggered our enquiry with the DPP only yesterday concerning legal representation.

I am of course available to discuss all the points you allude to at your earliest convenience.

Best wishes
Ian

Dear Michael

Thank you for copying me into the below.

I think it is entirely inappropriate for this matter not to have been raised with me in the first instance by the Commissioner.

This matter raises issues of fundamental human rights, the right to life, potential payment of huge amounts of damages, the potential extradition and liberty of serving police officers being at stake, the issue of Standard Operating Procedures which may be in place and the management thereof. All of that is in addition to the huge potential political exposure that arises for Gibraltar as a result thereof and the concomitant (and dangerous) issues of sovereignty and the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea.

Indeed, it is difficult to think of an issue as fundamental as this affecting the RGP, certainly in the time I have been in office. There is no consideration in the email below of claims or offences going beyond "the officers crewing the vessel", which is also, in my view an issue that may also need further consideration.

As you know, it comes against the backdrop of the very unflattering report from the HMICFRS.

I am therefore surprised and greatly disappointed that these issues have not been the subject of a detailed submission to me by the Commissioner in respect of the events in question and the issues which now arise.

I shall therefore be writing directly to the Commissioner on this and all other aspects of this matter. In the interim, I do not authorise the incurring of any expenditure in briefing out of this matter at this stage.

Please refer both the DPP and Superintendent Yeats to my response.

Best wishes

Fabian

Dear Attorney General,

The Commissioner of Police is in receipt of correspondence with regard to a claim for damages following a collision at sea on the 8th of March this year. I understand that the Director of Public Prosecutions has raised the issue of who should represent the RGP to defend the claim. The DPP and I met yesterday to discuss whether it would be appropriate for the Office of Criminal Prosecution and Litigation to do so. We concluded it would not for the following reasons which potentially apply:

1) Prosecuting European Arrest Warrants issued by Spain to extradite the officers crewing the vessel.
2) Prosecuting criminal charges against the officers crewing the vessel.
3) Prosecuting disciplinary charges against the officers crewing the vessel
4) Defending civil actions against the organisation or the individual officers in Spain.

Should you agree with our views I would be grateful for your authority to appoint counsel and your advice on who would be best placed to represent the RGP. Finally our experience is that claims made against the RGP have been generally handled by Government. Do you wish this to be the case in this instance or should we manage it ourselves together with appointed counsel?

Best regards,

Cathal

Our Ref: IM169

The Hon Fabian Picardo QC
Chief Minister
No. 6 Convent Place
Gibraltar

Dear Chief Minister,

REQUIREMENT TO PROVIDE A FACTUAL REPORT THE POLICE ACT 2006, Section 15 (1)(a)

1. I refer to your letter of the 21st May 2020 informing me of the requirement to provide a factual report pursuant to S.15(1)(a) Police Act 2006 concerning the death at sea of two Spanish Nationals on the 8th March 2020.

2. I would like to point out that notwithstanding the fact that I have briefed the Hon. Attorney General on several occasions (as suggested by you from the outset), apprised the Chairman of the Gibraltar Police Authority and consulted with the Director of Public Prosecutions, I have not been asked for further details or a factual report until now.

3. For ease of reading, I will address the concerns of the Government and the points listed in part VI (the Factual Report Required) in a chronological order as far as possible.

4. Point (iv): A full report of the facts of the incident, including details of whether the RHIB in question entered BGTW and if so where and when and how long it was in BGTW.
   a. At about 0238Hrs on the 8th March 2020 RGP Marine Section officers received a verbal report from Windmill Hill Signal Station (WHSS) concerning a suspect vessel in the vicinity of BGTW (Appendices 15, 20, 21, 22 and 74 refer). As a result of this report the Police Motor Boat (PMB) crew, deployed on motor vessel Sir John Chapple to the eastern side of Gibraltar.

   b. The RGP crew made direct contact by telephone with the Guardia Civil (GC) Central Operativa de Servicios (COS) and it was confirmed by the latter that they were also monitoring the said vessel. The RGP interceptor positioned itself within the limits of BGTW by Grid A8 (Appendices 2 and 15 refer).

c. There were numerous exchanges of mobile telephone communications between the RGP crew and GC COS which included the positioning and movements of the suspect vessel (Appendices 23 and 24 refer).

d. At about 0329Hrs a chase commenced between the Sir John Chapple and the suspect vessel. The RGP applied its blue lights (Appendices 15, 16, 17 and 74 refer). According to the coxswain (referred to as 'Officer One' in the Post Incident Procedure), the suspect vessel displayed no navigational lights and due to its length and engine capacity was a prohibited import known colloquially as a Narco Launch. The vessel was a RHIB of 14 metres in length with 4x 300 hp outboard engines. Four crew members were aboard.

e. The crewmembers of the suspect RHIB were later identified as:

- [redacted]
- [redacted]
- [redacted]
- [redacted]

f. The coxswain's intention was to identify the suspects and determine whether they were carrying an illegal cargo (Appendices 15 and 16 refer).

g. As the chase ensued, the suspect RHIB performed evasive and dangerous manoeuvres and its crewmembers threw objects at the Police vessel (Appendices 15, 16, 17, 19, 20 and 74 refer).

h. The chase ended in a collision between both vessels (which according to the marine expert, occurred at around 03:38:56, in position 36° 09.96' N 005° 12.51' W (Appendix 19 refers). These coordinates are in Spanish waters. At the relevant time this information was not available to the Command Team as the police interceptor's AIS had not been activated. This is contrary to standing orders. It was assumed that the collision was likely to have taken place outside of BGTW as the radar screen of the suspect vessel displayed coordinates indicating this, but this required technical confirmation.

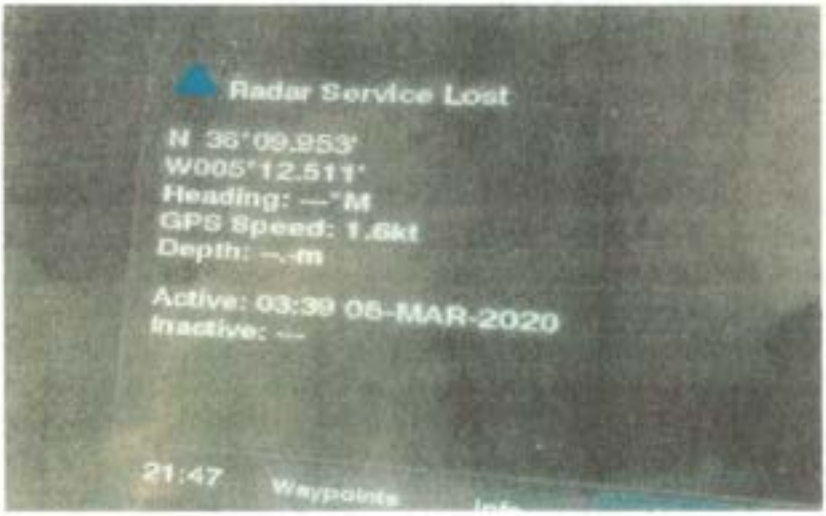
i.



j. The intelligence picture at that stage was unclear and confusing with the limited facts recounted by the PMB crew being out of sync with other facts. Such confusion is common in the initial stages of a serious investigation and for this reason Post Incident Procedures (PIP's) are initiated and officers do not provide detailed accounts until they have had time to rest and take advice.

k. Following the collision, crew members from the Sir John Chapple boarded the suspect RHIB to assess the situation and found the lifeless body of a male person, later identified as [redacted]. He had an open head wound. There was also a further crewmember, namely [redacted] who appeared seriously injured, with visible open wounds to his back/shoulder, lying on the hull. The RGP crew were not physically harmed but were in shock (Appendices 15 to 17 refer).

l. The coxswain then took the decision of removing his officers from on board the suspect vessel as he feared for their safety (Appendices 15, 25 and 26 refers).

m. A tow-line was connected to the suspect RHIB for it to be towed to land and ensure the injured received medical attention (Appendices 15 to 17 refer).

n. At 0343Hrs the RGP crew contacted WHSS and reported the incident adding that they would be returning to the Gibraltar Government Marine Section (GGMS). (Appendices 15, 20 and 74 refer). As a result of the collision the police vessel had mounted the suspect RHIB and landed on its starboard side causing the police vessel taking in water.

o. No Mayday call was broadcasted by the police marine officers. It is assumed at this stage that this was due to the state of shock that they must have been in.

p. At about 0345hrs, Officer One (coxswain) called the RGP Command and Dispatch Unit at New Mole House (NMH) Police Headquarters, and apprised the Crown Sergeant about the collision and of the need of having the ambulance awaiting their arrival (Appendices 15, 25, 26 and 27 refer).

q. [redacted]

r. The RGP vessel then commenced to tow the suspect RHIB but its towing speed was reported to be reduced as one of its engines had failed following the collision (Appendix 15 refers).

s. Consequently, the assistance of the HMC Marine Section was sought and HMC vessel Seeker met with the Sir John Chapple by which stage was within BGTW. (Appendices 15 and 27 refer).

t. All crewmembers from the suspect RHIB, except for the deceased, were transferred on to the HMC vessel for them to be taken ashore for treatment.

u. First Aid was administered to the crew of the suspect RHIB by the HMC officers (Appendices 10 to 17, 20, and 28 to 31 refer).

v. At about 0355Hrs the on call Gold Commander Detective Chief Inspector Field was contacted and attended the Police Marine Base. As soon as he had assessed the situation he called me at 0425Hrs.

w. I immediately recalled all available senior managers and convened a Gold Command meeting.

x. A command structure was put in place with a number of senior officers being tasked with specific roles. For the purpose of leading the investigation during the 'Golden Hour', DCI Field was provisionally appointed as Senior Investigating Officer.

y. For the purposes of transparency, immediate consideration was given to requesting an independent body to lead the investigation.

z. A critical incident was declared and the following additional persons recalled to duty:

CI	Nolan Romero. Post Incident Procedure Manager (PIP)
DI	Paul Chipolina (Head Special Branch) International liaison with Spain
DI	Alex Enriles – PSD cover
Insp	Thomas Tunbridge – Operational Logistics
Insp	Albert Fernandez - Bronze commander Marine Base
Insp	Paul Barker – Media
PS	Maurice Morello – Chairman Gibraltar Police Federation – welfare.

aa. Steps were then made to secure the Marine Base, the hospital and Police HQ. On a previous recent occasion involving a fatal collision with an HMC vessel and another smuggling craft, the vicinity outside Police Headquarters and hospital were inundated with family members who either belong to or are related to Organised Criminal Groups (OCG).

bb. The following established command protocols were initiated.

Gold Commander	Commissioner Ian McGrail
Deputy Gold	D/Supt Paul Richardson
SIO - provisional	DCI John Field
Coroner's Officer	DI Sean Perera
Family Liaison Officer	Natalie Passano

cc. The following fast track actions were commenced:

1. Critical Incident declared
2. Consider calling UK force to investigate - (Small Islands/Hampshire considered initially)
3. Post Incident Procedure (PIP) procedure to be initiated for:
    a. ECHR considerations
    b. Safeguard ID of officers (retaliation by OCG feared)
4. Welfare of officers
5. Security NMH, PMB Base, SBH
6. Advise:
    a. CM
    b. HE
    c. CBF
    d. GDP CPO
    e. Police Fed
7. Advise Windmill Hill and Port to secure evidence.
8. Commissioner to issue message of reassurance to workforce

9. Intel circular to be published for officer safety reasons.
10. Resilience issues to be considered for Gold command cover and Ops personnel
11. Press statement
12. Provisional SIO to consider ECHR implications and by extension Gibraltar Constitution
13. Need to determine location of incident ASAP.
14. SLOWER TIME ACTIONS:
    a. Extract training records for PMB crew
    b. Extract standing instructions for chase at sea.

dd. At about 0540Hrs and shortly after arrival at the Marine Base, DRIS MOHAMED was pronounced life extinct by paramedics on scene. The other two crew members were conveyed to St. Bernard's Hospital to be medically examined (Appendices 32 to 36 refer).

ee. HM Coroner Mr PITTO, was apprised and gave instruction for the bodies of the deceased to be placed in the mortuary fridge pending examination by a Forensic Pathologist.

ff. At 0605Hrs I notified HE and yourself and we engaged in an exchange of messages as from 0724hrs.

gg. At 0630Hrs I personally went to speak to the officers involved in the collision and reassured them that their well-being was at the forefront of our concerns.

hh. At 1010Hrs I met with the Attorney General Michael Llamas in my office and briefed him fully as to what was known at that stage. We were joined by the Governor Nick Pyle at 1215Hrs.

ii. Following medical treatment the two remaining surviving crew members were arrested on suspicion of having committed the offences below:

- Importing a Prohibited Import, contrary to Section 14 (1) (f) and (2) of the Imports and Exports Act 1986.
- Dangerous navigation, contrary to Section 10 of the Seaside Pleasure Boat Rules 1989.
- Obstructing Police, Contrary to Section 177 (2) and (4) of the Crimes Act.

This is because at that time it was believed that the suspect vessel had entered BGTW at some point during or before the police chase ensued and therefore some criminality had occurred within Gibraltar's jurisdiction. (The CAD log records that the incident took place some 3 miles south of Europa Point as reported by the crew – this was later found to be incorrect see Appendix 64, record 5 of 97)

jj. On the 1st April 2020 once it was clear that no criminality had occurred within BGTW, the two remaining survivors were recalled from bail and released without charge. (Appendices 37 and 38 refer).

kk. At 1205Hrs 9th March 2020 I held a briefing in my office with The Governor and Attorney General and updated them with the details I had available.

ll. As part of the Post Incident Procedure (PIP) the RGP crew members provided an initial account on the same day followed by a detailed account some days later. For safety reasons the officers are identified as Officer One (coxswain), Officer Two (2nd qualified crew member) and Officer Three (unqualified crew member). This is to prevent their identities being transmitted to organised crime groups who have been known to take personal vengeance against law enforcement officers.

mm. The HMC crew also took part in the PIP process.

nn. For reasons of independence, transparency and impartiality on the 10th March 2020 arrangements were made with for an independent investigation to be led by the Metropolitan Police Service, Directorate of Professionals Standards. This was after attempts to obtain support from the chiefs of other small jurisdictions failed.

oo. The terms of reference for the independent investigation are as follows:

1) To review what the Royal Gibraltar Police has actioned so far in to the causes and circumstances of the collision at sea in the early hours of 8th March 2020 between RGP interceptor Sir John Chapple and a 14m rigid-hulled inflatable boat, which resulted in the deaths of two of the four men on board and to assume the lead in this investigation from thereon.

2) To investigate the actions and decisions of Royal Gibraltar Police officers and/or staff in relation to the collision at sea on 8th March 2020, and the degree to which, if at all, the actions and decisions caused or contributed to the two deaths and injuries of other parties aboard the rigid-hulled inflatable boat.

3) To assess whether the police officers and staff acted in accordance with police policies, guidance and legislation.

4) To assess whether any police officers or staff have committed criminal offences or behaved in a manner justifying the bringing of disciplinary proceedings.

5) To identify any opportunities for organisational learning, and any good practice that could be highlighted and shared.

pp. At around the same time the services of a maritime collision expert were engaged - Captain Richard Meikle (the same expert who investigated the HMC vessel fatal collision off Eastern Beach).

qq. The Metropolitan Police investigation team arrived in Gibraltar on 13th March 2020 and comprised of an acting detective superintendent, several other police officers and a civilian investigator.

rr. The maritime collision expert arrived on the same flight as the Metropolitan Police team and on arrival they were put in touch with each other.

ss. The Metropolitan Police officers were sworn in as RGP officers in order to grant them constabulary powers. The acting D/Supt assumed conduct of the investigation following a comprehensive briefing and handover of all relevant material. The RGP provisional SIO, DCI Field was appointed as liaison officer to assist the team with their investigation in Gibraltar.

tt. The vessels involved in the collision, as well as the HMC vessel involved in the towing of the suspect vessel, were examined by RGP Crime Scene Officers. They were later brought out of the sea onto the 'hard' and treated as crime scenes for them to be further examined at a later date, by the maritime expert.

uu. From the onset, and is usual in serious cases, the families of the deceased were approached by a Family Liaison Officer (FLO) appointed by the RGP. This role involves providing support and acting as a liaising point between the investigating team and the family. It should be noted, that local counsel representing the families of the deceased (as well as the two persons in custody) insisted on all contact to be done via their chambers. Christopher FINCH from VERRALLS is leading on this, with the assistance of Leigh DEBONO.

vv. Dr David ROUSE, Consultant in Forensic Medicine and Pathology performed post mortem examinations on both deceased on the 11th and 12th March 2020 and has provided his witness statements/post mortem reports (Appendices 40 and 41 refer).

ww. In respect of [redacted], in his opinion:

xx. In respect of [redacted], in his opinion:

yy. On the 17th March 2020 I met with the Attorney General and discussed the progress of the investigation and its various strands including the Coroner's investigation, possible civil action, professional standards enquiry, Spanish judicial action, law enforcement co-operation angle (Brexit- working group) and the political dimension. The aim was to develop a working strategy to deal with all of this. I proposed to meet face to face with GC to gather more information and try to elicit where they were taking the matter. The Metropolitan Police also wanted to meet them too. Given the obvious political sensitivities I wanted to run this past you. The AG advised me that he would consult with you and revert.

zz. Shortly after this meeting the AG informed me by text to proceed as we had discussed.

aaa. On the 18th March 2020, having been unable to meet with the GC face to face because of the Covid19 crisis, I briefed the AG on the video conference that we had held between the Metropolitan Police team, the RGP and the Guardia Civil. That briefing included reference to the Spanish investigating judge potentially summons the RGP officers to give their accounts, or request their accounts in writing.

bbb. On the 19th March 2020, I forwarded the same information as discussed in the preceding paragraph to the Chairman of the Gibraltar Police Authority. The GPA Chairman asked me whether the Governor was aware of this and I informed him that the Metropolitan Police would brief his office directly given that Phil Culligan had invited the team round to his house.

ccc. On the 19th March 2020 the Metropolitan Police team left Gibraltar prematurely due to the Covid19 world health emergency. Since then the team lead Supt Ag Gary Smith has been reallocated other duties by their UK commanders and the team has been subject to UK lockdown rules. This has caused significant delays to the investigation.

ddd. On the 22nd April 2020 I met again with the Attorney General and DPP and we discussed a potential civil action by Christopher Finch on behalf of the surviving crew members. The question of crown counsel representation was first discussed at that meeting and I was advised by the DPP that 'we were not at that point yet' – that a claim had not been filed. We discussed the need to have a strategy to deal with all the strands the Coroner's enquiry, Spanish Lawyers, the likelihood that RGP officers would be summoned to Spain to testify and the political implication of the location of the incident. The AG would give thoughts on whether to bring the matter up in the law enforcement co-operation working groups and/or to tactfully engage with his Brexit negotiator counterpart. He undertook to advise you too reassuring me that he had quick direct access to yourself. This was at the height of the Covid 19 crisis locally.

eee. The AG did not want to consider further strategy until we had receipt of the Metropolitan Police's report with their findings. This has still not been received despite many requests to expedite the Covid 19 Crisis in the UK has taken its toll on policing as in many other areas of business. I have received a sit-rep update from the UK team on 27th May 2020 (Appendix -90)

fff. The marine investigator's draft investigation report was submitted for comments to the UK team and the RGP on the 30th April 2020 and is currently being revised following discussion between the interested parties.

ggg. On the 14th of May Robert Fischel of Verrals wrote to me enclosing a letter of claim on behalf of [redacted], [redacted] was aboard the RHIB involved in the collision with the Sir John Chapple on the 8th of March 2020. On Friday the 15th of May, Supt. Yeats sought to arrange a meeting with the DPP to "discuss how to progress the defence of this claim." The DPP replied on Sunday the 17th saying he was available during the week of the 18th of May, with the meeting being arranged for the 19th of May. At that meeting the DPP was of the view that he would be unable to represent the RGP on the matter as he was likely to be brought into conflict at some future date, he gave three potential reasons:

a. having to prosecute EAWs against the officers if the Kingdom of Spain sought to extradite,
b. prosecuting the officers locally for criminal offences and thirdly,
c. prosecuting in disciplinary proceedings.

We accepted his position. The DPP was of the opinion that the issue of the claim should be briefed out, but he wished to discuss the matter with the Attorney General.

hhh. On Wednesday the 20th of May Supt. Yeats spoke to the DPP and he asked that we write to the AG explaining why there may be conflict and seeking authority to brief out the matter. The AG would then raise the matter with the CM. This was done.

15. Point (l): A statement on the current status of the officers in question (i.e. whether they continue to be on active duty or are suspended or stood down pending finalization of any enquires into this matter).

a. As soon as I became aware of the seriousness of the situation I instructed that a Post Incident Procedure (PIP) commence and appointed Chief Inspector Nolan Romero, a qualified Post Incident Manager (PIM)

b. In accordance with approved practice post incident investigations are instigated when certain criteria are met, one of which includes any non-firearms incident where the Police have been involved and this deployment has resulted in death or serious injury. (Appendix 62 refers).

c. The aim of this approved practice is to detail the management arrangements for such incidents and relate to the safety and security of person(s), property/critical infrastructure and include and are not limited to various instances, including:
   - Pursuits.
   - Accidents during operational activity.
   - Serious collisions. .
   - Any situation where a critical incident has been declared.

d. The objectives of the procedure are to:
   - Look after the welfare of Key Police Witnesses
   - Facilitate the investigation
   - Ensure the integrity of the procedure

e. One of the PIM's responsibilities is to ensure that the officers' wellbeing and safeguards are considered at every stage of the process. The PIM gathers all relevant and available information, make assessments and rationalises his decisions in a log (Appendix 1 refers).

f. In this instance it was decided to afford the officers anonymity to mitigate the risk of their names being disclosed to persons involved in criminality. Accordingly as part of the PIP process the officers were identified as Officers One (coxswain, Officer Two (qualified crew member) and Officer three (3rd crew member). Gibraltar Police Federation (GPF) representatives were also present at the initiation of the PIP process.

g. On the same morning of the incident, the officers provided their initial Stage three accounts (Appendices 2 to 4 refer respectively) and arrangements were made to contact them the following day. They were then sent home. Stage 1 account is the report made to the PIM on appointment and the Stage 2 account is the PIM's initial brief to the SIO (Senior Investigating Officer).

h. The HMC Marine Section Officers who assisted in the tow of the suspect RGIB were also included in the PIP and were also afforded anonymity. They are referred to as HMC Officer Four, Five, Six, Seven and Eight. These officers also provided initial accounts (Appendices 5 to 9 refer respectively).

i. The RGP Marine Section officers involved in the incident, were stood down and allowed to commence their cycle of rest days and a return to work strategy was implemented which included restricting their duties to non-operational and non-public facing duties. All of the officers were offered professional counselling.

j. On the 10th March 2020, RGP Officers One, Two and Three, met with the PIM, his assistant and GPF representatives. The welfare of the officers concerned was discussed and counselling was requested and this was arranged by management. This took place shortly after through the Gibraltar Health Authority (GHA).

k. The officers met with their legal representative appointed by the GPF.

l. On the 11th March 2020, arrangements were made for RGP officers One, Two and Three, to provide their Stage 4 accounts at the office of the GPF. This was scheduled for the 12th March 2020. That same day, Officer Three, stated that he was fit to return to work.

m. On the 12th March 2020 the PIM was advised that the officers' legal representative in Gibraltar had engaged the services of a PIP Specialist from the UK and the Stage four accounts would be delayed until his arrival to Gibraltar.

n. Assistant Commissioner ULLGER met with the officers at the office of the GPF. The officers were provided with reassurance and welfare support with the intentions of them returning to work as quickly as possible.

o. The Stage four accounts of HMC Officers Four, Five, Six, Seven and Eight were subsequently provided on 12th March 2020 (Appendices 10 to 14 refer respectively).

p. On the 12th March 2020, intelligence was received to the effect that threats had been made against the officers involved in the collision. This included damaging a residence in Spain, linked to one of the officers. As a result of this, the Guardia Civil (GC) contact point for the RGP was informed of this and their assistance sought in trying to provide regular patrols of the address in question.

q. On the 16th March 2020, RGP Officers One, Two and Three, provided their Stage four accounts in the presence of their UK counsel and GPF representatives. They declined to allow officers from the Met Police team to be present during the provision of their account and did not cover all of the areas that they had been asked to by the Metropolitan Police interviewing team, including the location of where the collision occurred and question on the operating of the AIS. (Appendices 15 to 17 refer respectively.

r. On the 23rd March 2020, arrangements for the officers to return to work were made on a slow integration basis whilst they continued receiving counselling. They are currently on non-front line duties and their progress is being monitored.

- Officers One and Two were deployed to assist in the RGP stores.
- Officer Three was deployed to Resource Management on the 24th March.

s. The Metropolitan Police Team from the Directorate of Professional Standards is currently investigating the officers' conduct. We are still waiting for their return to Gibraltar and progress this investigation. This has been delayed due to the COVID -19 pandemic and the travel restrictions.

t. At this stage the officers have not been served with formal notices of investigation under the Police (Discipline) Regulations 1991 which is the under consideration of the Metropolitan Police team

5. Point (ii): The exact location where the incident happened; and Point (iii): Confirmation, therefore, of whether the incident happened inside or outside of BGTW.

a. Captain MEIKEL (SOLIS Marine Consultants), have produced a Rapid Replay reconstruction using the data that was recovered from the GPS from the suspect RHIB. Below is a screenshot of the situation around the suspected time of the collision (Appendix 18).

b. As can be seen the collision occurred outside of BGTW the limits of which are demarcated on the chart.

c. The actual point of collision is described as point 'B' this being:
   - Latitude 36°10.10 N
   - Longitude 005°12.50 W

d. Capt. MEIKEL cannot make reference to any positions of the RGP interceptor, Sir John Chapple, as its Automatic Identification System (AIS) was not connected during the incident. This contrary to instructions.

e. In his draft report, Capt. MEIKLE (Appendix 19 refers) states that the Sir John Chapple intercepted the suspect RHIB in position 36° 11.7'N 005° 18.1'W at around 03:29:15. The collision occurred at around 03:38:56, in position 36° 09.96' N 005° 12.51' W (36° 10.0' N 005° 12.5' W when rounded off to one decimal place of a minute). Therefore, this positions the vessels during the intercept, pursuit and collision in Spanish waters.

f. This coincides with the last position displayed on suspect RHIB's chart plotter (see paragraph 4(i). It is suspected that the loss of signal occurred as a result of the collision whereby the radar mast was damaged.

g. Neither the Gibraltar Port Authority nor WHSS could assist in plotting the course of either vessel as they had not been detected through their AIS tracking. WHSS did, however, record the chase through their infra-red thermal cameras. Although they cannot plot the chase, by referencing to vessels anchored out at sea and captured in the footage, they were able to place the chase outside BGTW.
A statement from Mr. MANDELBERG to this effect is currently being prepared.

h. It is important to note that the AIS (Automatic identification System) of the Sir John Chapple was turned on after it returned to BGTW. The officers were asked to account but did not respond to it in the Stage 4 account.

i. The first plotting of the AIS of the suspect RHIB is out at sea in Spanish Waters. There is no previous plotting, accordingly it is not known with any degree of certainty whether the vessel ever entered our jurisdiction prior to that plot.

6. Point (v): Copies of any report or reports provided by the Metropolitan Police in respect of this incident as a result of the investigation sanctioned by the Government in relation to the incident.

a. A brief sit-rep update was received from the Metropolitan Police at 1359hrs on 27.05.20 – Appendix 90 refers. In this situation report reference is made to a previous sit-rep dated 23.03.20. The Met team had not shared this with me – this had only been circulated amongst the investigation team and their superiors. At 2025hrs on 27 May 2020, the Met Police SIO emailed the situation report of the 23.03.20 which briefly captures their enquiries in Gibraltar including "liaison with FCO regarding the political situation." Appendix 91 refers

7. Point (vi): Copies of any internal reports or documentation produced to date in respect of the Incident.

a. A copy of the provisional SIO Policy / Action file, which is issued to manage the investigative response, resources associated with the investigation, strategies and procedures to be adopted is included at Appendix 39.

b. The Post Incident Manager's (PIM) log where he recorded information available to him as to the incident, as well as actions, assessments and decisions made by him and the rationale behind them is included at Appendix 1.

c. The custody records of the two survivors, [redacted] and [redacted], who were arrested on the date of the incident are included at Appendices 37 and 38.

d. Marine Collision expert Capt. MEIKLE from SOLIS Marine Consultants has produced a draft report following his examination of both vessels on the 14th March 2020 and subsequent examination of the navigational systems, His draft report was received on the 30th April 2020 and is included at Appendix 19.

e. His provisional conclusions are summarised hereunder, however, they are under having been subjected to comment by MPS and RGP:

I. 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE' intercepted the 'SUSPECT RHIB' in position 36° 11.7'N 005° 18.1'W at around 03:29:15. The collision occurred at around 03:38:56, in position 36° 10.0' N 005° 12.5' W. The intercept, pursuit and collision took place in Spanish waters.

II. It would have been clear to the officers on board 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE', as they were familiar with the waters, even when navigating by eye that they were well outside of BGTW.

III. 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE's starboard bow collided with the port quarter of 'SUSPECT RHIB'. The speed of 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE' led it to pass over the top of 'SUSPECT RHIB' during the collision and, once clear, landing on their starboard side at an angle which led to the water ingress into the cabin.

IV. It cannot be stated with any certainty who the coxswain of 'SUSPECT RHIB' was; however, it is likely to have been [redacted]. The crewman in seat two was, by elimination, likely to be [redacted] who died shortly after the collision.

V. It is not known why the two forward jockey seats on 'SUSPECT RHIB', where the two dead crewmen were seated, had very little damage when compared with the heavily damaged aft two seats.

VI. To establish, with greater certainty, the angle of incidence, and the path of 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE' in relation to 'SUSPECT RHIB' additional modelling of the two vessels would be required. The creation of 3-D models using Rhino software could be utilised to show the relative positions and aspects of the two vessels prior to, during, and after the collision. (This has now taken place).

VII. Officer One did not turn on 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE's AIS for the duration of the operation in contravention of Marine Section Instructions.

VIII. The crew of 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE', in not using all the available navigation equipment showed a poor standard of navigation.

IX. The Instructions stated that the safety of the crew was the priority; however, the crew of 'SIR JOHN CHAPPLE' in continuing to pursue at very close range, with limited visibility, and unable to respond to a quick turn by the 'SUSPECT RHIB' did not comply with those Instructions.

X. There was no proper training in pursuits of suspect vessels for the coxswains who would be required to take evasive action. (This is not our understanding and is subject to review. We believe that the training provided deals with this area of seamanship).

XI. From the evidence reviewed to date, it appears that Marine Section managers did not have an effective oversight of how their patrols were being carried out. (This is currently being further looked into by Capt Meikle in respect of job descriptions and governance of the unit).

XII. Once Officer One realised that there was immediate risk to life, he should have broadcast a Mayday relay call to all vessels in the area.

XIII. The instructions and guidance provided to the Response Teams, oversight of operations (patrols and high-speed pursuits) and the management's review processes should be better understood.

XIV. A study of AIS data, over a period of several months would provide an insight into the operating patterns of these vessels and the frequency at which they operate outside BGTW. (This is taking place).

XV. A review of previous incident reports, investigations and actions taken by RGP senior officers would be beneficial to the investigation. (Currently accessing and being looked into).

XVI. Capt. MEIKEL returned to Gibraltar, with 3D scanning specialists, Visual Skies, to obtain 3D scans of both vessels involved in the incident. These were performed on the 18th and 19th May 2020 and will provide images / animation which will assist in giving a clearer picture of the actual collision impact.

f. Witness statements have been obtained from numerous experts, officers and civilians. These include:

- Officers One, Two and Three from the RGP. (Officers were on board the Sir John Chapple, being the vessel involved in the collision, and have provided PIP stages three and four accounts in respect of the incident). (Appendices 2 to 4 and 15 to 17 refer).

- HMC Four, Five, Six, Seven and Eight from HMC. (Officers were on board HMC Seeker and provided assistance to transport the casualties on board the suspect RHIB to the GGMS – PIP stages three and four accounts). (Appendices 5 to 14 refer).

- Paramedics Fabian FERRO, Paul WATSON and Sigurd HAVELAND from the GHA. (Involved in the treatment and triage of the three crewmembers of the suspect RHIB who were transferred to the GGMS by HMC. WATSON and HAVELAND also recognised life extinct on both the deceased). (Appendices 33 to 36 refer).

- GDP Communications Assistant Daniel FERRO GDPC 105 KILPATRICK, from WHSS. (Officers manning WHSS on the night of the incident. They make initial call to RGP informing them of suspect vessel. The movements of the suspect vessel and part of the chase is monitored by them through thermal cameras. Following the collision, they are contacted by the RGP crew and informed of the Incident involving a fatality (Appendices 20 to 22 and 30 and 31 refer respectively).

- Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT) from the GHA, Stuart RYAN, Tanya NOGUERA, Leslie BRUZON and Paul LLANELO, together with Care Assistant Wilson OLVEIRA. (Involved in the triage and treatment of the three crewmembers of the suspect RHIB who were transferred to the GGMS by HMC). (Appendices 42 to 46 refer respectively).

- Damian CHIPOLINA and Jose Luis MOLINA RUS from Tarik Shipping Services Ltd. (They were on board a service vessel in the eastern side on the night of the Incident and witnessed blue flashing lights at a distance. The time of this, was post collision. Nothing else was witnessed by them). (Appendices 47 and 48 refer respectively).

- Robert COLLIS and Dylan SHARP from Tarik Shipping Services Ltd (Did not provide witness statement but gave the same account as Damian CHIPOLINA and Jose Luis MOLINA RUS. COLLIS further provided the RGP with a small video clip he had taken of blue lights being seen at a distance. A file note of this was made). (Appendices 75 and 76 refer).

- Daniel RUDMAN, Chief Metrological Officer. (Provides information on weather and sea conditions on the night of the Incident). (Appendix 49 refers).

- Philip MANDELBERG from the Gibraltar Port Authority. (Produces screenshots showing coordinates supplied by the RGP and explains that the Port Authority could not track the course taken by the RGP or suspect RHIB vessel during the incident). (Appendix 50 refers).

- PC 117 FORTUNATO from the RGP. (Duty controller at CAD who received calls from Officer ONE following the fatal collision at sea). (Appendix 27 refers).

- PS 6 STONE from the RGP. (Duty Crown Sergeant who was apprised of the situation by Officer One, following the fatal collision at sea. He also arranged for assistance to be provided by HMC and the GHA). (Appendix 28 refers).

- PC 167 RISSO from the RGP. (Duty controller at CAD who received a telephone call from Officer One prior to the incident and also witnessed PS STONE and PC FORTUNATO dealing with incoming calls from Officer One). (Appendix 60 refers).

- PC 182 VICTOR from the RGP. (Formed part of the initial RGP investigating team). (Appendix 51 refers).

- Insp John LUTKIN from the RGP. (Duty Officer on the night of the incident). (Appendix 58 refers).

- PCs 71 CANEPA and 100 O'FLAHERTY from the RGP. (Both officers assisted with the casualties upon their arrival at the GGMS. PC CANEPA also recognised life extinct on ABDESELAM AHMED). (Appendices 32 and 52 refer respectively).

- PCs 175 LANE, 216 YEO, 63 MYHILL, 55 CHAPPORY from the RGP. (These officers from the Area Response Team on duty on the night in question, provided assistance as and when requested in respect of the incident, such as covering crime scenes). (Appendices 53, 55, 56 and 57 refer).
- DC 127 GARCIA-WHITE from the RGP. (The officer obtained copies of the CT scans performed on the bodies of both deceased). (Appendix 59 refers).

- DC 169 KINGSLEY from the RGP. (Translated the witness statement from Jose Luis MOLINA RUS from Tarik Shipping Services Ltd, from the Spanish into the English language). (Appendix 54 refers).

- PC 186 PARKER from the RGP. (Obtained audio files from CAD containing the calls made from and to Officer One, following the collision at sea). (Appendix 61 refers).

- Iain UNDERY, VTS Supervisor from the Gibraltar Port Authority. (He receives a report from Tarifa Traffic, informing him that they had received a call from an unknown person reporting that there had been a serious incident off La Atunara). (Appendix 29 refers).

g. Coroner's officer, Insp Sean Perera, has been providing briefing notes/updates on the coroner's investigation to Supt Richardson, since the 21st April 2020 (Appendix 63 refers). This includes and is not limited to:

- Communication between the RGP and the officers of the MPS Directorate of Professional Standards, tasked in investigating this Incident, including requests made by either side, supplying of any material of evidential value to the investigation, etc.

- Communication between the RGP and the legal representatives of both the families of the deceased and the survivors. Amongst other things, this has seen local counsels from VERRALLS, requesting/demanding for information on this investigation, requesting the return of property and for their own experts to be allowed to carry out examinations of both vessels involved in the collision.

- Communication with HM Coroner and the Coroner's Officer. This includes updates on the investigation or anything relating to the incident, proposals and requests for authorisation to be granted to open up other lines of enquires, authorisation for costs/expenses which might be incurred during the investigation to be met or deferred to another party. Communication and actions/findings by the marine expert commissioned to investigate this matter. Informing of requests made by the Spanish authorities and legal representatives of the families of the deceased and the survivors and advice on how to proceed.

- Anything else of interest or crucial to the investigation.

8. (a) Point (vii): Copies of any incident logs that may have been kept of the actions in respect of the Incident.

   (b) Point (viii): Copies of any call logs that may have been kept of the actions relating to the Incident.

   a. A CAD log, with serial number CD/20/00018587/P, was immediately opened by the RGP duty controllers following the initial telephone call made to them by Officer One. This was at 03.45:41hrs on the 8th March 2020, following the collision at sea, during which he reported a fatality (Appendix 64 refers). The RGP has no ability to record radio traffic.

   b. All telephone calls since then relating to the incident, including relevant information received and subsequent deployments and the call out of off duty officers were recorded. This includes Officer One, speaking with the duty Crown Sergeant, and informing him of the chase of a RHIB, at approximately 3 miles off Europa Point and culminating in a collision where a person had died and another was seriously injured. During the conversation the officer requests the ambulance to await their arrival at the GGMS, as they tow the suspect RHIB. This call log was closed at 07.16:42 hrs as a result of instructions given by the PIM in order to afford anonymity to the officers on the Sir John Chapple (Appendix 1 refers).

c. Whilst this was occurring, a second call log was opened with serial number CD/20/00018589/R at 07.13:50 hrs (Appendix 65 refers). As with the previous log, anything relevant to the incident was recorded.

d. Audio files from CAD containing the recording of the calls made from and to Officer One immediately after the fatal collision were also secured (Appendices 61 and 66 to 69 refers). Transcripts of the conversations have been produced (Appendices 70 to 73 refers).

e. The provisional SIO, Policy/action files, which records decisions, tasking and rationale is included at Appendix 39: These include:

- Policy File 11126: Offers an introduction into the Incident and initial briefing provided by the Duty Officer. As a result of this COP and other SMT officers were contacted.
- Policy File 11127: Stipulates Gold Command / role designation.
- Policy File 11128: Requires for the identity of the deceased and persons detained on board suspect RHIB; Carry out forensic and retrieve clothing; Crime Scene forensics and securing; and arrest strategy and obtain evidence by questioning.
- Policy File 11129: Requires liaison with PIP Manager and obtaining initial accounts from the crew on board the Sir John Chapple and HMC Seeker; GPF in attendance assisting PIMs assistant; and deployment of FLO.
- Policy File 11130: Enquiries with Spanish counterparts to identify next of kin of the deceased, evidence gathering and establishing exact location of Incident.
- Policy File 11131: Consider resilience issues to secure PMB, GHA and NMH.
- Policy File 11132: Media strategy.
- Policy File 11133: Enquiries with WHSS, Port Authority and Tarifa Trafico.
- Policy File 11134: Consider ECHR implications and by extension the Gibraltar Constitution.
- Policy File 11135: Secure audio files from CAD and PMB appertaining to the Incident.

- Policy File 11136: Intrusive search of vessel through HMC.
- Policy File 11137: Obtain expert collision report.
- Policy File 11138: Enquiries with PMB.
- Policy File 11139: Expedite and facilitate repatriation of the bodies of the deceased.

The contents for each specific task is contained within Appendix 39.

9. Point (ix): Details of any conversations or other operational communications with Spanish law enforcement or other agencies and whether that led to any actual or tacit invitation to enter the Spanish Territorial Sea, providing exact details of such actual or tacit invitation, or the absences thereof.

a. The initial call which initiated the actions taken by the RGP crew of the Sir John Chapple, came from WHSS (Appendices 15, 20, 23, 30 refer). According to the call logs from the mobile telephone held by the RGP officers, this was at 0238 hrs on the 8th March 2020 (Appendix 23 refers). The officers were informed of a suspect vessel seen in the eastern side without navigational lights. The vessel was first spotted by the WHSS personnel at approximately 3 to 4 miles out of BGTW. WHSS personnel were then instructed to keep observations on the vessel.

b. Following this, the RGP crew contacted GC COS. According to the call logs, the first call to them prior to the actual chase, was at 0308 hrs. During the conversation, it was confirmed by the GC that they were monitoring the vessel. Officer One states that the GC informed that there was a large RHIB heading at speed towards land (Appendix 15 and 24 refer).

c. As a result of the observations being carried out by WHSS, on their thermal imaging cameras they observed the suspect vessel heading towards the Atunara Port, where they were met by a smaller vessel. This information was relayed to the RGP crew at about 0315 hrs (Appendix 20 refers).

d. According to Officer One, as the Sir John Chapple arrived at the eastern side, they received two further calls from the GC. This is captured on the call log as being at 0320 hrs and 0322 hrs (Appendix 23 refers). In the first of these two calls, they were informed by the GC that the suspect RHIB was by the breakwater at La Atunara carrying out what they believed to be a crew change and food resupply. The call that followed, according to Officer One, was for the RGP vessel to remain at their current position. He was then requested to head east (Appendix 15 refers).

e. The call logs show further calls being made to the RGP Marine Section mobile telephone by both WHSS and the GC (Appendix 23 refers).

f. Officer One reports that soon after the collision, the GC contacted him but he does not recall the conversation (Appendix 15 refers). The call logs show two calls at 0338:47 and 0339 hrs from the GC to the RGP crew (Appendix 23 refers). (NB. according to the marine expert's draft report, the collision between both vessels took place at around 0338:56 hrs (Appendix 19 refers)). Officer One advises that he received a call from the Gibraltar Port Authority but again does not recall the conversation.

g. According to WHSS personnel, they received a call from the RGP crew informing them of the collision and that there was a fatality and possibly another and that they were returning with the suspect RHIB on tow (Appendix 20 refers).

h. Following the incident, the GC contact point in Algeciras contacted the RGP requesting information, including the identity of the crewmembers on board the suspect RHIB. He was informed that as soon as they were in a position to provide the necessary information it would be supplied to them. Shortly after, an RGP contact officer was appointed and the GC were provided verbally with the identity of those concerned. Their assistance was requested in order to notify the next of kin of each of the deceased. The GC was also requested to provide information as to the vessel's positioning data and the previous convictions of the occupants on the suspect RHIB (Appendix 77 refers). An email followed from the RGP to the GC contact point, requesting once again any previous convictions, any existing GC incident report and the vessel radar positioning data. In relation to this, only the previous convictions were provided (Appendix 78 refers).

i. On the 9th March 2020, the GC contact point with the RGP was specifically asked if it had been the GC or the RGP who had initiated contact on the night in question in respect of the suspect RHIB. He replied that according to the information available to him, it was the RGP Marine Section who had contacted COS enquiring as to the RHIB. The RGP was informed by the contact point them, that the GC were already monitoring the vessel on their cameras (Appendix 24 refers).

j. On the 12th March 2020, following on from an SIO tasking (Appendix 81 refers) and in order to try and establish the location of the Incident, it was decided to enter Spanish waters with the authority of the GC COS on a RGP vessel and try and ascertain if there was radio and telephone coverage. A number of positions were tested surrounding the coordinates were the collision took place. Coverage was available on all locations, except on one of them were only emergency calls were able to be received or made. (Appendix 79 refers). Subsequently whilst this was taking place, the GC despite having granted authority previously, made contact with the RGP vessel and questioned their reasons for being in Spanish waters. An explanation was given to them and accepted. The RGP terminated their line of enquiry and returned to BGTW.

k. On the 16th March 2020, the GC contact officer informed the RGP that the vessel's positioning data would be supplied once available (Appendix 80 refer).

l. Notwithstanding the account of Officer One which indicates certain directions given to them by the GC, there is no evidence to suggest that there was any actual invitation to enter Spanish Territorial Waters. To accept such an invitation would contravene RGP instructions.

10. (a) Point (x): A statement (or copy if they are in printed or printable form) of what standing instructions are given to officers in respect of operations outside of BGTW.

(b) Point (xi): Copies of any such or any other relevant instructions or other standard operating procedures.
(c) Point (xii): Documentation or confirmation in writing of the instructions provided to officers of the Marine Section by senior management as to the procedures to be followed when suspects who are being chased inside BGTW fail to stop and exit BGTW and what position the RGP take or have taken (until the time of the incident) in respect of 'hot pursuit' from BGTW into International Waters, Spanish Territorial waters and / or into Moroccan Territorial Waters and on what basis and on what advice such a position , if any, has been taken. (It is essential for the Government to understand what training was provided to the officers in question in respect of their ensuring that they operated solely within the territorial limits of Gibraltar. I want to know what the RGP's standard operating procedures are in such instances).

a. [redacted]

c. In respect of drugs and human trafficking officers are to patrol BGTW and should officers encounter any suspect vessels then they will be pursued in a determined and safe manner within territorial waters and to liaise with the Spanish Authorities.

d. These instructions cover other such topics as incursions by Spanish state vessels, Search and Rescue operations, summer bathing season, health and safety and fishing vessels. (Appendix 82 refers).

e. On the 17th February 2016, officers were reminded via email of the extant instructions in relation to not patrolling outside BGTW other than in a search and rescue operation. Officers were also informed that the vessel in which the officers are carrying out patrols must have the Automatic Identification System (AIS) on at all times. This document can be found at Appendix 83.

f. On the 8th of July 2016, the Marine Section Instructions were updated and provided to the duty crew members. These instructions cover various topics concerned with carrying out duties within BGTW. (Appendix 84 refers). The instructions state that the objectives of any RGP marine crew are to only operate in British Gibraltar Territorial Waters (BGTW) and are to provide:

- Reassurance of beach users and legitimate seafarers.
- Prevention and detection of crime at sea and law enforcement.
- Support Royal Navy challenges to sovereignty.
- Support Environmental Agency operations.
- Support HM Customs and GDP Operations.

International Waters

Officers are not authorised to operate outside BGTW and in International Waters unless when responding to a situation as described below:

- Participating in a Search and Rescue Operation
- Responding to an incident where there is an imminent and serious risk to life.

Spanish Territorial Waters

Officers are not authorised to operate outside BGTW and in Spanish Waters unless when responding to a situation as described below:

- Participation in a search and rescue operation at the invitation of Spanish Authorities.

The instructions go on to cover such areas as the Rules of Engagement with Spanish Law Enforcement Vessels and Health Safety.

Marine Section Officers were again reminded of the policing instructions (issued on the 28th July 2016) by Sgt Stone on the 16th September 2019. These were followed up by an email from Ch Insp Finlayson to the Marine Section Insp and Sergeant on 21st January 2020. (Appendix 85).

Training

a. In [redacted] several officers from the marine section received training and qualified as instructors in boat handling. The bespoke course was endorsed by the Gibraltar Maritime Authority and its syllabus was designed for RGP and HMC marine section officers.

b. In March [redacted] RGP officers delivered this course to a number of RGP officers which included including Officer 1, to certified coxswain level. On successful completion of the course, the candidates would be able to satisfactorily operate twin engine and above RHIB's under law enforcement conditions in a manner which is deemed to be responsible and safe for the coxswains, crews and other users.

c. The course comprises various elements that are outlined in the documents provided to the candidates. These include theory and practical work as well as exam and practical assessment. It is designed around several scheduled mini courses, training days and in-house training during working hours. The course is not time specific and is dependent on the students learning capacity and time constraints placed by operational commitments.

d. Students complete a two day induction course which aims to acquaint the student with the different aspects of work involved in the safe operation of in and around RHIBs, provide an idea of the health and safety requirements and to allow the student to reach a competent level to work on power boats.

e. The student is then required to complete 30 hours of handling a small single engine vessel fitted with a lesser HP engine. The aim is for the student to obtain a decent working knowledge of how to operate a single engine RHIB which would include the approaching and leaving a berth and close quarters manoeuvring.

f. The candidate is then required to complete a further 60 hours on a larger vessel fitted with a fitted higher powered single engine. This will allow the student to observe how what he has learned previously affects a vessel with larger dimensions and engine capacity. The student will also begin to control a vessel with a more powerful engine and will learn how this affects handling in a safe manner.

g. The candidate will be assessed and progression form 1 will be completed, entering all the subjects undertaken with the use of single engine.

h. The student will then complete approximately 60 hours of handling a twin engine RHIB. The student should understand the use of twin engines and engine selection. Students to acquaint themselves with handling a more capable vessel, which possess more power whilst emphasizing its safe operation.

i. Towards the end of this stage the candidate will attend a scheduled training day for an introduction onto pacing. At the end of the stage the candidate will be assessed on progression assessment form 2 entering all the subjects undertaken.

j. The student will undertake a further 50 hours of handling a RHIB of two or more engines, during this stage the candidate should understand the use of several engines and how throttles control these during various manoeuvres. This vessel is much more powerful and should be part of the operational fleet. Practical lessons should also take place during day and night to further enhance the experience of the candidate. The student should continue another scheduled training day to continue the introduction to pacing.

k. The candidate will then proceed onto the final two week qualification course where prior to this stage they should be deemed to be sufficiently competent at handling a RHIB. The course will cover all aspects and material in depth in both practical and theory based lessons. Students will be tested and signed off on the different subjects as they successfully complete them. Candidates must prove to be competent in handling a RHIB at this advanced level of powerboating and be able to plan and navigate Gibraltar waters in different sea and weather conditions during the day and night. The designated assessor must complete the final assessment form.

l. The topics which are covered in two week final qualification course include:

Module 1 – Introduction to Marine Section and Vessel Familiarisation. This is a theory based lesson which allows students to obtain an understanding of their role within the marine section. To familiarise themselves with the type of vessels and equipment carried on board and their general maintenance.

Module 2 – Introduction to Marine Section and Vessel Familiarisation. This is a practical based lesson which allows students to obtain an understanding of their role within the marine section. To familiarise themselves with the type of vessels and equipment carried on board and their general maintenance.

Module 3 – Rope Work. This is both a theory and practical based lesson which enables the students to learn how to perform the different types of knots available and its correct use for different situations – mooring, anchoring, etc.

Module 4 – International Rules for Prevention of Collisions at Sea (IRPCS). This is a theory based lesson which aims for students to acknowledge the importance of observing safety at sea for themselves and other water users to prevent a collision at sea by understanding the rules of IRPCS.

Module 5 – Buoyage – International Association of Lighthouse Authorities (IALA). This is a theory based lesson which allows students to familiarise themselves with daytime and night-time buoyage signage and their different purposes.

Module 6 – Buoyage – International Association of Lighthouse Authorities (IALA). This is a practical based lesson which allows students to familiarise themselves with daytime and night-time buoyage signage and their different purposes whilst navigating.

Module 7 – Chart work and Navigation. This is both a theory and practical based lesson which provides for students to understand the terms used within a navigation chart to be able to interpret basic techniques in navigation.

Module 8 – Distress Signals. A theory and practical lesson which allows the students to understand the interpretation of each different types of distress signals and how to apply them should they find themselves is a dangerous situation.

Module 9 – RHIB Launch and Recovery – (Use of Trailer and Crane). A theory and practical lesson which is aimed for students to understand the importance of all safety features when launching and recovering RHIB from sea through means of a slipway and trailer or via lifting with a crane.

Module 10 – Controlled Handling Drills – Single Engine RHIB. This is a theory and practical based lesson for students to demonstrate a level of competence in controlled handling and slow speed precision manoeuvres of RHIB's in a confined space.

Module 11 – Rough Sea Passage. A theory based lesson which allows students to understand the importance of controlled speeds of RHIB's in varying weather/ sea conditions and their safety and all of others on board.

Module 12 – Rough Sea Passage. A practical lesson for students to demonstrate competency in the safe and controlled handling approach of RHIB's at various speeds in varying sea/ weather conditions. To develop an understanding of when to "Power On" and "Power Off".

Module 13 – Anchoring. Both a theory and practical based lesson for students to understand the correct use of anchor and anchor line depending on seabed and/ or weather conditions.

Module 14 – Man Overboard Manoeuvres & Casualty Rescue. A theory based lesson which teaches students the importance of safety of everyone on board a RHIB and of the consequent rescue approach and procedures should a casualty fall overboard from a moving RHIB.

Module 15 – Man Overboard Manoeuvres & Casualty Rescue. A practical lesson which requires the student to achieve an understanding of the procedures required to perform a man overboard rescue. Students to be able to demonstrate their competence in demonstrating the above.

Module 16 – Search and Rescue Patterns. A theory based lesson which requires the students to understand how to apply correct search and rescue pattern methods whilst observing own safety. Factors to consider i.e. weather conditions, number of casualties and communications with other agencies.

Module 17 – Search and Rescue Patterns. A practical based lesson which allows students to demonstrate their competence in the correct application of the different search and rescue pattern methods.

Module 18 – Controlled Handling Drills – Twin Engine RHIB. A theory and practical based lesson for students to demonstrate a level of competence in controlled handling and slow speed precision manoeuvres of RHIB's in a confined area.

Module 19 – Prisoner Handling. A theory and practical lesson which allows students to understand the importance of their own safety and that of prisoners when on board a RHIB.

Module 20 – Towing. A theory lesson which provides for students to understand the importance on towing methods in relation different types of vessels and emergency situations.

Module 21 – Towing. A practical based lesson for the students to demonstrate competency in the safe and controlled handling of different towing situations involving small crafts.

Module 22 – Climbing a Pilot Ladder. Both a theory and practical based lesson for students to understand the importance of all safety aspects when climbing a pilot ladder and dangers involved.

Module 23 Pacing Manoeuvres- A) Pacing Parallel B) Pacing Alongside. This is a theory based lesson for students to achieve and understanding of the skills required to perform pacing manoeuvres; parallel and alongside.

Module 24 Pacing Manoeuvres- A) Pacing Parallel B) Pacing Alongside. A practical lesson which allows students to demonstrate a safe handling of vessels when performing pacing manoeuvres in following areas; a) when performing the approach, b) parallel pacing of target vessel, c) coming alongside target vessel, d) departing target vessel.

Module 25 Helicopter SAR Recovery Operations. A theory based lesson which enables the student to demonstrate an understanding of safety aspects and the dangers involved during helicopter operations and the actions to be taken; a) prior to the helicopters arrival b) during the helicopters approach c) whilst recovering a casualty d) on the helicopters departure.

m. Upon completion of the course the officers are presented with their certificates relating to the different topics covered in the syllabus. These include RYA qualifications of Day Skipper/ Watch Leader and an RYA Radar Course, Personal Survival techniques, Fire Prevention and Fire Fighting, Personal Safety and Social Responsibilities, First Aid and Coxswain Certificates covering the different stages of the RHIB Handling Course. Redacted Copies of certificates presented to Officers One and Two are available (Appendices 86 and 87 refer respectively).

n. It should be noted that although there is no specific lesson plan for Fast Speed Handling, it is mentioned as part of the competency criteria and both officers were accredited with these qualifications as the certificates show. It is expected that this will be clarified by the Metropolitan Police investigation team when they interview the officers and trainers.

o. Officer 3 was only covering marine section duties on the night in question and had no prior marine experience. He has only received first aid training which forms part of the core RGP syllabus prior to commencement of operational duties (Appendix 88 refers).

p. The instructors keep the training manual of students, which shows that the officers have been signed off in the relevant sections required to complete the course.

q. The manual for Officer Two is included as Appendix 89 however the record for officer one cannot be located as it has been removed by some person(s) fro the marine section filing system. That said, there is evidence that he has passed these courses by the production of the certificates (see Appendix 86).

r. Officer One has stated he had no hot pursuit training and this was repeated by Capt. MEIKLE in his report. We have asked the Captain what course he was referring to and that would capture hot pursuit training. Capt. MEIKLE was unable to answer this as he did not know. The officers from the Metropolitan Police Service have been written to, asking them to consider looking into this area. It could well be that our local training course captured this area either in the pacing or fast speed handling competency area that is recorded in the manual. They would need to approach our trainers if they have not already done so.

Point (xiii): Alternatively, an explanation of why no such position has been taken, given the prevalence of such activities.
Answer: Not applicable. (See answers for Points (x), (xi) and (xii)).

11. Point (xiv): What assessment senior management have made of such operations occurring, in particular where there is not an express invitation from another police force (whether that is the Spanish police force or the Moroccan police force) for operations to continue outside of BGTW in Spanish Territorial Waters, International Waters or Moroccan Territorial Waters. (The Government is very concerned to understand what the Senior Management Team of the RGP has done in respect of continued incidents of operations outside of BGTW before the events in questions and thereafter, in particular if there has been any change in standing instructions or posture as a result).

    a. [redacted]

    b. Since 2016 the RGP do not authorize any deployment outside BGTW including at the request of a foreign LEA.

    c. The only exception would be to assist the Gibraltar Port Authority in a search and rescue operation.

    d. To date, there have been many instances where we have undertaken chases out at sea and within BGTW. The moment the pursued vessel departs our waters we have disengaged allowing the vessel to escape.

    e. We have also monitored many vessels passing outside our jurisdiction without us being involved, we have solely shadowed them from within our limits and deterred them from coming into our jurisdiction.

12. Point (xv): Any other relevant information, reports or documents (whether existing in documentary, printed or digital form) which the RGP consider the Government should have available in considering the facts and matters which arise from the Incident and planning to address the same in the Public Interest of Gibraltar.

    A timeline and supporting documentation including list of appendices have been included.

On the 11th May 2020, it was brought to my notice that a Spanish Parliamentary question had been asked by VOX and responded to by Government. I emailed you, the AG and MOJ advising you of this.

Toxicology results have been received for the deceased [redacted] on 27th May 2020. These have been forwarded to the forensic pathologists. The results suggests no recent use of cannabis. the toxicology report for the deceased [redacted] are not expected until the 10th of June 2020.

You will have noted that in this report I have referred to the RGP crew as Officers one, two and three. However, because of the limited time to produce this report for you, I have been unable to redact any reference to their identities in the appendices. I would therefore respectfully ask that you bear this in mind when handling these documents with a view to continue safeguarding their anonymity.

Whilst the above points are factual and I hope will satisfy the requirements you asked of me, we are still awaiting the final report and/or further actions from the independent team and marine expert. The latter's conclusive report is expected around mid June 2020.

Should any points in this report require further explanations, I will endeavour to provide them.

Yours sincerely

Ian McGrail OTM MSc

1.	07/03/2020	2200hrs	Officers 1, 2 & 3 parade for duty at New Mole House Police Station where they are briefed as to their deployment and subsequently return to GGMS. They deployed on the Sir John Chapple to Ocean village where the officers carry out foot patrols of the Marina area.	(Can be found in appendix 15,16 & 17) officers Statements).
2.	08/03/2020	0200hrs	Afternoon (P) Shift Marine Crew terminated their tour of duty.	(Can be found in appendix 15,16 & 17) officers Statements).
3.	08/03/2020	0200hrs	WHSS observes suspect RHIB on Thermal Camera however it is too far away to identify the vessel. It is suspected that the vessel id 3-4 Nautical Miles out of BGTW.	Daniel Ferro mentions this in his statement (appendix 20)
4.	08/03/2020	0235hrs	Suspect RHIB heads towards the Spanish Port of La Atunara, La Linea, from its position of 11 nautical miles to the east.	Solis Draft Report based on data obtained from suspect RHIB navigational equipment (Appendix 19). Daniel Ferro states that at 0250hrs he sees vessel heading towards Spanish mainland (appendix 20)
5.	08/03/2020	0238hrs	Call from WHSS to RGP PMB Mobile phone. Officer 1 answers phone and receives report of a suspect RHIB seen on the eastern side approximately 3 to 4 miles out of BGTW. Call 1 02:38:02 (Duration 1:21) Call 2 02:39:12 (Duration 1:21)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23)
6.	08/03/2020	0306hrs	PMB Calls WHSS. (Duration of call 1:47)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23)
7.	08/03/2020	0308hrs	Officer One contacts Guardia Civil COS informing them about the information received from WHSS during which time the GC confirm they were monitoring the vessel. (Duration 01:32)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23)
8.	08/03/2020	0309hrs	Officer One contacts WHSS and confirms that GC are monitoring suspect RHIB and RGP Crew will deploy to Eastern Side of Gibraltar. AIS device not activated. (Duration 00:50)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23). Daniel Ferro confirms the call to WHSS however he puts the time "at about" 0300hrs (Appendix 20). GDP PC Kilpatrick also provides the time frame of "at about" 0300hrs (Appendix 30)

9.	08/03/2020	0315hrs	WHSS on their cameras observe suspect RHIB heading towards Atunara Port where they were met by a smaller vessel. Information relayed to the RGP crew. Call 1 03:11:36 (00:17) Call 2 03:12:47 (00:17) Call 3 03:15:27 (00:18) Call 4 06:16:38 (00:18)	Mentioned in statements of Daniel Ferro and GDP PC Kilpatrick. On Officer 1 being informed of the observations, he confirms to WHSS that GC are keeping him informed (Appendices 20 & 30). The Gibtelecom logs for the PMB mobile shows four calls originating from 20055000. (Appendix 23) these are MOD telephone numbers which although suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers. It could not be established which one of the calls the info was relayed. No mentions are made by any officers in their statements of the numerous calls made to PMB mobile during this time frame. This information is reflected in the Solis Report this provides a time of 0316hrs (Appendix 19).
10.	08/03/2020	0320hrs	GC Contacts PMB, as they arrive at Eastern Side. Informs crew that the suspect RHIB was by the breakwater at Atunara Port carrying out what they believed to be a crew change and food re-supply and advises PMB to head east. (Duration 46sec)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23)
11.	08/03/2020	0322hrs	GC Contact PMB and informed RGP vessel to remain at their current position as the Suspect RHIB is heading towards them. (Duration 46 Sec)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23)
12.	08/03/2020	0326hrs	Suspect RHIB with four crew on board, depart the Port of Atunara and heads initially north and then onto a north easterly heading away from the Spanish Coast.	Solis Draft Report based on data obtained from suspect RHIB navigational equipment (Appendix 19). Daniel Ferro & GDP PC Alan Kilpatrick's statements (Appendices 20 & 30) put this event at about 0330hrs.

13.	08/03/2020	0324hrs – 0325hrs	Three calls made to PMB by WHSS. 1. 03:24:08 (36 Sec) 2. 03:25:19 (36 sec) 3. 03:25:22 (16 sec)	There is no mention of these calls in the officers' statements. The details of these calls have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23). The Gibtelecom logs for the PMB mobile shows three calls originating from 20055000. These are MOD telephone numbers which although suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers.
14.	08/03/2020	0325hrs	Three calls made by GC COS to PMB Mobile. 1. 03:25:26 (No Duration) 2. 03:25:37 (No Duration) 3. 03:25:48 (No Duration)	According to the call logs (Appendix 23) these show no duration to the calls. It may be that the officer never answered the phone at this stage. The officers also make no mention of this in their statements.
15.	08/03/2020	0326hrs	(03:26:15) Call made by WHSS to PMB (Duration 14 Sec)	There is no mention of this call in the officer's statements (Both RGP and WHSS). The details of these calls have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23). The Gibtelecom logs for the PMB mobile shows one call originating from 20055000. This is an MOD telephone number which although is suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers.
16.	08/03/2020	0326hrs	(03:26:17) GC COS calls PMB (No Duration)	There is no mention of this call in the officer's statements. The details of this call have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23).
17.	08/03/2020	0326hrs	(03:26:33) Call made by WHSS to PMB Duration 16 secs	There is no mention of this call in the officer's statements (Both RGP and WHSS). The details of these calls have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23). The Gibtelecom logs for the PMB mobile shows one call originating from 20055000. This is an MOD telephone number which although is suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers.

18.	08/03/2020	0326hrs	3 Calls made from GC COS to PMB at the following times: 03:26:37 No Duration 03:26:48 No Duration 03:26:59 No Duration	There is no mention of this call in the officer's statements. The details of this calls have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23). There is not duration to call.
19.	08/03/2020	0327hrs – 0339hrs	Calls made from GC COS to PMB at the following times: 03:27:12 20 Secs 03:27:25 15 secs 03:27:28 (No Duration) 03:28:22 20 secs 03:38:16 14 secs 03:39:27 14 secs	There is no mention of this call in the officer's statements. The details of this calls have been obtained from the call log (Appendix 23). There is not duration to call. The two calls at the end of the list are close to the time of the collision 03:38:56 according to the SOLIS draft report (Appendix 19).
20.	08/03/2020	0329hrs	The Sir John Chapple intercepts the Suspect RHIB at Coordinates 36° 11.7'N 005° 18.1'W. Blue beacons activated on PMB. Suspect RHIB performs evasive and dangerous manoeuvres and objects were thrown at Police Vessel by suspect RHIB crew members.	The coordinates and timings are provided from the SOLIS draft report which has been obtained from the suspect RHIB's navigational equipment (Appendix 19). According to WHSS the intercept occurs at 0332hrs (Appendix 20, 30 & 74). According to officer 1, PMB commenced to follow the suspect RHIB after the suspect RHIB passed in front of the bow of the PMB at a distance of about 5-10metres (Appendices 15, 16 & 17). This contradicts the direction of the suspect RHIB as Meikle's report evidences. Officer one states the vessel is travelling south east and officer three states it was travelling south. WHSS also state that they can observe PMB blue beacon illuminated during the chase. This was also confirmed by the PMB officers and Bruno Miguel Gomes Sereno (one of the persons arrested). During the course of the pursuit crew members from the suspect RHIB began to throw objects at the PMB according to the statements from the PMB officers. It has also been noted in the officers' statements and the statements obtained from WHSS that the suspect RHIB carried out erratic and evasive manoeuvres. In the SOLIS report these movements are described as sharp turns.

21.	08/03/2020	0338hrs	According to the marine expert, the collision occurred at around 03:38:56, in position 36° 09.96' N 005° 12.51' W	Initially we are provided similar coordinates by the GC as a result of a telephone call made by DI Chipolina (DI Chipolina File note) Subsequently we photographed the suspect RHIB's radar signal lost screen and this provides us with a suspected collision coordinate but we could not interpret this data as we did not have an understanding of the unit and had no expertise in this field. This was subsequently verified by Capt. Meikle in his SOLIS draft report. (Appendix 19). According to WHSS the pursuit ends at 0342hrs (Appendix 20, 30 & 74). Thermal imagery The officers' statements also make reference to the collision and end of the pursuit but they do not provide a time and location.
22.	08/03/2020		Immediately after the collision PMB turns to the suspect RHIB and comes alongside. Officers 1 & 2 jump onto the suspect RHIB and begin to offer medical assistance, after observing the fatality and the seriousness of the second casualty it was decided to convey the persons back to GGMS via towing the suspect RHIB where they could receive medical attention.	These accounts are from officers 1, 2 & 3 (appendices 15, 16 & 17). The decision to not leave any officer on board the suspect RHIB was taken by officer one as he feared for their safety and also taking into account that he and his crew were suffering from shock. There is no mention of calling a May Day by the officers.
23.	08/03/2020	0339hrs	PMB call GC COS at 03:39 (duration 15 seconds)	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23).
24.	08/03/2020	0343hrs	PMB calls WHSS and informs them of the collision with one fatality and a second person seriously injured. Duration 1:10	Officer's 1 statement (Appendix 15) does not provide a specific time for this event and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23). None of the officer's mention calling a May day and this is evidenced in the Solis report. This is also reflected in Daniel Ferro and GDP PC Kilpatrick's Statements (Appendix 20 & 30).

25.	08/03/2020	0345hrs	PMB calls GC COS. The duration of this call is about 44 seconds; however the contents of the conversation is unknown.	There is no Specific mention of this Call by officer 1 however it has been identified from the Gibtelecom call logs (Appendix 23). Officer 1 states in his statement that he receives a call (contrary to the telephone log) from the GC COS. He further states that he cannot recall the conversation, he just remembers this being about "something to do with "la Roca" or "enfrente la Roca" (Appendix 15).
26.	08/03/2020	0346hrs	Sir John Chapple heads back to Gibraltar with suspect RHIB on tow.	This time has been identified by the SOLIS Draft Report (Appendix 19). Officer one's statement makes mention to suffering engine failure following the collision (Appendix 15) along
27.	08/03/2020	0348hrs	PMB calls RGP NMH and informs the duty crown sergeant of the incident and one fatality with a second seriously injured and request ambulance to await arrival at GGMS. Duration 2:24	Although the officer does not make mention of the time, the information in this section is obtained from officer 1's statement (Appendix 15). The time of the call has been retrieved from the Gibtelecom phone logs (Appendix 23). The Police CAD Logs and PC 117 Fortunato provide a time of 0345hrs (Appendix 64 & 27). PS Stone states that he was passed the phone call about 0400hrs (Appendix 28). Officer one explains to PS Stone that they had been involved in a chase of a smuggling RHIB approximately 3 miles off Europa Point. This is mentioned in the CAD log (Appendix 64). This also explains Officer 1's rationale as to why he did not want to leave an officer aboard the suspect RHIB in case further medical attention was required.

28.	08/03/2020	0350hrs	PS 6 Stone contacts Duty Officer, (Insp Lutkin) and informs him of the incident. Inspector Returning to duty and attending Marine Base.	PS Stone's (Appendix 28) statement does not provide a time that he informed the Duty Inspector, however the time presented is taken from the notes made in the CAD Log (Appendix 64). Inspector Lutkin's statement (Appendix 58) states that he received a call "at about" 0345hrs.
29.	08/03/2020	0353hrs	DCI Field (Gold Command on call) is called by Inspector Lutkin and informed of Incident	These details are from DCI Field's Notes
30.	08/03/2020	0353hrs	PS Stone contacts DC 136 Victory (CSI) and informed him of situation.	This is from the CAD Log (Appendix 64).
31.	08/03/2020	0355hrs 0356hrs	2x calls made from WHSS to PMB, 1. 03:55:19 (1:10) 2. 03:56:30 (1:10)	There is no mention of these calls in anyone's statements and the time is based on the call log from Gibtelecom (Appendix 23). The Gibtelecom logs for the PMB mobile shows the calls originating from 20055000. This is an MOD telephone number which although is suspected to refer to calls from WHSS, this cannot be confirmed as they could be MOD exchange numbers.
32.	08/03/2020	0355hrs	GPF Chairman is contacted by PMB over the incident.	DCI Field notes
33.	08/03/2020	0356hrs	Call made from PMB to WHSS the duration of this call was 1:11.	There are no details of this call in any officers statements but a call is reflected in Daniel Ferro & GDP PC Kilpatrick's Statements around 0350hrs (Appendices 20 & 30). This could also be reflected in serial number 22.
34.	08/03/2020	0357hrs	There are a total of four calls made from NMH to PMB: 03:57:55 (no duration) 03:59:06 (no duration) 03:59:45 (1:59) 04:00:56 (1:59)	There is no mention of these calls on the CadLog (Appendix 64). We do not have any details of call but In the statement of PS Stone (Appendix 28) the Crown Sgt contacts PMB, Officer 1 states that he was encountering engine failure and requests for assistance from HM Customs marine unit to deploy and help convey the injured back to GGMS to receive medical treatment.

				The details of these calls come from the Gibtelecom logs (Appendix 23).
35.	08/03/2020	0357hrs	PS Stone contacts DS Garratt (Crime on Call) and apprised of situation.	This is from the CAD Log (Appendix 64).
36.	08/03/2020	0400hrs	The Port VTS Supervisor on duty Iain Undery receives a call from Tarifa Traffic where he was informed that they had received a call from an unknown person reporting that there had been a serious incident at sea just off the port of Atunara. As a result of this, Undery contacted PMB and informed him of the report made to him. To this the PMB crew confirm that there had been an incident and they had the vessel on tow.	This is reflected in the statement of Iain Undery (Appendix 29). Officer 1 states that he receives a call from the Port Boarding officer but does not recall the conversation (Appendix 15). The Gibtelecom log (Appendix 23) does not reflect an incoming call from the Port Authority. It does show an outgoing call to Port Boarding officer from PMB at 0413hrs.
